The. x. Chapter.

1 The battayle of Saul agaynst the Philistines. 4 In which he dyeth. 5 And his sonnes also. 13 The cause of Sauls death.

A AND the Philistines fought against Israel, and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines, and were ouerthrowen and wounded in mount Gilboa. 2 And the Philistines folowed after Saul and his sonnes, and the Philistines smote Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchisua the sonnes of Saul. 3 And the battayle went sore agaynst Saul, and the archers * founde him, and he was wounded of shooters. 4 Then sayde Saul to his harnesse bearer, Drawe thy sword, and thrust me through therewith, that these vncircumcised come not and do me shame. But his harnesse bearer would not, for he feared exceedingly: So Saul caught a sword, and fell vpon it. 5 And when his harnesse bearer sawe that Saul was dead, he fell on a sword also and dyed.
6 And thus Saul and his three sonnes and all they of his house dyed together. 7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley sawe howe they fled, and that Saul and his sonnes were dead, they forsoke theyr cities, and ran away: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.
8 And on the morowe when the Philistines came to strip the dead bodies, they founde Saul and his sonnes ouerthrowen in mount Gilboa. 9 And when they had stript him, they tooke his head and his harnesse, and sent them into the lande of the Philistines round about, to shewe them vnto theyr idols, and to the people. 10 And they put his harnesse in the house of theyr god, and set vp his head in the temple (a) of Dagon. 11 And when al they of Jabes (in) Gilead hearde all that the Philistines had done to Saul:
12 They arose all the stronget of them, and fet away the body of Saul, and the bodyes of his sonnes, and brought them to Jabes, and buried the bones of them vnder an oke in Jabes, and fasted seuen dayes. 13 So Saul dyed for his trespalle that he trespalled agaynst the Lorde, in that he kept not the word of the Lorde, and in that he sought and asked counsayle of a woman that wrought with a spirite:
14 And asked not of the Lorde, and therefore he slue hym, and turned the kyngdome vnto Dauid the sonne of Jsai.

The. xi. Chapter.

3 The Iebusites rebell agaynst Dauid, from whom he taketh the towre of Sion.

THen all Israel gathered them selues to Dauid vnto Hebron, saying, 2 Beholde we be thy bones, and thy flesh: and moreouer in time past, euen when Saul was kyng, thou leddest Israel out and in: and the Lorde thy God sayde vnto thee, Thou shalt feede my people Israel, and thou shalt be captayne ouer my people Israel. 3 Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the kyng to Hebron, and Dauid

5 And the inhabiters of Jebus sayde to Dauid, Thou commest not in here. Neuertheleſſe, Dauid wan the caſtell of Sion: whiche is called the citie of 2.Sam.b.b. Dauid. 6 And Dauid sayde, Whoſoeuer ſmyteth the Jebusites firſt, shalbe the principall captayne, and a lorde. So Joab the ſonne of Zarum went firſt vp, and was made the cheefe captayne. 7 And Dauid dwelt in the caſtell (Sion) and therefore they called it the citie of Dauid. 8 And he built the citie on euery ſyde euen from Millo rounde about: and Joab repayred the reſt of the citie. 9 And Dauid proſpered, and waxed great, and the lord of hoaſtes was with him. 10 These are
2.Sa.23.a. the principall men of power whom Dauid had, and that claue to hym in his kingdome with all Israel to make him king, according to the word of the Lorde ouer Israel. 11 And this is the number of the mightie men whom Dauid had: Joſobeam the ſonne of Wachmoni the cheefe among thirtie: he lift vp his ſpeare againſt three hundred, and wounded (them) at one tyme.
12 After him was Eleazar his vncles ſonne an Ahothite, whiche was one of C the three mightieſt. 13 He was with Dauid at Paſdammim, and there the Philiſtines were gathered together to battaile: and there was there a parcell of grounde full of barley, and the people fled before the Philiſtines.
14 And they ſtept foorth into the middeſt of the feelde, and ſaued it, and ſlue the Philiſtines, and the Lorde gaue a great victorie. 15 And the three of the thirtie cheefe captaynes went to a roche to Dauid, into the caue Adullam: and the hoaſt of the Philiſtines abode in the valley of Rephaim. 16 And when Dauid was in the holde, the Philiſtines watch was
2.Sa.23.e. at Bethlehem that ſame time. 17 And Dauid longed, and ſayde, Oh that one woulde geue me drynke of the water of the well that is at the gate at Bethlehem. 18 And the three* brake through the hoaſt of the Philiſtines, and drewe water out of the well that was by the gate at Bethlehem, and tooke it, and brought it to Dauid: neuertheleſſe Dauid wouldе not drynke of it, but rather offred it to the Lorde, 19 And ſayde, my God forbyd it me that I ſhoulde do this thyng: Shall I drynke the (a) blood of theſe men, that haue put their lyues in iopardie? for with the iopardie of their lyues they brought it: therefore he woulde not drynke it. And this dyd theſe three mightieſt. 20 And Abiſai the brother of Joab, he alſo was captayne among three: For he lift vp his ſpeare againſt three hundred, and wounded them, and had a name among the three: 21 Yea among three, he was more honorable then the two, for he was their captaine: howbeit, he attayned not to the (firſt) three. 22 Banaia the ſonne of Jehoiada, the ſonne of a very ſtrong man, which had done many actes, of Cabzeel, he ſlue two ſtrong (lions) of Moab, and went downe and ſlue a lion in a pit in time of ſnowe. 23 And he ſlue an Egyptian, whoſe ſtature was fiue cubites long, and in the Egyptians hand was a ſpeare like a weauers beame: And the other went downe to hym with a waſter, and pluckеd the ſpeare out of the Egyptians hand, and ſlue hym with his owne ſpeare.
24 Suche thynges dyd Banaia the ſonne of Jehoiada, and had the name
E among the three mightieſt, 25 And was honorable among thirtie: but attaynes not vnto the (firſt) three: and Dauid made hym of his counſayle.

The .xii. Chapter.

1 What they were that went with Dauid when he fled from Saul. 23 What they were that came vnto him vnto Hebron out of euery tribe to make hym kyng.

A These are they that came to Dauid to Ziklag whyle he yet kept hym ſelfe cloſe becauſe of Saul the sonne of Cis: and they were very ſtrong helpers in battayle, 2 They were weaponed with bowes, and Iud.20.c. coulde hurle ſtones with the ryght hande and with the left, and ſhoote arrowes out of a bowe, and were of Sauls brethren, euen of Beniamin.
3 The cheefeſt were Ahiezer and Joas the sonnes of Samaa a Gibeonite, and Jeziel and Pelet the sonnes of Aſmaueth, and Beracah and Jehu the Anathothite. 4 And Iſmaia a Gibeonite, a mightie man among thirtie, and maze then the thirtie: Jeremia, Jehaziel, Johanan, and Joſabad of Gedor. 5 Eleuſai, Jerimoth, Bealia, Semaria, and Saphatia, the Haruphites. 6 Elcana, Jeſia, Azarael, B Joezer, Joſebeam, Corahites. 7 Joela and Zebadiah the sonnes of Jeroam of Gedor. 8 And of the Gadites there ſeparated them ſelues vnto Dauid into the holde of the wylderneſſe, men of myght and men apt for the warre, and that could handle ſhielde and ſpeare, whoſe faces were lyke the faces of (a) lions, (a) Meaning fierce and terrible. and they were as ſwyft as the Roes in the mountaynes. 9 Ezer the firſte, Obadia the ſeconde, and Eliab the thirde, 10 Maſmana the fourth, Jeremia the fifth, 11 Atthai the firſt, Eliel the ſeuenth, 12 Johanan the eyght, Elſabad the ninth, 13 Jeremia the tenth, and Machbanai the eleuenth. 14 Theſe were of the ſonnes of Gad, and were captaynes ouer the men of warre: one of the leaſt coulde reſiſt an hundred, and the greateſt a thouſande. 15 Theſe are they that C went ouer Jordane in the (b) firſt moneth when he had fylled ouer all his bankes, and they put to flight all them of the valley both towarde the eaſt and weſt. 16 And there came of the children of Beniamin and Juda to the holde vnto Dauid. 17 And Dauid went out to meete them, and aunſwered, and ſayde vnto them, yf ye be come peaceably vnto me to helpe me, myne heart ſhalbe knyt vnto you: but yf you come to betraye me to mine aduerſaries, ſeeyng there is no wyckednеſſe in myne handes, the God of our fathers looke theron, and rebuke it. 18 And the (c) ſpirite came vpon Amaſai, whiche was the cheefe among thirtie, and ſayde, Thine are we Dauid, and on thy ſyde thou ſonne of Iſai: Peace, peace be vnto thee, and peace be to thy helpers, for thy God is thyne helpe. Then Dauid receaued them, and made them heades of companies of the men of warre. 19 And there fell ſome of Manaſſe to Dauid, when he came with the Philiſtines againſt Saul to battaile, but they helped them not: for the lordes of the Philiſtines 1.Sam.29. tooke aduiſement, and ſent hym away againe, ſaying, He will fall to his maiſter Saul to the ieopardie of our heades. 20 As he went to Ziklag, there fell to hym of Manaſſe, Adna, Jozabad, Jediel, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zilthai, heades of the thouſandes that were of Manaſſe. 21 And they holpe Dauid againſt (d) the rouers: for they were all myghtie men of warre, and captaynes in the hoaſte.
22 For at that tyme there came one or other to Dauid day by day to helpe hym, vntyll it was a great hoaſt, lyke the hoaſt of God. 23 And theſe is the number of the cheefe captaynes that were prepared to battaile, and came to Dauid to Hebron, to turne the kingdome of Saul to hym accordyng to the worde of the Lorde.
24 The children of Juda that bare ſhielde and ſpeare, were ſixe thouſande and and eyght hundzed redy prepared to the warre. 25 Of the chyldren of Simeon men of might to warre, seuen thousande and one hundzed. 26 Of the chyldren of Leui, foure thousande and sixe hundzed. 27 And Iehoiada was the cheefe of them of(e) Aaron, F with hym three thousande and seuen hundzed. 28 And Zadoc a yonng man strong and valiant, and of his fathers houshold twentie and two captaynes.

29 And of the chyldren of Beniamin the brother of Saul three thousande: and a great part of them bid vnto that time folowe the house of Saul.

30 And of the chyldren of Ephraim, twentie thousande and eyght hundzed, mightie men of warre, and famous men in the houshold of theyr fathers.

31 And of the halfe tribe of Manasse, eyghteene thousande whiche were appoynted by name to come and make Dauid king. 32 And of the chyldren of Isachar, which were men that had vnderstanding of the times, to knowe what Israel ought to do, the heades of them were two hundzed: and all theyr brethren were at their wyll.

33 And of Zabulon whiche went out to battayle: expert in warre and in all instrumentes of warre, fiftie thousand, which coulde set the battaile in a raye, they were not of double heart.

34 And of Nephthali a thousand captaines, and with them with shield and speare thirtie and seuen thousande.

35 And of Dan expert in battayle, twentie and eyght thousande and syxe hundzed. 36 And of Aser that went out to the warre and kept the forefront of the battaile fourtie thousand.

37 And of the other side of Iordane, of the Rubenites, and Gadites, and of the halfe tribe of Manasse, with all maner of instrumentes of warre, an hundzed and twentie thousande.

38 (f)All these were men of warre, keping the forefront of the battayle (and) with perfect heart came to Hebzon to make Dauid king ouer all Israel: and all the rest of Israel was of one accorde to make Dauid kyng. 39 And there they were with Dauid three dayes eatyng and drynkyng: for theyr brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreouer they that were nye them, euen vnto Isachar, Zabulon, and Nephthali, brought bread on asses, cammels, mules, and oxen, and meate, flowre, figges, reasinges, wine, and oyle, oxen, and sheepe abundauntly: for there was ioy in Israel.

(a) Because of Gods promise made to the people of Israel.

3 And Dauid toke yet mo wyues at Hierusalem, and begat mo sonnes and daughters. 4 These are the names of his children whiche were borne vnto him at Hierusalem: Samua, Sobab, Nathan and Solomon, 5 Ibhar, Elisua, and Elipheiet, 6 Noga, Nepheg, and Japhia, 7 Elisama, Beeliads, and Eliphalet. 8 And when the Philistines hearde that Dauid was annoynted kyng vpon all Israel, all the Philistines went vp to seeke Dauid: and Dauid hearde of it, and went out agaynst them. 9 And the Philistines came in and spread them selues thrugh the valley of Rephaim.

10 And Dauid (b) asked counsayle at God, saying, Shall I go agaynst the Philistines? and wylt thou delyuer them into myne hande? 11 And the Lorde saide vnto him, Go vp: for I will deliuer them into thyne hande. And so they came vp to Baal Perazim, and Dauid smote them there, and Dauid sayde, God hath diuided myne enemies with myne hand, as a man would diuide water: And therfore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim. 12 And when they had left their gods there, Dauid gaue a commaundement, & they were burnt with fire. 13 And the Philistines came together agayne, and "rusched into the valley. 14 And Dauid asked againe at God, and God saide to hym, Go not vp after them, but turne away from them, that thou mayest come vpon them ouer agaynst the mulberie trees. 15 And when thou hearest a sounde go in the toppes of the mulberie trees, then go out to battayle: for God is gone foorth before thee, to smyte the hoast of the Philistines.

4 Hanon kyng of the chyldren of Ammon doth great iniuries to the seruauntes of Dauid, 6 He prepareth an armie agaynst Dauid, 15 and is ouercome.

2.Sam.x.a

AFter this Nahas the kyng of the chyldren of Ammon dyed, and his sonne raigned in his steade.

2 And Dauid sayde, I wyl shew kindnesse vnto Hanon the sonne of Nahas, because his (a) father dealt kindly with me. And Dauid sent messengers to comfort him ouer the death of his father: and the seruauntes of Dauid came into the lande of the chyldren of Ammon to Hanon to comfort him. 3 But the lordes of the chyldren of Ammon sayd to Hanon, Thinkest thou that Dauid doth honour thy father in thy sight, that he hath sent comforters vnto thee? Are not his seruauntes come to (b) search, to loke, and espie out the lande? 4 Wherfore Hanon toke Dauids seruauntes, and (c) shaued them, and cut of their coates harde by their buttockes, & sent them away. 5 And there went certayne and tolde Dauid howe the men were serued: and the kyng sent to meete them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the king sayde, Tary at Jericho vntyll your beardes be growen, and then returne. 6 And when the chyldren of Ammon sawe that they stanke in the sight of Dauid, Hanon and the chyldren of Ammon sent a thousande talentes of syluer to hyre them charets & horsmen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria Maacha, and out of Zoba. 7 And they hyred thirtie and two thousande charets, and the king of Maacha and his people: whiche came and pitched before Medeba: and the chyldren of Ammon gathered them selues together from their cities, and came to battell.

8 And when Dauid hearde of it, he sent Joab and all the hoast of strong men. 9 And the chyldren of Ammon came out, and put them selues in aray to battell before the gate of the citie: and the kinges that were come, kept them by them selues backe in the feelde. 10 When Joab also sawe that the fronte of the battaile was agaynst him before & behinde, he chose out of al the chosen men of Israel, and put them in aray agaynst the Syrians. 11 And the rest of the people he deliuered vnto the hand of Abisai his brother, and they put them selues in aray agaynst the chyldren of Ammon.

12 And he sayde, If the Syrians be to strong for me, thou shalt succour me, and yf the chyldren of Ammon preuayle agaynst thee, I wyll helpe thee. 13 Plucke vp thyne heart, and let vs play the men for our peoples sake, and for the cities of our God: and the Lorde shall do that whiche is good in his owne sight. 14 So Joab and the people that were with him drue nye before the Syrians vnto the battaile: and they fled before him.

15 And when the chyldren of Ammon sawe that the Syrians were fled, they ranne away lykewyse before Abisai his brother, and gat them into the citie: and Joab came to Hierusalem.

16 And when the Syrians sawe that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers and fet out the Syrians that were beyonde the riuer: Sophach the captayne of the hoast of Hadarezer went before them. 17 And it was tolde Dauid: and he gathered all Israel, and went together ouer Jordane, and came and set vpon them: and when Dauid had put him selfe in aray agaynst the Syrians, they fought with him. 18 But the Syrians fled before Israel, and Dauid destroyed of the Syrians seuen thousande charets, and fourtie thousande footemen, and killed Sophach the captayne of the hoast. 19 And when the seruauntes of Hadarezer

A 2.Sam.14.a

AND Satan stoode vp agaynst Israel, and prouoked Dauid to number Israel. 2 And Dauid saide to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go ye, and number Israel from Beersheba to Dan: and bring it to me, that I may knowe the number of them.

3 And Joab answered, The Lorde make his people an hundred tymes so many mo as they be: but my lorde, O king, are they not all my lordes seruauntes? why then doth my lorde require this thing? why wyll my lorde be a cause of (a) trespasse to Israel?

4 Neuertheless the kinges worde preuailed agaynst Joab: and Joab departed, & walked throughout all them of Israel, and came to Hierusalem agayne. 5 And gaue the summe of the number of the people vnto Dauid: and al they of Israel were a thousand thousande and an hundred thousande men that drue sworde: and Juda was foure hundred threescore & ten thousande men that drue sworde. 6 But the Leuites and Beniamin counted he not among them: for the kinges worde was abhominable to Joab.

(a) Dauid offended in numbring the people, partly because he dyd it of ambition, but chiefly for that he payed not to the vse of the temple: for euery one numbred halfe a sicle accordyng to the lawe. Exod.30. 2.Sam.24. vers.9.

7 And the Lord was displeased with this thyng, and smote Israel. 8 And Dauid sayde vnto God, I haue sinned exceedyngly in doyng this thyng: and nowe I beseche thee do away the wickednesse of thy seruaunt, for I haue done very foolishly. 9 And the Lord spake vnto Gad Dauids " Seer, saying, 10 Go and tell Dauid, saying, Thus sayth the Lorde, I geue thee the choyse of three thinges: choose the one of them that I may do vnto thee. 11 And Gad came to Dauid, and sayde vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord, Choose thee 12 Either three yeres famyne, or three monethes to be destroyed before thine aduersaries, and that the sworde of thyne enemies may ouertake thee: or els the sworde of the Lorde and pestilence in the land three dayes, and the angel of the Lord destroying throughout all the coastes of Israel: and nowe aduise thy selfe what worde I shall bryng agayne to him that sent me. 16 And Dauid lyft vp his eyes, and sawe the angell of the Lorde stand betweene the earth and heauen, hauyng a drawen swoorde in his hande, stretched out toward Hierusalem: then Dauid and the elders of Israel which were clothed in sacke, fell vpon their faces, 17 And Dauid sayde vnto god, Is it not I that commaunded the people to be numbred? It is I that haue sinned and done cuyll in deede: and what haue these sheepe done? Let thyne hande O Lorde my God be on me, and on my fathers house: but (b) not on thy people that they shoulde be punished. 18 And the angel of the Lord commaunded Gad to say to Dauid, that Dauid shoulde go vp and set vp an aulter vnto the Lorde in the threshing flooze of Ornan the Iebusite. 19 And Dauid went vp according to the saying of Gad which he spake in the name of the Lorde.

(b) Thus he sheweth true repentaunce, and a fatherly care toward his people.

20 And Ornan turned about, and sawe the angell, and his foure sonnes were with him, and hyd them selues: but Ornan was threshing wheate.

21 And as Dauid came to Ornan, Ornan loked and sawe Dauid, and went out of the threshing flooze, and bowed him selfe to Dauid with his face to the grounde. 22 And Dauid sayd to Ornan, Geue me the place of the threshing flooze, that I may buylde an aulter therein vnto the Lord: thou shalt geue it me for as much money as it is worth, that the plague may ceasse from the people. 23 And Ornan sayde vnto Dauid, Take it to thee, and let my lorde the king do that which seemeth good in his eyes: Lo, I geue thee oxen also for whole burnt sacrifices, and threshing instruments for wood, and wheate for meate offering, I gene it all. 24 And kyng Dauid sayde to Ornan, Not so, but I wyl bye it for as much money as it is worth: for I will not take that which is thyne for the Lord, nor offer whole burnt offerings without cost.

2. Sam. 24. vers. 24.

25 And so Dauid gaue to Ornan for that place sicles of golde fyre hundred by wayght. 26 And Dauid buylt there an aulter vnto the Lord, and offered whole burnt offerings & peace offerings, and called vpon the Lorde, and he heard him from heauen in (c) fyre vpon the aulter of whole burnt offering. 27 And when the Lord had spoken to the angell, he put vp his swoorde agayne into the sheath of it.

The .xxii. Chapter.

2 Dauid prepareth thinges necessary for the buyldyng of the temple.

AND Dauid said, This is the house of the Lorde God, and this is the aulter for the whole burnt offering of Israel. 2 And Dauid commaunded to gather together the straungers that were in the lande of Israel, and he set masons to hew and pullish stones for the buyldyng of the house of God. 3 And Dauid prepared plentie of iron for nayles, and doores of the gates, and to ioyne withall, and abundance of brasse without waight, 4 And Cedar trees without number: for the Sidons & they of Tyre brought much Cedar wood to Dauid.

5 And Dauid saide, Solomon my sonne is young and tender, and the house that is to be buylded for the Lorde must be magnificall, excellent, and of great fame & dignitie throughout all countreyes: I wyll therefore make ordinaunces for it. And so Dauid prepared many thinges before his death. 6 And he called Solomon his sonne, and charged him to builde an house for the Lorde God of Israel.

7 And Dauid said to Solomon, My sonne, I thought in myne heart to buylde an house vnto the name of the Lorde my God: 8 But the woorde of the Lorde came to me, saying, Thou hast shed (a) much blood, and hast made great battailes: thou shalt therefore not buylde an house vnto my name, for thou hast shed much blood vppon the earth in my sight. 9 Beholde a sonne is borne to thee, and he shalbe a man of rest, for I wyl geue him rest from al his enemies round about: for his name is Solomon, & I wyl sende rest & peace vpon Israel in his dayes.

(a) This declareth how greatly god abhorreth the shedding of blood, seing Dauid for this cause is stayed to builde the temple of the lorde. Albeit he toke no warre in hande, but by Gods commaundement and against gods enemies.

AND Solomon began to build the house of the Lord at Hierusalem in mount (a) Moria, where the Lorde appeared vnto Dauid his father, euen in the place that Dauid prepared in the threshyng flooze of " Ornan the Jebusite. 2 And he began to builde in the seconde day of the seconde moneth, the fourth yere of his raigne. 3 And these are the patternes wherby Solomon was instruct to builde the house of God: The length was three score cubites after the olde measure, and the breadth twentie cubites. 4 And the porche that was before the length in the front, according to the breadth of the house, was twentie cubites, and the heyght was an hundred and twentie cubites: and he ouerlayed it on the inner side with pure golde. 5 And the greater house he seeled with firre tree, which he ouerlayed with the best golde, & grauen therein paulme trees and chaynes.

6 And he ouerlayed the house with precious stone beautifully: and the golde was golde of Paruaim. 7 The house (I say,) the beames, postes, walles, and doores therof, ouerlayde he with golde, & grauen Cherubims on the walles. 8 And he made the house most holy: whose length was twentie cubites like to the breadth of the house, and the breadth therof was also twentie cubites: & he ouerlayed it with good golde, euen with six hundred talentes. 9 And the wayght of the nayles of golde was fiftie sicles: & he ouerlayd the vpper chambers with golde. 10 And in the house most holy he made two Cherubims of image worke, like children, and ouerlayed them with golde. 11 And the winges of the Cherubims were twentie cubites long: the one wyng was fiue cubites, reachyng to the wall of the house: and the other wyng was lykewise fiue cubites, reachyng to the wyng of the other Cherub. 12 And euen so the one wyng of the other Cherub was fiue cubites, reachyng to the wall of the house: and the other wyng was fiue cubites also, and reached to the wing of the other Cherub. 13 So that the wynges of the sayde Cherubims were stretched out twentie cubites: and they stoode on their feete, and loked inwardes. 14 And he made a forehanging of " pelowe silke, purple, crymson, & fine white, and caused the pictures of Cherubims to be broodered theron. 15 And he made before the house two pillers of thirtie & fiue cubites hye, & the head that was aboue on the toppe of euery one of them was fiue cubites. 16 And he made chaynes of wreathen worke for the quier, and put them on the heades of the pillers: and made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chaynes. 17 And he reared vp the pyllers before the temple, one on the right hande, and the other on the left: and called the right Jachin, and the left Boaz.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

1 Solomon blesseth the people. 4 He praiseth the Lorde. 14 He prayeth vnto God for those that shall pray in the temple.

THen Solomon sayde, The Lorde hath spoken howe that he wyll dwell in the darke cloude. 2 And I haue built thee an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwellyng for euer. 3 And the king turned his face & blessed the whole congregation of Israel, (and al the congregation of Israel stoode.) 4 And he saide, Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel, which hath with his "handes fulfilled it that he spake with his mouth to my father Dauid, saying, 5 Since the day that I brought my people out of the lande of Egypt, I chose no citie among al the tribes of Israel to build an "house in, that my name might be there, neither chose I any man to be a ruler ouer my people Israel: 6 Sauyng that I haue chosen Hierusalem, that my name might be there, & haue chosen Dauid to be ouer my people Israel. 7 And when it was in the heart of Dauid my father to builde an house for the name of the Lorde God of Israel, 8 The Lorde sayd to Dauid my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to builde an house for my name, thou diddest well that thou thoughtest in thine heart.

9 Notwithstandyng thou shalt not builde the house: but thy sonne which shall come out of thy loynes, he shall builde an house for my name. 10 The Lorde therefore hath made good his saying that he hath spoken: and I am risen vp in the roome of Dauid my father, and am set on the seat of Israel, as the Lorde promised, and haue built an house for the name of the Lorde God of Israel. 11 And in it haue I put the arke wherin is the (a) couenaunt of the Lorde that he made with the children of Israel. 12 And the king stoode before the aulter of the Lord in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and stretched out his handes: 13 (For Solomon had made a brasen scaffolde of fiue cubites long, and fiue cubites brode, and three of height, and had set it in the middes of the great court, and vpon it he stoode & kneeled downe vpon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and stretched out his handes towarde heauen,) 14 And sayd, O Lorde God of Israel, there is no god lyke thee in heauen nor in earth, which kepest couenaunt & the weste mercie vnto thy seruauntes that walke before thee with all their heartes. 15 Thou which hast kept with thy seruaunt Dauid my father the thynges that thou promisedst him: thou saydest it with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hands, as it is to see this day. 16 And nowe Lorde God of Israel, kepe with thy seruaunt Dauid my father the things that thou promisedst him, saying, Thou shalt in my sight not be without a man that shall sit vpon the seate of Israel, so that thy children take heede to their wayes, to walke in my lawe, as thou hast walked before me. 17 And nowe Lorde God of Israel, let thy saying be true which thou spakest vnto thy seruaunt Dauid.

18 (And wyll God in very deede dwel with men on earth? Beholde heauen and heauen aboue all heauens do not containe thee, howe much lesse the house which I haue builded?) 19 Let it be thy pleasure therefore to turne to the prayer of thy seruaunt and to his supplication O Lord my God, to hearken vnto the voyce and prayer which thy seruaunt prayeth before thee, 20 And let thyne eyes be open towarde this house day and nyght, ouer this place whereof thou hast sayde that thou wouldest put thy name there, to hearken vnto the prayer which thy seruaunt prayeth in this place. 21 Hearken vnto the prayers of thy seruaunt and of thy people Israel, which 36 If they sinne against thee (as there is no man but he doth sinne) and thou be angry with them, and deliuer them ouer before their enemies, and they take them and cary them away captiues vnto a lande farre or neare: 37 Yet yf they repent in their heart in the lande where they be in captiuitie, and turne, & pray vnto thee in the lande of their captiuitie, saying, We haue sinned, we haue done euyll and wickedly: 38 And turne agayne to thee with all their heart and all their soule in the lande of their captiuitie where they kepe them in bondage, and so pray toward their land which thou gauest vnto their fathers, euen toward the citie which thou hast chosen, and towarde the house which I haue built for thy name: 39 Then heare thou from heauen, euen from thy dwelling place, their supplication and their prayer, & iudge their cause, and be mercifull vnto thy people which haue sinned agaynst thee. 40 Nowe my God, let thyne eyes be open, and thyne eares attent vnto the prayer that is made in this place. 41 Nowe vp O Lorde God into thy (d) restyng place, thou & the arke of thy strength: O Lorde God, let thy priestes be clothed with health, & let thy saintes reioyce in goodnesse. 42 O Lorde God, turne not away the face of thyne (e) annoynted: remember the mercies which thou hast promised to Dauid thy seruaunt.

24 And they brought euery man his present, vessels of siluer, and vessels of gold, rayment, harnesse, spices, horses and mules yere by yere. 25 And Solomon had "foure thousande stables for horses and charrets, and twelue thousande horsemen: whom he bestowed in the charet cities, and (some were) with the kyng at Hierusalem. 26 And he raigned ouer all the kynges that were from Euphrates vnto the lande of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. 27 And the kyng made siluer in Hierusalem as plenteous as (b) stones, and Cedar trees as plenteous as the Mulberie trees (that growe) in the valleys.

28 And they brought vnto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all landes. 29 The rest of the actes of kyng Solomon first and last, are they not written in the sayings of Nathan the prophete, and in the prophecie of Ahiah the Silonite, and in the visions of Iddo the Seer of visions against Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat?

9 And so Sesac kyng of Egypt came to Hierusalem, and toke away the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and the treasures of the kings house, he toke all: and he caryed away the sheeldes of golde whiche Solomon made. 10 Jn steade of whiche, kyng Roboam made sheeldes of brasse, and committed them to the handes of the cheefe of the garde, and that kept the entraunce of the kynges house.

11 And when the kyng entred into the house of the Lorde, the garde came and fet them, and brought them agayne vnto the garde chamber.

12 And when he humbled hym selfe, the wrath of the Lorde turned from him, that he would not destroy altogether: and in Juda all was well.

13 And so kyng Roboam waxed mightie, and raigned in Hierusalem: and Roboam was one and fourtie yeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned seuenteene yeres in Hierusalem, the citie which the Lord had chosen out of all the tribes of Jsrael to put his name there: And his mothers name was Naama, an Ammonitesse. 14 And he did euil, because he prepared not his heart to seeke the Lorde. 15 The actes also of Roboam first and last, are they not written in the sayinges of Semeia the prophete, and of Jddo the Seer, whiche noted the genealogie? and there was warre alway betweene Roboam and Jeroboam. 16 And Roboam slept with his fathers, and was buryed in the citie of Dauid, and Abia his sonne raigned in his steade.

8 And Asa had an armie of men that bare sheeldes and speares out of Iuda three hundred thousand, and out of Beniamin that bare sheeldes and drue bowes two hundred and fourescore thousand: al these were valiaunt men.

9 And there came out against them Zarah of Ethiopia with an hoast of ten hundred thousand, and three hundred charettes, and came as farre as Maresa. 10 And Asa went out before him, and they ioyned the battayle in the valley of Zephata, beside Maresa. 11 And Asa cryed vnto the Lord his God, and sayde, Lorde, It is no harde thing with thee to helpe with many, or them that haue no power: helpe vs therefore O Lorde our God, for we trust to thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude: thou art the Lorde our God, and no man shall preuayle against thee. 12 So the Lorde smote the Ethiopians before Asa & Iuda, and the Ethiopians fled. 13 And Asa and the people that was with hym, followed after them vnto Gerar: and the Ethiopians hoast was ouerthrowen, that there was none of them left, but were destroyed before the Lorde & before his hoast: and they caryed away a mightie great pray. 14 And they smote al the cities rounde about Gerar, for the feare of the Lorde came vpon them: and they spoyled all the cities, and there was exceeding much spoyle in them. 15 They smote also the tentes of cattaile, and caryed away plentie of sheepe and camels, and returned to Hierusalem.

1 Asa for feare of Baasa king of Israel, maketh a couenaunt with Benhadad king of Syria. 7 He is reproued by the prophete.

A 1. king. 15. c

IN the thirtie and sixth yere of the raigne of Asa, came Baasa king of Israel against Juda, and buylt Rama, to the intent that he woulde let none passe out or in to Asa kyng of Juda. 2 And Asa set out golde & siluer out of the treasuries of the house of the Lorde, and (out) of the kynges house, and sent to Benhadad kyng of Syria that dwelt at * Darmesec, and said, 3 There is a confederation betweene me and thee, betweene my father and thyne: beholde I haue sent thee siluer and golde, that thou wylt come and breake thy leage with Baasa king of Israel, that he may depart from me. 4 And Benhadad graunted vnto king Asa, and sent the captaynes of his armies to the cities of Israel: and they smote Jion, Dan, and Abelmaim, and all the strong cities of Nephthali. 5 And when Baasa heard this, he left buylding of Rama, and let his worke ceasse. 6 And then Asa the king toke all Juda, and caryed away the stones and timber of Rama wherwith Baasa was a buylding, and he buylt therwith Geba and Mispah.

7 At that tyme Hanani the Seer came to Asa kyng of Juda, and sayde vnto hym, (a) Because thou hast trusted in the kyng of Syria, and not rather put thy trust in the Lorde thy God, therfore is the hoast of the king of Syria escaped out of thyne hande.

(b) The prophet of god is punished, for speaking his message and thus the wicked in steade of turning vnto god by repentaunce, contemne the admonition of the prophetes and ministers of god.

8 Had not the Ethiopians and Lubim an exceeding great hoast, with many charets and horsemen? and yet because thou trustedst in the Lorde, he deliuered them into thyne hande.

9 For the eyes of the Lorde beholde all the earth, to strengthe them that are of perfect heart towarde him: herein thou hast done foolishly, and therfore fro henceforth thou shalt haue warre.

10 And so Asa was wroth with the Seer, and put hym into a (b) prison house, for he was displeased with him because of this thing: and Asa destroyed (certaine) of the people the same season. 11 And beholde, these deedes of Asa first & last, are written in the booke of the kynges of Juda and Israel.

12 And Asa in the thirtie & ninth yere of his raigne fel sicke in his feete, and his disease continued very long: and in his sickneße he sought not the Lorde, (c) but phisitions. 13 And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the fourtie and one yere of his raigne. 14 And they buryed hym in his owne sepulchre which he had made for him selfe in the citie of Dauid, and layde hym in the bed which was filled with diuers kindes of spices, and sweete sauours made by the craft of the apothecaries: and they made a very great burning.

(c) He sheweth that in vayne to seke to the phisitions, except first we seke to god to pourge our sinnes, which are the cheife causes of all our diseases, and after vse the helpe of the phisition, as a meane by whom god worketh.

The. xvii. Chapter.

5 Iosaphat trusting in the Lorde, prospereth in richesse and honour. 6 He abolisheth idolatrie, 7 and causeth the people to be taught.

A Mat. i. b.

AND Josaphat his sonne raigned in his steade, & preuayled against Israel. 2 And he put souldiers in all the strong cities of Juda, and set rulers in the lande of Juda, and in the cities of Ephraim whiche Asa his father had wonne. 3 And the Lorde was with Josaphat, because he walked in the former wayes of his father Dauid, & sought not Baalim: 4 But sought the Lorde God of his father, and walked in his commaundements, and not after the doynges of Israel.

5 And the Lorde stablished the kyngdome in his hande, & all Juda brought hym presentes, so that he had aboundaunce of rychesse and honour.

6 And he lyft vp his heart vnto the wayes of the Lord, and he put downe yet more of the high places & groues out of Juda. 7 In the thirde yere of his raigne he sent to his lordes, euen to Benhail, Obadia, Zacharia, Nethanel, and to Michaia, that they shoulde (a) teache in the cities of Juda: 8 And with them he sent Leuites, euen Semeia, Nethania, Zebadia, Asael, Semiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonia, Tobia, and Tob-adonia, Leuites: and with them Elisama and Joram Priestes. 9 And they taught in Juda, and had the booke of the lawe of God with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Juda, and taught the people.

(a) Iosaphat sent visitours abroade into the countries to see religion reformed, and the people truly instructed.

10 And the feare of the Lord fell vpon all the kyngdomes of the landes that were rounde about Juda, & they fought fought not against Iosaphat. 11 And some of the Philistines brought Iosaphat gyftes, and tribute syluer, and the Arabians brought hym cattel, euen seuen thousande and seuen hundred rammes, and seuen thousand and seuen hundred hee goates. 12 And so Iosaphat prospered, and grewe vp an hye: and he buylt in Iuda castels, and cities of store. 13 And he had great * substaunce in the cities of Iuda: but the men of armes & stronzest souldiers were in Hierusalem. 14 And these are the * offices of them in the house of theyr fathers: the captaynes ouer thousandes in Iuda, Adna the captayne, and with hym of fyghtyng men three hundred thousand. 15 And next to his hande was Iehonan a captayne and with him two hundred and foure score thousande. 16 And next him was Amazia the sonne of Zichri, which of his owne good wyll offered hym selfe vnto the Lorde, and with hym two hundred thousande myghtie men of warre. 17 And of the children of Beniamin, Eliada a man of might, and with him armed men with bowe and shielde two hundred thousande.

18 And next hym was Iosabad, and with hym an hundred and foure score thousande that were prepared for the warre. 19 These waited on the king, besides those which the king put in the strong cities throughout all Iuda.

The. xviii. Chapter.

1 Iosaphat maketh affinitie with Achab. 10 Foure hundred prophetes counsell Achab to go to warre. 14 Michea is agaynst them. 29 The effect of his prophecie.

AND Iosaphat had aboundaunce of richesse and honour, and ioyned affinitie with Achab. 2 And after certayne yeres he went downe to Achab to Samaria: and Achab slue many sheepe and oxen for him and for the people that he had with hym, and entreated him to go vp with him vnto Ramoth (in) Gilead. 3 And Achab kyng of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat king of Iuda, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth (in) Gilead? And he answered hym, I wyll be as thou, and my people shalbe as thine (and we will go) with thee to the warre. 4 And Iosaphat sayde vnto the kyng of Israel, Seeke counsayle I pray thee at the worde of the Lorde this same day. 5 Therefore the kyng of Israel gathered together of prophetes foure hundred men, and sayde vnto them, Shall we go to Ramoth (in) Gilead to fight, or shoulde I cease? And they sayde, Go vp, and God shall delyuer it into the kynges hande. 6 But Iosaphat said, Is there yet here neuer a prophete more of the Lordes, that we myght aske of him? 7 And the king of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may aske the lord: but I hate hym, for he neuer prophecied me good, but alway euyll: and the same is Michea the sonne of Iemla. And Iosaphat sayde, Let not the kyng say so. 8 And the kyng of Israel called one of his chaumberlaynes, and sayd, Fetch hither quickly Michea the sonne of Iemla. 9 And the king of Israel and Iosaphat kyng of Iuda sate eyther of them on his seate in theyr apparell, in a threshyng flooze beside the gate of Samaria, and all the prophetes prophecied before them. 10 And one Zedekia the sonne of Chanaana had made hym hornes of iron, and said, Thus sayth the Lord, With these thou shalt pushe Syria, vntyll they be brought to naught.

11 And all the prophetes prophecied euen so, saying, Go vp to Ramoth (in) Gilead, and it shall prosper with thee: for the Lorde shall deliuer it into the hand of the king. 12 And the messenger that went to call Michea, spake to him, saying, Beholde, the wordes of the prophetes (speake) good to the king with one assent: let thy wordes therefore I pray thee be lyke one of theirs, that thou speake that whiche is pleasaunt. 13 And Michea sayde, As the Lorde lyueth, euen what my God sayth, that wyll I speake. 14 And when he was come to the kyng, the kyng sayde vnto hym, Michea, shoulde we go to Ramoth (in) Gilead to fight, or leaue of? And he sayd, Go vp, and all shalbe well, and they shalbe delyuered into your hande. 15 And the kyng sayde to hym, So and so many tymes do I charge thee that thou say nothing but the trueth to me in the name of the Lorde. 16 Then he sayd, I did see all Israel scattered in the mountaines, as sheepe that haue no shepheard: And the Lorde sayde, (b) These haue no maister: let them returne euery man therefore to his house in peace.

17 And the kyng of Israel sayd vnto Iosaphat, Did I not tell thee, that he would not prophecie good vnto me, but euyll? 18 But he sayde agayne,

And one sayd this, a nother sayd that. 20 And there came out a spirite, and stood before the lord, and sayde, I will deceaue him. And the Lorde sayde vnto him, Wherin? 21 And he sayde, I will go out, & be a (c)lying spirite in the mouth of al his prophetes. And the Lorde sayde, Thou shalt deceaue him, and shalt preuayle: go out, and do euen so. 22 And now therfore behold the lord hath put a lying spirite in the mouthes of (all) these thy prophetes, and the Lord hath spoken euyl agaynst thee. 23 And Zedekia the sonne of Chanaana went to, and smote Michea vpon the cheeke, & said, By what way went the (d) spirite of the Lorde from me, to speake with thee? 24 And Michea sayd, Behold, thou shalt see the day when thou shalt go from chamber to chamber for to hyde thy selfe. 25 And the king of Israel sayd, Take ye Michea, and bring him to Amon the gouerner of the citie, and to Joas the kynges sonne.

29 And the kyng of Israel sayd vnto Iosaphat, I will chaunge me when I go to the battel: but see that thou haue thine owne apparell vpon thee. And the king of Israel chaunged him selfe, and they came to the battel. 30 But the kyng of Syria had commaunded the captaines of the charets that were with him, saying, See that ye fyght not against smal or great, saue against the king of Israel only. 31 And when the captaynes of the charets sawe Iosaphat, they sayd, It is the kyng of Israel: and therefore they compassed about him to fight. But Iosaphat cried out, and the lord helped him, and God * chased them away from him. 32 For when the captaynes of the charets perceaued that it was not the kyng of Israel, they turned backe agayne from him. 33 And a (certayne) man drewe a bowe * at a venture, and smote the king of Israel betweene the ioyntes of his habargin: And he sayde to his charetman, Turne thine hande, that thou mayst carie me out of the hoast, for I am wounded. 34 And the battel increased that day: howbeit the kyng of Israel caused his charet (e) to stande still against the Syrians vntill euen: and about the time of the sunne goyng downe he dyed.

The. xix. Chapter.

1 After Iosaphat was rebuked by the prophete, he calleth agayne the people to the honoring of the Lorde.

AND Iosaphat the king of Juda came home agayne in peace to Hierusalem. 2 And Jehu the sonne of Hanani the Seer went out to meete him, and sayde to kyng Iosaphat, Wouldest thou helpe the vngodly, and loue them that hate the Lorde? Therfore is wrath come downe vpon thee from before the Lord: 3 Neuertheless, there are some good actes found in thee, in that thou hast hewen downe the groues out of the land, and hast prepared thine heart to seeke god.

4 And Iosaphat dwelt at Hierusalem, and turned (a) and went out to the people from Beer-seba to mount Ephraim, & brought them agayne vnto the lord God of their fathers. 5 And he set iudges in the lande throughout all the strong cities of Juda, citie by citie: 6 And sayd to the iudges, Take heede what ye do: for ye execute not the iudgementes of man, but of God, which is (b) with you in the iudgement.

7 Wherfore now let the feare of the Lord be vpon you, and take heede, and be doyng: (the thing that pleaseth him:) for there is no vnrighteousnes with the Lorde our God, that he shoulde haue any respect of persons, or take rewardes. 8 Moreouer, in Hierusalem dyd Iosaphat set of the Leuites and of the priestes, and of the auncient fathers ouer Israel in the iudgement and cause of the lord: & they returned agayne to Hierusalem. 9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shal ye do in the feare of the Lorde faythfully, and with a pure heart: 10 What cause soeuer come to you of your brethren that dwell in theyr cities, betweene blood and blood, betweene lawe and commaundement, betweene statutes, statutes and ordinaunces: ye shall warne them that they trespasse not against the lord, & so wrath come vpon you and your brethren: Thus do, and ye shall not offend. 11 And beholde, Amaria the hie priest is among you in all matters of the Lorde, and Zebadia the sonne of Ismael a ruler of the house of Juda for all the kings matters: There be officers of the Leuites also before you, Take courage to you therefore, and be doyng (mantully) and the Lorde shalbe with such as be good.

A Fter this also, the children of Moab and the children Ammon, and with them other of the Ammonites, came agaynst Iosaphat to battell. 2 And there came some that tolde Iosaphat, saying, There commeth a great multitude agaynst thee from the other side of the sea, and out of Syria, and beholde they be in Hasason Thamar, which is in En-gadi. 3 And Iosaphat feared, and set hym selfe to seeke the lord, and proclaimed fasting throughout all Juda. 4 And Juda gathered them selues together to aske counsell of the Lord: and they came out of all the cities of Juda, * to make intercession to the lord. 5 And Iosaphat stoode betweene the congregation of Juda and Hierusalem in the house of the lord before the new court, 6 And sayde, O Lorde God of our fathers, art not thou god in heauen, and raignest not thou on al the kingdomes of the heathen, and in thine hande is power and might, and there is no man that is able to withstande thee? 7 Art not thou our God which dyddest cast out the inhabiters of this land before thy people Israel, & gauest it to the seede of Abraham thy louer for euer? 8 And they dwelt therin, and haue built thee a temple therin for thy name, saying, 9 If euill come vppon vs, as the swoorde of iudgement, pestilence, or hunger: then if we stande before this house in thy presence (for thy name is in this house) and crye vnto thee in our tribulation, heare thou, and helpe. 10 And nowe beholde the chyldren of Ammon and Moab, and mount Seir, by whom thou wouldest not let them of Israel go when they came out of the lande of Egypt, but they departed from them, and destroyed them not, 11 See howe they rewarde vs, to come for to cast vs out of thy possession whiche thou hast geuen vs to inherite. 12 O our God, wilt thou not iudge them? for we haue no might agaynst this great companie that commeth agaynst vs: neither wote we what to do, but our eyes (a) be vnto thee. 13 And all Juda stoode before the Lorde, with theyr yonng ones, theyr wiues, and theyr chyldren. 14 And there was Iahaziel the sonne of Zacharia, the sonne of Banaia, the sonne of Jehiel, the sonne of Matthania, a Leuite of the sonnes of Asaph, and vpon him came the spirite of the Lorde in the middes of the congregation: 15 And he sayde, Hearken all Juda, and ye inhabiters of Hierusalem, and thou king Iosaphat, thus sayth the Lorde vnto you, Be not afrayde nor fayntt hearted by reason of this great multitude: for the battel is not yours, but Gods. 16 To morow go ye downe agaynst them: beholde they come vp by the cliff of Zis, and ye shall finde them at the ende of the brooke before the wildernesse of Jeruel. 17 Ye shall not neede to fight in this battel: but step foorth and stande, and beholde the helpe of the Lorde which is with you: feare not, nor let youre hearres fayle you O ye of Juda and of Hierusalem, to morowe go out agaynst them, for the Lorde wil be with you. 18 And Iosaphat (b) bowed his face to the earth, and all Juda and the inhabiters of Hierusalem fell before the Lorde, worshyppyng the Lorde. 19 And the Leuites of the chyldren of the Caathites, and of the chyldren of the Corahites, stoode vp to prayse the Lorde God of Israel with a loude voyce on hye. 20 And when they arose early in the morning, they gat them out vnto the wylderneste of Thekoa: and as they went out, Iosaphat stoode and sayde, Heare me O Juda, and ye inhabiters of Hierusalem: Put your trust in the Lorde your God, that ye may be founde faythfull: Geue credence to his prophetes, and so shall ye prosper. 21 When he had consulted with the people, and set some to sing vnto the Lord, and to prayse him in the beautie of holynesse, and to go out before the armie, and to say, Prayse the Lorde, for 24 And when Juda came towarde Mispah in the wyldernes, they loked vnto the multitude, and beholde, they were dead carcasses fallen to the earth, and none escaped. 25 And when Iosaphat and his people came to take away the spoyle of them, they founde among them aboundaunce of goods, rayment, and precious iewels, whiche they tooke for them selues, more then they coulde cary away: so that they were three dayes in gatheryng of the spoyle, it was so muche. 26 And the fourth day they assembled in the valley of blessing, for there they (c) blessed the Lorde: and therefore they called the name of the same place, The valley of blessing, vnto this day. 27 And so al the men of Juda and Hierusalem returned, with Iosaphat their head, for to go againe to Hierusalem with gladnesse: for the Lorde had made them to reioyce ouer their enemies. 28 And they came to Hierusalem with psalteries, and harpes, & shawmes, vnto the house of the lord. 29 And the feare of god fel on the kingdomes of al lands, when they had hearde that the Lorde fought agaynst the enemies of Israel.

30 And so the realme of Iosaphat was in tranquillitie, and his god gaue him rest on euery syde. 31 And Iosaphat raigned vpon Juda, and was thirtie and fiue yeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned twentie & fiue yeres in Hierusalem: and his mothers name was Azuba the daughter of Silhi. 32 And he walked in the way of Asa his father, & bowed not therfrom, doing that which was right in the sight of the Lord. 33 Howbeit the high places were not taken away: for the people had not yet prepared their hearts vnto the God of their fathers. 34 The rest of the actes of Iosaphat first and last, behold they are written among the sayinges of Jehu the son of Hanani, which noted them in the booke of the kinges of Israel.

35 After this did Iosaphat kyng of Juda ioyne hym selfe with Ahazia king of Israel, whose mind was to do wickedly: 36 He ioyned hym selfe with hym, to make shyppes to go to Thacus: and they made the shyppes in Ezion Gaber. 37 And Eliezer the sonne of Dodauah of Mareса prophesied agaynst Iosaphat, saying, Because thou hast (d) ioyned thy selfe with Ahazia, the Lorde hath broken thy workes. And the shippes were broken that they were not able to go to Thacus.

AND the inhabiters of Hierusalem made Ahazia his young son kyng in his steade: for the men of warre that came (a) with the hoaste of the Arabians had slayne all his eldest sonnes: And so Ahazia the sonne of Iojam kyng of Juda was made kyng. 2 (b) Two and fourtie yeres olde was he when he began to raigne, and he raigned one yere in Hierusalem: His mothers name was Athalia the daughter (c) of Amri.

3 And he walked also in the waies of the house of Achab: for his mother by her counsell enticed him to do wickedly. 4 Wherfore he did that which was euyll in the sight of the Lorde, as dyd they that were of the house of Achab: for they were his (d) counsellers after the death of his father, to his destruction. 5 And he walked after their counsel, and went with Iojam sonne of Achab kyng of Israel, to fight against Hazael kyng of Syria at Ramoth (in) Gilead: and the Syrians smote Iojam. 6 And he returned to be healed in Jezrahel, of the woundes whiche were geuen hym at Rama when he fought with Hazael kyng of Syria: and Ahazia the sonne of Ioram kyng of Juda, went downe to see Iojam the sonne of Achab at Jezrahel, because he was diseased. 7 And it came of God that Ahazia shoulde be destroied for his cōming to Iojam: for when he was come, he went out with Iojam agaynst Jehu the sonne of Nimsi, whom the Lorde had annoynted to destroy the house of Achab. 8 And when Jehu was executyng iustice vpon the house of Achab, and founde the Lordes of Juda and the sonnes of the brethren of Ahazia that wayted on Ahazia, he slue them.

9 And he sought Ahazia: and they caught hym (where he was hid in Samaria) and brought hym to Jehu, and when they had slaine him, they buried him: because said they, He is the sonne of Iosaphat, whiche sought the Lorde with all his heart: And the house of Ahazia had no powre to kepe still the kyngdome. 10 But when Athalia the mother of Ahazia sawe that her sonne was dead, she arose, and (e) destroyed al the kinges seede in the kynred of the house of Juda. 11 And Iosabeth the daughter of the kyng tooke Joas the sonne of Ahazia, and stale hym from among the kynges sonnes that were slayne, and put hym and his nurse in a priuie chaumber: and so Iosabeth the daughter of king Iojam the wyfe of Iehoiada the priest, (and the sister of Ahazia) hyd hym

AND in the seuenth yere Iehoiada beyng bolde, tooke the captaynes of hundredes, Azariah the sonne of Jozam, and Ismael the sonne of Iehohanan, Azaria the sonne of Obed, Maasia the sonne of Adaia, and Elisaphat the sonne of Zichri, and made a bonde with them. 2 And they went about in Juda, and gathered the Leuites out of all the cities of Juda, and the auncient fathers of (a) Israel, and they came to Hierusalem. 3 And all the congregation made a bonde with the kyng in the house of God: and he sayde vnto them, Beholde the kinges sonne must raigne, as the Lozde hath sayd of the children of Dauid. 4 This is it therefore that ye shall do, The third part of you shall on the sabbath come to the priestes, Leuites, and kepers of the porches, 5 And another third part shalbe by the kinges house, and another thirde part shalbe at the gate of the foundation: and al the people shalbe in the courtes of the house of the Lozde. 6 But there shall none come into the house of the Lozde, saue the priestes and Leuites that minister, they shall go in, for they are holy: but al the people shal kepe the watche of the Lozd. 7 And the Leuites shal compasse the kyng rounde about, and euery man shall haue his weapon in his hand: and what other man soeuer doth come into the house (of the Lord) he shalbe slayne: and let them be with the kyng when he commeth in and when he goeth out. 8 And the Leuites and all Juda dyd accozdyng to all thynges that Iehoiada the priest had commaunded, and toke euery man his men that came in on the sabbath with them that went out on the sabbath day: neither dyd Iehoiada the priest let the companies depart.

9 And Iehoiada the priest deliuered to the captaines of hundredes speares, shieldes, and bucklers, that had pertayned to king Dauid, and were in the house of god. 10 And he set al the people (euery man hauing his weapon in his hande) from the ryght syde of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the aulter and the temple, rounde about the kyng. 11 And they brought out the kyngs sonne, and put vpon him the crowne, and the testimonie, and made hym kyng: and Iehoiada and his sonnes annoynted hym, and sayde, God saue the kyng.

12 When Athalia heard the noyse of the people runnyng, and praysyng the kyng, she came to the people into the house of the Lozde. 13 And she looked, and beholde the kyng stoode in his place at the entryng in, and the lozdes and the trumpets were by the king, and all the people of the land reioyced, blowyng with trumpettes, and the singers were with instrumentes of musicke, and such as could sing prayse: but Athalia rent her clothes, and sayde, Treason, treason. 14 And Iehoiada the priest went out to the captaynes of hundredes that were gouernours of the hoaste, and sayde vnto them, Haue her foozth of the ranges: and (b) who so foloweth her, let him be slayne with the swozde. For the priest sayde, That they shoulde not slay her in the house of the Lozde. 14 And they layde handes on her, till she was come to the entring of the horse gate beside the kynges house, and there they slue her. 16 And Iehoiada made a bonde betweene hym and all the people and the king, that they shoulde be the Lozdes people. 17 And all the people went to the house of Baal, and (c) destroyed it, and brake his aulters and his images, and slue Matthan the priest of Baal before the aulters.

18 And Iehoiada put the officers for the house of the Lozde vnder the hande of the priestes and Leuites, as Dauid had distributed them in the house of the lozd to offer whole burnt offerynges vnto the Lozde, as it is written in the lawe of Moyses, with reioysing and singing, as it was ozdeyned by Dauid. 19 And he set poziers by the gates of the house of the Lozd, that none which was vncleane in any thyng shoulde enter in. 20 And he toke the captaynes of hundredes, and all the nobles, and the gouernours of the people, and all the folke of the lande, and caused the kyng to come downe out of the house of the Lozde, and they came thzough the hye gate into

The. xxiiii. Chapter.

1 Ioas repayreth the house of the lord.
25 Ioas is kylled of his owne seruauntes.

IOas was seuen yeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned fourtie yeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Zibia of Beer-seba. 2 And Ioas dyd that which was ryght in the sight of the Lord, all the dayes of (a) Iehoiada the priest. 3 And Iehoiada gaue hym two wyues, & he begat sonnes and daughters. 4 And after this Ioas was minded to renue the house of the Lord.

5 And he gathered together the priestes and the Leuites, and sayde to them, Go out vnto the cities of Iuda, and gather of all Israel money to repaire the house of your god from yere to yere, and see that ye haste the thing: howebeit the Leuites were slacke.

6 And the kyng called Iehoiada that was the (b) cheefest, and said vnto him, Why requirest thou not of the Leuites to bring in out of Iuda and Hierusalem the collection of money, according to the commaundement of Moyses the seruaunt of the Lord, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witnesse? 7 For wicked Athalia and her children brake vp the house of God, and all the thinges that were dedicate for the house of the Lorde dyd they bestow vpon Baalim.

8 And at the kings commaundement they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the Lorde:

9 And made a proclamation through Iuda and Hierusalem, to bring in to the Lorde the taxation of money that Moyses the seruaunt of god set vpon Israel in the wildernesse. 10 And the lordes and all the people reioyced, and brought in and caste into the chest "vntill it was full. 11 And at the same tyme they brought in the chest vnto them whiche were in the kynges busines by the hande of the Leuites, and when they sawe that there was much money, the kynges scribe and one appoynted by the hye priest came, and emptied the chest: and tooke it and caried it to his place agayne. Thus they dyd day by day, and gathered muche money. 12 And the kyng and Iehoiada gaue it to such as did the labour and woꝛke in the house of the Lorde, and hired masons and carpenters to repayre the house of the Lorde, and so dyd the artificers in vron and brasse to mende the house of the Lord. 13 And so the woꝛkmen wrought, and the woꝛke mended through theyr handes: and they made the house of God as it ought to be, and strengthed it. 14 And when they had finished it, they brought the reste of the money before the kyng and Iehoiada, and therewith were made vessels for the house of the Lord, euen vessels to minister withal, "chargers and spoones, vesselles of gold and siluer: and they offred whole burnt offerynges in the house of the Lorde continually all the dayes of Iehoiada. 15 But Iehoiada waxed old, and dyed full of dayes: for an hundred and thirtie yeres olde was he when he dyed. 16 And they buried hym in the citie of Dauid among the kynges, because he dealt well with Israel, and with god and with his house. 17 And after the death of Iehoiada, came the (c) lordes of Iuda and made obeysaunce to the king: and the king hearkened vnto them. 18 And so they left the house of the Lorde God of theyr fathers, and serued groues and idols, and then came the wrath of God vpon Iuda and Hierusalem for this theyr trespasses sake. 19 And he sent prophetes to them, to bring them agayne vnto the Lorde, and they testified vnto them, but they would not heare.

20 And the spirite of god came vpon Zacharia the sonne of Iehoiada the priest, which stoode by the people, and sayde vnto them, Thus sayth God, Why transgresse ye the commaundementes of the Lorde, that ye can not prosper? For because ye haue forsaken the Lorde, he also hath forsaken you.

21 And they conspired agaynst him, (d) and stoned him with stones at the commaundement of the kyng, euen in the court of the house of the Lorde.

22 And so Ioas the kyng remembred not the kindnesse which Iehoiada his father had done to him, but slue his sonne: and when he died, he sayd, The Lorde looke vpon it, and require it. 23 And when the yere was out, the hoast of Syria came vp agaynst hym, and they came agaynst Iuda and 6 He hired also an hundred thousande strong fighting men out of Israel for an hundred talentes of syluer.

7 And there came a man of God to hym, and sayde, O kyng, let not the armie of Israel come with thee: for the Lorde is not with Israel, (c) with all the children of Ephraim.

10 And Amazia separated the armie that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home agayne: wherefore they were exceedyng wroth with Juda, and returned home in great anger.

11 And Amazia tooke heart, and caryed out his people, and went to the salt valley, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousande. 12 And other ten thousande did the children of Juda take alyue, and caryed them vnto the toppe of a rocke, and caste them downe from the top of the rocke, that they all to burst. 13 But the souldiers of the (b) armie which Amazia sent away that they shoulde not go with his people to battell, fell vppon the cities of Juda from Samaria vnto Bethhoron, and smote three thousand of them, and tooke muche spoyle.

Joahaz the sonne of Jehu kyng of Israel, and sayde, Come, that we may see one another. 18 And Joas kyng of Israel sent to Amazia kyng of Juda, saying, A thistle that is in Libanon, sent to a Cedar tree of Libanon, saying, Geue thy daughter to my sonne to wyfe: and there came a wilde beast of Libanon, and trode downe the thistel. 19 Thou sayest, Loe thou hast smitten the Edomites: and thyne heart maketh thee proude to glorifie thy selfe: Now therefore bide at home, why doest thou prouoke vnto euyll, that thou mayst perishe, both thou and Juda with thee? 20 But Amazia would not hearken to him: for it came of God, euen to deliuer them into the hande of their enemies, because they sought counsell at the gods of Edom.

21 And so Joas the kyng of Israel came vp, and they sawe either other both he and Amazia kyng of Juda at Bethsames whiche is in Juda.

22 And Juda was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled euery man to his tent. 23 And Joas the kyng of Israel toke Amazia kyng of Juda the sonne of Joas the sonne of Joahaz at Bethsames, and brought hym to Hierusalem, & tare the wall of Hierusalem fro the gate of Ephraim: vnto the corner gate, foure hundred cubites. 24 And he toke away also al the gold & siluer, & al the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed Edom, & the treasures of the kinges house, the children also that were in hostage, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amazia the sonne of Joas kyng of Juda lyued after the death of Joas sonne of Joahaz kyng of Israel fifteene yeres. 26 The rest of the actes of Amazia first and last, are they not written in the booke of the kinges of Juda and Israel? 27 And after the time that Amazia did turne away from the Lorde, they conspired treason against him in Hierusalem: and when he was fled to Lachis, they sent to Lachis after him, and slue him there: 28 And brought him vp with horses, and buryed him with his fathers in the citie of Juda.

The .xxvi. Chapter.

1 Ozias obeying the Lorde, prospereth in his enterprises. 16 He waxeth proude, and vsurpeth the priestes office.

Then all the people of Juda toke Ozias whiche was sixteene yeres olde, and made him kyng in the roome of his father Amazia. 2 And he buylt Eloth, and brought it agayne to Juda, after that the kyng was layd to sleepe with his fathers. 3 Sixteene yeres olde was Ozias when he began to raigne, and he raigned fifty and two yeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Jecholia of Hierusalem. 4 And he did that whiche was ryght in the sight of the lord, accordyng to all as did his father Amazia. 5 And he sought God in the dayes of (a) Zacharia, who had vnderstandyng in the visions of God: and as long as he sought the Lorde, God made him to prosper. 6 And he went to battell agaynst the Philistines, and brake downe the wall of Geth, and the wall of Jabne, and the wall of Asdod, and built cities about Asdod and among the Philistines. 7 And God holpe him agaynst the Philistines and agaynst the Arabians that dwelt in Gur baal and Mamehunim. 8 And the Ammonites gaue tribute to Ozias, and his name spread abrode euen to the entring in of Egypt: for he played the man exceedyngly.

10 And he buylt towres in the wylderneße, and digged many welles: for he had much cattaile in the valleyes and playnes, plowmen and vinedreßers in the mountaynes and in Charmel: for he loued husbandry. 11 And Ozias had an hoast of fighting men, that went out to warre in the armie, accordyng to the number of their office vnder the hand of Jeiel the scribe, and Maasia the ruler, and vnder the hande of Hanania, (whiche was) one of the kynges lordes. 12 And the whole number of the auncient fathers and of the men of might, were two thousande and sixe hundred.

13 And vnder the hande of them was the armie of the men of warre, euen three hundred and seuen thousande, and fiue hundred that made warre with the power of an armie, helpyng the kyng agaynst the enemies.

18 And they stoode agaynst Ozias the king, and saide vnto him, It pertayneth not to thee Ozias to burne incense vnto the Lorde, but to the priestes the children of Aaron, that are consecrated for to offer incense: (c) come therefore out of the sanctuarie, for thou hast trespassed, and it is no worship to thee before the Lorde God. 19 And Ozias was wroth, and had incense in his hande to burne it, and so while he had indignation agaynst the priestes, the leprosie sprang in his forehead before the priestes in the house of the Lord, euen beside the incense aulter. 20 And Azaria the chiefe priest, with all the other priestes loked vpon him, and beholde he was become a leper in his forehead, and they thrust him from thence: and he hasted to go out, because the Lorde had smytten him. 21 And Ozias the kyng continued a leper vnto the day of his death, and dwelt severall in an house beyng a leper, and shut out of the house of the Lorde: And Iotham his sonne had the gouernaunce of the kinges house, and iudged the people of the lande. 22 The rest of the actes of Ozias first and last, dyd Esai the prophete the sonne of Amos write. 23 And so Ozias slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the feelde of the burial which (was) beside the sepulchres of the kynges: for they saide, He is a leper. 3 He built the hye gate of the temple of the Lorde, and on the wall (where the house of ordinaunce was) he built much. 4 Moreouer he buylt cities in the mountaynes of Iuda, and in the wood countrey he built castels & towres. 5 He fought with the king of the children of Ammon, and preuailed agaynst them: and the children of Ammon gaue him the same yere an hundred talentes of siluer, and ten thousand measures of wheate, and ten thousande of barlye: so much dyd the children of Ammon geue him the seconde yere, and the thirde also. 6 So Iotham became mightie, (b) because he directed his wayes before the Lorde his God.

ACHas was twentie yeres olde when he began to raigne, and raigned sixteene yeres in Hierusalem, and he dyd not that whiche is eyght in the sight of the Lorde as dyd his father Dauid: 2 For he walked in the wayes of the kynges of Israel, and made moulten vmages for Baalim. 3 He offered incense in the valley of the sonne of Hinnon, and burnt his children in fyre after the abhominations of the heathen whom the Lorde cast out before the children of Israel. 4 He offered also and burnt incense in the hygh places, and on mountaynes, and vnder euery greene tree. 5 Wherefore the Lorde his God delimered him into the hande of the king of the Syrians, whiche smote him, and caryed away a great multitude of his captiue.

6 For Pekah the sonne of Romelia slue in Juda an hundred and twentie thousande in one day, which were all fighting men: and that because they had forsaken the Lorde God of their fathers. 7 And Zichri a "mightie man of Ephraim slue Maasia the kinges sonne, and Azrica the gouernour of the house, and Elcana that was next to the kyng. 8 And the chyldren of Israel toke prisoners of their brethren two hundred thousand women, sonnes, and daughters, and caryed away much spoyle of them, and brought the spoyle to Samaria.

9 But there was a prophete of the Lordes, whose name was Obed: and he went out before the hoast that came to Samaria, and sayde vnto them, Beholde because the Lorde god of your fathers is wroth with Juda, (a) he hath deliuered them into your hande, and ye haue slayne them with cruelnesse that reacheth vp to heauen. 10 And nowe ye purpose to kepe vnder the chyldren of Juda and Hierusalem, and to make them bondmen and bondwomen: and do ye not lade your selues with sinne in the sight of the Lorde your God?

11 Nowe heare me therefore, and deliuer the captynes agayne whiche ye haue taken of your brethren: for els shall the great wrath of God be vpon you. 12 Wherefore certayne of the heads of the chyldren of Ephraim, as Azaria the sonne of Johanan, Berechia the sonne of Mesillemoth, and Ezechias the sonne of Sallum, and Amasa the sonne of Hadlai stoode vp agaynst them that came from the warre: 13 And sayde vnto them, Bryng not in the captiues hither: for where as we haue offended toward God already, ye entende to adde more to our sinnes and trespasse: for our trespasse is great already, and there is a fierce wrath agaynst Israel. 14 And vpon that, the men of armes left the captiues and the spoyle before the lordes and all the congregation: 15 And the men that were nowe rehearsed by name rose vp, and toke the prisoners, and with the spoyle clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shoed them, and gaue them to eate and to drynke, and annoynted them, and caryed all that were feeble of them vpon asses, and brought them to Jericho the citie of Palme trees to their brethren: and then they returned to Samaria agayne. 16 At that same time dyd kyng Achas send vnto the kynges of the Syrians, to haue helpe of them. 17 And the Edomites came agayne, and slue some of Juda, and caryed away captiues. 18 And the Philistines inuaded the cities in the lowe countrey, and towarde the south of Juda: and toke Bethsames, and Aialon, and Gederoth, and Socho with the townes longing thereto, and Thimna with the townes of the same, Gimso and the townes therof, and dwelt there. 19 For the Lorde brought Juda lowe because of Achas kyng of "Juda, which made Juda naked, and transgressed sore agaynst the Lorde. 20 And Thelgath Phalasey king of the Assyrians came vpon him, and troubled him rather then strengthed him. 21 For Achas toke away a portion out of the house of the lord, and out of the kinges house, and out of the Lordes houses, and gaue vnto the kyng of the Assyrians: and yet it helped him not. 22 And in the very time of his tribulation dyd kyng Achas trespasse yet more agaynst the Lorde. 23 For he offered vnto the gods of Damascus which (b) smote him: and he sayde, Because the gods of the kinges of Syria helpe them, therefore wyll I offer to them, that they may helpe me also: but they were his destruction, and (the destruction) of all Israel. 24 And Achas gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and brake them, and shut vp the doores of the house of the Lorde, and made him aultars in euery corner of Hierusalem. 25 And in all the cities of Juda he made high places to burne incense vnto other gods, and angred the Lord God of his fathers.

26 The rest of his actes, and his workes first and last, behold they are written in the booke of the kinges of Juda and Israel. 27 And Achas slept with his fathers, and they buryed him in the citie of Hierusalem: but brought him not vnto the sepulchres of the kynges of Israel: And Hezekia his sonne raigned in his steade.

HEzekia began to raigne when he was fiue and twentie yeres olde, and he raigned nine and twentie yeres in Hierusalem: and his mothers name was Abia, the daughter of Zacharia. 2 And he dyd that whiche was right in the sight of the lord in all poyntes as dyd Dauid his father. 3 He opened the (a) doores of the house of the Lord in the first yere and (b) first moneth of his raigne, and repaired them. 4 And he brought in the priestes and the Leuites, and gathered them together into the east streete, 5 And sayde vnto them, Heare me ye Leuites, and nowe be sanctified, and halowe the house of the Lorde God of your fathers, (c) bring filthynesse out of the holy place.

12 Then the Leuites arose, Mahath the sonne of Amasai, & Joel the sonne of Azaria of the children of the Caathites: and of the sonnes of Merari, Cis the sonne of Abdi, and Azaria the sonne of Jahaleiel: and of the sonnes of the Gersonites, Joah the sonne of Simma, and Eden the sonne of Joah: 13 And of the sonnes of Elizaphan, Simri and Jehiel: and of the sonnes of Asaph, Zacharia and Mathania: 14 And of the sonnes of Heman, Jehiel and Simei: and of the sonnes of Idithun, Semaia and Oziel. 15 And they gathered their brethren, and puryfied them selues, and came accordyng to the commaundement of the kyng and the wordes of the Lord for to clense the house of the Lorde.

16 And the priestes went into the inner partes of the house of the Lorde to clense it, and brought out all the vnclennesse that they founde in the temple of the Lorde, into the court of the house of the Lorde: and the Leuites toke it, to cary it out into the brooke Cedron. 17 They began the first day of the first moneth to purifie, and the eyght day of the moneth came they to the porche of the Lorde: so they sanctified the house of the Lorde in eyght dayes, and in the sixteenth day of the first moneth they made an end. 18 And they went in to Hezekia the kyng and sayde, We haue clensed all the house of the Lorde, the aulter of whole burnt offring with all his vessels, and the shew bread table with all his " apparell: 19 And all the vessels which kyng Achas dyd cast aside when he raigned and transgressed, them we haue prepared and sanctified, and beholde they are before the aulter of the Lorde. 20 And Hezekia the kyng rose early, and gathered the lordes of the citie, and went vp to the house of the Lorde. 21 And they brought seuen oxen, seuen rammes, seuen sheepe, and seuen hee goates, to be a sinne offering, for the kyngdome, for the sanctuarie, and for Juda: and he commaunded the priestes the sonnes of Aaron to offer them on the aulter of the Lord. 22 And they slue the oxen, and the priestes receaued the blood and (e) sprinckled it on the aulter: lykewyse when they had slayne the rammes, they sprinckled the blood vpon the aulter: they slue also sheepe, and they sprinckled the blood vpon the aulter. 23 And then they brought foorth the hee goates for the sinne offeryng before the kyng and the congregation, and (f) put their handes vpon them. 24 And the priestes slue them, and with the blood of them they clensed the aulter, to make satisfaction for all Israel: for the kyng commaunded that the whole burnt offering and the sinne offering (should be made) for all Israel. 25 And set

And the congregation brought in the sacrifices and thanke offeringes, & whole burnt offeringes, as many as were of a free liberal heart. 32 And the number of

A
AND Hezekia sent to al Israel and Juda, and wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasse, that they should come to the house of the Lord at Hierusalem, and kepe the passouer vnto the Lorde God of Israel. 2 And the king helde a conncell with his lordes, and all the congregation of Hierusalem, to kepe the feast of passouer in Num.ix.b. the (a) seconde moneth: 3 For they coulde not kepe it at that time, because the priestes were not sanctified sufficiently, neither was the people gathered together to Hierusalem.
4 And the thing pleased the kyng and all the congregation. 5 And they decreed that it shoulde be proclaymed throughout all Israel from Beersheba to Dan, that they should come & holde the feast of passouer vnto the lord god of Israel at Hierusalem: for they had not done it of a great (season) as it was (b) written. 6 So the postes went with letters of the kinges and of his lordes throughout all Israel and Juda, and at the commaundement of the king they sayde, Ye children of Israel, turne agayne vnto the Lorde God of Abraham, Isahac, and Israel, and he wyl returne to the remnaunt that are escaped of you out of the hande of the kinges of the Assyrians. 7 And be not ye lyke your fathers and your brethren which trespalled agaynst the Lorde God of their fathers, whiche gaue them vp to be destroyed, as ye see. 8 And now be not ye stiffe necked lyke as were your fathers: but yeelde your selues vnto the Lord, and enter into his holy place whiche he hath sanctified for euer, and serue the Lorde your God, and the fiercenesse of his wrath shall turne away from you.
9 For if ye turne agayne vnto the Lorde, then shall your brethren and your children finde compassion in the presence of them that toke them captiue, and they shall come agayne vnto this lande: for the Lorde your God is gracious and mercifull, and wyll not turne away his face from you yf ye conuert vnto him. 10 And so the postes went from citie to citie throwe the lande of Ephraim & Manasse, euen vnto Zabulon: (but they)

AFter that these deedes were faithfully done, Sennacherib king of the Assyrians came, and entred into Juda, and compassed the strong cities, and thought to winne them for him selfe. 2 And so when Hezekia sawe that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Hierusalem, 3 He toke counsell with his lordes and men of might, to stop the water of the fountaynes without the citie: and they did helpe him. 4 For there gathered many of the people together, and stopt all the welles, and the brooke that ranne through the middes of the lande, saying, Why shall the kynges of the Assyrians come and finde much water? 5 And Hezekia went to lustyly, and buylt vp the wall where it was broken, and made vp the towres, and an other wall without, & repaired Millo in the citie of Dauid, and made many darres and shieldes.

¶ The. xxxiii. Chapter.

MAnasses was twelue yeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned fiftie and fiue yeres in Hierusalem: 2 But dyd euyll in the sight of the Lorde, lyke vnto the abominations of the heathen whom the Lorde cast out before the children of Israel. 3 For he went backe, & built the hygh places which Hezekia his father had broken downe: and he reared vp aulters for Baalim, and made groues, and worshipped all the host of heauen, and serued them. 4 And he built aulters in the house of the Lord, wheras the Lorde yet had sayde, In Hierusalem shall my name be for euer. 5 And he builded aulters for all the host of heauē, in the two courtes of the house of the Lorde. 6 And he burnt his children in fire in the valley of the sonne of Hinnon: he was a sorcerer, he regarded the crying of birds, vsed inchauntmentes, and mayntayned workers with spirites and sears of fortunes, and wrought much euyll in the sight of the Lorde to anger him withall. 7 And he put the carued image and an idol which he had made, in the house of God: of which house God sayde to Dauid and to Solomon his sonne, In this house and in Hierusalem which I haue chosen afore al the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for euer. 8 Neither will I make the foote of Israel to remoue any more out of the lande which I haue ordeyned for your fathers, yf so be that they will be diligent and do al that I haue commaunded them in all the lawe and statutes, and ordinaunces by the hande of Moyses. 9 And so Manasses made Juda and the inhabiters of Hierusalem to erre, and to do worse then the heathen whom the Lorde destroyed before the children of Israel. 10 And the Lorde spake (a) to Manasses and to his people: but they wolde not regarde.

11 Wherfore the Lorde brought vpon them the captaynes of the host of the king of the Assyrians, which toke Manasses, and bounde him with fetters and chaynes, and caryed him to Babylon. 12 And when he was in tribulation, he besought the Lorde his God, and humbled him selfe exceedyngly before the God of his fathers. 13 And made intercession to him: and God was (b) intreated of him, and hearde his prayer, & brought him agayne to Hierusalem into his kingdome: and then Manasses knew that the Lorde was God. 14 After this he built a wall without the citie of Dauid on the west side of Sion, in the valley as they come to the Fishe gate, and rounde about Ophel, and brought it vp of a very great heyght, and put captaynes of warre in all the strong cities of Juda. 15 And he toke away straunge gods, and images out of the house of God, and all the aulters that he had built in the mount of the house of God and Hierusalem, and cast them out of the citie. 16 And he prepared the aulter of the Lorde, and sacrifised theron peace offeringes and thanke offeringes, and charged Juda to serue the Lord God of Israel. 17 Neuerthelesse the people did offer styll in the hygh places, (howbeit) vnto the Lord their God only. 18 The rest of the actes of Manasses, and his prayer vnto his God, and the wordes of the Sears that spake to him in the name of the Lorde God of Israel, beholde they are (written) in the sayinges of the kinges of Israel. 19 And his prayer, and howe that he was hearde, and all his sinnes, and his trespasse, and the places where he made hygh places and set vp groues and images before he was humbled, beholde they are written among the sayinges of the Sears. 20 And Manasses slept with his fathers, and they buryed him in his (c) owne house, and Amon his sonne raigned in his roome.

21 Amon was two and twentie yeres olde when he began to raigne, and raigned two yeres in Hierusalem. 22 But he did euyll in the sight of the Lorde, lyke as did Manasses his father: for Amon sacrificed to all the carued images which Manasses his father

IOsias was eyght yeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned in Hierusalem thirtie & one yeres.
2 And he dyd that which was right in the sight of the Lorde, and walked in the wayes of Dauid his father, & bowed neither to the right hande nor to the left. 3 In the eyght yere of his raigne, when he was yet a chylde, he began to seke after the God of Dauid his father: and in the twelfth yere he began to purge Iuda and Hierusalem from the hygh places, groues, carued images, and images of metal. 4 And they brake downe the aulters of Baalim euen in his (a) presence: and other images that were in greater honour then they he caused to be destroyed: and the groues, carued images, and images of metal he brake & made dust of them, & strowed it vpon the graues of them that had offered vnto them.

5 And he burnt the bones of the priestes vpon the aulters of them, and clensed Iuda & Hierusalem: 6 And so dyd he in the cities of Manasse, Ephraim, Simeon, vnto Nephthali, & in the wildernesse of them rounde about. 7 He plucked asunder the (b) aulters and the groues, and did beate the images & stampe them to powder, and cut downe all the idols throughout all the lande of Israel, and returned to Hierusalem agayne. 8 In the eyghteenth yere of his raigne, when he had purged the lande & the temple, he sent Saphan the sonne of Azalia, and Maasiah the gouernour of the citie, and Joah the sonne of Joahaz the recorder, to repaire the house of the Lorde his God. 9 And when they came to Helkiah the hye priest, they deliuered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the leuites that kept the entryes had gathered of the hande of Manasse and Ephraim, and of all that yet remayned in Israel, and of all Iuda and Beniamin, and they returned to Hierusalem. 10 And they put it in the handes of the workmen that had the ouersight of the house of the Lorde, and they gaue it to the labourers that wrought in the house of the Lorde, to repaire & mende the house. 11 Euen to masons and carpenters gaue they it to get hewed stone, and timber for couples, and for beames of the houses which the kinges of Iuda had destroyed. 12 And the men did the worke (c) vpon trust: and the ouerseers of them to courage them forwarde, were Jahath and Obadia, leuites of the children of Merari: and Secharia & Mesullam of the children of the Caathites, and other of the leuites, which all couldе skill of instrumentes of musicke. 13 And ouer the bearers of burthens, and ouer al that wrought in whatsoeuer workmanship it were, were there scribes, officers, and porters of the leuites. 14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the Lorde, Helkia the priest founde the booke of the lawe of the Lord (geuen) by Moses. 15 And Helkia aunswered and sayde to Saphan the scribe, I haue founde the booke of the lawe in the house of the Lorde. And Helkia gaue the booke to Saphan. 16 And Saphan (d) caryed the booke to the king, and brought the king worde agayne, saying, All that was committed to thy seruauntes, that do they. 17 And they haue gathered together the money that was founde in the house of the Lorde, and haue deliuered it into the handes of the ouerseers of the worke, and to the hands of the workmen. 18 And then Saphan the scribe shewed the king, saying, Helkia the priest hath geuen me a booke: And Saphan read in it before the king.
19 And when the king had heard the wordes of the lawe, he (e) tare his clothes. 20 And the king commaunded Helkia and Ahikan the sonne of Saphan, and Abdon the sonne of Micah, and Saphan the scribe, and Asaa a seruaunt of the kinges, saying,

30 And the king went vp into the house of the Lorde, and all the men of Iuda, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem, and the priestes and leuites, and all the people great and small, and (the king) did reade in their eares all the wordes of the booke of the couenaunt that was founde in the house of the Lorde. 31 And the king stoode at his standyng, and made a couenaunt before the Lorde, to folowe the Lorde, and to kepe his commaundementes, his witnesses, & his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soule, and to fulfill the wordes of the couenaunt writtren in the sayde booke. 32 And he set in their roome all them that were founde in Hierusalem and Beniamin: and the inhabiters of Hierusalem did accordyng to the couenaunt of the Lorde God of their fathers.

33 And Iosias put away all maner of abominations out of all landes that pertayned to the children of Israel, and (g) constrayned all that were found in Israel to serue the Lorde their God: and they turned not aside from the Lorde God of their fathers as long as he lyued.

20 And the rest that had escaped the swoorde caryed he to Babylon: where they were bondmen to him and his children, vntyll the tyme that Persia had the Empire: 21 To fulfyll the worde of the Lorde by the mouth of Jeremi, vntyll the lande had her pleasure of her sabbathes: for as long as she lay desolate, she kept sabbath, vntyll threescore & ten yeres were fulfylled. 22 And the (b) first yere of Cyrus king of Persia (when the worde of the Lorde spoken by the mouth of Jeremi was finished) the Lorde stirred vp the spirite of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdome, and that by writyng, saying, 23 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdomes of the earth hath the Lorde God of heauen geuen me, and hath (c) charged me to builde him an house in Hierusalem, that is in Juda: Wherfore whosoeuer is among you of all his people, the Lorde his God be with him, and let him go vp.

gaynst any straunge nation. This is the cause why Cambyses was not set in the successiue order of the monarches. Neither is there any mention of two brethren that were Magitās, which guilefully vsurped the kingdome: but their guile beyng knowen, they continued but a fewe monethes, and Darius son to Hystaspis was chosen king.

Xerxes the son of the sayde Darius succeeded him: but is not here placed in ꝑ number of the monarches, for that he left his kingdome to Darius longhande his son, (accordyng to the custome of the Persians) when he went to war agaynst the Grekes. The Greke historiographers not respectyng that custome, number the sayd Xerxes and Cambyses aboue mētioned among the sayd monarches successiuely in order, which is the cause that they count more yeres in the sayde monarchie: that is to say, 226. yeres.

As touching their confused names, ye shall vnderstande that among the Persians, Darius signifieth he that subdueth: Xerxes, a warriour: Artaxerxes, a great warriour. Also, that this name Assuerus is drawen from the Hebrues in steede of Artaxerxes. Further, that Artaxerxes was the cōmon name of all kinges of Persia, as Pharao was the common name of the kinges of Egypt, & Caesar of the Romishe Emperours. Therfore where ye finde many indifferently named Darius or Artaxerxes, or both together, that is the cause of the difficultie, howe to vnderstande vnder what king that happened which is rested in the sayd bookes of Esdras, Nehemias, Esther, Daniel, and other places of the holy scriptures, except ye well marke them, and wel vnderstande the contents of this table.

¶ The first Chapter.

1 Cyrus sendeth agayne the people that was in captiuitie, 8 and restoreth them their holy vessels.

IN the (a) first yere of Cyrus king of Persia (that the worde of the Lorde spoken by the mouth of Jeremi myght be fulfilled) the Lorde stirred vp the spirite of Cyrus king of Persia, that he caused to be proclaymed throughout all his empire, and to be written, saying,

2 Thus saith Cyrus the king of Persia, The Lorde God of heauen hath geuen me (b) all the kingdomes of the earth, and hath commaunded me to builde him an house at Hierusalem, which is in Juda. 3 Whosoeuer now among you is of his people, the Lord his God be with him, and let him go vp to Hierusalem in Juda, and builde the house of the Lord God of Israel (he is the god) that is at Hierusalem.

4 And whosoeuer remayneth yet in any maner of place where he is a straunger, let the men of that place helpe him with siluer and golde, with good & cattell, beside that which they willyngly offer for the house of God that is at Hierusalem. 5 Then gat vp the principall fathers of Juda and Beniamin, and the priestes & leuites, and all they whose spirite God had raysed to go vp & to builde the house of the Lorde which is at Hierusalem.

6 And (c) all they that were about them strengthed their hande with vessels of siluer & golde, with goodes, and cattel, and iewels, besides all that was willyngly offered. 7 And king Cyrus brought forth the vessels of the house of the Lorde which Nabuchodonosor had taken out of Hierusalem, & had put in the house of his God. 8 Those did Cyrus the king of Persia bryng forth by the hande of Mithridates the treasurer, and numbred them vnto (d) Sesbazer the prince of Juda. 9 And this is the number of them: thirtie chargers of golde, a thousande chargers of siluer, twentie and nine knyues: 10 Thirtie basons of golde, and of other siluer basons foure hundred and ten: and of other vessels a thousande. 11 All the vessels of golde and siluer were fiue thousande and foure hundred: All these dyd Sesbazer cary away with them that came vp out of the captiuitie of Babylon vnto Hierusalem.

(a) After that he & Darius had won Babylon. 2. Chr. 36. d Jere. 25. 6.

(b) For he was cheefe monarche of the worlde, and had manye nations vnder his dominion.

(c) The Babylonians & Chaldeans gaue them these gifts. Thus rather the the children of god should want for their necessities, he would stirre vp the hearts of very infidels to helpe them.

(d) So the Chaldeans called Zorobabel, who was the cheefe gouernour: so that the preeminence still remained in the house of Dauid.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

The number of them that returned from the captiuitie.

THese are the children of the (a) prouince that went vp out of the captiuitie, whom Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon had caryed away vnto Babylon: and came agayne vnto Hierusalem and into Juda, euery one vnto his citie.

of Hasum, two hundred twentie and three. 20 The children of Gebbar, ninetie and five. 21 The children of Bethlehem, an hundred twentie and three. 22 The men of Netopha, fiftie and six. 23 The men of Anathoth, an hundred twentie & eyght. 24 The children of Asmaueth, fourtie & two. 25 The children of Kiriathiarim, of Cephira and Beeroth, seuen hundred fourtie and three. 26 The children of Harama and Geba, six hundred twentie and one. 27 The men of Michmas, an hundred twentie and two. 28 The men of Bethel and Hay, two hundred twentie and three. 29 The children of Nebo, fiftie and two. 30 The children of Magbis, an hundred fiftie & six. 31 The children of the other Elam, a thousande two hundred fiftie and foure. 32 The children of Harim, three hundred and twentie. 33 The children of Lodhadid and Ono, seuen hundred twentie and five. 34 The children of Jericho, three hundred fourtie & five. 35 The children of Senaa, three thousand six hundred & thirtie. 36 The priestes: the children of Jedaia of the house of Josue, nine hundred seuentie & three. 37 The children of Immer, a thousand fiftie and two. 38 The children of Phashur, a thousande two hundred fourtie and seuen. 39 The children of Arim, a thousande and seuenteene.

59 And these went vp from Thelmelah, and from Thelharsa, Cherub, Addon, and Immer: but they coulde not discerne their fathers house and their seede, whether they were of Israel.

68 And certaine of the chiefe fathers, when they came to the house of the Lord at Hierusalem, they offred them selues willing for the house of God, to set it vp in his place: 69 And gaue golde after their habilitie, vnto the

AND when the seuenth moneth came, and the chyldren of Israel were now in their cities, the people came together as one man to Hierusalem. 2 And there stoode vp Iosue the sonne of Iosedec, and his brethren the priestes, and Zorobabel the sonne of (a) Salathiel & his brethren, and buylded the aulter of the God of Israel, to offer whole burnt offerings theron, as it is written in the lawe of Moyses the man of God. 3 And the aulter set they vpon his sockets: for there was a fearefulnes among them, because of the people of those countreys, therefore they offered whole burnt offeringes thereon vnto the Lord, (euen) whole burnt offeringes morning and euening. 4 And they helde the feast of tabernacles as it is written, and offered whole burnt sacrifices dayly, according to the number and custome day by day. 5 Afterwarde they offered dayly whole burnt offeringes also, & in the new mooones, and in all the feast dayes that were consecrated vnto the Lord, and al maner of freewill offeringes which they did of their owne free will offer vnto the Lorde. 6 From the first day of the seuenth moneth began they to offer whole burnt sacrifices vnto the Lorde: but the foundation of the temple of the Lorde was not yet layde.

The.iiii. Chapter.

1 The buylding of the temple is hindred, and howe. 11 Letters to Artaxerxes, and the aunswere.

NOw the (a) aduersaries of Iuda and Beniamin, heard that the chyldren of the captiuitie buylded the temple vnto the Lorde God of Israel: 2 And they came to Zorobabel and to the principall fathers, and sayde vnto them, We will buylde with you, for we seeke the Lorde your God, as ye do, and we haue done sacrifice vnto hym since the tyme of Asor Haddon the king of Assur whiche brought vs vp hither. 3 And Zorobabel, & Iosue, and the other auncient fathers of Israel sayde vnto them, It can not be that you and we together should build the house vnto our God: for we our selues will build alone vnto the Lord our God of Israel, as Cyrus the kyng of Persia hath commaunded vs.

4 And

4 And the folke of the land "discouraged the people of Juda, and troubled them as they were buylding: 5 And hyred counsellers against them, to hinder their deuice as long as Cyrus the king of Persia lined, vntyll the raigne of Darius kyng of Persia.

6 And in the raigne of (b) Asuerus, at the beginning of his raigne wrote they vnto him a complaint against the inhabiters of Juda and Hierusalem.

7 And in the dayes of Artaxerxes wrote Mithridath, Tabel, & the other of his counsell, vnto Artaxerxes the kyng of Persia with fayre wordes: and the writing of the letter was in the Syrians speache, and interpreted in the language of the Syrians:

8 Rehum the recorder, and Samsai the scribe wrote a letter "from Hierusalem to Artaxerxes the king, as it foloweth. 9 Then Rehum the recorder, and Samsai the scribe, and other of their company, they of Dina, of Apharsath, of Tarpelai, of "Persia, of Arache, of Babylon, of Susan, of Deha, of Elan, 10 And other of the people whom the great and noble Asnapper brought ouer, and set in the cities of Samaria, and other that are now beyond the water, & "Cheeneth.

11 This is the tenure of the letter that they sent vnto kyng Artaxerxes, Thy seruauntes, and the men that are nowe beyond the water, and in Cheeneth (salute thee.) 12 Be it knowen vnto the kyng that the Jewes whiche came vp from thee to vs, are come vnto Hierusalem, a citie seditious and frowarde, and builde the same, and set vp the walles thereof, & lay the foundations. 13 Be it knowen now vnto the king, that if this citie be buylded, and the walles made vp agayne, then shall not they gene roule, tribute, and custome, and so they shall hinder the kinges tribute. 14 And nowe we remembring that we were brought vp in the kinges pallace, & would no longer see the kinges dishonour, therfore sent we out also & certified the kyng, 15 That it may be sought in the booke of the cronicles of thy progenitours, and so shalt thou finde in the booke of the cronicles, and perceaue that this citie is seditious and noysome vnto the kinges and "lands, and that they cause other also among them to rebell of olde: and for the same cause was this citie destroyed. 16 Therfore do we certifie the kyng, that if this citie be buylded agayne, & the walles therof made vp, thou shalt hereafter haue no portion beyonde the water.

17 Then sent the kyng an aunswere vnto Rehum the recorder and Samsai the scribe, and to the other of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and vnto the other that were beyond the water "in Selam, and "Cheeth.

18 The letter which ye sent vnto vs, hath ben openly read before me.

19 And I haue commaunded to make searche, and it is found that this citie of old hath made insurrection against kinges, and that rebellion and sedition hath ben committed therein.

20 There haue ben mightie kinges also at Hierusalem, which haue raigned ouer all countreys beyond the water: and roule, tribute, and custome was geuen vnto them. 21 Geue ye nowe therefore commaundement that the same men be forbidden, and that the citie be not buylded againe, till I haue geuen another commaundement.

22 Take heede nowe that ye be not negligent to do this: for why should the kinge haue harme therby? 23 Now when the tenure of kyng Artaxerxes letter was read before Rehum and Samsai the scribe, and their companions, they went vp in all the haste to Hierusalem vnto the Jewes, and forbad them with violence and power.

24 Then (c) ceassed the worke of the house of God at Hierusalem, and continued so vnto the second yere of Darius kinge of Persia.

1 At the commaundement of Darius king of Persia after the temple was buylded and dedicate, the chyldren of Israel kepe the feast of vnleuened bread.

THen commaunded kyng Darius, that searche should be made in the

A librarie of the (kinges) treasure house, which lay at Babylon: 2 And there was founde in a coffer in the palace that is in the prouince of the Medes a volume, and therin was it thus witten as a memoriall, 3 In the first yere of kyng Cyrus, gaue the same kyng Cyrus commaundement concerning the house of God at Hie-rusalem, that the same house should be buylded in the place where they of-fer the sacrifices, and to ioyne the walles together of three score cubites height, & three score cubites breadth.

4 Three rowes of rough stones, and one rowe of newe timber: and the ex-pences shalbe geuen of the kynges house. 5 And let the golde and syluer vessels of the house of God, whiche Nabuchodonosor toke out of the tem-ple at Hierusalem and brought vnto Babylon, be restored, and brought a-gayne vnto the temple at Hierusalem to their place in the house of God.

6 Nowe therefore thou Thathanai captayne beyond the water, & Sthar-buzanai, and your counsaylers, and Apherschei whiche are beyonde the water, get ye away from them.

7 Let the worke of the house of this God alone, that the captayne of the Jewes and their elders may buylde the house of God in his place.

8 I haue commaunded what ye shall do to the elders of Juda for the buyl-ding of the house of God, that of the kynges goodes, euen of the tri-bute beyonde the water, foorthwith expences be geuen vnto the men, that they be not hindred.

9 And if they haue neede of calues, rammes, and lammes for the whole burnt offering of the God of heauen, wheate, salt, wine, & oyle, after the custome of the priestes at Hierusalem, let the same be geuen them dayly, that there be no default: 10 That they may haue to offer sweete sauours vnto the God of heauen, and pray for the kinges life, and for his children.

11 And such a commaundement haue I geuen, that what man soeuer he be that altereth this worde, there shall a beame be taken from his house, and set vp, and he shalbe hanged thereon, and his house shalbe made a dounghill for the same thing. 12 And the God that set his name there, destroy all kinges and people that put to their hande to alter and to breake downe this house of God which is at Hierusalem. I Darius haue made a decree, that this be done with speede.

13 Then Thathanai the captayne (of the countrey) beyonde the water, and Sethrabuzanai, with their companyons, according to that whiche kyng Darius had sent, so they did speedyly.

14 And the elders of the Iewes builded, & they prospered through the prophesying of Aggeus the prophete and Zachari the sonne of Iddo, and they builded, and they finished it according to the commaundement of the god of Israel, and after the commaundement of Cyrus and Darius and Artaxerxes, kinges of Persia. 15 And this house was finished the thirde day of the moneth (a) Adar, euen in the (b) firt yere of the raigne of kyng Darius.

16 And the children of Israel, the priestes, the Leuites, & the other children of the captiuitie, helde the dedication of this house of God with ioy.

17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred calues, two hundred rammes, foure hundred lammes: and for the reconciling of al Israel twelue hee goates, according to the number of the tribes of Israel: 18 And set the priestes in their sundry courses, and the Leuites in their diuers offices, to minister vnto God at Hierusalem, as it is written in the booke of Moyses. 19 And the children of the captiuitie held the Passouer vpon the fourteenth day of the firt moneth: 20 For the priestes and Leuites were purified all together, & killed the Passouer for al the children of the captiuitie, and for their brethren the priestes, & for themselues.

21 And the children of Israel which were come againe out of captiuitie, and all such as had seperated themselues vnto them from the filthinesse of the heathen of the lande, to seeke the Lorde God of Israel, dyd eate, 22 And helde the feast of vnleauened bread seuen dayes with ioy: For the Lorde had made them glad, and turned the heart of the kyng of Assur vnto them, to strengthe their handes in the worke of the house of God, euen the God of Israel.

The. vii. Chapter.

1 By the commaundement of the kyng, Esdras and his companions come to Hierusalem. 27 He geueth thanks to God.

AFter these thinges, there was in the raigne of (a) Artaxerxes kyng of Persia, one Esdras the son of Saraia, the sonne of Azaria, the sonne of Helkia, 2 The sonne of Sallum, the sonne of Zadoc, the sonne of Ahitob, 3 The sonne of Amaria, the sonne of Azaria, the sonne of Meraioth, 4 The sonne of Zerahi, the son of Ozi, the sonne of Bikri, 5 The sonne of Abisua, the sonne of Phinehes, the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the chiefe priest. 6 This Esdras also went vp from Babylon, & was a perfect (b) scribe in the law of Moyses whiche the Lorde God of Israel dyd geue: and the kyng gaue hym all that he required, according to the hand of the Lord his God whiche was vpon hym. 7 And there went vp certayne of the children of Israel, of the Priestes, Leuites, singers, porters, and of the Nethinims vnto Hierusalem, in the seuenth yere of king Artaxerxes. 8 And he came to Hierusalem in the fifth moneth, euen in the seuenth yere of the king. 9 For vpon the first day of the firt moneth began he to go vp from Babylon: and on the first day of the fifth moneth came he to Hierusalem, according to the (c) good hand of his God (that was) vpon him. 10 For Esdras prepared his heart to seeke the law of the Lord, and to do it, & to teache the precepte and iudgementes in Israel. 11 And this is the tenure of the letter that kyng Artaxerxes gaue vnto Esdras the priest, and scribe, whiche was a writer of the wordes and commaundementes of the Lord, and of his statutes ouer Israel. 12 Artaxerxes

13 I haue commaunded that all the people of Israel, and of the priestes and Leuites in my realme, which are minded of their owne good will to go vp to Hierusalem, go with thee.

14 And therfore art thou sent of the kyng and of his seuen counsailers, to visit Juda and Hierusalem, according to the lawe of thy God, which is in thy hand: 15 And that thou shouldest take with thee siluer and golde which the kyng and his counsailers offer of their owne good wil vnto the God of Israel, whose habitation is at Hierusalem: 16 And all the siluer and golde that thou canst finde in all the "countrey of Babylon, with it that the people offer of their owne good will, and the priestes geue willingly for the house of their God which is at Hierusalem: 17 That thou mayest bye diligently with the same money, oxen, rams, & lammes, with their meate offeringes & drinke offeringes, and thou shalt offer them vpon the aulter of the house of your God, which is at Hierusalem.

18 And looke what lyketh thee and thy brethren to do with the remnant of the siluer and golde, that do after the will of your God. 19 And the vessels that are geuen thee for the ministration in the house of thy God, those deliuer thou before God at Hierusalem. 20 And whatsoeuer thing more shalbe nedefull for the house of thy God whiche is necessary for to spend, thou shalt receaue the charges out of the kinges treasure house.

21 I king Artaxerxes haue commaunded all the treasurers beyonde the water, that loke what so euer Esdras the priest and scribe in the lawe of the God of heauen requireth of you, that ye fulfill the same speedyly,

22 Vntill an hundred talentes of siluer, and till an hundred quarters of wheate, and till an hundred batres of wine, and till an hundred batres of oyle, and salt without measure.

23 Whatsoeuer also is the commaun-dement of the God of heauen, let the same be done without any delay for the house of the God of heauen, that he be not wroth against the realme, and against the king and his children.

24 And we certifie you, that ye haue no authoritie to require taxing and custome and yerely rentes vpon any of the priestes, leuites, singers, porters, Nethinims, and ministers in the house of his God. 25 And thou Esdras, after the wysoome of thy God, that is in thine "hand, set iudges and arbiters (by my authoritie) to iudge al the people that is beyond the wates, euen all such as know the law of thy God: and them that knowe it not, those see that ye teache. 26 And whosoeuer will not fulfill the lawe of thy God, and the kynges law, let him haue his iudgement without delay, whether it be vnto death, or to be rooted out, or to be condemned in goods, or to be put in pryson. 27 Blessed be the Lorde God of our fathers, which so had inspired the kynges heart, to garnishe the house of the Lorde that is at Hierusalem: 28 And hath enclined mercy vnto me in the presence of the kyng and his counsaylers, and before al the kinges high estates:
and I was comforted euen as the hand of the Lorde my God was vpon me, and so gathered I the heades of Israel together, that they might go vp with me.

20 And of the Nethinims whom Dauid and the princes gaue to minister vnto the Leuites, two hundred and twentie of Nethinims: which al were named by name. 21 And euen there at the water beside Ahaua I proclaymed a fast, that we might humble our selues before our God, and seeke of him a right way for vs, & for our chyldren, & for al our substaunce. 22 For I was ashamed to require of the king souldiers and horsemen to helpe vs against the enemie in the way: for we had spoken vnto the king, saying, The hande of our God is vpon all them that seeke hym in goodnesse, and his power and wrath is against all them that forsake hym. 23 So we fasted, and besought our God for this, and he was intreated of vs. 24 And I tooke out twelue of the chiefe priestes, Sarabia, and Hasabia, and ten of their brethren with them. 25 And weyed them the siluer and golde, and vessels that were appointed for the house of our god, which the king and his counsaylers, and his lordes, and all Israel that were there at hand had geuen together. 26 And I weyed vnto their hande fiue hundred and fiftie talentes of siluer, and in siluer vessels an hundred talentes, and in gold an hundred talentes: 27 Twentie basons of gold of a thousande (a) drams, & two costly vessels of good braste, as cleare as golde. 28 And I said vnto them, Ye are consecrate vnto the Lorde, like as the vessels are holy also: and the gold and siluer are geuen of a good wyl vnto the Lorde God of your fathers.

30 Then toke the Priestes and Leuites the weyed siluer and golde, and vessels, to bryng it to Hierusalem vnto the house of our God. 31 And we brake vp from the water of Ahaua on the twelfth day of the first moneth, to go vnto Hierusalem: & the hande of our God was vpon vs, and deliuered vs from the hand of the enemies, and of suche as layde wayte for vs by the way. 32 And we came to Hierusalem, and abode there three dayes.

33 But on the fourth day was the siluer and gold and vessels weyed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the sonne of Uria the priest, and with hym was Eleazar the sonne of Phineches, and with them was Josabad the sonne of Josue, and Noadia the sonne of Bennui the Leuites.

34 Accordyng to the number and weight of euery one, was the wayght all written vp at the same tyme.

35 And the chyldren of the captiuitie, whiche were come out of captiuitie, offred whole burnt offrynges vnto the God of Israel, twelue bullockes for all Israel, ninetie and fiue rammes, seuentie and seuen lammes, twelue hee goates for sinne (offering) all to the whole burnt offering of the Lorde.

The.ix. Chapter.

1 Esdras complayneth on the people that had turned them selues from God, and maried with the gentiles. 6 He prayeth vnto God.

A

WHen these things were done, the rulers came to me, and sayd, The people of Israel, and the Priestes and Leuites are not separated from the people of the landes, as touching their abhominations: namely of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Pherezites, Iebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amozites. 2 For they haue taken the daughters of the same to them selues and to their sonnes, and the holy seede is mixed with the nations of the landes, and the hande of the princes and rulers hath ben principall in this treſpaſſe.

3 And when I heard this saying, I rent my clothes and my garment, and pluckt of the heere of my head and of my beard, & " sate mourning. 4 And there resorted vnto me all suche as feared the wordes of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of the (people) of the captiuitie: And I sate " mourning vntyll the euening sacrifice. 5 And about the euening sacrifice I arose vp from my heauinesse, and rent my clothes and my rayment, and fell vpon my knees, and spread out my handes vnto the Lord my God,

6 And sayd, My God, I am ashamed, and dare not lyft vp myne eyes vnto thee my God: for our wickednesses are growen ouer our head, and our treſpaſſe is waxed great vnto the (a) heauen. 7 Sence the time of our fathers haue we ben in great treſpaſſe vnto this day, and because of our wickednesse haue we and our kinges and our prieſtes ben deliuered into the hande of the kinges of the nations, vnto the swarde, into captiuitie, into a spoyle, and into confusion of face, as (it is to see) this day. 8 And nowe for a litle space grace hath ben shewed from the Lorde our God, in causing a remnaunt to escape, and in geuing vs (b) a nayle in his holy place, that our God may lighte our eyes, and gene vs a litle lyfe to take breath in our bondage: 9 For we were bondmen, and yet our God hath not forsaken vs in our bondage, but hath enclined mercy vnto vs in the sight of the kyng of Perſia to gene vs lyfe, to set vp the house of our God, and to redreſſe the desolation thereof, and to geue vs a wall in Juda & Hierusalem. 10 And now O our God, what shall we say after this? for we haue forsaken thy commaundementes, 11 Which thou hast commaunded by thy seruauntes the prophetes, saying, The land vnto whiche ye go to polleſſe, it is an vncleane lande because of the filthynesse of the people of the landes, whiche with their abhominations haue made it full of vncleannesse on euery side.

12 Therefore shall ye not geue your daughters vnto their sonnes, & them daughters shall ye not take vnto your sonnes, nor seeke their peace & wealth for euer: that ye may be strong and " enioy the goodnesse of the lande, and that ye and your chyldren may haue the inheritaunce of it for euermore.

13 And after that all these thinges are come vpon vs because of our euill deedes and great treſpalles (seing that thou our God hast " stayed vs from beyng (c) beneath for our iniquities) and hast geuen vs such deliuerance.

14 Should we returne to breake thy commaundementes, and ioyne in affinitie with the people of these abhominations? wouldest not thou be angry towardes vs tyl thou hadst consumed vs, so that there shoulde be no remnaunt, nor any escaping? 15 O Lorde God of Israel, thou art righteous, for we remayne yet escaped, as (it is yet to see) this day: Beholde also in thy presence are we in our treſpaſſes, and because of it may we not stande before thee.

The.x. Chapter.

1 The people repent and turne, and put away their straunge wyues.

AND when Esdras prayed after this maner, and (a) knowledged, wept, and lay before the house of God, there resorted vnto hym out of Israel a very great congregation, of men, and women, and chyldren: and the people wept very sore. 2 And Sechania the sonne of Jehiel, one of the children of Elam, aunswered, and said vnto Esdras, We haue treſpalled against our God, & haue taken straunge wiues of the people of the lande: Yet now there is (b) hope in Israel concerning this thing. 3 For nowe we will make a couenaunt with our god, & put away all the wiues & such as are borne of them, according to the counsell of the Lorde, and of those that feare the commaundementes of our God, that we may do according to the lawe.

(b) That is, a resting place: it is a similitude taken of them that remaine styll in a place. Esai. 22. verse. 23.

4 Get thee vp, for this matter belongeth vnto thee, we also will be with thee: be of good comfort therefore, and do it. 5 Then arose Esdras, and toke an othe of the cheefe priestes and Leuites, and of all Israel, that they should do according to this word: and they swore. 5 And Esdras rose vp from before the house of God, & went into the chamber of Johanan the sonne of Eliasib: and when he came thyther, he dyd eate no bread, nor drunke water: for he mourned because of the transgression of the people that had ben in captiuitie. 7 And they caused a proclamation to go throughout Juda and Hierusalem vnto al them of the captiuitie, that they should gather them selues together vnto Hierusalem: 8 And that whosoeuer came not within three dayes, according to the deuice of the rulers and elders, all his substaunce should be forfayted, and he should be put out from the congregation of them of the captiuitie. 9 Then al the men of Juda and Beniamin gathered them selues together vnto Hierusalem within three dayes, euen the twentieth day of the ninth moneth, and all the people sate in the streete of the house of God, and trembled because of this matter, and for the raine.

10 And Esdras the priest stoode vp, and sayde vnto them, Ye haue transgressed, & haue taken straunge wiues, to make the trespalle of Israel yet more. 11 " Confelle nowe therefore vnto the Lorde God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate your selues from the people of the lande, and from the straunge wiues. 12 And all the congregation aunswered, and sayde with a loude voyce, It shalbe so, and we will do as thou hast sayde, 13 But the people are many, and it is a rayny weather, and the people are to fayne to tary without in the streete, neither is this a worke of one day or two: for " we haue offended very sore in this thing. 14 Let our rulers stand therefore in all the congregation, and let al them which haue taken straunge wiues in our cities come at the tyme appoynted, and let the elders of euery citie and their iudges be with them, til the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from vs. 15 Then were appoynted Jonathan the sonne of Asahel & Jahasia the sonne of Thecua ouer this matter: & Mesullam and Sabathai the Leuites helped them.

16 And the children of the captiuitie did euen so: and Esdras the priest, and the auncient heads throughout the house of their fathers, al men of great fame, separated them selues, and sate them downe in the first day of the tenth moneth to examine the matter. 17 And vntyll the first day of the first moneth, they were finishing the busines with all the men that had taken straunge wiues. 18 And among the children of the priestes ther were men found that had taken straunge wyues: namely among the children of Josue the sonne of Josedec, and of his brethren, Maasia, and Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedalia.

19 And they gaue their handes that they would put away their wiues: and they that had trespalled, gaue a ramme for their trespalle. 20 And among the children of Immer: Hanani, and Zebadia. 21 Among the children of Harim: Maasia, Elia, Semeia, Jehiel, Ozias. 22 Among the children of Pashur: Elioenai, Maasia, Ismael, Nethanael, Josabad, and Elasah.

23 Among the Leuites: Josabad, Semei, and Celaia (whiche same is Celitah) Phathaiah, Juda, and Eliezer. 24 Among the singers also, Eliasib: and among the porters, Sellum, and Telem, and Uri. 25 And of (c) Israel: among the children of Pharos, Remeia, Jesia, Melchia, Miamin, Eliezer, Melchia, and Banaiah.

26 Among the children of Elam: Mathania, Zacharia, Jehiel, Abdi, Jerimoth, and Elia. 27 Among the children of Zaeth: Elioenai, Eliasib, Mathania, Jerimoth, Zabad, and Aziza. 28 Among the children of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hanania, Zabbai, & Athalai. 29 Among the children of Bani: Mesullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jasub, Saal, and Jeramoth. 30 Among the children of the captayne of Moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaia, Maasia, Mathania, Besaleel, Bennui, & Manasse. 31 Among the children of Harim: Eliezer, Jsiah, Melchia, Semeia, & Simeon, 32 Beniamin, Malluch, and Semariah. 33 Among the children of Hasum: Matthenai, Mathatha, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasse, & Semei. 34 Among the children of Bani: Maadai, Amram, & Uel, 35 Banea, Badaia, Cheliau, 36 Vaniah, Maremoth, Eliasib, 37 Mathaniah, Mathanai, Jasi, 38 Bani, Binnui, and Semei, 39 Selemia, Nathan, Adaiah, 40 Machnadebai, Sasai,

¶ The firſt Chapttr.

1 Nehemias bewayleth the calamitie of Hieruſalem. 5 He confeſſeth the ſinnes of the people, and prayeth to God for them.

THe wordes of Nehemias the ſonne of Hachalia. In the moneth (a) Cheſleu, in the twentith yere, as I was in the caſtel at Suſan, 2 Came Hanani, one of my brethren, he and the men of Juda: and I aſked them how the Jewes dyd that were delyuered and eſcaped from the captiuitie, and howe it went at Hieruſalem. 3 And they ſayde vnto me, The remnaunt that are left of the captiuitie there in the lande, are in great affliction and rebuke: the wal of Hieruſalem alſo is broken downe, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire. 4 And when I heard theſe wordes, I ſate downe and wept, and mourned (certayne) dayes, and faſted and prayed before the God of heauen: 5 And ſaid, O lord God of heauen, thou great and terrible God, thou that kepeſt couenaunt and mercy for them that loue thee and obſerue thy commaundementes: 9 Let thine eares hearken I beſeeche thee, and let thine eyes be open, that thou mayeſt heare the prayer of thy ſeruaunt, which I now pray before thee day and night for the chyldren of Iſrael thy ſeruauntes, and knowledge the ſinnes of the chyldren of Iſrael whiche we haue ſinned againſt thee: both I and my fathers houſe haue ſinned, 7 We haue greeuously ſinned againſt thee, and haue not kept thy commaundementes, ſtatutes, and iudgementes, whiche thou commaundeſt thy ſeruaunt Moyſes. 8 I beſeche thee call to remembraunce the worde that thou commaundeſt thy ſeruaunt Moyſes, and ſaydeſt, Ye wyll tranſgreſſe, and I wyll ſcatter you abroade among the nations. 9 But yf ye turne vnto me, and kepe my commaundementes, and do them: though ye were caſt out vnto the vttermoſt part of heauen, yet wyll I gather you from thence, and wyll bryng you vnto the place that I haue choſen to ſet my name there. 10 They are thy ſeruauntes and thy people, whom thou haſt delyuered through thy great power, and in thy myghtie hande. 11 O Lorde I beſeeche thee, let thine eare hearken to the prayer of thy ſeruaunt, and to the prayer of thy ſeruauntes, whoſe deſire is to feare thy name: and let thy ſeruaunt proſper this day, and graunt hym mercie in the ſight of (b) this man. The.ii. Chapter.

1 After Nehemias had obteyned letters of Artaxerxes, 11 he came to Hieruſalem, 17 and buylded the walles.

IN the moneth (a) Niſan in the twentith yere of king Artaxerxes, the wine ſtoode before him: & I toke vp the wine, & gaue it vnto the kyng: and I had not ben before heaup in his preſence. 2 And the kyng ſayde vnto me, Why looketh thou ſo ſadly, ſeeyng thou art not ſicke? It is nothyng els but that thou art heauy hearted. And I was ſore afrayde, 3 And ſayd vnto the king, God ſaue the kyng for euer: howe ſhoulde I not looke ſadly, when the citie and place of my fathers buriales lye waſte, and the gates thereof are conſumed with fire? 4 And the kyng ſayde vnto me, What is then thy requeſt? I made my prayer alſo to the God of heauen: 5 And ſayde vnto the kyng, If it pleaſe the kyng, and yf thy ſeruaunt haue founde fauour in thy ſight, ſend me vnto Juda vnto the citie of my fathers buriales, that I may buylde it. 6 And the king ſayde vnto me (the queene ſittyng by hym,) howe long ſhall thy iourney continue, and when wylt thou come agayne? And it pleaſed the kyng to ſende me, and I ſet hym a tyme.

(a) Which was the firſt moneth of the yere, and conteyneth part of March and part of Aprill.

7 And ſayde vnto the kyng, If it pleaſe the kyng, let hym geue me letters

ters to the captaynes whiche are beyonde the water, that they may conuay me ouer, till I come into Iuda:
8 And letters vnto Asaph the lorde of the kynges wood, that he may geue me tymber to make beames for the gates of the palace which is harde by the house, and for the walles of the citie, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the kyng gaue me according to the * hande of my God whiche was good vppon me.

9 And when I came to the captaynes beyonde the water, I gaue them the kinges letters: And the kyng had sent captaynes of the armie and horsemen with me. 10 Sanaballat also the Horonite, and Tobia a seruaunt the Ammonite hearde of it, and it greeued them sore, that there was come a man whiche sought the wealth of the children of Israel. 11 And I came to Hierusalem, and was there three dayes. 12 And I gat me vp in the night season, and a fewe men with me, neither tolde I any man what God had geuen me in my heart to do at Hierusalem: and there was not one beast with me, saue it that I rode vpon. 13 And I departed in the night by the valley port, before the Dragon well, and to the Doung port, and considered the walles of Hierusalem how they were broken downe, and the portes thereof consumed with fyre.

14 And I went ouer vnto the Well port, and to the kynges * Conduite, and there was no roome for the beast that was vnder me to passe.
15 Then went I in the night by the brooke side, and considered the wall, and turned backe, and came home agayne by the Valley port. 16 And the rulers knewe not whyther I went or what I dyd: neither dyd I as yet tell it vnto the Iewes, to the priestes, to the noble men, to the rulers, and to the other that laboured in the worke.
17 Afterwarde saide I vnto them, Ye see the miserie that we are in, howe Hierusalem lyeth waste, and howe the gates therof are burnt with fire: come therefore, and let vs builde vp the wall of Hierusalem, and that we be no more a rebuke. 18 Then I tolde them of the hande of my God that it was gratious ouer me, and the kinges wordes that he had spoken vnto me: and they saide, Let vs get vp and builde. And they (b) strengthed their handes to good. 19 But when Sanaballat the Horonite, and Tobia the seruaunt an Ammonite, and Gesem the Arabian hearde it, they laughed vs to scorne, and despised vs, and saide, What is this that ye do? Will ye * fall (c) away from the kyng?

20 Then answered I them, and saide, The God of heauen, he it is that hath graunted vs prosperitie, and we his seruauntes will get vp and builde: as for you, ye haue no portion, nor right, nor remembraunce in Hierusalem.

The. iii. Chapter.

The number of them that buylded the walles.

AND Eliasib the hye priest gat him vp with his brethren the priestes, & they buylded the Sheepe gate: they repayred it, and set vp the doores of it, euen vnto the towre Mea (a) repaired they it, and vnto the towre of Hananeel. 2 Next vnto him also buylded the men of Iericho: and beside him buylded Zachur the sonne of Amri. 3 But the Fishe port dyd the children of Asnaa buylde, which also layed the beames thereof, and set on the doores, lockes, and barres of it. 4 And next vnto them builded Meremoth the sonne of Uria the sonne of Haccos: and next vnto them buylded Mesullam the sonne of Berachia the sonne of Mesesabel: and next vnto them buylded Zadoc the sonne of Baana. 5 And next vnto hym buylded they of Thecoa: but the great men that were among them (b) put not theyr neckes to the worke of theyr Lorde. 6 The Olde gate buylded Iehoiada the sonne of Phaseah, and Mesullam the sonne of Besodia, they layed the beames therof, and set on the doores, lockes, & barres of it. 7 Next vnto them buylded Melatiah of Gibeon, and Iadon of Meronа, men of Gibeon and of Mispah, vnto the throne of the duke (which was) beyonde the ryuer.
8 Next vnto hym buylded Esiel the sonne of Harhaiah of the goldesmythes: next vnto him also buylded Hananiah the sonne of Harakahim, & they repaired Hierusalem vnto the broade wall. 9 Next vnto them builded Raphaiah the sonne of Hur, the ruler of the halfe part of Hierusalem.
10 Next vnto hym buylded Iedaia the sonne of Harumaph ouer agaynst his house: and next vnto hym buylded Hattus the sonne of Hasabnia.

(a) They were encouraged and gaue them selues to do well, and to trauaile in his worthy enterprise

(c) Thus the wicked when they will burthen the children of god, euer lay treason vnto their charge, both because it maketh them most odious to the world, and also stirreth the hatred of princes most against them.

(a) In Hebreiwe they sanctified it, that is, they finished it, & so dedicated it to the lord by prayer in desiryng him to maynetayne it.

11 But Melchia the sonne of Harim, & Hasub the sonne of the captaine of Moab buylded the other peece, and the towre beside the Furnaces.

12 Next vnto hym builded Sallum the sonne of * Hallohes, the ruler of the halfe part of Hierusalem, he & his daughters. 13 The valley gate buylded Hanun and the citizens of Zanoa: they builded it, and set on the doores, lockes, and barres therof, and a thousande cubites on the wall, vnto the Doung port. 14 But the Doung port builded Melchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of the fourth part of Bethacharem: he repayred it, and set on the doores, lockes, and barres therof.

15 But the Well gate repaired Sallum the sonne of Cholhosah, the ruler of the fourth part of Mispah: he builded it, and couered it, and set on the doores, lockes, and barres therof: and the wal vnto the Fyshe poole Siloah by the kynges garden, and vnto the steps that go downe from the citie of Dauid. 16 After him builded Nehemias the sonne of Asbok, the ruler of the halfe part of Bethzur, vntyll the other side ouer against the Sepulchres of Dauid, and to the Fishe poole that was repayred, and vnto the house of the Mighty. 17 After him builded the Leuites, Rehum the sonne of Bani: and next vnto him builded Hasabia the ruler of the halfe part of Keilah in his quarter. 18 After him builded their brethren Banai the sonne of Henadad the ruler of the halfe part of Keilah. 19 And after him builded Ezer the sonne of Josue the ruler of Mispah the other peece, harde ouer against the goyng vp to the house of armure (that was) in the corner.

20 Againe, after him brake forth Baruch the son of Zachai of (c) indignation, and repaired the other peece from the turning corner, vnto the doore of the house of Eliasib the hye priest.

21 After him also builded Merimoth the sonne of Vria the sonne of Haccos the other peece, from the doore of the house of Eliasib, euen as long as the house of Eliasib extended. 22 After him builded the priestes, the (d) men of the playne. 23 After hym buylded Beniamin and Hasub ouer against their house: and after hym wrought Azaria the sonne of Maasia the sonne of Anania by his house. 24 After him also buylded Bennui the sonne of Henadad the other peece, from the house of Azaria vnto the turnyng (of the wal) and vnto the corner. 25 After hym builded Pala the sonne of Vsai ouer against the corner, and the hygh towre which lyeth out ouer from the kinges house, that was beside the court of the prison: after hym Phadaia the sonne of Pharos. 26 As for the Nethinims they dwelt in the strong holde vnto the water gate towarde the east, and to the towre that lyeth out.

27 After hym buylded they of Thecua the other peece ouer against the great towre that lyeth outwarde, vnto the wall of the strong holde. 28 But from aboue the Horse gate forth builded the priestes euery one ouer against his house. 29 And after them buylded Zadoc the sonne of Immer ouer against his house: after hym buylded also Semeia the sonne of Sechania the keper of the east gate. 30 After hym buylded Hanania the sonne of Selemia, and Hanun the sonne of Zalaph the sixt, the other peece: and after him buylded Mesullam the sonne of Barachia ouer against his * lodge house. 31 After hym buylded Melchia the goldsmithes sonne vnto the house of the Nethinims and of the marchauntes, ouer against the gate Mephkad, and to the parlour in the corner. 32 And betweene the parlour of the corner vnto the sheepe gate buylded the goldsmithes and the marchauntes.

The. iiii. Chapter.

3 The buyldyng of Hierusalem is hyndred. 15 But God breaketh theyr enterprise. 17 The Iewes buylde with one hande, and holde theyr weapon in the other.

BVt when Sanaballat heard that we buylded the wall, he was wroth in him selfe, and toke great indignation, and mocked the Iewes:

2 And sayde before his brethren and the souldiers of Samaria, What do these impotent Iewes? * will the (heathen) suffer them? shall they offer? shall they perfourme it in one day? shall they make the stones whole againe that are brought to dust and brent? 3 And Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and said, Though they build, yet yf a fore go vp, he shall breake downe theyr stony wall.

tie. 5 (a)Couer not their wickednes, and let not their sinne be put out in thy presence: for they haue prouoked the builders. 6 And so builded we the wal, and it was ioyned whole together vnto the halfe heyght therof: and the people were minded to labour.

7 But when Sanaballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, Ammonites, and Asdodites heard that the walles of Hierusalem were made vp, and that the breaches began to be stopped, they were very wroth, 8 And conspired al together to come and fight against Hierusalem, and to make an "hynderaunce therein. 9 Neuertheless, we made our prayer vnto our God, and set watchmen by them day and nyght, because of them. 10 And Juda sayd, The strength of the bearers is feeble, and there is yet muche more moter, and we are not able to buylde on the wall. 11 And our aduersaries sayde, They shall not knowe, neither see, tyll we come in the middes among them, and slay them, and cause the worke to ceasse. 12 But when the Jewes (which dwelt beside them,) came, they told vs (b)ten times, that in all places where ye go vnto, they are appointed to fall vpon vs. 13 Therefore set I the people after their kinredes, with their swordes, speares, and bowes, beneath in the lowe places behinde the wall vpon the toppes of the stones. 14 And I loked, and gat me vp, and sayd vnto the cheefe men, to the rulers, and to the other people, Be not ye afrayde of them: but thinke rather vpon the great Lorde whiche ought to be feared, and fight for your brethren, your sonnes, your daughters, your wiues, and your houses. 15 Neuertheless, when our enemies heard that we had gotten worde of it, God brought their counsel to naught: and we turned all againe to the wall, euery one vnto his labour.

16 And from that time forth, the halfe part of the young men dyd the labour, & the other halfe part of them held the speares, shieldes, bowes, and brestplates, and the rulers (stoode) (c) behind al the house of Juda. 17 They whiche buylded on the wall, and they that bare burthens, and those that laded them, with one hande dyd euery one his worke, & with the other helde his weapon. 18 For euery one that buylded had his sworde girded by his thigh, and so buylded they: And he that blewe the trumpet was beside me. 19 And I said vnto the principal men, to the rulers, and to the other people, The worke is great and large, and we are separated vpon the wal one farre from another. 20 Loke in what place therfore ye heare the noise of the trumper, resort ye thyther vnto vs, and our god shall fight for vs:

21 And we will be labouring in the worke. And the halfe part of them helde their speares from the morning spring, tyll the starres came forth.

22 And at the same time sayd I vnto the people, Let euery one with his seruant lodge within Hierusalem, that in the night season we may watch, and labour on the day tyme. 23 As for me and my brethren, my seruauntes, and the men of the watch which followed me, we put neuer of our clothes, saue only because of the washyng.

The. v. Chapter.

1 The people are oppressed and in necessitie. 7 Nehemias forbiddeth vsurie.

AND there arose a great complaynt of the people and their wyues against their brethren the Jewes.

2 For there were some that said, Our sonnes and daughters and we are very many: therefore will we take corne for them that we may eate and lyue.

3 Some also there were that sayde, Let vs set our lande, vineyardes, and houses to pledge, and take vp corne in the dearth. 4 But some there were that sayde, We haue borowed money for the kinges tribute, and that vpon our landes and vineyardes. 5 And now our flesh is as the (a)flesh of our brethren, and our children as their children: and loe we bring into subiection our sonnes and our daughters as seruantes, and some of our daughters are subdued vnto bondage already, and no strength is there in our handes to redeeme them, & other men haue our landes and vineyardes. 6 And when I heard their complaynt and suche wordes, it displeased me sore. 7 And I aduised so in my minde, that I rebuked the counsellers and the rulers, and sayd vnto them, Euery one of you taketh vsury of his brother. And I brought a (b) great congregation against them, 8 And sayde vnto them, We after our abilitie haue redeemed our brethren the Jewes, whiche were solde vnto the heathen: And wil you sell your brethren againe, and shall they be solde vnto vs? 6 Thou art Lorde alone, thou hast made heauen and the heauen of all heauens with all their hoast, the earth and all thinges that are therein, the sea and all that is therein, and thou preseruest them all, and the hoast of heauen worshippeth thee. 7 Thou art, O Lorde, the God that hast chosen Abram, and broughtest him out of Ur in Chaldea, and calledst him Abraham: 8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a couenant with him, to geue vnto his seede the lande of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Iebusites, and Gergesites, and hast made good thy wordes: for thou art righteous,

9 And hast considered the miserie of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their complaynt by the red sea: 10 And shewed tokens and wonders vppon Pharao and all his seruauntes, and on all the people of his lande: for thou knewest that they were prelumptuous and cruell agaynst them: and so madest thou thee a name as it is this day. 11 And the (red) sea diddest thou diuide in sunder before them, so that they went through the middest of the sea * drye shod: and their persecuters threwest thou into the deepe, as a stone in the mightie waters: 12 And leddest them on the day time in a cloudie piller, and on the night season in a piller of fire, to shew them light in the way that they went. 13 Thou camest downe also vpon mount Sinai, and spakest vnto them from heauen, and gauest them right iudgementes, true lawes, good commaundementes and statutes: 14 And declaredst vnto them thy holy sabbath, and commaundedst them precepte, ordinaunces, & lawes by the hand of Moyses thy seruaunt:

15 And gauest them bread from heauen when they were hungery, & broughtest foorth water for them out of the rocke when they were thirstie, & promisedst them that they should go in and take possession of the lande ouer which thou haddest lyft vp thyne hand for to geue them. 16 But they and our fathers were proude and hardenecked, so that they folowed not thy commaundementes: 17 And wouldе not obey, neither were mindefull of the wonders that thou dyddest for them: but hardened their neckes, and had in their heads to returne to their bondage by their rebellion: but thou O God of mercies, gracious, and full of compassion, of long suffering, and of great mercie, yet forsookest them not,

18 Moreouer when they had made them a moulten calfe, and saide, This is thy God that brought thee out (of the lande) of Egypt, and dyd blasphemies: 19 Yet forsookest thou them not in the wyldernesse according to thy great mercies: and the cloudie piller departed not from them on the day time to leade them the way, neither the piller of fire in the night season to shewe them light in the way by which they should go. 20 And thou gauest them thy good spirite to enfourme them and withheldest not thy Manna from their mouth, and gauest them water when they were thirstie.

21 Fourtie yeres long dyddst thou feede them in the wyldernesse, so that they lacked nothing: their clothes waxed not olde, and their feete swelled not.

22 And thou gauest them kingdomes and nations, & diddest, (b) scatter them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sehon and the lande of the king of Hesbon, and the lande of Og king of Basan. 23 And their children multipliedst thou as the starres of heauen, and broughtest them into the lande whereof thou haddest spoken to their fathers that they should go into it and haue it in possession. 24 And the children went in, and possessed the lande, and thou subduedst before them the inhabiters of the lande, euen the Chanaanites, & gauest them into their handes, with their kinges & the people of the lande, that they might do with them what they would. 25 And they wanne their strong cities, and a fat lande, and toke possession of houses that were full of all maner of goodes.

goodes, " welles digged out, vineyardes, oliue gardens, & many fruiteful trees: and they dyd eate, & were filled, and became fat, & lined in pleasure thoughe thy great goodnesse. 26 Neuertheleſſe, they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, & cast thy law behynde their backes, and slue thy prophetes, " whiche exhorted them earnestly that they myght bring them agayne vnto thee, & dyd great blasphemies. 27 Therfore thou gauest them ouer into the hande of their enemies that vexed them: & in the time of their trouble when they cryed vnto thee thou heardest them from heauen, and thoughe thy great mercie thou gauest them sauiours which helped them out of the hand of their enemies. 28 But when they came to rest, they turned backe agayne to do euyll before thee: therfore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion ouer them: and when they conuerted, and cryed vnto thee, thou heardest them from heauen, and many times hast thou deliuered them accordyng to thy great mercie, 29 And " testifiedst vnto them, that thou mightest bring them agayne vnto thy law: notwithstandyng they were proude, and hearkened not vnto thy cõmaundementes, but sinned " in thy lawes, whiche yf a man do, he shall lyue in them: & (c) turned the shoulder away, and were stifnecked, and wouldе not heare. 30 Yet many yeres dyddest thou forbeare them, and " testifiedst vnto them thoughe thy spirite by the hande of thy prophetes, and yet would they not heare: therfore gauest thou them into the hande of the nations of the landes. 31 And for thy great mercies sake thou hast not vtterly consumed them, neither forsaken them: for thou art a gracious & mercifull God. 32 Now therfore our God, thou great God mighty and terrible, thou that kepest couenaunt & mercie, regard not a litle all the trauaile that hath come vnto vs, & our kinges, our princes our priestes, our prophetes, & our fathers, & all the people since the time of the kinges of Assur, vnto this day. 33 And truely thou art iust in all that thou hast brought vpon vs, for thou hast done right: as for vs, we haue ben vngodly, 34 And our kings, and our princes, our priestes, and our fathers haue not done thy lawe, nor regarded thy commaundementes, and thy " earnest exhortatiõs wherwith thou hast " exhorted them. 35 And they haue not serued thee in their kingdome, and in thy great goodnesse that thou gauest them, and in the large and " plenteous lande which thou gauest before them, and haue not conuerted from their wicked workes.

36 Beholde we are in bondage this day, and so is the lande that thou gauest vnto our fathers to eate the fruites & goodnesse therof, behold there are we bondmen. 37 And great is the increase of it vnto the kinges whom thou hast set ouer vs because of our sinnes, and they haue dominion ouer our bodyes and cattell, euen as they wyll them selues: and we are in great trouble. 38 Now because of all this, make we a sure couenaunt and write it, and our princes, Leuites, and priestes seale vnto it.

29 And their lordes that had rule of them, receaued it for their brethren: and they came to sweare, and to binde them selues with an oth to walke in Gods lawe, whiche was geuen by Moyses the seruaunt of God, and that they woulde obserue and do according vnto all the commaundementes, iudgementes, and statutes of the Lorde our God: 30 And that we would not geue our daughters vnto the people of the lande, neither to take their daughters for our sonnes.

31 And yf the people of the lande brought ware on the sabbath, and all maner victailes to sell, that we would not take it of them on the sabbath and on the holy dayes, and that we would let the seuenth yere be free, and the debtes of euery person. 32 And we decreed a statute vpon our selues, to geue yerely the third part of a sicle to the ministration in the house of our God, 33 To the shewe bread, to the dayly meate offering, to the dayly whole burnt offering, of the sabbathes, of the newe moones, and feast dayes, and to the thinges that were sanctified, and to the offeringes of atonement, to reconcile Israel withall, and to all the busines in the house of our God. 34 And we cast the lot among the prieſtes, Leuites, and the people, for the offering of the wood, to be brought vnto the house of our God from yere to yere, after the houses of our fathers, that it might be dyent at times appoynted vpon the aulter of the Lorde God, as it is written in the lawe: 35 And to bring the first frutes of our lande, and the firstlinges of our frutes of all trees yere by yere vnto the house of the Lorde. 36 And the first borne of our sonnes, and of our cattel, (as it is written in the law) and the firstlinges of our oxen and of our shepe, which we shoulde bring to the house of our God vnto the prieſts that minister in the house of our God.

38 And the prieſt the sonne of Aaron shalbe with the Leuites when the Leuites take tythes, so that the Leuites shall bring vp the tythes of their tythes vnto the house of our God, to the store houses and to the treasure houses. 39 For the children of Israel and the children of Leui shal bring vp the heaue offeringes of the corne, wine, and oyle, vnto the store houses, there as are the vessels of the sanctuarie and the prieſtes that minister, and the porters and singers, and we wyl not forsake the house of our god.

and Moabites shuld neuer come into the congregation of God: 2 Because they met not the chyldren of Israel with bread and water, but hyred Balaam agaynst them that he shoulde curse them: and our God turned the curse into a blessing. 3 Nowe when they had heard the lawe, they separated from Israel euery one that had "mixt him selfe therein. 4 And before (a)this had the priest Eliasib the ouersight of the treasurie of the house of our God, and he was kinsman vnto Tobia, 5 And had made him a great chamber, and there had they afore time layed the offringes, frankincense, vessels, and the tythes of corne, wine, and oyle, which was commaunded to be geuē to the Leuites, singers, and porters, and the heaue offringes of the priestes. 6 But in all this (time) was not I at Hierusalem: for in the two and thirtie yere of Artarxerxes kyng of Babylon came I vnto the kyng, and after certayne dayes obtayned I licence of the king to come to Hierusalem. 7 And I gat knowledge of the euyll that Eliasib dyd for Tobia, in that he had made him a chāber in the court of the house of God.

8 And it greeued me sore: therefore I cast forth all the vessels of the house of Tobia out of the chamber:

9 And commaunded them to clense the chambers, and thyther brought I againe the vessels of the house of god, with the meate offring, & the incense.

10 And I perceaued that the portions of the Leuites had not ben geuen them, and that euery one was fled to his lande, euen the Leuites and singers that executed the worke. 11 Thē reproued I the rulers, and saide, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place. 12 Then brought all Juda the tythes of corne, and wine, & oyle, vnto the treasures. 13 And I made treasurers ouer the treasure, Selemiah the priest, and Zadoc the scribe, and of the Leuites, Phadata: and vnder their hand was Hanan the sonne of Zaccur the sonne of Mathania: for they were counted faythfull, and their office was to distribute (the portions) vnto their brethren.

14 Thinke vpon me O my God herein, and wype not out (b) my "mercie that I haue shewed on the house of my God, and on the officers thereof.

15 And the same time sawe I in Juda some treadyng wine prestes on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaues, and which laded asses also with wine, grapes, and figges, and all burthens, and brought them into Hierusalem vpon the sabbath day: and I rebuked them earnestly the same day that they solde the victailes. 16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fishe and all maner of ware, and solde on the sabbath vnto the chyldren of Juda in Hierusalem. 17 Then reproued I the rulers in Juda, and saide vnto them, What euyll thing is this that ye do, and breake the sabbath day?

18 Dyd not your fathers euen thus, and our God brought all this plague vpon vs, and vpon this citie? and ye make the wrath more yet vpon Israel, in that ye breake the sabbath?

19 And when the portes of Hierusalem began to be (c) darke in the euenyng before the sabbath, I commaunded to shut the gates, and charged that they shoulde not be opened tyll after the sabbath: and some of my seruants set I at the gates, that there should no burthen be brought in on the sabbath day. 20 Then remayned the chapmen and marchauntes once or twyse ouer night without Hierusalem with all maner of wares. 21 Then reproued I them sore, and saide vnto them, Why tary ye all nyght about the wal? If ye do it once agayne, I wyll lay handes vpon you: from that tyme forth came they no more on the sabbath. 22 And I saide vnto the Leuites that they shoulde clense themselues, and that they should come and kepe the gates, to halowe the sabbath day: Thinke vpon me O my God concernyng this also, and spare me accordyng to thy great mercie. 23 In those dayes also sawe I Jewes that maryed wyues of Asdod, of Ammon, and of Moab, 24 And their chyldren spake halfe in the speache of Asdod, and coulde not speake in the Jewes language, but accordyng to the language of the one people and of the other people. 25 Then I reproued them, & (d)cursed them, and smote certaine of them, & "made them bare: & take an oth of them by god, Ye shall not geue your daughters vnto their sonnes, neither shall ye take their daughters vnto your sonnes, or for your selues. 26 Did not Solomō the king of Israel sinne by these thinges? & yet among many heathen was there no king like him,

IN the dayes of Ahaſuerus, (this is Ahaſuerus whiche raigned from India vnto Ethiopia ouer an hundred and twentie and ſeuen prouinces.) 2 In thoſe dayes when the kyng Ahaſuerus ſate on his ſeate(a) royall whiche was in the palace of Suſan: 3 In the thirde yere of his raigne, he made a feaſt vnto all his princes and ſeruauntes: and the mightie men of Perſia and Media, the captaynes alſo and rulers of his countreys were before him. 4 And he ſhewed the richeſſe and glorie of his kingdome, and the glorious worſhip of his greatneſſe many dayes long, an hundred & foureſcore dayes.

5 And when theſe dayes were expired, the kyng made a feaſt vnto all the people that were in the palace of Suſan, both vnto great and ſmall, ſeuen dayes long, in the court of the garden by the kinges palace, 6 Where there hanged white, greene, and " yelowe clothes, faſtened with cordes of fine ſilke and purple in ſiluer rinages, vpon pillers of marble ſtones: the " benches alſo were of gold and ſiluer made vpon a pauement of " greene, white, yelowe, and blacke marble. 7 And they dranke in veſſels of golde, and chaunged veſſell after veſſell, and royall wine in aboundaunce according to the power of the kyng. 8 And the drynkyng was by an order, none might compell: for ſo the kyng had appoynted to all the officers of his houſe, that they ſhoulde do according to euery mans pleaſure. 9 And the queene Vaſthi made a feaſt alſo for the women in the palace of Ahaſuerus. 10 And on the ſeuenth day when the kyng was merry after the wine, he cōmaunded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagthan, Zethar, and Charchas, the ſeuen chamberlaynes that dyd ſeruice in the preſence of kyng Ahaſuerus, 11 To fetch the queene Vaſthi with the crowne regal into the kinges preſence, that he might ſhewe the people and princes her fairenelle: for ſhe was beautifull.

13 But the queene Vaſthi would not come at the kinges woorde by his chamberlaynes: then was the kyng very wroth, and his indignation kindled in him. 13 And the kyng ſpake to the wyſe men whiche (b)knewe the times (for ſo was the kinges maner towardes al that knewe the lawe and the iudgementes: 14 And the next vnto him were, Carſena, Sethar, Admata, Tharſis, Mares, Marſena, and Memuchan, the ſeuen princes of Perſia & Media, which (c)ſawe the kinges face, & ſate the firſt in the kyngdome.)

15 What, ſhall we do vnto the queene Vaſthi according to the lawe, becauſe ſhe dyd not according to the woorde of the kyng Ahaſuerus whiche he commaunded by his chamberlaynes?

16 And Memuchan anſwered before the kyng and the princes. The queene Vaſthi hath not onely done euyl agaynſt the kyng, but alſo agaynſt all the princes, and agaynſt all the people that are in all the prouinces of kyng Ahaſuerus.

17 For this deede of the queene ſhall come abrode vnto all women, ſo that they

they shall despise their husbandes before their eyes, and shal say, The king Ahasuerus commaunded Vasthi the queene to be brought in before him, but she wolde not come. 18 And so shall the princesses in Persia & Media say likewise this day vnto all the kinges princes when they heare of this deede of the queene: thus shall there arise to much displeasurefulnesse and wrath. 19 If it please the king, let there go a cõmaundement from him, and let it be written accordyng to the lawes of the Persians and Medians, and not to be transgressed, that Vasthi come no more before king Ahasuerus, and let the king geue her royal estate vnto another that is better then she.

D 20 And when this commaundement of the king which shalbe made is published throughout all his empire, which is great, all women shall honde their husbandes in honour both among great and smal. 21 This saying pleased the king and the princes, & the king did accordyng to the worde of Memuchã. 22 For he sent letters foorth into all the kinges prouinces, into euery lande accordyng to the writyng therof, and to euery people after their language, that euery man should be lorde in his owne house: and this to be published after the language of his people.

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

1 After the queene is put away, certayne young maydes are brought to the king. 14 Esther pleaseth the king, and is made queene.

A Fter these actes, when the displeasure of king Ahasuerus was nowe * alayed, he thought vpon Vasthi, and what she had done, & what was decreed agaynst her. 2 Then sayde the kinges seruauntes that ministred vnto him, Let there be faire young virgins sought for the king.

3 And let the king appoynt officers in all the prouinces of his empire, that they shulde bryng together all the faire young virgins vnto the palace of Susan to the womens * house, dyng, vnder the hande of Hegai the kinges chamberlayne that kept the women, to geue them their apparell. 4 And that the mayden which pleased the king, should be queene in Vasthis stead. And this pleased the king, and he did so. 5 In the palace of Susan there was a certayne Iewe, whose name was Mardocheus the sonne of Iair, the sonne of Semei, the sonne of Cis, a man of Iemini, 6 Which was caryed away from Hierusalem with the captiuitie when Iechonia the king of Iuda was led away, whom Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon caryed thence: 7 And he nourished Hadassa (that is Esther) his vncles daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and she was a faire and beautifull mayden, whom Mardocheus (when her father and mother were dead) receaued for his owne daughter.

8 So when the kinges commaundement and commission was published, and many maydens were brought together into the palace of Susan vnder the hande of Hegai, Esther was brought also vnto the kinges house vnder the hand of Hegai the keper of the women. 9 And ỹ mayden pleased him, & she founde fauour in his sight: and he caused * ornamentes to be geuen her speedyly, and such thinges as belonged to her, and appoynted her seuen comely maydens out of the kinges house, * and fauoured both her and her gentlewomen singularly in the house of the women. 10 But Esther shewed not her people and her kinrede: for Mardocheus had charged her that she shulde not tell it.

11 And Mardocheus walked euery day before the court of the womens house, that he might knowe how Esther did, & what shulde become of her.

12 And when the appoynted tyme of euery mayden came that she should go in to the king Ahasuerus, after that she had ben twelue monethes accordyng to the maner of the women (for so were the dayes of their purification accomplished, sire monethes with oyle of myrre, and sixe monethes with sweete odours, and in the purifiyng of the women: 13 And thus went the maydens vnto the king) whatsoeuer she required, that must be geuen her to go with her out of the (a) womens * buildyng vnto the kinges palace.

14 In the euenyng she went, and on the morowe she returned into the seconde house of the women (abidyng) vnder the hand of Saasgaz the kinges chamberlayne, which kept the concubines: and she came in vnto the king no more, except it pleased the king to haue her, and that she were called by name. 15 Nowe whē the course came of Esther the daughter of Abihail, the vncle of Mardocheus (which had receaued

(a) This fact of Mardocheus semed to come by the singuler motion of gods spirite, to thende he might execute his iust iudgement against wicked Haman, and also bring Mardocheus to honour for the preseruation of his people: for otherwise to obey magistrates in all ciuile behauiour, is gods commaundement.

¶ The. iii. Chapter.

1 Haman after he was exalted, obteyned of the king that al the Iewes should be put to death, becaus Mardocheus had not done him worshipe as other had.

AFter these actes did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the sonne of Amadatha the Agagite, and set him on hie, and set his seate aboue all the princes that he had with him.

2 And all the kinges seruauntes that were in the kinges gate, bowed their knees, and reuerenced Haman, for the king had so commaunded concernyng him: but Mardocheus (a) bowed not the knee, neither did him reuereace. 3 Then the kinges seruauntes which were in the kinges gate sayde vnto Mardocheus, Why transgressest thou the kinges commaundement?

4 And though they spake this dayly vnto him, yet would he not heare the, therfore they tolde Haman, that they might see how Mardocheus matters would stande, for he had tolde them that he was a Iewe. 5 And when Haman sawe that Mardocheus bowed not the knee vnto him, nor dyd reuerence vnto him, he was full of indignation, 6 And thought it to litle to lay handes only on Mardocheus, for they had shewed him the nation of Mardocheus: wherfore he sought to destroy all the Iewes that were throwout the whole empire of Ahasuerus, and that were of the nation of Mardocheus. 7 In the first moneth (that is the moneth Nisan) in the twelfth yere of king Ahasuerus, they cast Phur, that is a (b) lot, before Haman from day to day, & from moneth to moneth to the twelfth moneth, that is, the moneth Adar. 8 And Haman sayd vnto king Ahasuerus, There is a people scattered abrode, & dispearsed among all people in all the prouinces of thine empire, & their lawes are diuers from all people, and do not after the kinges lawes, therfore it is not the kinges profite to suffer them. 9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and so wil I * way downe ten thousand talentes of syluer by the handes of them that haue the charge of this businesse, to bryng it into the kinges treasurie.

10 And the king toke his ryng from his hande, & gaue it vnto Haman the sonne of Amadatha the Agagite, the Iewes enemie. 11 And the king sayde vnto Haman, Let the siluer be thyne, and do with that people as it pleaseth thee. 12 Then were the kinges * scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first moneth, and there was written accordyng as Haman cõmanded vnto all the kinges officers, and to the captaynes that were ouer euery prouince, and to the rulers of euery people in the countreys on euery side accordyng to the writyng therof, and to euery nation after their language, in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, & sealed with the kinges ryng. 13 And the letters were sent by postes into all the kinges prouinces, to roote out, to kil, & to destroy all Iewes both young and olde, childrẽ & women, in one day, vpon the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth (which is the moneth Adar) & to spoyle them as a pray.

14 This was the tenure of ỹ writyng, that there should be a cõmaundement geuen in all prouinces, and published vnto all people, that they shoulde be redy against the same day. 15 And the postes went in all haste accordyng to the kinges cõmaundement, and in the palace of Susan was the commaundement deuised: and the king & Haman sate & dranke, when in the meane time the (c) citie of Susan was disquieted.

(c) That is, the Iewes which were in Susan.

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

Mardocheus geueth the queene knowledge of the cruel decree of the king agaynst the Iewes. 16 She willeth that they pray for her.

WHen Mardocheus perceaued all that was done, he rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the middes of the citie, and cried loude and lamentably, 2 And came before the kinges gate: but he might not enter within the kinges gate, because he had sackcloth on. 3 And in all prouinces, countreys, and places, as farre as the kinges worde and commaundement came, there was great lamentation among the Iewes, fastyng, weepyng, and mournyng, and many lay in sackclothes and in ashes. 4 So Esthers maydens & her chamberlaynes came, and tolde it her: then was the queene exceedingly astonied, and sent rayment that Mardocheus shoulde put on, & lay the sackcloth from him: but Mardocheus would not take them.
5 Then called Esther Hathach (one) of the kinges chamberlaynes which stoode before her, and gaue him a commaundement vnto Mardocheus to know what it was wherfore he did so.
6 So Hathach went forth to Mardocheus vnto the streete of the citie which was before the kinges gate:
7 And Mardocheus tolde him of all that had come vnto him, and of " the summe of siluer that Haman had promised to way downe into the kinges treasurie, because of the Iewes ỹt he woulde destroy them. 8 And he gaue him the copie of the kinges cõmaundement that was deuised at Susan to destroy them, that he might shewe it vnto Esther, and to speake to her, and charge her that she shoulde go in vnto the king, and make her prayer and supplication vnto him for her people.
9 And whẽ Hathach came in, he tolde Esther the wordes of Mardocheus.
10 And agayne Esther spake vnto Hathach, and commaunded him (to say) vnto Mardocheus, 11 All the kinges seruauntes, and the people in the prouinces of the king know, that whosoeuer commeth within the court vnto the king, whether it be man or woman, which is not called, " the cõmaundement is, that the same shall dye, except the king holde out the golden scepter vnto him, for then he shall lyue: but I haue not ben called to come in vnto the king nowe this thirtie dayes. 12 And when Mardocheus was certified of Esthers wordes, 13 Mardocheus bad say agayne vnto Esther, Thinke not with thy selfe that thou shalt escape in the kinges house more then all the Iewes.
14 For if thou holdest thy peace at this tyme, then shall the Iewes haue " helpe and deliueraunce out of an (a) other place, and thou and thy fathers house shalbe destroyed: And who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdome " for this cause sake?
15 Esther bad them gene Mardocheus this answere, 16 Go, and gather all the Iewes that are founde at Susan, and fast ye for me, that ye eate not and drinke not in three dayes neither day nor nyght, I and my maydens will fast likewise: and so will I go in vnto the king, which thing is yet contrary to the commaundement: and (b) yf I perishe, I perishe. 17 So Mardocheus went his way, and did accordyng to all that Esther had commaunded him.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

Esther entreth in vnto the king, and biddeth him and Haman to a feaste, 11 Haman prepareth a gallous for Mardocheus.

AND on the thirde day Esther put on her royall apparell, and stoode in the court of the kinges palace within ouer against the kings house: and the king sate vpon his roall seate in the kinges palace ouer against the gate of the house. 2 And when the king sawe Esther the queene standyng in the court, she founde grace in his sight: and the king helde out the golden golden scepter that was in his hande: So Esther stept foorth and touched the top of the scepter. 3 Then sayde the king vnto her, What wylt thou queene Esther? and what requirest thou? (aske) euen the halfe of ℘ empire, and it shalbe geuen thee. 4 And Esther answered, If it please the king, let the king & Haman come this day vnto the banket that I haue prepared for him. 5 And the king sayd, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath sayd. So the king and Haman came to the banket that Esther had prepared. 6 And the king sayde vnto Esther at the banket of wine, What is thy petition that it may be geuen thee? And what requirest thou? If it be euen the halfe of the empire, it shalbe done. 7 Then answered Esther, and sayd, My petition and desire is, 8 If I haue found grace in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to geue me my petition, and to fulfill my request, then let the king and Haman come to the banket that I shal prepare for them: and so will I do to morowe as the king hath sayde.

9 Then went Haman foorth in the same day ioyful & merry in his minde: but when Haman sawe Mardocheus in the kinges gate, that he stoode not vp nor moued for him, he was full of indignation at Mardocheus. 10 Neuerthelelle Haman refrayned him selfe, and when he came home, he sent and called for his freendes and Zares his wife. 11 And Haman tolde them of the glorie of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the thinges wherein the king had (a) promoted him so greatly, and howe that he had set him aboue the princes and seruauntes of the king. 12 Haman sayde moreouer, Yea Esther the queene did let no man come in with the king vnto the banket that she had prepared, except me: and to morowe am I bidden vnto her also with the king. 13 But in all this am I not satisfied, as long as I see Mardocheus the Iewe sitting at the kinges gate.

14 Then sayde (b) Zares his wife and all his freendes vnto him, Let them make a gallous of fifte cubites hye, and to morowe speake thou vnto the king that Mardocheus may be hanged theron: then go thou in merily with the king vnto the banket. And Haman was well content withal, and caused the gallous to be made.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

1 The king turneth ouer the chronicles, and findeth the fidelitie of Mardocheus, 10 and commaundeth Haman to cause Mardocheus to be had in honour.

THe same nyght coulde not the king sleepe, and he commaunded to bryng "the chronicles and stories: and they were read before the king. 2 Then it was founde written howe Mardocheus had tolde that Bigthana & Theres the kinges two chamberlayngs which kept the "doores, sought to lay handes on king Ahasuerus. 3 And the king sayde, What honour and dignitie hath ben geuen to Mardocheus therefore? Then sayde the kinges seruauntes that ministred vnto him, There is nothyng at all done for him. 4 And the king sayde, Who is in the court? (for Hamā was come into the court without before the kinges house, that he might speake vnto the king to hang Mardocheus on the tree that he had prepared for him.) 5 And the kinges seruauntes sayde vnto him, Beholde Haman standeth in the court. And the king sayde, Let him come in. 6 And when Haman came in, the king sayde vnto him, What shalbe done vnto the man whom the king woulde fayne bring vnto worship? (Haman thought in his heart, Whom desireth the king to bring vnto worship more then me?) 7 And Haman aunswered the king, Let the man whom the king pleaseth to bryng vnto worship, be brought hither, 8 That he may be arayed with the royall garmentes which the king vseth to weare, and the horse that the king rideth vpon, and that the crowne royal may be set vpon his head:

9 And let this rayment & horse be deliuered vnder the hande of one of the kinges most noble princes, that they may aray the man withall whom the king is disposed to bryng to honour, and cause him to ryde vpon the horse through the streete of the citie, and proclayme before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king pleaseth to bryng to honour. 10 And the king sayd to Haman, Make haste, and take as thou hast sayde the rayment and the horse, and do euen so vnto Mardocheus the Iewe that sitteth before the kinges gate: & let nothyng fayle of al that thou hast spoke. 11 Then toke Haman the rayment and

and the horse, and arayed Mardocheus, and brought him on horsebacke throughe the streete of the citie, and proclaymed before him, Thus shall it be done vnto the man whom the king is disposed to honour. 12 And Mardocheus came agayne to the kinges gate: but Haman gat him home in all the haste mournyng, and his head couered: 13 And tolde Zares his wife and all his frendes euery thyng that had befallen him. Then sayd his wise men and Zares his wife vnto him, If it be Mardocheus of the seede of the Iewes, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not preuayle against him, but shalt surely (a) fal before him. 14 And whyle they were yet talkyng with him, came the kinges chamberlaynes, and caused Haman to make haste to come vnto the banket that Esther had prepared.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

1 The queene prayeth for her selfe and her people. 6 She accuseth Haman, & he is hanged on the gallous which he had prepared for Mardocheus.

So the king and Haman came to banket with queene Esther.

2 And the king sayde agayne vnto Esther on the seconde day at the banket of wine, What is thy petition queene Esther, that it may be geuen thee? And what requirest thou? If it be euen to halfe of the empire, it shall be done. 3 And Esther the queene answered, and sayd, If I haue found grace in thy sight O king, & if it please the king, then graunt me my life at my desire, and my people for my petitions sake. 4 For we are solde I and my people to be destroyed, to be slayne, and to perishe: and would God that we were solde to be bondmen and bondwomen, then would I haue holde my tongue: although the enemie could not recompence the kinges (a) losse. 5 The king Ahasuerus answered and sayd vnto queene Esther, Who is he? and where is he, that dare presume in his mynde to do after that maner? 6 And Esther sayd, The enemie and aduersarie is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was exceedingly afrayde before the king & the queene. 7 And the king arose from the banket and from the wine in his displeasure, and (went) into the palace garden: and Haman stoode vp, and besought queene Esther for his life: for he saw that there was a mischeefe prepared for him of the king alredie.

Then the king sayde, Hang him theron. 10 So they hanged Haman on the gallous that he had made for Mardocheus: Then was the kinges wrath pacified.

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

1 After the death of Haman was Mardocheus exalted. 14 Comfortable letters are sent vnto the Iewes.

The same day did king Ahasuerus gene the house of Haman the Iewes enemie vnto queene Esther, and Mardocheus came before the king: for Esther tolde what he was vnto her. 2 And the king toke of his ryng which he had taken from Haman, and gaue it vnto Mardocheus. And Esther set Mardocheus ouer the house of Haman. 3 And Esther spake yet more before the king, & fell downe at his feete weepyng, and besought him that he would put away the wickednesse of Haman the Agagite, and his deuice that he had imagined against the Iewes. 4 And the king helde out the golden sceptre towarde Esther. Then rose Esther, and stoode before the king, 5 And sayde, If it please the king, and if I haue founde grace in his sight, and if it be acceptable before the king, and I please him, then let it be written that the letters of the deuice of Haman the sonne of Hamadatha the Agagite may be called agayne, which letters he wrote to destroy the Iewes which are in all the kinges prouinces. 6 For howe can I suffer and see the euyll that shal come vnto my people? or howe can I beare and take vpon the destruction of my kinrede? 7 And the king Ahasuerus sayde vnto queene Esther and to Mardocheus the Iewe, Beholde I haue haue genen Esther the house of Haman, whom they haue hanged vpon a tree, because he layde hande vpon the Iewes. 8 Write ye also for the Iewes as it lyketh you in the kinges name, and seale it with the kinges ryng: For the writynges that were written in the kinges name, and sealed with the kinges ryng, durst no man disanull. 9 Then were the kinges scribes called at the same tyme, euen in the thirde moneth (that is in the moneth (a) Siuan) on the three and twentie day thereof, and it was written accordyng to all as Mardocheus cõmaunded vnto the Iewes, and to the princes, to the deputies and captaynes in the prouinces which are from India vnto Ethiopia, namely an hundred twentie and seuen prouinces, vnto euery prouince accordyng to the writyng therof, and vnto euery people after their speache, and to the Iewes accordyng to their writyng and language. 10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus name, and sealed it with the kinges ryng, and by postes that rode vpon horses, and swyft young Mules, sent he the writynges, 11 Wherin the king graunted the Iewes in what cities soeuer they were, to gather them selues together, and to (b) stande for their life, and for to roote out, to slay and to destroy all the power of the people and prouince that woulde trouble them, both children and women, and to spoyle their goodes: 12 Vpon one day in all ℣ prouinces of king Ahasuerus, namely vpon the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth, which is the moneth Adar. 13 The tenure of the writyng was, howe there shoulde be a commaundement geuen in all euery prouince, and published among all people, and that the Iewes shoulde be redy agaynst that day to auenge them selues on their enemies. 14 And so the postes that rode vpon the swyft horses and Mules, made haste with all speede to execute the kinges word: and the commaundement was deuised in the pallace of Susan. 15 And Mardocheus went out from the king in royall apparell, of * yelowe and whyte, and with a great crowne of golde, being arayed with a garment of * silke and purple: and the citie of Susan reioyced and was glad.

16 And vnto the Iewes there was come light and gladnesse, ioy and worship. 17 In all prouinces and cities into what places soeuer the kinges worde and commaundement reached, (there was) ioy and mirth, a feast and good dayes among the Iewes: in so much that many of the people in the lande became Iewes, for the feare of the Iewes came vpon them.

¶ The. ix. Chapter.

1 At the commaundement of the king, the Iewes put their aduersaries to death. 14 The ten sonnes of Haman are hanged.

IN the twelfth moneth, (that is the moneth Adar) vpon the thirteenth day of the same, when the kinges worde & commaundement drue neare to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Iewes hoped to haue power ouer them, it turned contrary: for the Iewes had rule ouer them that hated them. 2 For then gathered the Iewes together in their cities within all the prouinces of king Ahasuerus, to lay hande on such as woulde do them euyll, and no man coulde withstande them: for the feare of them was come ouer all people.

3 And all the rulers in the prouinces, and princes, & deputies, and officers of the king, promoted the Iewes: for the feare of Mardocheus came vpon them. 4 For Mardocheus was great in the kinges house, and the report of him was noysed in all the prouinces: for this man Mardocheus waxed greater & greater. 5 Thus the Iewes smote all their enemies with the stroke of the swoorde, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they woulde vnto their enemies. 6 And at the palace of Susan the Iewes destroyed (a) fiue hundred men. 7 And Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspha-

12 And the king sayde vnto queene Esther, The Iewes haue slayne and destroyed fiue hundred men in the palace of Susan, and the ten sonnes of Haman: What haue they done (thinkest thou) in other landes of the king? And what is thy petition, that it may be geuen thee? or what requirest thou more more to be done? 13 Esther answered, If it please the king, let him suffer the Jewes which are in Susan to morowe also to do accordyng vnto this dayes decree, that they may hang Hamans ten sonnes vpon the tree.

C 14 And the king charged to do so: and the decree was deuised at Susan, and they hanged Hamans ten sonnes.

15 For the Jewes that were in Susan gathered them selues together vpon the fourteenth day of the moneth Adar, and slue three hundred men at Susan: but on their goodes they layde no handes. Esth.3.b. 16 As for the other Jewes that were in the kinges prouinces, they came together and stoode for their lyues, and had rest from their enemies, and slue of their enemies seuentie and fiue thousande: howbeit they layd no handes on their goodes. 17 (This they did) on the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar, and on the fourteenth day of the same moneth rested they, which day they helde with fastyng and gladnesse.

18 But the Jewes that were at Susan came together both on the thirteenth day and on the fourteenth: and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and held that day with feasting and gladnesse. 19 And therfore the Jewes that dwelt in the villages and vnwalled townes, helde the fourteenth day of the moneth Adar with gladnesse and feasting, and (b) kept holy day, and euery one sent presentes vnto his neighbour. (b) As the Jewes do vnto this day, callyng it in the Persians language Phurim, that is the day of lottes. 20 And Mardocheus wrote these wordes, and sent letters vnto all the Jewes that were in all the prouinces of king Ahasuerus, both nie and farre: 21 That they shoulde make a lawe among them selues, and holde the fourteenth and fifteenth day of the moneth Adar yerely, 22 As the dayes wherin the Jewes came to rest from their enemies, and as a moneth wherin their payne was turned to ioy, and their sorowe into a ioyfull day: and that in those dayes they should make feastes and gladnesse, and one to sende gifres vnto another, and to distribute vnto the poore. 23 And the Jewes promised to do as they had begun, and as Mardocheus had written vnto them: 24 Because Haman the sonne of Hamadatha the Agagite all the Jewes enemie, had deuised agaynst the Jewes howe he might destroy them, Esth.3.b. and caused to cast Phur (that is a lot) for to consume them, & to bring them to naught. 25 But whē Esther came & before the king, he cōmaunded by letters that his wicked deuice which he imagined agaynst the Jewes, shoulde be turned vpon his owne head, & that he & his sonnes shoulde be hanged on the tree. 26 For the which cause they called these dayes Phurim, because of the name of the lot, and because of all the wordes of this writyng, and what they them selues had seene, and what had come vnto them: 27 And the Jewes ordeyned, & toke it vpon them and their seede, and vpon all such as ioyned them selues vnto them, that they woulde not misse but obserue these two dayes yerely according as they were written, and appointed in their season. 28 And that these dayes are to be remembred and to be kept of children children among all kindredes in all landes & cities: in these dayes of Phurim which are not to be ouerslipt among the Jewes, & the memorial of them ought not to perish from their seede. 29 And queene Esther the daughter of Abihail, & Mardocheus the Jewe, wrote with all authoritie to confirme this second writyng of Phurim. 30 And he sent the letters vnto all the Jewes, to the hundred twentie & seuen prouinces of the empire of Ahasuerus, with wordes of peace & trueth: 31 To confirme these & dayes of Phurim in their tyme appoynted, according as Mardocheus the Jewe & Esther the queene had appoynted them: and they bounde their ^ soule and their seede to fastyng and prayer. ^ Or, selues 32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these wordes of Phurim, & was written in the booke. 33 And the king Ahasuerus layde tribute vpon the lande, and vpon the iles of the sea. 34 And all the actes of his power and of his might, and the declaration of the dignitie of Mardocheus wherwith the king magnified him, be they not writtē in the bookes of the chronicles of the kinges of Medes and Persia? 35 For Mardocheus the Jewe was the second next vnto king Ahasuerus, & great among the Jewes, and accepted among the multitude of his brethren, as one that seeketh the wealth of his people, and speaketh peaceably for all his seede.

1 The holinesse and riches of Iob, hath permission to tempt him. 6 Satan the care of Iob for his children. 11 Satan 13 He tempeth him by takyng away his substaunce, and his children, 20 His fayth and patience.

IN the lande of Hus there was a man whose name was (a) Iob, and the same was a perfect and iust man, one that feared God, and eschewed euyll. 2 And he had seuen sonnes and three daughters.

3 His substaunce also was seuen thousande sheepe, and three thousand camels, fiue hundred yoke of oxen, and fiue hundred shee asses, and a very great houshold: so that he was one of the most principall "men among all them of the (b) east (countrey.) 4 And his sonnes went and banketted in their houses euery one his day, and sent and called for their three sisters to eate and drynke with them. 5 And when the dayes of their banketting were gone about, Iob sent and sanctified them, and gate vp early and offered for euery one a whole burnt offeryng: for Iob sayde, It may be that my sonnes haue done some offence, and haue ben (c) vnthankfull to God in their heartes. Thus did Iob euery day. 6 And vpon a day when the (d) children of God came and stoode before the Lorde, Satan came also among them. 7 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, Whence commest thou? Satan aunswered the Lorde, & sayde, From compassyng the earth to and fro, and from walkyng through it.

8 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, Hast thou not considered my seruaunt Iob, howe there is none lyke him in the earth? a perfect and a iust man, one that feareth God, and eschueth euyll? 9 Satan aunswered, and sayd vnto the Lorde, Doth Iob feare God (e) for naught? 10 Hast thou not "preserued him and his house, and all that he hath on euery side? Thou hast blessed the worke of his handes, and his possessiō is encreased in the lande.

11 But laye thine hande nowe vpon him, and touche all that he hath, and he shall (f) curse thee to thy face.

12 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, Lo, all that he hath be in thy * power, only vpon him selfe see that thou lay not thine hande. And Satan went foorth from the (g) presence of the Lorde. 13 And vpon a certayne day when his sonnes and daughters were eatyng and drynkyng wine in their eldest brothers house, 14 There came a messenger vnto Iob, and sayd, The oxen were plowyng and the asses feedyng beside them: 15 (h) And the Sabees came violently, and toke them away, yea they haue slayne thy seruauntes with the edge of the swoorde: and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. 16 Whyle he was yet speakyng there came another, and sayde, The fire of God is fallen from heauen, and hath burnt vp thy sheepe and seruauntes, and consumed them: and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. 17 And while he was yet speakyng there came another, and sayde, The Caldees made out three bandes, and fell vpon the camels, and haue carryed them away, yea and slayne thy seruauntes with the swoorde: and I only am gotten away alone to tell thee. 18 And while he was yet speakyng there came another, and sayde, Thy sonnes and thy daughters were eatyng and drynkyng wine in their eldest brothers house, 19 And beholde there came a mightie great winde from beyonde the wildernesse, and smote the foure corners of the house, which fell vpon thy children, and they are dead: and I am gotten away alone to tell thee. 20 Then Iob stoode vp, and (i) rent his clothes, and shaued his head, fell downe vpon the grounde, worshipped, 21 And sayde, Naked came I out of my mothers wombe, and naked shal I turne (k) thither agayne: the Lorde gaue, and the Lorde hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lorde. 22 In all these thinges did Iob not offende, nor charged God foolishly.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

9 Iobs wife tempteth him to forsake God. 11 His three freendes visite him.

AND on a day the children of God came and stoode before the Lord, ¶ Satan came also among them, and stoode before the Lorde. 2 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, From whence commest thou? Satan aunswered swered the Lorde, and sayde, I haue gone about the lande, and walked thorowe it. 3 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, hast thou not considered my seruaunt Iob? how there is none like vnto hym in the earth, a perfect and a iust man? one that feareth God, and escheweth euil, and continueth still in his vprightnesse, although thou mouedst me agaynst hym, to destroy hym (a) without cause. 4 And Satan answered the Lorde, and sayd, (b) Skinne for skinne, yea a man will geue all that euer he hath for his life. 5 But lay thyne hande nowe vpon hym, and touche his bone and his flesche, and he shall curse thee to thy face. 6 And the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, Lo he is in thyne hande, but saue his life. 7 So went Satan forth from the presence of the Lorde, and smote Iob with sore biles from the sole of his foote vnto his crowne.

8 And he toke a potharde to scrape hym: and he sate downe among the asshes. 9 Then sayde his wyfe vnto hym, Doest thou continue yet in thy perfectnesse? (c) curse God, and dye. 10 But he sayd vnto her, Thou speakest like a foolishe woman: shall we receaue good at the hande of God, and (d) not receaue euyll? In all these thinges did not Iob sinne with his lippes. 11 Nowe when Iobs three freendes heard of all the trouble that came vpon hym, they came euery one from his owne place (namely) Eliphas the Themanite, Bildad the Suhite, & Zophad the Naamathite: for they were agreed together to come to shew their compassion vpon hym, and to comfort hym. 12 So when they lift vp their eyes a farre of, they knew him not: then they cryed and wept, and euery one of them rent his clothes, and sprinckled dust vpon their heades "in the ayre. 13 They sate them downe by hym also vpon the grounde seuen dayes & seuen nightes, and none spake a word vnto hym: for they sawe that his greefe was very greate.

The. iii. Chapter.

1 Iob complayneth and curseth the day of his byrth. 11 He desireth to dye, as though death were the ende of al mans miserie.

AFter (a) this opened Iob his mouth, and cursed his day. 2 And Iob answered, and sayde,

3 Let the day perishe wherein I was borne, (b) and the nyght in the whiche it was sayde, There is a man chylde conceaued. 4 The same day be (turned to) darknesse, and not regarded of God from aboue, neither let the light shine vpon it. 5 But let it be stayned with darknesse and the shadowe of death, let the (dimme) cloude fall vpon it, whiche may make it terrible as a most bitter day. 6 Let the darke stoorme ouercome that night, and let it not be ioyned vnto the dates of the yere, nor counted in the number of the monethes. 7 Desolate be that night, and without gladnesse. 8 Let them that curse the day, & that be redye to rayse vp mourning, geue it also their curse. 9 Let the starres of that "night be dimme thorow darknesse of it, let it looke for light, but haue none, (c) neither let it see the dawning of the day: 10 Because it shut not vp the dooores of my mothers wambe, nor hid sorowe from mine eyes. 11 Why dyed I not in the byrth? why dyd not I perishe assoone as I came out of the wombe? 12 Why let they me vpon their knees? why gaue they me suche with their brestes? 13 Then should I nowe haue lyen styll, I should haue slept, and ben at rest, 14 Like as the kinges & "lordes of the earth, which haue buylded them selues "spetiall places: 15 Or as the princes that haue had golde, and their houses full of syluer: 16 Or (why) was not I hid, as a thing borne out of tyme, (eyther) as young chyldren whiche neuer sawe the light? 17 There (d) must the wicked ceasse from their tyrannie, and there suche as laboured valiauntly be at rest: 18 There the (e) prisoners rest together, they heare no more the voyce of the oppressour: 19 There are small and great, and the seruaunt (is) free from his maister. 20 Wherfore is the light geuen to hym that is in miserie? and lyfe vnto them that haue heauie heartes? 21 Which long for death and finde it not, though they searche more for it then for treasures: 22 Which reioyce exceedingly, and be glad when they can finde the grane, 23 From who their endes are hidde conceiled by God? 24 For my sighes come before I eate, and my teares are powred out like the water: 25 For the thing that (f) I feared is come vpon me, and the thing that I was afeayde of is happened vnto me. 26 Was I not happy? had I not quietnesse?

(a) God alloweth Iobs innocencie, because he ceassed not to feare God, although God tried him with plagues causelesse at Satās request.

(b) That is, a man will be content with the losse of another mans skin, so he may spare his owne: so is Iob content to beare the losse of his chyldrens skins, lyues, & bodyes in patience, rather then to suffer his owne skinne and body to be touched.

(c) For death was appointed to hym that blaspheme & curseth God, as Leuit. 24. verse. 15. meaning that he shuld be soone rid out of his payne.

The. iiii. Chapter.

5 Eliphaz blameth Iob for impacience, 7 vniustice, and for the presumption of his owne righteousnesse.

AND Eliphaz the Themanite answered, and sayde, 2 If we assay to commune with thee, wylt thou be discontent? (a) But who can withhold him selfe from speaking? 3 Beholde, thou hast ben an instructer of many, & hast strengthned the (b) weerie handes. 4 Thy wordes haue set vp him that was falling, thou hast refreshed the weake knees. 5 But nowe it is come vpon thee, & thou art greeued: it toucheth thee, & thou art troubled. 6 Is this thy feare, thy confidence, thy hope, and thy (c) vpright liuing? 7 Consider I pray thee who euer perished beyng an innocent? or when were the godly destroyed?

8 For as I haue proued by experience, they that plowe iniquitie and sowe wretchednes, reape the same. 9 With the blast of God they perishe, with the breath of his nosthrils are they consumed away. 10 The roring of the lion, and the voyce of the lion, and the teeth of the lions whelpes are pulled out. 11 The (d) lion perisheth for lacke of pray, and the lions whelpes are scattered abrode. 12 But whereas a thing was (e) hid from me, yet myne eare hath receaued a litle thereof.

13 In the thoughtes and visions of the night when sleepe commeth on men, 14 Feare came vpon me and dread, whiche made all my bones to shake. 15 The winde passed by before my presence, and made the heeres of my flesh to stand vp. 16 It stoode and I knewe not the face thereof, an image there was before myne eyes, and in the stylnesse hearde I a voyce.

17 Shall man be more iust then god? or shall a man be purer then his maker? 18 Behold he found not truely in his seruaunts, and in his angels there was folly: 19 Howe muche more in them that dwell in (f) houses of clay, and whose foundation is but dust, whiche shall be consumed as it were with a moth? 20 They shalbe smitten from the morning vnto the euening: yea they shall perishe for euer when no man regardeth them. 21 Is not their royaltie gone away with them? they shall dye truely, and not in wysdome.

(a) Because of thy sore affliction, & thy impacience.

(b) Meaning, thou hast holpen and comforted many in miserie, & canst thou not rule thy self now?

(c) By this he gathereth that Iob was but an hypocrite, and had not perfect feare nor trust in god.

(d) That is, God wyl punish tirantes whiche are compared to lions, although men neglecting their office, do winke at them.

(e) Here Eliphaz sheweth the maner of diuine reuelatiō by the holy ghost, saying that that whiche he wyl now declare is not humane reason, but as reuealed vnto him frō God.

(f) Meaning mans body, which is nothing but dust and clay. 2. Cor. 5. verse. 1.

The. v. Chapter.

1. 2 Eliphaz sheweth the difference betweene the children of God and the wicked.

CRye I pray thee, if there be any that wyll aunswere thee, and (a) looke thou vpon any of the holy. 2 As for the foolishe man wrathfulnesse killeth hym, and enuie slayeth the ignorant. 3 I haue seene my selfe when the foolish was deepe rooted, and sodenly I cursed his habitation. 4 His children were farre from prosperitie, and they were slayne in the gate, and there was no man to deliuer them. 5 His harnest was eaten of the hungrie, and taken from among the thornes, and the thirstie dronke vp their labour: it is not the earth that bringeth forth iniquitie,

6 Neither commeth sorowe out of the grounde: 7 But man is borne vnto labour, lyke as the sparkes flee vp. 8 But (b) I woulde alle counsell at the Lorde, and talke with God:

9 Which doth great thinges and vnsearcheable, (and) maruels without number. 10 He geueth rayne vpon the earth, and powreth water vpon the streetes, 11 To set vp them that be of low degree, and that those which are in heauinesse may be exalted to saluation. 12 He destroyeth the deuices of the subtyll, so that their handes are not able to performe that whiche they do enterprise. 13 He compasseth the wyse in their owne craftinesse, and maketh foolishe the counsell of the wicked. 14 They run into (c) darknesse by fayre day, and grope at the noone day as in the night. 15 But he deliuereth the poore from the swoorde, from their threatninges, and from the violence of the mightie. 16 So is the hope of the poore, and the mouth of the wicked shalbe stopped. 17 Beholde, blessed is the man whom God correcteth, therefore refuse not thou the chastening of the almightie: 18 For he maketh a wounde, and he healeth: he smyteth, and his hand maketh whole agayne. 19 He shall deliuer thee in (d) sixe troubles, and in the seuenth there shall no euyll come to thee.

20 In hunger he shall saue thee from death, and when it is warre, from the power of the swoorde. 21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue, and when destruction commeth thou shalt not neede to feare. 22 In destruction

(a) He wylleth Iob to cōsider the example of all them that haue lyued godly, whether any of them were plagued in such sorte as he was.

(b) If I were in thy case, I woulde craue helpe of God sayth Eliphaz.

(c) That is, in thinges manifest and playne, they want Godly wysdom and grace to see.

(d) Alluding to the sixe dayes of gods first worke, and the seuenth day he rested: meaning that of al thy cares and troubles god wyll deliuer thee, and bring thee to rest, as in the seuenth day.

(c) Shewing that whē we haue god our freende, all creatures of his, wil serue to our good.
(f) God shal so blesse thee, that thou shalt haue occasiō to reioyce in al thinges, and not to be greeued.
(a) Meaning that his troubles are excessiue, and vnmeasurable, as the sandes of the sea.
(b) Declaring that he was not afflicted only bodyly, but also prickt inwardly in his minde.
(c) Can we beare tribulations that are vnsauerie and vnpleasaunt, seing we cannot away with thinges that are vnsauerie to the mouth.
(d) Meaning that he had rather dye, thē to denie the words of the holi one, that is, then through his impacience to distrust in gods promise. "Hebr. If I should prolong my life.
" Or, strēgth, wisdom, or lawe struction and dearth thou shalt be meerie, and shalt not be afraide of the beastes of the earth. 23 For the (c) stones of the lande shalbe confederate with thee, & the beastes of the feelde shalbe at peace with thee. 24 And thou shalt knowe that thy dwelling place shalbe in rest, and thou shalt visite thy habitation, and shalt (f) not sinne. 25 Thou shalt see also that thy seede shall be great, and thy posteritie as the grasse vpon the earth.

26 Thou shalt come also to thy graue in a full age, lyke a corne sheafe cut downe in due season. 27 Lo, this we our selues haue proued by experience, and euen thus it is: hearken thou to it also, that thou mayest take heede to thy selfe.

The. vi. Chapter.

1 Iob aunswereth, that his payne is more greeuous then his fault. 8 He wisheth death. 14 He complayneth of his frendes.

BVt Iob aunswered, and sayde,
2 O that my complaynt were (a) truely wayed, and my punishment layde in the balaunces together:
3 For nowe it would be heauier then the sande of the sea: and this is the cause that my wordes fayle me. 4 For the arrowes of the almightie are vpon me, the goyso therof hath drunke vp my spirite, & the terrible (b) feares of God are set against me. 5 Doth the wylde asse roze when he hath grasse? or loweth the ore when he hath fodder? 6 That whiche is vnsauerie, (c) shall it be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the whyte of an egge? 7 The thinges that sometime I might not away withall, are nowe my meate for very sorowe.
8 O that I might haue my desire, and that God would graunt me the thing that I long for: 9 O that God would begin and smyte me, that he would let his hande go & take me cleane away:
10 Then should I haue some comfort, yea I would desire hym in my payne that he would not spare, (d) for I wyll not denye the wordes of the holy one. 11 For what power haue I to endure? and what is myne ende, "that my soule myght be patient: 12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesche of brasse?
13 Is it not so that there is in me no helpe? and that my "substaunce is taken from me? 14 He that is in tribulation, ought to be comforted of his neighbour: but the feare of the almightie is cleane away. 15 Myne owne brethren passe ouer by me as the water brooke, and as the ouerflowing of waters whiche do hastely go away, 16 Which are blackishe by reason of the ice, and wherin the snow is hid. 17 Whiche when they haue passed by, do vanishe: and when the heate commeth, they fayle out of their place. 18 They depart from the course of their wonted chanell to other places, they runne in payne, and perishe. 19 They that went to (e) Theman considered them, and they that went to Saba wayted for them. 20 But they were confounded in their hope, they came thyther and were ashamed. 21 Euen suche truely are ye, nowe that ye see my misserie ye are afraide. 22 Did I desire you to bryng vnto me, or to gene me any of your substaunce? 23 To deliuer me from the enemies hande, or to saue me from the hande of the tiraunnes? 24 Teache me, and I will holde my tongue: and wherin I haue erred, cause me to vnderstande.
25 Howe strong are the wordes of trueth? and whyche of you can rebuke or reproue them? 26 Do ye imagine to reproue (f) wordes, that the talke of the afflicted should be as the wind?
27 Ye fall vpon the fatherlesse, and digge a pit to ouerthrowe your owne freende. 28 And therefore be content, and (g) looke nowe vpon me, and I wyll not lye before your face.
29 Turne I pray you, "be indifferent iudges: turne agayne (and ye shall see) myne vnguiltinesse, whether there be any vnrighteousnesse in my tongue, or payne wordes in my mouth.

The. vii. Chapter.

1 Iob sheweth the shortnesse and miserie of mans lyfe.

IS there not an appoynted tyme to man vpon earth? are not his dayes also lyke the dayes of an (a) hyred seruaunt? 2 For lyke as a bonde seruaunt desireth the shadowe, and as an hyreling woulde fayne haue the reward of his worke: 3 Euen so haue I labboured whole monethes long in vayne, and many a carefull night haue I tolde. 4 When I layde me downe to sleepe, I sayde, O when shall I aryse? and (b) measuring the euening, I am euen full with tossing to & fro vnto the dawning of the day.

(e) Theman was one of the twelue princes of Israel, and inhabited the south part of Arabia, of whom the region was called Thema, by the which men passe into the whole countreys of Arabia, thinking to finde water there to quenche their thirst, but they are deceaued.
(f) Do ye go about by your tauntes to make me deeme that I speake fondly, because I am in this miserable state.
(g) To consider my cause whether I fayne or no. "Heb. Let there be none iniquitie.

(a) Meaning that his case is worse then eyther the hireling, or bondman
(b) Declaring his sore paynes, in that eche houre was lothsome & greeuous vnto hym.

(e) Hereby he sheweth why he was so dispised, in that his disease was very straūge

(d) That is, fasten thy iudgement, which is so heauie, that I can not beare it.

(e) Before the generall iudgement.

(f) That is, seeing my life vanisheth as the winde, and that there is no returne after death, I will refrethe my selfe by expressing the greefes of my burdened minde.

(g) That is, I am in extreme affliction cōtinually night & day.

(h) Seeing I haue so litle tyme to liue, geue me some rest.

(i) As though Iob had said, there is no cause why thou shouldest esteeme man.

(k) Why doest thou not cease to punishe me.

(a) He declareth that those mens words which wil deminith any thing frō the iustice of God, are but as a puff of winde that vanisheth away.

5 My flesshe (c) is clothed with wormes, and dust of the earth: my skinne is withered and become horrible. 6 My dayes passe ouer more speedily then a weauers shuttle, and are spent without hope. 7 O remember that my lyfe is but a winde, and that mine eye shall no more see pleasures: 8 yea and the eye that hath seene me, shall see me no more: for yet thou (d) fasten thyne eye vpon me, I come to naught. 9 The cloude is consumed and banished away: so he that goeth downe to the graue (e) shall come no more vp, 10 Nor turne againe into his house, neither shal his place know him any more. 11 Therfore (f) I will not spare my mouth, but I will speake in the trouble of my spirite, and muse in the bitternesse of my mynde. 12 Am I a sea or a whale fish, that thou kepest me (so) in prison?

13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, I shall haue some refreshing by talking to my selfe vpon my couche: 14 Then fearest thou me (g) with dreames, and makest me so afrayde through visions, 15 That my soule wisheth rather to perishe and die, then my bones to remayne. 16 I am weery, I shall not liue alway: (h) O spare me then, for my dayes are but vanitie.

17 What (i) is man that thou doest magnifie him? and that thou settest thy heart vpon hym? 18 Thou visitest him early and euery day, euery moment doest thou trie him. 19 Why (k) goest thou not fro me, nor lettest me alone, so long till I may swalowe downe my spirite? 20 I haue offended, what shall I do vnto the O thou preseruer of me? Why hast thou set me (as a marke) against thee, so that I am a burden to my selfe?

21 Why doest thou not pardon my trespasses, and take away myne iniquitie? Beholde nowe must I sleepe in the dust, and if thou seekest me in the morning, I shall not be.

The. viii. Chapter.

1 Bildad sheweth that Iob is a sinner, because God punisheth the wicked, and preserueth the good.

THen aunswered Bildad the Suhite, and sayde, 2 Howe long wylt thou talke of suche thinges? howe long shall the wordes of thy mouth be as a (a) mightie winde? 3 Doth God peruert the thing that is lawfull? or doth the almightie destroy the thing that is right? 4 For seeing that (b) thy sonnes sinned against him, did not he send them into the place of their iniquitie? 5 If thou wouldest nowe resort vnto God betymes, and make thy prayer to the almightie,

6 If thou wouldest liue a pure and godly lyfe: shoulde he not awake vp vnto thee immediatly, and make the habitation of thy righteousnesse prosperous? 7 Insomuch that wherin soeuer thou haddest litle afore, thou shouldest haue nowe great aboundaunce. 8 Enquire I pray thee (c) of the former age, and search diligently among their fathers: 9 (For we are but of (d) yesterday, and conſider not that our dayes vpon earth are but a shadowe.) 10 Shall not they shewe thee, and tell thee, & vtter the wordes of their heart? 11 May a (e) rushe growe without moystnesse? or may the grasse growe without water?

12 No, but whylst it is nowe in his greennesse, though it be not cut down, yet withereth it before any other hearbe: 13 So are the pathes of all that forget God, and the hypocrites hope shall come to naught. 14 His confidence shalbe destroyed, and his trust shalbe a (f) spiders webbe.

15 He shall leane vpon his house, but it shall not stande: he shall holde hym fast by it, yet shall it not endure.

16 (But) the greene (tree) in the sunne shooteth foorth his braunches in the garden. 17 The rootes thereof are wrapped about the fountayne, & are fouldē about the house of stoneg. 18 If any pluckе it from his place, & it denie (g) saying, I haue not seene thee: 19 Beholde it wyll (g) reioyce by this meanes, & it may grow in another mouldе. 20 Beholde, God wyll not cast away a bermous man, neither wyll he " helpe the vngodly. 21 Thy mouth shall be fill with laughing, and thy lippes with gladnesse. 22 They also that hate thee shalbe clothed with shame, and the dwelling of the vngodly shall come to naught.

The. ix. Chapter.

1 Iob declareth the mightie power of God, and that mans righteousnes is nothing.

IOb aunswered, and sayde, 2 I knowe it is so of a truth: for howe may a man (compared) vnto God be (a) iustified? 3 If he wyll argue with hym, he can not aunswere hym one thing of a thousande.

4 He is wyse in heart, and mightie in strength:

(b) And therfore are iustly plagued, but thou rather art more bounde to God, because he hath geue thee space to repent.

(c) Here Bildad confirmeth his saying by the auctoritie of the fathers.

(d) That is, lately borne.

(e) Meaning that as a rush without moisture can not grow: so can not an euyll man lyue, without repentaunce moystened with gods grace.

(f) Which is spun to day, & to morow swept away: whereto is likened the house of the wicked, his riches & his substaunce.

(g) That is, to that there remayneth nothing ther to proue whether the tree had growen ther or no.

" Or, take vngodly by the hande.

(a) Iob aunswered to Eliphas & Bildads oration, confessing mans iustice to be nothing, being compared to God.

strength: who hath ben feacte against hym, and hath prospered? 5 He (c) translateth the mountaynes or euer they be aware, it is he that ouerthroweth them in his wrath. 6 He remoueth the earth out of her place, that the pillers thereof shake withall.

7 He commaundeth the sunne, and it riseth not: he closeth vp the starres as vnder a seale. 8 He hym selfe alone spreadeth out the heauens, and goeth vpon the "waues of the sea.

9 He maketh the Waynes of heauen, (d) the Orion, the Seuen starres, & the secrete places of the south. 10 He doth great things and vnsearcheable, yea and wonders without number.

11 Lo, (e) when he goeth by me, I shal not see hym, and when he passeth, I shall not perceaue him. 12 If he be hastie to take away, who will make hym (f) restore it? or who wyl say vnto him, What doest thou? 13 God wil not withdraw his anger, and the most mightie do stowpe vnder hym.

14 Howe much lesse shall I aunswere him? or howe shoulde I finde out my wordes with him? 15 For though I were righteous, yet might I not geue him one worde agayne, but meekely submit my selfe to hym as my iudge.

16 If I had called vpon hym, and he had aunswered me, (g) yet woulde I not beleue that he heard my voyce:

17 He troubleth me so with the tempest, and woundeth me out of measure without a cause, 18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitternesse. 19 If (men will speake) of strength, lo he is strong: if (men wyl speake) of iudgement, who shalbe my pleader? 20 If I will (h) iustifie my selfe, myne owne mouth shall condemne me: if I wyl be a perfect man, he shall proue me a wicked doer. 21 (Though) I were perfect, yet I know not my soule, and am weerie of my life. 22 This is one point, and therefore I saide, He destroyeth both the perfect and vngodly. 23 And though he slay sodaynly with the scourge, wyll he laugh at the punishment of the innocent? 24 As for the earth it is geuen ouer, into the hande of the wicked, and he shall (i) couer the faces of the iudges thereof: if not, where is he, or who is he? (that can shewe the contrarie?)

25 My dayes are more swift then a runner, they are gone, and haue seene no good thing. 26 They are passed away as the shippes that be good vnder sayle, and as the eagle that flieth to the pray. 27 If I say, I wyll forget my complaynting, I wyll ceasse from my wrath, and comfort my self:

28 Then am I afrayde of all my sorowes, for I know that thou wylt not iudge me innocent. 29 If I be wicked, why then (k) labour I in vayne? 30 If I washe my selfe with snowe water, and make myne handes neuer so cleane at the well: 31 ye shalt thou "dippe me in the myre, and (l) mine owne clothes shall defile me. 32 For he that I must geue answere vnto, and with whom I go to the lawe, is not a man as I am:

33 Neither is there any dayesman to lay his hand betweene vs. 34 Let him take his rodde away from me, yea let hym make me no more afrayde of him, 35 And then shal I aunswere him without any feare: but "because I am not so, I holde me styll.

The.x. Chapter.

1 Iob is weerie of his lyfe, and setteth out his frailenesse before God. 20 He desireth him to stay his hande. 22 A description of death.

My soule is (a) cut of though I liue, I wyll powre out my complaynt against my selfe, and wyll speake out of the very "heauinesse of my soule. 2 I wyll say vnto God, O (b) do not condemne me, but shew me wherfore thou contendest with me?

3 Thinkest thou it well done to oppresse me? to cast me of beyng the workes of thy handes? and to (c) maintayne the counsell of the vngodly?

4 Hast thou fleshly eyes? or doest thou looke as a man looketh? 5 Or are thy dayes as the dayes of (d) man? & thy yeres as mans yeres? 6 That thou makest suche inquisition for my wickednesse, & searchest out my sinne?

7 Thou knowest (e) that I haue not done wickedly, and that none can deliuer me out of thyne hande. 8 Thy handes haue made me, and fashioned me altogether round about, wylt thou then destroy me? 9 Remember I beseeche thee that thou madest me as the moulde of the earth, and shalt bryng me into dust agayne. 10 Hast thou not powred me as it were milke, and turned me to cruddes like cheese?

11 Thou hast couered me with skin and flesche, and ioyned me together with bones and sinnowes. 12 Thou

14 If I did ſinne, thou haddeſt an eye vnto me, and ſhalt not pronounce me innocent from mine offence. 15 If I haue done wickedly, wo is me therfore: yf I haue done righteouſly, yet (i) dare I not lift vp my head, ſo full am I of confuſion, and ſee mine owne miſerie. 16 And let it increaſe, hunte me as a lion, but thou wylt returne and ſhewe thy ſelfe maruaylous vpon me. 17 Thou bringeſt freſhe "witneſſe againſt me, and thy wrath increaſeſt thou vpon me: diuers and many are the plagues that I am in.

18 Wherefore haſt thou brought me out of the wombe? O that I had periſhed, and that no eye had ſeene me.

19 And that I were as though I had not ben, but brought from the wombe to the graue. 20 Are not my dayes fewe? Let hym then leaue of fro me, and let me alone, that I may comfort my ſelfe a litle, 21 Before I go (thyther from whence) I ſhal not turne agayne, euen to the lande of darkneſſe and ſhadowe of death: 22 Yea a lande as darke as darkneſſe it ſelfe, and into the ſhadowe of death where is (k) none order, but the light (is there) as darkneſſe.

The. xi. Chapter.

1 Iob is vniuſtly blamed of Sophar. 7 The maieſtie of God can not be ſearched. 14 God is mercyfull to the repentaunt. 18 The godly ſhall liue in ſafetie.

THen aunſwered Sophar the Naamathite, and ſayde, 2 Shoulde not (he that maketh) many wordes be aunſwered? Shoulde he that (a) bableth much be commended therein? 3 Should thy lyes make men holde their peace? and when thou mocheſt (others) ſhall no man make thee aſhamed? 4 For thou haſt ſayde, (b) my doctrine is pure, and I am cleane in thyne eyes. 5 But O (c) that God woulde ſpeake, and open his lippes againſt thee. 6 That he might ſhew thee the (d) ſecretes of wyſdome, how thou haſt (deſerued) double according to right: knowe therefore that God hath forgotten thee for thyne iniquitie. 7 Art thou able to finde out (the ſecretes of) God? Or wylt thou attaine to the perfectenes of the almightie? 8 He is (e) hyer then heauen, what art thou able to do? deeper then the hell, howe wylt thou then knowe hym? 9 The meaſure of hym is longer then the earth, and broder then the ſea. 10 Though he turne al thinges vpſide downe, cloſe them in, or gather them together, who wyll turne hym from his purpoſe? 11 For it is he that knoweth vayne men, he ſeeth their wickednelle alſo, ſhoulde he not then conſider it? 12 Yet vayne man would be wiſe, though man (new) borne is like a wylde aſſes coult.

13 If thou preparedſt thyne heart, and liftedſt vp thyne handes toward him: 14 If thou wouldeſt put away the wickednelle which thou haſt in hand, ſo that no vngodlineſſe dwell in thy houſe: 15 Then mighteſt thou (f) lyft vp thy face without "ſhame, and then ſhouldeſt thou be ſure, and haue no neede to feare. 16 Then ſhouldeſt thou forget thy miſerie, and thinke no more vpon it then vpon the waters whiche paſſeth by. 17 Then ſhould thy "lyfe be as cleare as the noone day, thou ſhouldeſt ſhine forth, & be as the morning. 18 Then mighteſt thou be bolde becauſe there is hope, & take thy reſt quietly, as compaſſed with a trenche. 19 Then mighteſt thou lye downe and none to make thee afraid, yea many one ſhould make ſuite vnto thee. 20 As for the eyes of the vngodly they ſhall fayle, and they ſhall not eſcape, and their hope (ſhalbe) ſorowe of mynde.

The xii. Chapter.

1 Iob accuſeth his frendes of ignoraunce. 7 He declareth the might and power of God. 17 And howe God chaungeth the courſe of thinges.

SO Iob aunſwered, & ſayd, 2 Then no doubt ye are the people, and (a) wyſdome ſhall periſhe with you. 3 But I haue "vnderſtanding aſwell as ye, and am not inferiour to you: yea who knoweth not theſe thinges? 4 I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth vpon God, and he heareth hym: the iuſt and the vpright is laughed to ſcorne. 5 Being as a light (b) deſpiſed in the heartes of the ryche, and as one redy to fall.

malictously meddle against God, dwell without care in those thinges that God hath (d) geuen rychly with his hande. 7 Aske the cattayle, (e) and they shall enfourme thee: the fowles of the ayre, and they shall tell thee.

(e) For euen the cattayle and all creatures do declare gods power, as it is said, The heauens declare the glorie of God.

8 Speake to the earth, and it shall shewe thee: or to the fishes of the sea, and they shall certifie thee. 9 What is he but he knoweth that the hande of the Lorde made all these? 10 In whose hande is the (f) soule of euery liuing thing, & the breath of al mankinde? 11 Doth not the eares decerne the wordes? and the mouth taste the meate? 12 Among olde persons there is wysdome, and in age is vnderstanding. 13 Yea with (God) is wisdome and strength, counsell and vnderstanding. 14 Beholde (g) if he breake downe a thing, who can set it vp agayne? if he shut a thing, who wyl open it? 15 Beholde, if he withholde the waters, they dryue vp: if he let them go, they destroy the earth.

(f) For God doth not only create his creatures, but also norisheth, cherisheth, and preserueth them stylly.

16 With him is strength and wysdome: both the deceauer and he that is deceaued are (i) his. 17 He careyeth away the wyse men as it were a spoyle, and maketh the iudges fooles. 18 He looseth the rule of kynges, and gyrdeth their loynes with a bond.

* Or, flesh.

19 He leadeth away the great men into captiuitie, and turneth the mightie vpside downe. 20 He stoppeth the mouth of them that speake truth, and disapointeth the aged of their vnderstanding. 21 He powreth contempt vpon princes, and maketh the strength of the mightie weake.

(g) Here Iob proueth that nothing is comparable to gods power, or can preuayle against it.

22 Looke what lieth hid in darknesse he declareth it openly, and the very shadowe of death bringeth he to light. 23 He increaseth the people, and destroyeth them, he maketh them to multiplie, and diminisheth them. 24 He taketh away the heart of them that be heades of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in the wildernesse out of the way. 25 They grope in the darke without light, and he maketh them to stacker lyke a dronken man.

(i) He sheweth that nothing is done in this world without gods wyll and ordinaunce.

The. xiii. Chapter.

20 Iob prayeth vnto god that he would not handle hym rigorously.

LO, (a) all (this) haue I seene with mine eye, heard with mine eare, and vnderstande it. 2 What ye knowe, that same do I knowe also, neither am I inferior vnto you.

(a) Meaning, I knowe the power of God aswell as you.

3 Neuertheless I talke with the almightie, and my desire is to commune with God. 4 As for you ye are worke maisters of lyes, and (b) vnprofitable phisitions altogether.

(b) That is, you are vnmeete for my disease, which seeke not the medicine to cure it, but rather to encrease it with yours lyes and tales to trouble me.

5 Would God ye kept your tongue, for then might ye be taken for wise men. 6 Nowe heare my reasoning, and ponder the argument of my lippes. 7 Wyll you speake wickedly for gods (defence) and talke deceiptfully for his (cause)? 8 Wyll ye accept the person of hym? or wyll ye contende for God? 9 Shall that helpe you when he calleth you to rechening? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mocke him? 10 He shal surely reproue you, if ye do secretely accept any person. 11 Shall not his excellencie make you afrayde? shall not his feare fal vpon you? 12 Your (d) remembrauncе is lyke vnto dust, and your bodyes like the clay.

(c) Marke what I shall lay against you, for I blame you not in that ye declare gods power, but because you fayne a carnall and humaine iustice to be in him: and so of true thinges, ye conclude lyes.

(d) Your fame shall come to nothing.

13 Holde your tongues before me that I may speake, and let come on me what wyl. 14 Wherfore do I (e) teare my flesche with my teeth, and (f) put my soule in mine handes? 15 Lo, though he slay me, yet wyll I trust in hym: but I wyll reproue mine owne wayes in his sight. 16 He shalbe my saluation: for there may no (g) hypocrite come before hym. 17 Heare diligently my wordes, and ponder my sayinges with your eares. 18 Beholde, now haue I prepared my iudgement, and know that I shalbe founde (h) righteous. 19 What is he that wyll (i) go to lawe with me? if I now holde my tongue, I dye. 20 Neuertheless do not these two thinges vnto me, and then wyll I not hide my selfe from thee: 21 Withdrawe thyne hande farre from me, and let not the fearefull dread of thee make me afraide. 22 Then call, and I wyll aunswere: or let me speake, and geue thou me an aunswere.

(e) That is, sore vexe & torment my selfe as though I should rent and teare my flesshe with teeth.

(f) That is, to set my life in daungers.

(g) Here it appeareth that Iobs trust & hope in god was not all perished, discharging him selfe of hypocrisie wherewith they charged hym.

23 Howe many are my misdeedes and sinnes? let me knowe my transgressions and offences. 24 Wherefore hydest thou thy face, and holdest me for thyne enemie? 25 Wylt thou breake a leafe driuen to and fro, and wylt thou pursue the drye stubble?

26 For

(h) That is, not condemned for my sinnes, as you do reason. (i) To proue that god plagueth me for mine offences.

26 For thou layeſt charpely to my charge, & puniſheſt me for the ſinnes of my youth. 27 Thou putteſt my feete alſo in the (o) ſtockes, and looſeſt narowly vnto all my pathes, and makeſt the print thereof in the heeles of my feete: 28 And I as a rotten thing do conſume away, as a garment that is mothearen.

The.xiiii. Chapter.

1 Iob deſcribeth the ſhortneſſe and miſerie of the lyfe of man. 14 Hope ſuſtayneth the godly. 22 The condition of mans lyfe.

MAn that is borne of a woman hath but a ſhort time to liue, and is full of miſerie. 2 He commeth vp, and is cut downe (a) lyke a flowre: he fleeth as it were a ſhadowe, and continueth not. 3 Doeſt thou (b) open thyne eyes vpon ſuche one, and bryngeſt me into thy iudgement? 4 Who can make it cleane that commeth of an vncleane thing? no body. 5 The dayes of man ſurely are determined, the number of his monethes are knowen onlye vnto thee, thou haſt appointed hym his bondes whiche he can not go beyond. 6 Go from him, that he may reſt, vntill his day (c) come which he looketh for, like as an hireling doth. 7 For if a tree be cut downe, there is ſome hope yet that it wyll ſproute and ſhoote foorth the braunches agayne. 8 Though the roote of it be waxen olde in the earth, and the ſtocke therof be dead in the grounde: 9 yet when it getteth the ſent of water, it wyll budde and bring foorth bowes, like as a tree that is planted. 10 (d) But as for man, when he is dead, periſhed, and conſumed away, what becometh of him? 11 As the waters paſſe from the ſea and as the flood decayeth and dryeth vp: 12 So man after he is aſleepe riſeth not, he ſhall not wake tyll the heauens be no more, nor ryſe out of his ſleepe. 13 O that thou wouldeſt hyde me in the graue, and kepe me ſecrete, vntil thy wrath were paſt, and to appoint me a tyme where-in thou mighteſt remember me. 14 May a dead man liue agayne? All the dayes of my lyfe wyll I wayte ſtyll, tyll my chaunging ſhall come. 15 Thou ſhalt (e) call me) and I ſhall aunſwere thee, "deſpiſe not thyne owne worke of thyne owne handes. 16 For now thou (f) numbreſt al my goinges, and geueſt no delay vnto my ſinne. my deedes numbred, ſpare me therfore.

17 Myne iniquitie is ſealed vp as it were in a (g) bagge, and thou addeſt (puniſhment) vnto my wickednes. 18 The mountaynes fall away at the laſt, the roches are remoued out of their place. 19 The waters pearſe through the very ſtones by litle and litle, the floddes waſhe away the graſnell and earth: ſo ſhalt thou deſtroy the hope of man. 20 Thou preuayleſt ſtyll againſt hym, ſo that he paſſeth away: thou chaungeſt his "eſtate and putteſt him from thee. 21 And whether his children come to worſhip or no, he can not tell: and if they be men of low degree, he knoweth not. 22 But whyle his (h) fleſhe is vpon hym, it muſt haue ſorowe: and his ſoule ſhall mourne within hym.

The.xv. Chapter.

1 Eliphaz blameth Iob, becauſe he chalengeth wyſdome and pureneſſe to him ſelfe.

THen aunſwered Eliphaz the Themanite, and ſayde, 2 Shall a wyſe mans aunſwere be as the (a) wynde, and fill his belly with the wynde of the eaſt? 3 Shall he reprone with a worde that is nothing worth, and ſpeake the thinges whiche can do no good? 4 Surely thou haſt caſt of feare, and reſtrayneſt prayer before God. 5 For thy mouth ſetteth foorth thyne owne iniquitie, ſeeing thou haſt choſen the tongue of the craftie. 6 Thyne owne mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea thyne owne lippes ſhape an aunſwere againſt thee. 7 (b) Art thou the firſt man that euer was borne? or waſt thou made before the hilles? 8 Waſt thou heard the ſecrete counſell of God? and doeſt thou reſtrayne wyſdome to thy ſelfe? 9 What knoweſt thou that we knowe not? and what vnderſtandeſt thou but we can the ſame? 10 With vs are both old and aged men, yea ſuch as haue liued longer then thy father. 11 Thinkeſt thou it a ſmall thing of the conſolations of God? "with thee is a lying worde. 12 Why doth thyne (c) heart ſo bewitch thee? and wherfore winckeſt thou with thyne eyes, 13 That thy mynde is ſo (d) puft vp againſt God, and letteſt ſuche wordes go out of thy mouth? 14 What is man, that he ſhoulde be cleane? and he which is borne of a woman, wherby he myght be righteous? 15 Beholde he doth not "truſt his ſainctes, yea

(n) Thou makeſt me thy priſoner, and doeſt ſo oppreſſe me, that I can not ſtirre hande nor foote.

(a) This expreſſeth mās ſhortneſſe of life, and the vnſtablenes therof, being compared to a flowre, to a ſhadow, and to the graſſe in the fielde.

(b) Meaning that ſeeing man is ſo frayle, he ſhoulde not handle hym ſo extremely

(c) That is death, which he deſireth, as the hierling wayteth in the ende of his labour to receaue his wages.

(d) Iob ſaith not this as hauing no hope of immortalitie, but as one ſore tormented.

(e) Thou plageſt me now, yet when thou ſhalt call me vp at domes day, I ſhall anſwere thee, for thou art mercifull.

"Or, thou ſhalt loue.

(f) That is, thou haſt all

(g) Thou keepeſt all my ſinnes in ſtore, and ſuffreſt none vnpuniſhed.

"Or, fame.

(h) whyle he liueth.

(a) Wordes to no effect ſpoken, are likened to the eaſt wind, which drieth vp the moyſture as ſoone as it falleth: So fooliſh wordes vaynely periſhe aſſoone as they be ſpoken.

(b) That is, art thou ſo auncient, that all wiſdome is in thy head?

"or, is there any ſecrete thing with thee?

(c) As one ſtanding in thyne owne conceipt.

(d) So reade, aunſwering him at thy pleaſure: the Hebrue is, aunſwering, hym in thy ſpirite.

"or, among his ſainctes none with out fault.

yea the heauens are not cleane in his sight: 16 Howe muche moze then an abyominable and vyle man, which(f) drynketh wyckednesse lyke water.

17 I wyll tell thee, heare me, and I wyll shewe thee that I haue seene:

18 Which wyse men haue tolde, and haue not hid that which they receaued from theyr fathers: 19 Vnto whom alone the earth was geuen, and no straunger went among them. 20 The (g) vngodly sozoweth all the dayes of his lyfe as it were a woman with chylde, and the (h) number of a tyrauntes yeres are vnknowen. 21 A fearefull sounde is(euer)in his eares, and when he is in peace, the destroyer shall come vpon him. 22 He beleueth neuer to be deliuered (i) out of darknesse: for the swozde is alwaies before his eyes. 23 He wandzeth abzoade for bread where it is, knowing that the day of darknesse is redy at his hande.

24 Trouble and anguyshe wyll make hym afrayd, they shal preuayle against hym, as a kyng with his armie, 25 For he hath stretched out his hand against God, and armed hym selfe against the almightie. 26 He runneth proudly vpon hym, and with a styffe necke fighteth he against hym.

27 Where as he(k) couereth his face with fatnesse, and maketh his bodie well lykyng. 28 Therefore shall his dwellyng be (l) in desolate cities, and in houses whiche no man inhabiteth, but are become heapes of stones.

29 He shall not be riche, neither shal his substaunce continue, neither shall the prosperitie thereof be prolonged vpon earth. 30 He shall neuer depart out of darkenesse, the flame (m) shall dzye vp his braunches, with the blast of the mouth (of god) shall he be taken away. 31 He beleueth not that he erreth in vanitie, and yet vanitie shalbe his recompence. 32 He shall perysshe afoze his tyme be wozne out, and his (n) braunche shall not be greene. 33 He shalbe plucked of as an vntimely grape from the vine, and shall let his flowze fall as the olyue doth. 34 For the congregation of hypocrites shalbe desolate, and the fire shall consume the houses of suche as are greedie to receaue gyftes.

35 He conceaueth trauayle, and bearyth vanitie, and theyr belly bryngeth foozth deceipt.

The. xvi. Chapter.

1 Iob moued by the importunacie of his freendes, 7 counterh in what extremitie he is, 19 and taketh God to witnes of his innocencie.

IOb aunswered and sayde, 2 I haue oft tymes hearde suche thynges: (a) miserable geuers of comfoze are ye all the sozt of you. 3 " Shall not vayne wozdes come yet to an ende? oz what maketh thee bolde so to aunswere? 4 I coulde speake as ye do also: but woulde God that your (b) soule were in my soules stede, then coulde I frame wozdes foz you, and shake my head at you: 5 I woulde strengthen you with my mouth, and releaue your (payne) with the talkyng of my lippes. 6 For all my wozdes my sozowe wyll not ceasse: and (c) though I holde my tongue, what am I eased? 7 But now he hath made me weery, thou hast made desolate all (d) my congregation. 8 And that thou(e) hast filled me with wzinckles my flesh is recozde, and my leanenesse ryseth vp against me, and beareth witnesse therof in my face. 9 His wzath hath tozne(me,)he hateth me, and gnasheth vpon me with his teeth: mine enemie loketh fiercely vpon me with his eyes. 10 They haue opened theyr mouthes wide vpon me, and(f) smitten me vpon the cheeke despitefully, they gather them selues together against me. 11 God hath shut me vp with the vngodly, and deliuered me(g) into the handes of the wicked. 12 I was in wealth, but he hath brought me to nought: he hath taken me by the necke, he hath all to shaken me, and set me as a marke foz him selfe. 13 His (h) archers compasse me round about, he woundeth my raynes, and doth not spare, my " bowels hath he (i) powred vpon the grounde. 14 He hath geuen me one wounde vpon another, and is fallen vpon me like a giant. 15 I haue sowed a sackecloth vppon my shyane, and wallowed my " head in the dust. 16 My face is withered with weepyng, and in mine eyes is the shadowe of death. 17 Howbeit there is no wickednes in my handes, but my prayer is cleane. 18 O earth coner not thou my blood, and let my crying find no roome. 19 For loe, my witnesse is heauen, and he that knoweth me is in the height. 20 My freendes geue me many wozdes to scozne, and myne eye powreth out teares vnto God.

21 O that

(f) Whiche hath a desyre to sinne, as he that is thirstie to drinke.
(g) Here he repeateth certayne places of the Leuiticall law for his proofe, whiche in deede the fathers so spake, but did not vnderstande them as Eliphaz dyd.
(h) He shalbe alwayes in feare day & night, not knowing anything certayne.
(i) That is, out of the troubles and feares which fal vpon him.
(k) That is, aboundance of riches hath made him so proud, that he forgetteth God.
(l) That is, he shal haue no certayne and sure place to dwell in.
(m) That is, such blessing as God gaue him, shalbe turned into cursing.
(n) That is, his progenie or offspring shall not continue.

(a) For they more bite him with cruel words, then comfort him.
" or, wozdes of wynde.
(b) Woulde ye suffered that which I suffer?
(c) For God wil haue his pleasure ouer me.
(d) My houshold, chyldren, & substaunce.
(e) Not by reason of yeres, but by reason of my greefe, shewyng his extreme paines.
(f) That is, despitefully handled me, which strikyng on the cheeke signifieth.
(g) To proue him, and not to destroy hym.
(h) His plagues and afflictions wherwith he vexeth me.
" or, gall.
(i) God hath not only stricken outwardly my body and all my substaunce, but also touched my inwarde partes.
" He. hozne.

21 O that a body might pleade with God, as one man doth with another.
22 Yet the number of my yeres is come, and the way that I must go is at hande, from whence I shall not turne agayne.

The. xvii. Chapter.

1 Iob sayth that he consumeth away, & yet doth pacyently abyde it. 10 He exhorteth his freendes to repentaunce, 13 Shewing that he loketh but for death.

MY breath is corrupt, my dayes are shortened, I am harde at deathes dooze. 2(a) "Froward men are with me, and myne eye muste continue in the bitternesse of them.
3 O deliuer me, and (b) loke out one to be my suretie in thy sight: what is he that knoweth who wyl promise for me? 4 For thou hast withholden theyr heartes (c) from vnderstandyng, therefore shalt thou not set (them) vp on hye. 5 He that speaketh flatterie to his freend, the eyes of his children shall fayle. 6 He hath made me a bywoorde of the people, where as afore I was theyr "ioy. 7 Myne eye is dymme for very heauynesse, and all my strength is lyke a shadowe.
8 Vertuous men therefore shal well consider this, and the innocent shall take part agaynst the hypocrite.
9 The righteous also wyll (d) kepe his way, and he that hath cleane handes wyll euer be stronger and stronger. 10 As for al you, turne you and "get you hence (I pray you) seeyng I can not finde one wise man among you. 11 My dayes are past, and my counsailes and thoughtes of my heart are vanished away, 12 Chaungyng the nyght into day, and the lyght approchyng into darkenesse. 13 Though I tary neuer so much, yet the graue is my house, and I haue made my bed in the darke. 14 I sayde to corruption, Thou art my father: and to the wormes, You are my mother, and my sister. 15 (e) Where is then now my hope? or who hath considered the thyng that I loke for? (My hope) shall go downe with me into the pyt, and lye with me in the dust.

The. xviii. Chapter.

1 Bildad rehearseth the paynes of the vnfaithfull and wycked.

THen aunswered Bildad the Suhite, and sayde, 2 When wyll ye make an ende of your wordes?

Marke wel, and then we wyll speake.
3 Wherefore are we counted as beastes, and reputed so vyle in your sight?
4 He destroyeth hym selfe with his anger: shall the earth be forsaken, or any stone removed out of his place (a) because of thee? 5 Yea the lyght of the vngodly shalbe put out, and the sparke of his fyre shall not shyne.
6 The (b) lyght shalbe darke in his dwellyng, and his candell shalbe put out with hym. 7 The steppes of his strength shalbe restrayned, and his owne counsayle shall cast hym downe:
8 For his feete are taken (as it were) in the net, and he walketh vppon the snares. 9 The grinne shall take hym by the heele, and the thirstie of blood shall catche him. 10 The snare is layde for hym in the grounde, and a pitfall in the way. 11 Fearefulnesse shall make him afrayde on euery syde, and shall dryue him to his feete.
12 (c) Hunger shalbe his strength, and destruction shalbe redye at his syde.
13 He shal (d) eate the strength of his owne shynne, euen the first borne of death shall eate his strength. 14 His hope shalbe rooted out of his dwellyng, and shall bryng him to the (e) kyng of feare. 15 (Other men) shall dwell in his house, and it shalbe none of his, and brimstone shalbe scattered vpon his habitation. 16 His rootes shalbe dryed vp beneath, and aboue shal his braunche be cut downe.
17 His remembraunce shall perysh from the earth, and he shall haue no name in the streete. 18 They shall dryue hym from the (f) light into darkenesse, and chase him cleane out of the worlde. 19 He shall neither haue "children nor kynsfolkes among his people, no nor any posteritie in his dwellynges. 20 They that come after him shalbe astonied at (g) his day, and "they that go before shalbe afrayde. 21 Suche are nowe the dwellynges of the wycked, and this is the place of hym that knoweth not God.

The. xix. Chapter.

1 Iob reproueth his freendes, 15 and reciteth is miseries & greuous paines. 25 He assureth himselfe of the generall resurrection.

IOb aunswered, and sayde, 2 Howe long wyll ye vexe my soule, and trouble me with wordes? 4 Loe, ten times haue ye reprochedme, and are not ashamed, but haue laughed me to

(a) That is, shall God chaunge the accustomed order of his operation for thee: and not afflict the wicked as his order is?
(b) His wyfe.
dome shall perishe, and from this place vnto the ende of the Chapter Bildad goeth about to prooue Iob wycked, because god plageth him, as he doth the wycked man.
(c) That is, he shall not attayne to that whiche he desireth, for all his power and might shalbe taken away by hunger.
(d) Meanyng the vngodly shalbe the destruction of the strength of his owne skinne, that is, of his children and posteritie.
(e) which is death, the most fearful and terrible of all thyngs.
(f) From prosperitie to aduersitie.
"or, sonne
(g) That is, at his fall.
"or, eldest or aunce.

(a) In al Iobs extreme afflictions, yet this one made the reste most greeuous, that they that shoulde cherfully comfort him, dyd cruelly vexe hym and mocke him.
"or, mockers.
(b) That is, make promise with me O god, that I may talke with thee, for I wil not reason with them, for they are fooles.
(c) That they can not vnderstand the cause of my punishment: but iudge me wicked, not knowing thy wisdom, wherby thou doest afflict thy childrē.
"or, tabret.
(d) Though the godly see them selues afflicted of god as the wicked are, yet they dispayre not, knowing that the iust also are punished for proofe of them.
"or, come nowe.
(e) Seeyng I am but corruption,

(b) As though he woulde say, what haue you to do with that, the fault is mine, and not yours.

(c) He declareth that his affliction commeth of god, though he be not able to feele the cause in him selfe.

(d) That is, I cannot go fro these my afflictions.

(e) That is, of my ryches & substance.

(f) That is, destroied my children: for the crowne of the aged are childers chyldren, as it is in the prouerbes.

* or, vnderstande.

(g) That is, his great plages layed on me.

* or, they that dwelt with me.

* or, folkes

(h) Some read, that he shall stand last on the earth, meaning that Christe shall come at the latter ende vnto iudgment, and raise vp the that lye in the dust.

* or though after my skynne the (wormes) destroy this (body,) yet shall I, &c.

to scorne. 4 Be it that I haue erred in deede, myne errour then remayneth with my(b) selfe. 5 But yf ye will aduaunce your selues agaynst me, and rebuke me for the shame that is come vpon me: 6 knowe this then that it is (c) God which hath ouerthrowen me, and hath compassed me with his net. 7 If I complayne of the violence that is done vnto me, I can not be heard: & yf I crye, there is no sentence geuen with me. 8 He hath hedged vp my way that(d) I can not passe, & he hath set darknesse in my pathes.

9 He hath spoyled me (e) of myne honour, and (f) taken the crowne away from my head. 10 He hath destroyed me on euery syde, and I am * gone: my hope hath he taken away as a tree pluckt vp by the roote. 11 His wrath is kindled against me, he taketh me as though I were his enemie.

12 (g) His men of warre come together, which made theyr way ouer me, and besieged my dwelling rounde about. 13 He hath put my brethren farre away from me, & myne acquayntaunce are also become straungers vnto me. 14 Myne owne kinsfolkes haue forsaken me, and my best acquainted haue forgotten me. 15 * The seruauntes and maydens of myne owne house tooke me for a straunger, and I am become as an aliaunt in theyr sight. 16 I called my seruaunt, and he gaue me no answere: (no though) I prayed him with my mouth.

17 Myne owne wyfe myght not abyde my breath, (though) I prayed her for the chyldrens sake of myne owne body. 18 Yea the * young men despised me, and when I rose they spake euyll vpon me. 19 All my most familiers abhorred me: and they whom I loued best, are turned agaynst me.

20 My bone cleaueth to my skynne and to my flesche, only there is left me the skinne about my teeth. 21 Haue pitie vpon me, haue pitie vpon me, O ye my freendes, for the hande of God hath touched me. 22 Why do ye persecute me as God (doth) and are not satisfied with my flesche? 23 O that my wordes were nowe wrytten, O that they were put in a booke, 24 And grauen with an yron penne in leade, or in stone, to continue.

25 For I am sure that my redeemer lyueth, and that I shall (h) ryse out of the earth in the latter day. 26 And * though (this body,) yet shall I, &c. skynne, and shall see God in my flesh: 27 Whom I my selfe shall see, and myne eyes shall beholde, and none other for me: this my hope is layde vp in my bosome. 28 But ye sayde, Why is he persecuted, and there was a deepe matter in me? 29 (i) But beware of the swoorde: for the swoorde wylbe auenged of wyckednesse, and be sure that there is a iudgement.

The. xx. Chapter.

1 Sophar sheweth that the wicked and the couetous shall haue a short ende, 22 though for a time they florysshe.

THen aunswered Sophar the Naamathite, and sayde, 2 For the same cause do (a) my thoughtes compell me to aunswere, and therfore make haste. 3 I haue (sufficiently) heard the (b) checkyng of my reproofe, therefore the spirite of my vnderstanding causeth me to aunswere.

4 Knowest thou not this of olde, and since God placed man vppon earth,

5 (c) That the gladnesse of the vngodly hath ben shorte, and that the ioy of hypocrites continued but the twynckling of an eye? 6 Though he be magnified vp to the heauen, so that his head reacheth vnto the cloudes:

7 Yet he perysheth for euer lyke his dung, (insomuch) that they which haue seene him, shall say, Where is he?

8 He shall vanyshe as a dreame, so that he can no more be found, and shall passe away as a vision in the nyght.

9 (So that) the eye whiche sawe him before, shal haue no more sight of him, and his place shall * knowe him no more. 10 His children shall please the poore, and his handes shall restore theyr goodes. 11 From his youth his bones are full of sinnes, which shall lye downe with him in the * earth.

12 When wickednes was sweete in his mouth, he hid it vnder his tongue. 13 That he fauoured, that would he not forsake, but kept it close in his throte. 14 The bread that he did eate, is turned to the poyson of serpents within his body. 15 The riches that he deuoured, shall he partyake agayne: for God shall drawe them out of his bellye. 16 He shall sucke the gall of serpentes, and the adders tongue shall slay him: 17 So that he shall no more see the ryuers and brookes of hony and butter.

18 The thyng he hath laboured for, shall

(i) That is, the iudgmēt of God the reuenger of iniquitie: meaning, though their wicked endeuour take place nowe, yet god will hereafter cōsider him, and be reuenged of the cuill.

(a) Because Iob bragged of his innocēcie (as they thought) Sophar interrupted his talke, as though he bosted in vayne, for that god accepteth none but the repentaunt sinner.

(b) For two causes Sophar spake: one, because Iob in aunswering toucheth him, & for that he deemed his knowledge sufficient to aunswere agayne.

(c) Sophar euen to the ende of this Chapter alegeth true sentences: but he erreth in that he thought Iob for impietie and hypocrisie to be plagued.

* or, see.

* or, dust.

(k) For yll gotten goods God will soone take away, & restore to the from whom they were craftily spoiled and rauened.

(l) That is, his heyres and executours shall gape in vaine.

(m) That is, fire from heauen: & here Sophar toucheth Iob for that his freendes and childre were consumed by fire.

(n) There is nothing hid that shal not be opened, & the earth shall either be vnfruitfull, or bryng forth things hurtfull to the wicked.

(o) Spoken against God.

shall he restore, and (k) shall not eate of it: great trauayle shall he make for ryches, but he shall not enioy them.

19 Because he hath oppressed the poore, and not helped them: houses hath he spoiled, and not builded them.

20 Because he coulde not perceaue when his belly was well, through his greedie desire he shall not escape.

21 There (l) shall none of his meate be left, therefore shall no man loke for his goodes. 22 When he had plenteousnes of euery thing, yet was he poore, though he was helped on euery side. 23 And it shal come to passe, that wherewith he purposed to fill his belly, God shall powre the furie of his wrath thereon, and shall cause his indignation to raigne vpon him, and vpon his meate. 24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steele shall strike hym through. 25 The swoorde is drawen out, and goeth through the body, and glitereth of his gall: so feare shall come vpon hym.

26 All darknesse shalbe hid in theyr secret places, (m) as vnkindled fire shall consume him: and loke what remayneth in his house, it shalbe destroyed.

27 The heauen shall (n) declare his wickednes, and the earth shall take part against hym. 28 The substaunce that he hath in his house shalbe taken away, and perysshe in the day of the Lordes wrath. 29 This is the portion that the wicked man shall haue of God, and the heritage (that he may loke for) of God, because of his (o) wordes.

The. xxi. Chapter.

1 Iob declareth howe the prosperitie of the wicked maketh them proud, 15 insomuch that they blaspheme God, IOb aunswered, and sayd, 2 O heare diligently my wordes, and that shalbe in steade of your consolations.

3 Suffer me that I may speake, and when I haue spoken, mocke on.

4 Is it with (a) man that I make this disputation? whiche yf it were so, shoulde not my spirite then be in sore trouble? 5 Marke me and be abashed, and (b) lay your hande vppon your mouth. 6 For when I consider I am afrayde, and my flesche is smytten with feare. 7 Wherefore do wycked men lyue, come to theyr olde age, and increase in rychesse?

8 Theyr * children lyue in theyr sight, and theyr generation before theyr eyes. 9 Theyr houses are safe from all feare, and the rod of God is not vpon them. 10 Theyr bullocke gendreth, and that not out of time, theyr cowe calueth, and is not vnfruitfull. 11 They sende foorth their children by flockes, and theyr sonnes daunce. 12 They beare with them tabrets and harpes, and reioyce in the sound of the instrumentes of musicke.

13 They spende theyr dayes in wealthinesse, but (c) sodaynely they go downe to the graue. 14 They say also vnto God, (d) Go from vs, we desyre not the knowledge of thy wayes.

15 Who is the almightie that we shoulde serue hym? And what profite should we haue if we should pray vnto hym? 16 Loe, there is vtterly no goodnesse in theyr hande, therefore wyll I not haue to do with the counsaile of the vngodly. 17 Howe oft shall the (e) candell of the wycked be put out, and theyr destruction come vpon them? O what sorowe shal God geue them for their part in his wrath? 18 Yea they shalbe euen as haye before the wynde, and as chaffe that the storme carieth away. 19 God wil lay vp the sorowe of the (father) for his children: and when he rewardeth hym, he shall knowe it. 20 Theyr owne miserie shall they see with theyr eyes, and drinke of the fearfull wrath of the almightie. 21 For what careth he for his house after his death, when the (f) number of his monethes is cut short? 22 Seeing God hath the hyest power of all, who can teache hym any knowledge? 23 (g) One dyeth in his full strength, beyng in all ease and prosperitie. 24 His brestes are full of mylke, and his bones runne full of marowe. 25 Another dyeth in the (h) bitternes of his soule, and neuer eateth with pleasure. 26 They shall sleepe both alyke in the earth, and the wormes shall couer them. 27 Beholde, (i) I knowe what ye thynke, yea and the subtilties that ye imagine against me. 28 For ye say, (k) Where is the princes pallace, and where is the dwelling of the vngodly? 29 Haue ye not asked them that go by the way? doubtlesse ye cannot denye theyr tokens, 30 That the wycked is kept vnto the day of destruction, and the vngodly shalbe brought foorth to the day of wrath. 31 (l) Who dare declare his way to his face? who wyll rewarde hym for that he doth?

32 Yet shall he be brought to his graue,

(a) As though he should say, My cause is before God, whom I can not escape: and not before you.

(b) That is, kepe silence.

* or, seede.

(c) Not beyng plagued with long sickenesse.

(d) They say this, not with tongue, but by the wickednes and impietie of theyr heart they seeme so to say,

(e) That is, theyr great felicitie and wealth,

(f) For the wicked dye vnwares, & neuer endure the course of theyr dayes to the ende,

(g) Meanyng the wycked: where Iob sayth, That it is not for man to reason with god why he doth thus plague the iust, and prosper the vniust: for who can teache god wisdome, graue, and dwell among the heape (of the dead.) 33 Then shall the(n) clymie valley be sweete vnto him, all men also must folowe hym, as there are innumerable gone before him. 34 How vaine then is the comfort that ye geue me, seeyng falshood remayneth in all your aunsweres?

The.xxii. Chapter.

Eliphaz affirmeth that Iob is punished for his sinnes. 6 He accuseth hym of vnmercifulnes, 13 and that he denyed gods prouidence. 21 He exhorteth hym to repentaunce.

SO(a) Eliphaz the Themanite gaue aunswere, and sayd, 2 May a man be profitable vnto God, as he that is wise may be profitable to himselfe? 3 Is it any aduauntage to the almightie that thou art ryghteous? or shall it profite hym that thou makest thy wayes perfect? 4 Is he afrayde to reproue thee, and to steppe forth with thee into iudgement? 5 Is (b) not thy wyckednesse great, and thy vngracious deedes innumerable?

6 For thou (c) hast taken the pledge from thy brother for nought, and robbed the naked of their clothyng.

7 To suche as were weery, hast thou geuen no water to drynke, and hast withdrawen bread from the hungrie.

8 But the mightie man had the earth, and he that was in auctorytie dwelt in it. 9 Thou hast sent wydowes away emptie, and the armes of the fatherlesse were broken. 10 Therefore art thou (d) compassed about with snares, and sodenly vexed with feare.

11 Shouldest thou then see no (e) darknes, shoulde not the water fludde run ouer thee? 12 Is not God on high in the heauen? behold the height of the starres howe hye they are.

13 Wylt thou therefore say, Howe (f) shoulde God knowe? can he iudge through the darke cloude? 14 The cloudes couer him that he may not see, and he walketh on the top of heauen.

15 Hast thou marked the way of the worlde, wherin wicked men haue walked? 16 Whiche were cut downe out of time, and whose foundation was as an ouerflowing ryuer. 17 Which sayde vnto God, Go from vs. & what coulde the almyghtie do for them?

18 He filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the vngodly be farre from me. 19 The ryghteous saw it and were glad, and the innocent laughed them to scorne. 20 Is our substaunce hewen downe? As for the remnaunt of them (g) the fire hath consumed. 21 Therefore (h) reconcile thee vnto God, and be at peace: so shall all thinges prosper with thee ryght well.

22 Receaue I pray thee the lawe at his mouth, and lay vp his wordes in thine heart. 24 For if thou wilt turne to the almightie, thou shalt be (i) buylte vp, and put all vnrighteousnes from thy dwellyng. 24 Thou shalt lay vp golde (as plentifull) as the dust, and the golde of Ophir as the flyntes of the ryuers. 25 Yea almightie God shalbe thy defence, and thou shalt haue plentie of syluer. 26 Then shalt thou haue thy delite in the almightie, and lift vp thy face vnto God. 27 Then shalt thou make thy prayer vnto hym, and he shall heare thee, and thou shalt * kepe thy promises. 28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and he shall establishe it vnto thee, and the (k) light shall shine in thy wayes. 29 When (the wicked) be cast downe, thou shalt say, I am lifted vp: and God shal saue the humble person. 30 The innocent shall delyuer thy Iande: (l) it shalbe preserued by the pureneſſe of thyne handes.

The.xxiii. Chapter.

2 Iob affirmeth that he both knoweth and feareth the power and sentence of the iudge, 10 and that he is not punished only for his sinnes.

IOb aunswered, and sayd, 2 Though my talke be this day in bitternesse, and my plague greater then my groanyng. 3 O that I (a) might knowe him and finde him, and that I myght come before his seate: 4 I woulde pleade my cause before him, and fil my mouth with argumentes: 5 I would knowe what aunswere he woulde geue me, and vnderstande what he would say vnto me. 6 Will he pleade against me with his great power? No, but he wyll make me the stronger.

7 There the ryghteous myght dispute with him, so shoulde I be deliuered for euer from my iudge. 8 Beholde, though I go forwarde I fynde hym not: yf I go backwarde, I can get no knowledge of hym: 9 If I go on the left side where he doth his worke, I can not attayne vnto hym: agayne, yf I go on the ryght syde, he hydeth hym selfe that I can not see hym. 10 But as for my way, he

(n) That is, he shalbe content with a homely house of clay, whiche before was not content with a kingly pallace.

(a) The whole course of this Chapter is, that man compared to god is vniust, and therfore ought to repent.

(b) They knewe not that Iob had so greatly offended: but they conieatured because god so plagued him, whiche was not for his sinnes so muche as for to proue him, & therfore all their conclusions are falſe.

(c) Thou hast ben vncharitable & vniust.

(d) That is, therefore art thou this plagued euery way.

(e) Trouble.

(f) He reproueth Iob as though he denyed gods prouidence, & that he could not see the thinges that were done in this worlde.

(g) Meaning the vngodly and euil persons.

(h) Eliphaz exhorteth Iob to repentaunce by the great goodnes that commeth thereof.

(i) God wyl restore vnto thee al thy substaunce.

* or, pay thy vowes.

(k) That is, the fauour of god.

(l) The place fareth the better, where the righteous are.

(a) Iob being admonished before to returne to god, sayth, Yf I should come to him, where is he, or where might I finde him to plead my cause before him.

knoweth me and tryeth me, that as the golde I may be tryed. 11 My (b) foote doth kepe his path, his the way haue I holden, and will not go out of it. 12 I will not forsake the commaundement of his lyppes. I haue esteemed the wordes of his mouth more then my necessarie (foode.)

13 He is one, and (c) who can turne hym? he bryngeth to passe what he desyreth. 14 He (d) performeth the thyng that is appoynted for me, and many suche thynges doth he.

15 This is the cause that I chynke at his presence, so that when I consider hym, I am afrayde of hym.

16 For God maketh my heart soft, and the almightie puttyth me in feare. 17 Because I am not cut of before the darkenesse, (neither) hath he coucred the darke fro my face.

The. xxiiii. Chapter.

1 Iob describeth the wickednesse of men, and sheweth what curse belongeth to the wycked. 12 How all thynges are gouerned by gods prouidence, 17 and the destruction of the wycked.

WHy shoulde not the (a) tymes be hydden from the almightie, and they that knowe hym, see not his dayes? 2 For some men remoue the landemarkes, robbe men of theyr cattell, and feede of the same.

3 They dryue away the asse of the fatherlesse, and take the wydowes oxe for a pledge. 4 They cause the poore to turne out of the way, so that the poore of the earth hyde them selues together. 5 Beholde, as wylde asses in the desart go they forth to theyr worke, and ryse betymes to spoyle: yea the very (b) wylderneſſe ministreth foode for them and theyr chyldren. 6 They reape the corne fielde that is not theyr owne, and gather the vineyarde of the vngodly (whiche they possesse vniustly.) 7 They cause the naked to lodge without garment, and without couering in the colde.

8 They are wet with the showres of the mountaynes, and embrace the rocke for want of a couering. 9 They pluche the fatherlesse from the brest, and take the pledge from the poore.

10 They let hym go naked without clothyng, and haue taken away the sheafe of the hungrie. 11 They that labour in theyr oyle milles, and treade theyr wine presses, suffer thirst.

12 Men of the citie crye out, the soules of the slayne also crye out, yet God regardeth not theyr complaynt.

13 Those are they that flee from the light, they knowe not his wayes, nor continue in his pathes. 14 The murtherer ryseth early, and killeth the poore and needy, and in the nyght is as a theefe. 15 The (c) eye of the adulterer wayteth for the darkenes, and sayth, There shall no eye see me: and hydeth his face. 16 In the darke they dygge through houses, whiche they marked for them selues in the day tyme: they knowe not the lyght.

17 The morning is to them euen as the shadowe of death: yf one knowe them (they are) in the terrours of the shadowe of death. 18 (The vngodly) is (d) swyft vpon the water: theyr portion shall be cursed in the earth, and he shall not beholde the way of the vineyardes. 19 As the drye grounde and heate (e) consume the snowye waters: so shal the graue the sinners. 20 The (f) pitifull man shall forget hym, he shalbe sweete to the wormes, he shalbe no more remembred, and his wickednesse shalbe broken as a tree. 21 He hath oppressed the barren that can not beare, and vnto the wydowe hath he done no good. 22 He(g) drue the mighty after hym with his power, and when he was gotten vp, no man was sure of lyfe. 23 And though they gaue him to be in safetie, yet his eyes are vpon theyr wayes. 24 They are exalted for a tyme, but (shoortly) are gone, brought to ponertie, and taken out of the way, yea and vtterly plucke of as the eares of corne. 25 Is (h) it not so? who will then reproue me as a lyer, and say that my wordes are nothyng worth?

The. xxv. Chapter.

Bildad proueth that no man is cleane nor without sinne before god.

THen answered Bildad the Suhite, and sayde, 2 (a) Power and feare (is) with hym (who) maketh peace in his highnesse. 3 Is there any number of his armies, and vpon whom shall not his lyght aryse? 4 But howe may a man compared vnto God, be iustified? or howe can he be cleane that is borne of a woman? 5 Behold the moone (shineth not, and the starres are vncleane in his

(b) That is, gods wayes, prouing therefore him selfe not to deserue such greeuous plages and afflictions for his faultes.

(c) For god is immutable, and his decrees stande fast.

(d) That is, he hath decreed thus to punishe me appoynted herevnto, although I can not attayne to the secret iudgement of god therein, and therfore I do feare his presence.

(a) The doyngs of men are such, and so variable, that it seemed to Iob that god was ignorant and careleſſe, because he punished not the wycked, nor reuenged the godly.

(b) That is, they lyue by robberie and theft.

(c) Not only the tirant, but also the adulterer escapeth free, and is not corrected.

(d) He fleeth to the water for his succour.

(e) Although such abhominable sinners liue vncorrected in this worlde, yet at the length hell shall deuour them sodenly.

(f) Because they pitied not others, they shall not be pitied at all.

(g) That is, when they haue plagued and ouerrun the poore & weake, they will oppresse the strong & mightie also.

(h) Then I lye not, and none of you can reproue me.

(a) Bildad would proue here that god plagueth the iust, yet afterward he prosphereth: and because god dealt not so with Iob, he concludeth that he was wicked.

The. xxvi. Chapter.

1 Iob sheweth that no man can helpe god, and proueth it by his wonderfull worckes.

IOb aunswered, and sayde, (a)
2 Whom hast thou helped? him that is without strength? sauest thou the arme that hath no strength?
3 Where is the counsayle that thou houldest geue hym whiche hath no wisdome? hast thou taught hym that is very wyse? 4 To whom hast thou spoken these wordes? who made the breath to come out of thy mouth?
5 (b) Are not dead thinges shapen vnder the waters, and in (places) neare vnto them? 6 Hell is naked before him, and destruction hath no couering. 7 He stretcheth out the nooyth ouer the emptie place, and hangeth the earth vppon nothing.
8 He byndeth the water in his cloudes, and the cloude is not broken vnder them. 9 (c) He holdeth backe the face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloude before it. 10 He hath compassed the waters with certaine bonndes, (d) vntill the day and night come to an ende. 11 The (e) very pillers of heauen tremble & quake at his reproofe.
12 He stilleth the sea with his power, and through his wysdome smyteth he the strength (thereof.) 13 His spirite hath garnished the heauens, and his hande hath made the crooked serpent. 14 Loe, these are part of his wayes: but howe litle a portion heare we of him? who can vnderstande the thunder of his power?

The. xxvii. Chapter.

1 The constancie and perfectnes of Iob. 13 The reward of the wicked and of the tiraunte.

AND Iob proceeded and went forth in his parable, saying, 2 (a) As God liueth whiche hath taken away my iudgement, and the almyghtie that hath vexed my mynde:
3 Whyle my breath is in me, and the wynde that God hath geuen me is in my nosthrilles, 4 My lyppes shall talke of no vanitie, and my tongue shall speake no deceipte.
5 God forbyd that I houlde graunt your cause to be tyght: as for me, vntyll myne ende come wyll (b) I neuer go fro myne innocencie. 6 My righteous dealing kepe I fast, whiche I wyll not forsake: my heart shall not reproue me (c) of my dayes.
7 Therefore (d) myne enemie shalbe founde as the vngodly, and he that taketh part agaynst me, as the vnrighteous. 8 For (e) what hope hath the hypocrite, though he be neuer so couetous, if God take away his soule? 9 Wyll (f) God heare his crye when trouble commeth vpon hym?
10 Hath he suche delite in the almyghtie, (g) that he dare alway call vpon God? 11 I wyll teache you in the * name of God, and the thyng of the almyghtie wyll I not kepe from you. 12 Beholde, all ye your selues haue seene it, why then do ye thus vanishe in vanitie? 13 (Saying,) This is the portion that the wycked haue of God, and the heritage that tyraunte shall receaue of the almightie. 14 If he haue many chyldren, (they shall perysshe) with the swoorde, and his posteritie shall haue scarcenes of breade. 15 His remnant shalbe buried in death, and his wydowes shall not weepe. 16 Though he heape vp syluer as the dust, and prepare rayment as the clay: 17 He may well prepare it, but the godly shall put it on, and the innocent shall deale out the syluer. 18 He buyldeth his house as (h) the * moth, and as a booth that the watchman maketh.
19 When the ryche man sleepeth, he shall not be gathered (to his fathers:) they opened theyr eyes, and he was gone. 20 Terrour taketh holde vpon hym as waters, and the tempest stealeth hym away in the nyght season.
21 A vehement east wynde caryeth him hence, and he departeth: a storme hurleth hym out of his place.
22 (God) shall cast vpon him (suche thynges,) and not spare him, he would fayne flee out of his hand. 23 Then shall (men) clap theyr handes at hym, and hisse hym out of his place.

The. xxviii. Chapter.

1 Iob sheweth that the wysdome of god is vnsearchable.

THere is a place where syluer is brought out of, and where golde is tryed, 2 Where yron is dygged out of the grounde, and stones reioiced into brasse. 3 (God) bryngeth the

(a) Here Iob reprehendeth Bildad, for that he speaketh not inough to gods praise, who needeth not mans wordes, neither comforteth him being voyde of comfort,
(b) That is, such thinges are in the waters without lyfe, as metales & such lyke, wherin is expressed gods great power.
(c) His throne of maiestie, which are the heauens, he coureth from vs,
(d) That is, so long as the worlde endureth,
(e) Not that heauen hath pyllers, but by the pyllers he vnderstandeth all things vnder heauen.

(a) This was the order of the Hebrues to sweare.

(b) That is, I wil not confesse that god plagues me for myne offence.
(c) Of my former lyfe past.
(d) That is, because they reprehended me vnworthily, they rather might be accompted wicked, & the plague shal light on them and be rid from me.
(e) What auayleth it a man yf he gayne all the world, & lose his owne soule?
(f) We haue no greater gift of god, then the spirite of prayer, whereby yf we pray, god doth heare vs.
(g) The hypocrite neither trusteth nor prayeth to god: yea though he pray, god will not heare him.

(a) Whiche a man can not wade through.
(b) As the fruitfull feeldes tilled and plowed bringeth forth corne: so it beyng deepely dygged, ther are found stones, out of the which fire is stroken.
(c) The Saphirs do shine with golden pointes, so that here by Saphirs is ment cloddes of golde. All these thinges are founde: but gods wisdome who can reach?
(d) Here he sheweth gods power: the earth may be digged, hilles ouerthrowē, a fountaine made among stones, riuers turned from their course: but gods wisdome is not to be found.
(e) Gods wisdome is partly seene in these wordly thinges, but his heauenly wisdome and secrete iudgment is hyd & vnknowē to all men.

the darknes to an end, & searcheth out all perfection, the stones (hidden) in darknesse, and in the deepe shadowe.
4 The fluddes breake out agaynst the inhabitauntes, and the (waters) (a) forgotten of the foote, whiche were higher then a man, are gone away. 5 (b) Out of the same earth commeth bread, and vnder it as it were fire is turned vp. 6 The (c) stones of it are a place of Saphires, and the dust of it is golde. 7 There is a way that the birdes know not, that no vultures eye hath seene: 8 Wherin the lions whelpes walke not, and where no lion commeth. 9 He (d) putteth his hand vpon the stony rockes, and ouerthroweth the mountaynes by the rootes.
10 Riuers flow out of the rockes, and loke what is pleasaunt, his eye seeth it. 11 He byndeth the fluddes that they do not ouerflowe: and the thing that is hyd bryngeth he to light.
12 Where then is wysdome founde? and (e) where is the place of vnderstanding? 13 No man can tell howe (f) worthy a thing it is, neither is it founde in the lande of the lyuing.
14 The deepe sayth, It is not in me: the sea sayth, It is not with me.
15 It can not be gotten for golde, neither may the price of it be bought with any siluer. 16 No golde of Ophir, no precious Onyx stones, no Saphires may be valued with it.
17 No, neither golde nor Diamonde shalbe equall vnto it, the exchaminge of it shall not be for the place of fyne golde. 18 No mention shalbe made of Coral nor of the Gabis: for wysdome is more precious then pearles.
19 The Topas of Ethiopia shall not be equall vnto it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold. 20 Whence then commeth wisdome? and where is the place of vnderstandyng? 21 It is hid from the eyes of all men lyuyng, and hyd from the fowles of the * ayre.
22 Destruction and death say, We haue hearde the fame thereof with our eares. 23 God seeth the way therof, and knoweth the place thereof.
24 For he beholdeth the endes of the world, and loketh vpon all that is vnder heauen. 25 When he wayed the windes and measured the waters:
26 When he made a decree for the rayne, and a way for the lyghtnynges of the thunder: 27 Then dyd he see it, then declared he it, prepared it, and knewe it. 28 And vnto man he sayd,

(g) To feare the Lord is wisdome, and to forsake euyll is vnderstandyng.

The. xxix. Chapter.

1 Iob wisheth the prosperitie of his time past. 7 He setteth forth auctoritie, 12 iustice, and equitie.

SO Iob proceeded and went forth in his parable, saying. 2 O that I were as I was in the monethes past, and in the dayes when God preserued me: 3 When his (a) light shyned vpon my head, when I went after the same lyght and shynyng, euen throwe the darknesse: 4 As it stoode with me when I was young, when God prospered my house: 5 When the almightie was yet with me, when my children stoode about me:
6 When I washed my (b) steppes with butter, and when the stonye rockes gaue me riuers of oyle: 7 When I went out to the gate, euen to the iudgment seate, and when I prepared my seate in the streete: 8 The (c) young men sawe me, and hyd them selues, and the (d) aged arose, and stoode vp: 9 The (e) princes left of their talking, and layed their hande to their mouth: 10 The mightie kept still their voyce, and their tongue cleaued to the roofe of their mouth.
11 When the eare hearde me, it blessed me: & when the eye saw me, it gaue witnes to me: 12 For I delyuered the poore when he cryed, and the fatherlesse, and hym that had none to helpe him. 13 The blessing of him that was redy to perishe came vppon me, and I caused the widowes heart to reioyce. 14 I put vpon me righteousnes, which couered me as a garment, & equitie was my crowne. 15 I was an eye to the blynde, and a foote to the lame. 16 I was a father to the poore: and when I knewe not the cause, I sought it out diligently. 17 I brake the iawes of the vnrighteous man, and pluckt the spoyle out of his teeth.
18 Then I sayde, I shall dye in my nest: and I shall multiplie my dayes as the sande. 19 For my roote was spread out by the waters side: and the deaw lay vpon my * cozne. 20 Mine honour encreased more and more, and my bowe * was euer the stronger in my hande. 21 Vnto me men gaue eare, me they regarded, and kept silence at my counsayle.
22 After my wordes they answered not, and my talke dropped vpon them.

25 I cryed out their way, I sate as chefe, and dwelt as a kyng with his armie about him: and when they were in heauinesse, I was their comforter.

¶ The .xxx. Chapter.

1 Iob complayneth that he is contemned of the vylest. 11. 21 because of his aduersitie and affliction. 23 Death is the house of all flesshe.

BVt (a)nowe they that are younger then I haue me in derision: whose fathers I would haue thought scorne to haue set with the dogges of my cattell. 2 Whereto might the strength of (b) their handes profite me? for the tyme was but lost among them. 3 For very (c) miserie and hunger they fled into the wyldernesse, a darke place, horrible and waste.

4 Plucking vp " nettles among the bushes, and the iuniper rootes for their meate. 5 And when they were driuen foorth, men cryed after them as it had ben after a theefe. 6 Their (d) dwelling was in the cliffes of brookes, yea in the caues and dennes of the earth. 7 Among the bushes went they about crying, and vnder the thornes they gathered them selues together. 8 They were the children of fooles and byllaynes, whiche are the vilest in the earth. 9 Nowe am I their song, and am become their iesting stocke. 10 They abhorre me, and flee farre from me, and stayne my face with spittell. 11 Because God hath loosed my cord, and humbled me, they haue loosed the bridle before me. 12 Vpon my right hande ryse the young men agaynst me, they haue hurt my feete, treadyng vpon me as vpon the wayes whiche they woulde destroy. 13 My (f)pathes haue they cleane marred, it was so easie for them to do me harme, that they needed no man to helpe them. 14 They fell vpon me, as it had ben the breakyng in (of waters) and came in by heapes to destroy me. 15 Feare is turned vpon me, and they pursue my soule as the winde, and my health passeth away as (g) a cloude. 16 Therefore is my soule nowe powred out vppon me, and the dayes of my trouble haue taken hold vpon me. 17 My bones are pearsed through in the night season, and my sinewes take no rest.

18 For the vehemencie of sorowe is my garment chaunged, which compasseth me about as the (h) collor of my coate. 19 He hath cast me into the myre, and I am become lyke asshes and dust. 20 When (i) I crie vnto thee, thou doest not heare me: and though I stande before thee, yet thou regardest me not. 21 Thou art become myne enemie, and with thy violent hande thou takest part agaynst me. 22 (In tymes past) thou dyddest (k) set me vp on hye, to be carried as it were aboue the wynde, (but nowe) hast thou geuen me a very sore fall.

23 Sure I am that thou wylt bryng me vnto death, euen to the lodging that is due vnto all men liuyng.

24 Notwithstandyng, thou wylt not stretch out thyne hande (agaynst him that is) in the graue, though men crie in his destruction. 25 Dyd not I weepe with him that was in trouble? Had not my soule compassion vpon the poore? 26 Yet where as I loked for good, euyll came vnto me: and (l) where I wayted for lyght, there came darknesse. 27 My bowels seethe in me without rest, for the dayes of my trouble are come vppon me. 28 I went mournyng without heate, I stoode vp in the congregation, and cryed. 29 I am a brother of dragons, and a felowe of estriches.

30 My skinne vpon me is (turned) to blacke, and my bones are brent with heate. 31 My harpe is turned to mourning, and my instrumentes of musicke into the voyce of them that wepe.

7 For I thought thus within my selfe, * It becommeth olde men to speade, and the * aged to teache wysdome. 8 Euery man no doubt hath a minde, but it is the inspiration of the almightie that geueth vnderstandyng. 9 Great men are not alway wyse, neither doth euery aged man vnderstande * the thing that is lawfull: 10 Therfore I say, Heare me, and I wyl shewe you also myne vnderstandyng. 11 For when I had wayted till ye made an ende of your talkyng and heard your wysdome, (b) what argumentes ye made in your communication, 12 Yea when I had diligently pondred what ye saide, I founde not one of you that made any good argument agaynst Iob, that could aunswere his wordes. 13 Lest ye should say, We haue (c) founde one wysdome, God shall cast him downe, and no man. 14 He hath not spoken vnto me, and I wyl not aunswere him as ye haue done. 15 For they were so abashed, that they coulde not make aunswere, nor speake one word.

The .xxxiii. Chapter.

5 Elihu accuseth Iob of ignorance. 14 He sheweth that God hath diuers meanes to instruct man, and to drawe him from sinne.

WHerefore heare my wordes O Iob, and hearken vnto all that I wyll say: 2 Beholde I haue nowe opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my throte. 3 My heart doth order my wordes aryght, and my lippes talke of pure wysdome. 4 The (a) spirite of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almightie hath geuen me lyfe. 5 If thou canst gene me aunswere, prepare thy selfe and stande before me.
6 Beholde (b) before God I am euen as thou: for I am fashioned and made euen of the same molde. 7 Beholde my terrour shall not feare thee, neither shall my hande be heauy vppon thee. 8 (c) Nowe hast thou spoken in myne eares, and I haue hearde the voyce of thy wordes: 9 I am cleane without any fault, I am innocent, and there is no wickednesse in me.
10 But lo, he hath pyked a quarell agaynst me, and taketh me for his enemie. 11 He hath put my feete in the stockes, and looketh narowly vnto all my pathes. 12 Behold in this hast thou not done right, I wyll make aunswere vnto thee, that God is greater then man. 13 And why doest thou then striue agaynst him? for he shall not gene thee accomptes of all his wordes. 14 For God speaketh (d) once or twyse (and yet man) vnderstandeth it not. 15 In dreames and visions of the nyght, when slumbring commeth vpon men that they fall a sleepe in their beds, 16 He openeth the eares of men and correcteth them: 17 That he may withdrawe man from his purposes, and deliuer him from (e) pride. 18 And kepe his soule from the graue, & his lyfe from the swoorde.
19 He chasteneth him with sickneſſe vpon his bed, he layeth sore punishement vpon his bones: 20 So that his (f) lyfe may away with no bread, and his soule abhorreth to eate any dayntie meate: 21 In so much that his flesche is cleane consumed away, and his bones are broken that they can not be seene. 22 His soule draweth vnto the graue, and his lyfe to * death. 23 Nowe yf there be a messenger, one among a thousande sent for to speake vnto man, and to shewe him the ryght way: 24 Then the Lorde is mercifull vnto him, and sayth, He shalbe deliuered that he fall not downe to the graue: for I am sufficiently recontiled. 25 Then shall his flesche be as freshe as a childes, and shall returne as in the dayes of his youth. 26 He shall pray vnto God, and he wyll be fauourable vnto him, and he shal see his face with ioy, for he wil render vnto man his righteousnes. 27 A respect hath he vnto men, let man then say, I haue offended, I dyd vnrighteously, and it hath done me no good:

(b) Iob before desired to pleade his cause before god without feare, therefore layth Elihu, I am here in gods steede, who thou needest not to feare: for I am made of the matter that thou art.
(c) I haue heard the boast of thy righeous lyfe, that thou art innocent and iust, therfore wyll I not proue thee wicked of thy former lyfe, but by these thy wordes.
(d) God speaketh two maner of wayes vnto men, either by sleepe, or by his rod of sickneſſe and other plagues.
(e) For to beate downe the pride of man God sendeth his plagues.
(f) That is, sickneſſe that decayeth lyfe can take no sustenaunce.
* Or, to the buriers.

28 He hath deliuered my ſoule from deſtruction, and (m) my lyfe ſhall ſee the lyght. 29 Lo all theſe worketh God alway with man: 30 That he bryng backe his ſoule from the graue to the lyght, euen the lyght of the lyuyng. 31 Marke well O Job, and heare me: holde thee ſtill, and I wyll ſpeake. 32 But yf thou haſt any thing to ſay, then (n) aunſwere me, and ſpeake. for I deſire to iuſtifie thee.

34 If thou haſt nothing, then heare me, and holde thy tongue, and I ſhall teache thee wyſdome.

The .xxxiiii. Chapter.

5 Elihu chargeth Iob that he calleth him ſelfe righteous, 12 He ſheweth that god is iuſt in iudgementes,

ELihu aunſwered, and ſaide,
2 Heare my wordes O ye (a) wyſe men, hearken vnto me ye that haue vnderſtandyng: 3 For the eare diſcerneth wordes, and the mouth taſteth meates. 4 As for (b) iudgement let vs ſeeke it out among our ſelues, that we may knowe what is good. 5 For Job hath ſaide, I am righteous, and God hath (c) taken away my iudgement. 6 In my ryght I muſt be a lyer: my wounde is incurable without my fault. 7 Where is there ſuch a one as Job, that (d) drynketh vp ſcornefulneſſe lyke water?

8 Whiche goeth in the companie of wicked doers, and walketh with vngodly men? 9 For he hath ſayde, It profiteth a man nothyng that he ſhuld walke with God. 10 Therefore hearken vnto me ye that haue vnderſtandyng: farre be it from God that he ſhoulde meddle with wickedneſſe, and farre be it from the Almightie that he ſhould meddle with vnrighteous dealing. 11 For he ſhall rewarde man (after) his workes, and cauſe euery man to finde accordyng to his wayes.

12 Sure it is that God wyll not do wickedly, neither wyl the Almightie peruerte iudgement. 13 Who ruleth the earth but he? or who hath placed the whole world? 14 If he ſet his heart vpon (man) and gather vnto him ſelfe his ſpirite and his breath.

15 All fleſhe ſhall come to naught at once, and man ſhall turne agayne vnto duſt. 16 If thou nowe haue vnderſtandyng, heare this, and hearken to the voyce of my wordes: 17 May he be a (e) ruler that loueth not right? wylt thou iudge him wicked that is moſt iuſt? 18 Wylt thou ſay vnto a kyng, (thou art) wicked? or to princes, (ye are) vngodly? 19 God hath no reſpect vnto the perſons of the princes, and regarderh not the riche more then the poore: for they be all the worke of his handes. 20 In the (f) twinckelyng of an eye ſhall they dye, and the people ſhall be troubled at midnyght, and paſſe away, and the mightie ſhalbe taken away without hande. 21 For his eyes (loke) vpon the wayes of man, and he ſeeth al his goinges. 22 There is no darkneſſe, nor ſhadowe of death that can hyde the wicked doers from him. 23 For God wyl not lay vpon man more then he hath ſinned, that he ſhould entre into iudgement with him. 24 He that deſtroy the mightie without ſeeking, and ſhall ſet other in their (g) ſteede.

25 Therefore ſhall he declare their works: he ſhal (h) turne the night, and they ſhalbe deſtroyed. 26 The vngodly doth he punithe (i) openly: 27 Becauſe they turned backe from him, and would not conſider all his wayes:

28 Inſomuch that they haue cauſed the voyce of the (k) poore to come vnto him, and nowe he heareth the complaint of ſuch as are in trouble.

29 When he geueth quietneſſe, who can make trouble? and when he hydeth his face, who can beholde him? whether it be vpon nations, or vpon one man onlye: 30 Becauſe the hypocrite doth raigne, and becauſe the people are ſnared. 31 Surely of God only it can be ſaide, I haue pardoned, I wyll not deſtroy. 32 If I haue gone amiſſe, enfourme thou me: yf I haue done wrong, I wyll leaue of. 33 Wyl he perfourme the thing thy wrongo thee? for thou haſt reproued his (iudgement) thyne is the choyſe, and not myne: but ſpeake on what thou knoweſt.

34 Let men of vnderſtandyng tell me, and let a wyſe man hearken vnto me.

35 Job hath not ſpoken of knowledge, neither were his wordes accordyng to wyſdome. 36 O (l) father, let Job be well tryed, because he hath aunſwered for wicked men:

37 Yea aboue his ſinne he doth wickedly, triumpheth among vs, and multiplieth his wordes agaynſt God.

The.xxxv. Chapter.

6 Neither doth godlineſſe profite, or vngodlyneſſe hurt god, but man. 18 The wicked crie vnto god, & are not heard.

ELihu (a) ſpake moreouer & ſaide,
2 Thinkeſt thou it ryght that thou ſayeſt, I am more righteous then God? 3 For thou ſayeſt, What aduauntage wyll it be vnto thee, and what profite ſhall I haue (yf I be cleanſed) from my ſinne. 4 I wyll anſwere thee a worde, and thy (b) companions with thee. 5 Loke vnto the heauen and beholde it, conſider the (c) cloudes which are hyer then thou.

6 If thou haſt (d) ſinned, what haſt thou done againſt him? yf thyne offences be many, what haſt thou done vnto him? 7 If thou be (e) righteous, what geueſt thou him? or what wyll he receaue of thyne hande?

8 Thy wickednesse (may hurt) a man as thou art, and thy righteouſneſſe (may profite) the ſonne of man.

9 They whiche are oppreſſed crie out vpon the multitude, yea they crye out for the power of the mightie: 10 But none ſayth, Where is God that made me? and that geueth " vs occaſion to prayſe him in the night?

13 For God wyll not heare vanitie, neither wyl the Almightie regarde it. 14 Although thou ſayeſt (to God) thou wylt not regarde it: yet iudgement is before him, truſt thou in him.

15 But nowe becauſe his anger hath not viſited, neither called men to accompt with great extremitie:

16 Therefore doth Iob open his mouth in vayne, and he maketh many wordes without knowledge.

The .xxxvi. Chapter.

1 Elihu ſheweth the power of god, 6 and his iuſtice, 9 and wherfore he puniſheth, 13 The propertie of the wicked.

ELihu alſo proceeded, and ſayde,
2 Holde thee ſtill a litle, and I ſhall ſhewe thee what I haue yet to ſpeake on gods behalfe. 3 I wyll open vnto thee yet farre higher knowledge, and wyll aſcribe righteouſneſſe vnto my maker. 4 And truely my wordes ſhall not be vayne, ſeeing he is with thee that is (a) perfect in knowledge. 5 Beholde the great God caſteth away no man, for he him ſelfe is (b) mightie in power and wyſdome. 6 As for the vngodly he ſhal not preſerue him, but ſhall helpe the poore to their right. 7 He ſhal not turne his eyes away from the righteous, but as (c) kinges ſhall they be in their throne, he ſhall eſtabliſhe them for euer, and they ſhalbe exalted.

8 But yf they be layde in chaynes, or bounde with the bondes of trouble,

9 Then wyll he (d) ſhewe them their worke, and their ſinnes which they haue committed ſtoutly. 10 He openeth their eare alſo to diſcipline, and warneth them to leaue of from their wickednesse. 11 If they nowe wyll take heede and ſerue him, they ſhall weare out their dayes in proſperitie, and their yeres in pleaſure. 12 But yf they wyll not hearken, they ſhall go through the ſworde, and periſhe or euer they be aware. 13 As for (e) hypocrites in heart, they ſhall heape vp wrath (for them ſelues) for they call not vpon him, though they be his priſoners. 14 Thus ſhall their ſoule periſhe in " fooliſhneſſe, and their lyfe among the fornicators. 15 The poore ſhall he deliuer out of his affliction, and " ſounde them in the care when they be in trouble. 16 Euen ſo woulde he take thee out of the ſtraite place into a brode place in the which there is no ſtraightnes: yea and make thy table quiet replenished with fatneſſe. 17 Neuerthelesſe, (f) thou haſt commended the iudgement of the vngodlie, and euen ſuch a iudgement and ſentence ſhalt thou ſuffer.

20 Spende not the night in careful thoughtes, how he deſtroyeth the people out of their place. 21 Beware that thou turne not aſide to wickednesse, which hitherto thou haſt choſen more then affliction. 22 Beholde God is of a mightie hie power: where is there ſuch a teacher as he? 23 Who wyll reproue him of his way? see it, yea men do beholde it a farre of.

26 Beholde so great is God that he passeth our knowledge, (h) neither can the number of his yeres be searched out. 27 He turneth the water to smal droppes, he dryueth his cloudes together to rayne. 28 Whiche rayne the cloudes do droppe, and let fall aboundantly vpon men. 29 Who can consider the (i) spreadinges out of his cloudes, the coueringes of his tabernacle? 30 Beholde he doth stretche his lyght vpon it, and couereth the bottome of the sea. 31 For by these " gouerneth he his people, and geueth them aboundaunce of meate.

32 With the cloudes he hydeth the lyght, and at his commaundement it breaketh out: 33 which dashing vpon the next cloudes, shewe tokens of wrath.

The .xxxvii. Chapter.

1 Elihu proueth that the vnsearcheable wysdome of God is manifest by his workes, 4 as by the thunders, 6 the snowe, 9 the whirle vvinde, 11 and the rayne.

AT (a) this also my hearte is astonied, and moued out of his place.

2 Heare (b) then the sounde of his voyce, and the noyse that goeth out of his mouth. 3 He directeth it vnder the whole heauen, and his light vnto the endes of the worlde. 4 A roring voyce foloweth it: for his glorious maiestie geueth a thũder clappe, and he wyl not stay when his voyce is hearde. 5 God thundreth marueylously with his voyce, great thinges doth he which we can not cõprehend.

6 He commaundeth the snowe, & it falleth vppon earth: he geueth the rayne a charge, and the showres haue their strength and fall downe.

7 With the force of (the rayne) he shutteth men vp, that all men may knowe his (c) workes. 8 The beastes (d) creepe into their dennes, and remayne in their places. 9 Out of the south commeth the tempest, and colde out from the north winde. 10 At the (e) breath of God the hoare frost is geuen, and the brode waters are frosen. 11 He maketh the cloudes to labour in geuing moystneſſe, and agayne with his lyght he dryueth away the cloude. 12 He turneth the heauens about by his gouernment, that they may do whatsoeuer he cõmandeth them vpon the whole worlde.

13 He causeth rayne to come, whether it be for punishment, or for his lande, or to do good to them that seeke him.

14 Hearken vnto this O Iob, stande still, and consider the wonderous workes of god. 15 Dydst thou know when God disposed them? and caused the (f) light of his cloudes to shine?

16 Hast thou knowen the varietie of the cloudes, and the wonderous workes of him whiche is perfect in knowledge? 17 And how thy clothes are warme, when the lande is still through the south winde?

18 Hast thou helped him to spreade out the heauens which are strong and bright as a (g) molten glasse? 19 Teache vs what we shall say vnto him: for we are vnmeete to frame our talke because of (h) darkenesse.

20 Shall it be tolde him what I say? Shall man speake when he shall be destroyed? 21 For men see not the light that shineth in the cloudes: but the winde passeth and cleanseth them.

22 The "faire weather commeth out of the north, the prayse (thereof) is to God who is terrible. 23 It is the Almightie, we can not finde him out: he is excellent in power & iudgement, and aboundaunt in iustice: he afflicteth not. 24 Let men therfore (i) feare him: for there shall no man see him that is wyse in his owne conceite.

The .xxxviii. Chapter.

God speaketh to Iob, and declareth the ignorance of man in the consideration of his creatures.

THen aunswered the Lorde vnto Iob out of the (a) whirle winde, and sayde, 2 What is he that (b) darkeneth his counsell by wordes without knowledge? 3 Girde vp thy (c) loynes lyke a man: for I wyl question with thee, geue me an aunswere. 4 Where (d) wast thou when I layd the foundations of the earth? tell me, yf thou hast vnderstandyng. 5 Who hath measured it, knowest thou? or who hath spread the lyne vpon it?

6 Whereupon are the foundations set? or who layde the corner stone thereof? 7 (Where wast thou) when the morynyng starres prayſed me together, and all the chyldren of god reioyced triumphantly? 8 Who shut vp the sea with doores, when it brake foorth as out of the wombe? 9 Whē I made the cloudes a couering for it, and darknes as his swadling bande,

24 By what way is the light parted? and into what lande breaketh the east wynde? 25 Who diuideth the waters into diuers chanels? or the way for the lightning & thunder, 26 To cause it to rayne on the earth where no man is, and in the wildernesse where none inhabiteth? 27 To satisfie the desolate and waste grounde, and to cause the bud of the heerbe to spring foorth?

28 Who is the (h) father of the raine? or who hath begotten the dropps of the deawe? 29 Out of whose woombe came the yce? Who hath gendred the * coldnesse of the ayre? 30 That the waters are * (i) hid as with a stone, and lye congealed aboue the deepe.

31 Canst thou binde the seuen starres together? or loose the bandes of Orion? 32 Canst thou bryng foorth the mornyng starre in his tyme? canst thou also guide * the euenyng starre with his sonnes? 33 Knowest thou the course of heauen, that thou mayest set vp the ordinaunce therof vpon the earth? 34 Canst thou lyft vp thy voyce to the cloudes, that they may powre downe a great rayne vppon thee? 35 Canst thou sende the lyghtninges, that they may go their way, saying vnto thee, Lo heare are we?

36 Who hath put wisdome in the reynes? or who hath geuen the heart vnderstanding? 37 Who numbreth the cloudes in wisdome? who stylleth the behement * waters of the heauē? 38 (k) To cause the earth to growe into hardnesse, and the clots to cleaue fast together? 39 (l) Wylt thou hunt the pray for the lion? or fyll the appetite of the lions whelpes, 40 When they couche in their places, and tarye in the couert to lye in wayte? 41 Who prouideth meate for the rauen, when his young ones crye vnto God, and flee about for lacke of meate?

¶ The.xxxix. Chapter.

God proceedeth in declaryng the ignorraunce of Iob in the consideration of his marueylous workes in beastes and foules.

KNowest thou the tyme when the wylde goates bryng foorth their young among the rockes? or (a) layest thou wayte when the hyndes vse to calue? 2 Canst thou number the monethes that they go with young? or knowest thou the tyme when they bryng foorth? 3 They lye downe, they calue their young ones, & they are delyuered of their trauayle and payne: 4 Yet their young ones growe vp, and waxe fat through good feedyng with corne: they go foorth, and returne not agayne vnto them.

5 Who letteth the wylde asse to go free? or who looseth the bondes of the wylde asse? 6 Euen I which haue geuen the wildernesse to be their house, and the (b) barrayne lande to be their dwellyng. 7 He scorneth the multitude of the citie, neither regardeth the crying of the driuer: 8 But seeketh his pasture about the mountaynes, and foloweth the greene grasse. 9 Wyll the (c) Vnicorne do thee seruice, or abyde styll by thy crib? 10 Canst thou bynde the yoke about the vnicorne in the forowe, to make him plowe after thee in the valleys? 11 Mayest thou trust him because he is strong, or commit thy labour vnto him? 12 Mayest thou beleue him that he wyll bryng home thy * corne, or carry it vnto thy barne?

* Or, bottome. (g) No man can go in the place where the snowe is gendred: much lesse may Iob clyme vp to heauen to know gods secretes.

* Or, hid. (h) Meanyng God is the creator and maker of all thinges.

* Or, frost of the heauen.

* Some rede harde. (i) The yce couereth it, as though it were paued with stone.

* Or, bottels. (k) For so groweth the earth by the want of raine. (l) After he had shewed his marueiles aboue, he cōmeth to the earthly creatures, as though god woulde say, The thinges on the clouds are vnknowē vnto thee, yea euen thinges on earth thou durst not do: how much lesse then durst thou to reache to gods secrete wisdome. (a) He cheefly reciteth these beasts, for they bryng foorth their younglinges with greatest payne.

(d) The Eſtriche when ſhe hath hatched her egges, hideth them in the ſande, and by the heate of the ſunne the young are brought foorth, but ſhe leaueth the egges as careleſſe, forgettyng the place where ſhe put thē, and ſo her labour is vayne.

(e) To be naturall toward her owne.

(f) Thus in all creatures the glorie of godsmaieſtie is declared.

" Or, ha ha.

¶ The xl. Chapter.

God declareth the weakneſſe of Iob by comparing the ſame to his great worke and to the ſtrength of Behemoth.

MOreouer the Lorde ſpake vnto Iob, and ſayde, 2 Shall he whom the Almightie wyll chaſten, contende with him? Shoulde not he which diſputeth with God, geue him an aunſwere? 3 Then Iob (a) aunſwered the Lorde, ſaying, 4 Beholde, I am vyle, what ſhall I aunſwere thee, (therefore) I wyll laye my hande vpon my mouth. 5 Once haue I ſpoken, but I wyll ſay no more: yea twiſe, but I wyll proceede no further. 6 Then aunſwered the Lorde vnto Iob out of the whirle wynde, and ſayde, 7 Girde vp thy loynes nowe lyke a man: I wyll demaunde of thee, and make thou aunſwere. 8 Wylt thou (b) diſanul my iudgement? or wylt thou condempne me, that thou mayeſt be ryghteous? 9 Is thy " power thē like the power of God? maketh thy voyce a ſounde as his doth? 10 Deck thy ſelfe nowe with excellencie & maieſtie, and araye thy ſelfe with (c) beautie and glorie. 11 Caſt abrode the indignation of thy wrath, and beholde euery one that is proude, and abaſe him: 12 Loke on euery one that is arrogant, and bryng him lowe, and deſtroy the wicked in their place: 13 Hyde them in the duſt together, and couer their faces in (d) ſecrete: 14 Then wyll I confeſſe vnto thee alſo that (e) thyne owne ryght hande ſhall ſaue thee. 15 Beholde (the beaſt) (f) Behemoth, whom I made with thee, which eateth haye as an ore: 16 Lo howe his ſtrength is in his loynes, and what power he hath in the nauyll of his belly. 17 When he wyll he ſpreadeth out his tayle lyke a Cedar tree, the ſynnowes of his ſtones are knit together. 18 His bones are ſtrong as braſſe, yea his bones are lyke ſtaues of iron. 19 He is the begynnyng of the wayes of God, he that made him wyll make his (g) ſwoorde to approche vnto him. 20 Surely the mountaynes bring him foorth graſſe, where all the beaſtes of the feelde take their paſtime. 21 He reſteth him in the ſhade, in the couert of the reede and fennes. 22 The trees couer him with their ſhadowe, and the willowes of the brooke compaſſe him about. 23 Beholde he dryncketh by whole ryuers and feareth not, he thynketh that he can drawe vp Iordane into his mouth. 24 He is (h) taken with his eyes, and the (hunter) thruſteth him through the noſe.

(a) Here Iob confeſſeth his offence, and durſt not ſpeake: for when god doth reprehend, who can aunſwere?

" Or, arme.

(b) Meanyng that for a man to accompt himſelfe iuſt, is to accuſe god for vniuſt.

(c) Which no man is able to do, for theſe thinges are only pertaynyng to god.

(d) That is, cauſe them to dye, yf it lye in thy power.

(e) Which god can only do, and therfore truſtyng in thine owa ſtrēgth, thou compareſt with god.

(f) The Hebrues ſay, Behemoth ſignifieth an Eliphant, ſo called for his hugeneſſe, by the which may be vnderſtand the deuyll.

(g) This beaſt is one of the cheefeſt workes of god among the beaſtes, vvhom: though no man dare come neare, yet god can kyll him.

(h) Some write that when men purpoſe to take the Eliphant, they make a holowe place in the grounde where he vſeth to haunt, & couereth the ſame with hay or preuender, which ſo ſoone as the Eliphant eſpieth, he runneth haſtyly vnto it, and falleth into the pyt, and then the hunter thruſteth him through the noſe becauſe in the tendreſt part of him.

¶ The.xli. Chapter.

God setteth foorth the malice, the members, the strength, and the pride of Leuiathan.

CAnst thou drawe out (a) Leuiathan with an hooke, or bynde his tongue with a corde?
2 Canst thou put a hooke in the nose of him, or bore his tawe throughe with a naule? 3 Wyll he make manye satte wordes with thee, or flatter thee? 4 Wyll he make a couenaunt with thee? or wylt thou take him for a seruaunt for euer? 5 Wilt thou take thy passtime with him as with a bird, wylt thou binde him for thy maydes?
6 That thy companions may make a banket of him: or shall he be parted among the marchaunters? 7 Canst thou fyll the basket with his skinne? or the fishe panier with his heade?
8 Laye thyne hande vpon him, (b) remembre the battaple, and do no more.
9 Beholde his hope is in vayne: for shall not (one) perishe euen at the sight of him? 10 No (c) man is so fierce that dare stirre him vp: Who is able to stande before me? 11 Or who hath geuen me any thyng afore hande, that I may rewarde him agayne? All thynges vnder heauen are myne.
12 I wyll not kepe secrete his great strength, his power, nor his comely proportion. 13 Who can discouer the (d) face of his garment? or who shall come to him with a double bridle?
14 Who (e) shall open the doores of his face? for he hath horrible teeth rounde about. 15 His scales are as it were strong shyeldes, so fastened together as if they were sealed: 16 One is so ioyned to another, that no ayre can come in: 17 One hangeth so vpon another, and sticketh so together, that they can not be sundred. 18 His (f) neesinges make a glistering like light, & his eyes lyke the * morning shine.
19 Out of his mouth go torches, and sparkes of fire leape out. 20 And out of his nostrels there goeth a smoke, lyke as out of an hot seething pot or caldron. 21 His breath maketh the coles burne, and the flame goeth out of his mouth. 22 In his necke there remayneth strength, and nothyng is to labourous for him. 23 The members of his flesshe are ioyned, and cleane fast together, and can not be moued. 24 His heart is as harde as a stone, and as fast as * the stythe that the smyth smyteth vpon.
25 When he moueth him selfe, the mightie are afrayde, and feare troubleth them.
26 If any man drawe out a sworde at him, he wyll not moue, neither for the speare, taselyn, nor brestplate.
27 He setteth as much by iron as by a strawe, and as much by brasse as by a rotten sticke. 28 He starreth not away from the arrowe: and as for sling stones they are as stubble vnto him.
29 He counteth the dartes as straw, he laugheth him to scorne that shaketh the speare. 30 (g) Sharpe stones are vnder him, and he lyeth vpon sharpe thinges as vpon the soft myre.
31 He maketh the (h) deepe to boyle lyke a pot, and stirreth the sea together lyke an oyntment. 32 He maketh the (i) path to shine after him, and he maketh the deepe to seeme all hoarie. 33 Vpon earth there is no power lyke vnto his: for he is so made that he feareth not. 34 He beholdeth all the hye thynges, (k) he is a king ouer all the children of pride.

(a) Leuiathan is a Whale.

(b) For it is daungerous to truste Satã in any thing, yea it is hurtful to touche him: for Leuiathan representeth Satan.

(c) If the creature can not be resisted, who can compare with the creator?

(d) That is, who dare pul of his skinne.

(e) That is, who dare loke in his mouth.

(f) That is, he spoueth out flames of fire out of his mouth.

* or, eye lidder of the morning.

* Or. the neather mylstone.

(g) For the hardnes of his skinne is such, that he lyeth vpon it without payne, as in the soft mire.

(h) He spoueth out water in such sort, that the seas seeme to boyle.

(i) With a white froth vpon the water.

(k) He despiseth all other beastes and monsters, and is the proudest of all others.

¶ The.xlii. Chapter.

6 The repentaunce of Iob. 9 He prayeth for his freendes, 12 and his goodes are restored double vnto him.

THen Iob aunswered the Lorde, and sayd, 2 (a) I knowe that thou hast power ouer all thinges, and that there is no thought hyd vnto thee. 3 For who can kepe his owne counsayle so secrete but it shalbe knowen? therfore haue I spoken that I vnderstoode not, euen the thinges that are to wonderfull for me, & passe mine vnderstandyng. 4 O (b) hearken thou vnto me also, and let me speake: I aunswere vnto the thyng that I wyll aske thee. 5 I haue heard of thee by the hearyng of the eare, but nowe myne eye (c) seeth thee. 6 Wherfore I geue mine owne selfe the blame, and take repentaunce in the dust and asshes.
7 Nowe when the Lorde had spoken these wordes vnto Iob, the Lorde sayde to Eliphaz the Themanite, I am displeased with thee, and thy two freendes: for ye haue not spoke of me the (d) thyng that is right, like as my seruaunt Iob hath done.
8 Therefore take you nowe seuen oxen, and seuen rammes, and go to my seruaunt Iob, and offer vp for your selues a whole burnt offeryng, and my seruaunt Iob shall pray for you: him wyll I accept, and not deale with you after your foolishnesse, in that ye haue not spoken of me the thyng

(a) Iob confesseth the omnipotencie of god, & bewayleth his offence that he spake he wyst not what.

(b) Iob desireth to learne of god.

thyng which is right, lyke as my seruaunt Iob hath done. 9 So Eliphaz the Themanite, and Bildad the Suhite, and Sophar the Naamathite went, and did accordyng as the Lorde commaunded them: the Lorde also accepted * the person of Job. 10 And the Lorde (e) turned the captiuitie of Job when he prayed for his freendes: yea the Lorde gaue Job twyse as much as he had before. 11 And then came there vnto him (f) all his brethren, all his sisters, and all they that had ben of his acquayntaunce (g) afore, and did eate bread with him in his house, & had compassion on him, and comforted him ouer all the trouble that the Lorde had brought vpon him: euery man also gaue him a certayne summe of money, and * a iewell of golde. 12 So the Lorde blessed the last dayes of Job more then the first: for he had fourteene thousande sheepe, sixe thousande camels a thousande yoke of oxen, and a thousande shee asses: 13 He had seuen sonnes also, and three daughters. 14 The first (daughter) called he (h) Jemima, the seconde (i) Kezia, and the thirde (k) Kerenhapuch. 15 In all the lande were no women founde so faire as the daughters of Job: and their father gaue them inheritaunce among their brethren. 16 After this lyued Job an hundred and fourtie yeres: so that he sawe his children, and his childrens children into the fourth generation. 17 And so Job dyed, beyng olde, and full of dayes.

* Or, the face.

(e) He rid him from his troubles and plagues.

(f) That is, all they that were of his kinrede.

(g) Here is the exceedyng blessinges of god towardes the godly, and they that vnfaignedly trust in him.

* Or, an eare ryng.

(h) Passing in beautie as the day, and long liuing.

(i) As sweete as Cassia, or fine spices.

DAVID that notable king and prophete, a man ſingulerly choſen of almightie God after his owne heart, beyng indued both with the knowledge of his creatour, and with the knowledge of him ſelfe, and beyng throughly exercyſed in the whole ſtate of his life with the experience of the world: bettereth his ſundry affections (as his occaſions ſerued hym) in this his booke of pſalmes, a booke ſet out with diuers names, but ſounding all to one thing. The Hebrues name it Tehillim ספר תהלות & ספר תלים that is to ſay, a booke of laudes and hymnes. The Grecians expreſſe it by the name of a muſicall inſtrument ψαλτηριον ſo called. Our ſauiour Chriſte calleth it a booke of pſalmes (as his diſciple Peter doth the ſame.) Some inſtituleth it, liber contemplationum, ſiue ſoliloquiorum: A booke of contemplations or ſecrete meditations, whereby the godly ſpereth ſolitarily and alone to almightie God: A booke of holy ſcripture, no doubt moſt comfortable in doctrine, high in myſterie, and profounde in ſenſe: but yet familier and redy to be vnderſtanded of the true chriſten heart. To the diligent vſing of whiche booke, the holy apoſtle ſaint Paule by graue aduiſement, no leſſe then in two of his epiſtles exhorteth vs, ſaying in the one thus, Let the worde of Chriſte dwell in you richly, in all wyſdome (thereof) teaching and admoniſhing your ſelues in pſalmes and hymnes and ſpiritual ſonges, ſinging with grace in your heartes to the Lorde. An admonition ſo ſerious ought not to be contempned. Nowe foraſmuch as the vſe of the pſalmes hath a ſpeciall peculier grace aboue all other partes of ſcripture, therfore it ought of all other chiefely to be eſteemed, and duely to be vſed, as euermore in the Church of God, aſwell of the olde people of Iſrael, as of the newe people of the chriſtians, it hath ben in moſt frequent vſe and reuerence. Furthermore all maner of ſcripture, for that it is inſpirde from God aboue (as neceſſarie for inſtruction) is expreſſed by the determination of the holy ghoſt, to the intent that all men in common ſhould gather out therof (as out of a ſtore houſe of phiſicke for the ſoule) peculiar remedies, euery one of vs for our owne infirmities: for ſuch phiſicke (as one writeth) wyll reſtraine great and many ſinnes. Nowe whereas the prophetes haue doctrine proper to them ſelues, and the bookes of the diuine hiſtories matter by them ſelfe: the lawe hane his peculiar fourme of teaching, and the prouerbiall bookes haue their ſeuerall kinde of exhortations. The booke of the pſalmes comprehende in it ſelfe the whole commoditie of all their doctrines afore ſayde, for it prophecieth of thinges to come, it reciteth the hiſtories, it ſheweth law for the gouernaunce of lyfe, it teacheth what ought to be done: and to be ſhort, it is a common ſtorehouſe of all good doctrine, whiche doth aptly diſtribute matter to euery man peculiar to hym ſelfe: for it healeth not only olde feſtured woundes of the ſoule, but alſo can gene quicke remedie to ſuch as be newly made. It ſtayeth and comforteth that member whiche is ſicke and corrupt, and preſerueth that which is whole and ſounde, it plucketh vp by the rootes (as much as is poſſible) all ſuch euyll affections as do raigne ſo tyrannically in the whole courſe of mans lyfe, which effect it worketh as it were with a greeable delectation, inſtilling pleaſauntly into our heart all ſober honeſtie. For where as the holy ghoſt perceaued that mankinde was hardly crayned to vertue, and that we be very negligent in thinges concerning the true life in deede, by reaſon of our inclination to worldly pleaſures and delectations: What hath he inuented? He hath mixt in his fourme of doctrine the delectation of muſicke, to the intent that the commoditie of the doctrine might ſecretly ſteale into vs, whyle our eares be touched with the pleaſauntneſſe of the melodie. Euen muſth like as expert phiſitions vſe to do when they miniſter their bitter potions to ſicke chyldren, leſt they ſhoulde abhorre their health for the bitternelle of their drinkes, for the moſt part they annoynt the brinkes of the cuppes with honey. And for this ende be theſe ſweete and harmonious ſonges deuiſed for vs, that ſuch as be chyldren eyther by age, or chyldren by maners, ſhoulde in deede haue their ſoules wholſomly inſtructed, though for the tyme they ſeeme but to ſing only. Furthermore, we ſee commonly that they whiche be of the vulgare people, or of rude and groſſe nature, can not redylie beare away and kepe in minde the graue preceptes of the apoſtles or prophetes, where yet the diuine pſalmes they ſing at home in their houſes, and abrode they can recorde them. And certainely, though a man were neuer ſo furiouſly raging in ire and wrath, yet aſſoone as he hea-

reth the sweete tunes of the psalmes, straightway is he asswaged of his furie, and must departe more quiet in mynde by reason of the melodie. The psalme is the rest of the soule, the rodde of peace, it stylleth and pacifieth the ragyng bellowes of the minde, for it doth asswage and mollifie that irefull power and passion of the soule, it inducith chastitie where raigned wantonnesse, it maketh amitie where was discorde, it knitteth freendes together, it returneth enemies to an vnitie agayne. For who can long repute hym as an enemie, with whom he ioyneth him self in lifting vp his voyce to God in prayer? So that the song of the psalme worketh charitie, whiche is the greatest treasure of all goodnesse that can be, deuising by this enducement of concorde singing, the knot and bonde of vnitie, so ioyning the people together after the similitude of a quyer in their vnitie of singing. The psalme is an introduction to beginners, it is a furtherer to them whiche go forwarde to vertue, it is to the perfect man a stable foundation to rest on, it is the sweete voyce, the only mouth of the spouse of Christe the Churche. The psalme doth cheare the feastfull day the better to reioyce, it worketh that same heauinesse whiche is heauinesse to godwarde: For the psalme is able to pluche out teares of any mans heart, though it be neuer so stony harde. O wyse and marueylous deuise of our heauenly schoolemaster, who couthe inuent that we should both pleasaunt ly sing and therwith profitably learne, whereby wholsome doctrine might be the deeper printed in vs: for that which with violence and force is learned of vs, is not wont so abyde long: but that whiche entreth into vs with pleasure, and by louing grace, it continueth the longer in our heartes, it sticketh the faster in our memories. Nowe as for the matter and content of the psalme, what is there but that a man may learne it there? Is not there to be learned the valiauntnesse of fortitude, the rightcousnesse of iustice? the sobernesse of temperaunce? the perfection of prudence, the fourme of penaunce, the measure of patience? yea and whatsoeuer soundeth to vertue or perfection, is it not there taught? In the psalme is contained absolute diuinitie, both prophecie of Christes comming in the flesche, the threatfull warninges of the iudgement, the hope of our rising againe, the feare of gods punishmentes, the promises of euerlasting ioy, the reuelation of al mysteries: al these be layde and couched vp in the psalter booke, as in a great treasure house common to all men. Whiche booke the prophete Dauid framed most aptly (among many instrumentes of musicke) to agree with the instrument called the Psalterie; signifying thereby (as I can iudge) the grace of God to come from aboue by the inspiration of the holy ghost. For this only instrument of all other, haue the cause of his sounde from his vpper part, where the harpe or the lute by their wyres haue their sounde comming forth out of the lower part of them: but the Psalterie put forth the swetenesse of his harmonious melody from the vpper part, teaching vs thereby that we shoulde set our whole studie and meditation in heauenly thinges aboue, and not by the swetenesse of the tunes to be borne downe to the sensual affections and delectations of the flesche.

¶ Saint Austen.

The sweete tunes O Lorde wherto thy holy scriptures geue so lyuely a grace, when they be song with the moderate voyce of expert men, I do confesse that they do somwhat delectably stirre me: but yet not for that I would dwell and abyde styll there, but for that my mynde might ryse vpwarde to godly affection and heauenly deuotion. Notwithstanding, when I feele this in my selfe, that the melodie moueth me more then the matter of the ditie whiche is song: I confesse then that I offende mortally therein.

NOwe let the gentle reader haue this christian consideration within hym selfe, that though he findeth the psalmes of this translation folowing, not so to sounde agreeably to his eares in his wonted wordes and phrases, as he is accustomed with: yet let hym not be to muche offended with the worke, whiche was wrought for his owne commoditie and comfort. And if he be learned, let hym correct the worde or sentence (whiche may dislike hym) with the better, and whether his note ryseth eyther of good wyll and charitie, eyther of enuie and contention not purely, yet his reprehension, if it may turne to the finding out of the truth, shall not be repelled with greefe, but applauded to in gladnesse, that Christe may euer haue the prayse: To whom with the father and the holy spirite, be all glory and prayse for euer, Amen.

The argument of the .iii. psalme.

¶ Dauid maruayling at the great number of his enemies, calleth vpon God for helpe. He putteth his trust in God, and therfore taking his naturall rest quietly, he feareth not his aduersaries, but he reioyceth at the successe that god geueth vnto him, who hath alwayes meanes to saue and blesse his people.

Domine quid multiplicati.

A psalme of Dauid, when he fled from the face of Absalom his son. 2. sa. ca. 15. &. 16.

O God howe are myne enemies increased? many do ryse vp against me.

2 Many say of (a) my soule: there is no saluation for it in God. (b) selah.

3 But thou O God art a buckler for me: thou art my worshyp, and the lifter vp of my head.

4 I dyd call vpon God with my voyce, and he heard me out of his holy hyll. selah.

5 I (c) layde me downe & slept: and I rose vp againe, for God sustayned me.

6 I wyll not be afrayde of ten thousandes of the people: that haue set (them selues) against me round about.

7 Arise vp O god, saue thou me O my Lorde: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies vpon the cheeke bone, thou hast broken the teeth of the vngodly.

8 Saluation is of God: thy blessing is vpon thy people. selah.

(a) Of me.

(c) He alludeth to this promise, Ye shall sleepe without feare. Le. 26 verse. 6.

The argument of the .iiii. psalme.

Dauid at the rebellion of his sonne Absalom, cryeth to God for helpe. He reproueth the chiefe doers of his aduersaries, and exhorteth them to repent. He is glad that they haue plentie of victuals and other necessaries, seeing that he him selfe is assured of Gods fauour.

To the () chiefe musitian on () Neginoth, a psalme of Dauid. Cum inuocarem.

HEare me when I call O God of my righteousnesse: thou hast set me at libertie when I was in distresse.

2 O ye sonnes of men, howe long (wyll ye go about to bryng) my glory to confusion? ye loue vanitie, ye seeke after lyes. selah.

3 For ye must knowe that God hath chosen to hym selfe a godly (man): God will heare when I call vnto him.

4 Be ye angry, but sinne not: commune with your owne heart in your chaumber, and be styll. selah.

5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousnes: and put your trust in God.

6 There be many that say, who wyll shewe vs (any) good? O God lift thou vp the lyght of thy countenaunce vpon vs.

7 Thou hast put gladnesse in my heart: since the tyme that their corne and wine increased.

8 I wyl both lay me downe in peace: and I wyl take my rest: for thou God only makest me to dwell in safetie.

(a) Neginoth is supposed to be a certayne instrument of musicke: for king Dauid ordayned in the temple, not only som to sing psalmes, but also to play them on diuers kindes of musicall instrumeares, that the hearers minds might be the more stirred vp & allured to consider the sense of the wordes that were song and played.

The argument of the .v. psalme

Dauid afflicted with enemies, requireth God to heare his prayers, to guide him, and to destroy wicked flattering rebels, trusting most assuredly that the godly shall be of him defended and blessed.

To the cheefe musition vpon () Nehiloth, a psalme of Dauid.
Verba mea auribus.

GEue eare vnto my wordes O God: vnderstande thou my pensifnesse.
2 Hearken thou vnto the voyce of my crying my kyng and my Lorde: for vnto thee I will make my prayer.
3 O God I pray thee heare my voyce betymes in the morning: I will early in the morning direct (a prayer) vnto thee, & I wil loke (for helpe from thee.)
4 For thou art the Lorde that hath no pleasure in wickednesse: neither can any cupll dwell with thee.
5 Such as be fooliche can not stande in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquitie.
6 Thou wylt destroy them that make a lye: God wyll abhorre both the bloodthirstie and deceiptfull man.
7 As for me I wyll come into thyne house, (trusting) in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy feare I wyll (a) humble my selfe in thine holy temple.
8 Leade me O God in thy righteousnesse, because of myne enemies: make thy way playne before my face.
9 For no "truerh is in "their mouth, their inward partes are very wickednesse: * their throte is an open sepulchre, they flatter with their tongue.
10 Destroy thou them O Lorde, let them perish through their owne counsayles: cast them out in the multitude of their vngodlinesse, for they haue "rebelled agaynst thee.
11 And all they that trust in thee wyll reioyce, they wyll triumph for euer, "because thou defendest them: and they that loue thy name, wyll be toyfull in thee.
12 For thou O God wylt blesse the righteous: and thou wylt compasse him about with beneuolence, as with a shielde.

(a) Worship thee.

The argument of the .vi. psalme.

Dauid beseecheth god of his mercie to mitigate the afflictions which he felt in his body and soule, to this ende, that he in this lyfe might prayse god: and forsomuch as he assureth him selfe that god hath heard his prayer, he pronounceth that his enemies shalbe put to shame. Domine ne in furore.

O God rebuke me not in thine indignation: neither* chasten me in thy wrath.
2 Haue mercy on me O God, for I am weake: O God heale me, for my bones be very sore.
3 My soule also is greatly troubled: but O God howe long (shall I be in this case?
4 Turne thee O God, and deliuer my soule: Oh saue me for thy mercyes sake.
5 For in death no man remembreth thee: and in the graue who can acknowledge thee?
6 I am weerie of my groning: I washe my bed euery nyght, and I water my couche with my teares.
7 Myne eye is almost put out through mine greefe: and worne out through all myne enemies.
8 Away from me all workers of iniquitie: for God hath heard the voyce of my weeping.
9 God hath heard my petition: God wyll receaue my prayer.
10 All mine enemies shalbe confounded and sore astonyed with feare: they shalbe turned backe, they shalbe put to shame sodainly.

The argument of the .vii. Psalme.

Dauid prayeth God to deliuer him from such as do persecute him to death, for that he is innocent and hath deserued no such thing at their handes: comforting hym selfe therfore in God, he threatneth destruction to his enemies, if they do not repent. Domine deus meus.

(c) To blesse the people with peace, or to abound with al kynd of goodes.

The argument of the .xxii. Psalme.

Dauid first in the figure of Christ as one forsaken, cryeth to god the father, vttering his crosse, affliction, humblenesse, and mockes geuen of the people, gouernours & priestes. Secondarily he prayeth for his deliuerie, that he may prayse god in the Churche, and ineite other to put theyr trust in hym in aduersitie. Last of all, he reioyceth that his kingdome shalbe extended to the vttermost partes of the worlde.

2 O my God I crye all the day time, and in the night season, and I ceasse not: but thou hearest not.

3 And yet thou most holy: sittest to receaue the (a) prayers of Israel.

(a) Suche as contayne the prayses of God.

4 Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou diddest deliuer them.

5 They called vpon thee, and they were holped: they did put their trust in thee, and they were not confounded.

6 But as for me I am a worme and no man: a very scorne of men, and an outcast of the people.

7 All they that see me, laugh me to scorne: they do make a mowe, and nod theyr head (at me.)

8 (Saying) he referreth (al) to God, (louing that god) wyll deliuer hym (&) rescue him: for he delyteth only in hym.

9 But thou art he that toke me out of my mothers wombe: thou causedst me to trust in thee sucking my mothers breastes.

10 I haue ben left vnto thee euer since I was borne: thou art my God euen from my mothers wombe.

11 O go not farre from me, for trouble is harde at hande: and there is none to helpe me.

12 Many oxen are come about me: fat (bulles) of Bashan close me in on euery syde.

13 They gape vpon me with theyr mouthes: as it were a ramping and a rorying lion.

14 I am as (it were) into water resolued, and al my bones are out of ioynt: my heart also is lyke waxe melted in the middest of my bowels.

15 My strength is dryed vp lyke a potsharde, and my tongue cleaueth to my gummes: and thou hast brought me into the (b) dust of death.

16 For dogges are come about me, the assemble of the wicked lay siege against me: they haue pearsed my handes and my feete, I may tell al my bones.

17 They stand staryng and gasing vpon me: they part my garmentes among them, and they cast lottes vpon my vesture.

18 But be not thou farre from me O God: thou art my strength, make haste to helpe me.

19 Deliuer my soule from the swoorde: my "dearling from the dogs "pawes.

20 Saue me from the lions mouth: and I pray thee heare me from the hornes of the Vnicornes.

21 I will declare thy name vnto my brethren: I will prayse thee in the myddest of the congregation.

22 (Saying) O ye that feare hym: glorifie hym al ye of the seede of Jacob, and stande in awe of hym al ye of the seede of Israel.

23 For he hath not dispised nor abhorred the affliction of the poore: he hath not hyd his face from him, but he heard hym when he cryed vnto hym.

(b) To hope for nothyng but my graue.

24 My prayse shalbe of thee in the great congregation: I wyll perfourme my vowes in the syght of them that feare hym.

25 The poore shal eate & be satisfied: they that seeke after God shall prayse hym, your heart shall lyue for euer.

26 All the endes of the world shal remember them selues & be turned vnto God: and al the kinredes of the nations shall worshyp before thy face.

27 For the kyngdome is Gods: and he is the gouernour ouer the nations.

28 All such as be(c) fat vpon the earth shall eate and worshyp: all they that go downe (in) to the dust shall kneele before hym, although he preserued not his owne lyfe.

29 The posteritie shall serue hym: they shalbe counted vnto the Lorde for a generation.

30 They wyll come and declare his righteousnesse vnto a people that shalbe borne: for he hath done it.

(c) Rich men shall sacrifice vnto god, and eate at the Lordes table.

The argument of the.xxiii. Psalme.

¶ Dauid resemblyng God to a shepheарde and hym selfe to a sheepe, declareth that al commodities, plentie, quietnesse and prosperitie, ensueth them that be fully perswaded of gods prouidence: for god feedeth, norisheth, defendeth, and gouerneth those that put their whole trust in hym, after a more ample sort then any sheepeheарde doth his sheepe. Dominus regit me. A Psalme of Dauid.

GOD is my shepheарde, therefore I can lacke nothyng: he wyll cause me to repose my selfe in pastures full of grasse, and he wyll leade me vnto calme waters.

2 He will conuert my soule: he wyll bring me foorth into the pathes of righteousnesse for his names sake.

3 Yea though I walke through the valley of the shadowe of death, I wyll feare no euyll: for thou art with me, thy rodde and thy staffe be the thynges that do comfort me.

4 Thou wylt prepare a table before me in the presence of myne aduersaries: thou hast annoynted my head with oyle, and my cup shalbe brymme full.

5 Truely felicitie and mercie shall followe me all the dayes of my lyfe: and I wyll dwell in the house of God for a long tyme.

The argument of the.xxiiii. Psalme.

¶ Dauid declareth that although all the earth and all the inhabitours therof do pertaine to god: yet that he hath chose most especially the mount Sion to be worshipped in. And that they only in deede do ascende into that blessed mountayne, who wyll seeke god after his worde, and lyue therafter vertuously. Also he mynding to haue a temple builded vpon that mount, wisseth that it were fully finished, that the arke of god (which he nameth the kyng of glorie) might be placed therein.

Morning prayer.

(b) In the promises geuen to Iacob & his seede, folowing his steppes.

(c) He speaketh to the temple not yet builded, exhorteyng it to be builded vp quickly with all furniture; declaring thereby his great zeale to haue a publique place to worshyp god in.

The argument of the.xxv. Psalme.

Dauid afflicted with enemies, and feelyng the great burden of sinne, namely of his youth, prayeth god partly to deliuer him, partly to teache hym and to pardon his offences. He setteth foorth the infinite goodnes and felicitie which is assured to all them that feare god. Finally he confesseth that all his trust is in god.

The argument of the .xxxiii. Pſalme.

Dauid exhorteth all men to pꝛayſe God, in callyng to remembraunce his goodneſſe, trueth, promiſes, power, and pꝛouidence, for whatſoeuer he ſayth or promiſeth, he perfourmeth it. Gods power appeareth by thinges created, his pꝛouidence in diſapoyntyng mens deuiſes. God ſeeth and knoweth all thinges, and taketh care of all. A THE wickednesse of the vngodly speaketh in the middest of my heart: that there is no feare of the Lorde before his eyes.
2 For he flattereth him selfe in his owne sight : so that his iniquitie is found worthie of hatred.
3 The wordes of his mouth are vnrighteous and full of deceipt: he hath left of to behaue him selfe wysely and to do good.

The prophete moueth his people to geue diligent eare vnto hym, vtteryng the wonderfull benefites of god to the Iewes, euen suche as were commonly knowen amongst them, and were to be declared of fathers vnto theyr chyldren in all generations by the commaundement of god, to the intent that they be not as theyr forefathers were, rebelles, and stubberne agaynst god and his worde. For whiche cause they had euyll successe in battayle, and were afflicted with sundry calamities; yet they seeking the smart of affliction, made a countenance as though they sought god, but it was hypocritically, not forsakyng theyr sinnes and fleeyng to gods mercie, wherfore god gaue the arke to the Philistines as forsaking the Israelites because they greeued hym with hill-aulters and images, god also refused the tribe of Ephraim, and chose the tribe of Iuda, appoyntyng Dauid a shepheard kepyng sheepe for to be kyng of his people.

A wise instruction (to be song) of Asaph.

Heare my lawe O my people: encline your eares vnto the wordes of my mouth.

2 I wyll open my mouth in a parable: I wyl declare hard sentences of the olde tyme past.

3 Whiche we haue hearde and knowen: and suche as our fathers haue tolde vs.

4 We wyll not hyde them from theyr children: nay we wyll set forth in wordes to the generation to come the prayses of God, and his myght and wonderfull workes that he hath done.

5 For he reuiued a statute in Iacob, and gaue Israel a lawe: in the which he commaunded our forefathers to teache theyr chyldren.

6 To the intent the posteritie should knowe knowe it,(and) chyldren which shalbe borne: that they shoulde ryse vp and declare it to theyr chyldren.

7 That they shoulde put theyr trust in God, and not forget the workes of god: but kepe his commaundements.

8 And that they be not as theyr forefathers(were)a rebellious and a mutable generation: a generation that directed not theyr heart aryght, and whose spirite cleaued not stedfastly vnto God.

1.Chro. 7. 9 (Like as)the chyldren of Ephraim, which beyng harnessed and carying bowes: turned theyr backes in the day of battayle.

10 They kept not the couenaunt of God: and they would not walke in his lawe.

11 But they forgat his workes: and his wonders whiche he had shewed them.

" Stoan. 12 Marueylous thynges dyd he in the sight of theyr fathers: in the land of Egypt, in the feelde "of Zoan.

13 He diuided the sea and let them go C thorowe: he made the waters to stande as on an heape.

14 In the day time also he led them with a cloude: & all the night through with a lyght of fire.

15 He cloued the harde rockes in the wyldernesse: and gaue them drynke therof, as it had ben out of the great deepe waters.

16 He bronght running streames out of a stony rocke: and caused waters to gushe downe, lyke as out of ryuers.

17 Yet for all this they sinned still agaynst hym: so that they prouoked the most hyghest in the wyldernesse.

18 And they tempted God in theyr heartes: in requiring meate for their " lust.

" Some. 19 They spake agaynst God: they sayde, can God prepare a table in the wyldernesse?

20 Behold he hath smitten the stony rocke, and waters haue gushed out, and streames haue flowed out abowndantly: but can he likewise geue bread, can he prounde flesche for his people?

21 Wherfore God hearde (them,) he was wroth, a fire was kindled in Iacob: and there arose vp heauy displeasure agaynst Israel.

22 Because they beleued not in the Lorde: nor dyd put theyr trust in his saluation.

23 And yet he commaunded the cloudes aboue: and opened the doores of heauen.

24 He raigned downe " Manna also vpon them, that they should eate: and gaue them corne from heauen. " Man.

25 (So) man did eate the bread of "angels: he sent them meate ynough. "princes.

26 He remoued the east winde from vnder the heauen: and through his power he brought in the south winde.

27 He rayned flesche vpon them as thicke as dust: and fethered foules like as the sande of the sea.

28 He let it fall among theyr tentes: euen rounde about theyr pauilions.

29 So they dyd eate and were well filled, for he gaue them theyr owne desyre: neuertheless they were not alienated from theyr lust.

30 But whyle the meate was yet in their mouthes, the heauye wrath of God came vpon them, and slue the welthiest of them: and made the chosen men of Israel to stoupe.

31 For all this they sinned still: and beleued not his wonderous workes.

32 Therefore he did consume theyr dayes in vanitie: and theyr yeres in a " thost (troublous) time.

33 When he slue them they sought hym: they repented them, and (a) made God theyr morynynges worke. (a) They rose in the morning to pray to God.

34 And they remembred that the Lord was theyr rocke: and that the Lorde most hyghest was theyr redeemer.

35 Neuertheless they did but flatter hym with their mouth: and they made hym a lye with theyr tongue.

36 For theyr heart was not vpryght with him: neither continued they faythfull in his couenaunt.

37 Yet for all that he beyng most mercifull: cleane pardoned all theyr mysdeedes, and destroyed them not.

38 Yea many a tyme he did much for to represse his anger: & neuer would suffer his whole rage to breake out.

39 For he considered that they were but flesche: and that they were euen a wind that passeth away, and commeth not agayne.

40 Howe oft dyd they prouoke hym in the wyldernesse: and greeued hym in the desart?

41 They turned backe and tempted the Lorde: and prescribed (b) boundes to the most holy (God) of Israel. (b) As though he were not omnipotent.

47 He deſtroyed theyr vines with hayleſtones: and theyr wylde fygge trees with the harde froſt.

48 He ſmote theyr cattell alſo with hayleſtones: and theyr flockes with thunder bolles.

49 He caſt vpon them the rage of his furie, anger, diſdayne, and trouble: by ſendyng foorth euyll angels amongſt them.

50 He made away to his indignation, and ſpared not theyr ſoule from death: he gaue theyr lyfe to be ſubiect to the peſtilence.

51 And he ſmote all the firſt borne of Egypt: the firſt fruites of (c) concupiſcente in the pauilions of (d) Cham.

52 But as for his owne people he led them forth like sheepe: and conducted them through the wyldernes lyke a flocke of cattell.

53 He brought them out ſafely that they ſhoulde not feare: and ouerwhelmed theyr enemies with the ſea.

54 And brought them within the borders of his (e) ſanctuarie: euen to this (f) mountayne whiche his right hande purchaſed.

55 He dyd caſt out the heathen alſo before them: he caſted theyr lande to be diuided among them for an heritage, and made the tribes of Iſrael to dwell in theyr tentes.

56 Neuertheleſſe they tempted and diſpleaſed the moſt hyghest Lorde: and kept not his teſtimonies.

57 They turned backwarde, and they went aſtray like their forefathers: they ſtarted aſide like a bowe "that breaketh. "That deceaueth.

58 For they ſtirred him to anger with theyr hygh places: and prouoked him to ielouſie with theyr carued images.

59 When the Lorde hearde this, he was wroth: and tooke ſore diſpleaſure at Iſrael.

65 But the Lord awaked as though he had ſlept: lyke a giaunt mabyng a triumphant noyſe after wine.

66 He ſmote his enemies in the hynder partes: and put them to a perpetuall ſhame.

67 He refuſed the tabernacle of Joſeph: and choſe not the tribe of Ephraim.

68 But he choſe the tribe of "Juda: euen the hyll of Sion which he loued. "Iehuda.

69 And there he buylded his temple on hygh: and layde the foundation of it lyke a grounde euer to continue.

¶ The argument of the.cv. pſalme

¶ The prophete exhorteth all men to acknowledge god, to call vpon god for helpe, to ſeke god, and to preache god: but eſpecially he moueth the Iſraelites to remember the promiſes that god made to their foreſathers, Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob, and alſo the benefites that he had beſtowed on them aboue all other nations. For god had ſuch care of them beyng pilgrimes in ſorayne landes, that he woulde not ſuffer any once to touch them, yea he rebuked kinges for their ſakes, & he preſerued them in famine and other aduerſitie, as Ioſeph was ſolde into Egypt, but it had a good ſucceſſe. The entryng of the children of Iſrael into Egypt is ſet foorth, and what happened vnto them whyles they were there. Likewiſe their ioyfull departyng out of Egypt, their doynges by the way in the wilderneſſe, and at length their entryng into the lande of promiſe where god placed them that they ſhoulde kepe his commaundementes, is moſt amply declared.

¶ The argument of the.cvi.pſalme.

The prophete exhorteth all men to praiſe god, and to do iuſtly. He maketh his prayer, acknowledgyng his owne ſinnes, and the ſinnes of the forefathers of the Iſraelites, who not conſyderyng the great benefites of god, rebelled agaynſt god at the red ſea. Afterwarde in the wilderneſſe they dyd tempt god. Core, Dathan, and Abiram conſpiryng agaynſt Moyſes and Aaron, were ſwalowed vp of the earth. They worſhipped a calfe made of golde. They murmured agaynſt them that viewed the lande of promiſe, abhorryng to heare of it. They ſacrificed to Baal Peor. They grudged at god for lacke of water. Finally, when they came to the holy lande, they committed idolatrie, and all kynde of wickedneſſe of lyfe, ſo that they were geuen vp vnto their enemies handes, but god moſt mercifully deliuered them for his promiſe ſake.

5 That I may ſee the felicitie of thy choſen, that I may reioyce at the gladneſſe of thy people: (and) that I may glory with thyne inheritaunce.

6 We haue ſinned with our fathers: we haue done amiſſe and dealt wickedly.

7 Our fathers dyd not well conſider thy wonders in Egypt, neither dyd they remember thy manyfolde great goodneſſe: but they rebelled at the ſea, euen at the red ſea.

8 Neuertheleſſe, he ſaued them for his names ſake: that he might make his power to be knowen.

9 And he rebuked the red ſea, and it was dryed vp: ſo he led them through the deepe, as through a wyldernelle.

10 And he ſaued them from the hand of ſuch as hated them: and redeemed them from the hande of the enemie.

11 As for their aduerſaries the waters couerwhelmed them: there was not one of them left remayning.

12 Then beleued they his wordes: and ſong "prayſe vnto hym.

Morning prayer.

in the tyme (of ſhewing) thy moſt mightie † power with a beautifull holynes: the deawe of thy byrth is to thee from the wombe of the morning.

4 God ſware and he wyll not repent: thou art a prieſt for euer after the order of Melchiſedec.

5 The Lorde at thy right hande: will wounde euen kynges in the day of his wrath.

6 He wyll iudge the Heathen: he wyl fill euery place with dead bodyes, he wyll ſmyte the (c) head of a great countrey.

7 He wyll (d) drinke of the ſwift running brooke in the way: therefore he wyll (e) lyft vp his head.

(c) The deuil, prince of the world, with all his members, & death and hell.

(d) In this wayfaring life, he will ſuffer bitter paſſions for mans redemption.

(e) He wyll riſe from death, & ſitting on the right hand of God, he wyll iudge the quicke and dead.

The argument of the. cxi. pſalme.

¶ The prophete prayſeth God, he rehearſeth the wonderous workes that God (mindfull of his promiſe) dyd to the chyldren of Iſrael, bringing them out of Egypt to poſſeſſe the lande of promiſe for an inheritaunce. He declareth alſo that the high wiſdome of man, is to feare God.

Confitebor tibi domine. Prayſe ye the Lorde.

I Wyll confeſſe (it) vnto God with my whole heart: in the congregation and aſſemble of righteous men.

2 Great are the workes of God: ſought out of all them that haue pleaſure therin.

3 His worke is glory and maieſtie: and his righteouſnes endureth for euer.

4 The mercifull and gratious God: hath ſo left a remembraunce of his meruaylous workes.

5 He hath geuen meate vnto them that feare hym: he will euer be mindfull of his couenaunt.

6 He hath declared vnto his people the force of his workes: in geuing them the inheritance of the Heathen.

7 The workes of his handes are veritie and iudgement: all his commaundementes are (a) true.

8 They be ſet ſure for euer and euer: they are done in trueth and equitie.

9 He did ſende redemption vnto his people: he hath commaunded his couenaunt (to be) for euer, holy and terrible is his name.

10 The beginning of wyſdome is the feare of God: all they haue a good vnderſtanding that do his commaundementes, the prayſe of it endureth for euer.

(a) Certayne and permanent.

The argument of the .cxii. pſalme.

¶ The prophete ſetteth foorth the felicitie, rewarde, and properties of them that feare God and worſhip him: ſuch the vngodly ſeeth with his great griefe.

Beatus vir qui timet. Prayſe ye the Lorde.

BLeſſed is the man that feareth God: he hath great delight in his commaundementes.

2 His ſeede ſhalbe mightie vpon the earth: the generation of them that dwell vprightly, ſhalbe bleſſed.

3 Riches and plenteouſneſſe ſhalbe in his houſe: and his righteouſnes endureth for euer.

4 There (a) aryſeth vp light in the darkneſſe: vnto them that deale vprightly he is mercyfull, and louing, and righteous.

5 A good man is mercifull and lendeth: he wyll guyde his wordes with diſcretion.

6 For he ſhalbe neuer moued: and the righteous ſhall be had in an euerlaſting remembraunce.

7 He will not be afraide of any euyll tidinges: his heart is ſtedfaſt, he beleueth in God.

8 His heart is ſtrengthned, he wyll not feare: vntyll he ſeeth (a miſchiefe to fall) vpon his enemies.

9 He hath diſtributed abrode, he hath geuen to the poore: his righteouſnes remayneth for euer, his (b) horne ſhalbe exalted with glory.

10 The vngodly ſhall ſee it, and it wyll greeue hym, he wyll gnaſhe with his teeth and conſume away: the deſire of the vngodly ſhall perishe.

(a) God helpeth alwayes the good in their aduerſitie.

(b) His ſtate, condition, or dignitie.

The argument of the. cxiii. pſalme.

¶ The prophete exhorteth all men to prayſe God in conſideration of his prouidence in heauen and earth, who promoteth the poore man to honour, and maketh the barren woman a mery mother.

Laudate pueri.

Prayse ye the Lorde.

PRayse God ye seruauntes: prayse ye the name of God.
2 Blessed be the name of God: from this tyme forth for euermore.
3 The name of God is to be praysed: from the rising vp of the sunne, vnto the going downe of the same.
4 God is high aboue all heathen: and his glory aboue the heauens.
5 Who is like vnto God our Lorde that dwelleth on high aboue all: and yet humbleth hym selfe to beholde the thinges that are in heauen and in earth?
6 He rayseth vp the simple out of the dust: and lifteth vp the poore from the dounghyll.
7 For to make him sit with the princes: euen with the princes of his people.
8 He maketh the barren woman to kepe house: and to be a ioyfull mother of children. Prayse ye the Lorde.

The argument of the. cxiiii. Psalme.

The prophete declareth the comming and deliuerie of the children of Israel out of Egypt, he declareth also the miracles wrought for that purpose.

In exitu Israel.

Euenyng prayer.

(a) A people hauing a straunge tongue to the Iewes.
(b) God chose the Iewes and the Israelites to be his holy people, & obedient subiectes.

WHen Israel came out of Egypt: and the house of Iacob from among the (a) barbarous people.
2 (b) Iuda was his holynesse: and Israel his dominion.
3 The sea sawe that and fled: Iordane was driuen backe.
4 The mountaynes skipped lyke rammes: and the litle hilles lyke young lammes.
5 What ayleth thee O thou sea that thou fleddest? and thou Iordane that thou wast driuen backe?
6 Ye mountaynes what (ayled) you that ye skipped like rammes: and ye litle hilles like young lammes?
7 Tremble thou earth at the presence of the Lorde: at the presence of the Lorde of Iacob.
8 Whiche turned the harde rocke into a standing water: and the flint stone into a springing well of waters.

The argument of the. cxv. psalme.

¶ The prophete wisheth all glory to be geuen vnto God, and not vnto man. He setteth foorth the difference betwixt the liuing God and idols. He exhorteth all the people and priestes to put their whole trust in God, by that meanes they and theirs shalbe for euer blessed. Non nobis domine.

GEue prayse not vnto vs O God, not vnto vs, but vnto thy name: for thy louing mercy, and for thy trueths sake.
2 Wherefore shall the heathen say: where is nowe their God?
3 Truely our Lorde is in heauen: he hath done whatsoeuer pleased hym.
4 Their idols are siluer and golde: euen the workes of mens handes.
5 They haue a mouth and speake not: they haue eyes and see not.
6 They haue eares and heare not: they haue noses and smell not.
7 They haue handes and handle not, they haue feete and walke not: and they vtter no sounde out of their throtes.
8 They that make them are lyke vnto them: euery one that putteth his trust in them.
9 But Israel trust thou in God: he is their ayde and their shielde.
10 Ye house of Aaron trust you in God: he is their ayde and their shielde.
11 Ye that feare God, trust ye in God: he is their ayde and their shielde.
12 God hath ben mynded of vs, he will blesse vs: he will blesse the house of Israel, he will blesse the house of Aaron.
13 He will blesse those that feare God: the small with the great.
14 God will encrease you more and more: both you and also your children.
15 Ye are the blessed of God: whiche made heauen and earth.
16 The (a) heauen, the heauen (I say) is Gods: and he hath geuen the earth vnto the children of men.
17 The (b) dead prayse not thee O Lorde: neither all they that go downe into the (place) of silence.
18 But we will prayse the Lorde: from this tyme forth for euermore. Prayse ye the Lorde.

(a) God dwelleth in heauen, and needeth not the earth for his vse.
(b) The dead prayseth not God for the benefites powred dayly vpon the earth for them: as thei that be aliue do, or ought to do.

The argument of the. Cxvi. psalme.

¶ The prophete saith that he must needes loue God, for that he heard hym and deliuered hym out of wonderfull extreme afflictions of death and hell. He acknowledgeth the benefites of God, and that he can geue no rewarde for them, but bare thankes when he is in the congregation, and in worshipping hym all the dayes of his lyfe.

℣ Morning prayer.

I haue loued: because God hath heard my voyce (and) my prayers.
2 Because he hath enclined his eare vnto me: therfore I will call vpon hym as long as I liue.
3 The snares of death compassed me rounde about: and the paynes of hell tokes holde on me.
4 I founde anguishe and heauinesse, but I called vpon the name of God: (saying) O God, I beseche thee deliuer my soule.
5 Gracious is God and righteous: our Lorde is mercyfull.
6 God gardeth the simple: I was brought to the extremitie, and he preserued me.
℣ 7 Returne O my soule vnto thy rest: for God hath rewarded thee.
8 For (thou O Lord) hast deliuered my soule from death: myne eyes from teares, and my feete from falling.
9 I will walke before the face of God: in the lande of the liuing.
10 * I (a) beleued, therefore I dyd speake: I was sore afflicted, insomuch that I sayde in my rashnesse, euery man is a (b) lyer.
11 What rewarde shall I gene vnto God: for all the benefites that he hath done vnto me?
12 I will take the (c) cup of saluation: and I will call vpon the name of God.
13 I will pay my vowes nowe vnto God: in the presence of al his people.
14 The death of his saintes: is precious in the eyes of God.
15 It is euen so O God, for I am thy seruaunt and the sonne of thy handmayde: thou hast loosed my bondes in sunder.
16 I will offer vnto thee the sacrifice of thankesgeuing: and I will call vpon the name of God.
17 I will pay my vowes vnto God in the sight of all his people: in the courtes of Gods house, euen in the middest of thee O Hierusalem. Prayse ye the Lorde.

(a) That God hath deliuered me out of trouble.

The argument of the. cxvii. psalme.

¶ The prophete exhorteth the Gentiles to prayse God, for that he hath extended his mercy vpon them in Christe, aswell as vpon the Iewes.

Laudate dominum.

O prayse God all ye heathen: "prayse hym all ye "nations.
2 For his mercifull kindnesse is euer more and more towarde vs: and the trueth of God endureth for euer. Prayse ye the Lorde.

The argument of the. Cxviii. Psalme.

Dauid woulde haue God praysed and thanked, for that by his meanes only he was deliuered from extreme perilles, and made king of that people, who with their kyng had a litle before persecuted hym, reiect hym, and droue hym out of the realme. He willeth the priestes to sacrifice in remembraunce therof.

Confitemini domino.

℣ O Confesse you (it) vnto God, for he is gracious: "and his mercy endureth for euer.
2 Let Israel nowe confesse: that his mercy endureth for euer.
3 Let the house of Aaron nowe confesse: that his mercy endureth for euer.
4 Let them nowe that feare God: confesse that his mercy endureth for euer.
5 I called vpon the Lorde beyng in distresse: and the Lorde hath heard me at large.
6 God is with me: I will not feare what man can do vnto me.
7 God is with me amongst them that ayde me: (therfore) I shall see (my desire) vpon them that hate me.
℣ 8 It is better to trust in God: then to put any confidence in man.
9 It is better to trust in God: then to put any confidence in princes.
10 All nations compassed me rounde about: (but I trusted) in the name of God that I shoulde destroy them.

14 The Lorde is my ſtrength and my ſong: and he is become my ſaluation.
15 The voyce of a ioyfull noyſe and of ſaluation is in the dwellinges of the righteous: (ſaying) the right hande of God bryngeth mightie thinges to paſſe.
16 The right hande of God is on high: the right hand of God bringeth mightie thinges to paſſe.
17 I ſhall not (as yet) dye, but I ſhall liue: and I wyll declare the workes of the Lorde.
18 The Lorde hath greatly chaſtened me: but he hath not geuen me ouer vnto death.
19 Open me the gates of righteouſneſſe, I wyll enter in by them: that I may confeſſe (it) vnto the Lorde.
20 This is the gate of God: the righteous ſhall enter in by it.
21 I wyll confeſſe (it) vnto thee for that thou haſt heard me: and art become my ſaluation.
22 The ſame ſtone whiche the buylders refuſed: is become the head ſtone of the corner.
23 This was the doyng of God: and it is marueylous in our eyes.
24 This is the day whiche God hath made: we wyll reioyce and be glad in it.
25 O God I pray thee now ſaue (vs:) O God I pray thee nowe geue (vs) proſperous ſucceſſe.
26 Bleſſed be he that commeth in the name of God: we do bleſſe you out of the houſe of God.
27 It is the Lord God who hath geuen vs light: bynde a ſacrifice with cordes vnto the hornes of the aulter.
28 Thou art my Lorde, and I wyll confeſſe it vnto thee: thou art my Lorde, and I wyll magnifie thee.
29 O confeſſe you (it) vnto God, for he is gratious: "and his mercy endureth for euer. "for.

The argument of the.cxix.pſalme.

¶ The prophete in this golden pſalme, expreſſeth his earneſt mynde inflamed with a zelous deſire of Gods lawe: for that it is the light of man and of all his doynges, it geueth alſo perfect wiſdome and felicitie to ſuch as obſerue them. Wherefore he deſireth God to open the eyes of his heart, that he may knowe, vnderſtand, learne, and in life expreſſe his holy commaundementes. He vttereth his great griefe, in that he ſeeth them tranſgreſſed and contemned of the worſt ſort of men.

Aleph. Beati immaculati.

A Euening prayer.

BLeſſed are thoſe that be perfect in the way: walking in the law of God.
2 Bleſſed are they that kepe his teſtimonies: they ſeeke him with their whole heart.
3 Truely they walke in his wayes: who do no wickednelle.
4 Thou haſt geuen charge: that we ſhoulde diligently kepe thy commaundementes.
5 O wythe that my wayes were directed: for to kepe thy ſtatutes.
6 I ſhall take then no ſhame: when I haue regarde vnto al thy commaundementes.
7 I wyll confeſſe (it) vnto thee with an vpryght heart: when I ſhall haue learned the iudgementes of thy righteouſneſſe.

¶ The prouerbes of Solomon.

¶ The first Chapter.

¶ The power and vse of the word of god. 7 Of the feare of god & knowledge of his word. 10 We may not consent to the intisinges of sinners. 20 Wisdome complayneth that she is contemned. 24 The punishment of them that contemne her.

THE prouerbes of Solomon the son of Dauid king of Israel: 2 To learne wisdome & instruction, and to perceaue the wordes of vnderstandyng,

3 To receaue the instruction of wisdome, iustice, iudgement, and equitie:

4 To geue wyt vnto the simple, and that the young men myght haue knowledge and vnderstandyng.

5 The wyse man wyll geue eare, and wyll come by more wisdome, and he that is endued with vnderstandyng, shall attayne vnto (wyse) counselles.

6 To vnderstande a parable, and the interpretation therof, the wordes of the wyse, and their darke speaches.

7 The feare of the Lorde is the begynnyng of knowledge: but fooles despise wisdome and instruction.

8 My sonne, heare thy fathers doctrine, and forsake not the "lawe of thy mother: 9 For they shalbe an encrease of grace vnto thy head, and (as) a chayne about thy necke.

10 My sonne, yf sinners "entice thee, consent not vnto them. 11 If they say, Come with vs, let vs lay wayte for blood, and lurke priuily for the innocent without a cause, 12 Let vs swalowe them vp lyke the graue quicke and whole, as those that go downe into the pyt: 13 So shall we fynde all maner of costlye riches, and fyll our houses with spoyles: 14 Cast in thy lot among vs, and let vs all haue one purse.

15 My sonne, walke not thou with them, refrayne thy foote from their wayes. 16 For their feete runne to euyll, and are hastie to shed blood.

17 But (as) in vayne the nette is layde foorth before the birdes eyes:

18 So these lay wayte for the blood of them, and lye priuily for their lyues: 19 Such (are) the wayes of euery one that is greedie of gayne, who taketh away the life of the owner therof. 20 Wisdome cryeth without, and putteth foorth her voyce in the streetes: 21 She calleth before the congregation in the open gates, and sheweth her wordes through the citie, saying, 22 O ye children, howe long wyll ye loue childishnes? howe long wyll the scorners delyte in scornyng, and the vnwyse hate knowledge? 23 O turne you at my correction: lo I wyll expresse my minde vnto you, and make you vnderstande my wordes. 24 Because I haue called, and ye refused, I haue stretched out my hande, and no man regarded: 25 But all my counsels haue ye despised, and set my correction at naught: 26 Therfore wyll I also laugh at your destruction and mocke you, when thy thyng that ye feare commeth vpon you, 27 Euen when thy thyng that ye be afrayde of falleth in sodaynly lyke a storme, and your miserie lyke a tempest, yea when trouble and heauinesse commeth vpon you. 28 Then shall they call vpon me, but I wyll not answere: they shall seke me early, but they shall not fynde me: 29 And that because they hated knowledge, and dyd not choose the feare of the Lorde, 30 They wolde none of my counsell, but despised all my correction.

31 Therfore shall they eate of the fruite of their owne way, and be fylled with their owne inuentions.

32 For the turnyng away of the vnwyse shall slay them, and the prosperitie of fooles shall destroy them.

33 But who so heareneth vnto me, shall dwell safely, and be sure from any feare of euyll.

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

1 Wisdome exhorteth to obey her. 5 She teacheth the feare of god. 6 She is geuen of god. 10 She preserueth from wickednesse.

A My sonne, yf thou wylt receaue my wordes, and lay vp my commaundementes within thee,
2 That thou wylt enclyne thyne eares vnto wisdome, applie thyne heart then to vnderstandyng. 3 For yf thou cryest after wisdome, and cryest for knowledge: 4 If thou seekest for her as for syluer, and searchest for her as for treasures:
5 Then shalt thou vnderstande the feare of the Lorde, and fynde the knowledge of God. 6 For the Lorde geueth wisdome, out of his mouth commeth knowledge and vnderstandyng. 7 He stirreth vp health for the ryghteous: & defendeth them that walke vpryghtly. 8 That they may kepe the right path: and he preserueth the way of such as do serue him with godlynesse. 9 Then shalt thou vnderstande ryghteousnesse, and iudgement, and equitie, yea and euery good path. 10 When wisdome entreth into thyne heart, and thy soule delyteth in knowledge: 11 Then shall counsell preserue thee, and vnderstandyng shall kepe thee. 12 That thou mayest be deliuered from the euyll way, and from the man that speaketh frowarde thynges: 13 From such as leaue the wayes of ryghteousnesse, to walke in the wayes of darknesse:
C 14 Which reioyce in doyng naught, and delyte in the wickednesse of the euyll: 15 Whose wayes are croked, and they frowarde in their pathes.
16 That thou mayest be deliuered also from the straunge woman, and from her that is not thyne owne, which geueth sweete wordes, 17 Forsaketh the husbande of her youth, and forgetteth the couenaunt of her God. 18 For her house is enclyned vnto death, and her pathes vnto hell. 19 All they that go in vnto her, come not agayne, neither take they holde of the way of lyfe.
20 Therfore walke thou in the way of such as be vertuous, and kepe the pathes of the ryghteous. 21 For the iust shall dwell in the lande, and they that be perfect, shall remayne in it.
22 But the vngodly shalbe cut of from the earth: and the wicked doers shalbe rooted out of it.

¶ The.iii, Chapter.

1 The worde of god geueth lyfe. 5 Trust in god. 7 Feare him. 9 Honour him. 11 Suffer his correction. 32 To them that folowe the worde of god, al things shall succeede well.

My sonne, forget not thou my lawe, but see that thyne heart kepe my commaundementes:
2 For they shall prolong the dayes and yeres of thy lyfe, and bryng thee peace. 3 Let mercie and faythfulnes neuer go from thee: bynde them about thy necke, & write them in the tables of thyne heart: 4 So shalt thou fynde fauour and good vnderstandyng in the syght of God & men.
5 Put thy trust in God with all thine heart: and leane not vnto thine owne wyt. 6 In all thy wayes acknowledge him, and he shall order thy goynges. 7 Be not wyse in thine owne conceipt: but feare the Lorde, and depart from euyll: 8 So shall thy (a) nauell be whole, and thy bones strong. 9 Honour the Lorde with thy substaunce, and with the firstlynges of all thyne encrease: 10 So shall thy barnes be fylled with plenteousnes, & thy pressles shal flowe ouer with sweete wine. 11 My sonne refuse not the chastenyng of the Lorde, neither faynt when thou art corrected of him: 12 For whom the Lorde louerh, him he chastneth, and yet delyteth in him, euen as a father in his owne sonne. 13 Well is him that fyndeth wisdome, and getteth vnderstandyng: 14 For the marchaundise of it, is better then the marchaundise of syluer, and the gayne therof (is better) then golde. 15 She is more worth then pretious stones: and all the thynges that thou canst desire, are not to be compared vnto her. 16 In her ryght hande is long lyfe, and in her left hande riches and honour.
17 Her wayes are pleasaunt wayes, and all her pathes are peaceable.
18 She is a tree of lyfe to them that lay holde vpon her: and blessed is he that kepeth her fast. 19 With wisdome hath the Lorde layde the foundation of the earth, and through vnderstandyng hath he stablished the heauens. 20 Through his knowledge the deapthes are broken vp, and the cloudes droppe downe the deawe. 21 My sonne, let not these thynges depart from thyne eyes, but kepe wisdome and vnderstandyng:
22 So they shall be lyfe vnto thy soule, and grace vnto thy mouth.

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

1 Wisdome and her fruites ought to be searched. 14 The way of the wicked must be refused. 20 By the worde of god, the heart, eyes, and course of lyfe must be guided.

A HEare O ye children a fatherly instruction, and take good heede, that ye may learne vnderstandyng. 2 For I haue geuen you a good doctrine, forsake not ye my law. 3 For when I my selfe was my fathers deare sonne, and tenderly beloued of my mother: Deut.6.b 11.6, 32.g. 4 He taught me also and sayde vnto me, Let thyne heart receaue my wordes, kepe my commaundementes, and thou shalt lyue. 5 Get thee wisdome, and get thee vnderstandyng: forget not the wordes of my mouth, and thynke not from them. 6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserue thee, loue her, and she shall kepe thee. B 7 The cheefe poynt of wisdome, is to possesse wisdome: and before all thy goodes to get thee vnderstandyng. Deut.26.d. 8 Make much of her, and she shall promote thee, yea yf thou embrace her, she shall bryng thee vnto honour: 9 She shall beautifie thy head with manyfolde graces, and garnishe thee with a crowne of glorie. 10 Heare my sonne, and receaue my wordes, and the yeres of thy lyfe shalbe many.

11 I haue shewed thee the way of wisdome, and led thee into the ryght pathes. 12 So that yf thou goest in them, there shal no straytnesse hynder thee: and when thou runnest, thou shalt not fall. 13 Take fast holde of doctrine, and let her not go: kepe her, for she is thy lyfe. 14 Come not in the pathe of the vngodly, and walke not in the way of the wicked. C Psal. 1. a. and. 27. a.

15 Abhorre it, and go not therin, depart aside, and passe ouer by it.

16 For they sleepe not except they haue done mischefe: and sleepe is taken from them, vntyll they haue done harme. 17 For they eate the bread of wickednes, and drynke the wine of robberie. 18 The path of the ryghteous shineth, as the syght that is euer bryghter & bryghter vnto the perfect day. 19 But the way of the vngodly is as the darknes, they know not where they fall. 20 My sonne marke my wordes, and enclyne thyne eare vnto my sayinges: Deut.6.b. and.11.c. D 21 Let them not depart from thyne eyes, but kepe them euen in the middest of thyne heart: 22 For they are lyfe vnto those that fynde them, and health vnto all their bodyes. 23 Kepe thyne heart with all diligence, for out of it issueth lyfe. 24 Put away from thee a frowarde mouth, and let the lippes of slaunder be farre from thee.

25 Let thyne eyes behold that thyng that is ryght, and let thyne eye lyddes loke strayght before thee.

26 Ponder the path of thy feete, and let all thy wayes be ordered aryght.

27 Turne not aside neither to the ryght hande nor to the left: but withdraw thy foote from euyll. Deut. 5.b. and.27.D.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

3 Whordome forbidden, 9 and prodigalitie. 15 He wylleth a man to lyue on his labour, and to helpe others. 18 To loue his wife. 22 The wicked taken in their owne wickednesse.

MY sonne geue heede vnto my A wisdome, and bowe thyne eare vnto my "prudence: 2 That thou mayest regarde good counsell, and " or, knowledge.

and that thy lippes may kepe knowledge. 3 For the lippes of a straunge woman are a droppyng hony combe, and her throte is more glisteryng then oyle: 4 But at the last she is as bitter as wormewood, and as sharpe as a two edged sworde.

5 Her feete go downe vnto death, and her steppes pearce through vnto hell. 6 Perchaunce thou wylt ponder the path of her lyfe: so vnstedfast are her wayes that thou canst not knowe them. 7 Heare me nowe therfore O ye children, and depart not from the wordes of my mouth. 8 Kepe thy way farre from her, and come not nygh the doores of her house.

9 That thou geue not thy honour vnto other, and thy yeres to the cruel: 10 That other men be not fylled with thy vertues, and that thy labours come not in a straunge house.

11 Yea that thou mourne not at the last, when thou hast spent thy body and lustie youth, and then say, 12 Alas, why hated I nurture? why did my heart dispise correction?

13 Wherefore was I not obedient vnto the voyce of my teachers, and hearkened not vnto them that enstourmed me? 14 I was come almost into all misfortune, in the middest of the multitude and congregation.

15 (a) Drynke of the water of thyne owne well, and of the riuers that runne out of thyne owne spryng.

16 Let thy welles flowe out abrode, that there may be riuers of waters in the streetes: 17 But let them be only thyne owne, and not straungers with thee. 18 Let thy well be blessed, and be glad with the wyfe of thy youth. 19 Let her be as the louyng Hinde and pleasaunt Roe: let her breastes alway satisfie thee, and holde thee euer content with her loue.

20 Why wylt thou my sonne haue pleasure in a straunge woman, and embrace the bosome of a straunger?

21 For euery mans wayes are open in the syght of the Lorde, and he pondereth all their goynges. 22 The wickednesse of the vngodlye shall catche him selfe, and with the snares of his owne sinne shall he be trapped.

23 He shall dye without * amendement, and for his great foolishnesse he shall go astray.

1 Instruction for sureties. 6 The slouthfull and sluggishe is stirred to worke. 12 He discribeth the nature of the wicked. 16 The thynges that god hateth. 20 To obserue the worde of god. 24 To flee adulterie.

My sonne yf thou be surette for thy neyghbour, and hast fastened thyne hande for another man: 2 Thou art * bounde with thyne owne wordes, and taken with thyne owne speache. 3 Therefore my sonne do this, and thou shalt be discharged: When thou art come into thy neyghbours daunger, go thy wayes then soone, humble thy selfe, and with thy freendes intreate (thy * creditour.) 4 Let not thyne eyes sleepe, nor thyne eye lydde slumber. 5 Saue thy selfe as a Roe from the hande of the (hunter) and as a birde from the hande of the fouler. 6 Go to the emmet thou sluggarde, consyder her wayes, and learne to be wyse: 7 She hath no guide, nor ouerseer, nor ruler, 8 Yet in the sommer she prouideth her meate, and gathereth her foode together in the haruest.

9 Howe long wylt thou sleepe thou sluggishe man? When wylt thou aryse out of thy sleepe? 10 Yea sleepe on styll a litle, slumber a litle, folde thyne handes together yet a litle that thou mayest sleepe: 11 So shall pouertie come vnto thee as one that trauayleth by the way, and necessitie lyke a weaponed man. 12 An vngodly person, a wicked man, goeth with a frowarde mouth. 13 He winketh with his eyes, he tokeneth with his feete, he teacheth with his fyngers.

14 He is euer imaginyng mischeefe and frowardnesse in his heart, and causeth discorde. 15 Therfore shall his destruction come hastyly vpon him, sodaynly shall he be all to broken, and not be healed. 16 These sixe thynges doth the Lorde hate, and the seuenth he vtterly abhorreth:

17 A proude loke, a lying tongue, handes that shed innocent blood,

18 An heart that goeth about wicked imaginations, feete that be swyft in runnyng to mischeefe, 19 A false witnesse that bryngeth vp lyes, and him that soweth discorde among brethren. 20 My sonne, kepe thy fathers commaundement, and forsake not

22 That shall leade thee when thou goest, preserue thee when thou art a sleepe, and when thou awakest talke with thee. 23 For the commaundement is a lanterne, and the lawe a lyght: yea chastenyng and nurture is the way of lyfe: 24 That they may kepe thee from the euyll woman, and from the flatterynge tongue of the straunge woman. 25 Lust not after her beautie in thyne heart, lest thou be taken with her fayre lokes.

27 May a man take fyre in his bosome, and his clothes not be brent?

32 But who so committeth aduulterie with a woman, lacketh vnderstandyng: and he that doth it, destroyeth his owne soule. 33 He getteth him selfe a plague and dishonour, and his reproche shall neuer be put out:

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

1 An exhortation to wisdome, and to the worde of god, 5 Which wyll preserue vs from the harlot, 6 Whose maners are discribed.

A My sonne kepe my wordes, and lay vp my commaundementes by thee. 2 Kepe my commaundementes and my lawe, euen as the apple of thyne eye, and thou shalt lyue. 3 Bynde them vppon thy fyngers, and write them in the table of thyne heart. 4 Say vnto wisdome, Thou art my sister: and call vnderstandyng thy kinswoman:

Deut. 6. b and 11. a.

5 That they may kepe thee from the straunge woman, and from the forrayne woman, which geueth sweete wordes. 6 For at the windowe of my house I loked through the windowe, 7 And beholde among the simple people and among the children a young man voyde of wyt,

8 Goyng ouer the streete by the corner in the way towarde her house

9 In the twylyght of the euenyng, when it began nowe to be nyght and darke: 10 And beholde there met him a woman with open tokens of an harlot, only her heart was hyd:

11 She was full of loude wordes and redy to dally, whose feete could not abyde in the house: 12 Nowe is she without, nowe in the streetes, and lyeth in wayte at euery corner.

13 She caught him, and kissed him, and was not ashamed, saying.

14 I had a vowe of peace offerynges to pay, and this day I perfourme it:

15 Therfore came I forth to meete thee, that I myght seke thy face, and so haue I founde thee. 16 I haue decked my bed with couerynges of tapestarie, and clothes of Egypt.

17 My bed haue I made to smell of Myrre, Aloes, and Cinamon.

18 Come, let vs take our fyll of loue vntyll the morrowe, and let vs solace our selues with the pleasures of loue.

19 For the good man is not at home, he is gone farre of. 20 He hath taken the bagge of money with him, and wyll returne at the appoynted solempne feast. 21 Thus with many sweete wordes she ouercame him, and with her flatteryng lippes she entised him. 22 Sodaynly he folowed her, as it were an oxe led to the slaughter, and lyke as it were a foole (that laugheth) when he goeth to the stockes to be punished, 23 So long, tyll she had wounded his liuer with her dart: lyke as yf a birde hasted to the snare, not knowyng that the peryll of his lyfe lyeth therupon.

24 Heare me nowe therfore O my chylde, and marke the wordes of my mouth: 25 Let not thyne heart wander in her wayes, and be not thou deceaued in her pathes. 26 For many one hath she wounded and cast downe, yea many a strong man hath ben slayne by the meanes of her.

1 Wisdome declareth her excellencie.
11 Riches. 15 Power. 22 Eternitie.
32 She exhorteth all to loue and folowe her.

A Doth not wisdome crie? doth not vnderstandyng put foorth her voyce? 2 She standeth in the top of hygh places, by the way in the place of the pathes: 3 She cryeth at the gates of the cittie, at the entrye of the doores: 4 Vnto you O ye men (saith she) whom I call, vnto the children of men do I lyft vp my voyce.

5 Take heede vnto knowledge O ye ignorannt, be ye wyse in heart O ye fooles. 6 Geue eare, for I will speake of great matters, and open my lippes to tell thynges that be ryght:

B 7 For my mouth shall be talkyng of the trueth, and my lippes abhorre vngodlynesse. 8 All the wordes of my mouth are ryghteous, there is no frowardnesse nor falshood in them.

9 They are all playne to such as wyll vnderstande, and ryght to them that fynde knowledge. 10 Receaue my doctrine and not syluer, and knowledge rather then fine golde: 11 For wisdome is more worth then pretious stones, yea all thynges that thou canst desire may not be compared vnto it. 12 I wisdome dwel with counsell, and fynde out knowledge and vnderstandyng. 13 The feare of the Lorde abhorreth wickednes, pryde, disdayne, and the euyll way, and a mouth that speaketh wicked things C I vtterly abhorre. 14 Counsell is mine, and direction, I am vnderstandyng, and I haue strength.

15 Through me kinges raigne, and princes make iust lawes. 16 By me princes beare rule, and noble men do iudge the earth. 17 I am louyng vnto those that lone me: and they that seke me early, shall fynde me.

18 Riches and honour are with me, yea durable riches and ryghteousnes. 19 My fruite is better then golde and precious stones, and myne encrease more worth then fine syluer.

20 I will guide thee in the way of ryghteousnes, and in the middest of D the pathes of iudgement: 21 That I may stablishe the inheritaunce of them that lone me, and encrease their treasure. 22 The Lorde him selfe had me in possession in the begynnyng of his wayes, or euer he began his workes aforetyme. 23 I haue ben ordayned from euerlastyng, and from the begynnyng or euer the earth was made. 24 When I was borne there were neither deapthes nor springes of water. 25 Before the foundations of the mountaynes were layde, yea before all hylles was I borne: 26 The earth, and all that is vpon the earth was not yet made, no not the dust it selfe.

27 For when he made the heauens, I was present, when he compassed the deapthes about: 28 When he E hanged the cloudes aboue, when he fastened the springes of the deepe:

29 When he shut the sea within certaine boundes, that the waters should not go ouer their markes that he commaunded: when he layde the foundations of the earth, 30 I was with him " ordryng all thynges, delyte ryng dayly and reioysyng alway before him. 31 As for the rounde compasse of this worlde I make it ioyful: for my delyte is to be among the children of men. 32 Therfore hearken vnto me: O ye children, blessed are they that kepe my wayes. 33 O geue eare vnto nurture, be wyse, and refuse it not: 34 Blessed is the man that heareth me, watchyng dayly at my gates, and geuyng attendaunce at the postes of my doores. 34 For who so fyndeth me, fyndeth lyfe, and shall obtayne fauour of the Lorde. 35 But who so offendeth agaynst me, hurteth his owne soule: and they that hate me, are the louers of death.

¶ The .x. Chapter.

¶ In this chapter and all that folowe vnto the thirtieth, the wise man exhorteth by diuers sentences, which he calleth parables, to folowe vertue and flee vice, and sheweth also what profite commeth of wisdome, and what hynderaunce proceedeth of foolishnesse.

8 The Lorde abhorreth the sacrifice of the vngodly: but the prayer of the righteous is acceptable vnto him. 9 The way of the vngodly is an abhomination vnto the Lorde: but who so followeth righteousnesse, him he loueth. 10 Correction is greeuous vnto him that forsaketh the way: and who so hateth correction shall dye. 11 Hell and destruction "are before the Lorde: howe much more then the hearres of the chyldren of men? 12 A scornefull body loueth not one that rebuketh him: neither will he come vnto the wyse. 13 A merry heart maketh a chearefull countenance: but by the sorowe of the heart the minde is vexed. 14 The heart of him that hath vnderstandyng, seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fooles is fed with foolishnesse. 15 All the dayes of the poore are "miserable: but a "quiet heart is a continuall feast. 16 Better is a litle with the feare of the Lord: then great treasure and trouble therewith. 17 Better is a supper of herbes where loue is: then a fat oxe with enyll will. 18 An angry man stirreth vp strife: but he that is patient "stilleth discorde. 19 The way of the slothfull man is as an hedge of thornes: but the way of the righteous is playne. 20 A wyse sonne maketh a glad father: but a foolishe man dispiseth his mother. 21 Foolishnesse is ioy to him that is destitute of knowledge: but a man of vnderstandyng walketh vpryghtly. 22 Thoughtes without counsayle shall come to naught: but where as men are that can geue good counsayle, there is stedfastnesse. 23 A ioyfull thing it is to a man when his counsayle is followed: and how good is a worde spoken in season? 24 The way of lyfe "is on high to the wise, that a man should beware of hell beneath. 25 The Lorde will breake downe the house of the proude: but he shall make fast the borders of the widowe. 26 The Lorde abhorreth the imaginations of the wicked: but the wordes of the pure are pleasaunt. 27 The greedy couetous man troubleth his owne houle: but who so hateth rewardes shall lyue. 28 The heart of the righteous studyeth how answere: but the wicked mans mouth spueth out mischiefe. 29 The Lord is farre from the vngodly: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous. 30 The clearenes of the eye (a) reioyseth the heart: and a good name feedeth the bones. 31 The eare that hearkeneth to the reproufe of lyfe, shall dwell among the wyse. 32 He that refuseth to be reformed, dispiseth his owne soule: but he that submitteth him selfe to correction, is wyse. 33 The feare of the Lorde is the right science of wysdome: and lowlynesse goeth before honour.

The xvi. Chapter.

A Man may well purpose a thyng in his heart: but the answere of the tongue commeth of the Lorde. 2 A man thynketh all his wayes to be cleane: but it is the Lord that "iudgeth the myndes. 3 Commit thy workes vnto the Lorde: and what thou deuisest it shall prosper. 4 The Lorde hath made all thynges for his owne sake: yea the vngodly for the day of wrath. 5 The Lorde abhorreth all suche as be of a proude heart: and though hande be ioyned to hande, yet they shall not be vnpunished. 6 With mercie and faythfulnesse sinnes be forgeuen: and by the feare of the Lorde euyll is eschewed. 7 When a mans wayes please the Lorde, he maketh his very enemies to be his frendes. 8 Better it is to haue a litle with righteousnesse, then great rentes wrongfully gotten. 9 A man deuiseth away in his heart: but it is the Lorde that directeth his goynges. 10 When the prophecie is in the lippes of the kyng, his mouth shall not go wrong in iudge-

21 Who so is wyse in heart, shalbe called prudent: and the sweetenesse of his lippes encreaseth learnyng.

22 Vnderstandyng is a well of lyfe vnto him that hath it: as for the chastening of fooles it is but foolishnes.

23 A wyse heart ordereth his mouth wysely, and maketh learnyng vnto his lippes. 24 Fayre wordes are as hony combs, a refreshyng of the mynde, and health of the bones.

25 There is a way that men thinke to be right: but the ende therof leadeth vnto death. 26 A troublous soule pulleth her selfe, for her awne mouth hath brought her thereto.

27 An vngodly person stirreth vp euyll, and in his lippes he is an hotte burnyng fyre. 28 A frowarde body causeth bryfe: and he that is a blabbe of his tongue maketh diuision among princes. 29 A wicked man begyleth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good:

30 He winketh his eyes to deuise mischiefe, and mouyth his lippes to bryng euyll to passe. 31 Age is a crowne of worshyp, yf it be founde in the way of rygh teousnesse. 32 A patient man is better then one strong: and he that can rule him selfe, is more worth then he that winneth a cite.

33 The lottes are cast into the lappe: but the ordeyning thereof standeth all in the Lorde.

The .xvii. Chapter.

BEtter is a drye morsell with quietnesse, then a house full of fat offeryng with strife. 2 A discrete seruaunt shall haue rule ouer a lewde sonne, and * shall haue heritage with the brethren. 3 As syluer is tryed in the fyre, and golde in the furnace: so doth the Lorde proue the heartes. 4 A wicked body geueth heede to false lippes, and a lyer geueth eare to a deceiptfull tongue. 5 Who so scorneth the poore: blasphemeth his maker: and he that is glad at (another mans) hurt, shall not be vnpunished.

6 Chyldren, chyldren are a crowne of the aged, and the fathers are the honour of the children. 7 Speache of auctoryte becommeth not a foole: much lesse a lying mouth then beseemeth a prince. 8 A gyft is as a precious stone vnto him that hath it: but vnto whom soeuer it (a) turneth, it maketh him wyse. 9 Who so couereth a fault, procureth loue: but as many as diuideth it, diuideth dere friendes. 10 One reprooffe more leaueth a wyse man, then an hundred stripes doth a foole. 11 A seditious person seeketh mischiefe, and a cruell messenger shalbe sent against him.

12 Be were better to meete a beare robbed of her whelpes, then a foole (trusting) in his foolishnesse.

13 Who so rewardeth euyll for good, euill shall not depart from his house.

14 The begynnyng of stryfe is as when a man maketh an issue for water: therefore leaue of before the contention be medled with. 15 The Lorde hateth as well him that iustifieth the vngodly: as him that condemneth the innocent. 16 Wherto hath a foole treasure in his hande to bye wysdome, seeyng he hath no mynde thereto? 17 He is a friende that alway loueth, and in aduersitie a man shall knowe who is his brother.

18 Who so promyseth by the hande and is suretie for his neighbour, he is a foole. 19 He that delighteth in stryfe, loueth strife: and who so letteth his dooze to hye, seeketh destruction.

20 Who so hath a frowarde heart, obteyneth no good: and he that hath a double tongue, shal fal into mischiefe.

The .xviii. Chapter.

WHo so hath an earnest desyre (to wysdome) he wyll sequester hym selfe to seeke it, and occupie him selfe in all stedfastnesse and sounde doctrine. 2 A foole hath no delyte in vnderstandyng: but only to vtter the fancies of his owne heart.

3 When the vngodly commeth, then commeth also disdayne: and with the dishonest person commeth shame and dishonour. 4 The wordes of a (wise) mans mouth, are lyke deepe waters: and the well of wysdome is lyke a full streame. 5 It is not good to regard the person of the vngodly, to ouerthrowe the righteous in iudgement.

6 A fooles lippes come with brawlyng, and his mouth prouoketh vnto stripes. 7 A fooles mouth is his owne destruction, and his lippes are the snare for his owne soule. 8 The wordes "of a slaunderer are very woundes, and go through vnto the vtmost parres of the body. 9 Who so is slouthfull in his labour, is the brother of him that is a waster.

10 The name of the Lorde is a strong castell, the righteous runneth vnto it, and is in safegarde. 11 The riche mans goodes are his strong citie, and as an high wall in his owne conceyte.

12 Before destruction the heart of a man is proude: and before honour goeth humilitie. 13 He that geueth sentence in a matter before he heare it, the same to him is folly & shame.

14 A good stomacke beareth out sickenesse: but the mynde beyng sicke who shall beare it? 15 A wyse heart possesseth knowledge, and a prudent eare seeketh vnderstandyng. 16 A mans gyft maketh an open way to bryng him before great men. 17 The righteous beclareth his owne cause first him selfe, and his neighbour cometh and tryeth him. 18 The lot causeth variaunce to ceasse: and parteth the mightie a sunder. 19 Wyth ren beyng at variaunce are harder to be wonne then a strong citie, and theyr contentions are like the barre of a castle. 20 A mans belly shalbe satisfied with the fruite of his owne mouth, and with the encrease of his lippes shall he be fylled. 21 Death and lyfe are in the "instrument of the tongue: and they that loue it, shall eate the fruite thereof. 22 Who so fyndeth a wyfe, fyndeth a good thyng: and receyueth fauour of the Lorde.

23 The poore prayeth meekely: but the ryche geueth a rough answere.

24 A man that wyll haue frendes, must shewe him selfe freendly: and there is a freende whiche is nearer then a brother.

The .xix. Chapter.

BEtter is the poore that liueth godly, then he that vseth vayne lyps, and is a foole. 2 The desire without discretion is not good: & (as) a man whiche hasteth with his feete offendeth. 3 The foolishnesse of man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against the Lorde.

4 Riches maketh many freendes: but the poore is separated from his neighbour. 5 A false witnesse shall not be vnpunished: and he that speaketh lyes shall not escape. 6 The multitude flattereth vpon great men: and euery man fauoureth him that geueth rewardes. 7 All the brethren of the poore do hate him, yea his owne freendes withdrawe them selues from him: and he that geueth credence to wordes getteth nothyng.

The .xxiii. Chapter.

When thou sittest to eate with a noble man, consyder diligently wh at is set before thee. 2 Measure thyne appetite yf it be greedyly set. 3 Be not desirous of his daintie meates, for meate beggeleth and deceaueth. 4 Take not ouer great trauayle to be riche, beware of such a purpose. 5 Wylt thou set thyne eyes vppon the thing whiche * sodenly vanisheth away? For (ryches) make them selues wynges, and flye an Egle, and flieth into the ayre. 6 Eate thou not the bread of him that hath an (a) euill eye: neyther desyre thou his daintie meate. 7 For as though he thought it in his heart, he sayth, eate and drynke: where as his heart is not with thee. 8 The morsels that thou hast eaten shalt thou parbreake, and loose those sweete wordes. 9 Tell nothing into the eares of a foole: for he wyll despise the wysdome of thy wordes. 10 Remoue not the olde lande marke, and come not within the feelde of the fatherlesse. 11 For their redeemer is mightie, euen he shall defende their cause agaynst thee. 12 Applye thyne heart vnto correction, and thyne eares to the words of knowledge. 13 Withholde not correction from the chylde: for yf thou beatest him with the rodde, he shall not dye therof: 14 If thou smyte him with the rodde, thou shalt deliuer his soule from (b) hell. 15 My sonne yf thyne heart receaue wysdome, my heart also shall reioyce: 16 Yea my raynes shalbe very glad, yf thy lippes speake the thing that is ryght. 17 Let not thyne heart be ielous to folowe sinners, but keepe thee styll in the feare of the Lorde all the day long: 18 For verily there is an * ende, and thy patient abidyng shall not be cut

10 The myghtie that fourmed all thynges, rewardeth the fooles and transgressours. 11 Lyke as the dogge turneth agayne to his owne vomite: euen so a foole begynneth his foolishnesse agayne afreshe.

12 If thou seest a man that is wise in his owne conceipt: there is more hope in a foole then in him.

13 The slouthfull saith, There is a lion in the way, and a lion in the middest of the streetes. 14 Lyke as the doore turneth about vpon the hinges: euen so doth the slouthfull walter him selfe in his bed. 15 The slouthfull body "thrusteth his hande into his bosome, and it greeueth him to put it agayne to his mouth. 16 The sluggarde thynketh him selfe wyser then seuen men "that sit and teache.

17 Who so goeth by and medleth with other mens strife: he is lyke one that taketh a dogge by the eares.

18 As he that fayneth him selfe mad, casteth firebrandes, deadly arrowes and dartes: 19 So doth a dissembler with his neyghbour, and saith, Am not I in sporte? 20 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: euen so where the talebearer is taken away, there the strife ceaseth.

21 As coles kindle heate, and wood the fire: euen so doth "a brawlyng felowe stirre vp variaunce. 22 A talebearers wordes are lyke "men that strike with hammers, and they pearse the inward partes of the body.

23 Burnyng lippes and a wicked heart, are lyke a potsharde couered with sluer drosse. 24 An enemie wyll dissemble with his lippes, and layeth vp deceipt in his heart.

25 But when he speaketh fayre, beleue him not: for there are "seuen abhominations in his heart.

26 Hatred may be couered by deceipt: but the malice thereof shalbe shewed before the whole congregation. 27 Who so diggeth vp a pit, shall fall therin: and he that rolleth vp a stone, it wyll returne vpon him.

27 A lying tongue hateth the afflicted: and a flatteryng mouth worketh mischeefe.

¶ The.xxvii. Chapter.

MAke not thy boast of to morow: for thou knowest not what a day may bryng foorth. 2 Let another man prayse thee, & not thyne owne mouth, yea other folkes, and not thyne owne lippes. 3 The stone is heauie, and the sande waighty: but a fooles wrath is heauier then them both. 4 Wrath is a cruel thyng, and furiousnesse is a very tempest: but who is able to abyde enuie? 5 Open rebuke is better then secrete loue.

C 14 There is a generation whose teeth are as swordes, and their chawes as knyues to deuour the poore from of the earth, and the needy from among men. 15 The horse leache hath two daughters crying, Bring hyther, bring hyther. There be three thynges that are neuer satisfied, yea foure thynges saith neuer hoe: 16 The graue, the barren wombe, & the earth that hath neuer water inough: as for fire it saith neuer hoe. 17 Who so laugheth his father to scorne, and setteth his mothers commaundement at naught, the rauens of " the valley picke out his eyes, and deuoured be he of the young Egles. 18 There be three thynges which are wonderfull to me, yea fowre which passe my vnderstandyng: 19 The way of an Egle in the ayre, the way of a serpent vpo a stone, the way of a ship in ỹ midst of the sea, & the way of a man with a yonng woman: 20 Such is the way also of a wyfe that breaketh wedlocke, which wypeth her mouth (lyke as) when she hath eaten, and saith, as for me I haue done no wickednesse. 21 For three thynges the earth is disquieted, and the fourth may it not abyde: 22 A seruaunt that beareth rule, a foole that is full fed, 23 A spiteful woman when she is maryed, and an handmayde that is heire to her maistresse.
24 There be foure thynges in the earth the which are very little, but in wisdome they exceede the wyse:
25 The emmets are(but)a weake people, which yet gather their meate in the sommer: 26 The conies are but a feeble folke, yet make their " boroughes among the rockes: 27 The grashoppers haue not a " guide, yet go they forth together by heapes:
28 The spyder laboureth with her handes, and is in kinges palaces.
29 There be three thynges that go well, yea foure are comely in goyng.
30 A lion which is strongest among beastes, and shunneth not at the syght of any: 31 A grayhounde strong in the hyndet partes, a ramme also, and a king agaynst whom no man ariseth vp. 32 If thou hast done foolishly when thou wast in hye estate, or yf thou hast taken euyll counsell, then lay thyne hande vpon thy mouth.
33 Who so chirneth mylke bringeth forth butter, and he that rubbeth his nose, maketh it bleede: euen so he that forceth wrath, bringeth forth strife.

2 He exhorteth to chastitie and iustice, 10 and sheweth the conditions of a vvise and vvorthy woman.

1 THE vvordes of king (a) Lamuel, and the lesson that his mother raught him.
What my sonne? what the sonne of my body? and what O my deare beloued sonne? 3 Geue not ouer thy strength and wayes vnto women, which are the destruction euen of kinges. 4 O Lamuel, it is not for kinges, it is not (I say) for kinges to drynke wine, nor princes strong drynke. 5 Lest they by drynking forget the " lawe, and peruert the iudgement of all " poore mens children. 6 Geue strong drynke vnto such as are redy to perishe, & wine vnto those that mourne: 7 That they may drynke it, and forget their miserie and aduersitie. 8 Be thou an aduocate for the dumbe, (to speake) in the cause of all such as be succourlesse in this transitorie worlde.
9 Open thy mouth, defende the thyng that is lawfull and ryght, and the cause of the poore and helpelesse.

The ende of the prouerbes of Solomon.

The booke of the preacher, otherwise called Ecclesiastes, which is Solomon the king.

¶ For Solomon is called in scripture by three sundry names. The one, Solomon, that is, the maker of peace. The seconde Idida, that is, beloued of God. The thirde Ecclesiastes, that is a preacher, teachyng that true and eternal felicitie consisteth not in any worldly wisdome or aboundaunce of riches, or in carnall pleasure, which all be but vayne and transitorie: but he proueth that true felicitie consisteth in a whole ioynyng our selues to God by pure religion, that is, with a sincere faith and the feare of god obseruyng his commaundementes.

¶ The first Chapter.

1 All thinges in this worlde are full of vanitie and of none indurraunce. 13 All mens wisdome is but follie and greefe.

THE wordes of the preacher the sonne of Dauid king of Hierusalem.

2 (a) All is but most vayne vanitie saith the preacher, and all is most vayne (I say) and but playne vanitie.

3 For what els hath a man of all the labour that he taketh vnder the sunne? 4 One generation passeth away, another commeth: but the earth abydeth styll. 5 The sunne ariseth, the sunne goeth downe, and returneth to his place, that he may there rise vp agayne. 6 The wynde goeth toward the south and turneth vnto the north, fetcheth his compasse, whirleth about, and goeth forth, and returneth agayne to his circuites from whence he dyd come. 7 All floods runne into the sea, and yet is the sea it selfe not fylled: for loke vnto what place the waters runne, thence they come to flowe agayne. 8 All thynges are so harde to be knowen, that no man can expresse them: the eye is not satisfied with syght, the eare is not fylled with hearyng. 9 The thing that hath ben, commeth to passe agayne, and the thyng that hath ben done, shalbe done agayne: there is no newe thyng vnder the sunne. 10 Is there any thyng whereof it may be sayde, Lo this is newe? for it was long ago in the tymes that haue ben before vs. 11 The thyng that is past is out of remembraunce: euen so the thynges that are for to come, shall no more be thought vpon among them that come after.

12 I my selfe the preacher was king of Israel at Hierusalem, 13 And dyd & applie my minde to seke out & searche (b) Man is not able of his owne power to reforme that selues therin.) 14 Thus haue I consydered all these thynges that come to passe vnder the sunne: and lo, they are al but vanitie & vexation of minde. 15 (b) The croked can not be made straight, nor the imperfection of thinges can be numbred. 16 I communed with myne owne heart, saying, Lo I am come to great estate, and haue gotten more wisdome then all they that haue ben before me in Hierusalem. 17 Yea my heart had great experience of

of sinne, nor to know from sinne, to rise vp without the grace of god.

He proueth by foure reasons, that true felicitie consisteth not in any worldly pleasure.

(a) 1 There is no long contentation in any case or pleasure in this life.

(b) 2 The mother of vayne pleasure & much laughter, is foolishnesse.

(c) 3 He that appeeth him selfe to the study of godlie wisdome, maye not haue to much pleasure in drinkyng of wine.

(d) 4 The more plentie of gorgious building, apparel, riches, or worldly pleasure, the more vexatiō of minde and all are but vanitie in comparison of godlye felicitie, as Solomon affirmeth of his owne experience.

dome and knowledge: for therbnto I applied my mynde, that I myght knowe what were wisdome and vnderstandyng, what were errour and foolishnesse: And I perceaued that this was also but a vexation of mind. 18 For where much wisdome is, there is also great trauayle and disquietnesse: and the more knowledge a man hath, the more is his care.

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

1 Pleasures, sumptuous buildynges, riches, and possessions are but vanitie. 14 The wise and the foole haue both one ende touchyng the bodyly death.

Then sayde I thus in my heart, Nowe go to, (a) I wyll take myne ease, and haue good dayes: but lo that is vanitie also. 2 Insomuch that (b) I sayde vnto the man geuen to laughter, Thou art mad: and to mirth, Why doest thou? 3 (c) So I thought in my heart to geue my flesshe vnto wine, and agayne to applie my mynde vnto wisdome, and to compedende foolishnesse: vntyll the tyme that among all the thinges which are vnder the sunne, I myght see what were best for men to do so long as they lyue vnder heauen. 4 (d) I made gorgious faire workes: I builded my houses, and planted vineyardes.

5 I made me orchardes and gardens of pleasure, planted trees in them of al maner of fruites. 6 I made pooles of water, to water the greene & fruitfull trees withall. 7 I bought seruauntes and maydens, and had a great housholde: as for cattell and cheepe I had more substaunce of them then all they that were before me in Hierusalem. 8 I gathered together siluer and golde, and the cheefe treasures of kinges and landes: I haue prouided me men singers and women singers, and the delites of the sonnes of men, as a woman taken captiue, and women taken captiues. 9 And I was greater and in more worship then all my predecessours in Hierusalem: for wisdome remayned with me.

10 And lohe whatsoeuer myne eyes desired, I let them haue it: and wherin soeuer my heart delited or had any pleasure, I withholde it not from it: Thus my heart reioyced in all that I dyd, and this was my portion of all my trauayle. 11 But when I considered all the workes that my handes had wrought, and all the labour that I had taken therein: lo all was but vanitie and vexation of mynde, and nothing of any value vnder the sunne.

12 (e) Then turned I me to consyder wisdome, errour, and foolishnesse (for what is he among men that myght be compared to me the king in such workes?) 13 And I sawe that wisdome excelleth foolishnesse, as farre as lyght doth darknesse. 14 For a wise man hath his eyes in his head, but the foole goeth in darknesse: I perceaued also that they both (f) had one ende. 15 Then thought I in my mynde, yf it happen vnto the foole as it doth vnto me, what needeth me then to labour any more for wisdome? So I confessed within my heart that this also was but vanitie.

16 For the wise are euer as litle in remembraunce as the foolishe: for the dayes shall come (g) when all shalbe forgotten: yea the wise man dyeth as well as the foole. 17 Thus began I to be weery of my lyfe, insomuch that I coulde away with nothyng that is done vnder the sunne: for all was but vanitie and vexation of mynde.

18 (h) Yea I was weery of my labour which I had taken vnder the sunne, because I shoulde be fayne to leaue them vnto another man that commeth after me: 19 (i) And who knoweth whether he shalbe a wise man or a foole? and yet shall he be lorde of all my labours which I with such wisdome haue taken vnder the sunne: This is also a vayne thyng. 20 So I turned me to refrayne my mynde from all such trauayle as I take vnder the sunne. 21 For asmuch as a man shoulde weery him selfe with wisdome, with vnderstandyng and opportunitie, and yet be fayne to leaue his labours vnto another that neuer sweat for them: This is also a vayne thyng, and great misery. 22 For what getteth a man of all the labour and trauayle of his mynde that he taketh vnder the sunne? 23 But heauinesse, sorowe, and disquietnesse all the dayes of his life: insomuch that his heart can not rest in the nyght: This is also a vayne thyng. 24 Is it not better then for a man to eate and drynke, and his soule to be merry in his labour? yea I sawe that this also was a gyft of God. 25 For who wyll eate or go more lustyly to his worke then I? 26 And why? God geueth to the man that is good before him, wisdome, vnderstandyng, and

(h) That he might seke the true felicitie which is in God. (i) He rebuketh me that makeh care full prouision for to encreche their heires by vnlawfull meanes to their owne dampnation, not knowyng who or what they shalbe, either good or cuyll.

glad,

gladnesse: but vnto the sinner he geueth weerinesse, that he may gather and heape together the thyng that afterwarde shalbe geuen vnto him whom it pleaseth God: This is nowe a vayne thyng, yea a very disquietnesse and vexation of mynde.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

1 All thynges haue their tyme. 14 The workes of god are perfect, and cause vs to feare him. 17 God shal iudge both the iust and vniust.

1 EVery (a) thyng hath a tyme, yea all that is vnder the heauen hath his conuenient season. 2 There is a tyme to be borne, and a tyme to dye: there is a tyme to plant, and a tyme to pluche vp the thyng that is planted. 3 A tyme to slay, and a tyme to make whole: a tyme to breake downe, and a tyme to builde vp. 4 A tyme to wepe, and a tyme to laugh: a tyme to mourne, & a time to daunce. 5 A time to cast away stones, and a tyme to gather stones together: a tyme to imbrace, and a tyme to refrayne from imbracyng. 6 A tyme to wynne, and a tyme to lose: a tyme to spare, and a tyme to spende. 7 A tyme to cut in peeces, and a tyme to sowe together: a tyme to kepe scilence, and a tyme to speake. 8 A tyme to loue, and a tyme to hate: a tyme of warre, and a tyme of peace. 9 What hath a man els that doth any thyng, but weerinesse and labour? 10 (b) For as touchyng the trauayle and carefulnesse which God hath genen vnto men, I see that he hath geuen it them to be exercised in it. 11 All thynges hath he made beautifull in their tyme, yea further then this he hath planted the worlde in their heartes, that man may not comprehende the worke that God maketh from the begynnyng to the ende. 12 So I perceaued that in those thynges there is nothyng better for a man then to be merry, and to do well as long as he liueth.

13 For all that a man eateth & drinketh, yea what soeuer a man enioyeth of all his labour: that same is a gyft of God. 14 I considered also that whatsoeuer god doth, it tormineth for euer: and that nothyng can be put vnto it, nor taken from it, and that God doth it to the intent that men should feare him. 15 The thyng that hath ben, is nowe: and the thyng that is for to come, hath ben afore tyme; for God restoreth agayne the thyng that was past. 16 Moreouer, I sawe vnder the sunne vngodlines in the steade of iudgement, and iniquitie in steade of righteousnesse. 17 Then thought I in my mynde, God shall separate the righteous from the vngodly: and then shalbe the tyme and iudgement of all counselles and workes. 18 I communed with myne owne heart also concernyng the children of men, howe God hath chosen them, and yet letteth them appeare as though they were beastes. 19 (c) For it happeneth vnto men as it doth vnto beastes, euen one condition vnto them both: as the one dyeth, so dyeth the other, yea they haue both one maner of breath; so that in this a man hath no preeminence aboue a beast, but are all subdued vnto vanitie. 20 They go all vnto one place: for as they be all of dust, so shall they all turne vnto dust agayne. 21 (d) Who knoweth the spirite of man that goeth vpwarde, and the breath of the beast that goeth downe to the earth? 22 Wherefore I perceaue that there is nothyng better for a man then to be ioyfull in his labour, for that is his portion: But who wyll bryng him to see the thyng that shall come after him?

(a) Although true felicitie is not to be put in any worldlye thyng: yet god hath appointed all necessarie thinges to be done in due tyme, order, and measure.

(b) God hath appointed that euery man should diligentlye trauayle and take paynes in his vocation, to the ende he wolde haue him humble and feare god.

(c) There is no differēce betwixt a man and a beast as touchyng the body, which of them both dyeth: but the soule of man lyueth immortally, and the body of man riseth vp agayne by the mightie power of the spirite of god.

(d) The immortalitie of the soule is not knowen by carnall reason or sense: but by the worde & spirite of god.

¶ The.iiii. Chapter.

1 The innocent are oppressed. 4 Mens labours are full of abuse and vanitie. 9 Mans societie is necessarie. 17 A young man poore and wise, is to be preferred before an olde king that is a foole.

SO I turned me, and considered all the violent wrong that is vnder the sunne: and beholde the teares of such as were oppressed, and there was no man to comfort them, or that would deliuer and defende them from the violence of their oppressours. 2 Wherefore I (a) iudged those that are dead, to be more happye then those that be alyue: 3 (a) yea him that is yet vnborne, to be better at ease then they both: because he seeth not the miserable workes that are done vnder the sun. 4 (b) Agayne, I sawe that all trauayle and diligence of labour that euery man taketh in hande was done of enuie

(a) Or, prayed.

(a) He speaketh here according to the iudgemēt of the flesh, which can not well abyde persecution and trouble.

(b) The more perfect that the worke is, the more it is enuied of the wicked.

ennie agaynst his neyghbour: this is also a bayne thyng, and a vexation of mynde. 5 (c) The foole folderth his handes together, and eateth vp his owne flesshe. 6 One handfull (saith he) is better with rest, then both the handes full with labour & trauayle of mynde. 7 Moreouer I turned me, and beholde yet another vanitie vnder the sunne: 8 There is one man, no mo but him selfe alone, hauyng neither childe nor brother, yet is there no ende of his carefull trauayle, his eyes can not be satisfied with riches: (yet saith he not) for whom do I take such trauayle? for whose pleasure do I thus consume away my lyfe? This is also a bayne, and miserable thyng.

9 (d) Therefore two are better then one, for they may well enioy the profite of their labour: for yf one of them fall, his companion helpeth him vp agayne. 10 But wo is him that is alone: for yf he fall, he hath not another to helpe him vp.

11 Agayne when two sleepe together they are warme: but howe can a body be warme alone? 12 One may be ouercome, but two may make resistaunce: a thres folde gable is not lyghtly broken. 13 A poore childe beyng wise, is better then an old king that doteth, and can not beware in tyme to come. 14 Some one commeth out of prison, and is made a king: and another which is borne in the kingdome cometh vnto powertie.

15 And I perceaued that all men lyuyng vnder the sunne (e) go with the seconde childe that shall stande vp in the steade of the other. 16 As for the people that haue ben before him, and that come after him, they are innumerable, & they that come after (f) him shall not reioyce of him: This is also a bayne thing, and vexation of mynde.

17 When thou commest into the house of God, kepe thy foote & drawe nye, that God which is at hande may heare that thou geue not the (g) offerynges of fooles: for they knowe naught but to do euyll.

¶ The.v. Chapter.

1 Not to speake lightly, cheefely in gods mayers. 9 The couetous can neuer haue inough.

BE (a) not hasty with thy mouth, and let not thine heart speake any thyng rashly before God: for God is in heauen, and thou vpon earth, therfore let thy wordes be fewe.

2 For where much carefulnesse is, there are many dreames: and where many wordes are, there men may heare fooles. 3 If thou make a vow vnto God, be not slacke to performe it: as for foolishe vowes he hath no pleasure in them: yf thou promise any thyng, pay it. 4 (b) For better is it that thou make no vowe, then that thou shouldest promise and not pay.

5 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesshe for to (c) sinne, neither say thou before the angell that it is thy ignorannce: for then God wyll be angry at thy voyce, and destroy all the worke of thyne handes. 6 (d) And why? wherag are many dreames and many wordes, there are also diuers vanities: but loke that thou feare God.

7 If thou seest the poore to be oppressed, and wrongfully dealt withall, so that equitie and ryght of the lawe is wrested in the lande, maruayle not thou at such a thyng: for he that is (e) hygher then the hyghest regardeth, and there be hygher then they.

8 (f) The increase of the earth vpholdeth all thyng: yea the king him selfe is mayntayned by husbandry. 9 He that loueth money, wyll neuer be satisfied with money: and he that loueth riches, shalbe without the fruite therof: This is also a bayne thyng.

10 Whereas much riches is, there are many also that spende them away: and what pleasure more hath he that possesseth them, sauyng that he may loke vpon them with his eyes?

11 A labouring man sleepeth sweetly, whether it be litle or much that he eateth: but the aboundaunce of the riche wyl not suffer him to sleepe. 12 (g) Yet is there a sore plague which I haue seene vnder the sunne (namely) riches kept to the hurt of him that hath them in possession: 13 For oft tymes they perishe with his great miseries and trouble: and yf he haue a childe, it getteth nothyng. 14 Lyke as he came naked out of his mothers wombe, so goeth he thyther agayne, and carryeth nothyng away with him of all his labour. 15 This is a miserable plague, that he shall go euen as he came away: What helpeth it him then that he hath laboured in the wynde? 16 (h) All the dayes of his lyfe also he dyd eate in the darke with great carefulnesse, sickenesse, and sorowe. 17 Therfore me thynke it a better and a fayrer thyng a man to eate

(c) For idlenesse destroyeth him selfe.

(d) Mutuall societie is both comfortable and necessarie for a mans lyfe.

(e) Men seke rather to please & to come into fauour with him that shal succede into the place of honour, then with him that doth occupie the present estate.

(f) The people wyll not be long pleased with him that occupieth the place of honour.

(g) We must direct our faith, prayer, and workes by the worde of god: and not by a blinde or wicked intent.

(a) Be not rashe in speakyng of the maiestie of god: or in vowyng and praying to god.

(b) We ought to vow those thynges the which tendeth to the glory of god, & which are in our power to performe.

(c) In promising that which thou art not able to perfourm. Or by intemperate eating & drinkyng, or by saying that you sinned not vnluntarily, but of necessitie; makyng god the auctour of sinne.

(d) Dreames are not to be credited: but god is to be feared.

(e) Meanyng that god will redresse these thinges, and therefore we must depend vpon him.

(f) The decay of husbandry is the decay of the prince.

(g) A plague of the couetous man.

(h) That is, in vayne, and without profite.

eate and drinke, and to be refreshed of all his labour that he taketh vnder the sunne, all the dayes of his lyfe whiche God geueth hym: for this is his portion. 18 For vnto whomsoeuer God geueth riches, goodes, and power, he geueth it hym to enioy it, to take it for his portion, and to be refreshed of his labour: this is the gift of God. 19 For he thinketh not much howe long he shall lyue, forasmuch as God filleth his heart with gladnesse.

The.vi. Chapter.

¶ The miserable estate of hym to whom God hath geuen ryches, and not the grace to vse them.

THere is yet a plague vnder the sunne, and it is a generall thing among men: when God geueth a man ryches, goodes, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing of al that his heart can desire, and yet God geueth hym not leaue to enioy the same, but another man spendeth them: This is a vayne thing and a miserable plague. 2 If a man beget a hundred children, and liue many yeres, so that his dayes are many in number, and yet can not enioy his good, (a) neither be buryed: as for hym I say, that vntymely byrth is better then he. 3 For he commeth to naught, and spendeth his tyme in darknesse, and his name is forgotten. 4 Moreouer he seeth not the sunne, and knoweth not of it: and yet hath he more rest then the other. 5 Yea though he lined two thousande yeres, yet hath he no good life: Come not all to one place? 6 (b) All the labour that a man taketh is for hym selfe, and yet his desire is neuer filled after his mynde. 7 For what hath the wyse more then the foole? What helpeth it the poore that (c) he knoweth to walke with fooles before the liuing? 8 (d) The cleare sight of the eye is better then that the soule should walke after desires of the lust: Howbeit, this is also a vayne thing, and a disquietnesse of mynde. 9 The thing that hath ben, is named already, and knowen that it is euen man him selfe: neither may he go to lawe with hym (f) that is mightier then he.

10 Many thinges there be that encrease vanitie, and what hath a man els? 11 For who knoweth what is good for man liuing in the dayes of his vayne lyfe, whiche is but a shadowe? Or who wyll tell a man what shall happen after hym vnder the sunne?

¶ The.vii. Chapter.

Diuers preceptes to folowe that which is good, and to auoyde the contrary.

A *Good name is more worth then precious oyntment: (a) and the day of death, is better then the day of byrth. 2 (b) It is better to go into an house of mourning, then into a banketting house: For there is the ende of all men, and he that is liuing taketh it to heart. 3 (c) Grauitie is better then to laugh: for when the countenaunce is heauie, the heart is refourmed. 4 The heart of the wyse is in the mourning house: but the heart of the foolish is in the house of myrth.

5 It is better to geue eare to the chastening of a wyse man, then to heare the songue of fooles: 6 For the laughing of fooles is like the (d) crackyng of thornes vnder a pot: and that is but a vayne thing. 7 The wyse man hateth wrong dealing, and abhorreth the heart that coueteth rewardes. 8 Better is it to consider the ende of a thing then the beginning: the patient of spirite, is better then the hye minded. 9 Be not hastyly angrye in thy minde: for wrath resteth in the bosome of fooles.

10 (e) Say not thou, What is the cause that the dayes of the olde tyme were better then they that be nowe? for that were no wyse question.

11 Wysdome with inheritaunce is good, yet better is it with them that withowe care may beholde the sunne: 12 For wysdome defendeth aswell as money, and the excellent knowledge and wysdome geueth lyfe vnto hym that hath it in possession.

13 Consider the worke of God, howe that no man can make the thing straight, whiche he maketh crooked.

14 Vse well the tyme of prosperitie, and remember the tyme of misfortune: for God doth so temper the one and the other, that a man (f) can finde nothing els. 15 All thinges haue I considered in the tyme of my vanitie: that the (g) iust man perisheth for his righteousnesse sake, and the vngodly liueth in his wickednesse. 16 Therfore be thou neither to righteous nor ouer wyse, that thou perishe not.

17 Be neither to vnrighteous also nor to foolishe, lest thou dye before thy tyme. 18 It is good for thee to

¶ The.viii. Chapter.

2 To obey princes and magistrates,
17 The workes of God passe mans knowledge.

WHo is wyse? who hath knowledge to make an aunswere? A (a) mans wysdome maketh his face to shine: but * vnshamefastnesse putteth it out of fauour. 2 Kepe the kynges commaundement, namely for the othe that thou hast made vnto God for the same. 3 (b) Be not hastie to go out of his sight, and see thou continue in no euyll thing: for whatsoeuer it pleaseth hym, that doth he.

4 Like as when a kyng geueth a charge, his commaundement is mightie: Euen so, who may say vnto him, What doest thou? 5 Who so keepeth the commaundement, shall feele no harme: but a wyse mans heart discerneth the tyme and iudgement.

6 For euery thing wyll haue oportunitie and iudgement: and this is the thing that maketh men full of carefulnesse and sorowe. 7 And why? a man knoweth not what is for to come: for who can tell hym when it shalbe? 8 Neither is there any man that hath power ouer the spirite to kepe styll the spirite, nor to haue any power in the tyme of death, nor that can make an ende of the battayle, neither may vngodlynesse deliuer them that meddle withall.

9 All these thinges haue I considered, and applyed my mynde vnto euery worke that is vnder the sunne, howe one man hath lordship vpon another to (c) his owne harme.

10 For I haue seene often the vngodly brought to their graues, (d) and yet they haue returned into the citie agayne: and (e) came from the place of holy men, which in the citie were growen out of memorie, as were those also that lined well: This is also a vayne thing. 11 (f) Because nowe that euyll workes are not hastyly punished, the heart of man geueth hym selfe ouer vnto wickednesse.

12 Because an euyll person offendeth an hundred times, and God deferreth, geuing hym long lyfe: therefore am I sure that it shall go well with them that feare God, whiche haue hym before their eyes. 13 Agayne, as for the vngodly it shall not be well with hym, neither shall he prolong his dayes: but euen as a shadowe, so shall he be that feareth not God. 14 Yet is there a vanitie vpon earth: There be iust men vnto whom it happeneth as though they had the workes of the vngodly: Agayne, there be vngodly, with whom it goeth as though they had the workes of the righteous: This haue I called also a vayne thing. 15 Therefore I commende gladnelle, because a man hath no better thing vnder the sunne, then to eate and drinke, and to be merie: (g) for that shall he haue of his labour, all the dayes of his life whiche God geueth hym vnder the sunne. 16 And so I applyed my mynde to learne wisdome, and to knowe the trauayle that is in the worlde, and that of suche a fashion, that I suffred not myne eyes to sleepe neither day nor nyght.

17 I vnderstoode of all the worke of God, but it is not possible for a man to attayne vnto the workes that are done vnder the sunne: and though he bestowe his labour to seeke them out, yet can he not reache vnto them: yea though a wyse man would vndertake to knowe them, yet shall he not finde them.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1 By no outwarde thing can man know whom God loueth or hateth. 11 No man knoweth his ende. 19 Wysdome excelleth strength.

FOr all these thinges purposed I in my minde to seeke out: The righteous and wyse, yea and their seruauntes also are in the hande of God, (a) and there is no man that knoweth eyther loue or hate, but al thinges are before them. 2 It happeneth vnto one as vnto another, it goeth with the righteous as with the vngodly, (b) with the good and cleane, as with the vncleane, with hym that offereth, as with him that offereth not: lyke as it goeth with the vertuous, so goeth it also with the sinner: as it happeneth vnto the pertured, so happeneth it also to hym that is afraide to be forsworne. 3 Among all thinges that come to passe vnder the sunne, this is a miserie, that it happeneth vnto all alike: This is the cause also that the hearts of men are ful of wickednesse, and mad foolishnesse is in their hearres as long as they liue, vntyll they dye. 4 And why? as long as a man liueth, he hath an hope: for a quicke (c) dogge (say they) is better then a dead lion. 5 For they that be liuing knowe that they shall dye: but they (d) that be dead knowe nothing, neither deserue they any more, for their memoriall is forgotten. 6 Also their loue, and their hatred, and their enuie is nowe perished, neither haue they any more part in the worlde in all that is done vnder the sunne. 7 (e) Go thou thy way then, eate thy bread with ioy, and drinke thy wine with a glad heart, for thy workes please God: Let thy garmentes be alwayes white, and let thy head lacke no ointment.

8 Vse thy selfe to liue ioyfully with thy wyfe whom thou louest, all the dayes of thy lyfe which is but vayne, that God geueth thee vnder the sunne all the dayes of thy vanitie: for that is thy portion in this lyfe of all thy labour and trauayle that thou takest vnder the sunne. 9 Whatsoeuer thou takest in hande to do, that do with all thy power: for in the graue that thou goest (f) vnto, there is neither worke, counsayle, knowledge, nor wysdome. 10 So I turned me vnto other thinges vnder the sunne, and I sawe that in running it helpeth not to be swyft, in battell it helpeth not to be strong, to feeding it helpeth not to be wyse, to ryches it helpeth not to be a man of much vnderstanding, to be had in fauour it helpeth not to be cunning: (g) but that all lyeth in tyme and fortune. 11 For a man knoweth not his tyme: but like as the fishes are taken with the angle, and as the byrdes are caught with the snare: euen so are men taken in the perilous tyme, when it commeth sodaynly vpon them. 12 (h) This wysdome haue I seene also vnder the sunne, and me thought it a great thing: 13 There was a litle citie and a fewe men within it: so there came a great king and besieged it, and made great bulwarkes against it.

14 And in the citie there was found a poore man, but he was wyse, whiche with his wysdome deliuered the citie, yet was there no body that had any respect to such a simple man.

15 Then sayde I, wysdome is better then strength: neuertheles, a simple mans wysdome is despised, and his wordes are not heard. 16 A wyse mans counsayle that is *folowed in silence, is farre above the crying of a captayne among fooles. 17 For wysdome is better then harnesse: but one sinner alone destroyeth much goodnesse.

¶ The.iiii. Chapter.

1 The prayses of the Churche. 7 She is without blemisshe in his sight. 9 The loue of Christe towardes her.

(a) Christe prayseth his Churche, wherein he hath great delight.

(b) A simple fayth and sincere.

(c) The fruites of a true fayth.

(d) By the teeth is signified fayth, by the which we are all made the sonnes of God equally.

(e) By the necke is signified the Preachers.

(f) The two breites signifie the two testamentes.

OHowe (a) fayre art thou my loue, how fayre art thou? thou hast (b) doues eyes, beside that which lyeth hyd within: (c) thy heerie lockes are like the woolle of a flocke of goates that be shorne vpon mount Gilead.

2 (d) Thy teeth are lyke a flocke (of sheepe) of the same bigneſſe whiche went vp from the washing place, where euery one beareth two twins, and not one vnfruitfull among them.

3 Thy lippes are lyke a rose coloured ribande, thy wordes are louely, thy cheekes are lyke a peece of a pomegranate within thyne heeres. 4 Thy (e) necke is lyke the towre of Dauid builded with costly stones lying out on the sides, wherevpon there hange a thousande shieldes, yea all the weapons of the giauntes. 5 (f) Thy two brestes are like two twins of young roes, whiche feede among roses.

6 O that I might go to the mountayne of myrre, and to the hill of frankincense, tyll the day breake, and tyll the shadowes be past away. 7 Thou art all fayre (O my loue) and no spot is there in thee. 8 Come to me from Libanus (O my spouse) come to me from Libanus: looke from the top of Amana, from the top of Sanir & Hermon, from the Lions dennes, & from the mountaynes of the Leopardes.

9 Thou hast (with loue) bewitched my heart, O my sister, my spouse, thou hast bewitched my heart with one of thyne eyes, and with one chayne of thy necke. 10 O howe fayre are thy brestes, my sister, my spouse? Thy brestes are more pleasaunt then wine, and the smell of thyne ointmentes passeth all spyces. 11 (g) Thy lippes, O my spouse, drop as the hony combe, yea mylke and hony is vnder thy tongue, and the smell of thy garmentes is like the smell of Libanus.

(g) The preaching of the Gospell bringeth foorth much consolation and profite.

12 (h) A garden well locked is my sister, my spouse: a garden wel locked, and a sealed well. 13 Thy fruites that are planted in thee, are lyke a very paradise of pomegranates with sweete fruites, as Camphire, Nardus, and Saffron, Calamus, Sinamom, with all sweete smelling trees, Myrre, Aloes, and all the best spyces,

(h) The Churche is defended by Christe.

a well of gardens, a well of liuing waters which runne downe from Libanus. 14 (i) Vp thou nozth wynde, come thou south wynde and blowe vpon my garden, that the smell therof may be caryed on euery side: yea that my beloued may come into his garden, and eate of the sweete fruites (that growe therin.)

(i) He prayeth for the grace of the holy ghost towarde the Churche, without the whiche nothing can prosper in it.

The.v. Chapter.

1 Christe calleth his Churche to the participation of all his treasures. 2 She heareth his voyce. 6 She confesseth her nakednesse. 10 She prayseth Christe her husbande.

I Am (a) come into my garden, O my sister, my spouse, I haue gathered my Myrre with my spice: I haue eaten hony with my hony combe, I haue dronke my wine with my mylke: Eate O ye freendes, drinke & be merie O ye beloued. 2 I am a sleepe, but my heart is waking: I heare the voyce of my beloued when he knocketh, saying, Open to me O my sister, my loue, my doue, my dearling: for my head is full of deawe, & the lockes of my heere are full of the nyght droppes. 3 I haue put of my coate, howe can I do it on agayne? I haue washed my feete, howe shall I syle them agayne? 4 My loue put in his hande at the hole, and my heart was moued within me. 5 I stoode vp to open vnto my beloued, and my hands dropped with Myrre, and the Myrre ran downe my fingers vpō the locke.

(a) The garden signifieth the Churche of God, in the whiche Christe bestoweth his singuler benenetes.

6 I opened vnto my beloued, but he was departed and gone his way: Howe when he spake, my heart was gone: (b) I sought hym, but I coulde not finde hym: I cryed vpon hym, neuertheleſſe he gaue me no answere. 7 So the watchmen that went about the citie, found me, smote me, and wounded me: yea they that kept the walles take away my herchaffe from me. 8 I charge you therfore O ye daughters of Hierusalem, if ye finde my beloued, that ye tell hym howe that I am sicke for loue.

(b) Christe doth leaue his for a time, for that he woulde stirre vp in them a greater desire of hym.

9 What maner of man is thy loue aboue other louers, O thou fayreſt among women? Or what can thy loue do more then other louers, that thou chargest vs so straightly? 10 As for my loue, he is whyte and red coloured, a goodly person among ten thousande.

(c) The Church setteth foorth Christe to be of most perfection and comlineſſe.

His head is as the moſt fine gold, the lockes of his heere are buſhed, and blacke as a crowe. 12 His eyes are as the eyes of doues by the water brookes as though they were waſhed with mylke, and are ſet like peaſes in golde. 13 His cheekes are lyke a garden bed, wherein the Apothecaries plant al maner of ſweete things.

14 His lippes are lyke lilies that dzop ſweete ſmelling Myzze: his handes are like golde rinages, hauing incloſed the pzetious ſtone of Thar-ſis. 15 His body is as the pure iuo-rie, decket ouer with Saphires: his legges are as the pilleres of Marble ſet vpon ſocketes of golde. 16 His face is as Libanus: and as the beau-tie of the Cedar trees. 17 The wozdes of his mouth are ſweete: yea he is altogether louely: Suche a one is my loue O ye daughters of Hieru-ſalem, ſuch a one is my loue.

¶ The.vi. Chapter.

1 The Church aſſureth her ſelfe of the loue of Chriſte. 3 The prayſe of the Churche. 8 She is but one and vnde-filed.

WHyther is thy loue gone then O thou fayreſt among women? whyther is thy loue departed, and we wyll ſeeke hym with thee?

2 (a) My loue is gone downe into his garden vnto the ſweete ſmelling beddes, that he may refreſhe hym ſelfe in the garden, and gather lilies.

3 My loue is myne, and I am his, whiche feedeth among the lilies.

4 Thou art beautifull O my loue as is (the place) Thirza, thou art fayre as Hieruſalem, feareſull as an armie of men with their banners. 5 Turne away thyne eyes from me, for they haue ſet me on fire: thy heerie lockes are lyke a flocke of goates ſhowne vp-pon the mount of Gilead. 6 Thy teeth are like a flocke of ſhowne ſheepe whiche go out of the waſhing place, where euery one beareth twinnes, and not one vnfruitfull among them.

7 Thy cheekes are like a peece of a pomegranate within thy lockes of heere. 8 (b) There are threeſcore queenes, foureſcore wiues, and dam-ſelles without number. 9 (c) One is my doue, one is my dearling: She is the onlye beloued of her mother, and deare vnto her that bare her: When the daughters ſawe her, they ſayde ſhe was bleſſed, yea the queenes and wiues prayſed her. 10 What is ſhe this that looketh foorth as the morning, fayre as the moone, cleare as the ſunne, and feareſull as an ar-mie of men with their banners?

11 (d) I went downe into the nut gar-den to ſee what grew by the brookes, and to looke if the vineyarde flouriſh-ed, or if the pomegranates were not foorth. 12 I knewe not that my ſoule had made me the chariot of the people that be vnder tribute.

13 Turne againe turne againe O thou perfect one, turne againe turne againe and we wyll looke vpon thee: What wyll ye ſee in the (e) Sulamite? She is like men of warre ſinging in a com-pante.

¶ The.vii. Chapter.

1 The beautie of the Church in all her members. 10 She is aſſured of Chri-ſtes loue towardes her.

O howe pleaſaunt are thy trea-dinges with thy ſhoes thou prin-ces daughter? the ioyntes of thy thyghes are like a fayre iewell, which is wrought by a cunning workmai-ſter. 2 Thy (a) nauell is lyke a rounde goblet, whiche is neuer with-out drinke. 3 Thy (b) wombe is lyke a heape of wheate that is ſet a-bout with lilies. 4 (c) Thy two breſtes are lyke two twins of young roes. 5 (d) Thy necke is as it were a towre of iuozie: thyne (e) eyes alſo are lyke the water pooles that are in Heſebon, beſide the port of Bathzab-bim, thy (f) noſe is lyke the towre of Libanus, whiche looketh towarde Damaſcus. 6 That head that ſtan-deth vpon thee is lyke Carmel: and the heere of thy head is lyke purple, and like a kyng dwelling among ma-ny water conduites. 7 O how fayre and louely art thou my dearling in pleaſures? 8 Thy ſtature is like a (g) paulme tree, and thy breſtes lyke the grapes. 9 I ſayd, I wyll climbe vp into the paulme tree, and take holde of his hye braunches. 10 Thy breſtes alſo ſhalbe as the wine clu-ſters, the ſmel of thy noſethzilles lyke as the ſmell of apples. 11 And thy rooffe of thy mouth lyke the beſt wine, whiche is meete for my beſt be-loued, pleaſaunt for his lippes, and for his teeth to chawe. 12 I am my beloueds, and he ſhall turne him vnto me. 13 O come on my loue, we wyll go foorth into the fielde, and take our lodging in the villages.

¶ 2 The Church wil be taught by Christ. 3 She is vpholden by hym. 6 The vehement loue wherewith Christe loueth her. 11 She is the vine that bringeth foorth fruite to the spiritual Solomon, whiche is Iesus Christe.

O That (a) I myght finde thee without and kisse thee, whom I loue as my brother whiche sucht my mothers brestes, and that thou shalt not be dispised, 2 I wyll leade thee and bring thee into my mothers house, that thou myghtest teache me, and that I myght geue thee drynke of the spiced wine, and of the sweete iuyce of my pomegranates. 3 His (b) left hande shalbe vnder my head, and his right hande shall imbrace me.

I wake thee vp among the apple trees where thy mother conceaued thee, where thy mother (I say) brought thee forth that bare thee. 6 (c) O set me as a seale vpon thine heart, and as a seale vpon thine arme: for loue is mightie as the death, and gelouſie as the hell. 7 Her coales are coales of fire, and a very vehement flame (of the Lorde:) so that many waters are not able to quench loue, neither may the streames drowne it: yea yf a man would geue all the good of his house for loue, he should count it nothyng. 8 (d) Our sister is but young & hath no brestes: what shall we do for our sister when she shalbe spoken for? 9 (e) If she be a wall, we shall buylde a syluer bulwarke therepon: yf she be a doore, we shall fasten her with boordes of Cedar tree. 10 I am a wall and my brestes lyke towres, then was I as one that hath founde fauour in his syght. 11 Solomon hath a vineyard at Baalhamon, and this vineyarde delinered he vnto the keepers, that euery one for the fruite thereof should geue hym a thousande peeces of syluer. 12 My vineyard which is mine is in my syght: thou (O Solomon) must haue a (f) thousande, and the keepers two hundred, whiche kepe the fruite. 13 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, O let me heare thy voyce, that my companions may hearken to the same. 14 O get thee away my loue, and be as a rowe or a young hart vpon the sweete smellyng mountaynes.

THe (a) vision of Esai the sonne of Amos, whiche he sawe vpon Iuda and Hierusalem, in the dayes of Vzia and Joathan, Ahaz and Ezekiah, kynges of Iuda. 2 Heare O heauens, and hearken O earth: for the Lorde hath spoken. I haue nourished and brought vp children, and they haue done vnfaythfully agaynst me. 13 The ore hath knowen his owner, and the asse his maisters cribbe: (but) Israel hath not knowen, my people hath geuen no heede. 4 Ah sinfull nation, a people laden with iniquitie, a seede of the wycked, corrupt children: they haue forsaken the Lorde, they haue prouoked the holy one of Israel vnto anger, they are gone backwarde.

"or, Jehezekiah.

5 Why should ye be stryckē any more? (for) ye are euer fallyng away, euery head is diseased, and euery heart heauie: 6 From the sole of the foote vnto the head there is no thyng sounde in it: (but) woundes, blaynes,

and

and putrifyng sore: they haue not ben salued, neither wrapped vp, neither B molifyed with the oyntment. 7 Your lande is waste, your cities are burnt vp, straungers deuoure your lande before your face, and it is made desolate, as it were the destruction of enemies (in the time of warre.) 8 And the daughter of Sion shalbe left as a cotage in a vineyarde, lyke a lodge in a garden of Cucumbers, lyke a besieged citie. 9 Except the Lord of hoastes had left vs a smal remnaunt, we should haue ben as Sodoma, and lyke vnto Gomorra. 10 Heare the worde of the Lord ye lordes of Sodoma, and hearken vnto the law of our god thou people of Gomorra. 11 Why offer ye so many sacrifices vnto me wyll the Lorde say? I am full of the burnt of-ferynges of weathers, and of the fatnes of fed beastes, (b) I haue no pleasure in the blood of bullockes, lam-mes, and goates. 12 When ye come to appeare before me treadyng in my courtes, who hath required this at your handes? 13 Offer me no mo oblations, for it is but lost labour: incense is an abhominable thing vnto

C meetings, your solempne assemblies your handes are full of blood.

16 Washe you, make you cleane, put away your cuyll thoughtes out of my syght: ceasse from doyng of euyl,

17 Learne to do well, applye your selues to equitie, deliuer the oppressed, helpe the fatherlesse to his right, let the widdowes complaynt come before you: 18 And then go to, saith the Lorde, let vs talke together: though your sinnes be as red as scarlet, they shalbe as white as snow: and though they were lyke purple, they shalbe as whyte as woll. 19 If ye be wyllyng and obedient, ye shall eate the good of D the lande: 20 But yf ye be obstinate and rebellious, ye shalbe deuoured with the sworde: for the mouth of the Lorde hath spoken (it.) 21 Howe happeneth it then that the faythfull citie which was full of equitie, is become (vnfaythfull) as a whore? Righteousnesse dwelt in it, but nowe mur-therers. 22 Thy syluer is turned to drosse, and thy wine mixt with water.

23 Thy princes are wicked and companions of theeues: they loue gyftes altogether, and gape for rewardes:
As for the fatherlesse they helpe hym not to his ryght, neither wyll they let the wyddowes causes come before them. 24 Therefore sayth the Lorde God of hoastes, the myghtie one of Israel: Ah I must ease me of myne enemies, and auenge me of mine aduer-saries: 25 And I shall lay my hande vpon thee, and purely purge away thy drosse, and take away all thy tinne:

26 And set thy iudges agayne as they were sometyme, and thy sena-tours as they were from the begyn-nyng: and then thou shalt be called the tyghteous citie, the faythfull citie.

27 Sion shalbe redeemed with equi-tie, and her conuertes with righteous-nesse. 28 But the transgressours, and the vngodly, and suche as forsake the Lorde, shall altogether be vtterly destroyed. 29 For ye shalbe confoundded for the trees whiche ye haue desired: and ye shalbe ashamed of the gardens that ye haue chosen. 30 For ye shalbe as a tree whose leaues are fallen away, and as a garden that hath no moysture, 31 And the very strong one (of your idols) shalbe as towe, and

(b) The causes why god forsaketh his people is, idolatrie, heathenyshe superstition, couetousnesse, & trust in other things then in god alone

5 Come ye O house of Jacob, and let vs walke in the lyght of the Lorde:

6 For thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, (b) because they be replenished (with euils) from the east, and with sorcerers lyke the Philistines, and in straunge chyldren they thynke them selues to haue ynough.

7 Their lande is full of syluer and gold, neither is there any end of their treasure: their lande is also full of horses, and no ende is there of their charrettes. 8 Their lande also is full of vayne gods, and before the worke of their owne handes they haue bowed them selues, yea euen before the thyng that their owne fyngers haue made. 9 There kneeleth the man, there falleth the man downe (before them:) therefore forgeue them not.

10 Get thee into the rocke, and hyde thee in the grounde for feare of the Lorde, and for the glorie of his maiestie. 11 The high lookes of man shalbe brought lowe, and the hautinesse of men shalbe bowed downe: and the Lord alone shalbe exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the Lorde of hoastes (shalbe) vpon all the proude, lofte, and vpon all that is exalted, and he shalbe brought lowe. 13 And vpon all hygh and stout Cedar trees of Libanus, and vpon all the okes of Basan, 14 And vpon all the hygh mountaynes, and vpon all the hygh hylles, 15 And vppon euery hygh towre, and vpon euery fenced wall, 16 And vpon al the shippes of Tharsis, and vpon all pictures of pleasure.

17 And the pryde of man shalbe brought downe, and the loftinesse of men shalbe made lowe, and the Lorde alone shalbe exalted in that day.

18 As for the idols he shall vtterly abolyshe: 19 And they shal creepe into holes of stone, and into caues of the earth for feare of the Lorde, and for the glorie of his maiestie, when he aryseth to destroy (the wicked ones of) the earth. 20 In the selfe same day shall man cast away his gods of syluer, and his gods of golde into the holes of Mowles and Backes, which he neuertheleſſe had made to hym selfe to honour them. 21 And they shall creepe into the clyftes of the rockes, and into the toppes of the harde stones for feare of the Lorde, and for the glorie of his maiestie, when he aryseth to destroy (the wicked ones of) the earth. 22 Ceasse therfore from man in whose nostrylles there is breath: for wherin is he to be accompted of?

The. iii. Chapter.

¶ 1 The mischiefes that god sendeth on common weales for the contempt of his worde. 14 The couetousnesse of rulers reprooued. 16 The proude niceneſſe of women punished to their shame.

FOr lo, the Lorde God of hoastes doth take away from Hierusalem and Juda all maner of stay, all stay of meate and drynke, 2 The captayne and the souldier, the iudge and the prophete, the (a) prudent and the aged man, 3 The captayne of fyftie and the honorable, the senatour, the cunning artificer, and the eloquent orator. 4 And I shall geue children to be their princes, and babes shall rule ouer them. 5 And the people shal eche one of them violently oppresse another, and euery one agaynst his neyghbour: The boy shall presume agaynst the elder, and the person of lowe degree agaynst the honourable.

(a) The prudent, that is, such as can foresee by their prudencie thinges to come.

6 Yea one shall take a freende of his owne kinrede by the bosome, and say, Thou hast clothyng, thou shalt be our head, and stay this ruine with thy hande. 7 Then shall he sweare and say, I can not helpe you: there is neither meate nor clothyng in my house, make me no ruler of the people. 8 For Hierusalem and Juda must decay: because that both their wordes and counsayles are agaynst the Lorde to prouoke the presence of his maiestie to anger. 9 Their very countenaunce bewrayeth them, yea they declare their owne sinnes (them selues) as Sodome, they hyde it not: Wo be to their owne soules, for they haue rewarded euil vnto them selues.

10 Say to the ryghteous that it shall go well with them: for they shal eate the fruite of their owne studyes.

11 (But) wo be vnto the wycked, for it shalbe euyll with hym: for he shalbe rewarded after his owne workes.

12 Children are extortioners of my people, and women rule ouer them: O my my people, thy leaders deceaue thee, and corrupt the way of thy footesteppes. 13 The lord is here to commune of the matter, and standeth to iudge the people. 14 The lorde shall enter into iudgement with the elders and princes of his people, (and shal say to them,) It is ye that haue burnt vp my vineyarde, the spoyle of the poore is in youre houses. 15 What meane ye that ye bray (as in a morter) my people, and grinde the faces of the poore, sayth the Lorde God of hoastes?

16 Moreouer, the lord hath said, Seing the daughters of Sion are waxen proude, & walke with stretched foorth neckes, and wanton lokes, goyng and tripping nicely, and tinckeling with theyr feete: 17 Therfore shal the lord shaue the heades of the daughters of Sion, and shall discouer theyr fylthynesse. 18 In that day shall the Lorde take away the gorgiousnesse of the attyre about theyr feete, and the cawles, and the round tyres (after the fashion of the moone,) 19 The sweete perfumes, and the bracelettes, and the muffelers, 20 The bonnettes, and the sloppes, and the head bandes, and the tablets, and the earynges, 21 And rynges, and nose iewels: 22 The costly apparell, and the vayles, and the wympples, and the crisping pinnes, 23 And the glasses, and the fyne lynnen, and the hoodes, and the lawnes. 24 And in steade of good smell there shalbe stynche, and in steade of theyr girdle a rent, and for well set heere there shalbe baldnesse, in stead of a stomacher a sacke cloth, and (sunne) burnyng for beautie. 25 Thy men shal perish with the swoorde, and thy valiaunt souldiours in the battayle (O Hierusalem.)

26 And her gates shall mourne and bewayle: and she beyng desolate, shall syt vpon the grounde.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

¶ 1 The miserie of the stubburne. 3 A promise of gods fauour to the residue.

IN that day seuen women shall take holde of one man, saying, We wyll synde our selues meate and apparel: only let vs be called by thy name, to take our shamefull reproofe (from vs.) 2 (a) In that day shall the budde of the Lorde be beautifull and glorious, and the fruite of the earth shalbe excellent and pleasaunt for them that are escaped of Israel. 3 Then shall the remnaunt in Sion and the remnaunt at Hierusalem be called holy: (namely) all such as are written among the lyuyng in Hierusalem, 4 (b) After that the Lorde hath washt away the filthinesse of the daughters of Sion, and hath purged the blood out from Hierusalem in the spirite of iudgement and in the spirite of fyre. 5 And vpon all the dwellynges of the hylles of Sion, and vpon her congregations, the Lorde shall create a cloude and smoke by day, and the shynyng of a flamyng fyre by nyght: for all the (c) glorie shalbe preserued. 6 And there shalbe a tabernacle for a shadowe in the day time from the heate, and a safe place and refuge from weather and rayne.

(a) The incarnation of Christe is the ioy of the faythful.

(b) They are saued whose sinnes are remitted and washt away with the blood of Christe.

(c) Christe wil preserue and defende the glorye, that is, the faithful in all troubles and temptations.

The .v. Chapter.

¶ 1 Of Christ and his vineyarde, 8 with an execration of couetousnes, 11 drunkennesse, 19 and contempt of Gods worde.

NOwe will I syng my beloued freende, a song of my freendes couchyng his vineyard. My beloued freende hath a vineyarde in a very fruitfull plenteous grounde.

2 This he hedged, and gathered out the stones from it, and planted it with the choysest vine: In the middest of it he buylded he a towre, also made a wine presse therein: (a) and he loked that it shoulde bring him grapes, and it brought foorth wylde grapes.

3 Nowe O citezin of Hierusalem, and man of Juda, iudge I pray thee betwyxt me and my vineyarde:

4 What more coulde haue ben done for it, that I haue not done? Wherefore then hath it geuen wylde grapes, where I loked to haue had grapes of it? 5 Well, nowe I shall tel you how I will do with my vineyarde: I wyll take the hedge from it that it may perishe, and breake downe the wal therof that it may be troden vnder foote.

6 I wyll lay it waste, it shall neither be digged nor cut, but beare thornes and bryers: I wyll also forbyd the cloudes that they shal not rayne vpon it. 7 As for the vineyarde of the lord of hoastes, it is the house of Israel: and the man of Juda, the plant of his pleasure: Of these he looked for equitie, but see there is oppression for vnrighteousnesse, and to it is a crying.

8 Wo vnto them that ioyne one house to another, and bring one lande so nye vnto another, that there is no more place: Wyll ye be placed alone in the middest of the earth? 9 These thinges are in the eares of the Lorde of hoastes: of a trueth great and fayre houses shalbe without any dweller in them. 10 And tenne acres of vines shall geue but a quart, and thirtie bushels of seede shall geue but an Ephа.

11 Wo be vnto them that rise vp early to folowe drunkennesse, continuing vntyll nyght, tyll they be set on fyre with wine. 12 In theyr feastes are harpes and lutes, tabrets and pypes, & wine: but they regard not the worke of the Lord, and consider not the operation of his handes. 13 Therefore commeth my folke into captiuitie, because they haue no vnderstandyng: (b) Their glorie is famished with hunger, & theyr multitude dryed vp with thirste. 14 Therefore gaped hell and openeth her mouth marueilous wide, that theyr glorie, multitude, and wealth, with suche as reioyce in her, may descende into it. 15 Thus hath man a fall and is brought lowe, and the hygh loke of the proude shalbe layde downe. 16 But the Lorde of hoastes shalbe exalted in iudgement, and God that is holy is sanctified in righteousnesse. 17 Then shall the sheepe eate as they were wont, and the ryche mens wastes shall (c) straungers deuour. 18 Wo be vnto them that drawe wickednesse with cordes of vanitie, and sinne as it were with a cart rope. 19 Whiche vse to speake on this maner, Let hym make speede and hasten his worke, that we maye see it: let the counsaile of the holy one of Israel come and drawe nye, that we may knowe it. 20 Wo be vnto them that call euyll good, and good euyll, whiche make darknesse lyght, and lyght darknesse, that make sowre sweete, and sweete sowre. 21 Wo be vnto them that are wise in their owne syght, and thynke them selues to haue vnderstandyng. 22 Wo be vnto them that are strong to suppe out wine, and expert men to set vp drunkennesse.

23 Wo be vnto them that geue sentence with the vngodly for rewardes, but condempne the iust cause of the righteous. 24 Therfore like as fire licketh vp the straw, and as the flame consumeth the stubble: euen so theyr roote shalbe as corruption, and theyr blossome shall vanysh away lyke dust: for they haue cast away the lawe of the Lorde of hoastes: and despised the worde of the holy one of Israel.

25 Therefore is the wrath of the Lorde kindled agaynst his people, and hath stretched forth his hande vpon them, yea he hath smitten them: and the hylles dyd tremble, and theyr carkases dyd lye lothe in the open streetes: and in all this the wrath of God hath not ceassed, but his hande stretched out styll. 26 And he shall geue a token to a people of a farre countrey, and shall hisse vnto them from the ende of the earth: and beholde, they shall come hastyly with speede. 27 There shall not be one faynt nor feeble among them, no not a sluggyshe nor sleepie person: there shall not one of them put of his gyrdle from his loynes, nor loose the latchet of his shoe. 28 His arrowes are sharpe, and all his bowes bent: his horse hoofes are as flint, and his cart wheeles lyke a whyrle wynde.

29 His crye is as it were of a Lion, and he roreth lyke Lions whelpes: they shall roare and hanche vp the pray, and no man shall recouer it, nor get it from them. 30 In that day he shalbe so fierce vpon hym as the raging of the sea: then one shal behold the (d) lande, and lo darknesse and sorowe, and the lyght is darkened in the heauens thereof.

(b) Theyr glorie, theyr noble & honorable personages.

(c) Gods chyldren, as though they were straungers, miserably dealt withall by thoppression of the couetous, shal after a tyme repossesse & enioy the landes and goods, which the couetous oppressours shalbe constrayned to forsake and leaue as waste.

(d) The lande of Iuda shalbe ouerwhelmed with miserable affliction.

The .vi. Chapter.

IN the yere that kyng Oziah dyed, I sawe also the Lorde sytting vpon an hygh and glorious seate, and his trayne fylled the temple.

2 And about hym stoode Seraphims, whereof one had sixe wynges, with twayne eche couered his face, with twayne his feete, and with twayne did he flee. 3 They cryed also eche one to another on this maner, Holy, holy, holy is the Lorde of hoastes: the whole earth is full of his glory. 4 And the tinels of the dooze cheekes moued at his crying, and the house was full of smoke.

5 Then sayde I, Wo is me, for I am lost, inasmuche as I am a man of vncleane lippes, and dwell among people that hath vncleane lippes also: for myne eyes haue seene the kyng the Lorde of hoastes. 6 Then flew one of the Seraphims vnto me, hauyng a hotte cole in his hande, whiche he had had taken from the aulter with the tongues, 7 And layde it vppon my mouth, and sayde, Lo, (this) hath touched thy (a) lippes, and thine vnrighteousnesse shalbe taken away, and thy sinne forgeuen. 8 Also I hearde the voyce of the Lorde on this maner, Whom shall I sende, and who wyll be our messenger? Then I sayde, Here am I, sende me. 9 And he sayde, Go and tell this people: Heare in deede, yet vnderstande not: see playnely, and yet perceaue not. 10 Harden the heart of this people, stop their eares, and shut their eyes: lest they see with their eyes, heare with their eares, and vnderstande with their heartes, and conuert, and be healed. 11 Then spake I, Lorde, howe long? He answered, Vntyll the cities be vtterly wasted without inhabiters, and the houses without men, and til the lande be also vtterly desolate. 12 For the Lorde shall put the men farre away, and (there shalbe) great waste in the middest of the land. 13 Yet in it shal succeede ten kings, and it shal returne and be afterwarde wasted: (But) as the Teyle tree and the Oke in the fall of their leaues haue yet the sappe remayning in them, (euen so) (b) the holy seede shalbe the stay thereof.

(a) Gods sacraments are not bare signes, but with the signe & the worde, the matter signified is exhibited to the faythful.

(b) Christe dwellyng by fayth in his elect, who seeme as dead in the stormy times of this worlde, is to them lyfe & stay that they perishe not.

The, vii. Chapter.

¶ The Syrians moue battayle againste Hierusalem. 14 A virgin shal beare a chylde.

IT happened in the tyme of Ahaz the sonne of Jotham, whiche was the sonne of Vziah kyng of Juda, that Razin the king of Syria, and Pechah the sonne of Romeliah kyng of Israel, went vp towarde Hierusalem to besiege it: but (Razin) was not able to winne it. 2 Nowe when the (a) house of Dauid hearde woorde thereof, that Syria and Ephraim was confederate together, his heart quaked, yea and the hearte also of his people, lyke as when the trees of the wood are moued with the winde. 3 Then sayde God vnto Esai, Go meete Ahaz thou and thy sonne Sear Jasub, at the head of the ouer poole in the foure path by the fullers grounde, 4 And say vnto him, Take heede to thy selfe and be still, feare not, neither be fayne hearted, for these two tayles, that is, for these two smokyng fyrebrandes, the wrath and furiousnesse of Razin the Syrian, and Romelies sonne:

5 Because that the Syrian, Ephraim, and Romelies sonne haue wyckedly conspired agaynst thee,

6 Saying, We wyll go vp agaynst Juda, vexe them, and bryng them vnder vs, and set a kyng there, euen the sonne of Tabel: 7 Thus sayth the Lorde God thereto, It shall not so go forth, neither so come to passe.

8 For the head citie of the Syrians is Damascus, but the head of Damascus is Razin: And after three score and fiue yeres shall Ephraim be no more a people. 9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, but the head of Samaria is Romelies sonne: yf ye beleue not, surely ye shall not be established. 10 Moreouer, God spake agayne vnto Ahaz, saying, 11 Require to thy selfe a token of the Lorde thy God, whether it be towarde the deapth beneath, or towarde the height aboue. 12 Then sayde Ahaz, I wyll require none, neither wyll I tempt the Lorde. 13 The prophete answered, Then heare ye of the house of Dauid: Is it not ynough for you that ye be greeuous vnto men, but ye must greeue my God also? C

14 Therefore the Lorde hym selfe shall geue you a token: Beholde, a virgin shall conceaue and beare a son, and shall call his name Emmanuel.

15 Butter and honye shall he eate, vntill he knowe to refuse the euil and choose the good. 16 For or euer the childe come to knowledge to eschewe the euil and choose the good, the lande that thou so abhorrest shalbe desolate of both her kynges. 17 The Lorde also shall sende a tyme vpon thee, vpon thy people, and vpon thy fathers house, suche as neuer came since the time that Ephraim departed from Juda, namely through the kyng of the Assyrians. 18 For at the same tyme shall the Lorde hisse for the flyes that are abont the water of Egypt, and for the bees in the Assyrians lande.

19 These shall come and shall lyght al in the desolate valleys, in the holes of stones, and vpon all thornie and bushie places. 20 At the same tyme D shall the Lord shaue the (b) here of the head, and the feete, and the bearde cleane of, with the raser that he hyre beyond the waters: namely with the kyng of the Assyrians. 21 At the same tyme shall a man nourysshe a young cow, and two sheepe. 22 Then because of the aboundaunce of mylke that they geue, he shall eate butter: so that euery one whiche remayneth in the

(b) The here of the head, & the beard, the princes and men of auctorite, the feete, the commoa sort of people.

the lande shall eate butter and honye.
23 At the same tyme all vineyardes wherin there shalbe a thousand vines worth a thousande siluerlinges, shalbe turned to bryers and thornes.
24 They shall come into the lande with arrowes and bowes, because all the lande shall become bryers and thornes. 25 As for all hylles that shalbe digged with the mattocke, there shall not come vpon them any feare of bryers and thornes: but the cattell shalbe dryuen thyther, and the sheepe shall feede there.

The.viii. Chapter.

¶ The deliueraunce of the lande by Emmanuel. 14 The stone of offence, at whiche many shall stumble.

MOreouer the Lorde sayde vnto me, Take thee a great roule, and wryte in it as men do with a pen, Make haste speede to rob, and haste to the spoyle. 2 And I called vnto me fayethfull witnesses to recorde, Vriah the priest, and Zachariah the sonne of Barachiah. 3 After that went I vnto the prophetisse, and she conceaued and bare a sonne: Then sayde the Lorde to me, Geue him his name, A speedy robber, An hasty spoyler. 4 For why, or euer the chylde shall haue knowledge to crye my father and mother, shall the ryches of Damascus and the spoile of Samaria be taken away before the kyng of the Assyrians. 5 The Lorde spake also vnto me agayne, saying, 6 Forsomuche as this people refuseth the styl running water of Silo, and put theyr delyght in Razin and Romeltes son: 7 Beholde, the Lorde shall bryng myghtie and great fluddes of water vppon them, namely the kyng of the Assyrians with all his power, whiche shall climbe vp vpon all his fluddes, and runne ouer all his bankes, 8 And shall breake in vpon Juda, he shall flowe and passe through, tyll he come vp to the necke thereof: he shal fyll also the wydenesse of thy lande with his wynges O Emmanuel.
9 Breake downe O ye people, (a) and ye shalbe broken downe, hearken to all ye of farre countreys: muster you, and you shalbe broken downe, prepare you, and you shalbe torne in peeces.
10 Take your counsell together, yet shall your counsayle come to naught: determine the matter, yet shall it not prosper: for God is with vs. 11 For the Lorde spake thus to me in a mightie prophetie, (b) and warned me that I shoulde not walke in the way of this people, saying, 12 Ye shall not speake (wordes) of conspiracie in all thynges when this people shall say conspiracie: feare them not, neither be afrayde of them. 13 But sanctifie the Lorde of hoastes, let hym be your feare and dread. 14 For he shalbe the holy place to flee to, & stone to stumble at, the roche to fall vpon, a snare and net to both the houses of Israel, and the inhabitours of Hierusalem: 15 And many among them shal stumble, and fall, and be broken, yea they shalbe snared and taken. 16 (c) Binde vp the testimonie, seale the law in my disciples. 17 And I wyl wayte vpon the Lorde that hydeth his face from the house of Jacob, and I wyll looke for hym. 18 But lo, as for me and the chyldren whiche the Lorde hath geuen me, we are to be a token and a wonder in Israel from the Lorde of hoastes whiche dwelleth vppon the hyll of Sion. 19 And yf they say vnto you, Aske counsayle at the Soothsayers, Witches, Charmers, and Cunnurers: (then make them this aunswere,) Is there a people any where that asketh not counsayle at his God? shoulde men runne vnto the dead for the lyuyng? 20 Get thee to the lawe, (d) and the testimonie: and yf they speake not after this worde, there is no lyght in them. 21 And they shall wander through this lande hardly bestead and hungry, and when they suffer hunger, they wyll be out of pacience, and curse theyr kyng and theyr God, and shall looke vpwarde and downewarde to the earth.
22 And beholde there is trouble and darknesse, dymnesse is rounde about hym, and he shalbe dryuen into darknesse. 23 Neuertheles the darkenes shall not be suche as was in her veration, when at the first he lyghtly afflicted the lande of Zabulon, and the lande of Nephthali, and afterwarde dyd more greeuously afflict her by the way of the sea beyonde Jordane in Galilee of the heathen.

The.ix. Chapter.

¶ He prophecieth of Christes natiuitie and dominion.

THe people that walked in darknesse haue seene a great lyght: As for them that dwell in the lande of the shadowe of death, vppon them hath the lyght shyned.

2 Thou

(a) Mans policie and deuice without god preuayleth not.

(b) Affiaunce is to be put in god, and not in mans policie or helpe.

(c) The wordes of Christ

(d) We must seke in gods worde what to folow, for in meanes without gods worde there is no lyght.

2 Thou hast multeplied the people, and not increased theyr ioy: they reioyce before thee, euen as men make merie in harueſt, and they be ioyfull as men that do diuide the ſpoyle (after the victorie.) 3 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burthen, the ſtaffe of his ſhoulder, and the rodde of his oppreſſour, as in the day of Madian.

4 And truely euery battayle that the warrier maketh is done with confuſed noyſe, and defyling theyr garmentes with blood (but this battayle) ſhalbe with burnyng and conſumyng of fyre. 5 For vnto vs a (a) chylde is borne, and vnto vs a ſonne is geuen, vpon his ſhoulder doth the rule lye, * & he is called with his owne name, Wonderful, the Geuer of counſell, the Mightie god, the Euerlaſtyng father, the Prince of peace. 6 He ſhal make no ende to increaſe the rule and peace, and ſhall ſit vpon the ſeate of Dauid, and in his kyngdome to order the ſame, and to ſtablyche it with equitie and ryghteouſneſſe from hence foorth for euermore: This ſhall the zeale of the Lorde of hoaſtes bryng to paſſe.

7 The Lorde ſent a worde into Iacob, the ſame is come into Iſrael.

8 And all the people of Ephraim ſhall knowe, and they that dwell in Samaria that ſay with pryde and bygh ſtomaches (on this maner,)

9 The tyle worke is fallen downe, but we wyll buylde it vp with ſquared ſtones: the Mulberie tymber is broken, but we wyll ſet it vp agayne with Cedar. 10 But the Lord ſhal ſtrengthen the enemies of Razin, and ioyne his aduerſaries together agaynſt hym. 11 The Syrians before, and the Philiſtines behynde, and ſhall deuoure Iſrael with open mouth: After all this is not the wrath of the Lorde ceaſſed, but yet his hande ſtretched out ſtyll. 12 For the people turneth not vnto hym that chaſtiſeth them, neither do they ſeeke the Lord of hoaſtes. 13 Therfore hath the lord rooted out of Iſrael both head and tayle, bough and reede in one day.

14 By the head, is vnderſtande the ſenatour and honourable man, and by the tayle, the prophete that preacheth lyes. 15 For the guydes of this people are deceauers, and thoſe that be gouerned are vtterly loſt. 16 Therefore ſhall the Lorde haue no pleaſure in theyr young men, neither haue pitie of theyr fatherleſſe and wydowes: for they are altogether hypocrites and wycked, and all theyr mouthes ſpeake folly: After all this is not the Lordes wrath ceaſſed, but yet his hande is ſtretched out ſtyll.

17 For vngodlyneſſe burneth as a fire, and ſhall deuoure bryers and thornes, and it ſhall burne as in the thycket of a wood, and (the wicked) aduaunce them ſelues, as the ſmoke is carryed vp. 18 Through the wrath of the Lorde of hoaſtes is the lande full of darkneſſe, and the people be conſumed as it were with fyre: no man doth ſpare his brother. 19 But he robbeth on the ryght hande, and doth famyſhe, he eateth on the left hande, and he ſhall not haue ynough: euery man ſhall eate the fleſhe of his owne arme. 20 Manaſſes (ſhall eate) Ephraim, and Ephraim Manaſſes, and they both together ſhal eate Iuda: After all this is not the lordes wrath ceaſſed, but yet his hande is ſtretched out ſtyll.

¶ The. x. Chapter.

¶ 1 He threatneth the oppreſſours of the poore. 12 And prophecieth agaynſt Sennacherib.

WO be vnto them that make vnryghteous lawes, and that cauſeth theyr actuaries to wryte greeuouſneſſe, 2 Wherethrough the poore are put from theyr ryght, and my ſeelie people robbed of iudgment, that wydowes may be theyr pray, and that they may rob the fatherleſſe.

3 What wyll ye do in the tyme of viſitation, and when deſtruction ſhall come from farre? to whom wyll ye runne for helpe? and where wyll you leaue your glorie? 4 That when I withdrawe my hande ye come not among the pryſoners, nor lye among the dead? After all this doth not the wrath of the Lorde ceaſſe, but yet is his hande ſtretched out ſtyll. 5 O Aſſur whiche art the ſtaffe of my wrath, in whoſe hande is the rodde of myne indignation, 6 I wyll ſende hym among thoſe hypocritycke people: among the people that haue deſerued my diſſauour wyll I ſend him: that he vtterly rob them, ſpoile them, and treade them downe lyke the mire in the ſtreete. 7 Howbeit, his meanyng is not ſo, neither thynketh his heart on this faſhion: but he imagineth howe he may roote out and deſtroy * or, and his name ſhalbe called. Or, and (the holy ghoſt) ſhall call his name.

B stroy much people. 8 For he sayth, Are not my princes al kynges? 9 Is not Chalno as calne to winne, as Charchamis? Is it harder to conquer Hamath, then Arphad? or is it lighter to ouercome Damascus, then Samaria? 10 (As who say) I were able to winne the kyngdomes of the idolaters and their gods, but not Hierusalem and Samaria. 11 Shall I not do vnto Hierusalem and her images, as I did vnto Samaria and her idols? 12 Wherefore it shall come to passe, that afloone as the Lorde hath performed his whole worke vppon the hil of Sion and Hierusalem, then wyl I visite the fruite of the stoute heart of the king of Assyria with his proude lookes. 13 For he standeth thus in C his owne conceipt, This do I through the power of myne owne hande, and through my wysdome: for I am wyse, I am he that remoue the landes of the people, I rob their treasure, and haue pulled downe the inhabitaunces lyke a valiaunt man. 14 My hande hath founde out the strength of the people as it were a nest: and lyke as egges that were layde here and there are gathered together, so do I gather all countreys, and there was none (so bold) as to moue the wyng, that dare open his mouth, or once whysper. 15 Shal the axe boast it selfe agaynst him that hewety therewith? or shall the sawe make any bragging agaynst him that ruleth it? That were euen lyke as yf the rod dyd exalt it selfe agaynst hym that beateth it, or as though the staffe houlde magnifie it selfe (as who say) it were no wood. 16 Therefore shall the Lorde the God of hoastes sende among his fatlinges leanenesse, and burne vp his glory as it were with a fyre. 17 And the lyght of Israel shalbe that fyre, and his holy one shalD be the flambe: and it shall kindle and burne vp his thornes and bryers in one day. 18 Yea all the glory of his woodes and feeldes shalbe consumed with body and soule, and they shalbe as an hoast of men, whose standarde bearer fayleth. 19 The trees also of his wood which remayne shalbe of such a number that a chylde may tell them. 20 After that day shall the remnaunt of Israel, and suche as are escaped out of the house of Jacob, seeke no more comfort at him that smote them: but vnfaynedly shal they trust vnto the Lorde, the holy one of Israel. 21 The remnaunt, euen the posteritie of Jacob, shall conuert vnto God the mightie one. 22 For though thy people O Israel be as the sande of the sea, yet shal the remnaunt of them conuert vnto him: the decreed consumption ouerfloweth with vyghteousnesse. 23 And therefore the Lord of hoastes shall perfectly fulfill the thing that he hath determined in the midst of the whole worlde. 24 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God of hoastes, Thou my people that dwellest in Sion, be not afrayde for the king of the Assyrians: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shal lyft vp his staffe against thee, as the Egyptians did sometime.

25 But very soone after shall my E wrath and indignation be fulfylled in the destruction of them: 26 Moreouer the Lorde of hoastes shall stirre vp a scourge for him, lyke as was the slaughter of Madian vpon the roche Oreb, and as the destruction of the Egyptians when he lyfted vp his rod vpon the sea. 27 Then shal his burthen be taken from thy shoulders, and his yoke from thy necke, yea the same yoke shalbe destroyed because of the vnction. 28 He shall come to Aiath, and go through towarde Migron, at Michmas shal he lay vp his harneste.

29 They shall go ouer the foorde, Geba shalbe their resting place, Rhama shalbe afrayde, Gibea Saul shall flee away. 30 Lift vp thy voyce O daughter Gallim, geue eare to Laisa thou poore Anathoth. 31 Madmena shall tremble for feare, but the citezins of Gabim are manly. 32 Yet shal he re- F mayne at Nob that day: after that shal he lyft vp his hand against the mount of the daughter Sion the hyll of Hierusalem. 33 But see, the Lorde God of hoastes shal breake downe the bough with feare, he shal hewe downe the proude, and fell the high minded.

34 The Thickets also of the wood shall he roote out with iron, and Libanus shal haue a fall through the mightie.

keth ſhall haue a deſyre to the ſerpentes neſt, and when he is weaned, he ſhall put his hande into the cockatriſe denne. 9 No man ſhall do euyll vnto another, no man ſhall deſtroy another in all the hyll of my holynes: for the earth ſhalbe full of the knowledge of the Lorde: euen as the ſea floweth ouer with water. 10 And in that day ſhall the gentiles enquire
* Or, Iſai. after the roote of * Ieſſe, whiche ſhal-be ſet vp for a token vnto the people, and his reſt ſhalbe glorious. 11 At the ſame tyme ſhall the Lorde take in hande agayne to recouer the remnant of his people, which ſhalbe left alyue from the Aſſyrians, Egyptians, Ara-bians, Moabians, Elamites, Chalde-es, Antiochians, and from the Iſlands of the ſea. 12 And he ſhall ſet vp a token among the gentiles, and gather together the diſperſed of Iſrael, yea and the outcaſtes of Iuda from the foure corners of the worlde. 13 The hatred of Ephraim alſo and enemies
C of Iuda ſhalbe cleane rooted out: Ephraim ſhall beare none enyll will to Iuda, and Iuda ſhall not vexe Ephraim. 14 But they both together ſhal flee vppon the ſhoulders of the Phili-ſtines towarde the weſt, and ſpoyle them together that dwell towarde the eaſt: the Idumites and the Moabites ſhall come vnder their handes, and the Amonites ſhalbe obedient vnto them. 15 The Lorde alſo (c) The ſhall cleaue the tongues (c) of the tongue, that is, the arme of the ſea that hinde-reth the paſſage.
Egyptians ſea, and with his mightie winde ſhall he lyft vp his hande ouer Nilus, and ſhall ſmyte his ſeuen ſtreames, and make men go ouer dyre chod. 16 And thus ſhall there be a way for his people that remayneth from the Aſſyrians, lyke as it happened to the Iſraelites what tyme they departed out of the lande of Egypt.

¶ The .xii. Chapter.

4 The ſong of the Churche for the obtay-nyng of the victorie and ouercommyng of the worlde.

AND in that day thou ſhalt ſay, O A Lorde I wyl prayſe thee, for thou waſt diſpleaſed at me: but refraine thou from thy wrath, and comfort me.
2 Beholde God is my ſaluation, in whom I wyll truſt and not be afrayd:
for the Lorde God is my ſtrength and
(my) ſong, he alſo is become my ſalua-tion. 3 Therefore with ioy ſhall ye drawe water out of the welles of ſaluation: 4 And then ſhall ye ſay, Geue thankes vnto the Lord, call vp-on his name, declare his workes among the people, keepe them in re-membraunce, for his name is excellent. 5 O ſyng prayſes vnto the Lord, for he hath done great thinges, as it is knowen in all the worlde.
6 Crye out, and ſyng thou that dwel-leſt in Sion: for great is the holy one of Iſrael in the middeſt of thee.

¶ The .xiii. Chapter.

1 He propheſieth the deſtruction of Babylon, the captiuitie and the commyng a-gayne of the people.

THis is the (a) burthen of Baby- A lon, whiche Eſai the ſonne of A- (a) Burthen, that is, the propheſie.
mos dyd ſee. 2 Lift vp the banner vpon the high hill, call vnto them, wagge your hande, that they may go into the gates of the princes. 3 I haue commaunded my ſanctified, I haue alſo called my valiant ones, toying in my honour to execute my wrath.
4 There is a noyſe of a multitude in the mountaynes, lyke as of a great people, a ruſhing as though the king-domes of the nations came together:
the Lorde of hoaſtes muſtereth his armie to battaple. 5 They come out of a farre countrey from the ende of the

of the heauen, euen the Lorde hym selfe with the ministers of his wrath, to destroy the whole land. 6 Mourne ye, for the day of the Lorde is at hand, and shall come as a destroyer from the almightie. 7 Therefore shall all handes be letten downe, and all mens heartes shall melt away. 8 They shall stande in feare, carefulnes and sorowe shal come vpon them, and they shall haue payne, as a woman that trauayleth with childe: one shalbe abashed of another, and their faces shal burne lyke the flame of fyre. 9 Behold the day of the Lorde shall come terribly and full of indignation, furie and wrath, to make the lande waste, and to roote out the sinners thereof.

10 For the starres and planettes of heauen shall not geue their lyght, the sunne shalbe darkened in the rysing, and the moone shall not shine with her lyght. 11 And I wyll visite the wickednesse of the worlde, and the sinnes of the vngodly. The high stomakes of the proude wil I take away, and wyll laye downe the boasting of the tyrauntes. 12 I wyll make a man dearer then fyne golde, and a man to be more worth then a golden wedge of Ophir. 13 Therefore I wyll shake the heauens, and the earth shall remoue out of her place in the wrath of the Lorde of hostes, and in the day of his fearefull indignation. 14 And (Babylon) shalbe as an hunted or chased Roe, and as a sheepe that no man taketh vp: euery man shall turne to his owne people, and flee eche one into his owne lande. 15 Whoso is founde shalbe shot through: and whoso taketh their part, shalbe destroyed with the sworde. 16 Their children shalbe slayne before their eyes: their house spoyled, and their wyues rauished. 17 For lo, I shall bryng vp the Medes agaynst them, which shall not regarde syluer, nor be desyrous of golde: 18 With bowes shall they destroy the young men, and haue no pitie on women with childe, and their faces shall not spare the children.

19 And Babylon that glorie of kingdomes and beautie of the Chaldees honour shalbe destroyed, euen as God destroyed Sodome and Gomor.

20 It shal not endure for euer, neither shall there be any more dwellyng there from generation to generation: the Arabians shal pitche no tentes there, neither shall the shepheardes make their foldes there any more. 21 But fearefull wylde beastes shal lye there, and the houses shalbe full of great Owles, Estriches shall dwell there, and Apes shall daunce there.

22 Wylde cattes shall crye in the palaces, and dragons shalbe in the pleasaunt houses: and as for Babylons tyme it is at hande, and her dayes shall not be prolonged.

¶ The .xiiii. Chapter.

1 The returne of the people from captiuitie, the prosperitie of the people of God, and affliction of their enemies. 13 The pryde of Babylon.

BVt the Lorde wylbe mercifull vnto Jacob, and wyll yet chose Israel agayne, and set them in their owne lande, straungers shall cleaue and get them to the house of Jacob. 2 The people shal take them and carry them home to their owne lande: and the house of Israel shall possesse them in the lande of the Lorde, that they may be seruauntes and handmaydes: and they shall take those prisoners whose captiues they had ben before, and rule those that had oppressed them.

3 When the Lorde nowe shall bryng thee to rest from thy trauel, feare, and harde bondage that thou wast laden withall: 4 Then shalt thou vse this mockage vppon the kyng of Babylon, and say, Howe happeneth it that the oppressour leaueth of? Is the golden tribute come to an ende?

5 The Lorde hath vtterly broken the sceptre of the vngodly, and the rodde of the lordlye, 6 Whiche (rod) in anger, smyteth the people with continuall strokes, and in wrath raigneth ouer the nations persecuted without compassion. 7 And therefore the whole worlde is nowe at rest and quietnesse, and men syng for ioy. 8 Yea euen the Firre trees and Cedars of Libanus reioyce at thy fall, saying, Nowe that thou art layd downe, there come no mo vp to hewe downe vs. 9 Hell also beneath trembleth to meete thee at thy commyng, and for thy sake hath rayled his dead, all mightie men and princes of the earth, all kynges of the earth stande vp from their seates, 10 That they may all answere and speake vnto thee, Art thou become weake also as we? Art thou become lyke vnto vs? 11 Thy pompe and thy pride is layde downe into the pit, and so is the melodie of thy instrumentes. Wormes be layde vnder thee, and wormes be thy couerynge.

12 Howe art thou fallen from heauen O Lucifer, thou fayre morynge chylde? Howe hast thou gotten a fall euen to the grounde, which dydst weaken the nations? 13 For thou saydest in thyne heart, I wyll clymbe vp into heauen, and exalt my throne aboue beside the starres of God, I wyll sit also vpon the mount of the congregation toward the north. 14 I wyl climbe vp aboue the cloudes, and wyl be lyke the highest of all. 15 Yet thou shalt be brought downe to the deepe of hel, to the sides of the lake. 16 They that see thee shall narowly loke vpon thee, and thinke in them selues, (saying,) Is this the man that brought all landes in feare, and made the kyngdomes afrayde? 17 (Is this he) that made the worlde in a maner waste, and laide the cities to the ground, which let not his prisoners go out? 18 The kynges of the nations lye euery one in his owne house with worship. 19 And thou art cast out of thy graue lyke a fylthy abhominable braunche, lyke as dead mens rayment that are thot through with the swerde, and go downe to the stones of the deepe, as a dead coarse that is troden vnder feete. 20 Thou art not buried with them: euen because that thou hast wasted thy lande and destroyed thy people: the generation of the wicked shalbe out of memorie for euer. 21 Let there a way be sought to destroy their children that be in their fathers wickednesse, that they come not vp agayne to possesse the lande, and fill the worlde full of enemies. 22 I wyll stande vp against them sayth the Lorde of hoastes, and roote out the name and remnaunt, sonne and sonnes sonne of Babylon sayth the Lorde. 23 I wyll geue it to the Otters, and wyll make water puddels of it, and I wyll sweepe them out with the besome of destruction sayth the Lorde of hoastes. 24 The Lorde of hoastes hath sworne an oth, saying, It shall come to passe as I haue determined, and shalbe fulfilled as I haue deuised, 25 So that the Assyrian shal I destroy in my lande, and vppon my mountaynes wyll I treade him vnder foote, wherethrough his yoke shall come from them, and his burthen shal be taken from their shoulder.

26 This deuise hath God taken thorowe the whole worlde, and this his hande is stretched out ouer all people. 27 For yf the Lorde of hoastes determine a thing, who is able to disanull it? And yf he stretche foorth his hande, who may turne it agayne?

28 The same yere that kyng Ahaz dyed, was this burthen: 29 Reioyce not thou whole Palestina, because the rod of him that beateth thee is broken: for out of the serpentes roote there shall come an adder, and his fruite shalbe a fierie fleeing worme.

30 But the first borne of the poore shalbe fed, and the symple shall dwell in safetie: thy roote also wyl I destroy with hunger, and it shall slay the remnaunt. 31 Mourne thou porte, weepe thou citie, for, O whole lande of Palestina thou art layde waste: for there shall come from the north a smoke, that not one alone may abyde at home in his tymes. 32 What shall one then aunswere the messengers of the Gentiles? For the Lorde hath stablished Sion, and the poore of his people that be therin shal put their trust in it.

¶ The .xv. Chapter.

A prophesie agaynst Moab.

This is the burthen vpon Moab: Ar of Moab was destroyed and ouerthrowen in the nyght season, Kir also in Moab was destroyed and perished in the nyght. 2 Moab went vp to the idols house, euen to Dibon to the high places to weepe: for Nebo and Moab shall mourne for Medba. All their heades were balde, and all their beardes shauen. 3 In her streetes are they girded about with sackecloth: in all the toppes of her houses and streetes shalbe nothing but mournyng and weeping. 4 Hesbon and Eleale shall crye, that their voyce shalbe heard vnto Jahaz: and therefore the armed souldiers also of Moab shall bleate out and crye for very sorowe of their mindes. 5 Who shall my heart be for Moabs sake, they shall flee vnto the citie of Zoar, which is lyke a fayre young bullocke of three yere olde, for they shall all go vp to Luith weeping: euen so by the way towarde Horonaim they shall make make lamentation for their bitter destruction. 6 For the waters of Nimrim shalbe dryed vp, by reason whereof the grasse is wythered, the hearbes destroyed, and the greene things gone. 7 Therefore the goodes that remayneth in Moab, and the ryches therof, they shall cary to the brooke of wyllowes. 8 For the crye went ouer the whole lande of Moab, vnto Eglaim and vnto Beer Elim was there nothyng but mournyng. 9 Because the waters of Dimon were full of blood, I wyl adde more vpon Dimon: and lions vpon the remnaunt of the lande, and on them that are escaped from Moab.

¶ The .xvi. Chapter,
¶ The destruction of Moab.

A SEnde the lorde of the worlde a lamme from the rocke that lyeth towarde the desart, vnto the hyll of the daughter Sion. 2 For as for the daughter of Moab they shalbe as (a) trembling birde that is put out of her nest: for they shall cary them vnto Arnon. 3 Gather your counsel, come together in iudgement, couer vs with your shadowe in the midday as the night doth hide the chased, and bewray not them that are fled. 4 Let my persecuted people dwell among you, Moab be thou their refuge agaynst the destroyer: for the aduersarie is brought to naught, the robber is vndone, the tyraunt is wasted out of the lande. 5 And in mercie shall the seate be prepared, and he shall sit vpon it in the trueth in the tabernacle of Dauid, iudging and seekyng iudgement, and makyng haste vnto righteousnesse. 6 We haue heard of the pride of Moab, he is very proude, presumptuous, arrogant, and full of indignation, and vayne are his lyes. 7 Therfore shall Moab make lamentation because of the Moabites (that shalbe slayne) yea they shall wayle altogether: because of the foundations of the citie that is made of bricke shal ye complayne, euen ye lame people that are left only behynde. 8 For the vines of Heshbon are cut downe: as for the vine of Sibma, the lordes of the heathen haue broken downe her principall braunches, they are come euen vnto Jazer, they went on wandering vnto the wyldernesse, her goodly braunches were throwen downe as they went ouer the sea, 9 Therfore wyll I mourne for Jazer, and for the vine of Sibma, I wyll poure my teares vpon thee O Heshbon and Elealc: for the crye of thyne enemies is fallen vpon thy sommer fruites, and vpon thy harueſt. 10 The mirth and cheare is taken away out of the plentifull feelde, and in the vineyardes there shalbe no ioy nor gladnesse: the treader shall treade out no wine in their prelles, the song of their merry cheare haue I layde downe.

11 (b) Wherefore my bowels shall rumble lyke an harpe for Moabs sake, and myne inwarde partes for the cities sake that is made of bryche. 12 And it shall come to passe that when it is seene that Moab shalbe made weery of his hyll chappelles, he shall come to his temple to pray, (c) but he shall not be able. 13 So then this is the saying that the Lorde hath spoken concernyng Moab since that tyme. 14 But nowe the Lorde hath spoken, saying, In three yeres, which shalbe as the yeres of an hyred seruaunt, shall the glorie of Moab be turned into contempt throughout all his multitude, whiche is very great: and that which remayneth shalbe very small and feeble.

(a) The careleſſe and obſtinate deſpiſers of timely repentaunce moued by the preachyng of gods worde, shall repent when it is to late.

(b) The ſuperſtitious and idolaters haue more truſt in one idoll and in ſome one place then in another: but all in vayne.

(c) Not be able through weerineſſe, or it shal not profite him.

¶ The .xvii. Chapter.
¶ A propheſie agaynſt Damaſcus.

A THis is the burthen vpon Damascus: beholde Damascus is taken away to be no more a citie, but shalbe an heape of broken stones. 2 The waste cities of Aroer shalbe foldes for cattell which shal lye there, and there shalbe none to fray them away. 3 Ephraim also shall no more be strong, and Damascus shall no longer be a kyngdome, and the remnaunt of Syria shalbe as the glory of the children of Israel, sayth the Lorde of hoastes. 4 And in that day it shall come to passe, that the glorie of Jacob shalbe made very thynne, and the fatnesse of his flesche shal waxe leane. 5 And he shalbe as one that gathereth vp corne in harueſt, euen like him whose arme reapeth the eares of corne: he shalbe also lyke him that gathereth eares of corne in the valley of Rephaim. 6 Some gathering in deede shall there be left in it, euen as in the shakyng of an Olyue tree there remayne two or three berries in the top of the vppermost bowe, and foure or fyue in the bpode fruitefull bzaunches thereof, sayth the Lozde God of Israel. 7 Then shall man turne a-gayne to his maker, and his eyes shall 16 haue respect to the holy one of Israeel. 8 As for the aulters whiche are his owne handy wozke he shall not re-garde them, and the thinges that his fingers hath made, as groues and images, those shall he not cast his eye vnto. 9 In that day shall their strong cities be as the forsaken shubbes and bzaunches, which they left because of the chyldren of Israel, and the lande shalbe desolate. 10 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy saluation, and hast not ben myndefull of thy strong rocke: therefore shalt thou set pleasaunt plantes, and shalt graffe

the bzaunche of another mans vine.
11 In that day shalt thou make thy plant to growe, and early in the moz-nyng shalt thou make thy seede to florishe: the harueste shalbe gone in the day of inheritaunce, and there shalbe sorowe without hope of comfort.
12 Wo shalbe to the multitude of much people, which shal make a sound lyke to the noyse of the sea, & the violence of the nations whiche shall rage like the rushing in of many waters.
C 13 Euen lyke many waters shall the people rage, God shall rebuke him, and he shall flee farre of, he shalbe chased away lyke as drye strawe vpon the mountaynes before the winde, and lyke a thing that turneth before the storme. 14 At euen beholde there is trouble, and or euer it be mornyng loe it is gone: this is the portion of them that oppresse vs, and the lot of them that robbe vs.

¶ The xviii. Chapter.

1 An exhortation to the Ethiopians and the countreys nygh adioynyng to them.
7 The vocation of the gentiles.

O That lande that trusteth vnder
the shadow of winges, (that land)
A which is beyonde the waters of Ethiopia, 2 Sendyng messengers by the sea, euen in vessels of reedes ouer the water. Get you hence ye speedie messengers to a nation that is scattered abzode, and robbed of that they had, a fearefull people from their begynnyng hytherto, a nation troden downe by litle and litle, whose lande the flooddes haue spoyled. 3 All the inhabiters of the worlde, and indwel-lers of the earth loke vp when ye sets teth vp a token in the mountaynes, and hearken when he blowerth with the trumpe. 4 For so the Lozd sayd vnto me (as for me) I wyl take my rest, and loke vpon the matter in my habitation, lyke a fayre heate after the rayne, and lyke a cloude of deawe in the heate of harueste. 5 For afore the harueste when the bzaunche is growen, there shall come ripe fruite of the floure: and he shall cut downe the increase with sythes, and the bzaunches shall he take away with hookes.
6 Thus shall they be left together vnto the foules of the mountaynes, and to the beastes of the earth: for in sommer the birdes shall remayne vp-on it, and euery beast of the land shal-be vppon it in wynter. 7 In that 18 tyme shall there a present be brought vnto the Lozde of hoastes, euen a people that is scattered abzode and robbed of that they had, that same people which haue ben fearefull from their begynnyng hytherto, a nation troden
downe by litle and litle, whose lande
the flooddes haue spoyled, to the place of the name of the Lozde of hoastes, euen to the mount Sion.

¶ The xix. Chapter.

1 He prophesieth agaynst Egypt, 18 and the vocation of the gentiles to Christ.

The burthen of Egypt. Behold the Lozde rydeth vpon a swyft cloude, and shall come into Egypt, and the idols of Egypt shal tremble at the presence of him, and the heart of Egypt shall quake in the midst of her.
2 And I wyll set the Egyptians one agaynst another, so that one brother shall fyght agaynst another, and one neighbour agaynst another, citie a-gaynst citie, & realme agaynst realme.
3 The mynde also of Egypt shalbe cleane without counsayle within it selfe, and the deuice that they take wil
I destroy: and they shall seeke counsel at idols and at sozcerers, at wozkers with spirites, and at soothsayers.
4 And the Egyptians wyll I gene ouer into the hande of a marueylous cruell lozde, and a mightie kyng shall haue dominion ouer them, sayth the Lozde God of hoastes. 5 The wa- 5 ters of the sea shall fayle, and the ryuer shall decrease and be dryed vp.
6 The waters shalbe drawen out, the ryuers of Egypt shalbe emptied and dryed vp, the reedes and flagges shal-be cut

be cut downe. 7 The grasse in the ryuer & by the ryuers banche, and all that groweth by the ryuer, shal wyther away, and be brought to naught.

8 The fishers also shall mourne, and all they that cast angle into the water shal make lamentation: and they that lay foorth their net beside the waters shalbe rooted out. 9 Moreouer, they that worke in flaxe and make fine workes shalbe confounded, and so shal they that weaue open workes.

10 For their open workes shall euen be destroyed, and all they that make pondes and slues for fishe shall come to naught. 11 But you foolishe princes of Zoan, ye wyse counsaylers of Pharao, whose wit is turned to foolishnesse, how say ye vnto Pharao, I am come of wyse men and of auncient kinges? 12 Where are thy wise men? Let them tell thee yf they can, what the Lorde of hoastes hath deuised vpon Egypt. 13 The princes of Zoan are become fooles, the princes of Moph are deceaued, they haue deceaued Egypt, euen they that were taken for the cheefe stay therof. 14 In the middest of it hath the Lorde powred the spirite of wickednesse: and they haue deceaued Egypt in euery worke therof, euen as a drunken man staggereth in his vomite. 15 Neither shall the (a)head or tayle, the braunche or reede be able to do any worke in Egypt. 16 In that day shall Egypt be lyke vnto women: it shalbe afrayde and stande in feare at the motion of the hande of the Lorde of hoastes which he shaketh ouer it. 17 And Egypt shalbe afrayde of the lande of Iuda: so that euery one that maketh mention of it shalbe afrayde thereat, because of the counsayle of the Lorde of hoastes which he deuised for it.

(a) By the head and braunche are ment the honorable and chiefest of the lande; by the tayle and reede, the multitude and lower sort of people.

18 In that day shall fiue cities in the lande of Egypt speake the language of Chanaan, and sweare by the Lorde of hoastes: the citie of desolation shalbe called one of them. 19 In that day shall the aulter of the Lorde be in the middest of the lande of Egypt, and this title beside it vnto the Lord.

20 And it shalbe a token and a witnesse vnto the Lorde of hoastes in the lande of Egypt: for they shall crie vnto the Lorde because of such as trouble them, and he shall sende them a sauiour and a great man to deliuer them. 21 And the Lorde shalbe knowen in Egypt, and the Egyptians shall knowe the Lorde in that day, and do sacrifice and oblation: yea they shal vowe a vowe vnto the Lorde, and performe it. 22 The Lorde also shall smyte Egypt sore, and heale them a- P gayne: and they shalbe conuerted vnto the Lorde, and he shalbe intreated of them, and shall heale them.

23 In that day shall there be a common way out of Egypt into Assyria, and Assyria shall come into Egypt, and Egypt into Assyria: so that the Egyptians and the Assyrians shall serue the Lorde together. 24 In that day shall the nation of Israel be the thirde with Egypt and Assyria: and they shalbe blessed in the middest of the lande, 25 Whiche lande the Lorde of hoastes hath blessed, saying, Blessed is my people of Egypt, Assur also is the worke of my handes, and Israel is myne inheritaunce.

¶ The .xx. Chapter.

¶ Agaynst Egypt and Ethiopia.

IN the yere that Tharthan came vn- A to Azod when Sargon the kyng of Assyria had sent him, & had fought agaynst Azod, and taken it: 2 At the same tyme spake the Lorde by the hande of Esai the sonne of Amos, saying, Go and take of the sackcloth from thy loynes, and put of thy shoe from thy foote. And he dyd so, walkyng naked and barefoote. 3 And the Lord sayde, Lyke as my seruaunt Esai hath walked naked and barfoote for a signe and wonder three yeres vppon Egypt and Ethiopia: 4 Euen so shall the kyng of Assyria take away out of Egypt and Ethiopia chyldren and olde men naked and barefoote, with their loynes vncouered, to the great shame of Egypt. 5 They shalbe brought in feare also, and be ashamed of Ethiopia their hope, and of Egypt wherein they are wont to glorie. 6 And they that dwell in the same Ile shall say in that day, Beholde suche is our hope, whyther shall we flee for helpe, that we may be deliuered from the kyng of Assyria? And howe shall we escape?

oop of the vppermoſt bowe, and foure or fyue in the bȝode fruitefull bȝaunches therof, ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael. 7 Then ſhall man turne agayne to his maker, and his eyes ſhall haue reſpect to the holy one of Iſrael. 8 As for the aulters whiche are his owne handy woȝke he ſhall not regarde them, and the thinges that his fingers hath made, as groues and ymages, thoſe ſhall he not caſt his eye vnto. 9 In that day ſhall their ſtrong cities be as the forſaken chȝubbes and bȝaunches, which they left becauſe of the chyldȝen of Iſrael, and the lande ſhalbe deſolate. 10 Becauſe thou haſt forgotten the God of thy ſaluation, and haſt not ben myndefull of thy ſtrong roche: therefore ſhalt thou ſet pleaſaunt plantes, and ſhalt graffe the bȝaunche of another mans vine.

11 In that day ſhalt thou make thy plant to growe, and early in the moȝnyng ſhalt thou make thy ſeede to flo-ȝiſhe: the harueſt ſhalbe gone in the day of inheritaunce, and there ſhalbe ſoȝowe without hope of comfoȝt.

12 Wo ſhalbe to the multitude of much people, which ſhal make a ſound lyke to the noyſe of the ſea, & the violence of the nations whiche ſhall rage like the ruſhing in of many waters.

13 Euen lyke many waters ſhall the people rage, God ſhall rebuke him, and he ſhall flee farre of, he ſhalbe chaſed away lyke as dȝye ſtrawe vpon the mountaynes before the winde, and lyke a thing that turneth before the ſtorme. 14 At euen beholde there is trouble, and or euer it be moȝnyng loe it is gone: this is the portion of them that oppreſſe vs, and the lot of them that robbe vs.

O That lande that truſteth vnder the ſhadow of winges, (that land) which is beyonde the waters of Ethiopia, 2 Sendyng meſſengers by the ſea, euen in veſſels of reedes ouer the water. Get you hence ye ſpeedie meſſengers to a nation that is ſcattered abȝode, and robbed of that they had, a fearefull people from their begynnyng hytherto, a nation troden downe by litle and litle, whoſe lande the flooddes haue ſpoyled. 3 All the inhabiters of the woȝlde, and indwellers of the earth loke vp when ye ſetteth vp a token in the mountaynes, and hearken when he blowerh with the trumpe. 4 For ſo the Lord ſayd vnto me (as for me) I wyl take my reſt, and loke vpon the matter in my habitation, lyke a fayre heate after the rayne, and lyke a cloude of deawe in the heate of harueſt. 5 For afore the harueſt when the bȝaunche is growen, there ſhall come ripe fruite of the floure: and he ſhall cut downe the increaſe with ſtiȝes, and the bȝaunches ſhall he take away with hookes.

6 Thus ſhall they be left together vnto the foules of the mountaynes, and to the beaſtes of the earth: for in ſommer the birdes ſhall remayne vpon it, and euery beaſt of the land ſhalbe vppon it in wynter. 7 In that tyme ſhall there a preſent be brought vnto the Lorde of hoaſtes, euen a people that is ſcattered abȝode and robbed of that they had, that ſame people which haue ben fearefull from their begynnyng hytherto, a nation troden downe by litle and litle, whoſe lande the flooddes haue ſpoyled, to the place of the name of the Lorde of hoaſtes, euen to the mount Sion.

¶ The xix. Chapter.

1 He propheſieth agaynſt Egypt, 18 and the vocation of the gentiles to Chriſt.

THe burthen of Egypt. Behold the Lorde rydeth vpon a ſwyft cloude, and ſhall come into Egypt, and the idols of Egypt ſhal tremble at the preſence of him, and the heart of Egypt ſhall quake in the midſt of her.

2 And I wyll ſet the Egyptians one agaynſt another, ſo that one brother ſhall fyght agaynſt another, and one neighbour agaynſt another, citie agaynſt citie, & realme agaynſt realme.

3 The mynde alſo of Egypt ſhalbe cleane without counſayle within it ſelfe, and the deuice that they take wil I deſtroy: and they ſhall ſeeke counſel at idols and at ſoꝛcerers, at woȝkers with ſpirites, and at ſoothſayers.

4 And the Egyptians wyll I gene ouer into the hande of a marueylous cruell lorde, and a mighty kyng ſhall haue dominion ouer them, ſayth the Lorde God of hoaſtes. 5 The waters of the ſea ſhall fayle, and the ryuer ſhall decreaſe and be dryed vp.

6 The waters ſhalbe dȝawen out, the ryuers of Egypt ſhalbe emptied and dryed vp, the reedes and flagges ſhalbe cut be cut downe. 7 The grasse in the ryuer & by the ryuers bancke, and all that groweth by the ryuer, shal wyther away, and be brought to naught.

8 The fishers also shall mourne, and all they that cast angle into the water shal make lamentation: and they that lay foorth their net beside the waters shalbe rooted out. 9 Moreouer, they that worke in flaxe and make fine workes shalbe confounded, and so shal they that weaue open workes.

10 For their open workes shall euen be destroyed, and all they that make pondes and slues for fishe shall come to naught. 11 But you foolishe princes of Zoan, ye wyse counsaylers of Pharao, whose wit is turned to foolishnesse, how say ye vnto Pharao, I am come of wyse men and of auncient kinges? 12 Where are thy wise men? Let them tell thee yf they can, what the Lorde of hoastes hath deuised vpon Egypt. 13 The princes of Zoan are become fooles, the princes of Noph are deceaued, they haue deceaued Egypt, euen they that were taken for the cheefe stay therof. 14 In the middest of it hath the Lorde powred the spirite of wickednesse: and they haue deceaued Egypt in euery worke therof, euen as a drunken man staggereth in his vomite. 15 Neither shall the (a) head or tayle, the braunche or reede be able to do any worke in Egypt. 16 In that day shall Egypt be lyke vnto women: it shalbe afrayde and stande in feare at the motion of the hande of the Lorde of hoastes which he shaketh ouer it. 17 And Egypt shalbe afrayde of the lande of Iuda: so that euery one that maketh mention of it shalbe afrayde thereat, because of the counsayle of the Lorde of hoastes which he deuised for it.

18 In that day shall fiue cities in the lande of Egypt speake the language of Chanaan, and sweare by the Lorde of hoastes: the citie of desolation shalbe called one of them. 19 In that day shall the aulter of the Lorde be in the middest of the lande of Egypt, and this title beside it vnto the Lord.

20 And it shalbe a token and a witnesse vnto the Lorde of hoastes in the lande of Egypt: for they shall crie vnto the Lorde because of such as trouble them, and he shall sende them a sauiour and a great man to deliuer them. 21 And the Lorde shalbe knowen in Egypt, and the Egyptians shall knowe the Lorde in that day, and do sacrifice and oblation: yea they shal vowe a vowe vnto the Lorde, and performe it. 22 The Lorde also shall smyte Egypt sore, and heale them agayne: and they shalbe conuerted vnto the Lorde, and he shalbe intreated of them, and shall heale them.

23 In that day shall there be a common way out of Egypt into Assyria, and Assyria shall come into Egypt, and Egypt into Assyria: so that the Egyptians and the Assyrians shall serue the Lorde together. 24 In that day shall the nation of Israel be the third with Egypt and Assyria: and they shalbe blessed in the middest of the lande, 25 Whiche lande the Lorde of hoastes hath blessed, saying, Blessed is my people of Egypt, Assur also is the worke of my handes, and Israel is myne inheritaunce.

(a) By the head and braunche are ment the honorable and chiefest of the lande; by the tayle and reede, the multitude and lower sort of people.

¶ Agaynst Egypt and Ethiopia.

IN the yere that Tharthan came vnto Asdod when Sargon the kyng of Assyria had sent him, & had fought agaynst Asdod, and taken it: 2 At the same tyme spake the Lorde by the hande of Esai the sonne of Amos, saying, Go and take of the sackcloth from thy loynes, and put of thy shoe from thy foote. And he dyd so, walkyng naked and barefoote. 3 And the Lord sayde, Lyke as my seruaunt Esai hath walked naked and barfoote for a signe and wonder three yeres vppon Egypt and Ethiopia: 4 Euen so shall the kyng of Assyria take away out of Egypt and Ethiopia chyldren and olde men naked and barefoote, with their loynes vncouered, to the great shame of Egypt. 5 They shalbe brought in feare also, and be ashamed of Ethiopia their hope, and of Egypt wherein they are wont to glorie. 6 And they that dwell in the same Ile shall say in that day, Beholde suche is our hope, whyther shall we flee for helpe, that we may be deliuered from the kyng of Assyria? And howe shall we escape?

¶ Agaynſt Babylon, Idumea, and Arabia.

(a) The waſt ſea is Babylon or Chaldee.

THe burthen of the (a) waſte ſea. Euen as the ſtormie weather paſſeth thorough at the noone day from the wildernelle, ſo ſhall it come from the terrible lande. 2 A greeuous viſion was ſhewed vnto me: let one deceytfull offendour come agaynſt another, and one deſtroyer agaynſt another: vp Elam, lay ſiege thou of Media, all their gronyng haue I layde downe. 3 Therefore are my loynes fylled with ſorowe, heauinelle hath taken holde vppon me as the panges of a woman that is trauaylyng: it made me ſtoupe when I heard it, and it vexed me when I ſawe it. 4 My heart panted, fearefulnelle came vpon me: the nyght of my voluptuouſnelle hath he turned agaynſt me into feare.

5 Whyle they garniſhed the table, the watchman loked: and while I was eatyng and drynkyng, it was ſayd, Vp ye captaynes, take you to your ſhielde.

B 6 For thus hath the Lorde ſayde vnto me, Go and ſet a watchman to tell what he ſeeth. 7 And he ſawe a charret whiche two horſemen ſat vpon, with the caryage of an aſſe, and the caryage of a camel: ſo he loked, and tooke diligent heede. 8 And he cryed, A lion, my Lorde I ſtande continually vpon the watch towre in the day time, and am appoynted to keepe my watch euery nyght. 9 And beholde here commeth a charret of men, with two horſemen, and he anſwered and ſaid, Babylon is fallen, it is fallen, and all the images of her gods hath he ſmytten downe vnto the ground. 10 Thou art he whom I muſt threſhe, and thou belongeſt to my corne floure: this that I hearde of the Lorde of hoaſtes the God of Iſrael, haue I ſhewed vnto you. 11 The burthen of Duma. He calleth to me out of Seir: watchman what haſt thou eſpied by nyght? watchman what haſt thou eſpied by nyght. 12 The watchman ſayde, The morneyng commeth, and ſo doth C the nyght: yf ye will aſke me any queſtion, then aſke it: returne and come agayne. 13 The burthen concerning Arabia. In the wooddes of Arabia ſhall ye tary all nyght, euen in the ſtreetes of Dedanim. 14 The inhabitours of the lande of Thema brought foorth water to him that was thirſtie, they preuented him that was fled away with their breed. 15 For becauſe of ſwordes they are become fugitiue, euen for the drawen ſworde, and for the bent bowe, and becauſe of the greeuouſnes of warre. 16 For thus hath the Lorde ſayde vnto me, There is yet a yere, accordyng to the yeres of an hyred ſeruaunt, and all the glorie of Cedar ſhall fayle. 17 And the number of them that ſhall eſcape from the bowes, ſhalbe minyſhed by the mightie chyldren of Cedar: for the Lorde God of Iſrael hath ſpoken it.

(a) Hieruſalem is ment by the valley of viſion.

THe burthen of the (a) valley of viſion. What haſt thou to do here, that thou clymbeſt to the houſe toppes? 2 Thou that art full of tumultuouſnes, thou troubleſome and proude citie: thy ſlayne men are neither put to death with the ſworde, nor dead in battayle. 3 All thy captaines are fugitiue together, the archers haue taken them priſoners: all they I ſay that are founde in thee are in captiuitie together, and they alſo that fled farre of. 4 Therefore ſayde I, Let me alone, and I will make lamentation: ye ſhall not be able to comfort me becauſe of the deſtruction of the daughter of my people. 5 For this is a day of trouble, of ruine, and of deſtruction, that the Lorde the God of hoaſtes will bryng to paſſe in the valley of viſion, breakyng downe the citie, and crying vnto mountaynes. Luke.xix.f. Iere.xl.a.

6 Elam bare the quiuer with a charret of footemen and horſemen, and the citie of Kir ſhewed the ſhielde open.

7 The chiefe valley alſo was full of charrettes, and the horſemen ſet their B faces directly to warde the gate.

8 And in that day dyd the enemie take away the couer of Iuda, and then didſt thou looke towarde the (b) armour of the houſe of the foreſt. 9 Ye haue ſeene alſo the broken places of the citie of Dauid, howe that they are many, and ye gathered together the waters of the lower poole. (c) The Lord doth not forbyd to make prouision of sure defence agaynst the enemies, so that our trust be put in him, and not in our fortresses and strong holdes.

12 And in that day dyd the Lord God of hoastes call men vnto weepyng and mournyng, to baldnesse and girdyng about with sackcloth.

13 And beholde they haue ioy and gladnesse, slayyng oxen, and kyllyng sheepe, eatyng flesshe, and drynkyng wine: let vs eate and drynke, for to morowe we shal dye. 14 And it came to the eares of the Lorde of hoastes, This iniquitie shall not be purged from you tyll ye dye, saith the Lorde God of hoastes. 15 Thus saith the

C Lorde God of hoastes, Get ye vnto yonder treasurer, euen vnto Sebna, which is the ruler of the house.

16 What hast thou to do here? and whom hast thou here? that thou shouldest here hewe thee out a sepulchre, as it were one that heweth him out a sepulchre on hie, or that graueth an habitation for him selfe on an harde rocke? 17 Beholde O thou man, the Lorde shall cary thee away into captiuitie, and shall surely couer thee with confusion. 18 The Lorde shall turne thee ouer lyke a ball with his handes (and shall sende thee) into a farre countrey: there shalt thou dye, and there in steade of the charrets of thy pompe shall the house of thy Lorde haue confusion. 19 I wyll driue thee from thy place, and out of thy dwellyng shall he ouerthrowe thee. 20 And in that day shall I cal my seruaunt Eliakim the sonne of Helkia: 21 And with thy garmentes

D wyll I clothe him, and with thy girdle wyll I strength him: thy power also wyll I commit into his hande, and he shalbe a father of such as dwel in Hierusalem and in the house of Iuda. 22 And the key of the house

Iob.12.b. Apoc.3.b. of Dauid wyll I lay vpon his shoulder: so that he shall open and no man shut, he shall shut and no man open.

23 And I wyll fasten him as a nayle in a sure place, and he shalbe the glorious seate of his fathers house.

24 Moreouer, all generations and posteritie shall hang vpon him all the glorie of their fathers house, all vessels both great and small, and all instrumentes of measure & musicke.

25 In that day saith the Lorde of hoastes, shall the nayle that is fastened in the sure place, depart and be broken, and fall: and the burthen that was vpon it shalbe pluckt away, for so the Lorde hath spoken.

¶ The.xxiii. Chapter.

1 A prophecie agaynst Tyrus, 17 and a promise that it shalbe restored againe.

THe burthen of Tyre. Mourne ye A shippes of Tharsis, for there Eze.25.& commeth such destruction, that ye shall not haue an house to enter into: and that there shalbe no traffike out of the lande of Cittim, they haue knowledge of this plague. 2 Be styll ye that dwell in the Ile, the marchauntes of Sidon, and such as passe ouer the sea haue made thee plenteous. 3 The corne that groweth by the great waters of Nilus, and the fruites of the riuer were her victuals, so that it became a common mart of nations. 4 Be ashamed thou Zidon: (a) By the sea and the strength of the sea, is meant Tyrus for the (a) sea, euen the strength of the sea hath spoken, saying, I haue not trauayled nor brought forth children, nor nourished vp young men, or brought vp virgins. 5 When tydynges commeth to the Egyptians, they shalbe sory for the rumour of Tyre. 6 Get you to Tharsis, mourne you that dwell in the Ile. 7 Is not B this that glorious citie of yours whych hath ben of olde antiquitie? her owne feete shal cary her forth to be a sojourner into a farre countrey.

8 Who hath deuised this agaynst Tyre that (b) crowneth her selfe? whose marchauntes are princes, and whose factours are honorable in the worlde. 9 Euen the Lord of hoastes hath deuised this, to put downe the pride of all such as be glorious, and to minishe all them that be proude vpon the earth. 10 Get thee out of thy lande lyke a flood vnto the daughter of Tharsis, for thou hast no more strength. 11 He that smote the kingdomes together, holdeth out his hande ouer the sea: euen the Lorde him selfe hath geuen a commaundement agaynst the same common place of marchandise, that they shal vtterly destroy the myght therof. 12 And he sayde, Make no more thy boast O virgin thou daughter Zidon, thou shalt be brought downe: vp, get thee ouer vnto Cittim, where neuertheles thou shalt haue no rest. 13 Beholde, this C people came not of the Chaldees, but Assur made them strong with great shippes: they set vp the strong holdes therof, and destroyed his palaces: and he brought it in decay. 14 Mourne

(b) That crowneth her selfe, that is, whiche boasted her selfe to be as it were the Queene of all cities on the sea coast.

ye shippes of Tharsis, for your strength is brought downe. 15 And in that day shall Tyre be forgotten seuentie yeres, according to the yeres of one king: and after the ende of seuentie yeres shall Tyre syng as doth an harlot. 16 Take an harpe and go about the citie thou harlot that hast ben forgotten, make sweete melodie, syng mo songes, that thou mayest be had in remembraunce. 17 And after the ende of the seuentie yeres shal the Lorde visite Tyre, and she shall conuert vnto her rewarde, and shal cõmit fornication with al the kingdomes of the earth that are in the worlde.

18 Their occupying also and their rewarde shalbe holy vnto the Lorde: their gaynes shall not be layde vp nor kept in store, but it shalbe theirs that dwell before the Lorde, that they may eate inough, & haue clothing sufficient.

¶ The. xxiiii. Chapter.

¶ A prophecie of tribulation to come vpon the worlde because of sinne.

BEholde, the Lorde maketh the earth waste and emptie, he turneth it vpside downe, and scatereth abrode the inhabitours therof.

2 And the priest shalbe as the people, and the maister as the seruaunt, the mistresse like the mayde, the seller like the byer, he that lendeth vpon vsurie, lyke him that borroweth vpon vsurie, the creditour as the dettour.

3 The lande shalbe cleane wasted and vtterly spoyled: for so the Lorde hath spoken. 4 The earth is sory and consumeth away, the worlde is feeble and perisheth, the proude people of the earth are come to naught.

5 The earth also is become vnprofitable vnder the inhabitours thereof, which haue transgressed the lawes, chaunged the ordinaunce, broken the euerlastyng couenaunt. 6 Therefore hath the curse consumed the earth, and they that dwell therin are fallen into trespalle: wherfore the inhabitours of the earth are perished with drought, and fewe men are left behynde. 7 The wine fayleth, the vine hath no myght, all they that haue ben merie of heart are come to mourmyng. 8 The mirth of tabrets is layde downe, the noyse of such as haue made merie is ceassed, the ioy of the harpe is at an ende. 9 They shal drynke no more wine with mirth, strong drynke shalbe bytter to them that drynke it. 10 The citie of vanitie is broken downe, euery house is shut vp, that no man may come in.

11 In the streetes is there a crying because of wine, al cheare is banished away, the mirth of the lande is gone. 12 In the citie is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 For in the middes of the lande, euen among the people it shall come to passe as at the shakyng of olues, and as the grapes are when the wine haruest is done. 14 They shall lyft vp their voyce, and make a merie noyse: and in magnifying of the Lord shall they crye out of the west. C

15 Wherfore prayse ye the Lorde in the valleys, euen the name of the Lorde God of Israel in the Iles of the sea. 16 From the vttermost part of the earth haue we hearde prayses and mirth, because of the ryghteous: and I sayde, I knowe a thyng in secrete, I knowe a thyng in secrete, wo is me: the transgressours haue offended, the transgressours haue greeuously offended. 17 Fearfulnesse, the pyt, and the snare are vpon thee, O thou that dwellest on the earth.

18 It wyll come to passe, that whosoeuer escapeth the fearefull noyse, shall fall into the pyt, and he that commeth vp out of the pyt, shalbe taken with the snare: for the windowes from on hygh are open, and the foundations of the earth are moued. 19 The earth is vtterly broken downe, the earth hath a sore rume, the earth quaketh exceedyngly: 20 The earth shal reele to and fro lyke a drunkarde, and shalbe remoued lyke a tent, and the iniquitie therof shalbe heauie vpon it, it shal fall, & not rise vp agayne. D

21 And in that day shall the Lorde visite the hoast aboue that is on hye, and the kinges of the worlde that are vpon the earth. 22 And they shalbe gathered together as they that be in prison, and they shalbe shut vp in warde, & after many dayes shal they be visited. 23 The moone shalbe abashed, and the sunne ashamed, when the Lorde of hoastes shall raigne in mount Sion and in Hierusalem with worship, and in the syght of such as shalbe of his counsell. ¶ The. xxv. Chapter.

1 A thankesgeuyng to god for his workes.

O Thou art my Lorde my God, I wyll magnifie thee, I wyll geue thankes vnto thy name, for thou hast brought wonderfull thynges to passe, accordyng to thyne olde counselles truely and faythfully. 2 Thou Esai.26.a. hast made a citie a heape of stones, and brought a strong towne into decay: the habitation of straungers hast thou made to be no citie, neither shall it be builded any more. 3 Therfore shall the mightie people geue glorie vnto thee, the citie of the valiaunt heathen shall feare thee. 4 For thou hast ben a strength vnto the poore, and a succour for the needy in his trouble, a refuge agaynst enyll weather, a shadowe agaynst the heate: for the blast of ragyng men is lyke a storme that casteth downe a wall.

5 Lyke as the heate in a drye place wasteth all thynges: so shalt thou suppresse the noyse of aliauntes, the heate (is abated) with the shadowe of the cloude (euen so shall God) allwage the noyse of the cruell tyrauntes.

6 And in this mountayne shall the B Lorde of hoastes make vnto all people a feast of plenteous and delicate Luk.14.d. thynges, euen of most pleasaunt and dayntie dishes. 7 And in this mountayne shall the Lorde destroy the couerynge that all people are wrapped in, and the hangyng that is spread vpon all nations. 8 As for death he Osee.13.c. hath destroyed it for euer, and the Apo.7.c. and.21.c. Lorde God shall wype away teares 1.Cor.15.f from all faces, and the rebuke of his people shall he take away out of all the earth, for so the Lorde hath sayde.

9 And in that day it shalbe sayde, Lo Ephe.2.a. this is our God, we haue wayted for him, and he shall saue vs, this is the Lorde in whom we haue hoped, we wyll be merie and reioyce in the saluation (that commeth) of him. 10 For in this mountayne shall the hande of the Lorde reaste, and Moab shalbe threshed vnder him, euen as strawe is troden to doung on the dounghyll. 11 And he shall stretch out his hande in the middes of them, as he that swimmeth casteth out his handes to swimme: and with the strength of his handes shall he bryng downe their pryde. 12 The strong holde also and defence of thy walles hath he ouerthrowen and cast downe, and brought them to the grounde, euen vnto dust.

1 A prophesie of the comming of Christ, and destruction of idolatrie.

IN that day the Lorde with his sore, great, and mightie sworde, shall visite (a) Leuiathan the fugitiue serpent, euen Leuiathan that croked serpent, and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea. 2 In that day see that ye syng of the congregation which is the vineyarde that bringeth forth the best wine:
3 Euen I the Lorde do kepe it, in due seasons shall I water it: and lest the enemie do it any harme, I wyll both nyght and day preserue it. 4 There is no displeasure in me, els when the vineyarde bringeth me forth briers and thornes I would go through it by warre, and burne it vp together.
5 Let it take holde of my (b) strength, and it shalbe at one with me, euen at one shal it be with me. 6 The dayes are commyng that Jacob shall take roote, Israel shalbe greene and florishe, and the world shalbe fylled with fruite. 7 Hath he smitten him as sore as he dyd the other that smote him? Or is he slayne with so sore a slaughter as they that slue him?
8 Thou wylt punishe it in the braunches, yet not beyonde measure: for in the day that the east wynde bloweth sore, it taketh away the fruites.
9 By this meanes therfore shall the iniquitie of Jacob be purged, and this is all the fruite (namely) the (c) taking away of his sinne, yf he make all the stones of the aulter of idols as chalke stones that are beaten in sunder, that their groues and images ryse not vp agayne. 10 Els shall the strong citie be desolate, and the habitation forsaken and left like a wildernes: there shall the Calfe feede, and there shall he lye, and eate vp the grasses therof.
11 When the braunches of it are drye they are broken of, and the women come and set them on fire: for it is a people of no vnderstandyng, and therfore he that made them shall not fauour them, and he that created them shall geue them no grace. 12 And in that day shall the Lorde make a threshyng from the middes of the riuer Euphrates, vnto the riuer of Egypt, and ye children of Israel shalbe gathered together one to another. 13 In that day shall the great trumpe be blowne, so that they which were lost in the lande of Assyria, and they that were banished in the lande of Egypt, shall come and worship the Lorde in the holy mount of Hierusalem.

(a) By Leuiatha the greatest of fisshes in the sea, is meant the kingdome of Satan, and the mightie tyrauntes of the worlde, enemies to Christe, and persecutours of his religion.

(b) God calleth his worde his strength, because therby he winneth men, and byndeth them vnto him selfe.

(c) God vseth affections, as meanes to call men to repentaunce, wherupon foloweth forgeuenesse of sinnes,

¶ The. xxviii. Chapter.

1 Agaynst the pride of Ephraim, 9 and agaynst false priestes and preachers.

WO be vnto the crowne of pryde, euen to the drunken people of Ephraim, whose great pompe is as a floure that fadeth away vpon the head of the valley of such as be in wealth, and are ouerladen with wine. 2 Beholde, there com-
Mat. 16.c. meth a vehement and sore day from the Lorde, lyke an vnmeasurable hayle and perilous tempest, euen lyke the force of mightie and horrible waters that violently beareth downe all thynges. 3 The crowne of the pryde of the drunken Ephraimites shalbe troden vnder foote:
4 So that the floure of his fairnesse and and beautie which is in the head of the valley of fatnesse, shall fade away as doth an vntymely rype figge before haruest: which when a man espyeth, he loketh vpon it, and whyle it is yet in his hande he eateth it vp.

5 In that day shall the Lorde of hoastes be the crowne of glorie and diamonde of beautie vnto the residue of his people. 6 He will be also a spirite of perfect knowledge to him that sitteth in iudgement, & strength vnto them that turne away the battell to the gate (of the enemies.)

B 7 But they are out of the way by reason of wine, yea farre out of the way are they through strong drynke: Esai. 3.c. the priest also and the prophete are gone astray by the meanes of strong drynke, they are drunken with wine, they go amisse through strong drinke, they fayle in prophecying, and stumble in iudgement. 8 For all tables are full of vomit and fylthynesse, that no place is cleane. 9 Whom then shall such one teache knowledge? and whom shall he make to vnderstande the thyng that he heareth? for they are as ignorannt as young children that are taken from the mylke, and are weaned. 10 For they that be such, must take after one lesson, another lesson, after one commaundement, another commaundement, for one rule, another rule, after one instruction, another instruction, there a litle, and there a litle. Esai.10.a Mat.23.a 11 For he that speaketh vnto this people, is euen as one that vseth rudenesse of speache, and a straunge language.

12 If any man say vnto them, Lo, this is the rest wherwith ye may ease him that is weerie, this is the refreshyng: they will not hearken. 1.Cor.14.c 13 Therefore shall the worde of the Lorde be vnto them, lesson vpon lesson, commaundement vpon comaunstement, rule vpon rule, instruction vpon instruction, there a litle, and there a litle: that they may go on and fall backwarde, be bruised, tangled and C snared. 14 Wherfore heare the word of the Lorde ye mockers, ye that haue rule of this people which is at Hierusalem. 15 Because ye haue sayde, We haue made a couenaunt with death, & with hel are we at agreemēt: and though there go foorth a sore plague, it shall not come vnto vs, for we haue made falshood our refuge, and vnder vanitie are we hyd.

16 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, I lay in Sion for a foundation a stone, euen a tryed stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: who so beleeueth, let him not be to(a) hastie. 17 Iudgement also will I lay to the rule, & righteousnes to the ballaunce, so that the (b) hayle shall sweepe away as a broome your bayse confidence, and the prinie place of your refuge shall the waters runne ouer. 18 And thus the couenaunt that ye made with death, shalbe disanulled, and your agreement that ye made with hell shall not stande, yea when the sore plague goeth foorth, ye shalbe troden downe vnder it.

19 From the tyme that it goeth foorth it shal take you away: for early in the mornyng euery day, yea both day and nyght shall it go through, and when the noyse therof is perceaued, it shall gender vexation. 20 For the bed is narowe and not large, and the coueryng so small that a man can not wynde him selfe (vnder it.) 21 For the Lorde shall stande as in mount Perazim, and shalbe wroth lyke as in the valley Gibeon, that he may do his worke, his straunge worke, and bryng to passe his acte, his straunge acte.

22 Nowe therfore see that ye be no mockers, lest your punishment increase: for I heard of the Lorde of hoastes that there shall come a short ende vpon the whole earth. 23 Heare ye then, and hearken vnto my voyce, consyder and ponder my speache.

24 Doth not the husbandman plowe all the day, and openeth and breaketh the clottes of his grounde, that he may sowe? 25 When he hath made it playne, will he not spreade abrode the fitches, and sowe comin, and cast in wheate by measure, and the appoynted barlye and rye in their place? 26 God will instruct him to haue discretion, euen his God will teache him. 27 For fitches shall not be threshed with an harrowe, neither shal a cart wheele be brought through the comin: but the fitches are beaten out with a staffe, & comin with a rod.

28 But the seede that bread is made of is threshed, though it be not alway a threshyng, and the cart wheele must be brought ouer it, lest he grynde it with his teeth. 29 This also commeth of the Lorde of hoastes, which worketh with wonderfull wisdome, & bryngeth excellent workes to passe.

(a) Who so through fayth doth stay himselfe vpon Christ, in hasty going forward, shal not fall: that is, shall not fayle of that he howeth to obtayne.

(b) The gospell is compared to hayle and flooddes, for that it breaketh downe and caryeth away idolatrie and superstition, wherin men do truste in vayne.

1 A prophecie agaynſt Hieruſalem, and agaynſt the vayne traditions of men.

A 2.Sam.5.b WO vnto thee O Ariel Ariel, thou citie that Dauid dwelt in: Go on from yere to yere, and let the lammes be ſlayne. 2 I wyll lay ſiege vnto Ariel, ſo that there ſhalbe heauineſſe and ſorowe in it: and it ſhalbe vnto me euen an aulter of ſlaughter. 3 I wyll beſiege thee rounde about, and fyght agaynſt thee thrꝛough a bulwarke, and wyll reare vp diches agaynſt thee. 4 Thou ſhalt be brought downe, and ſhalt ſpeake out of the grounde, and thy ſpeache ſhall go lowe out of the duſt: 5 Thy voyce alſo ſhal come out of the ground like the voyce of a witche, and thy talkyng ſhall whiſper out of the duſt: 5 Moꝛeouer, the noyſe of the ſtraunge enemies ſhalbe lyke thinne duſt, and the multitude of tyꝛauntes ſhalbe as drye ſtrawe that can not tary: euen ſodenly and in haſte ſhall their blaſt go.

¶ The. xxx. Chapter.

1 Agaynst them that forsake the counsel of god, and cleaue to the counsell of men. 3 The prophete also threatneth the remnaunt of the people, that after the destruction of Hierusalem went into Egypt.

Esai.8.b.

ALas for those disobedient children saith the Lorde, that they wyll take counsell and not of me, that they wyll take a secrete aduice and not out of my spirite, and therfore adde they sinne vnto sinne.

2 Euen they that walke to go downe into Egypt, and haue asked no question at my mouth, but seke strength in the myght of Pharao, and trust in the shadowe of Egypt. 3 Therfore shall the strength of Pharao be your confusion, and the trust in the shadowe of Egypt your shame. 4 For his captaynes were at Zoan, and his embassadours came vnto Hanes.

5 They were ashamed of the people that coulde do them no good, and that myght not helpe them nor shewe them any profite, but were their confusion and rebuke. 6 The burthen of the beastes of the south. In a lande of trouble and anguishe, from whence shall come the young and olde lion, the viper and fierce serpent that fleeth agaynst them that vpon coltes beare their riches, and vpon camels their treasures, to a people that can do them no good.

1.king.18.d. Jere.17.b. Ezech.29.a.

7 For vayne and nothyng worth shall the helpe of the Egyptians be: therfore haue I cryed vnto Hierusalem, they shal haue strength inough yf they wyll settle their myndes in quietnesse. 8 Nowe therefore go thy way, and write this before them in a table, and note it in a booke: that it may finally remayne and be kept styll for euer. 9 For this is an obstinate people, and dissemblyng children, children that refuse to heare the lawe of the Lorde. 10 For they say vnto the seers, See not: and to them that be cleare of iudgement, Loke not out ryght thynges for vs: but speake fayre wordes vnto vs, loke out errours, 11 Get you out of this way, depart out of this path, and turne the holy one of Israel from vs. 12 Wherfore thus saith the holy one of Israel, Because your hartes ryse agaynst this worde, and because you trust in wrong dealyng and peruerse iudgement, and put your confidence therein:

Esai.8.a. Esai.1.d.

13 Therfore shall ye haue this mischeefe for your destruction and fall, lyke as an hye wall that falleth because of some ryft or blast, whose breakyng commeth sodaynly.

14 And the hurt therof is lyke an earthen vessell which breaketh without pitie, so that in the burstyng of it, there is not founde one sheuer to fetche fire in, or to take water withall out of the pyt. 15 For thus saith the Lorde God, euen the holy one of Israel, In repentaunce and in rest shall ye be safe, in quietnesse and sure confidence shalbe your strength, but ye haue had no lyst therto. 16 For ye haue sayd, No, but we wyll escape through horses, therfore shall ye flee: and we wyll get vs vp vpon swyft beastes, and therfore shall your persecutours be swyfter. 17 A thousande shall flee at the rebuke of one, and at the rebuke of fiue shall ye all flee, tyll ye be left as a ship mast vpon the top of a mountayne, and as a beaken vpon an hyll. 18 Therfore doth the Lorde cause you to wayte, that he may haue mercie vpon you, to the intent that he may haue the preeminence when he is gracious vnto you: for the Lorde is the God of iudgement, Blessed are all they that hope in him. 19 If the people remayne in Sion and at Hierusalem, thou shalt not be in heauinesse: but at the voyce of thy complaynt shall he haue mercie vpon thee, and when he heareth it, he shall geue thee an aunswere. 20 And though the Lorde geue you the bread of trouble, and the water of aduersitie, thy rayne shalbe no more so scant, but thyne eyes shall see thy rayne. 21 Yea and thyne eare shall heare the talkyng of him that doth speake behynde thee: This is the way, walke ye in it, turne not aside neither to the ryght hande, nor to the left.

22 Ye shall destroy also the couering of your syluer images, and the decking of your golden idols, euen as filthynesse shalt thou put them away: and thou shalt say vnto it, Get thee hence.

23 Then ſhall God geue rayne vnto thy ſeede, that thou ſhalt ſowe the grounde withall, and bread of the increaſe of the earth, which ſhalbe fat and very plenteous: in that day alſo ſhall thy cattell be fed in large paſtures. 24 The oxen lykewyſe and the young aſſes that eare the ground ſhall eate cleane prouender, which is purged with the winde and the fanne.

25 Finally, vpon euery hye mountayne and hyll ſhall there be riuers, 2.Pet.3.b. and ſtreames of waters in the day of the great ſlaughter when the towres fall. E 26 Moreouer, the lyght of the moone ſhalbe as the lyght of the ſunne, and the ſunne lyght ſhalbe ſeuen folde, and haue as much ſhine as in ſeuen dayes beſyde, when the Lord byndeth vp the ſore of his people, & healeth the ſtroke of their wounde.

27 Beholde, the fame of the Lorde commeth from farre, and his preſence is ſo hot, that no man is able to abyde: his lippes are full of indignation, and his tongue is as a conſumyng fire. 28 His breath is a vehement flood of water that reacheth vp to the necke: that he may ſift away the heathen in the ſiue of vanitie, and his breath is a bridle of errour in the iawes of the people.

F 29 And ye ſhall ſyng lyke as in the nyght when the holy ſolempnitie begynneth, and ye ſhall haue gladnes of heart, lyke as when one commeth with a pipe vnto the hyll of the Lord, and to the moſt mightie one of Iſrael.

30 And the Lorde ſhall cauſe his glorious voyce to be hearde, and ſhall declare his ſtretched out arme with a terrible countenaunce, and with the flame of a conſumyng fire, with noyſome lyghtenyng, with a ſhowre, and Eſai.10.a. with hayle ſtones. 31 For through the voyce of the Lorde ſhall Aſſur be deſtroyed, which ſmote other men with the rod. 32 And it ſhall come to paſſe, that whither ſoeuer he goeth, the rod ſhall cleaue vnto him which the Lorde ſhall laye vpon him, with tabrets and harpes: and with great warre ſhall he fyght agaynſt his hoaſt. Mat.25.b 33 For the fire of hell is ordayned from the begynnyng, yea euen for the king is it prepared: this hath the Lorde let in the deepe, and made it wyde, the burnyng wherof is fire and much wood: the breath of the Lorde which is lyke a riuer of brimſtone doth kindle it.

1 He curſeth them that forſake god, and ſeke for the helpe of men.

WO be vnto them that go downe into Egypt for helpe, and truſt in horſes, and put their confidence in charrets becauſe they be many, and in horſmen becauſe they be luſtie and ſtrong: but they regarde not the holy one of Iſrael, and they aſke no queſtion at the Lorde. 2 And he neuertheleſſe is wiſe, and wyll plague the wicked, and goeth not from his word, he wyll aryſe agaynſt the houſholde of the froward, and agaynſt the helpe of cuyll doers. 3 Nowe the Egyptians are men and not God, and their horſes fleſhe, and not ſpirite: and aſſoone as the Lorde ſtretcheth out his hande, then ſhall the helper fall and he that ſhoulde haue ben helped, and they ſhall altogether be deſtroyed.

4 For thus hath the Lorde ſpoken vnto me, Lyke as the lion and lions whelpe roareth vpon the pray that he hath gotten, and is not afraid though the multitude of sheepheardes crye out vpon him, neither be abaſhed for all the heape of them: ſo ſhall the Lord of hoaſtes come downe to fight for mount Sion, and defende his hyl. Apo.5.a. Gen.49.b

5 Lyke as the birdes flutter about their neſtes, ſo ſhall the Lorde of hoaſtes kepe, ſaue, defende, and deliuer Hieruſalem. 6 Therefore O ye childzen of Iſrael, turne agayne vnto him whom you haue oft tymes forſaken. 7 For in that day euery man ſhall caſt out his idols of ſiluer, and his idols of golde, which ye haue made with your owne handes vnto your ſinne. 8 Aſſur alſo ſhalbe ſlaine Eſai.37.6 with the ſwoorde, not with a mans ſwoorde, neither ſhall the ſwoorde of any man deuour him, and he ſhall flee from the ſlaughter, and his choyſe young men ſhalbe diſcomfited.

1 The conditions of good rulers and officers.

BEholde, a king ſhall gouerne after the rule of rygh teouſneſſe, and the princes ſhall rule accordyng to the ballaunce of equitie. 2 And that man ſhalbe vnto men as a defence for the wynde, and as a refuge for the tempeſt, tempest, lyke as a ryuer of water in a thirstie place, and the shadowe of a great rocke in a drye lande. 3 The eyes of the seeing shall not be dim, and the eares of them that heare shall take diligent heede. 4 The heart of the vnwyse shall attayne to knowledge, and the vnperfect tongue shall speake playnely and distinctly.

5 Then shall the foolishe nigarde be no moze called gentle, noz the churle liberall. 6 But the nigarde wyll speake nigardly, and his heart wyll wozke cupll, and play the hypocrite, and imagine abhominations against God, to make the hungrye leane, and to withholde drinke from the thirstie.

B 7 The weapons of the churlishe are cupll, he deuiseth noysome deuises, that he may begyle the pooze with deceyptfull wozdes, yea euen there as he shoulde geue sentence with the Pro.xxiii.b. pooze. 8 But the liberall person imagineth honest thinges, and commeth vp foz liberalitie vnto promotion.

9 Vp ye ryche and idle women, hearken vnto my voyce, ye careles daughters marke my wozdes.

10 Many yeres and dayes shall ye be vrought in feare O ye careless women: foz the vintage shall fayle, and the harueste shall not come. 11 Be abashed you that lyue in aboundance, tremble you that lyue careless, cast of your rayment, make your selues bare, and put sackecloth about you. 12 Foz as the infantes weepe when their mothers teates are dryed vp: so shall you weepe foz your fayre fieldes and fruitfull vineyardes. 13 My peoples fielde shall bryng thoznes and thistles: and so shall it be in euery C house of voluptuousnesse, and in euery citie that reioyceth. 14 The palaces also shalbe broken, and the greatly occupied cities desolate: The towers and bulwarkes shall become denne foz euermoze, where wylde asses take their pleasure, and sheepe their pasture. 15 Vnto the tyme that the spirite be powzed vpon vs from above, and that the wyldernesse be a fruitfull fielde, and the plenteous fielde be reckened foz a wood.

16 Then shall equitie dwell in the desart, and righteousnesse in a fruitfull lande. 17 And the wozke of righteousnesse shalbe peace, and her fruite rest and quietnesse foz euer. 18 And my people shall dwell in the innes of peace, and in sure dwellinges, in safe places of comfoze. 19 And when the hayle falleth, it shall fall in the wood, and the citie shalbe set lowe in the valley. 20 O howe happy shall ye be when ye shall safely sowe your seede beside all waters, and dryue thyther the feete of your oxen and asses.

1 The laſt deſtruction of the ſynagogue, in which the kingdome and prieſthood of the people was tranſlated to the Church and congregation of Chriſte.

COme ye heathen and heare, take heede you people: hearken thou earth and all that is therin, thou rounde compaſſe and all that dwelleth therupon. 2 For the Lorde is angrye with all people, and his diſpleaſure is kindled againſt all the multitude of them, he hath deſtroyed them, and deliuered them to the ſlaughter.
3 So that their ſlayne ſhalbe caſt out and their bodyes ſtincke, that euen the very hylles ſhalbe wet with the blood of them. 4 All the ſtarres of heauen ſhall waſte, and the heauens ſhall folde together lyke a roll, and all the ſtarres thereof ſhall fall like as the leaues fall from the vines and figge trees. 5 For my ſworde ſhalbe bathed in heauen, and ſhall immediatly come downe to iudgement vpon Idumea, and vpon the people whiche I haue curſed. 6 And the Lordes ſworde ſhalbe full of blood, and be ruſtie with the fatnelle and blood of lammes and goates, with the fatnelle of the kidneys of weathers: for the Lorde ſhall kyll a great offering in Bozra, and a great ſlaughter in the lande of Idumea. 7 There ſhall the Vnicornes fall with them, and the Bulles with the Stiauntes, and their land ſhalbe throughly ſoked with blood, and their grounde corrupt with fatnelle. 8 For it is the (a) day of Gods vengeaunce, and the yere of recompence for the reuenge of Sion. 9 And his flooddes ſhalbe turned to pitch, and his earth to brimſtone, and therewith ſhall the lande be kindled. 10 So that it ſhall not be quenched day nor nyght, but ſmoke euermore, and ſo foorth lye waſte: and no man ſhall go through it for euer. 11 But Pellicanes, Strokes, great Owles, and Rauens ſhall haue it in poſſeſſion and dwell therein: for God ſhall ſpreade out the line of deſolation vpon it, and the ſtones of emptineſſe. 12 Her nobles ſhall call, and there is no kyngdome: and all her princes ſhalbe nothing. 13 Thornes ſhall growe in their palaces, nettles, and thiſtles in their ſtrong holdes, that the dragons may haue their pleaſure therein, and that they may be a court for Oſtriches. 14 There ſhall ſtraunge beaſtes and monſterous beaſtes meete one another, and the wylde kepe company together: there ſhall the Lamia lye and haue her lodging.
15 There

(a) God declareth his loue & care to preſerue his Churche by his ſeuere punyſhing of the enemies to his Churche.

15 There shall the Owle make her nest, buylde, be there at home, and bryng foorth her young ones: there shall the Kytes come together, eche one to his lyke. 16 Seeke throughe the booke of the Lorde and reade it: there shall none of these thinges be left out, there shall not one nor lyche lyke fayle: for his mouth commaundeth, and that same doth his spirite gather together, or fulfill. 17 He hath cast the lot for them, and to those beastes hath his hande divided it by the line: therefore those shall possesse it for ever, from generation to generation shall they dwell therein.

¶ The.xxxv. Chapter.

1 Of the tyme and kyngdome of Christe.

BVt (a) the desart and wyldernesse shall reioyce, the waste grounde shall be glad and flourishe as the Lilie. 2 She shall flourishe pleasauntly and be ioyfull, and euer be geuing thankes more and more: For the glory of Libanus, the beautie of Charmell and Saron shalbe geuen her: These shall knowe the honour of the Lorde, and the maiestie of our God. 3 And therfore (b) strength the weake handes, and comfort the feeble knees. 4 Say vnto them that are of a fearefull heart, Be of good cheare and feare not, beholde your God commeth to take vengeaunce, and you shall see the rewarde that God geueth: God commeth his owne selfe, and wyll deliuer you.

5 Then shall the eyes of the blynde be lightened, and the eares of the deaffe opened. 6 Then shall the lame men leape as an Hart, and the dumme mans tongue shall geue thankes: for in the wyldernesse there shall welles spryng, and floodes of water in the desart. 7 The dry grounde shall turne to riuers, and the thirstie to springes of water: whereas dragons dwelt afore, there shall grow sweete flowres and greene rushes.

8 There shalbe foote pathes and common streetes, this shalbe called the holy way: no vncleane person shall go through it, for the Lorde hym selfe shall go with them that way, and the wayfayrer nor ignorant shall not erre. 9 There shalbe no Lion, and no rauishing beastes shall come therein nor be there, but men redeemed shall go there free and safe. 10 And the redeemed of the Lord I say shall conuert and come to Sion with thankesgeuing: euerlasting ioy shall they haue, pleasure and gladnesse shalbe among them, and as for all sorowe and heauinesse it shall banishe.

¶ The.xxxvi. Chapter.

1 Hierusalem is besieged by Sennacherib in the tyme of kyng Ezekias.

IN the fourteenth yere of kyng Ezekias came Sennacherib kyng of the Assyrians downe, to lay siege vnto all the strong cities of Iuda, to conquer them. 2 And the kyng of the Assyrians sent Rabsakeh from Lachis towarde Hierusalem, against Ezekias with an exceeding hoast, whiche set hym by the conduite of the ouer poole in the way that goeth though the fullers lande. 3 And so there came foorth vnto hym Eliakim Helkias sonne, the chiefe ouer the householde, Sobna the scribe, and Ioah Asaphs sonne the secretarie: 4 And Rabsakeh sayde vnto them, Tell Ezekia that the great kyng saith thus vnto hym, What presumption is this that thou trustest vnto? 5 I sayde surely that thou trustest in bayne wordes, when counsayle and strength are necessarie to battayle: but nowe whereto trustest thou, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou puttest thy trust in a broken staffe of reede (I meane) Egypt, whiche he that leaneth vpon, it goeth into his hande, and thoroweth it through: euen so is Pharao the kyng of Egypt vnto all them that trust in hym. 7 But if thou wouldest say vnto me, We trust in the Lorde our God, Is not he that God whose hygh places and aulters Ezekia tooke downe, and commaunded Iuda and Hierusalem to worship onlye before this aulter? 8 Nowe therefore deliuer hostages that thou rebell no more against my Lorde the kyng of the Assyrians, and I wyll gene thee two thousande horses if thou be able to set men vpon them. 9 Howe darest thou resist the power of the smallest prince that my Lorde hath? howe darest thou trust in the charrettes and horsemen of Egypt? 10 Moreouer, thinkest thou that I am come vp hyther to destroy this lande without the Lordes will? The Lorde sayde vnto me, Go vp against this lande and destroy it. 11 Then sayde Eliakim, Sobna, & Joah, vnto Rabsakeh, Speake to vs thy seruauntes we pray thee in the Syrians language, for we vnderstande it well, and speake not to vs in the Jewes tongue, lest the folke heare whiche sitteth vpon the wall. 12 Then answered Rabsakeh, Hath my maister sent me to speake this onlye to thy maister and thee? hath he not sent me to them also that sytte vpon the wall? that they may be compelled to eate their owne dunge, and drynke their owne stale with you? 13 And Rabsakeh stoode stifte, and cryed with a loude voyce in the Jewes tongue, and sayde, Howe take heede howe the great kyng of the Assyrians geueth you warning,

C 14 Thus saith the kyng, Let not Ezekia deceaue you, for he shall not be able to deliuer you. 15 Moreouer, let not Ezekia comfort you in the Lorde when he saith, The Lord without doubt shall defende vs, and shall not geue ouer this citie into the handes of the kyng of the Assyrians.

16 Hearken not to Ezekia, for thus saith the kyng of Assyria, Obtayne my fauour, encline to me, so may euery man enioy his vineyardes and figge trees, and drinke the water of his cesterne: 17 Vnto the tyme that I come my selfe, and bryng you into a lande that is like your owne, wherein is wheate and wine, whiche is both sowen with seede and planted with Esai. x.a. vineyardes. 18 Let not Ezekia deceaue you, when he saith vnto you, the Lorde shal deliuer vs: Might the gods of the gentiles kepe euery mans lande from the power of the kyng of the Assyrians? 19 Where is the god of Hemath and Arphad? where is the god of Sepharuaim? and who is able to defende Samaria out of my hande?

D 20 Or which of all the gods of these landes hath deliuered their countrey out of my power? Is the Lorde in deede able to deliuer Hierusalem from my hande? 21 Vnto this Ezekias messengers helde their tongues, and answered not one word: for the kyng had charged them that they shoulde geue hym no answere.

22 So came Eliakim Helkias sonne the chiefe ouer the householde, Sobna the scribe, and Joah Asaphes sonne the secretarie vnto Ezekia with rent clothes, and tolde hym the wordes of Rabsakeh.

¶ The.xxxvii. Chapter.

1 Ezekia humbleth hym selfe before the Lorde. 35 The armie of Sennacherib is slayne of the angell of the Lorde, 38 and he hym selfe is kylled of his owne sonnes.

WHen Ezekia heard that, he rent his clothes, & put on sackcloth, A and went into the temple of the 2.king.19.1
Lorde. 2 But he sent Eliakim the chiefe ouer the householde, Sobna the scribe, with the eldest priestes clothed in sacke, vnto the prophete Esai Jona.iii.a.
the sonne of Amos, 3 And they sayd vnto hym, Thus saith Ezekia: This is the day of trouble, of plague, and of blasphemie: for the children are come to the place of byrth, but there is no power to bryng them forth. 4 The Lorde thy God (no doubt) hath well considered the wordes of Rabsakeh, whom his lord kyng of the Assyrians hath sent to defie and blaspheme the liuing God, with such wordes as the Lorde thy God hath heard right well: and therfore lyft vp thy prayer for the remnaunt that yet are left. 5 So the seruauntes of the kyng Ezekia came to Esai. 6 And Esai gaue them this answere, Say thus vnto your lorde, Thus saith the Lorde: Be not afraide of the wordes that thou hast hearde, wherwith the kyng of the Assyrians seruauntes haue blasphemed me. 7 Beholde, I wyll sende vp a wynde against hym, and he shall B into his countrey, there wyll I destroy hym with the swoorde in his owne lande. 8 Nowe when Rabsakeh returned, he founde the kyng of 1.Sa 15.4.

Assyria laying siege to Libnas: for he had vnderstanding that he was departed from Lachis. 9 And there came a rumour that Tharakas kyng of Ethiopia was come forth to warre against hym: and when the kyng of Assyria hearde that, he sent other messengers to kyng Ezekia with this commaundement. 10 Say thus to Ezekia kyng of Juda, Let not thy God deceaue thee in whom thou hopest and sayest, Hierusalem shall not be geuen into the handes of the kyng of Assyria. 11 For lo, thou knowest well howe the kynges of Assyria haue handled all the landes

that they haue subuerted: and hopest thou to escape? 12 Were the people of the gentiles whom my progenitours ꝯquered, deliuered at any time through their gods? (As namely) Gosan, Haran, Rezeph, & the chyldren of Eden, which were at Thalassar? 13 Where is the kyng of Hemath, and the kyng of Arphad, and the kyng of the citie Sepharuaim, Ena, and Iua? 14 Nowe when Ezekia had receaued the letter of the messengers, and read it, he went vp into the house of the Lorde, and opened the letter before the Lorde, 15 And Ezekia prayed vnto the Lorde (on this maner.) 16 O Lord of hoastes, thou God of Israel, whiche dwellest vpon Cherubim, thou art the God that only is God of all the kingdomes of the worlde, for thou only hast created heauen & earth.

17 Encline thyne eare Lorde and consider, open thyne eyes Lord and see, and ponder all the wordes of Sennacherib, whiche hath sent his embassage to blaspheme the liuing God. 18 It is true O Lord that the kinges of Assyria haue conquered all kingdomes and landes, 19 And cast their gods in the fire: for those were no gods, but the workes of mens handes, of wood or stone, therfore haue they destroyed them.

20 Nowe therfore deliuer vs O Lord our God from the handes of Sennacherib, that all the kyngdomes of the earth may knowe that thou only art the Lorde. 21 Then Esai the sonne of Amos sent vnto Ezekia, saying, Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, Wherras thou hast made thy prayer vnto me as touching Sennacherib the kyng of Assyria, 22 This is the aunswere that the Lorde hath geuen concerning hym: Despised art thou and mocked O daughter Sion, he hath shaken his head at thee O daughter of Hierusalem.

23 But thou Sennacherib, whom hast thou defied and blasphemed? Against whom hast thou lyfted vp thy voyce, and exalted thy proude lookes? euen against the holy one of Israel.

24 Thou with thy seruauntes hast blaspheмed the Lorde, and thus boldest thou of thy selfe: I will couer the hye mountaynes and sides of Libanus with my horsemen, and there will I cut downe the hye Cedar trees, and the fayrest Firre trees: I will vp in the heyght of it, and into the cheefest of his tymber woods. 25 If there be no water, I will graue and drinke: and as for waters of defence, I will dryre them vp with the feete of mine hoast.

26 Yea, hast thou not heard what I haue taken in handes and brought to passe of olde tyme? That same wyl I do nowe also, and waste, destroy, and bryng strong cities vnto heapes of stones.

27 For their inhabitours shalbe lyke lame men brought in feare & confounded: they shalbe lyke grasse and greene hearbes in the fielde, lyke the hay vpon house toppes, that wytherech before it be growen vp. 28 I know thy wayes, thy going forth, and thy comming home, yea and thy madnesse against me. 29 Therefore thy furiousnesse against me and thy pryde is come before me, I wyll put my tyng in thy nose, and my bridle bet in the tawes of thee, and turne thee about euen the same way thou camest.

30 I wyll geue thee also this token (O Ezekia) this yere shalt thou eate such as groweth of it selfe, and the seconde yere that whiche springeth agayne of the same, and in the thirde yere ye shall sowe and reape, yea ye shall plant vineyardes, and enioy the fruites therof. 31 And such of the house of Iuda as are escaped shall come together, and the remnaunt shall take roote beneath, and bryng forth fruite aboue.

32 For the escaped shall go out of Hierusalem, and the remnaunt from the mount Sion: and this shal the zeale of the Lorde of hoastes bryng to passe.

33 Therefore thus saith the Lorde concerning the kyng of the Assyrians, He shall not come into this citie, and shall shoote no arrowe into it, there shall no shielde hurt it, neither shal they cast ditches about it. 34 The same way he came he shall returne, and not come at this citie, saith the Lorde.

35 And I will kepe and saue this citie (saith he) for myne owne and for my seruaunt Dauids sake. 36 Thus the angell of the Lord went forth, and slue of the Assyrians hoast an hundred fourescore and fiue thousand: and when men arose vp early in the morning, beholde they were slayne, and al lay full of dead bodyes. 37 So Sennacherib the king of the Assyrians brake vp and dwelt at Ninine. 38 Afterwarde it chaunced as he prayed in the temple of Nesroch his God, that Adramalech and Sarazer his owne sonnes slue him with the sworde, and fled into the lande of Armenia: and Asarhaddon his sonne raigned in his steede.

1 Ezekia is sicke vnto death, 5 but is yet reuiued by the Lorde, and liueth fifteene yeres after: 10 for which benefite he geueth thankes.

A 2.kin.20.a. 2.Chro.32.f

ABout this tyme was Ezekia sicke vnto death, and the prophete Esai the sonne of Amos came vnto him, and sayde, Thus commaundeth the Lorde: Set thyne house in order, for thou must dye, and shalt not escape.

2 Then Ezekia turned his face towarde the wall, and prayed vnto the Lorde, 3 And sayde, Remember O Lorde I beseche thee, that I haue walked before thee in trueth and a stedfast heart, and haue done the thing that is pleasaunt to thee. And Ezekia wept sore. 4 Then sayde God vnto Esai, 5 Go, and speake vnto Ezekia, The Lorde God of Dauid thy father sendeth thee this worde, I haue hearde thy prayer, and considered thy teares: beholde I will put fifteene yeres mo vnto thy lyfe. 6 And deliuer thee and the citie also from the hand of the kyng of Assyria: for I will defende the citie.

9 A thankesgeuing whiche Ezekia kyng of Iuda wrote, when he had ben sicke and was recouered.

10 I thought I shoulde haue gone to the gates of hell when myne age was shortened, and haue wanted the residue of my yeres. 11 I spake within my selfe, I will neuer visite the Lorde (the Lorde I say) in this lyfe: I will neuer see man among the dwellers of the worlde. 12 Myne age is folden together and taken away from me lyke a sheepheardes cotage, I haue hewen of my lyfe (by my sinnes) lyke as a weuer cutteth of his webbe: he will with pining sicknesse make an ende of me, yea he will make an ende of me in one day. 13 I thought I would haue liued vntyll the morowe, but he bruised my bones lyke a Lion: and in one day thou wylt make an ende of me.

Job.xiii.b.

14 Then chattered I like a Swallowe, and like a Crane, and mourned lyke a doue, I lyft vp myne eyes into the herght: O Lorde (sayde I) my sicknesse depeth me downe, ease thou me.

15 What shall I say? the Lorde hath made a promise to me, yea and he hymselfe hath performed it: I shall therefore so long as I lyue remember this bitternesse of my lyfe. 16 O Lorde, to all those that shall liue hereafter, yea to all men shall it be knowen, that euen in those yeres I haue a wofull lyfe, and that it was thou that causedst me to sleepe, againe thou hast geuen life to me.

17 Behold, bitter as gall was my penfiuenesse, so sore longed I for healthy, and it was thy pleasure to deliuer my lyfe from the fylthy pit: for thou it is (O Lorde) that hast cast all my sinnes behynde thy backe. 18 For hell prayseth not thee, death doth not magnifie thee: thei that go downe into the graue praise not thy trueth: 19 But the liuing, yea the liuing knowledge thee, as I do this day: the father telleth his children of thy faythfulnesse. 20 To heale me is the Lordes worke, and we will sing my songes in the house of the Lord all the dayes of our life. 21 And Esai said, Take a plaster of figges, and lay it vpon the sore, so shall it be whole. 22 Then said Ezekia, O what a miracle is this, that I shall go vp into the house of the Lorde.

¶ The.xxxix. Chapter.

3 Ezekia is reproued of Esai, because he shewed his treasure vnto the embassadours of Babylon.

AT the same tyme Merodach Baladans sonne kyng of Babylon sent letters and presentes to Ezekia: for he vnderstoode that he had ben sicke, and was recouered agayne. 2 And Ezekia was glad therof, and shewed them the house of his treasures of siluer and golde, of spices, and rootes, of pretious oyles, and al that was in his cubbordes and treasure houses: there was not one thing in Ezekias house, and so throughout all his kyngdome, but he let them see it. 3 Then came Esai the prophete to king Ezekia, and sayde vnto hym, What haue the men sayde, and from whence came they vnto thee? Ezekia aunswered, They came out of a farre countrey vnto me, out of Babylon.

A 2.king.20.f 2.Chro.32.f

4 Esai sayde, What haue they looked vpon in thy house? Ezekia aunswered, All that is in my house haue they seene, and there is nothing in my treasure but I shewed it them. 5 Then sayd Esai vnto Ezekia, Vnderstande the worde of the Lorde of hostes: 6 Beholde, the tyme will come that euery thing which is in thyne house, and al that thy progenitours

He sayde moreouer, For there shalbe peace and faythfulnesse in my tyme.

3 The comming of saint Iohn Baptist.
9 The preparation of the Apostles.
The calling of the gentiles.

COmfort my people (O ye prophetes) comfort my people, saith your god, 2 Comfort Hierusalem at the heart, and tell her that her trauayle is at an end, that her offence is pardoned, that she hath receaued at the Lordes hande sufficient correction for all her sinnes. 3 A voyce cryeth in wyldernesse: Prepare the way of the Lorde, make straight the path of our God in the desart. 4 All valleys shalbe exalted, and euery mountaine and hyll layde lowe: what so is croked shalbe made straight, and the rough shalbe made playne. 5 For the glory of the Lorde shall appeare, for all flesshe shall at once see that the mouth of the Lorde hath spoken it. 6 The same voyce spake, Howe cryest. And the prophete answered, What shall I cryse? That all flesshe is grasse, & that all the goodlynesse therof is as the floure of the feelde. 7 The grasse is wythered, the floure falleth away, for the breath of the Lorde bloweth vpon them: of a truth the people are grasse. 8 The grasse wytthereth, & the floure fadeth away: yet the word of our God endureth for euer. 9 Go vp vnto the hye hyll O Sion thou that bryngest good tydynges, lyft vp thy voyce with power O thou preacher Hierusalem, lyft it vp without feare, and say vnto the cities of Iuda, Behold your God, 10 Beholde the Lord God shall come with power, and shall of him selfe beare rule with his arme: beholde his rewarde with hym, and his workes before hym. 11 He shall feede his flocke lyke an heardman, he shall gather the lammes together with his arme, and cary them in his bosome, and shall kyndly intreate those that beare young. 12 Who hath measured the waters in his fist? who hath measured heauen with his spanne, and hath comprehended all the earth of the worlde in three measures? who hath waged the mountaynes and hylles in a ballaunce? 13 Who hath directed the spirite of the Lorde? or who gaue hym counsayle, and shewed hym?
14 Who is of his counsayle, and geueth hym vnderstandyng, and hath taught hym the path of iudgement? who taught hym cunning, and opened to hym the way of vnderstanding?
15 Beholde, all people are in comparison of hym as a drop of a bucket full, and are counted as the least thing that the ballaunce wayeth: yea and the Iles he taketh vp as a very little thyng.
16 Libanus is not sufficient to minister fire to his offering, and all the beastes thereof are not inough for one sacrifice. 17 All people in comparison of hym are reckened as nothing: if they be compared with hym, lesse then nothing, and as it that is not.
18 To whom then wyll ye lyken God? or what similitude wyll ye set vp to hym? 19 Shall the caruer make him a carued image? and shall the golde-smyth couer hym with golde, or cast him into a fourme of syluer plates?
20 Moreouer shall the image maker that the poore man whiche is disposed may haue some thing to set vp also, seeke out and choose a tree that is not rotten, and carue therout an image that moueth not? 21 Knowe ye nothing? hearde ye neuer of it? hath it not ben preached vnto you sence the beginning? haue ye not ben enfourmed of this by the foundation of the earth? 22 It is he that sitteth vpon the circle of the worlde, whose inhabiters are (in comparison of hym) but as grashoppers: he spreadeth out the heauens as a couering, he stretcheth them out as a tent to dwell in. 23 He bringeth princes to nothing, and the iudges of the earth as though they were not. 24 So that of thē it may be sayd, They be not planted nor sowne agayne, neither their stocke rooted agayne in the earth: for assoone as he bloweth vpon them, they wyther and fade away lyke the strawe in a whyrle winde. 25 To whom nowe wil ye lyken me, and whom shall I be lyke, saith the holy one? 26 Lyft vp your eyes on hygh, and consider who hath made those thinges whiche come out by so great heapes, and he calleth them all by their names: there is nothing hyd from the greatnesse of his power, strength, and might. 27 Howe may then Jacob thinke, or may Israel say, My wayes are hyd from the Lorde, and my God knoweth not of my iudgementes? 28 Knowest thou not, or hast thou not hearde that the euerlasting God, the Lorde which made all the corners of the earth, is neither weerie nor fayntе? and that his wysdome can not be comprehended? 29 It is he that geueth strength vnto the weerie, and power vnto the faynt. 30 Chyldren are weerie and faynt, and the strongest men fall: Iere. xxii. b 31 But vnto them that haue their trust in the Lorde, shall strength be increased: Egles wynges shall growe vpon them, when they runne they shall not fall, and when they go they shall not be weerie.

A Mat.3.b. 17.a. BEholde this is my seruaunt vpon whom I leane, my elect in whom my soule is pacified: I haue geuen my spirite vpon hym, that he may shewe sooth iudgement among the gentiles. 2 He shall not be an outcryer, nor lyft vp his voyce, his voyce shall not be hearde in the streetes. 4 And a bruysed reede shall he not breake, & the smokyng flaxe shall be not quenche: but faythfully and truely shal he geue iudgement. 4 He shall not be pensiue nor carefull, that he may restore ryghteousnes vnto the earth: and the gentiles also shall loke for his lawes. 5 For thus sayth God the Lord vnto hym, euen he that made the heauens and spread them abroade, and set sooth the earth with her increase, whiche geueth breath vnto the people that is in it, and spirite to them that dwell therein, 6 I the Lorde haue called thee in ryghteousnesse, and wyl hold thee by the hande, and wyll also defend thee, and geue thee for a couenant of the people, to be the lyght of the gentiles.

9 Beholde olde thynges are come to passe, and newe thynges do I declare, and or euer they come I tell you of them. 10 Syng vnto the Lorde a newe song of thankesgeuyng, blowe out his prayse from the ende of the worlde: they that be vpon the sea, and all that is therein prayse hym, the Iles and they that dwell in them. 11 Let the wildernesse with the cities lift vp her voyce, the townes also that they of Cedar dwell in: let them be glad that sye vppon roches of stone, and let them crye downe from the hygh mountaynes, 12 Ascribing glory vnto the lord, & magnifying him among the gentiles. 13 The Lorde shal come forth lyke a Gyaunt, and take a stomache to hym lyke a fresh man of warre: he shall roare and crye, and ouercome his enemies. 14 I haue long holden my peace (sayth the Lord) (a) I haue ben styll and refrayned my selfe, but now I wyl crye like a trauayling woman, and at once wyll I destroy and deuoure.

15 I wyll make waste both mountayne and hyll, and dryye vp euery greene thing that groweth theron: I wyll dryye vp the flooddes to become Ilandes, and drynke vp the ryuers. 16 I wyll bryng the blynde into a streete that they knowe not, and leade them into a footepath that they are ignorant in: I shall make darknesse lyght before them and the thyng that is crooked to be straight: These thynges haue I done vnto them, and not forsaken them.

17 They are fallen backe, yea and let them be ashamed earnestly that hope in idols, and say to the moulten images, Ye are our gods. 18 Heare O ye deafe men, and charpen your eyes to see O ye blynde. 19 Who is blynde but my seruaunt? or so deafe as (b) my messenger whom I sent vnto them? for who is so blynde as the perfect man, and so blinde as the Lordes seruaunt? 20 Thou hast seene muche, and kepest nothyng: the eares are open, and no man heareth.

21 The Lorde is mercyfull vnto them for his ryghteousnesse sake, that his worde might be magnified and prayed: 22 (c) But the people them selues is robbed and troden vnder the foote, chayned in dungeons, and they all, I say, are shut into prison houses: they be caryed away captiue, and no man doth loose them: they be troden vnder foote, and no man doth labour to bryng them agayne. 23 But who is he among you that pondereth this, that consydereth it, and taketh it for a warnyng in tyme to come? 24 Who gaue Iacob to be troden vnder foote, and Israel to be spoyled? Did not the Lorde?

I wyll make (a) a way in the deſart, and ryuers of water in the wildernelle. 20 The wyld beaſtes ſhall worſhyp me, the dragons and the young Oſtriches: for I ſhall geue water in the wyldernelle, and ſtreames in the deſart, that they may geue drinke to my people whom I chooſe. 21 This people haue I made for my ſelfe, and they ſhall ſhewe forth my prayſe. 22 For thou Jacob wouldeſt not call vppon me, but thou haddeſt an vnluſt towarde me O Iſrael. 23 Thou gaueſt me not thy beaſtes for burnt offerynges, neither byddeſt honour me with ſacrifices: I haue not ben chargeable vnto thee in offerynges, neither greeuous in incenſe. 24 Thou boughteſt me no deare ſpice with thy money, neither powredſt the fatte of thy ſacrifices vpon me: but thou haſt laden me with thy ſinnes, and wearyed me with thy vngodlyneſſe. 25 Where as I yet, euen I am he only that for my owne ſelues ſake do away thyne offences, and forget thy ſinnes, ſo that I wyll neuer thynke vpon them. 26 Put me now in remembraunce, for we wil reaſon together: and ſhewe what thou haſt for thee to make thee righteous. 27 Thy firſt father offended ſore, and thy rulers haue ſinned againſt me: 28 Therfore I haue prophaned the princes of the ſanctuarie, I dyd curſe Jacob, and gaue Iſrael into reproofe.

Sapi.13.c. 11 Beholde, all the felowshyp of them must be brought to confusion, and truely all the workmaisters of them are men: they shall all be gathered together, they shall stande, tremble, and be confounded one with another. 12 The smith maketh an axe, and tempereth it with hotte coales, & fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with all the strength of his armes, yea sometime he is faynt for very hunger, and so thirstie that he hath no more power. 13 The carpenter or image caruer taketh measure of the timber, and spreadeth foorth his lyne, he marketh it with some colour, he playneth it, he ruleth it, and squareth it, and maketh it after the image of a man, and according to the beautie of a man, that it may stande in the house.

14 Moreouer, he goeth out to hewe Cedar trees, he bringeth home Elmes and Okes, and taking a bolde courage, he seeketh out the best timber of the wood: he him selfe hath planted a Pine tree, whiche the rayne hath swelled, 15 Whiche wood serueth for men to burne: Of this he taketh and warmeth hym selfe withall, he maketh a fyre of it to bake bread, and maketh also a god therof to honour it, and a grauen image to kneele before it. 16 One peece he burneth in the fyre, with another he rosteth flesh, that he may eate rost his belly full: with the thirde he warmeth hym selfe, and sayth, Aha, I am well warmed, I haue ben at the fyre. 17 And of the residue he maketh hym a god, and a grauen image for hym selfe: he kneeleth before it, he worshyppeth it, he prayeth vnto it, and sayth, Deliuer me, for thou art my god. 18 Yet men neither consyder nor vnderstande, because theyr eyes be stopped that they can not see, and theyr hearttes that they can not perceaue. 19 They ponder not in theyr myndes, for they haue neither knowledge nor vnderstanding to thinke thus, I haue burnt one peece in the fyre, I haue baked bread with the coales thereof, I haue rosted flesche withall and eaten it: and I wyll nowe of the residue make an abhominable idoll, and fall downe before a rotten peece of wood.

¶ 1 The hypocrisie of the Iewes is reproued. 11 The Lorde alone wyll be worshipped, which hath chosen vs, 20 and whiche succoureth vs for his owne sake.

A HEare this O thou house of Iacob, ye that are called by the name of Israel, and are come out of one stocke with Iuda: whiche sweare by the name of the Lorde, and beare witnesse by the God of Israel, but not with trueth and ryght.

2 For they are named of the holy citie, and are grounded vpon the God of Israel, whose name is the Lorde of hoastes. 3 The thynges that I haue shewed you euer since the beginnyng, haue I not brought them to passe immediatly as they came out of my mouth, and declared them, and they are come? 4 Howbeit I knowe that thou art obstinate, and that thy neche hath an yron sinowe, and that thy browe is of brasse. 5 Neuertheles, I haue euer since the beginning shewed thee of thynges for to come, and declared them vnto thee or euer they came to passe: that thou shouldest not say, Myne idoll hath done it, my carued or moulten image hath shewed it. 6 Thou heardest it before, and beholde it is come to passe; And shall not ye your selues shewe forth or confesse the same? But as for me, I tolde thee before at the begynnyng newe and secrete thynges whiche thou knewest not of. 7 And some done of olde time, wherof thou neuer heardest before they were brought to passe, that thou canst not say, Beholde I knewe of them. 8 Moreouer, there be some whereof thou hast neither hearde nor knowen, neither haue ben opened vnto thyne eares afore tyme: For I knewe that thou wouldest maliciously offende, therefore haue I called thee a transgressour, euen from thy mothers wombe. 9 Neuertheles, for my names sake I wyl withdrawe my wrath, and for my honours sake I wyll pacyently forbeare thee, that I do not roote thee out.

10 Beholde I haue purged thee, yet not as siluer, I haue chosen thee in the fyre of affliction. 11 And that only for mine owne sake, yea euen for myne owne sake will I do this: or els what dishonour would they do to my name? surely I wyll not geue my glorie vnto another. 12 Hearken vnto me O Iacob, and Israel whom I haue called: I am euen he that is, I am the fyrst and the last. 13 My hande hath layd the foundation of the earth, and my ryght hande hath spanned ouer the heauens: assoone as I call them, they stande together. 14 Gather you all together and hearken: Which of yonder gods hath declared this? The Lord hath a loue vnto him, and he shal performe his wil against Babel, and declare his power agaynst the Chaldees. 15 I my selfe alone, euen I haue tolde you this, I dyd call hym and bryng hym forth, and he shall make his iourney prosperous.

16 Come to me and heare this: Haue I spoken any thyng darkly synce the begynnyng? From the tyme that this thyng begynneth I am there: Wherefore the Lorde God and his spirite hath sent me. 17 And thus saith the Lorde God thy redeemer, the holy one of Israel, I am the Lord thy God which teache thee profitable thynges, and leade thee the way that thou shouldest go. 18 O that thou hadst regarded my commaundementes, then had thy wealthynesse ben as the water streame, and thy righteousnesse as the waues flowing in the sea: 19 Thy seede also had ben lyke as the sande in the sea, and the HYe Iles hearken vnto me, and take heede ye people from farre: The Lorde hath called me from my byrth, and made mention of my name from my mothers wombe: 2 He hath made my mouth lyke a sharpe swoorde, vnder the shadowe of his hand hath he defended me, and hid me in his quiuer as a good arrowe, 3 And sayde vnto me, Thou art my seruaunt Israel, I will be honoured in thee. 4 Then I answered, I haue lost my labour, I haue spent my strength in vayne: Neuertheles, I will commit my cause and my worke vnto the Lorde my God. 5 And now sayth the Lorde, Euen he that fashyoned me from my mothers wombe to be his seruaunt, that I may bryng Jacob agayne vnto hym, albeit Israel will not be gathered vnto hym agayne, yet in Gods sight shall I be glorious, my God shalbe my strength. 6 And he sayde, It is but a small thing that thou art my seruaunt to set vp the kinredes of Jacob, and to restore the destruction of Israel: For I haue made thee the light of the gentiles, that thou mayest be my health vnto the ende of the world. 7 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lorde the redeemer & holy one of Israel concerning the abhorred and dispised among the gentiles (and) the seruant of them that beare rule, kings and princes shal see, and aryse, and worshyp because of the Lorde that is faythfull, and because of the holy one of Israel that hath chosen thee. 8 And thus sayth the lord,

¶ The liii. Chapter.

1 He professieth euidently of the passion of our sauiour Iesus Christe.

WHo hath geuen credence vnto our preachyng? or to whom is the arme of the Lorde knowen?

2 For he dyd growe before the Lord lyke as a braunche, and as a roote in a drye grounde, he hath neither beautie nor fauour: when we loke vpon him, there shalbe no fayrenesse, we shall haue no lust vnto him. 3 He is dispised and abhorred of men, he is such a man as hath good experience of sorowes and infirmities: We haue reckened him so vile, that we hyd our faces from him. 4 Howbeit, he only hath taken on him our infirmitie, and borne our paynes: yet we dyd iudge him as though he were plagued, and cast downe of God.

5 Whereas he (notwithstandyng) was wounded for our offences, and smytten for our wickednesse: for the payne of our punishment was layde vppon him, and with his stripes are we healed. 6 As for vs we are all gone astray lyke sheepe, euery one hath turned his owne way: but the Lorde hath throwen vpon him all our sinnes.

7 He suffered violence, and was euil intreated, & dyd not open his mouth: he shalbe led as a sheepe to be slayne, yet shall he be as still as a lamme before the shearer, and not open his mouth. 8 From the prysion and iudgement was he taken, and his generation who can declare? for he was cut of from the grounde of the lyuing, which punyshment dyd go vpon him for the transgression of my people.

9 His graue was geuen him with the condemned, and with the ryche man at his death, whereas he dyd neuer violence nor vnright, neither hath there ben any deceipte in his mouth. 10 Yet hath it pleased the Lorde to smyte him with infirmitie, that when he had made his soule an offering for sinne, he might see long lasting seede: and this deuice of the Lorde shall prosper in his hande.

11 Of the trauayle and labour of his soule shall he see the fruite and be satisfied: my righteous seruaunt shall with his knowledge iustifie the multitude, for he shall beare their sinnes.

12 Therefore wyl I geue him among the great ones his part, and he shall diuide the spoile with the mightie, because he geueth ouer his soule to death, and is reckened among the transgressours: which neuertheless hath taken away the sinnes of the multitude, and made intercession for the misdoers.

1 An exhortation to iudgement and righteousnesse, and to the spirituall keping of the sabbath. 10 Againste shepheardes that deuoure the flocke.

A Mat.iii.c. THus sayth the Lorde, Keepe equitie, and do ryght: for my sauyng health shall come shortlye, and my ryghteousnesse shalbe opened.

2 Blessed is the man that doth this, and the mans chylde whiche keepeth the same: he that taketh heede that he vnhalowe not the sabbath (that is) he that keepeth him selfe that he do no euyl. 3 Then shall not the straunger which cleaueth to the Lorde, say, Alas the Lord hath shut me cleane out from his people: neither shall the gelded man say, Lo I am a drye tree.

4 For thus sayth the Lorde vnto the gelded that kepeth my sabbath, (namely) that holdeth greatly of the thing that pleaseth me, and kepeth my couenaunt: 5 Vnto them wyll I geue in my housholde and within my walles a better heritage and name then yf they had ben called sonnes and daughters: I wyll geue them an euerlasting name that shall not perishe. 6 Agayne, the straungers that sticke to the Lorde to serue him, and to loue his name, and to be his seruauntes, and all they whiche kepe them selues that they vnhalowe not the sabbath, namely that they fulfill my couenaunt:

1 The good men are taken away, 3 the wicked ones take pleasure in idolatrie, the godly receaue comfort, the wicked doth perishe.

THe ryghteous perysheth, and no man regardeth it in his heart: good godly people are taken away, and no man considereth it, namely, that the ryghteous is conueyed away from the wicked. 2 He commeth into peace, and godly men rest in their chaumbers, and before the godly man goeth peace. 3 Come hyther therefore ye charmers chyldren, ye sonnes of the adulterer and the whore.

10 Thou art weerie for the multitude of thine owne wayes, yet saydest thou neuer, There is no hope: thou hast had the lyfe that thy handes wrought, and therefore thou art careleſſe. 11 For whom wylt thou be abached or feare, seyng thou hast broken thy promyſe, and remembrest not me, neither hast me in thyne heart? Thinkest thou that I also wyll holde my peace as afore-tyme, that thou feareſt me not?

12 Yea verily I wyll declare thy goodneſſe and thy workes, but they shall not profite thee. 13 When thou criest, let thy choſē heape deliuer thee: but the wynde shall blowe them foorth, and vanitie shall take them all away: neuertheleſſe they that put their truſt in me, shall inherite the lande, and haue my holy hill in poſ-ſeſſion. 14 And therefore thus he ſayth, Make playne, make plaine, and clenſe the ſtreete, take vp the ſtum-bling blockes out of the way of my people. 15 For thus ſayth the hye and excellent, euen he that dwelleth in euerlaſtingneſſe, whoſe name is the holy one: I dwell hye aboue and in the ſanctuarie, and with him alſo that is of a contrite and humble ſpi-rite do I dwell, that I may heale a troubled mynde, and a contrite heart.

16 For I chyde not euer, and am not wroth without ende: but the blaſting goeth from me, and is included in the body, and I made the breath. 17 I am wroth with him for his couetouſ-neſſe, I ſmyte him, I hyde me and am angrye, and he turneth him ſelfe and foloweth the way of his owne heart. 18 I haue ſeene his wayes, and I heale him, I leade him, and reſtore to him comfort, and to thoſe that were ſore for him. 19 I make the fruites of thankeſgeuing, that he may ſay, Peace, peace, vnto them that are farre of, and to them that are nye ſayth the lord, I make him whole. 20 But the wicked are like the raging ſea that can not reſt, whoſe water rometh with the mire and grauell. 21 Euen ſo the wicked haue no peace, ſayth God.

1 The Lorde (by the mouth of the prophete) reprouеth the people for their faſtinges, 2 which were full of hypo-criſie.

CRye now as loude as thou canſt, cleaue not of, lyft vp thy voyce lyke a trumpet, and ſhewe my people their offences, and the houſe of Jacob their ſinnes. 2 For they ſeeke me dayly, and wyl knowe my wayes, euen as it were a people that dyd ryght, and had not forſaken the ſtatutes of their God: they aſke of me concernyng ryght iudgement, and wyl be nye vnto God. 3 Wherfore faſt we (ſay they) and thou ſeeſt it not? we put our ſoules to straytnes, and thou regardeſt it not? 4 Beholde when ye faſt, your luſt remayneth ſtil, for ye do no leſſe violence to your det-ters: lo, ye faſt to ſtrife and debate, and to ſmyte with your fiſt without mercie: nowe ye ſhall not faſt thus, that your voyce might be heard a-boue. 5 Thynke ye this faſt plea-ſeth me, that a man ſhoulde chaſten him ſelfe for a day? & to hang downe his head lyke a bulruſhe, and to lye vpon the earth in an heerie cloth? Shoulde that be called faſting, or a day that pleaſeth the Lorde?

6 Doth not this faſting rather pleaſe me, That thou loſe the wicked bands, that thou take of the ouer heaue bur-thens, that thou let the oppreſſed go free, and breake all maner of yoke?

7 To deale thy bread to the hungrie, and to bryng the poore wandryng home into thy houſe? when thou ſee-eſt the naked that thou couer him, and hyde not thy ſelfe from thyne owne fleſhe? 8 Then ſhall thy lyght breake foorth as the morning, and thy health ſpryng forth ryght ſhortly: ryghteouſneſſe ſhall go before thee, and the glorie of the Lorde ſhall em-brace thee. 9 Then yt thou calleſt, the Lorde ſhall anſwere thee, yf thou cryeſt, he ſhall ſay, Here I am: yea yf thou layeſt away from thee thy bur-thens, and holdeſt thy fingers, and ceaſſeſt from vngratious talkyng?

10 If thou haſt compaſſion vpon the hungrie, and refreſheſt the troubled ſoule: then ſhall thy lyght ſpryng out in the darkeneſſe, and thy darkeneſſe ſhalbe as the noone day. 11 The Lorde ſhall euer be thy guyde, and ſa-tiſfie the deſyre of thyne heart in the tyme of drought, and fyll thy bones with marie: thou ſhalt be like a freſhe watred garden, and like the fountaine of water that neuer leaueth runnyng. 12 Then the places that haue euer ben waſte, ſhalbe buylded of thee.

8 But the way of peace they knowe not, in their goynges is no equitie: their wayes are so crooked, that whosoeuer goeth therein knoweth of no peace. 9 And this is the cause that equitie is so farre from vs, and that righteousnesse commeth not nye vs: we loke for light, loe it is darkenesse: for the morning shine, see, we walke in the darke. 10 We grope lyke the blynde vpon the wall, we grope euen as one that hath none eyes, we stumble at the noone day as though it were towarde night in the falling places, lyke men that are halfe dead. 11 We roare all lyke beares, and mourne still lyke doues: we looke for equitie, but there is none: for healthy, but it is farre from vs. 12 For our offences are many before thee, and our sinnes testifie against vs: yea we must confesse that we offende, and knowledge that we do amisse: 13 (Namely) transgresse and dissemble against the Lorde, and fall away from our God, vsing presumpteous and traiterous imaginations, and casting false matters in our heartes. 14 And therefore is equitie gone aside, and righteousnesse standeth farre of, trueth is fallen downe in the streete, and the thing that is playne and open, may not be shewed. 15 Yea the trueth is taken away, and he that refraineth him selfe from cuyll, must be spoyled: when the Lorde sawe this, it displeased him sore that there was no equitie. 16 He sawe also that there was no man righteous, and he wondred that there was no man to helpe him: wherefore he helde him by his owne power, and he sustayned him by his owne righteousnes. 17 He put righteousnesse vpon him for a brest plate, he set the helmet of healthy vpon his head: he put on wrath in the steade of clothyng, and toke telouste about him for a cloke. 18 Euen as when a man goeth foorth wrathfully to recompence his enemies, and to be auenged of his aduersaries, he wyl recompence and rewarde the Ilandes.

¶ The .lx. Chapter.

1 A consolation and comfort to Hierusalem. 5 The Churche is gathered together among the gentiles by preachyng of the Gospel, 16 and aboundeth with all good thinges.

A Arise, get thee vp betimes, and be bright (O Hierusalem) for thy light commeth, and the glorie of the Lorde is risen vp vpon thee. Actes.26.c. Ephe.v.b. 2 For loe, while the darknesse and clonde couereth the earth and the people, the lord shall shewe thee light, and his glorie shalbe seene in thee. 3 The gentiles shall come to thy light, and kynges to the brightnesse that springeth forth vppon thee. 4 Lyft vp thyne eyes, and loke rounde about thee: all these gather them selues and come to thee, thy sonnes shal come vnto thee from farre, and thy daughters shall gather them selues to thee on euery side. Esai.49.d. Mar.viii.d. Gen.xlv.a.

5 Then thou shalt see this and be glorious, thou shalt maruayle exceedyngly, and thyne heart shalbe opened: when the aboundaunce of the sea shalbe conuerted vnto thee, (that is) when the ryches of the gentiles shall come vnto thee. 6 The multitude of camels shall couer thee, the dromedaries of Madian and Epha: all they of Saba shall come, bryngyng golde and incense, and shewyng the prayse of the Lorde. 7 All the cattel of Cedar shalbe gathered vnto thee, the rammes of Nabaioth shall serue thee to be offered acceptable vpon mine aultar, and the house of my glorie wyll I garnishe. 8 But what are these that flee here lyke the cloudes, and as the doues fleeing to their windowes? 9 The Iles also shall wayte for me, and specially the ships of Tharsis, that they may bryng thy sonnes from farre, and their siluer and their golde with them, vnto the name of the Lorde thy God, vnto the holy one of Israel that hath glorified thee. 10 Straungers shal builde vp thy walles, and their kynges shall do thee seruice: for when I was angry, I smote thee, and of my mercie I pardoned thee. 11 Thy gates shal stande open still both day and nyght, and neuer be shut, that the hoast of the gentiles may come, and that their kynges may be brought vnto thee. 12 For euery people and kyngdome that serueth not thee shal perishe, and be destroyed with vtter destruction.

13 The glorie of Libanus shall come vnto thee, the Firre trees, Bores, and Cedars together, to garnish the place of my sanctuarie: for I wyll glorifie the place of my feete. 14 Moreouer those shall come kneelyng vnto thee C that haue vexed thee, and all they that despised thee shall fall downe at thy foote: thou shalt be called the citie of the Lorde, Sion (the citie) of the holy one of Israel. 15 Because thou hast ben forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee: I will make thee glorious for euer and euer, and ioyfull throughout all posteritees. Esai.xlix.e.

16 Thou shalt sucke the mylke of the gentiles, and kynges breastes shall feede thee: and thou shalt knowe that I the Lord am thy sauiour and redeemer, the mightie one of Jacob.

17 For brasse, wyll I geue thee gold, and for iron, siluer: for wood, brasse, and for stones, iron: I wil turne thine oppression into peace, and thyne exactions into righteousnesse. 18 Violence and robberie shall neuer be hearde of in thy lande, neither harme and destruction within thy borders: thy walles shalbe called health, and thy gates the prayse of God. 19 The Apoc.xxi.e. D sunne shall neuer be thy day light, and thy lyght of the moone shall neuer shine vnto thee: but the Lorde hym selfe shalbe thyne euerlastyng light, Apoc.xxii.b. and thy God shalbe thy glory.

20 Thy sunne shall neuer go downe, and thy moone shall not be hyd: for the Lord him selfe shalbe thyne euerlasting lyght, and thy sorow shall dayes shalbe ended. 21 Thy people shalbe all righteous and possesse the lande euer, the floure of my plantyng, the worke of my handes whereof I wyll reioyce. 22 The youngest and least shall growe into a thousande, and the simplest into a strong people: I the Lorde shall shortly bryng this thyng to passe in his tyme.

7 Of the redemption promised to the people.

WHat is he this that commeth from Edom, with red coloured clothes from Bosra? He is honourably arayed, and commeth in mightily with his power: I am he that teacheth ryghteousnesse, and am of power to helpe. 2 Wherfore then is thy clothyng red, and thy rayment lyke his that treadeth in the wine presse? 3 I haue troden the presse my selfe alone, and of all people there is not one with me: thus will I treade them downe in my wrath, and set my feete vpon them in myne indignation, and their blood shal be sprong vpon my clothes, and so will I stayne all my rayment. Esai.34.b. 4 For the day of vengeaunce is assigned in my heart, and the yere when my people shalbe deliuered is come. 5 I loked about me, & there was no man to shew me any helpe, I marueyled that no man helde me vp: then I helde me by myne owne arme, and my feruentnes sustayned me. 6 And thus will I treade downe the people in my wrath, and bathe them in my displeasure, and vpon the earth will I lay their strength. 7 I will declare the goodnesse of the Lorde, yea and the prayse Exod.15.a of the Lord for all that he hath geuen Esai.12.a us, for the great good that he hath done for Israel, which he hath geuen them of his owne fauour, and accordyng to the multitude of his louyng kindnesses. 8 For he sayde, These no doubt are my people, and no chyldren: and so was he their sauiour. 9 In their troubles, he was Exod.23. also troubled with them, and the an- 14.d.24.c. gell that went foorth from his presence deliuered them: of very loue and kindnesse that he had vnto them he redeemed them, he hath borne them and caryed them vp euer since the worlde began. 10 But after they prouoked him to wrath and vexed his holy spirite, he was their enemie, and fought agaynst them him selfe.

11 Yet remembred Israel the olde tyme of Moyses and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them from the water of the sea, with them that feede his sheepe? Where Exod. 43.c. is he that hath geuen his holy spirite Psal.77.d. among them? 12 He led them by the ryght hande of Moyses with his glorious arme, diuidyng the water before them, whereby he gat him selfe an euerlastyng name. 13 He led them in the deepe as an horse is led in the playne, that they shoulde not stumble. 14 As a tame beast goeth C in the feelde, and the spirite of God geueth him rest: thus (O God) hast thou led thy people to make thy selfe a glorious name withall. 15 Loke Deut. 26.b downe then from heauen, and beholde Baru. 2.c. from the dwellyng place of thy sanctuarie and thy glorie: howe is it that thy gelousie, thy strength, the multitude of thy mercies, and thy louyng kindnesse will not be intreated of vs? 16 Yet art thou our father: for Mat.6.b. Abraham knoweth vs not, neither is Luk.11.a. and.23.a. Israel acquaynted with vs: but thou Lorde art our father and redeemer, and thy name is euerlastyng. 17 O Psal.119.b Lorde, wherfore hast thou led vs out of the way? wherefore hast thou hardened our hartes that we feare thee not? Be at one with vs agayne for thy seruauntes sake, and for the generation of thyne heritage.

18 Thy holy people haue had but a litle whyle thy sanctuarie in possession, for our enemies haue troden downe thy holy place. 19 And we were thyne from the begynnyng, when thou wast not their Lorde, for they haue not called vpon thy name.

1 The stocke of Ieremie, and in what tyme he prophecied. 6 He excuseth him selfe and woulde refuse the office of a prophete, because he is young and vnexpert. 8 He is taught of the Lorde, and becommeth bolde.

A THese are the sermons of Ieremie the sonne of Helkiah the priest, one of them that dwelt at Anathoth in the lande of Beniamin, 2 When the Lorde had first spoken with him in the tyme of Iosiah the sonne of Amon king of Iuda, in the thirteenth yere of his raigne: 3 And so duryng vnto the tyme of Iehoakim the sonne of Iosiah king of Iuda, and vntyll the eleuenth yere of Zedekiah the sonne of Iosiah king of Iuda were ended, when Hierusalem was taken, euen in the fifth moneth. 4 The worde of the Lorde spake thus vnto me. 5 Before I fashioned thee in thy mothers wombe, I dyd knowe thee: and or euer thou wast borne, I sanctified thee, and ordained thee to be a prophete vnto the people. 6 Then said I, O Lord God, I can not speake, for I am yet but young. 7 And the Lorde answered me thus, Say not so, I am to young: for thou shalt go to all that I shall sende thee vnto, and what soeuer I commaunde thee, that shalt thou speake. 8 Be not afrayde of their faces: for I am with thee to deliuer thee, saith the Lorde. 9 And with that the Lorde stretched out his hande and touched my mouth: and the same Lorde sayde vnto me, Behold, I put my wordes in thy mouth. 10 And beholde, this day do I set thee ouer the people and kingdomes, that thou mayest roote out, breake of, destroy, and make waste, and that thou mayest builde vp and plant. 11 After this the Lorde spake vnto me, saying, Ieremie, what seest thou? And I sayde, (a) I see a rod of an Almonde tree.

They that had the lawe in their handes knewe me not, the sheepheardes offended agaynst me, the prophetes dyd prophecie in Baal, and folowed such thynges as shall bryng them no profite. 9 Wherfore I am constrayned, saith the Lorde, yet agayne to contende in iudgement with you, and with your childers childrē. 10 Go into the Iles of Cethim, and loke well: sende vnto Cedar, take diligent heede, and see whether such thynges be done there, 11 Whether the gentiles them selues haue chaunged their gods which yet are no gods in deede? but my people hath chaunged their (a) honour for a thing that may not helpe them. 12 Be astonished O ye heauens, be afrayde and abashed at such a thyng, saith the Lorde. 13 For my people hath done two cuyls: they haue forsaken me the well of the water of lyfe, and digged them pittes, yea vile and broken pittes that can holde no water. 14 Is Israel a bonde seruaunt, or one of the housholde? why is he then so spoyled?

1 OIsrael, yf thou wylt turne thee, then turne vnto me, saith the Lorde: and yf thou wylt put away thyne abominations out of my syght, thou shalt not be moued.

2 And shalt sweare, The Lorde lyueth, in trueth, in equitie, and rygh-

B tion from the north. 7 For the spoyler of the gentiles is broken vp from his place as a Lion out of his denne, that he may make thy lande waste, and destroy the cities, so that no man may dwell therin. 8 Wherfore girde your selues about with sackcloth, mourne and weepe: for the fearefull wrath of the Lorde is not withdrawen from vs. 9 At the same tyme saith the Lorde, The heart of the king & of the princes shalbe gone, the priestes shalbe astonished, and the Deut. 23.a. prophetes shalbe sore afrayde. 10 Then sayde I, Oh Lorde God, hast thou then deceaued this people and Hierusalem, saying, Ye shall haue peace: and nowe the sworde goeth through their lyues? 11 Then how long shall thy vayne thoughtes remayne with thee? 15 For a voyce from Dan & from the hyll of Ephraim speaketh out, and telleth of a destruction. 16 Remember the heathen, and geue Hierusalem warnyng, and preache vnto her, that watchers ouer her are commyng from farre countreys, they haue cryed out against the cities of Juda. 17 And they haue beset her about in euery place, lyke as Zach.8.c. the watchmen in the feelde: for they haue prouoked me to wrath, saith the Lorde. 18 Thy wayes and thy 1.king.18.b thoughtes haue brought thee vnto Jere.11. this, such is thyne owne wickednesse 14.b. and disobedience: and because it is a bitter thyng, it hath stricken thee to the heart. 19 Ah my belly, ah my belly shalt thou crye, howe is my heart so sore? my heart panteth within me, I can not be styll, for I haue hearde the crying of the trumpets, and peales of warre. 20 They crye murther vpon murther, the whole lande shall perishe: Immediatly my tentes were destroyed, and my hangynges in the twinckling of D an eye. 21 Howe long shall I see the tokens of warre, and heare the noyse of the trumpets? 22 (Neuertheless, Esai.5.b. this shall come vpon them) because my Baruc.3.b people is become foolishe, and hath Osee.4.b. not knowen me: they are the children of foolishnesse, and without any discretion: to do euyll, they haue wyt inough: but to do well, they haue no wisdome. 23 I haue loked vpon the earth, and see it was waste & voyde: I loked towarde heauen, and it had no shine. 24 I beheelde the mountaynes, and lo, they trembled, and all the hylles were in a feare. 25 I loked about me, and there was no body: and all the birdes of the ayre were away. 26 I marked well, and the plowed feelde was become waste, yea all their cities were broken down at the presence of the Lorde and indignation of his wrath. 27 For thus hath the Lorde sayd, The whole lande shalbe desolate, yet wyll I not then haue done. 28 And therefore shall the earth mourne, and the heauen be sory aboue: for the thing that I haue spoken to the prophetes, purposed, and taken vpon me to do, shall not repent me, and I wyll not go from it. 26 The whole lande shall flee for the noyse of horsemen & bowmen, they shall runne into dennes, into woods, and climbe vp the stonye rockes: all the cities shalbe voyde, and no man dwelling therein. 30 What wylt thou now do, thou beyng destroyed? For though thou clothest thy selfe with scarlet, and deckest thee with golde, though thou paynterst thy face with colours nowre, yet shalt thou trim thy selfe in vayne: For those that hitherto haue ben thy louers, shall abhorre thee, and go about to slay thee.

31 For I heare a noyse lyke as it were of a woman trauayling, and one labouring of her first chylde, euen the voyce of the daughter Sion, that calleth out her armes, and sweweth, saying, Ah, wo is me, howe sore vexed and faynt is my heart for feare of the murtherers?

¶ The. v. Chapter.

1 In Iurie is there no righteous or faithfull man founde, eyther amongst the people or the rulers, for whose sake the Lorde should spare the citie, 15 wherfore Iurie is destroyed of the Assyrians.

RUne through Hierusalem, beholde and see, seeke through her streetes also within, if ye can finde one man that doth equall and right, or seeketh for the trueth, and I shall spare that citie, saith the Lorde. 2 For though they can say, The Lord liueth: yet they sweare to deceaue. 3 Whereas thou (O Lorde) lookest only vpon fayth and trueth: Thou hast scourged them, but they toke no repentaunce, thou hast corrected them for amendement, but they refused thy correction, they made their faces harder then a stone, and wouldе not amende. 4 Therefore I thought in my self, Peraduenture they are so simple and foolishe, that they vnderstande nothing of the Lordes way, and iudgementes of their God.

5 Therefore wyll I go vnto their heades & rulers, and talke with them, if they knowe the way of the Lorde, and iudgementes of their God: But these (in lyke maner) haue broken the yoke, and burst the bondes in sunder. 6 Wherefore a Lion out of the wood hath hurt them, and a woolfe in the euening shall destroy them, the Leoparde doth lye lurkyng by their cities, to teare in peeces all them that come therout: for their offences are multiplyed, and their departing away is encreased. 7 Should I then for all this haue mercy vpon thee? Thy chyldren haue forsaken me, and sworne by them that are no gods: and albeit that I fed them to the full, yet they fall to aduterte, and haunt harlottes houses. 8 In the desire of vncleanly lust they are become lyke the stoned horse, euery man neyghbeth at his neighbours wyfe. 9 Should I not correct this, saith the Lorde? (should I not be auenged of euery people that is lyke vnto this? 10 Climbe vp vpon their walles, breake them downe, and (a) destroy them not vtterly: take away their battlementes, because they are not the Lordes. 11 For vnfaythfully hath the house of Israel and Iuda forsaken me, saith the Lorde.

12 They haue denyed the Lorde and sayde, It is not he (that looketh vpon vs) tushe, there shall no misfortune come vpon vs, we shall see neither swoorde nor hunger. 13 As for the warning of the prophetes, it is but wynde, yea there is not the woorde of God in them: such thinges shall happen vnto them selues. 14 Wherfore thus saith the Lorde God of hoastes, Because ye speake suche woordes, behowe the woordes that are in thy mouth wyll I turne to fire, and make the people to be wood, that the fire may consume them. 15 Lo, I wyll bryng a people vpon you from farre, O house of Israel, saith the Lorde, a myghtie people, an olde people, a people whose speache thou knowest not, neither vnderstandest what they say. 16 Their arrowes are sodayne death, yea they them selues be very gyauntes. 17 This people shall eate vp thy fruite and thy meate, yea they shall deuour thy sonnes and thy daughters, thy sheepe and thy bullockes, they shall eate vp thy grapes and figges: As for thy strong and well defensed cities wherin thou dydst trust, they shall bryng to ouerthrowe, and that through the swoorde.

18 Neuertheles, I wyll not then haue done with you, saith the Lorde.

19 But if they say, Wherefore doth the Lorde our God all this vnto vs? Then answere them, Because that lyke as ye haue forsaken me, and serued straunge gods in your lande, euen so shall ye serue straungers out of your lande. 20 Preache this vnto the house of Jacob, and cry it out in Juda, and say thus, 21 Heare this thou foolish and vndiscrete people, ye haue eyes but ye see not, eares haue ye but ye heare not. 22 Feare ye not me, saith the Lorde? wyll ye not tremble at my presence? whiche bynde the sea with the sande by a continuall decree, so that it can not passe his bounder: for though it rage, yet can it do nothing, and though the waues therof do swell, yet may they not go ouer.

(a) These wordes are not to be referred vnto the citie or walles which were vtterly destroyed: but to a remnaunt of the people who God did reserue, that his whole Churche shoulde not vtterly perishe, although but a fewe dyd remayne faythfull.

23 But this people hath a false and obstinate heart, they are departed and gone away fro me. 24 They thinke not in their heartes, O let vs feare the Lorde our God, who geueth vs rayne early and late when neede is, whiche kepeth euer styll the harueste for vs perely. 25 Neuertheles your misdeedes haue turned these from you, & your sinnes haue robbed you of good thinges. 26 For among my people are founde wicked persons, that prively lay snares and wayte for men, to take them and destroy them. 27 And like as a net is full of byrdes, so are their houses full of that whiche they haue gotten with falshood and deceipt: Wherof commeth their great substaunce and riches, 28 Wherof are they fat and welthy, and are moze misCheuous then any other: they minister not the lawe, they make no ende of the fatherlesse cause, yea and they prosper: yet they iudge not the poore accozding to equitie. 29 Shoulde I not punishe these thinges saith the Lorde? shoulde not I be auenged of all such people as these be? 30 Horrible and greeuous thinges are done in the lande. 31 The prophetes teache falsely, and the preachers receaue gyftes, and my people hath pleasure therein: what wyll come therof at the last?

¶ The.vi. Chapter.

1 The sinnes for whiche Hierusalem is afflict. 10 Vncircumcised eares, 13 couetousnesse, 14 deceipt. 20 The Lorde reiecteth the sacrifices of the Iewes. 22 The comming of the Babylonians is prophecied agayne.

COme out of Hierusalem ye strong chyldren of Beniamin, blowe vp the trumpets ye Thecuites, set vp a token vnto Bethcaran: for a plagne and a great miserie appeareth out from the north. 2 I wyll lyken the daughter Sion to a fayre and tender woman, and to her shall come the (a) sheepheardes with their flockes. 3 Their tentes shall they pitche rounde about her, and euery one shall feede in his place. 4 Make battaple against her (shall they say) aryse, let vs go vp whyle it is yet day: Alas the day goeth away, and the night shadowes fall downe.

5 Arise, let vs go vp by night, and destroy her strong holdes. 6 For thus hath the Lorde of hoastes commaunded, Hewe downe her trees, and set vp bulwarkes against Hierusalem: for the tyme is come that this citie must be punished, for in her is all maliciousnesse. 7 Like as a conduite spouteth out waters, so the spouteth out her wickednesse: Robberie and vnrighteousnesse is heard in her, sorowe and woundes are euer there in my sight. 8 Amende thee (O Hierusalem) lest I withdraue my heart from thee, and make thee desolate, and thy lande also, that no man dwell in it.

9 For thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, The residue of Israel shalbe gathered as the remnaunt of grapes: and therfore turne thyne hande agayne into the basket, lyke the grape gatherer.

10 But vnto whom shall I speake? whom shall I warne that he may take heede? Their eares are so vncircumcised, that they may not heare: beholde, they take the worde of God but for a scorne, and haue no lust thereto.

11 And therefore I am so full of thyne indignation O Lorde, that I may suffer no longer, but shed it out vpon the chyldren that are without, and vpon all young men: yea the man must be taken prysoner with the wyfe, and the aged with the creeple. 12 Their houses with their landes and wynes shalbe turned into straungers: for I wyll stretche out mine hande vpon the inhabitours of this lande, saith the Lorde. 13 For from the least to the most they hang al vpon couetousnesse: and from the prophete vnto the priest they go about falshood and lyes.

14 And beside that, they heale the hurt of my people with sweete wordes, saying, Peace, peace: when there is no peace at all. 15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abhomination? Truely nay, they be past shame, and therefore shall shall fall among the slayne: and in the houre when I shall visite them, they shalbe brought downe saith the Lorde. 16 Thus saith the Lorde, Go into the streetes, consyder and make inquisition for the olde way, and if it be the good and right way, then go therein, that ye may finde rest for your soules: but they say, We will not walke therein. 17 Moreouer, I will set watchmen ouer you, and therfore take heede vnto the voyce of the trumpet: but they say, We will not take heede. 18 Here therfore ye gentiles, and thou congregation shalt knowe what I haue deuised for them.

19 Heare thou earth also: Beholde, I will cause a plague to come vpon this people, euen the fruite of their owne imaginations, for that they haue not ben obedient vnto my wordes and to my lawe, but abhorred them.

Iere.xix.a.

Esai.i.b. Iere.vii.e. (b) Ceremonies, although they be Gods ordinances, pleaseth him not without fayth and purenesse of mynde.

21 And therfore thus saith the Lord, Beholde I will lay stumbling blockes among this people, and there shall fall at them the father with the children, one neighbour shall perishe with another. 22 Thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, there shall come a people from the north, and a great people shall aryse from the endes of the earth. 23 With bowes and with darres shall they be weaponed, it is a rough and fearce people, and an vnmercyfull people: their voyce roareth lyke the sea, they ryde vpon horses well appoynted to the battayle against thee O daughter Sion. 24 The fame of them haue we hearde, our armes are feeble, (c) heauinesse and sorowe is come vpon vs, as vpon a woman trauayling with chylde.

Iere.i.c. and.b.a. Abac.i.c.

Amo.viii.b

26 Wherfore gyrde a sackecloth about thee O thou daughter of my people, sprinckle thy selfe with asshes: mourne and weepe bitterly as vpon thyne only beloued sonne, for the destroyer shall sodainly fall vpon vs.

27 Thee haue I set for a strong towre (O thou prophete) and a well fensed wall among my people, to seeke out and to trye their wayes.

28 For they are all stubborne apostates and fallen away, walkyng deceiptfully, they are cleane brasse and iron, for they hurt and destroy euery man. 29 The bellowes are brent in the fire, the leade is no: moulten, the melter melteth in vayne, for the euyll is not taken away from them.

1 Ieremie is commaunded to shewe vnto the people the worde of God, whiche trusteth in the outwarde seruice of the temple. 13 The euils that shall happen to the Iewes for the despising of their prophetes. 21 Sacrifices doth not the Lorde chiefly require of the Iewes, but that they should obey his worde.

THese are the wordes that God spake vnto Ieremie, saying:

A

2 Stande vnder the gate of the Lordes house, and crye out these wordes there with a loude voyce, and say, Heare the worde of the Lorde all ye of Iuda that go in at this doore to worship the Lorde: 3 Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, Amende your wayes and your counsels, and I will let you dwell in this place. 4 Trust not in false lying wordes, saying, Here is the temple of the Lorde, here is the temple of the Lorde, here is the temple of the Lorde: 5 But rather in deede amende your wayes and counsels, and iudge ryght betwixt a man and his neighbour. 6 Oppresse not the straunger, the fatherlesse, and the widowe, shed not innocent blood in this place, cleaue not to straunge gods to your owne destruction: 7 Then will I let you dwell in this place, yea in the lande that I gaue afozetyme to your fathers for euer. 8 But take heede, ye trust in lying tales, that beguyle you and do you no good.

11 What, thinke you this house that beareth my name is a denne of theeues? And yet I see (what you thinke) saith the Lorde. 12 Go to my place in Silo, where vnto I gaue my name aforetyme, and looke well what I vsed to the same place for the wickednesse of my people of Israel.

13 And nowe seeing ye haue done all these deedes saith the Lorde, and I my selfe rose vp euer betymes to warne you and to commune with you, yet wouldе ye not heare me: I called, ye would not aunswere: 14 Therefore, euen as I haue done vnto Silo, so wyll I do to this house that my name is geuen vnto, and that you put your trust in, yea vnto the place that I haue geuen to you and your fathers:

15 And I shall thrust you out of my sight, as I haue cast out all your brethren the whole seede of Ephraim.

16 Therefore thou shalt not pray for this people, thou shalt neither geue thankes nor vsed prayer for them: make thou no intercession for them, for in no wyse wyll I heare thee.

17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Iuda, and in the streetes of Hierusalem? 18 The children gather sticks, the fathers kindle the fire, the women kneade the dough to bake cakes for the queene of heauen: they powre out drinke offeringes vnto straunge gods, to prouoke me vnto wrath. 19 Howbeit they hurt not me saith the Lorde, but rather confounde and shame themselues.

20 And therfore thus saith the Lord God, Beholde, my wrath and indignation shalbe powred out vpon this place, vpon men and cattell, vpon trees in the feelde, and fruite of the lande: and it shall burne, so that no man may quench it. 21 Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, Heape vp your burnt offeringes with your sacrifices, and eate the flesche. 22 For when I brought your fathers out of Egypt, I spake no worde vnto them of burnt offeringes and sacrifices: 23 But this I commaunded them, saying, Hearken and obey my voyce, and I shalbe your God, and ye shalbe my people, so that ye walke in all the wayes whiche I haue commaunded you, that ye may prosper. 24 But they were not obedient, they inclined not their eares thervnto: but went after their owne imaginations, and after the motions of their owne wicked heart, and so turned them selues away, and conuerted not vnto me. 25 And this haue they done from the tyme that your fathers came out of Egypt, vnto this day: Neuertheleelle I sent vnto you all my seruauntes the prophetes, I rose vp early, and sent you worde. 26 Yet wouldе they not hearken nor offer me their eares, but were obstinate, and worse then their fathers. 27 And thou shalt now speake al these wordes vnto them, but they wyll not heare thee: thou shalt crye vpon them, but they wyll not aunswere thee.

28 Therefore shalt thou say vnto them, This is the people that neither heareth the voyce of the Lorde their God, nor receaueth his correction: faythfulnelle and trueth is cleane rooted out of their mouth. 29 Wherefore cut of thyne heere, (O Hierusalem) and cast it away, take vp a complaynt on hye: for the Lorde hath cast away and forsaken the people that he is displeased withall. 30 For the chyldren of Iuda haue done euyll in my sight, saith the Lorde: they haue set vp their abhominations in the house that hath my name, and haue defiled it:

31 They haue also buylded aulters at Thopheth, whiche is in the valley of the chyldren of Hennom, that they might burne their sonnes & daughters in fire: whiche I neuer commaunded them, neither came it euer in my thought. 32 And therfore behold the dayes shall come (saith the Lorde) that it shall no more be called Thopheth, or the valley of the chyldren of Hennom, but the valley of slaughter: for in Thopheth they shall be buryed, because they shall els haue no roome.

33 Yea the dead bodyes of this people shalbe eaten vp of the foules of the ayre, and wylde beastes of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

34 And as for the voyce of myrth and gladnesse of the cities of Iuda & Hierusalem, the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bryde, I wyll make them cease: for the lande shalbe desolate.

The. viii. Chapter.

1 The destruction of the Iewes. 4 The Lorde moueth the people to amendement, reckening vp their sinnes. 10 He reprehendeth the lying doctrine of the prophetes and priestes.

AT the same tyme saith the Lorde, the bones of the kynges of Juda, the bones of his princes, the bones of the preachers and prophetes, yea and the bones of the citizens of Jerusalem, shalbe brought out of their graues, 2 And layde against the sunne, the moone, and all the heauenly hoast, whom they loued, whom they serued, whom they ranne after, whom they sought and worshipped: they shall neither be gathered together nor buryed, but shall lye as dunge vpon the earth. 3 And all they that remayne of this wicked generation, shall desire rather to dye then to lyue, whersoeuer they remayne, and where as I scatter them, saith the Lorde of hoastes. 4 Thus shalt thou say vnto them also, Thus saith the Lorde, Do men fall so that they aryse not vp agayne? or if Israel repent, will not God turne agayne to them?

5 Wherefore then is this people of Jerusalem gone so farre backe, that they turne not agayne? They are euer the longer the more obstinate, and will not be conuerted. 6 For I haue looked and considered, but there is no man that speaketh a good worde, there is no man that taketh repentaunce for his sinne, that will so much say, What haue I done? but euery man turneth to his owne course, like a fierce horse headlong to the battayle. 7 The Storke in the ayre knoweth his appoynted tyme, the Turtle doue, the Swallowe and the Crane consyder the tyme of their trauayle: but my people will not know the tyme of the punishment of the Lorde. 8 Howe dare ye say then, We are wyse, we haue the lawe of the Lorde among vs? Truely in vayne hath he prepared his penne, and vaynely haue the wryters written it. 9 Therefore shall the wyse be confounded, they shalbe afraide and taken: for lo, they haue cast out the worde of the Lorde, what wysdome can then be among them? 10 Wherfore I will geue their wyues vnto aliauntes, and their fieldes to destroyers: For from the lowest vnto the hyest they folowe filthy lucre, and from the prophete vnto the priest they deale all with lyes. 11 Neuertheles, they heale the hurt of my people very slenderly, saying, Peace, peace: where there is no peace at all. 12 Fye for shame, howe abhominable thinges do they: and yet they be not ashamed, yea they knowe of no shame: Wherefore in the tyme of their visitation they shall fall among the dead bodyes, and be ouerthrowne, saith the Lorde.

13 Moreouer, I will consume them in deede (saith the Lorde) so that there shall not be one grape vpon the vine, neither one figge vpon the figge tree, and the leaues shalbe plucht of: and the thinge that I haue geuen them, shalbe taken from them. 14 Why C prolong we the tyme? Let vs gather our selues together, and go into the strong citie, there shall we be in rest: for the Lorde our God hath put vs to sylence, and geuen vs water mixt with gall to drinke, because we haue sinned against hym. 15 We looked for peace, and we fare not the better, we wayted for the tyme of health, and lo here is nothing but trouble.

16 The noyse of his horses is heard from Dan, the whole lande is afraide at the neighing of his strong horses: for they are come in, and haue deuoured the lande withall that is in it, the cities, and those that dwell therein.

17 Moreouer, I will sende cockatrices and serpentes among you (whiche will not be charmed) and they shall byte you, saith the Lorde.

18 I would haue had comfort against sorowe: but sorowe is come vpon me, and heauinesse vexeth my heart.

19 For lo, the voyce of the crying of my people is hearde, (for feare of them that come) from a farre countrey: Is not the Lorde in Sion? Is not her kyng in her, Wherfore then haue they greeued me (shall the Lorde say) with their images, and foolishe straunge fashions of a forrayne god?

20 The harueste is gone, the sommer hath an ende, and we are not helped.

21 I am sore vexed because of the hurt of my people, I am heauie and abashed: 22 Is there not triacle at Gilead? Is there no phisition there? why then is not the health of my people recouered?

peoples? 2 Wolde God that I had a cottage somewhere farre from folke, that I myght leaue my people and go from them, for they be all adulterers and a shynking sort.

3 They bende their tongues lyke bowes to shoote out lyes, they ware strong vpon earth: As for the trueth, they may nothing away withall in the worlde, for they go from one wickednesse to another, and wyll not knowe me, saith the Lorde. 4 Yea, one must kepe hym selfe from another, no man may safely trust his owne brother: for one brother vndermindeth another, one neighbour begileth another. 5 Yea one dissembleth with another, and they deale with no trueth: They haue practised theis tongues to lye, and taken great payne to do mischiefe. 6 Thou sittest in the middes of a deceipefull people, which for very dissembling falshood wyll not knowe me, saith the Lorde. 7 Therefore thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, Beholde I wyll melt them and trye them: for what shoulde I els do to my people? 8 Their tongues are lyke sharpe arrowes to speake deceipt: with their mouth they speake peaceablye to theis neighbour, but priuily they lay wayte for hym. 9 Should I not punishe them for these thinges, saith the Lorde? Or should I not be auenged of any such people as this?

10 Vpon the mountaynes wyll I take vp a lamentation and a sorowfull crye, and a mourning vpon the fayre places of the wylderneſſe: Namely, howe they are so brent vp, that no man goeth there any more, yea a man shall not heare one beast crye there: bydes and cattell are all gone from thence. 11 I wyll make Hierusalem also an heape of stones, and a denne of venemous wormes: and I wyll make the cities of Iuda so waste, that no man shall dwell therin. 12 What man is so wyse as to vnderstand this? or to whom hath the Lorde spoken by mouth, that he may shewe this, and say, O thou lande, why perisheſt thou so? wherfore art thou so brent vp, and lyke a wylderneſſe that no man goeth thorowe? 13 Yea the Lorde hym selfe tolde the same vnto them that forsoke his lawe, and kept not the thing that he gaue them in commaundement, neither liued thereafter:

14 But folowed the wickednesse of theis owne heartes, and serued straunge gods as theis forefathers taught them. 15 Therefore thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, the God of Israel, Beholde, I wyll feede this people with wormewood, and geue them gall to drinke. 16 I wyll scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor theis fathers haue knowen: and I wyll sende a swoorde among them to persecute them, vntill I bring them to naught.

17 Moreouer, thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, Beware of the vengeaunce that hangeth ouer you, and call for mourning wyues, and sende for wyse women, that they come shortly,

18 And sing a mourning song of vs, that the teares may fall out of our eyes, and that our eye lidded may gush out of water. 19 For there is a lamentable noyse heard of Sion: O howe are we so sore destroyed? O howe are we so pitiously confounded? We must forsake our owne naturall countrey, and we are shut out of our owne lodginges. 20 Yet heare the worde of the Lorde (O ye women) and let your eares regarde the wordes of his mouth: that ye may learne your daughters to mourne, and that euery one may teach her neighbour to make lamentation. 21 (Namely thus) Death is clymming vp in at our windowes, he is come into our houses, to destroy the chylde before the doore, and the young man in the streete.

22 But tell thou playnely, thus saith the Lorde, The dead bodyes of men shall lie vpon the ground as the doung vpon the fielde, and as the handfull after the mower, and there shalbe no man to take them vp. 23 Thus saith the Lorde, Let not the wyse man reioyce in his wysdome, nor the strong man in his strength, neither the riche man in his ryches: 24 But who so wyll reioyce, let hym reioyce in this, that he vnderstandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lorde whiche do mercy, equitie, and righteousnesse vpon the earth: therefore haue I pleasure in such thinges, saith the Lorde.

25 Beholde the tyme commeth (saith the Lorde) that I wyll visite all them whose foreskinne is vncircumcised, and the circumcised, 26 The Egyptians, the Iewes, the Edomites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, and the shauen Madianites that dwell in the wylderneſſe: for all the gentiles are all vncircumcised in the fleshe, but all the

3 Yea all the customes and lawes of the gentiles are nothing but vanitie: They hewe downe a tree in the wood with the handes of the workeman, and fashion it with the axe. 4 They couer it ouer with golde or siluer, they fasten it with nayles and hammers, that it moue not. 5 It standeth as stiffe as the Palme tree, it can neither speake nor go one foote, but must be borne: Be not ye afrayde of such, for they can do neither good nor euyll.

6 But there is none lyke vnto thee O Lorde, and great is the name of thy power. 7 Who woulde not feare thee, O kyng of the gentiles? for thyne is the dominion: for among all the wyse men of the gentiles, and in all their kyngdomes, there is none that may be lykened vnto thee. 8 They are altogether brutishe and vnwyse in this one thing: (a) wood is the teaching of vanitie. 9 Siluer is brought out of Tharsis, and beaten to plates, and golde from Ophir, a worke that is made with the hande of the craftes man, and they are clothed with yelowe silke and scarlet: all these are the worke of cunning men. 10 But the Lorde is a true God, a liuing God, and an euerlasting kyng: if he be wroth, the earth shaketh, all the gentiles may not abyde his indignation.

(a) By wood is ment all kind of matter whereof images are wont to be made, which although they be garnished with golde & siluer, and clothed in purple and silke, and set vp (as time men lay) to be lay mens bokes, yet teache they nothing saith the prophete, but vanitie.

11 (As for their gods) thus shall you say to them, They are no gods that made neither heauen nor earth, therefore shall they perishe from the earth, and from all thinges vnder heauen.

Psal.xciii.a.

1 A curse to them that obey not the word of Gods promise. 10 The people of Iuda following the steppes of their fathers, worshippeth straunge gods. 15 The Lorde saith that he wyll not heare the Iewes, and forbiddeth also Ieremie to pray for them.

THis is a sermon which the Lorde commaunded Ieremie for to preache, saying, 2 Heare the wordes of this couenaunt, and speake vnto the men of Iuda, and to all them that dwel at Hierusalem, 3 And say vnto them, Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, Cursed be euery one that is not obedient vnto the wordes of this couenaunt, 4 Which I commaunded vnto your fathers, what tyme as I brought them out of Egypt from the iron furnace, saying, Be obedient vnto my voyce, and do according to all that I commaunde you, so shall ye be my people, and I wyll be your God: 5 And wyll kepe my promise that I haue sworne vnto your fathers, (namely) that I would geue them a lande whiche floweth with mylke and hony, as ye see it is come to passe vnto this day. Then aunswered I and sayde, Amen: let it be euen so Lorde as thou sayest. 6 Then the Lorde sayde vnto me agayne, Preache this in the cities of Iuda, and rounde about Hierusalem, and say, Heare the wordes of this couenaunt, and kepe them. 7 For I haue diligently exhorted your fathers, euer sithe the time that I brought them out of the lande of Egypt vnto this day, I gaue them warnyng betymes, saying, Hearken vnto my voyce. 8 Neuertheles they would not obey me, nor encline their eares vnto me: but folowed the wicked imaginations of their owne heartes, and therefore I haue brought vpon them all the wordes of this couenaunt that I gaue them to kepe, which they (notwithstanding) haue not kept.

9 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, It is founde out that whole Israel and all these cities of Hierusalem are gone backe. 10 They haue turned them selues to the blasphemies of their forefathers, whiche had no lust to heare my wordes: Euen lykewyse haue these also folowed straunge gods, and worshipped them: The house of Israel and Iuda haue broken my couenaunt whiche I made with their fathers. 11 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Beholde I wyll sende a plague vpon them, whiche they shall not be able to escape: and they shall crye vnto me, and I wyll not heare them. 12 Then shall the townes of Iuda, and the citizens of Hierusalem go and call vpon their gods vnto whom they made their oblations: but they shall not be able to helpe them in tyme of their trouble.

13 For as many cities as thou hast, O Iuda, so many gods hast thou had also: and loothe howe many streetes there be in thee (O Hierusalem) so many shamefull aulters haue ye set vp, aulters (I say) to offer vpon them vnto Baal. 14 Therefore pray not thou for this people, byd neither prayse nor prayer for them: for though they crye vnto me in their trouble, yet wyll I not heare them. 15 What part hath my beloued in my house, seeyng he hath wrought abhomination, seruyng many gods? The holy fleshe offeringes in the temple are gone from thee (O Iuda) and thou when thou hast done euyll, makest thy boast of it. 16 The Lorde called thee a greene olyue tree, a fayre one, a fruitefull one, a goodly one: but with great clamour hath the enemie set fire vpon it, and the braunches of it are destroyed. 17 For the Lorde of hoastes that planted thee, hath deuised a plague for thee (O thou house of Israel and Iuda) for the euyl that ye haue done to prouoke hym to wrath, in that ye dyd seruice to Baal.

18 This (O Lorde) haue I learned of thee, and vnderstande it: for thou hast shewed me their imaginations.

10 But I am as a meeke lamme, an oxe that is caryed away to be slayne, not knowyng that they had deuised suche a counsell against me (saying,) We wyl destroy his meate with wood, and bring hym out of the lande of the liuing, that his name shall neuer be thought vpon. 20 Therefore I wyll beseche thee nowe (O Lorde of hoastes) thou righteous iudge, thou that tryest the reynes and the heartes, let me see thee auenged of them: for vnto thee haue I committed my cause.

21 The Lorde therefore spake thus of the citizens of Anathoth that sought to slay me, saying, Preache not vnto vs in the name of the Lorde, or els thou shalt dye of our handes:

¶ The.xii. Chapter.

¶ 1 The prophete marueyleth greatly at the prosperitie of the wycked, although he confesse god to be righteous. 7 The Iewes are forsaken of the Lord. 10 He speaketh against curates and preachers that seduce the people. 14 The Lord threatneth destruction vnto the nations that bordered vpon Iurie, whiche troubled and vexed it.

A OLorde thou art more ryghteous then that I shoulde dispute with thee: neuertheleſſe let me talke with thee in thinges reasonable. How happeneth it that the way of the vngodly is so prosperous? and that it goeth so well with them whiche without any shame offende and liue in wickednesse? 2 Thou plantest them, they take roote, they growe, and bryng foorth fruite: they boast much of thee, yet art thou far from theyr (a) reynes.
3 But thou Lord to whom I am well knowen, thou that hast seene and proued my heart, take them away, like as a flocke is caryed to the slaughter house, and appoynt them for the day of slaughter. 4 Howe long shall the lande mourne, and all the herbes of the feelde perysshe for the wickednesse of them that dwell therin? The cattell and the birdes are gone, yet say they, Truly God wyll not destroy vs vtterly. 5 Seeyng thou art weery in runnyng with the footemen, howe wylt thou then runne with horses? In a peaceable sure lande thou mayst be safe: but howe wylt thou do in the furious pride of Iordane? 6 For thy brethren and thy kyntrede haue altogether dispised thee, and cryed out vpon thee altogether: Beleeue them not, though they speake fayre wordes to thee. 7 As for me (I say) I haue forsaken myne owne dwellyng place, and left myne heritage: I haue geuen that my soule (b) loued so well into the handes of her enemies.
8 Myne heritage is become vnto me as a lion in the wood; it cryed out vpon me, therefore haue I forsaken it. 9 Is not myne heritage vnto me as a speckled birde? are not the birdes rounde about agaynst her? Come and gather ye together all the beastes of the feelde, come, that ye may eate it vp. 10 Diuers heardmen haue broken downe my vineyarde, and troden vpon my portion: of my pleasaunt portion they haue made a wylderneſſe and desart. 11 They haue layde it waste, and nowe that it is waste it sigheth vnto me: yea the whole lande lyeth waste, and no man regardeth it. 12 The destroyers come ouer the borders in the desart euery way: for the swoorde of the Lord doth consume from the one end of the lande to the other, and no fleshe hath rest. 13 They haue sowen wheate, and reaped thornes, they haue taken heritage in possession, but it doth them no good: and they were ashamed of your fruites, because of the great wrath of the Lorde. 14 Thus sayth the Lorde vpon all my euyll neighbours that lay hande on myne heritage which I haue possessed, euen my people of Israel, Beholde I wyl plucke them (namely Israel) out of their lande, and put out the house of Iuda from among them. 15 And when I haue rooted them out, I will be at one with them agayne, and I wyll haue mercie vppon them, and bryng them agayne euery man to his owne heritage, and into his lande. 16 And yf they (namely that trouble my people) wyl learne the wayes of them to sweare by my name, The Lorde lyueth: lyke as they learned my people to sweare by Baal: then shall they be buylt among my people. 17 But yf they wyll not obey, then wyll I roote out the same folke, and destroy them, saith the Lorde.

¶ 1 The Lorde wyll not heare Moyses and Samuel yf they pray for the people, but wyll wrappe them in many miseries. 6 The cause of suche great miseries.

THus spake the Lorde vnto me, A Though Moyses and Samuel stoode before me, yet haue I no heart heart to this people: dryue them away, that they may go out of my syght. 2 And yf they say vnto thee, Whither shall we go? then tell them, The Lord geueth you this answere, Some vnto death, some to the swoꝛd, some to hunger, some into captiuitie.

Ezech.5.c. 3 For I will bryng foure plagues vppon them, sayth the Lorde, The swoꝛde shall slay them, the dogges shall teare them in peeces, the fowles of the ayre and beastes of the earth shall eate them vp, and destroy them.

Jere.16.a. 4 I will scatter them about also in all kyngdomes and landes to be plagued, because of Manasses the sonne of Ezekias kyng of Juda, for the thynges that he dyd in Hierusalem.

2.king.21.a 5 Who shall then haue pitie vppon thee O Hierusalem? who shalbe sorie for thee? Or who shall make intercession to obtayne peace for thee?

6 Seeyng thou goest from me, and turnest backwarde, sayth the Lorde, therefore I dyd stretche out myne hande agaynst thee to destroy thee, and I haue ben sorye for thee so long that I am weerye. 7 I haue scattered them abroade with the fanne of euery syde of the lande, I haue wasted my people and destroyed them, yet they haue had no lust to turne from theyr owne wayes. 8 I haue made theyr wyddowes mo in number then the sandes of the sea, vppon the mothers of theyr chyldren dyd I bryng a destroyer in the noone day: sodaynly and vnawares dyd I sende a feare vpon theyr cities. 9 She that hath borne seuen chyldren, hath none, her heart is ful of sorowe: the sunne doth fayle her in the cleare day, she is confounded and fayntie for very heauynesse: As for those that remayne, I will deliuer them vnto the swoꝛde before their enemies, saith the Lorde.

Jere.15.b. 10 O mother, alas that thou euer didst beare me, a brawler and rebuker of the whole lande: though I neuer lent nor receaued vpon vsurie, yet all men speake euyll vpon me. 11 And the Lorde answered me. Verely thy (a) remnaunt shall haue wealth: Come not I to thee when thou art in trouble, and helpe thee when thyne enemie oppresseth thee? 12 Doth one vpon hurt another? or one metall that commeth from the north another? 13 As for thy ryches and treasure, I will geue them out into a pray: not for money, but because of all thy sinnes that thou hast done in all thy coastes. 14 And I will bryng thee with thyne enemies into a lande that thou knowest not: for the fyre that is kyndled in myne indignation shall burne vpon vp. 15 O Lord thou knowest, therefore remember me, and visite me, reuenge me of my persecutours: take me not from this lyfe in the tyme of thine anger, thou knowest that for thy sake I suffer rebuke.

Deut.32.d. 16 When I had founde thy wordes I dyd eate them vp greedyly, they haue made my heart ioyful and glad: for thy name was (b) called vppon me O Lorde God of hoastes. 17 I dwel not among the scorners, neither is my delyght therein: but I dwell alone because of thy hand, for thou hast filled me with bitternesse. 18 Shal my heauines endure for euer? Are my plagues then so great that they may neuer be healed? Wylt thou be as one that is false, and as a water that faileth, and can not continue? 19 Vpon these wordes, thus sayde the Lorde vnto me, If thou wylt turne agayne, I shall set thee in my seruice, and yf thou wylt take out the thynges that is prettious from the vyle, thou shalt be euen as myne owne mouth: they shall conuert vnto thee, but turne not thou vnto them. 20 And so shall I make thee a strong brasen wall agaynst this people, they shall fyght agaynst thee, but they shall not preuayle: for I my selfe wyll be with thee, to helpe thee and deliuer thee, sayth the Lorde. 21 And I will rydde thee out of the handes of the wycked, and deliuer thee out of the handes of tyrannes.

Jere.xxii.a. Zacha.7.b. Jere.4.a.

12 O thou house of Dauid, thus sayth the Lorde, Minister eyghteousnesse and that soone, deliuer the oppressed from violent power, or euer my terrible wrath breake out lyke a fyre and burne, so that no man may quenche it because of the wickednesse of your imaginations. 13 Beholde sayth the Lorde, I wyll come vpon thee that dwellest in the valleyes, rockes, and feeldes, and say, Tushe, who wyll make vs afrayde? or who wyll come into our houses? 14 For I wyll visite you sayth the Lorde, because of the wickednesse of your inuentions, and wyll kindle such a fyre in your wood, as shall consume all that is about you.

¶ The xxii. Chapter.

2 He exhorteth the king of Iuda to iudgment and rygteousnesse. 9 Why Hierusalem is brought into captiuitie. 11 The death of Sellum the sonne of Iosias is prophesied.

A THus sayth the Lorde, Go downe into the house of the kyng of Iuda, and speake there these wordes, 2 And say, Heare the worde of the Lorde thou kyng of Iuda that sittest in the kingly seate of Dauid, thou and thy seruauntes, and thy people that goeth in and out at these gates.

Esai.i.c. Jere.21.c. Zacha.7.c.

3 Thus the Lorde commaundeth, Kepe equitie and righteousnesse, deliuer the oppressed from the power of the violent, do not greeue nor oppresse the straunger, the fatherlesse, nor the wydowe, and shed no innocent blood in this place. 4 And yf ye keepe these thinges faythfullye, then shall there come in at the doore of this house kinges to sit vppon Dauids seate, they shalbe caryed in charrets, and ryde vpon horses, both they and their seruauntes, and their people.

Esai.i.c. Jere.li.e. Hebre.vi.b

5 But yf ye wyll not be obedient vnto these commaundementes, I sweare by myne owne selfe, sayth the Lorde, this house shalbe waste. 6 For thus hath the Lorde spoken vpon the kinges of Iuda, Thou Gilead art vnto me the head of Libanus: shall I not make thee so waste as the cities that no man dwell in? 7 I wyll prepare a destroyer with his weapons for thee, to hewe downe thy especial Cedar trees, and to cast them in the fyre.

8 And al the people that go by this cite, shal speake one to another, Wherfore hath the Lorde done thus vnto this noble citie? 9 Then shall it be aunswered, Because they haue broken the couenaunt of the Lorde their god, and haue worshipped & serued strange gods. 10 Mourne not ouer the dead, and be not wo for them: but be sorie for him that departeth away, for he commeth not agayne, and seeth his natiue countrey no more. 11 For thus sayth the Lorde as touchyng Sellum the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda, which raigned after his father, When he is caryed out of this place, he shall neuer come hyther agayne: 12 For he shal dye in the place whereunto he is led captiue, and shall see this lande no more. 13 Wo worth him that buyldeth his house with vnrighteousnesse, and his parlours with the good that he hath gotten by violence, which neuer recompenceth his neighbours labour, nor payeth hym his hyre: 14 Who thynketh in him selfe, I wyll buylde me a wyde house and gorgious parlours, who causeth wyndowes to be hewen therein, and the seelinges and toppes maketh he of Cedar, and painteth them with Sinoper. 15 Thinkest thou to raigne nowe that thou hast inclosed thy selfe with Cedar? Dyd not thy father eate and drynke and prosper well, as long as he dealt with equitie and rygteousnesse? 16 Yea, when he helped the oppressed and poore to their ryght, then prospered he well: from whence came this, but onlye because he knewe me, sayth the Lorde?

19 But as an asse shall he be buryed, corrupt, and be cast without the gates of Hierusalem. 20 Climbe vp the hyll of Libanus (O thou daughter Sion) lyft vp thy voyce vpon Basan, crye from all partes: for all thy louers are destroyed. 21 I gaue thee warnyng whyle thou wast yet in prosperitie: but thou saydest, I wyll not heare; And this maner hast thou vsed from thy youth, that thou wouldest neuer heare my voyce. 22 All thy heardmen shalbe dryuen with the winde, and thy dartlynges shalbe carryed away ed away into captiuitie: then shalt thou be brought to shame and confusion, because of all thy wickednesse.

23 Thou that dwellest vpon Libanus, and makest thy nest in the Cedar trees, O howe litle shalt thou be regarded when thy sorowe and panges come vppon thee, as vpon a woman trauayling with childe? 24 As truely as I liue sayth the Lorde, though * Conanias the sonne of Iehoiakim kyng of Iuda were the signet of my right hande, yet will I plucke hym of. 25 And I will gene thee into the hande of them that seeke thy life, and into the power of them that thou feareſt, euen into the power of Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon, and into the power of the Chaldees.
26 Moreouer I will sende thee and thy mother that bare thee into a straunge lande where ye were not borne, and there shal ye dye. 27 But as for the lande that ye will desyre to returne vnto, ye shall neuer come at it agayne. 28 This man Conanias shalbe like an image robbed and torne in peeces, and lyke a vessell wherein there is no pleasure: Wherefore both he and his seede shalbe sent away, and cast into a lande that they knowe not.
29 O thou earth, earth, earth, heare the worde of the Lorde. 30 Thus sayth the Lord, Write this man destitute of childzen: for no prosperitie shall this man haue all his dayes, neither shall any of his seede be so happie as to sit vpon the seate of Dauid, and to beare rule any more in Iuda.

¶ The .xxiii. Chapter.

1 He speaketh agaynst euill curates that make hauocke of the flocke of the Lord. 5 The commyng of the true shepheard Christe is prophecied. 9 Agaynst false prophetes, 32 The miracles of false prophetes.

A Ezec.34.a. WO vnto the shepheardes that destroy and scatter my flocke, saith the Lorde. 2 Wherefore this is the saying of the Lorde God of Israel concernyng the shepheardes that feede my people, Ye scatter and thrust out my flocke, and loke not vppon them: therfore nowe will I visite the wickednesse of your imaginations, sayth the Lorde. 3 And I will gather together the remnaunt of my flocke from all landes that I had driuen them vnto, and will bring them agayne to their foldes, that they may growe and increase. 4 I will set shepheardes also ouer them, whiche shall feede them: they shall no more feare and dreade, and there shall none of them be lost, sayth the Lorde.
5 Beholde the tyme commeth sayth the Lorde, that I will rayse vp the ryghteous braunche of Dauid, which kyng shal beare rule, and he shal prosper with wysdome, and shall set vp equitie and ryghteousnesse agayne in the earth. 6 In his tyme shal Iuda be saued, and Israel shall dwell without feare: and this is the name that they shall call him, The Lorde our ryghteousnesse. 7 And therefore beholde the tyme commeth sayth the Lord, that it shalbe no more sayd, The Lorde liueth which brought the childzen of Israel out of the lande of Egypt: 8 But, The lorde liueth which brought foorth and led the seede of the house of Israel out of the north lande, and from all countreyes where I had scattered them: and they shall dwell in their owne lande agayne.
9 My heart breaketh in my bodye, because of the (false) prophetes all my bones shake, I am become like a drunken man that by the reason of wine can take no rest, for very feare of the lorde and his holy wordes. 10 Because the lande is full of adulterers, and through swearyng it mourneth, and the pleasaunt pastures of the desart are dryed vp: yea the way that men take is wicked, and their power is nothyng right. 11 For the prophetes and the priestes them selues are polluted hypocrites, and their wickednesse haue I founde in my house, sayth the lorde. 12 Wherefore their way shalbe slipperie in the darkenesse, wherein they may stacker and fall: for I will bring a plague vpon them, euen the yere of their visitation, sayth the lorde. 13 I haue seene folly among the prophetes of Samaria that preached for Baal, and deceaued my people of Israel. 14 I haue seene also among the prophetes of Hierusalem foule adulterie, and presumptuous lyes: they take the most shameful men by the hand, flatteryng them, so that they can not returne from their wickednesse: all these with their citezins are vnto me as Sodom, and as the inhabitours of Gomorre.

15 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes concernyng these prophetes, Beholde I wyll feede them with wormewood, and make them drynke the water of gall: for from the prophetes of Hierusalem is hypocrisie come into all the lande. 16 And therefore the Lorde of hoastes geueth you this warnyng, Heare not the wordes of the prophetes that preache vnto you and deceaue you, truely they teache you vanitie: for they speake the meanyng of their owne heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lorde.

Jere.17b. and.29.b.

17 They say vnto them that despise me, The Lorde hath spoken it, tushe, ye shall prosper ryght well: and vnto all them that walke after the lust of their owne heart, they say, Tush, there shall no mischefe happen you.

18 For who hath sitten in the counsayle of the Lorde, that he hath heard and vnderstande what he is about to do? who hath marked his deuice, and hearde it? 19 Beholde the stormie weather of the Lorde (that is) his indignation shall go forth, and a violent whirlewinde shall fall downe vpon the head of the vngodly. 20 And the wrath of the Lorde shal not turne agayne, vntyll he perfourme and fulfill the thought of his heart: and in the latter dayes ye shall knowe his meanyng. 21 I haue not sent these prophetes (sayth the Lorde) and yet they ranne, I haue not spoke to them, and yet they preached. 22 But yf they had continued in my counsell, they had opened to my people my wordes, and they had turned my people from their euyll wayes, and wicked imaginations. 23 Am I then God that seeth but the thing whiche is nye at hande, and not that is farre of, sayth the Lorde? 24 May any man hyde him selfe so, that I shal not see him sayth the Lorde? do not I fulfill heauen and earth sayth the Lord?

28 The prophete that hath a dreame, let him tell it, and he that vnderstandeth my worde, let him shewe it faythfully: for what hath chaffe & wheate to do together sayth the Lorde?

33 If this people, eyther any prophete or priest aske thee, & say, What is the (a) burthen of the Lorde? Thou shalt say vnto them, What burthen? I wyll forsake you sayth the Lorde. 34 And the prophete, priest, or people that vseth this tearme, The burthen of the Lord: hym wyl I visite, and his house also. 35 But thus shal ye say euery one to another, and euery man to his brother, What aunswere hath the lord geuen? or what is the Lordes commaundement? 36 And as for the burthen of the Lorde, ye shall speake no more of it, for euery mans owne worde is his burthen: because ye haue altered the wordes of the liuing God, the Lorde of hoastes our God. 37 Thus shall euery man say to the prophetes, What aunswere hath the lorde geuen thee? or what sayth the lorde? 38 And not once to name the burthen of the Lord. Therefore thus sayth the Lord, Forasmuch as ye haue vsed this tearme (The burthen of the Lorde) where as I notwithstandyng sent vnto you and forbad you to speake of the Lordes burthen: 39 Behold, therefore I wyll take you vp as a burthen, and wyll cast you farre of from my presence, yea and the citie also that I gaue you and your fathers: 40 And wyll bryng you to an euerlastyng confusion, and into a shame that shall neuer be forgotten.

1 The vision of the two panniers of figges, 5 The first vision signifieth, that part of the people shoulde be brought agayne from captiuitie. 8 The seconde, that Zedekias and the rest of the people shoulde be destroyed.

A THe Lorde shewed me a vision: beholde there stoode two maundes of figges before the temple of the Lorde, after that Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon had led away captiue Iechonias the sonne of Ichoakim kyng of Iuda, the mightie men also of Iuda, with the workemaisters and cunnyng men of Hierusalem vnto Babylon. 2 In the one maunde were very good figges, euen like those that be first rype: in the other maunde were very naughtie figges, whiche myght not be eaten they were so euyl. 3 Then sayde the Lord vnto me, What seest thou Ieremie? I sayde, figges, whereof some be very good, and some so euyll that no man may eate them.

4 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto me after this maner: 5 Thus sayth the lord the God of Israel, Like as thou knowest the good figges: so shall I knowe the men led away, whom I haue sent out of this place into the lande of the Chaldees for their profite: 6 And I wyl set mine eyes vpon them for the best, for I wyl bryng them agayne into this lande, I wyll buylde them vp, and not breake them downe, I wyll plant them, and not roote them out. 7 And I wyll geue them an heart to knowe howe that I am the Lorde: they shall be my people, and I wyll be their God: for they shall returne vnto me with their whole heart. 8 And lyke as thou knowest the naughtie figges whiche may not be eaten they are so euil: euen so wyll I, sayth the Lorde, cause Zedekias the kyng of Iuda, yea and all his princes, and the residue of Hierusalem that remayne ouer in this land, and them also that dwell in Egypt, to be vexed and plagued in all kingdomes and landes. 9 And I wyll make them to be a reproffe, a common byworde, a laughing stocke and shame in all the places where I shall scatter them. 10 I wyll sende the swoorde, hunger, and pestilence among them, vntyll I haue cleane consumed them out of the lande that I gaue vnto them and their fathers.

1 Ieremie prophecieth that they shalbe in captiuitie threescore and ten yeres, because they contempned and despised the worde of God.

A Sermon that was genen vnto Ieremie vppon all the people of Iuda, in the fourth yere of Iehoakim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda (that was in the fyrst yere of Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon.)

2 Whiche sermon Ieremie the prophete made vnto all the people of Iuda, and to all the inhabitours of Hierusalem, on this maner, 3 From the thirteenth yere of Iosias the sonne of Amon kyng of Iuda vnto this present day (that is euen twentie and three yeres) the worde of the lorde hath ben committed vnto me, and so I haue spoken vnto you, I haue rysen vp early, I haue geuen you warnyng in season: but ye would not heare me. 4 Though the Lorde hath sent his seruauntes all the prophetes vnto you in season, yet woulde ye not obay, ye woulde not encline your eares to heare. 5 He sayde, Turne agayne euery man from his euyll way, and from your wicked imaginations, and so shall ye dwell for euer in the lande that the Lord promysed you and your forefathers. 6 And go not after straunge gods, serue them not, worship them not, and anger me not with the workes of your owne handes, the wyll I not punishe you. 7 Neuertheless ye wouldo not heare me sayth the Lorde, but haue prouoked me to anger with the workes of your handes, to your great harme.

8 Wherefore thus sayth the Lord of hoastes, Because ye haue not hearkened vnto my worde, 9 Lo, I wyll sende out and call for all the people that dwel in the north sayth the Lord, and wyll prepare Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon my seruaunt, and wyll bryng them vpon this lande, and vpon all that dwell therein, & vpon all the people that are about them, and wyll vtterly roote them out: I wyll make them amased, a mockage, and a continuall desart. 10 Moreouer, I wyll take from them the voyce of gladnesse and solace, the voyce of the brydegrome and the bryde, the noyse of the millstones, and the lyght of the cresset. 11 And this whole lande shall become a wildernesse and astonyshed: and these nations shall serue the kyng of Babylon threescore yeres and ten. 12 When the threescore and ten yeres are expired, I wyll visite all the wickednesse of the kyng of Babylon and his people sayth the Lorde, yea and the lande of the Chaldees, and wyll make it a perpetuall wyldernesse, 13 And wyll fulfill all my wordes vpon that lande which I haue deuised agaynst it: yea all that is written in this booke, which Jeremie hath prophecied of al people. 14 So that they also shalbe subdued vnto diuers nations and great kynges: for I wyll recompence them accordyng to their deedes and workes of their owne handes. 15 For thus hath the Lorde God of Israel spoken vnto me, Take this wine cup of indignation fro my hand, that thou mayst cause all people to whom I sende thee for to drynke of it. 16 That when they haue dronken thereof, they may be madde and out of their wittes, when the swoorde commeth that I wyll send among them. 17 Then toke I the cuppe from the Lordes hande, and made all people to drinke thereof vnto whom the Lorde had sent me:

18 But fyrst the citie of Hierusalem, and all the cities of Juda, their kynges and prynces, to make them desolate, amased, despised, and hissed at, and cursed, accordyng as it is come to passe this day: 19 Yea and Pharao the kyng of Egypt, his seruauntes, his prynces, and his people altogether one with another: 20 And all kynges of the lande of Hus, all kynges of the Philistines lande, Ascalon, Azah, Accaron, and the remnaunt of Asdod, 21 The Edomites, the Moabites, and the Ammonites,

22 All the kynges of Tyrus and Sidon, the kinges of the Iles that are beyonde the sea, 23 Dedan, Thema, Buz, & al them that dwel in the vttermost partes of the worlde, 24 All the kynges of Arabia, and (generally) all the kynges that dwell in the desart, 25 All the kynges of Zimri, all the kynges of Elam, all the kynges of the Medes, 26 All the kynges towarde the north, whether they be farre or nye, euery one agaynst his neighbour, yea and al the kingdomes that are vpon the whole earth: and the kyng of Sesach shall drynke also after them. 27 Therfore say thou vnto them, This is the cōmaundement of the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, Drynke and be dronken, spewe and fall, that ye neuer aryse, and that through the swoorde which I wyl send among you. 28 But yf they wyll not receaue the cup of thy hande, and drynke it, then tell them, thus doth the Lorde of hoastes threaten you, Drynke it you shall, and that shortly:

29 For lo, I begyn to plague the citie that my name is geuen vnto, thynke ye then that I wyll leaue you vnpunyshed? ye shall not go quite: for why? I call for a swoorde vpon all the inhabitours of the earth, sayth the Lorde of hoastes. 30 Therfore tell them all these wordes, and say vnto them, The Lorde shall crye from aboue, and his voyce shalbe heard from his holy habitatiō, with a great noyse shall he crye from his court regall: he shall gene a great voyce lyke the grape gatherers, and the sounde thereof shalbe heard vnto the endes of the worlde. 31 For the Lorde hath a iudgement to geue vpon all people, and wyll holde his court of iustice with all flesche, and wyll deliuer the vngodly to the swoorde, sayth the Lorde. 32 For thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes, Beholde, a miserable plague shall go from one people to another, and a great stormie water shall aryse from all the endes of the earth. 33 And the same day shal the Lorde hym selfe slay them from one ende of the earth to another: there shall no mone be made for any of them, none gathered vp, none buried: but shal lye as dunge vpon the ground.

34 Mourne O ye shepheardes, and crye, sprinckle your selues with asshes O ye rammes of the flocke: for the tyme of your slaughter and breache is fulfilled, and ye shall fall lyke vessels that were much set by.

35 The shepheardes shall haue no way to flee, and the rammes of the flocke shall not escape. 36 Then shall the shepheardes crye horrible, and the rammes of the flocke shall mourne: for the Lorde hath consumed their pasture. 37 And their best feeldes lye dead, because of the horrible wrath of the Lorde.

38 They haue forsaken their folde lyke as a lion: for their lande is waste because of the spoylers furious crueltie, and of his feareful indignation.

a Ieremie moueth the people to amendement. 7 He is taken of the prophetes and prieſtes, and brought to iudgemẽt. 23 Urias the prophete is kylled of Iehoakim, contrary to the wyll of God.

a IN the begynnyng of the raigne of Iehoakim the ſonne of Ioſias kyng of Iuda, came this worde from the Lorde, ſaying, 2 Thus ſayth the Lorde, Stande in the court of the Lordes houſe, and ſpeake vnto all them which (out of the cities of Iuda) come to do worſhip in the Lordes houſe, all the wordes that I commaunde thee to ſay: loke that thou kepe not one worde backe. 3 (If peraduenture they wyll hearken and turne euery man from his wicked way, that I may alſo repent of the plague whiche I haue determined to bryng vppon them, becauſe of their wicked inuentions.) 4 And after this maner ſhalt thou ſpeake vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde, If ye wyll not obey me, to walke in my lawes which I haue geuen you,

5 And to heare the wordes of my ſeruauntes the prophetes whom I ſent vnto you, ryſing vp tymely, and ſtyll ſendyng, yet you haue not hearkened: 6 Then wyll I do to this houſe as I dyd vnto Silo, and wyll make this citie to be abhorred of all the people of the earth. 7 And the prieſtes, the prophetes, and all the people heard Ieremie preache theſe wordes in the houſe of the Lorde.

b 8 Nowe when he had ſpoken out all the wordes that the Lorde commaunded him to preache vnto the people, then the prieſtes, the prophetes, and all the people tooke holde vpon hym, and ſayde, Thou ſhalt dye: 9 How dareſt thou be ſo bolde as to ſay in the name of the Lord, It ſhall happen to this houſe as it dyd vnto Silo, and this citie ſhalbe ſo waſte that no man may dwell therein? 10 And when all the people were gathered about Ieremie in the houſe of the Lorde, the princes of Iuda heard of this rumour, and they came ſoone out of the kynges palace into the houſe of the Lorde, and ſate them downe before the newe dooze of the Lorde.

11 Then ſpake the prieſtes and the prophetes vnto the rulers, and to all the people theſe wordes, This man is worthy to dye: for he hath preached agaynſt this citie, as ye your ſelues haue heard with your eares.

12 Then ſayde Ieremie vnto the rulers and to all the people, The Lorde hath ſent me to preache agaynſt this houſe, and agaynſt this citie, all the wordes that ye haue heard.

13 Therefore amende your wayes, and your adiuſementes, and be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lord your God, ſo ſhall the Lorde repent of the plague that he hath deuiſed agaynſt you. 14 Nowe as for me I am in your handes, do with me as you thinke expedient and good: 15 But this ſhall ye knowe yf ye put me to death, ye ſhall make your ſelues, this citie, and all the inhabitors thereof guilty of innocent blood: for this is of a treuth, that the Lorde hath ſent me vnto you, to ſpeake all theſe wordes in your eares. 16 Then ſayde the rulers and the people vnto the prieſtes and prophetes, This man may not be condemned to death, for he hath preached vnto vs in the name of the Lord our God. 17 The elders alſo of the lande ſtoode vp, and ſayde thus vnto all the people, 18 Micheas the Morathite, whiche was a prophete vnder Ezekias kyng of Iuda, ſpake to all the people of Iuda, thus ſayth the Lorde of hoaſtes, Sion ſhalbe plowed lyke a feelde, Hieruſalem ſhalbe an heape of ſtones, and the hyll of the Lordes houſe ſhalbe turned to an high wood. 19 Dyd Ezekias the kyng of Iuda and all the people of Iuda put him to death for this? No verily: but rather feared the Lord, and made their prayer vnto him, for the which cauſe alſo the Lorde (a) repented of the plague that he had deuiſed agaynſt them: ſhoulde we then do ſuch a ſhamefull deede agaynſt our ſoules? 20 There was a prophete alſo that preached ſtifly in the name of the Lorde, called Urias the ſonne of Semaiah of Kiriathiarim: this man alſo preached agaynſt this citie and agaynſt this lande, accordyng to all as Ieremie ſayth. 21 Nowe when Iehoakim the kyng with all the eſtates and princes had heard his wordes, the kyng went about to ſlay hym: when Urias perceaued that, he was afrayde and fled, and departed into Egypt. 22 Then Iehoakim the kyng ſent ſeruauntes into the lande of Egypt (namelye) Elnathan the ſonne of Achbor, and

1 Ieremie at the commaundement of the Lorde sendeth bondes to the kyng of Iuda, and to the other kynges that were nye, whereby they are monyshed to become subiectes vnto Nabuchodonozor. 9 He warneth the people, and the kinges, and rulers, that they beleue not false prophetes.

A IN the begynnyng of the raigne of Iehoakim the sonne of Josias kyng of Juda, came this woꝛd vnto Jeremie from the Lord, which spake thus vnto me: 2 Make thee bondes and chaynes, and put them about thy necke, 3 And sende them to the king of Edom, to the kyng of Moab, to the kyng of Ammon, to the kyng of Tyrus, and to the kyng of Sidon, and that by the messengers whiche shall come to Hieruſalem, vnto Zedekiah the kyng of Juda: 4 And bid them say vnto their maisters, Thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes, the God of Israel, Speake thus vnto your maisters:
Deut.7.c. 5 I am he that made the earth, the men, and the cattell that are vpon the grounde with my great power and stretched out arme, and haue geuen it vnto whom it pleased me. 6 And nowe wyll I deliuer all these landes into the power of Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon my seruaunt: the beastes also of the feelde wyll I geue him, to do him seruice. 7 And all the people shall serue him, and his sonne, and his childers childzen, vntyll the time of the same lande be come, and his tyme also: yea many people and great kynges shall serue him. 8 Moꝛeouer that people and kyngdome which wyll not serue Nabuchodonozor, and that wyll not put their neckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Babylon: the same people wyll I visite with the swoꝛde, with hunger and pestilence, vntyll I haue consumed them in his handes, sayth the Lorde. 9 And therefoꝛe folowe not your prophethes, soothsayers, expounders of dreames, charmers and witches, whiche say vnto you, Ye shal not serue the kyng of Babylon.
10 Foꝛ they preache you lyes, to bring you farre from your lande, and that I myght cast you out, and destroy you. 11 But the people that put their neckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Babylon and serue him, those wyll I let remayne still in their owne lande, sayth the Lorde, and they shall occupie it and dwell therein. Jere.38.c.
12 All these thinges tolde I Zedekiah the kyng of Juda, and sayde, Put your neckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Babylon, and serue him and his people, that ye may lyue.
13 Why wyll thou and thy people perysshe with the swoꝛde, with hunger, with pestilence, lyke as the Lord hath deuised foꝛ all people that wyll not serue the kyng of Babylon? Jere.27.c. and.29.b.
14 Therefoꝛe geue no eare vnto those prophetes that tell you, Ye shall not serue the kyng of Babylon: foꝛ they preache you lyes. 15 Neither haue I sent them sayth the Lorde: howbeit they are bolde falsely to prophecie in my name, that I myght the sooner dryue you out, and that ye myght perysshe with your preachers. 16 I speake to the priestes also, and to all this people: thus sayth the Lorde, Heare not the woꝛdes of your prophetes that preache vnto you, and say, Jere.28.a. Beholde the vessels of the Lordes house shall shortly be brought hyther agayne from Babylon, foꝛ they prophecie lyes vnto you. 17 Heare them not, but serue the kyng of Babylon, that ye may lyue: wherefoꝛe wyll ye make this citie to be destroyed? 18 But yf they be true prophetes in very deede, and yf the woꝛde of the Lorde be committed vnto them, then let them pray the Lorde of hoastes, that the remnaunt of the ornamentes which are in the house of the Lorde and in the house of the kyng of Juda, and at Hieruſalem, be not caryed to Babylon also. 19 Foꝛ thus hath the Lorde of hoastes spoken concernyng the pillers, the lauer, the seate, and the residue of the ornamentes that yet remayne in this citie, 20 Whiche Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon tooke not when he caryed away 2.king.24.c Jechonias the sonne of Jehoakim kyng of Juda, with all the power of Juda and Hieruſalem, vnto Babylon captiue. 21 Yea thus hath the Lorde

Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel spoken as touchyng the residue of the ornamentes of the Lordes house, of the king of Juda his house, and of Hierusalem: 22 They shalbe caryed vnto Babylon, and there shall they remayne vntyll I visite them, saith the Lorde: then will I bryng them hyther agayne.

¶ The.xxviii. Chapter.

1 The false prophecie of Hananias the prophete. 12 Ieremie sheweth that the prophecie of Hananias is false, by the example of the other prophetes.

AND it came to passe the same yere, euen in the begynnyng of the raigne of Zedekiah king of Juda, in the fourth yere, the fifth moneth, that Hananias the sonne of Azur the prophete of Gibeon spake to me in the house of the Lorde, in the presence of the priestes, and of all the people, and sayde, 2 Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, I haue broken the yoke of the king of Babylon, 3 And after two yeres will I bryng agayne into this place all the ornamentes of the Lordes house, that Nabuchodonozor king of Babylon caryed away from this place vnto Babylon, 4 Yea I will bring agayne Iechonias the sonne of Iehoakim the king of Juda him selfe, with all the prisoners of Juda that are caryed vnto Babylon, euen into this place, saith the Lorde: for I will breake the yoke of the king of Babylon. 5 Then the prophete Ieremie gaue aunswere vnto the prophete Hananias before all the priestes, and before all the people that were present in the house of the Lorde. 6 And the prophete Ieremie sayde, Amen, the Lorde do that, and graunt the thyng which thou hast prophecied, that he may bryng agayne all the ornamentes of the Lordes house, and restore all the prisoners from Babylon into this place. 7 Neuertheless hearken thou also what I will say, that thou and all the people may heare. 8 The prophetes that were before vs in tyme past, which prophecied of warre, or trouble, or pestilence, 9 Either of peace vpon many nations and great kingdomes, were proued by this (yf God hath sent them in very deede) when the thyng came to passe which the prophete tolde before. 10 And Hananias the prophete toke the chayne from the prophete Ieremies necke, and brake it: 11 And with that sayd Hananias that all the people myght heare, Thus hath the Lorde spoken, Euen so will I breake the yoke of Nabuchodonozor king of Babylon from the necke of all nations, yea and that within this two yere. And so the prophete Ieremie went his way.

¶ The.xxix. Chapter.

1 The pistle of Ieremie sent vnto them that were in captiuitie in Babylon. 10 He prophecieth their returne from the captiuitie after seuentie yeres.

THese are the wordes of the booke A that Ieremie the prophete sent from Hierusalem vnto the priseners, the senatours, priestes, prophetes, and all the people, whom Nabuchodonozor had led from Hierusalem vnto Babylon, 2 After that tyme that king Iechonias and his quene, his chamberlaynes, the princes of Juda and Hierusalem, the workmaisters of Hierusalem, were departed thyther. 3 Which boothe Elasah the sonne of Saphan, and Gamariah the sonne of Helkia dyd beare, whom Zedekias the king of Juda sent vnto Babylon to Nabu-

chodonozor the king of Babylon: these were the wordes of Jeremies booke. 4 Thus hath the Lorde of hoastes the god of Jsrael spoken vnto all the prisoners that were led from Jere.35.b Jerusalem to Babylon: 5 Builde you houses to dwell therin, plant you gardens that you may enioy the Gen.1.d. and.9.a. fruites therof. 6 Take you wiues to beare you sonnes and daughters, prouide wiues for your sonnes, and husbandes for your daughters, that they may get sonnes and daughters, and that ye may multiplie there, and decrease not. 7 Seke after the B peace and prosperitie of the citie Baru.1.a 1.Tim.2.a wherin ye be prisoners, and pray vnto the Lorde for it: for in the peace thereof shall your peace be. 8 For Jere.33.c and.27.b thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Jsrael, Let not these prophetes and soothsayers that be among you deceaue you, and beleue not Jere.14.b. your owne dreames: 9 For why? they preache you lyes in my name, and I haue not sent them, saith the 1.Chr.26.b Lorde. 10 But thus saith the Lord, Jere.22.b When ye haue fulfilled seuentie yeres 1.Esd.1.a at Babylon, I will bring you home, & of mine owne goodnesse I will cary you hyther agayne into this place.

11 For I knowe what I haue deuised for you, saith the Lord: my thoughtes Deut.4.c. are to geue you peace, and not trouble, and to geue you an ende as you wishe and.30.a. and hope to haue. 12 Ye shall crye Joh.7.d. vnto me, ye shall go and call vpon me, and I will heare you. 13 Ye shall seke me and fynde me, yea yf so be C that you seke me with your whole heart. 14 I will be founde of you, saith the Lorde, and will deliuer you out of prison, and gather you together agayne out of all places whereim I haue scattered you saith the Lorde, and will bring you agayne to the same place from whence I caused you to be caryed away captiue. 15 But where as ye say that God hath raysed you vp prophetes at Babylon,

16 Thus hath the Lorde spoken to the king that sitteth in the throne of 2.king.24.d Dauid, and to all the people that dwel in this citie, (and) to your brethren that are not gone with you into captiuitie:

Jere.14.b 17 Thus (I say) speaketh the Lorde of hoastes, Beholde I will sende a swoorde, hunger, and pestilence vpon them, and will make them lyke vntymely figges that may not be eaten for bitternesse: 18 And I will persecute them with the swoorde, with hunger, and pestilence, I will deliuer them vp to be vexed of all kingdomes, to be cursed, abhorred, laughed to scorne, and put to confusion of all the people among whom I haue scattered them: 19 And that because they haue not ben obedient vnto my commaundementes saith the Lorde, which I sent vnto them by my ser- Jere.25.a uauntes the prophetes: I stoode vp and.44.a. early and sent vnto them, but they would not heare, saith the Lorde.

20 Heare therfore the worde of the Lorde all ye prisoners whom I sent from Jerusalem to Babylon.

21 Thus hath the Lorde of hoastes the God of Jsrael spoken of Ahab the sonne of Colaiah, and of Zedekias the sonne of Maasiah, which prophecie lyes vnto you in my name, Behold I will deliuer them into the hande of Nabuchodonozor the king of Babylon, that he may slay them before your eyes. 22 And all the prisoners of Juda that are in Babylon shall take this tearme of cursyng, and say, Mowe God do vnto thee as he dyd vnto Zedekias and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon rosted in the fire, 23 Because they shamed shamefully in Jsrael: for they haue not only defyled their neyghbours wiues, but also preached lying wordes in my name, which I haue not commaunded them: this I restifie & assure, saith the Lorde. 24 But as for Semeiah the Nehelamite, thou shalt speake vnto him: 25 Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Jsrael, Because thou hast sent letters in thyne owne name vnto all the people that is at Jerusalem, and to Sophoniah the sonne of Maasiah the priest, yea and sent them to all the priestes, saying, 26 The Lorde hath E ordayned thee to be priest in the stead 2.king.11.a of Jehoiada the priest, that thou shouldest be chefe in the house of the 2.Chr.23.a Lorde above all prophetes and preachers, and that thou myghtest set them vpon the pyllory, or in the stockes: 27 Nowe happeneth it then that thou hast not reproued Jeremie of Anathoth, which neuer leaueth of his prophecying? 28 And Jere.29.a besyde all this, he hath sent vs worde vnto Babylon, and tolde vs playnely that our captiuitie shall long endure, that we shoulde builde vs houses to dwel therin, and to plant vs gardens,

that we may enioy the fruites therof.
29 Which letter Sophonias the priest read, and let Ieremie the pro-phete heare it. 30 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto Ieremie, saying. 31 Sende worde to all them that be in captiuitie, on this maner, vnto you without my commission, and brought you into a false hope:

32 Therefore thus the Lorde doth certifie you, Beholde I wyll visite Semeiah the Nehelamite and his seede, so that none of his shall re-mayne among this people, and none of them shall see the good that I wyll do for my people, saith the Lorde: for he hath preached falsely of the Lorde.

¶ The. xxx. Chapter.

1 The returne of the people from Babylon. 8 God by his chastenyng sheweth that the people is sinfull. 16 The destruction of the enemies of Israel.

A THese are the wordes that the Lorde sheweth vnto Ieremie,
Iere.30.c saying. 2 Thus saith the Lorde
God of Israel, Write vp diligently all the wordes that I haue spoken vnto thee in a booke. 3 For lo, the tyme commeth saith the Lorde, that I wyll bryng agayne the prisoners of my people of Israel and Iuda saith the Lorde: for I wyll restore them vnto the lande that I gaue to their fathers, and they shall haue it in possession. 4 Agayne these wordes spake the Lorde concernyng Israel and Iuda, 5 Thus saith the Lorde, We haue heard a terrible crye, feare & disquietnesse. 6 For what els doth

B 7 Alas for this day, which is so dreadfull that none may be lykened vnto it, and alas for the tyme of Ia-yet be deliuered. 8 For in that day saith the Lorde of hoastes, I wyll take his yoke from of thy necke, and breake thy bondes, and straungers shall no more haue dominion ouer hym: 9 But they shall do seruice Eze.34.d vnto God their Lorde, and to Dauid their king whom I wyll rayse vp vn-

Iere.46.g seruaunt Iacob, feare not saith the Lorde, and be not afrayde O Israel:
for lo, I wyll helpe thee also from farre, and thy seede from the lande of their captiuitie: and Iacob shal turne agayne, he shalbe in rest, and haue a

¶ The.xxxi. Chapter.

1 He prophecieth that the people of Israel shalbe restored agayne vnto their prosperitie. 18 To be turned from sinne, is the gift of god. 27 The birth of Christ is prophecied.

A AT the same tyme saith the Lorde, shall I be the God of all the generations of Israel, and they Num.23.c shalbe my people. 2 Thus saith the Lorde, The people of Israel which escaped in the wildernesse from the swoorde, founde grace to come into

Esai.2.a. of Ephraim shall crye, Aryse, let vs
B go vp vnto Sion to our Lorde God.
7 For thus saith the Lorde, Reioyce with gladnesse because of Jacob, crye vnto the head of the gentiles, speake out, syng and say, O Lorde saue thy people the remnaunt of Israel.
8 Beholde I wyll bring them agayne from out of the north lande, and gather them from the endes of the worlde, with the blynde and lame that are among them, with the women that be great with chylde, and such as be also deliuered: and the companie of them that come agayne shalbe great. 9 They shall come weepyng, and with mercifull pitie wyll I bring them hyther agayne: I wyll leade them to the riuers of water in a straight way where they shall not stumble: for I am Israels father, Deu.23.a and Ephraim is my first borne. Gen.47.b
10 Heare the worde of the Lorde O ye gentiles, preache in the Iles that lye farre of, and say, He that hath scattered Israel, shall gather him together agayne, and shall kepe him as a sheepheard doth his flocke.
11 For the Lorde hath redeemed Jacob, and ryd him from the hande of the violent. 12 And they shall come and reioyce vpon the hyll of Sion, and shall haue plenteousnesse of goodes, which the Lorde shall geue them, (Namely) wheate, wine, oyle, young sheepe, and calues: and their soule shalbe as a well watered garden, for they shall no more be hungry.
13 Then shall the mayde reioyce in the daunce, yea both young and olde
C folkes: for I wyll turne their sorowe into gladnesse, and wyll comfort them from their sorowes, and make them ioyfull. 14 I wyll powre plenteousnesse vpon the heartes of the priestes, and my people shalbe satisfied with my goodnesse, saith the Lorde.
15 Thus saith the Lorde, The voyce Jere.3.c.

19 Yea alsoone as thou turnest me, I shall repentme my selfe, and when I vnderstande vnderstande, I shall smite vpon my thygh: for verily I haue committed shamefull thynges: for I haue borne the reproofe and confusion of my youth. Gen.48.d 20 Vpon this complaynt I thought thus by my selfe, Is not Ephraim my deare sonne? Is he not the childe with whom I haue had all my mirth and pastime? For since the time that I first communed with him, I haue him euer in remembraunce: therfore my heart driueth me vnto him, gladly and louyngly wyll I haue mercie vpon him, saith the Lorde.

21 Make thy selfe markes, set vp heapes of stone, set thyne heart vpon the way that thou didst walke, and turne agayne O thou daughter of Israel, turne agayne to these cities of thyne. 22 Howe long wylt thou go astray O thou shrinkyng daughter? for the Lorde wyll worke a newe thyng vpon earth: A woman shall compasse a man. 23 For thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, It wyll come therto, that whē I haue brought Iuda out of captiuitie, these wordes shalbe hearde in the lande and in his cities, The Lorde blesse thee O thou dwellyng place of ryghteousnesse, O thou holy hyll. 24 And there shall dwell Iuda and all her cities, the sheepheardes and husbandmen:

25 For I wyll feede the hungrye soule, and refreshe all faynt heartes. Mat.5.a and.11.c.

26 When I hearde this, I came agayne to my selfe, I sawe lyke as I had ben waked out of a sweete sleepe.

27 Beholde saith the Lorde, The dayes come that I wyll sowe the house of Israel and the house of Iuda with men and with cattell.

28 Yea it shall come therto, that lyke as I haue gone about in tymes past to roote them out, to scatter them, to breake them downe, to destroy them, and chasten them: euen so wyll I also go diligently about to builde them vp agayne, and to plant them, saith the Lorde. 29 Then shall it no more be sayde, The fathers haue eaten a sowre grape, and the childrens teeth are set on edge: Deut.28.g Iere.32.c Zach.8.c Eze.18.a

30 For euery one shall dye for his owne misdeedes: so that who so eateth a sowre grape, his teeth shalbe set on edge. Heb.8.b 31 Beholde the dayes wyll come saith the Lorde, that I wyll make a newe couenaunt with the house of Israel, and the house of Iuda: 32 Not after the couenaunt that I made with their fathers, when I toke them by the hande and led them out of the lande of Egypt, which couenaunt they brake, yea euen when I as an husbande had rule ouer them saith the Lorde. Heb.10.b

33 But this shalbe the couenaunt that I wyll make with the house of Israel after those dayes saith the Lorde, I wyll plant my lawe in the inwarde partes of them, and write it in their heartes, and wyll be their God, and they shalbe my people. Esai.51.b Iere.24.b and.30.b 34 And from thencefoorth shal no man teache his neighbour or his brother, and say, Knowe the Lorde: but they shall all knowe me from the lowest vnto the hyest, saith the Lorde: for I wyll forgeue their misdeedes, and wyll neuer remember their sinnes any more.

35 Thus saith the Lorde which gaue the sunne to be a light for the day, and the moone and the starres to shine in the nyght, which moueth the sea, so that the flooddes therof ware fierce, his name is the Lorde of hoastes, Gen.1.b

36 Lyke as this ordinaunce shall neuer be taken out of my syght, saith the Lorde, so shall the seede of Israel neuer ceasse, but alway be a people before me. 37 Moreouer thus saith the Lorde, Lyke as the heauen aboue can not be measured, and as the foundations of the earth beneath may not be sought out: so wyll I also not cast out the whole seede of Israel for that they haue committed saith the Lorde. Rom.11.a

38 Beholde the dayes come saith the Lorde, that the citie of the Lorde shalbe enlarged from the towre of Hananeel, vnto the gate of the corner wall. 2.Esd.3.a Zach.14.b 39 From thence shall the ryght measure be taken before her vnto the hyll top of Gareb, and shall come about Goath. Iere.19.b 40 And the whole valley of the dead carkasses, and of the asshes, and all the feeldes, vnto the brooke of Cedron, and vnto the corner of the Horse gate towarde the east, it shalbe holy vnto the Lord, and shall neuer be broken, nor cast downe any more.

¶ The.xxxii. Chapter.

1 Ieremie is cast into prison, because he prophecied that the citie shoulde be taken of the king of Babylon.

THese wordes spake the Lord vnto Ieremie in the tenth yere of Zedekias king of Iuda, which was the eyghteenth yere of Nabuchodonozor, 2 What tymes the king of Babylons hoast layde siege vnto vnto Hierusalem: but Jeremie the prophete lay bounde in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judaes house, 3 Where Zedekias the king of Juda caused him to be layde, because he had prophecied on this Jere. 34.a 38.a. and 39. maner, Thus saith the Lord, Beholde

I will deliuer this citie into the handes of the king of Babylon, which shall take it. 4 As for Zede-kias the king of Juda, he shall not be able to escape the Chaldees: but surely he shall come into the handes of the king of Babylon, which shall speake with him mouth to mouth, and one of them shall loke another in the face. 5 And Zedekias shalbe ca-ryed vnto Babylon, and there shal he be vntyll the tyme that I visite him saith the Lorde: but yf thou takest in hande to fyght agaynst the Chaldees, thou shalt not prosper. 6 And Jere-B mie sayd, Thus hath the Lord spoken vnto me, 7 Beholde, Hananeel the sonne of Sellum thine vnkles sonne, shall come vnto thee, and require thee to redeeme the lande that lyeth in A-nathoth vnto thy selfe: for by reason
Leu. 25.d of kinrede it is thy ryght to redeeme
Num. 24.a and. 36.a it, and bye it out. 8 And Hananeel Ruth. 4.a mine vnkles sonne came to me in the court of the prison, accordyng to the worde of the Lorde, and sayde vnto me, Bye my lande I pray thee that lyeth in Anathoth in the countrey of Beniamin, for by heritage thou hast ryght to loose it out for thy selfe, therfore redeeme it. Then I perce-ued that this was the commaundeement of the Lorde: 9 And so I bought the lande from Hananeel of Anathoth myne vnkles sonne, and waged him there the money, euen seuen sicles, and ten siluer pence:
10 And I writ it in a booke, and sealed it, and toke witnesses, & waged him there the money vppon the wayghtes. 11 So I toke the evidence with the copie when it was orderly sealed. 12 And I gaue the evidence to Baruch the sonne of Neri-ah, the sonne of Maasiah, in the syght of Hananeel my cosin, and in the presence of the witnesses that be named in the evidence, and before all the Jewes that were therby in the court of the prison. 13 I charged Baruch
C also before them, saying, 14 The Lorde of hoastes, the God of Israel commaundeth (thee) to take this sealed evidence with the copie, and to lay it in an earthen vessel, that it may long continue. 15 For the Lord of hoastes the God of Israel hath determined that houses, feeldes, and vineyardes shalbe possessed agayne in this lande.
16 Nowe when I had deliuered the evidence vnto Baruch the sonne of Neriah, I besought the Lorde, saying, 17 O Lorde God, it is thou that hast Gen. 1.d. Jere. 10.b made heauen and earth with thy great power and hye arme, and there is nothyng hyd from thee. 18 Thou shew-est mercie vpon thousandes, thou re- Exod. 34.d
compensest the wickednesse of the fathers into the bosome of the children that come after them. 19 Thou art the great & mightie God, whose name is the Lorde of hoastes, great in counsell, and excellent in worke, thine eyes loke vpon al the wayes of mens children, to rewarde euery one after his Rom. 2.a way, and accordyng to the fruites of his inuentions. 20 Thou hast done Exod. 7. vnto the 15. chapt.
great tokens & wonders in the lande of Egypt, as we see this day vpon the people of Israel, and vpon those men, to make thy name great, as it is come D to passe this day. 21 Thou hast brought thy people of Israel out of the lande of Egypt, with tokens, with wonders, with a mightie hande, with a stretched out arme, and with great terribleness: 22 And hast geuen them this lande, lyke as thou haddest promised vnto their fathers (namely) that thou wouldest geue them a lande that floweth with mylke and honye.
23 Nowe when they came therin and Jud. 2.3.4 6.8.
possessed it, they folowed not thy Ecclu. 5.b.
voyce, and walked not in thy lawe:
but all that thou commaundedst them to do, that haue they not done, and therfore come all these plagues vpon them. 24 Beholde there are bul-workes made nowe agaynst this citie to take it, and it shalbe wonne of the Chaldees that besiege it with swoorde, with hunger, and death: and loke what thou hast spoken, that same shal come vpon them, for lo all thynges are present vnto thee. 25 Yet sayest thou vnto me O Lorde God, and com-maundest me that I shall bye a peece of lande vnto my selfe for money, and take witnesses therto: and yet in the meane season the citie is deliuered into the power of the Chaldees.
26 Then came the worde of the Lord
vnto Jeremie, saying, 27 Beholde
I am the Lorde God of all fleshe: is there any thyng then to harde for me?
28 Then

28 Therefore thus saith the Lorde, Behold I shall deliuer this citie into the power of the Chaldees, and into the power of Nabuchodonozor the king of Babylon, they shall take it:
29 For the Chaldees shall come and winne this citie, and set fire vpon it, & burne it, with the gorgious houses, in whose parlours they haue made sacrifice vnto Baal, and powred drynke offeringes vnto straunge gods, to prouoke me vnto wrath: 30 For the children of Israel and the children of Iuda haue only ben doyng wickednes before me from their youth vp, they haue ben only prouokyng me to wrath with the workes of their owne handes, saith the Lord. 31 For what hath this citie ben els, but a prouokyng of my wrath euer since the day that they builded it, vnto this houre wherin I cast it out of my syght?
32 Because of the great blasphemies of the children of Israel and Iuda, which they haue done to prouoke me, yea they, their kinges, their princes, their priestes, their prophetes, the men of Iuda, and the citizens of Hierusalem: 33 When I coode vp early and taught them, and instructed them, they turned their backes to me, and not their faces. 34 They woulde not heare to be reformed and correct: but set their idols in the house that is halowed to my name, to defyle it.
35 They haue builded hye places for Baal in the valley of the children of Hennom, to cause their sonnes and daughters to passe through (fire) in the honour of Moloch, which I neuer commaunded them: neither came it euer in my thought to make Iuda sinne with such abomination.
36 And nowe therfore thus hath the Lorde God of Israel spoken concernyng this citie, which as ye your selues confesse, shalbe deliuered into the hande of the king of Babylon, (when it is wonne) with the swoorde, with hunger, and with pestilence, 37 Behold I will gather them together from all landes, wherein I haue scattered them in my wrath in fearefull and great displeasure, and will bryng them agayne vnto this place, where they shall dwell safely:
38 And they shalbe my people, and I will be their God. 39 And I will gene them one heart and one way, that they may feare me all the dayes of their lyfe: that they and their children after them may prosper.
40 And I will set vp an euerlastyng couenaunt with them, (namely) that I will neuer ceasse to do them good, and that I will put my feare in their heartes, so that they shall not runne away from me. 41 Yea I will haue a lust and pleasure to do them good, and faythfully to plant them in this lande with my whole heart, and with my whole soule. 42 For thus saith the Lorde, Lyke as I haue brought all this great plague vpon this people: euen so will I also bryng vpon them all the good that I haue promised them. 43 And men shall haue their possessions in this lande, where of ye say nowe that it shall neither be inhabited of the people, nor of cattel, but be deliuered into the handes of the Chaldees: 44 Yea landes shalbe bought for money, and euidences made therupon, and sealed before witnesses in the countrey of Beniamin, and rounde about Hierusalem, in the cities of Iuda, in the cities that are vpon the mountaynes, and them that lye beneath, yea and in the cities that are in the south: for I will bryng their prisoners hyther agayne, saith the Lorde.

4 Thus (I say) speaketh the Lorde God of Israel, concernyng the houses of this citie, and the houses of the kinges of Iuda that are broken through the ordinaunce & the swoorde.
5 The inhabitours of this citie haue come to fyght agaynst the Chaldees, and they are fylled with the dead carkasses of men, whom I haue slayne in my wrath and displeasure when I turned my face from this citie, because of all her wickednesse.

18 Neither shall the priestes and leuites want one to offer alway before me burnt offerynges, to kindle the meate offeryngs, and to prepare the sacrifices. 19 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto Jeremie after this maner. 20 Thus saith the Lorde, May the couenaunt which I haue made with day and nyght be broken, that there should not be day and nyght in due season? 21 Then may my couenaunt also be broken which I made with Dauid my seruaunt, and so he not to haue a sonne to raigne in his throne: so shall also the priestes and leuites neuer fayle, but serue me.
22 For lyke as the starres of heauen may not be numbred, neither the sand of the sea measured: so wyll I multiplie the seede of Dauid my seruaunt, and the leuites my ministers.
23 Moreouer, the worde of the Lord came to Jeremie, saying, 24 Consyderest thou not what this people speaketh? Two kinredes (say they) had the Lorde chosen, and those same two hath he cast away: for so they haue despised my people, and they reputed them as though they were no people.
25 Therfore thus saith the Lorde, If I haue made no couenaunt with day and nyght, and geuen no statute vnto heauen and earth: 26 Then wyll I also cast away the seede of Jacob and Dauid my seruaunt, so that I wyll take no prince out of his seede to rule the posteritie of Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob: but yet I wyll turne agayne their captiuitie, and be merciefull vnto them.

12 For whiche cause, the worde of the Lorde came vnto Jeremie from the Lorde hym selfe, saying,

13 Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel: I made a couenaunt with your fathers when I brought them out of the lande of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, 14 When seuen yeres are out, euery man shall let his bought seruaunt an Hebrue go free, if he haue serued hym sixe yeres: but your fathers obeyed me not, and hearkened not vnto me. 14 As for you ye were nowe turned, and dyd right before me, in that ye proclaymed euery man to let his neighbour go free, and in that ye made a couenaunt before me in the temple that beareth my name. 16 But yet ye turned your selues agayne, and blaspheamed my name, in this, that euery man hath required his seruaunt and handmayde agayne whom ye had let go quite and free, and compelled them to serue you agayne, and to be bondmen and bondwomen. 17 And therefore thus saith the Lorde, Ye haue not obeyed me, euery man to proclayme freedome vnto his brother and neighbour: wherefore I wyll call you vnto freedome, saith the Lorde, euen vnto the sworde, to the pestilence, and to hunger, and wyll make you to be plagued in all kyngdomes of the earth.

18 Yea those men that haue broken my couenaunt, and not kept the wordes of the appointment whiche they made before me, when they hewed the calfe in two, and when they went thorowe the two halfes thereof, 19 The princes of Juda, the princes of Hierusalem, the gelded men, the priestes, and all the people of the lande, whiche went thorow the two sydes of the calfe: 20 Those men wyll I geue into the power of their enemies, and into the handes of them that folowe vpon their lyues: and their dead bodyes shalbe meate for the foules of the ayre and beastes of the fielde. 21 As for Zedekias the kyng of Juda and his princes, I wyll deliuer them into the power of their enemies, and of them that desire to slay them, and into the hande of the kyng of Babylons hoast, whiche nowe is departed from you. 22 But thorowe my commaundement (saith the Lorde) they shall come agayne before this citie, they shall fight against it, winne it, and burne it: Moreouer, I wyll lay the cities of Juda so waste, that no man shall dwell therein.

¶ The.xxxv. Chapter.

1 He propoundeth the obedience of the Rechabites, and therby confoundeth the pryde of the Iewes.

THE wordes whiche the Lorde spake vnto Jeremie, in the raigne of Jehoakim the sonne of Josias kyng of Juda are these; 2 Go vn-

2.king.x.c. to the house of the Rechabites, and call them out, and bryng them to the house of the Lorde, into some commodious place, and geue them wine to drinke. 3 Then toke I Jazaniah the sonne of Jeremie, the sonne of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his sonnes, and the whole housholde of the Rechabites,

4 And brought them into the house of the Lorde, into the closet of the children of Hanan the sonne of Jegedaliah the man of God, which was by the closet of the princes, that is above the closet of Maaseiah the sonne of Sellum, whiche is the treasuree.

5 And before the sonnes of the kinred of the Rechabites I set pottes ful of wine, and cuppes, and sayde vnto them, Drinke wine: 6 But they sayde, We will drinke no wine: for Jonadab the sonne of Rechab our father commaunded vs, saying, Ye and your sonnes shall neuer drinke wine, Jere.xxix.b
B neither build houses, sowe no seede, plant no vines, 7 Yea ye shall haue no vineyardes: but for all your tyme ye shall dwell in tentes, that ye may liue long in the lande wherin ye be straungers. 8 Thus haue we obeyed the commaundement of Jonadab the sonne of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged vs, and so we drinke no wine all our lyfe long, we nor our wyues, our sonnes and our daughters. 9 Neither build we any house to dwell therein: we haue also among vs neither vineyardes, nor corne lande to sowe: 10 But we dwell in tentes, we obey, and do according vnto all that Jonadab our father commaunded vs. 11 But nowe that Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon came vp into the lande, we sayde, Come, let vs go to Hierusalem, that we may escape the hoast of the Chaldees and the Assyrians: and so we dwell nowe at Hierusalem.

12 Then came the word of the Lorde vnto Jeremie, saying, 13 Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes, the God of Israel, Go and tell the men of Juda, and the inhabitours of Hierusalem, Will ye not be reformed to obey my wordes, saith the Lorde? 14 The wordes whiche Jonadab the sonne of Rechab commaunded his sonnes, that they should drinke no wine, are fast surely kept, for vnto this day they drinke no wine, but obey their fathers commaundement: but as for me I haue stande vp early, I haue spoken vnto you, and geuen you earnest warning, and yet haue ye not ben obedient vnto me. Jere.xxiii.c and.xxv.a.

15 Yea I haue sent my seruauntes all the prophetes vnto you, I rose vp early, and sent you worde, saying, O turne you nowe euery man from his wicked way, amende your liues, and go not after straunge gods to worship them, that ye may continue in the lande whiche I haue geuen vnto you and your fathers: but ye wouldе neither heare me nor folow me. 16 The children of Jonadab Rechabs sonns, haue stedfastly kept their fathers commaundement that he gaue them: but this people is not obedient vnto me.

17 And therfore thus saith the Lorde D of hoastes the God of Israel, Behold I will bryng vpon Juda, and vpon euery one that dwelleth in Hierusalem, al the trouble that I haue deuised against them: For I haue spoken vnto them, but they wouldе not folowe, I haue called vnto them, neuertheless they would geue me no aunswere, Dzon.i.c. Esai.xlv.b. Jere.vii.b.

18 Jeremie also spake vnto the housholde of the Rechabites, Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, For asmuch as ye haue obayed the commaundement of Jonadab your father, and kept all his preceptes, and done according to all that he hath bidden: 19 Therefore thus saith the Jer.xxxiii.c
Lorde of hoastes the God Israel, Jonadab the sonne of Rechab shall not fayle, but haue one out of his stocke to stande alway before me.

The.xxxvi. Chapter.

1 Baruch writeth (as Ieremie enditeth) the booke of the curses against Iuda and Israel.

IN the fourth yere of Jehoakim the sonne of Josias the kyng of Juda, came the worde of the Lorde A vnto Jeremie, saying, 2 Take a booke, and write therin al the wordes that I haue spoken to thee against Jere.xxx.a. Israel, against Juda, and against al the people, from the tyme that I began to speake vnto thee in the raigne of Josias, vnto this day: 3 That when the house of Juda heareth of the plague which I haue deuised for them, they may peraduenture turne euery man from his wicked way, that I may forgeue their offences and sinnes.

4 Then dyd Jeremie call Baruch the sonne of Neriah, and Baruch wrote in the booke at the mouth of Jere- Jere.xlv.b
mie

mie, all the wordes of the Lord which he had spoken vnto hym. 5 And Ieremie commaunded Baruch, saying, I am in prison, so that I may not come into the house of the Lorde.

6 Therefore go thou thyther, and reade the booke that thou hast written at my mouth (namely) the wordes of the Lorde, and reade them in the Lordes house vpon the (a) fasting day, that the people, whole Iuda, and all they that come out of the cities may heare. 7 Peraduenture they will pray meekely before the face of the Lorde, and turne euery one from his wicked way: for great is the wrath and displeasure that the Lorde hath taken against this people.

8 So Baruch the sonne of Neriah did according to all that Ieremie the prophete commaunded hym, reading the wordes of the Lorde out of the booke in the Lordes house. 9 And this was done in the fifth yere of Ioakim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda, in the ninth moneth, when it was commaunded that all the people of Hierusalem shoulde fast before the Lorde, and they also that were come from the cities of Iuda vnto Hierusalem. 10 Then read Baruch the wordes of Ieremie out of the booke within the house of the Lorde, out of the treasurie of Gamariah the sonne of Saphan the scribe, whiche is beside the hyer loft of the newe doore of the Lordes house, that all the people might heare. 11 Nowe when Michaeas the sonne of Gamariah the sonne of Saphan, heard all the wordes of the Lord out of the booke, 12 He went downe to the kynges palace into the scribes chaumber, for there all the princes were set, Elisama the scribe, Dalaiah the sonne of Semei, Elnathan the sonne of Achbor, Gamariah the sonne of Saphan, Zedekias the sonne of Hananias, with all the princes. 13 And Michaeas tolde them all the wordes that he hearde Baruch reade out of the booke before the people. 14 Then all the princes sent Iehudi the sonne of Nathaniah the sonne of Selemiah, the sonne of Chusi, vnto Baruch, saying, Take in thyne hande the booke whereout thou hast read before all the people, and come. So Baruch the sonne of Neriah tooke the booke in his hande, and came vnto them. 15 And they sayd vnto hym, Sit downe and reade the booke, that we may heare also. So Baruch read, that they might heare.

16 Nowe when they had heard all the wordes, they were abashed one vpon another, and sayde vnto Baruch, We will certifie the kyng of all these wordes. 17 And they examined Baruch, saying, Tell vs, howe dydst thou write all these wordes out of his mouth? 18 Then Baruch answered them, He spake all these wordes vnto me with his mouth, and I wrote them in the booke. 19 Then sayde the princes vnto Baruch, Go thy way, hyde thee with Ieremie, so that no man knowe where ye be. 20 And they went in to the kyng to the court (but they kept the booke in the chamber of Elizama the scribe) and tolde the king all the wordes, that he might heare. 21 So the kyng sent Iehudi to fet hym the booke: whiche he brought out of Elizama the scribes chaumber, and Iehudi read in it, that the kyng & all the princes which were about him might heare. 22 Nowe the king sate in the winter house (for it was in the ninth moneth) and there was a fire before him. 23 And when Iehudi had read three or foure leaues therof, he cut the booke in peeces with a penknife, and cast it into the fire vpon the harth, vntyll the booke was all brent in the fire vpon the harth. 1. Mac. iii. c.

24 Yet no man was abashed therof, nor rent his clothes, neither the kyng hym selfe nor his seruauntes, though they heard all these wordes. 25 Neuertheleſſe Elnathan, Dalaiah, and Gamariah besought the kyng that he would not burne the booke: notwithstanding the kyng would not heare them: 26 But commaunded Ierahmeel the sonne of Amelech, Saraiah the sonne of Ezriel, and Selemiah the sonne of Abdeel, to lay handes vpon Baruch the scribe, and vpon Ieremie the prophete: but the Lord kept them out of sight. 27 Nowe after that the kyng had brent the booke, and the sermons whiche Baruch wrote at the mouth of Ieremie, the worde of the Lorde came vnto Ieremie, saying,

28 Take another booke, and write in it all the foresayde sermons that were written in the first booke whiche Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda hath brent. 29 And tell Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda, thus saith the Lorde, Thou hast brent the booke, & thoughtest within thy selfe,

(a) When Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda hearde that the kyng of Babylons armie was comming to beſiege Hierusalem, he appointed a solemne and publique fast for all the people, commaunding them to resort vnto the temple at the time appointed, & there to make their humble prayers vnto god for peace and his fauour, as the maner of Gods people was in all their distresses to fast and pray in fayth full repentaunce.

Why hast thou written therein, that the kyng of Babylon shall come and make this lande waste, so that he shall make both people and cattell to be out of it? 30 Therefore thus the Lorde saith of Iehoakim the kyng of Juda, There shall none of his generation sit vpon the throne of Dauid, his dead coarse shalbe cast out, that the heate of the day and the frost of the night may come vpon hym.

31 And I will visite the wickednesse of hym, of his seede, and of his seruauntes: Moreouer, all the euyll that I haue promised them, though they heard me not, wyl I bring vpon them, vpon the inhabitours of Hierusalem, and vpon all Juda. 32 Then toke Jeremie another booke, and gaue it Baruch the scribe the sonne of Neriah, whiche wrote therein out of the mouth of Jeremie, all the sermons that were in the first booke whiche Iehoakim the king of Juda did burne: and there were added vnto them many mo sermons, like vnto the former.

1 Zedekias succedeth Conaniah, 3 he sendeth vnto Ieremie to pray for hym.

ZEdekias the son of Josiah whiche was made kyng through Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon, raigned in the lande of Juda, in the steade of * Conaniah the sonne of Iehoakim. 2 But neither he, nor his seruauntes, nor the people in his lande would obey the wordes of the Lorde which he spake by the prophete Jeremie. 3 Nouertheleise Zedekias the kyng sent Jehucal the sonne of Selemiah, and Sophoniah the sonne of Maasiah the priest, to the prophete Jeremie, saying, O pray thou vnto the Lorde our God for vs.

* Or, Jechonia.

Jere. xxxi. a

4 Nowe Jeremie walked free among the people at that tyme, and was not put in prison as yet. 5 Pharaos hoast also was come out of Egypt: whiche when the Chaldees which besieged Hierusalem perceaued, they departed from thence. 6 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto the prophete Jeremie, saying, 7 Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, This answere shall ye geue to the kyng of Juda that sent you vnto me for counsaile: Beholde Pharaos hoast which is come forth to helpe you, shall returne into Egypt into his owne land.

8 But the Chaldees shall come a gayne, and fight agaynst this citie, winne it, and set fire vpon it. 9 For thus saith the Lorde, Deceaue not your owne myndes, thinking on this maner, Suche, the Chaldees go nowe their way from vs: No, they shall not go their way. 10 For though ye had slayne the whole hoast of the Chaldees that besiege you, and that none remayned of them but wounded men, yet should they stande vp and set fire vpon this citie. 11 Nowe when the hoast of the Chaldees was broken vp from Hierusalem for feare of the Egyptians armie, 12 Jeremie went out of Hierusalem towarde the lande of Beniamin, to get hym from among the people. 13 And when he came vnder Beniamins port, there was a porter called Jeriah, the sonne of Selemiah, the sonne of Hananiah, whiche fell vpon hym, and toke hym, saying, Thy minde is to runne to the Chaldees. 14 Then sayd Jeremie, It is not so, I go not to the Chaldees: Neuertheleise Jeriah would not beleue him, but brought Jeremie bound before the princes. 15 Wherefore the princes were angrye with Jeremie, and smote hym, and layde hym in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that house the prison. 16 Thus was Jeremie put into a dungeon and prison, and so lay there a long tyme.

17 Then Zedekias the kyng sent for hym, and called hym, and asked hym quietly in his owne house, saying, Thinkest thou this busines (that now is in hande) commeth of the Lorde? Jeremie answered, yea that it doth: and thou (sayde he) shalt be deliuered into the hyng of Babylons power.

Jere. xl. b

18 Moreouer Jeremie sayde vnto king Zedekias, What haue I offended agaynst thee, agaynst thy seruauntes, or agaynst this people, that ye haue put me in prison? 19 Where are your prophetes whiche haue prophecied vnto you, and sayde, That the kyng of Babylon should not come agaynst you and this lande? 20 And therefore heare nowe O my Lorde the kyng, let my prayer be accepted before thee, and sende me no more into the house of Jonathan the scribe, that I dye not there. 21 Then Zedekias commaunded to put Jeremie in the fore entrie of the prison, and dayly to be geuen hym a cake of bread of the bakers streete, vntyll all the bread in the the citie was eaten vp: Thus Ieremie remayned in the fore entrie of the prison.

¶ The.xxxviii. Chapter.

1 By the motion of the rulers, Ieremie is put into a dungeon.

A SAphatiah the sonne of Mathan, Gedaliah the sonne of Phashur, Iucal the sonne of Selemiah, and Phashur the sonne of Melchia, perceaued the wordes that Ieremie had spoken vnto all the people, namely on this maner. 2 Thus saith the Lord, Who so remayneth in this citie, shall perishe eyther with the sworde, with hunger or with pestilence: but who so falleth vnto the Chaldees shall escape, winning his soule for a pray, and shall lyue. 3 For thus saith the Lorde, This citie no doubt must be deliuered into the power of the kyng of Babylon, and he also shal winne it.

Jer.xxi.b. and.xxvii.a

Jer.xxii.c.

4 Then sayde the princes vnto the kyng, Sir, we beseche you let this man be put to death: for thus he discourageth the handes of the souldiours that be in this citie, and the handes of all the people, when he speaketh such wordes vnto them: This man laboureth not for peace of the people, but mischiefe. 5 Zedekias the kyng answered, and sayde, Lo, he is in your handes: for the kyng may denye you nothing. 6 Then toke they Ieremie and cast hym into the dungeon of Melchiah the sonne of Amelech, that dwelt in the fore entrie of the prison, and they let downe Ieremie with coardes into a dungeon, where there was no water, but mire: So Ieremie stacke fast in the mire.

B 7 Nowe when Abedmelech the Mozian, beyng a chamberlayne in the kynges court, vnderstoode that they had cast Ieremie into the dungeon, 8 He went out of the kynges house, and spake to the kyng, which then sate vnder the port of Beniamin, these wordes. 9 My Lord the king, where as these men meddle with Ieremie the prophete, they do hym wrong, (namely) in that they haue put hym in prison, there to dye for hunger: for there is no more bread in the citie.

10 Then the king commaunded Abedmelech the Mozian, and sayde, Take from hence thirtie men whom thou wylt, and drawe vp Ieremie the prophete out of the dungeon before he dye. 11 So Abedmelech toke the men with hym, and went to the house of the kyng, and there vnder the treasurie he gate olde ragges and worne cloutes, and let them downe by a corde into the dungeon to Ieremie. 12 And Abedmelech the Mozian sayde vnto the prophete Ieremie, O put these ragges and cloutes vnder thyne arme holes betwixt them and the cordes: And Ieremie dyd so. 13 So they drewe vp Ieremie with cordes, & toke hym out of the dungeon: and he remayned in the fore entrye of the prison. 14 Then Zedekias the kyng C sent, and caused Ieremie the prophete Iere.37.c. to be called vnto hym, into the thirde entrie that is in the house of the lord, and the kyng sayde vnto Ieremie, I wyll aske thee somwhat, but hyde nothing fro me. 15 Then Ieremie answered Zedekias, If I be playne vnto thee, thou wylt cause me to suffer death: if I geue thee counsayle, thou wylt not folow me. 16 So the kyng swore an othe secretely to Ieremie, saying, As the Lorde liueth that made vs these soules, I wyll not slay thee, nor geue thee into the handes of them that seeke after thy lyfe.

17 Then sayde Ieremie vnto Zedekias, Thus saith the Lorde of hoastes Jer.xxvii.a. the God of Israel: If case be that thou wylt go foorth vnto the kyng of Babylons princes, thou shalt saue thy life, and this citie shall not be brent, yea both thou and thy houshold shall escape with your liues: 18 But if thou wylt not go foorth to the kyng of Babylons princes, then shall this citie be deliuered into the handes of the Chaldees, whiche shall set fire vpon it, and thou shalt not be able to escape them. 19 And Zedekias sayde vnto Ieremie, I am afrayde for the Iewes that are fled vnto the Chaldees, lest I come into their handes, and so they to haue me in derision.

20 But Ieremie answered, No, they shall not betray thee: O hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde I beseche thee, whiche I speake vnto thee, so shalt thou be well, and saue thy lyfe: 21 But if thou wylt not go foorth, D the Lorde hath tolde me this playnely, 22 Beholde all the women that are left in the kyng of Iudaes house, shalbe led foorth vnto the king of Babylons princes: and they shall say, Thou art deceaued, and the men in whom thou dydst put thy trust haue gotten thee vnder, & set thy feete fast in the mire, and gone their way from to thee. 23 Therefore all thy wyues with thy chyldren shall they leade forth vnto the Chaldees, and thou shalt not escape their handes: but shalt be the kyng of Babylons prysoner, and this citie shalt thou cause to be burnt. 24 Then sayde Zedekias vnto Jeremie, Looke that no body know of these wordes, and thou shalt not dye. 25 But if the princes perceaue that I haue talked with thee, and come vnto thee, saying, O speake, what sayde the kyng to thee, hyde it not from vs, and we wyl not put thee to death, tell vs (we pray thee) what sayde the kyng to thee? 26 See thou geue them this aunswere, I haue humbly besought the kyng that he wyll let me lye no more in Jehonathans house, that I dye not there.

27 Then came all the princes vnto Jeremie, and asked hym: and he tolde them after the maner as the kyng bade hym. Then they helde their peace, and let hym alone: for they perceaued no-
Jere.xxxix.c thing. 28 So Jeremie abode styll in the fore entrie of the pryson, vntyll the day that Hierusalem was wonne.

The.xxxix. Chapter.

A Jere.xxxii.a 2.king.25.a NOwe when the citie of Hierusalem was taken (for in the ninth yere of Zedekias kyng of Juda, the tenth moneth, came Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon and all his hoast, and besieged Hierusalem, and fought against it. 2 And in the eleuenth yere of Zedekias, in the fourth moneth, the ninth day of the moneth, he brake into the citie.) 3 Then all the princes of the kyng of Babylon came in and sate them downe vnder the port: Meregel, Sarezer, Samgarnebo, Sarsachim, Rabsaris, Neregel, Sarezer, Rabmag, with all the other princes of Jere.34.a. the kyng of Babylon. 4 And when Zedekias the kyng of Juda with his souldiers sawe them, then they fled and departed out of the citie by nyght through the kynges garden, & through the port that is betweene the two 7 And made Zedekias eyes to be put out, and bounde hym with two chaines, and sent hym to Babylon. 2.kin.25.b. Jere.xxxii.

8 Moreouer the Chaldees burnt vp the kynges palace, with the other houses of the people, and brake downe the walles of Hierusalem.

9 As for the remnaunt of the people that were in the citie, and suche as were come to hym, and whatsoeuer was left of the common sort, Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne carried them to Babylon. 10 But Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne let the rascall people and those that had nothing dwell still in the lande of Juda, and gaue them vineyardes and corne fieldes at the same tyme. 11 Nabuchodonozor also the king of Babylon, gaue Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne a charge concerning Jeremie, C saying, 12 Take and cherishe hym, and make much of hym, see thou do hym no harme, but entreate hym after his owne desire. 13 So Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine, Nabuzaraban, Rabsares, Neregel, Sarezer, Rabmag, & all the kyng of Babylons lordes sent for Jeremie, Jere.38.b. 14 And caused hym to be fet out of the fore entrie of the pryson, and committed hym vnto Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam the sonne of Saphan, that he Jere.41.b. shoulde cary hym home: and so he dwelt among the people. 15 Nowe D when Jeremie lay yet bounde in the fore entrie of the prysion, the worde of the Lorde came vnto hym, saying,

16 Go and tell Abedmelech the Moran, thus saith the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, Beholde the cruel and sharpe plague that I haue deuised for this citie wyll I bryng vpon them, that thou shalt see it: 17 But I wyll deliuer thee in that day saith the Lorde, and thou shalt not come in the handes of those men whom thou feareste: 18 For doubtlesse I wyll saue thee, so that thou shalt not perithe with the swoorde: but thy lyfe shalbe saued, and that because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the Lorde.

¶ The.xl. Chapter.

1 Ieremie hath licence to go whyther he wyll. 14 Iohanan prophecieth death vnto Gedaliah.

THis is the worde that the Lorde spake vnto Ieremie, when Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne had let hym go free from Ramath, whyther he had led hym bounde among all the prysoners that were caryed from Hierusalem and Juda vnto Babylon. 2 The chiefe captayne called for Ieremie, and sayde vnto hym, The Lorde thy God spake mightyly before of the miserie vpon this place.

3 Nowe the Lorde hath sent it and performed it as he hath promised: for ye haue sinned against the Lorde, and haue not ben obedient vnto his voyce, therefore commeth this plague vpon you. 4 Beholde I loose the bandes from thy handes this day: if thou wylt nowe go with me vnto Babylon, vp then, for I wyll see to thee, and prouide for thee: but if thou wylt not go with me to Babylon, then remayne here: Beholde all the lande is at thy wyll, loke where thou thinkest conuenient and good for thee to abide, there dwell. 5 For as yet he was not gone backe agayne to Gedaliah: therefore he sayde to hym, Go backe to Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam the sonne of Saphan, whom the kyng of Babylon hath made gouernour ouer the cities of Juda, and dwell with him among the people, or remayne where soeuer it please thee. So the chiefe captayne gaue him his expences with a rewarde, and let hym go. 6 Then went Ieremie vnto Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam to Mispa, and dwelt there with him among the people that were left in the lande. 7 Nowe when the captaynes of the hoast of Juda, which with their felowes were scattered abrode on euery side in the lande, vnderstoode that the kyng of Babylon had made Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam gouernour in the lande, and that man, wyfe, and chylde, yea and the poore men in the lande that were not led captiue to Babylon, shoulde be vnder his iurisdiction:

8 They came to Gedaliah vnto Mispa, (namely) Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sonnes of Careah, Sareah the sonne of Thanehumeth, the sonnes of Ephai the Netophatite, Jezaniah the sonne of Maachati, with their companions. 9 And Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam the sonne of Saphan sware vnto them and their felowes in this maner, Be not afraide to serue the Chaldees, dwell in the lande, and do the kyng of Babylon seruice, so shall ye prosper. 10 Beholde I dwel at Mispa, to be an officer in the Chaldees behalfe, and to satisfie suche as come to vs: therefore gather wine, corne, and oyle, and hepe them in your warehouses, and dwell in your cities that ye haue in kepyng. 11 Yea all the Iewes also that dwell in Moab, vnder the Ammonites, Idumea, and in all the countreys, when they heard that the kyng of Babylon had made Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam the sonne of Saphan gouernour vpon all them that were left in Juda: 12 All the Iewes (I say) returned out of all places where they were fled vnto, and came into the lande of Juda to Gedaliah vnto Mispa, and gathered wine and other fruites, and that very much. 13 Moreouer Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all the captaines of the hoast that were scattered on euery side in the lande, came to Gedaliah to Mispa, and sayde vnto hym:

14 Knowest thou not that Baalis the kyng of the Ammonites hath sent Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah to slay thee? But Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam beleued them not. 15 Then sayde Johanan the sonne of Careah vnto Gedaliah in Mispa these wordes secretely, Let me go I pray thee, and I wyll slay Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah, so that no body shall knowe it: Wherefore wyll he kyll thee, that all the Iewes whiche resort vnto thee might be scattered, and the remnaunt in Juda perishe? 16 And Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam sayde to Johanan the sonne of Careah, Thou shalt not do it: for they are but lyes that thou sayest of Ismael.

¶ The.xli. Chapter.

2 Ismael kylleth Gedaliah guilefully, and many other with him. 11 Iohanan foloweth after Ismael.

BVt in the seuenth moneth, it happened that Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah the sonne of Elisama, one of the kinges blood came, and the greatest about the kyng, and ten men with hym, vnto Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam to Mispa, and they dyd eate together in Mispa.

2 And Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah, with those ten men that were with hym, start vp, and smote Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam the sonne of Saphan with the swoꝛde, and slue hym whom the kyng of Babylon had made a gouernour of the lande. 3 Ismael also slue all the Iewes that were with Gedaliah at Mispa, and all the Chaldees that he founde there wayteyng vpon hym, and those that were able to fight he slue with hym. 4 The next day after that he had slayne Gedaliah, the matter was yet vnknowen:

5 And there came certayne men from Sichem, from Silo, and Samaria, to the number of fourescoꝛe, whiche had shauen their beardes, rent their clothes, and were all beaten, bringing meate offeringes and incense in their handes, to offer it in the house of the Loꝛde.

6 And Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah went foꝛth of Mispa weeping, Eccle.xii.c. to meete them: Nowe when he met them, he sayd, Go your way to Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam. 7 And B when they came in the middest of the cutie, Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah, with them that were with hym, slue them euen at the middest of the pit.

8 Among these fourescoꝛe men there were ten that sayde vnto Ismael, Oh slay vs not, foꝛ we haue yet a great treasure in the fielde, of wheate, barly, oyle, and hony: So he spared them, and slue them not with their brethren.

9 Nowe the pit wherein Ismael did 2.king.25.c cast the dead bodyes of the men whom he slue because of Gedaliah, had kyng Asa caused to be made foꝛ feare of Baasa the kyng of Israel, & the same pit dyd Ismael fill with slayne men.

10 As foꝛ the remnaunt of the people, the kynges daughters, and all the people that were left at Mispa, vpon whom Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine had made Gedaliah the sonne of 2.king.25.c. Ahicam gouernour, Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah caryed them away prysoners towarde the Ammonites.

11 But when Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all they whiche had ben captaynes ouer the kinges hoast with hym, heard of all the wickednesse that Ben.xlii.c. Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah had 1.Sa.xxv.b. done: 12 They tooke their companions, and went out foꝛ to fight with Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah, and founde hym by the great waters that are at Gibeon. 13 Nowe when all the people whom Ismael led captiue, sawe Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all the other captaynes of the hoast, they were glad. 14 So all the C people that Ismael had caryed away from Mispa were bꝛought agayne: and when they returned, they came to Johanan the sonne of Careah.

15 But Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah fled from Johanan with eyght companions, and went to the Ammonites. 16 Then Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all the captaines of the hoast that were with hym, toke all the remnaunt of the people, whom Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah had led away when he had slayne Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam, whom they also had reserued from hym, fighting men, women, and chyldren, and gelded men, whom they bꝛought againe from Gibeon, 17 And went from thence, and sate them downe at Geruth Chamaam, whiche lyeth beside Bethlehem, that they might go into Egypt Iere.xli.c. foꝛ feare of the Chaldees: 18 Of whom they were afraide, because that Ismael the sonne of Nathaniah had slayne Gedaliah Ahicams sonne, whom the kyng of Babylon had made Iere.xl.c. gouernour in the lande.

¶ The. xlii. Chapter.

1 The captaynes aske counsaile at Ieremie what they ought to do. 19 Ieremie admonisheth the remnaunt of the people not to go into Egypt.

SO all the captaines of Johanan the sonne of Careah, Iezaniah the A sonne of Osiah, came, with all the people from the least vnto the most,

2 And sayde vnto Ieremie the pꝛophete, O heare our petition, that thou Iere.xxi.c. mayest pꝛay foꝛ vs vnto the Loꝛde xxxvii.c. thy God, (Namely) foꝛ all the remnaunt, wherof there be fewe of vs left of many, as thou seest vs:

3 That the Lord thy God may shewe vs a way to go in, and tell vs what we should do. 4 Then Ieremie the pꝛophete sayde vnto them, I haue heard you, beholde I will pꝛay vnto God your Loꝛde as ye haue required me: and looke what answere the Lord geueth, I shall certifie you therof, and kepe nothyng backe from you.

5 And they sayde vnto Ieremie, Iosu.i.c. The

The Lorde be a true and faythful wit-nesse betwixt vs, that we wyll do all that the Lorde thy God commaundeth vs. 6 Whether it be good or euyll, we wyll hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde God, to whom we sende thee, that we may prosper when we haue folowed the voyce of the Lorde our God. 7 And after ten dayes came the worde of the Lorde vnto Jeremie. 8 Then called he Johanan the sonne of Careah, and all the captaynes of the people that were with hym, yea and all the people from the least to the most, 9 And sayd vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, vnto whom ye sent me to lay foorth your prayers before hym:
10 If ye wyll dwell in this lande, I wyl builde you vp, and not breake you downe, I wyl plant you, and not roote you out: for I (a)repent me concerning the trouble that I haue done to you.
11 Feare not the kyng of Babylon of whom ye stande in awe, O be not afrayde of hym sayth the Lorde, for I wyll be with you to helpe you, and delyuer you from his hande. 12 I wyll pardon you, I wyll haue mercie vpon you, and cause hym to pitie you, and bryng you agayne into your owne lande. 13 Neuertheles, yf ye purpose not to dwell in this lande, nor to folowe the voyce of the Lorde your God: 14 But wyll say thus, We wyl not dwell here, but go into Egypt, where we shal neither see warre, heare
the noyse of the trumpe, nor suffer hunger, there wyll we dwell:
15 Wherefore heare nowe the worde of the Lorde O ye remnaunt of Juda, thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, If ye be wholly purposed to go into Egypt, and to dwell there as straungers, 16 The sworde that ye feared shall ouertake you in Egypt: and the hunger wherof ye be here afrayde, shal hang vpon you, & fo-lowe you into Egypt, and there shall ye dye. 17 And all they that of set purpose vndertake to go into Egypt to sojourne there, shall perysh with the sword, with hunger and pestilence, not one of them shall remayne, there shall none escape the plague that I wyll bryng vpon them. 18 For thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, lyke as my wrath and indignation is moued agaynst the inhabitours of Hierusalem: so shall my displeasure be kyndled agaynst you also if ye go into Egypt, and there ye shal-be reuiled, abhorred, brought to shame and confusion, and as for this place ye shall neuer see it more. 19 The Lord forbyddeth you (O ye remnaunt of Juda) that ye shal not go into Egypt: and forget not that I haue warned you earnestly this day. 20 For ye haue dissembled with me: for ye sent me vnto the Lorde your God, and sayde, O pray thou the Lorde our God for vs, and lo he what aunswere the Lord our God geueth thee, that bryng vs agayne, and we wyll do thereafter:
21 Nowe haue I shewed and declared vnto you, but ye haue not obeyed the voyce of the Lorde your God, for the whiche cause he hath sent me to you.
22 Nowe therefore be ye sure that ye shall perysh with the sworde, with hunger, and pestilence, euen in the same place where your lust is to go and dwell.

The. xliii. Chapter.

¶ 1 Iohanan caryeth the remnaunt of the people into Egypt, contrary to the mynde of Ieremie. 8 Ieremie prophecieth the destruction of Egypt.

NOwe when Ieremie had ended all the wordes of the Lorde his God vnto the people, whiche to declare the Lorde theyr God had sent hym to them, euen all these wordes (I say,) 2 Azariah the sonne of Osaiah, and Johanan the sonne of Careah,
with all the stubburne persons, sayde vnto Jeremie, Thou lyest, the Lorde our God hath not sent thee to speake vnto vs, that we shoulde not go into Egypt and dwell there: 3 But Baruch the sonne of Neriah prouoketh thee agaynst vs, that he myght bryng vs into the captiuitie of the Chaldees, that they might slay vs, and cary vs away prysoners vnto Babylon.
4 So Johanan the sonne of Care-ah, and all the captaines of the hoast, and all the people folowed not the commaundement of the Lorde, (namely) to dwell in the lande of Juda:
5 But Johanan the sonne of Carecaryed away all the remnaunt of Jufrom all the heathen, among whom they had ben scattered, to dwell in the lande of Juda, 6 Men, women, chyldren, the kynges daughters, all those that Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne had left with Gedaliah the phan: they caryed away also the prophete Jeremie, & Baruch the sonne of Neriah, 7 And so came into Egypt: for they were not obedient vnto the commaundement of God. Thus came they to Thaphnis: 8 And in Thaphnis the worde of the Lorde happened vnto Jeremie, saying;

9 Take great stones in thine hande, and hyde them in the bycke wall vnder the doore of Pharaos house in Thaphnis, that all the men of Juda may see, 10 And say vnto them, Jere.46.c. Thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, Beholde, I will sende and cal for Nabuchodonozor the king of Babylon my seruaunt, and will set his seate vpon these stones that I haue hyd, and he shall spreade his tent ouer them. 11 And when he commeth, he shall smyte the lande of Egypt, some with slaughter, some with banyshment, and some with the swoorde. 12 He shall set fyre vpon the temple of the Egyptians gods, and burne them vp, and take them selues prysoners: moreouer, he shal aray hym selfe with the lande of Egypt, lyke as a sheephearde putteth on his coate, and shall departe his way from thence in peace. 13 The pillers also of the temple of the sunne that is in Egypt shall be breake in peeces, and burne the temples of the Egyptians gods.

The.xliii. Chapter.

1 He reproueth the people for their idolatrie. 15 They that set lyght by the threatnyng of the Lorde are chastened.

43 THys is the word that was shewed to Jeremie concernyng all the Jewes whiche dwelt in Egypt, at Migdol, at Thaphnis, at Noph, and in the lande of Phathures. 2 Thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, Ye haue seene all the miserie that I haue brought vpon Hierusalem, and vpon all the cities of Juda: so that this day they are desolate and no man dwelleth therein, 3 And that because of the great blasphemies whiche they committed to prouoke me vnto anger, in that they went backe to do sacrifice and worshyp vnto straunge gods, whom neither they, nor ye, nor your fathers haue knowen. 4 Howbeit I sent vnto them my seruauntes all the prophetes, Jere.25.a. and.29.a. I rose vp early, I sent vnto them and gaue them warnyng, O do no suche abhominable thynges, and thynges that I hate. 5 But they wonlde not folowe nor hearken to turne from theyr wyckednelle, and to do no more sacrifice vnto straunge gods. 6 Wherefore myne indignation and wrath was kyndled, and it brent vp the cities of Juda, with the streetes of Hierusalem, so that they were made waste and desolate, as it is come to passe this day. 7 Nowe B. therefore thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, Wow happeneth it that ye do so great euyll vnto your owne soules, thus to destroy the men and women, chyldren and babes of Juda, so that none of you is left? 8 Because ye prouoke me to wrath with the workes of your owne handes, when ye offer vnto straunge gods in the lande of Egypt where as ye be gone to dwell, that ye myght vtterly perysshe, and that ye myght be reuyled, and shamefully intreated of all nations? 9 Or haue ye nowe forgotten the wyckednelle of your forefathers, the wyckednelle of the kinges of Juda and theyr wyues, the wyckednelle that ye your selues and your wyues haue done in the lande of Juda, and in the streetes of Hierusalem? 10 Yet are ye not sorye this day; ye feare not, neither walke ye in my lawe, and in my commaundementes that I haue geuen vnto you and your forefathers.

11 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, I am stedfastly aduysed and determined to punyshe you, and to roote out all Juda. 12 As for the remnaunt of Juda that purposely went into Egypt there to dwell, I will take them, and they shall all be destroyed, in the lande of Egypt shall they perysshe, beyng consumed with the swoorde and with hunger: for from the least vnto the most they shall perysshe with the swoorde and with hunger: Moreouer, they shalbe reuyled, abhorred, shamed, and confounded. 13 For I will visite them that dwell in Egypt, Ezech.14.a as I haue visited Hierusalem, with the swoorde, with hunger, and with pestilence. 14 So that none of the C remnaunt of Juda whiche are gone to dwell in Egypt shalbe left to come again into the lande of Juda, although they thynke to come thyther agayne and to dwell there: for none shall come agayne but suche as are fled away, away. 15 Then all the men whiche knewe that theyr wyues had offered vnto straunge gods, and a great sorte of wyues that stoode there, yea and all the people that dwelt there in Egypt in the citie of Phathures, aunswered Ieremie, and sayde, 16 As for the wordes that thou hast spoken vnto vs in the name of the Lorde, we will in no wyse heare them: 17 But whatsoeuer goeth out of our owne mouth that will we do, we will do sacrifice, and offer oblations vnto the queene of heauen, lyke as we and our forefathers, our kinges & our heades haue done in the cities of Iuda, and in the streetes of Hierusalem: for then had we plenteousnesse of victuales, then were we in prosperitie, and no misfortune came vpon vs: 18 But since we left to offer and to do sacrifice vnto the queene of heauen, we haue had scarcenesse of all things, and perysshe with the swoorde and hunger. 19 (Last of all) when we (women) dyd sacrifice and offered vnto the queene of heauen: dyd we make her cakes and powre vnto her dyynke offeringes to do her seruice without our husbandes wylles? 20 Then sayde Ieremie vnto all the people, to the men, to the women, and to all the folke whiche had geuen him that aunswere, 21 Dyd not the Lorde remember the sacrifices that ye, your forefathers, your kynges and rulers, with all the people haue offered in the cities of Iuda, in the streetes of Hierusalem? and hath he not consydered this in his mynde? 22 Insomuch that the Lord might no longer suffer the wyckednes of your inuentions, and the abhominable thynges whiche ye dyd: Is not your lande desolate and voyde, yea and abhorred, so that no man dwelleth therin any more, as it is come to passe this day? 23 Did not al this happen vnto you, because ye made such sacrifice, and sinned agaynst the Lorde? Ye haue not folowed his voyce, to walke in his lawe, in his ordinaunces and statutes: yea this is the cause that all misfortune happened vnto you, as it is come to passe this day. 24 Moreouer, Ieremie spake vnto all the people, and to all the women, Heare the worde of the Lorde all Iuda that be in the land of Egypt. 25 Thus saith the Lord of hoastes the God of Israel, Ye and your wyues haue spoken with your owne mouth the thing that ye haue fulfilled in deede, yea thus haue ye sayde, We will not fayle but performe the vowes that we haue vowed, we will do sacrifice, and powre out dyynke offeringes to the queene of heauen: Purposely wil ye set vp your owne meaninges, and performe your vowes. 26 And therefore heare the worde of the Lorde all Iuda that dwell in the land of Egypt: Beholde, I haue sworne by my great name, sayth the Lorde, that my name shall not be reheersed thorowe any mans mouth of Iuda in all the lande of Egypt, to say, The Lorde God lyueth. 27 For I will watche to plague them, and not for theyr wealth: and all the men of Iuda that be in the lande of Egypt shall perysshe with the swoord, and with hunger, vntyll they be vtterly destroyed. 28 Neuertheles, those that flee away for the swoorde, shall come agayne out of Egypt into the lande of Iuda, but there shalbe verye fewe of them: and all the remnaunt of Iuda that are gone into Egypt there to dwell, shall knowe whose wordes shalbe found true, theyrs, or mine. 29 Take this for a token, that I will visite you in this place sayth the Lorde, and that ye may knowe howe that I without doubt will performe my purpose vpon you, to punysshe you. 30 Beholde sayth the Lorde, I will deliuer Pharao Hophra kyng of Egypt, into the handes of his enemies that seeke after his lyfe: euen as I gaue Zedekias the kyng of Iuda into the handes of Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon his enemie, whiche sought after his lyfe.

¶ 1 He prophecieth the destruction of Egypt. 27 Deliuerance is promised to Israel.

HEre folowe the wordes of the Lorde to the prophete Jeremie, whiche he spake agaynst (all) the gentiles. 2 These wordes folowyng preached he to the Egyptians, concernyng the hoast of Pharao Necho kyng of Egypt, when he was in Charchamis beside the water of Euphrates, what time as Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon slue hym, in the fourth yere of Jehoakim the sonne of Josias kyng of Juda. 3 Make redy buckler and sheelde, and go forth to fight. 4 Harnesse your horses, and set your selues vpon them, set your sallets fast on, bryng forth speares, scoure your swordes, and put on your brestplates. 5 But alas, howe happeneth it that I see you so affrayde? why thinke ye backe? Their worthies are slayne, yea they runne so fast away that none of them looketh behynde hym: fearefulnesse is fallen vpon euery one of them, sayth the Lorde.

6 The lightest of foote shall not flee away, and the worthyes shall not escape: towarde the north by the water of Euphrates they dyd stumble and fall. 7 But what is he this that swelleth vp as it were a flood, roaryng and ragyng lyke the streames of waters? 8 It is Egypt that ryseth vp lyke the flood, and casteth out the waters with so great noyse: And he sayde, I wyll go vp and wyll couer the earth, I wyll destroy the citie with them that are therein. 9 Set you vp ye horses, roule forth ye charettes, come forth worthies, ye Ethiopians, ye Libyans with your bucklers, ye Lydians with your bowes.

10 But this day of the Lorde God of hoastes is a day of vengeaunce, that he may auenge hym of his enemies: The swoorde shall deuour, it shalbe satisfied and bathed in their blood, for the Lorde God of hoastes shall haue a slayne offeryng towarde the north, by the water of Euphrates.

11 Go vp vnto Gilead, and bryng triacle O virgin thou daughter of Egypt: but in vayne shalt thou go to surgerie, for thy wounde shall not be stopped. 12 The heathen haue heard of thy shame, and the lande is full of thy confusion: for one strong man dyd stumble vpon another, and they are fallen both together. 13 These are the wordes that the Lorde spake to the prophete Jeremie, concernyng the commyng of Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon, whiche was sent to destroy the lande of Egypt:

Iere. 43.b.

14 Preache out through the lande of Egypt, and cause it to be proclaymed at Migdol, Noph, and Thaphnis, and say, Stande styll, make thee redye, for the swoorde shall consume thee rounde about. 15 Howe happeneth it that thy myghtie worthies are fallen? why stoode they not fast? euen because the Lorde thrust them downe.

16 The slaughter was great, for one fell euer styll vpon another: and they sayde, Vp, let vs go agayne to our owne people, and to our owne naturall countrey, from the cruell swoorde. 17 They dyd crye euen there, Pharao the kyng of Egypt is a kyng of troublesomnesse: he hath ouerpast the appointed tyme.

18 As I lyue (sayth the kyng whose name is the Lorde of hoastes) so surely as Thabor standeth among the mountaynes, and Charmel in the sea; euen so assuredly shall this mischefe come (vpon Egypt.) 19 O thou daughter of Egypt, make redye thy geare to flit: for Noph shalbe voyde and desolate, so that no man shall dwell therein. 20 The lande of Egypt is lyke a goodly fayre calfe: but destruction shall come out of the north, (I say) it cometh. 21 Her waged souldiers that be with her are like fat calues, they also shall flee awaye togethet and not abyde: for the day of their slaughter, and the tyme of their visitation shal come vpon them.

sayth the Lorde, They shalbe innumerable: for they shalbe mo in number then the grashoppers, so that no man shalbe able to tell them. 24 The daughter of Egypt is confounded, and deliuered into the handes of the people of the north. 25 Thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel, Beholde, I will visite that restlesse people of Alexandria, Pharao, and Egypt, yea both their gods and their kinges, euen Pharao and all them that put their trust in hym:

26 Yea I will deliuer them into the handes of those that seeke after their lyues, (namely) into the power of Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon, and into the power of his seruantes: and after all these thynges, it shalbe inhabited as afore tyme sayth the Lorde. 27 Be not thou afrayde O my seruaunt Jacob, feare not thou O Israel: for lo, I will helpe thee from farre, and thy seede from the lande of their captiuitie: Jacob also shall come agayne and be in rest, he shall prosper, and no man shall do hym harme. 28 Feare thou not (O Jacob my seruaunt) sayth the Lorde, for I am with thee, and will destroy all nations among whom I haue scattered thee: neuertheles I will not consume thee, but chasten thee and correct thee, yea and that with discretion, neither will I vtterly destroy thee.

1 The worde of the lorde agaynst the Philistines.

THese are the wordes that the Lorde spake vnto Ieremie the prophete agaynst the Philistines, before that Pharao smote (the citie of) Azah. 2 Thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, there shall waters aryse out of the north, and shall growe to a great floodde, running ouer & couering the lande and all that is therin, the cities and them that dwell therein: and the men shall crye, and all they that dwell in the lande shall mourne. 3 At the noyse and stampyng of their strong barbed horses, at the shakyng of their chartettes, and at the rumbling of the wheeles: the fathers shall not looke to their children, so feeble and weerye shall their handes be. 4 At the same tyme when he shalbe there to destroy the whole lande of the Philistines, he shall make waste both Tyrus, Sidon, and the residue of their ayde: for the Lorde will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the Ile of Caphtor. 5 Baldnesse is come vpon Azah, Ascalon is put to sylence, with the rest of their valleys: Howe long wylt thou teare thy selfe? 6 O thou swoorde of the Lorde, howe long wylt thou not ceasse? Turne agayne into thy sheath, rest, and leaue of.

7 But howe can it ceasse, when the Lord him selfe hath geuen it a charge agaynst Ascalon, and raysed it vp against the cities of the sea coast?

¶ 1 The worde of the Lorde agaynst the Moabites.

THus sayth the Lorde of hoastes the God of Israel agaynst Moab, Wo be to the citie of Nebo, for it is laide waste, brought to confusion, and Kiriathaim is taken: Misgab is brought to shame and afrayde.

2 Moab can boast no more of Hesbon, for they haue deuised a mischiefe agaynst it: Come (shall they say) let vs roote them out, that they may be no more a nation, thou also shalt be destroyed O Madmena, and the swoorde shall persecute thee. 3 A voyce shall crye from Horonaim: Great wasting and destruction shal come vpon them, 4 Moab is made desolate, her lytle ones haue cryed out. 5 For at the goyng vp vnto Luith he arose with lamentation and mournyng, and downe toward Horonaim they heard a cruell and deadly crye: 6 Get you away, saue your lyues, and be lyke vnto the heath in the wyldernesse.

7 For because thou hast trusted in thyne owne workes and treasure, thou shalt be taken: Chamos with his priestes and princes shall go away into captiuitie. 8 The destroyer shall come vpon all cities, none shall escape: The valleys shalbe destroyed, and the feeldes shalbe layde waste, lyke as the Lorde hath spoken.

9 Gene wynges vnto Moab, that she get her away speedyly: for her cities shalbe made so desolate, that no man shall dwell therein.

10 Cursed be he that doth the worke of the Lorde fraudulently, and cursed be he that keepeth backe his swoorde from sheddyng of blood.

11 Moab hath euer ben ryche and careleesse from her youth vp, she hath ben styll setled vpon lyes, she was neuer yet put out of one vessell into another

another(that is) she neuer went away into captiuitie, therefore her taste remayneth, and her sauour is not yet chaunged. 12 But lo, the tyme commeth sayth the Lorde, that I shall sende her trussers to trusse her vp, whiche shall remoue her from her dwelling, and emptie her vessels, and breake her wine pottes. 13 And Moab shalbe ashamed of Chamos, lyke
3. King. 12. a as Israel was ashamed of Bethel C wherein she put her trust. 14 Wherefore do ye thynke thus, We are mightie and strong men of warre?

15 Moab is destroyed, and her cities brent vp, her chosen young men be slayne, sayth the kyng whose name is the Lorde of hoastes. 16 The destruction of Moab commeth on a pace, and her fall is at hande.

17 All ye neyghbours mourne for her, and all ye that knowe her name, say, O howe happeneth it that the strong staffe and the goodly rodde is thus broken? 18 And thou daughter Dibon, come downe from thy glory, and syt in thirst: for he that destroyeth Moab, shall come vp to thee also, and breake downe thy strong holdes. 19 And thou that dwellest in Aroer, get thee to the streete, and looke about thee, aske them that are fled and escaped, and say, What thyng is happened? 20 Oh Moab is confounded and ouercome: mourne and
D crye, tell it out at Arnon that Moab is destroyed, 21 For iudgement shall come vpon the playne lande (namely) vpon Holon, and Jahzah, and vpon Mephaath. 22 And vpon Dibon, vpon Nabo, and Beth Diblathaim, 23 Vpon Kiriathaim, and vpon Beth Gamul, vpon Beth Maon, 24 And vpon Carioth, vpon Bozra, and all the cities in the lande of Moab, whether they lye farre or neare.

25 The horne of Moab is smytten downe, and her arme broken sayth the Lorde. 26 Make her drunken, for she magnified her selfe aboue the Lorde, that men may clap their handes at her vomite, and that she also may be laughed to scorne.

27 Dyddest not thou laugh Israel to scorne, as though he had ben taken (with theft) among theeues? for so often as thou makest mention of hym, thou skyppest for ioy. 28 Ye Moabites, leaue the cities and dwell in rockes of stone, and become lyke doues that make their nestes in holes. 29 As for Moabs pryde we haue heard of it, she is very hye minded, I knowe her stoutnesse, her boasting, her arrogancie, and the pryde of her stomacke, (sayth the Lorde.) Esai. 16. b. Jere. 49. c. E

30 I knowe (sayth the Lorde) her indignation, she doth not ryght, her wordes are lyes, and they haue not dealt truely. 31 Therefore wyll I mourne for Moab, for whole Moabs sake: my heart shall lament the men of Kirchares. 32 O thou vineyarde of Sabamah, I wyll weepe for thee as for Jazer: thy vine braunches shall come ouer the sea vnto the sea of Jazer, the destroyer shall breake into thy haruest and grape gathering.

33 Myrth and cheare shalbe taken away from the fertile feelde, and from the lande of Moab: there shalbe no sweete wine in the pyelle, the treader shall haue no stomacke to crie, yea there shalbe none to crye vnto hym, 34 Whiche afore tyme were heard from Hesbon to Eleale, and Jahaz, whiche lyfted vp their voyce from Zoar vnto Horonaim that bullocke of three yere olde: the waters also of Nemrim shalbe dryed vp. 35 Moreouer, I wyl make Moab ceasse sayth the Lorde, from the offerynges and censyng that she hath made vnto her gods in hye
F places. 36 Wherefore my heart mourneth for Moab lyke a crowde playing an heauye song, and for the mens sake of Kirchares my heart mourneth also, euen as a pype that pypeth a dolefull song: for Esai. 15. b. their ryches whiche they haue gathered shalbe destroyed. 37 All heades shalbe shauen, and all beardes clypped of, al handes bound, and al loynes gyrded about with sackecloth. 38 Vpon all the house toppes and streetes of Moab there shalbe lamentable mournyng: for I wyll breake Moab lyke an vnprofitable vessell, sayth the Lorde. 39 O howe is she destroyed? O howe mourneth she? O howe doth Moab hang downe her head and is ashamed? Thus shall Moab be a laughing stocke, and had in derision of all them that be rounde about her.

Deut. 28. c. Jere. 49. d. 40 For thus sayth the Lord, Behold, the enemie shall come fleeyng as an Egle, and spreade his wynges vpon Moab. 41 They shal take the cities, and winne the strong holdes: then the myghtie mens heartes in Moab shalbe lyke the heart of a woman trauayling naylyng with chylde. 42 And Moab shalbe made so desolate that he shall no more be a people, because he hath set vp her selfe agaynst the lord.

43 Feare, pyt, and snare shall come vpon thee O Moab, sayth the Lorde.
44 Who so escapeth the feare, shal fal into the pyt, and who so getteth out of the pyt, shalbe taken in the snare: for I will bryng a yere of visitation vpon Moab, sayth the Lorde.
45 They that are able to flee, shall stande vnder the shadowe of Heshon, for there shall go a fyre out of Heshon, and a flame from Sion, and shall burne vp that proude people of Moab, and the toppe of those seditious children. 46 Wo be vnto thee O Moab, thou people of Chamos thalt perysshe: yea thy sonnes and daughters shalbe led away captiue. 47 Yet at the last will I bryng Moab out of captiuitie agayne sayth the Lorde. Thus far is of the plague of Moab.

The. xlix. Chapter.

¶ 1 The worde of the Lorde agaynst the Ammonites, 7 agaynst Idumea, 13 Damascus. 28 Cedar, 34 Elam.

AS concernyng the Ammonites, thus the Lorde sayth, Hath Israel no children? or is he without any heyre? Why hath your king then taken Gad in? Wherefore doth his people dwell in his cities? 2 Beholde therefore, the tyme commeth sayth the Lorde, that I will bryng a noyse of warre into Rabath of the Ammonites, and it shalbe layde on a desolate heape, and her cities brent vp, and the Israelites shalbe lordes ouer those that had them in possession afore, sayth the Lorde. 3 Heshon shal mourne, for Ai shalbe rooted out of the grounde, (sayth the Lorde:) the cite of Rabbath shall crye out, and gird them selues with sackcloth, they shall mourne and runne about the walles, for theyr king shalbe led away prysoner, yea his priestes and princes with hym. 4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the (a) valleys? thy valley hath flowed away O thou rebellious daughter, and thynkest thou that thou art so safe by reason of thy treasure, that no man shall come to thee? 5 Beholde, I will bryng a feare vpon thee sayth the Lord God of hoastes, from all those that be about thee, so that ye shalbe scattered euery man from another, & no man shal gather them together agayne that be fled. 6 But after that I will bryng the Ammonites also out of captiuitie agayne, sayth the Lorde. 7 Vpon the Edomites hath the Lorde of hoastes spoken on this maner, Is there no more wysdome in Theman? Is there no more good counsayle among his people? Is their wisdome then turned cleane to naught? 8 Get you hence, turne your backes, creepe downe into the deepe O ye citizens of Dedan: for I will bring destruction vpon Esau, yea and the day of his visitation. 9 If the grape gatherers come vppon thee, shoulde they not leaue some grapes? If the night robbers come vppon thee, should they not take so much as they thought were inough? 10 But I will make Esau bare, and discouer his secretes, so that he shall not be able to hide them: his seede shalbe wasted away, yea his brethren and his neighbours, and he hym selfe shal not be left behynde. 11 Thou shalt leaue thy fatherlesse children behynde thee, and I will kepe them, and thy widowes shall take their comfort in me.
12 For thus hath the Lorde spoken, Beholde, they that men thought were vnmeete to drynke of the cuppe, haue dronken with the first: and thynkest thou then to be free? No no, thou shalt neither be quit nor free: but thou must drinke also. 13 For why? I haue sworne by my selfe sayth the Lorde, that Bozrah shall become a wylderneſſe, an open shame, a laughyng stocke, and curſyng, and all her cities shalbe a continuall desart.
14 For I am perfectly informed of the Lord, that he hath sent a message alredye vnto the heathen: Gather you together, and go forth agaynst her, make you redye to battayle: 15 For lo, I will make thee but small among the heathen, and lytle regarded among men. 16 Thy hye stomacke, and the pryde of thy heart hath deceaued thee, because thou doest dwell in the holes of stony rockes, and hast the hye mountaynes in possession: Neuertheleſſe, though thy nest were as hye as the Egles, yet I will cast thee downe sayth the Lorde. 17 Moreouer, Idumea shalbe a wylderneſſe, who so goeth by it, shalbe abaſshed, and wonder at all her miſerable plagues. 18 Lyke as Sodom, Gomor, and the cities that lay there about were turned vpsyde downe, sayth the Lorde; so shall no

26 Her young men shall fall in the streetes, and all her men of warre shalbe taken away in that tyme sayth the Lorde of hoastes. 27 I wyll kindle a fyre in the walles of Damascus, whyche shall consume the palace of Benhadad. 28 As for Cedar and the kyngdome of Hazor, whom Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon smote, the lorde hath spoken thus vpon them: Aryse, and get you vp vnto Cedar, and destroy the people toward the east. 29 Their tentes and their flockes shall they take away, yea their hanginges and their vessels, their camels also shall they carye away with them: they shall crye to them, feare is on euery syde.
Esai. 21.c.
30 Flee, get you farre away, creepe into caues, that ye may dwell there O ye inhabitours of Hazor sayth the Lord: for Naburchodonozor the kyng of Babylon hath holden a counsayle concernyng you, and concluded his deuice agaynst you. 31 Aryse and get you vp agaynst ponder ryche and careielle people sayth the Lorde, whyche haue neither gates nor doore barres, but dwell alone. 32 Their camels shalbe a pray, and the droues of their cattell dyuen away: Moreouer, those will I scatter towarde all the windes, and to the farthest partes of the worlde, yea from all the sides thereof will I bryng their destruction, sayth the Lorde. 33 Hazor also shalbe a dwellyng for dragons, and an euerlastyng wyldernesse, so that no body shall dwell there, and no man shall haue there his habitation. 34 These are the wordes that the Lorde spake to the prophete Ieremie concernyng Elam, in the begynnyng of the raigne of Zedekias kyng of Iuda. 35 Thus sayth the Lorde of hoastes, Beholde I wyll breake the bow of Elam, their principall strength. 36 And vpon Elam I will bryng the foure windes from the foure quarters of heauen, and will scatter them agaynst the same foure wyndes: and there shalbe no people, but some of Elam shal flee vnto them. 37 For I will cause Elam to be afrayde of their enemies, and of them that seeke their lyues, and wil bring vpon them a mischefe, euen my wrath sayth the Lorde: And I will persecute them with the sword so long tyll I haue brought them to naught. 38 I wyll set my throne in Elam, I wyll destroy both the kyng and princes from thence sayth the Lorde: but in processe of tyme I wil bryng Elam out of captiuitie agayne, sayth the Lorde.

¶ 1 He prophecieth the destruction of Babylon, and the delyueraunce of Israel, whiche was in captiuitie.

THe wordes that the Lorde spake vnto the prophete Ieremie concernyng Babylon and the lande of the Chaldees: 2 Preache among the gentiles, let your voyce be hearde, make a token, crye out, hyde no syence, but say, Babylon is wonne, Bel is confounded, and Merodach is ouercome, yea their gods be brought to shame, and their images burst in peeces: 3 For out of the north

Chere doth come a people agaynſt her, which ſhall make her lande ſo waſte that no body ſhall dwell therin, neyther man nor beaſt, for they ſhall flee and depart from thence. 4 In thoſe dayes, and at that tyme ſaith the lord, the chyldren of Iſrael ſhall come, they and the chyldren of Iuda, weeping and makyng haſte, and ſhall ſeeke the lord their God. 5 They ſhall aſke the way to Sion, thither ſhall they turne their faces, ſaying, Come, and we wyl cleaue to the Lorde in a conenannt that neuer ſhalbe broken. 6 My people haue ben a loſt flocke, my ſhepheards haue deceaued them, and haue made them go aſtray vpon the hilles, they haue gone from the mountayne to the litle hill, and forgotten their folde. 7 All they that came vppon them haue deuoured them, and their enemies ſayde, We haue made no fault agaynſt them, for they haue diſpleaſed the Lorde, (yea euen the Lorde which is) the habitation of their righteouſneſſe, and the hope of their fathers. 8 Flee from Babylon, and depart out of the lande of the Chaldees, and be ye as the rammes that go before the flocke. 9 For loe, I wyl wake vp an hoaſt of people from the northren lande, and bryng them vpon Babylon, theſe ſhall lay ſiege to it, and winne it: their arrowes ſhall not miſſe, lyke as a cunnyng archer ſhooteth not wrong. 10 And the Chaldees ſhalbe ſpoyled, and all they that ſpoile them ſhalbe ſatisfied ſaith the Lorde: 11 Although ye were ſo chearefull and glad to treade downe myne heritage, and fulfylled your pleaſures as the calues in the graſſe, and triumphed ouer them like bulles (when ye had gotten the victorie.)

12 Your mothers ſhalbe ſore confounded, and they that bare you ſhall come to ſhame, the ſhalbe the leaſt ſet by among the nations, bothe, waſted, & dryed vp. 13 No man ſhalbe able to dwel there for the feare of the lord, but the ſhalbe whole deſolate: all they that go by Babylon ſhall ſtande ſtyll and be abaſhed, and ſhall wonder at all her plagues. 14 Go forth in your array agaynſt Babylon rounde about all ye that can handle bowes, ſhoote at her, ſpare no arrowes: for ſhe hath ſinned agaynſt the Lorde. 15 Crye out agaynſt her round about: ſhe ſhall yelde her ſelfe, her foundations ſhall fall, and her walles ſhall come downe, for it ſhalbe the vengeaunce of the Lorde, yea vengeaunce ſhalbe taken of her: and as ſhe hath done, ſo deale ye with her. 16 Roote out the ſower from Babylon, & hym that handleth the ſickle in harueſt: for feare of the ſworde of the enemie euery man ſhal get him to his owne people, and euery man ſhall flee to his owne lande. 17 Iſrael is a ſcattered flocke, the lions haue diſpearſed the: firſt the king of the Aſſyrians deuoured them, laſt of all this Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon hath brused all their bones. 18 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde of hoaſtes the God of Iſrael, Beholde I wyll viſite the kyng of Babylon and his kingdome, as I haue viſited the kyng of the Aſſyrians. 19 And wyll bryng Iſrael agayne to his pleaſaunt paſture, that he may feede vpon Charmel and Baſan, & be ſatisfied vpon the mount of Ephraim and Galaad. 20 In thoſe dayes and at the ſame tyme ſayth the lord, yf the offence of Iſrael be ſought for, there ſhal none be founde, yf men enquire for the ſinne of Iuda, there ſhalbe none: for I wyl be mercifull vnto them whom I ſuffer to remaine. 21 Go downe (O thou auenger) into the enemies lande, and viſite them that dwell therein: downe with them, and ſmite them vpon the backes ſaith the Lorde, do accordyng to all that I haue cõmaunded thee. 22 There is gone about the lande a crye of a ſlaughter and great murther (namely on this maner,) 23 Howe happeneth it that the hammer of the whole worlde is thus broken and bruſed in ſunder? Howe chaunceth it that Babylon is become a wyldernelle among the heathen (on this maner?) 24 I my ſelfe haue layd a ſnare for thee, & thou art taken vnawares, thou art trapped and ſnared: for why? thou haſt contended agaynſt the Lorde. 25 The Lorde hath opened his houſe of ordinaunce, and brought forth the weapons of his wrath: for the thing that is done in the lande of the Chaldees, it is the Lord of hoaſtes worke. 26 Come agaynſt her, for this is her ende, breake vp her cheſtes, threſh her as ye threſh corne, deſtroy her that nothing ſhalbe left. 27 Slay all their mightie ſouldiers, and put them to death: wo be vnto them, for the day and tyme of their viſitation is at hande. 28 (Methynke) I heare (alredye) a cry of them that be fled and eſcaped out of the lande of Babylon, which ſhew in Sion the vengeaunce of the Lorde our God, the vengeaunce of his temple, (yea a voyce of them that crie agaynſt Babylon,) 29 Call vp al the archers agaynſt Babylon, pitch your tentes rounde about her, that none eſcape, recompence her as ſhe hath deſerued, and accordyng as ſhe hath done, ſo deale with her agayne: for ſhe hath ſet vp her ſelfe agaynſt the Lorde, agaynſt the holye one of Iſrael. Jere.l.c. Apoc.18.b.

30 Therefore ſhall her young men fall downe in the ſtreetes, and all her men of warre ſhalbe rooted out in that day ſayth the Lorde. 31 Behold I ſpeake vnto thee O thou proude ſayth the lord God of hoaſtes, for thy day ſhall come, euen the tyme of thy viſitation. 32 And the proude ſhall ſtumble and fall, and no man ſhall helpe him vp, I wyll burne vp his cities with fyre, and it ſhall conſume all that is rounde about him. 2.Theſ.2.a.

33 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoaſtes, The chyldren of Iſrael and Juda ſuffer violence together, all they that haue them in captiuitie kepe them faſt, and wyl not let them go. 34 But their auenger and redeemer is mighty, whoſe name is the Lorde of hoaſtes, he ſhall maynteyne their cauſe, he ſhall make the lande ſhake, and iudge them that dwell therein, (one with another.) 35 The ſworde ſhall come vppon the Chaldees ſayth the Lorde, vpon them that dwell in Babylon, vpon their princes, and vppon their wyſe men. 36 The ſworde vpon their ſoothſayers, as for thoſe they ſhall become fooles: the ſworde vpon their worthies, ſo that they ſhal ſtande in feare. 37 The ſworde vpon their horſemen and charrettes, and vpon al the common people that dwel among them, ſo that they ſhall all become lyke women: the ſworde vpon their treaſure, ſo that it ſhalbe ſtollen away. 38 A drought vppon their waters, ſo that they ſhalbe dryed vp: for the lande worſhippeth images, and delighteth wonderfully in idols. 39 Therefore ſhal wylde beaſtes, Lamia, and Cat of mountaynes, and Oſtreches dwell therin: for there ſhall neuer man dwell there, neither ſhall any man haue his habitation there for euermore. 40 Lyke as God deſtroyed Sodome and Gomor, with the cities that lay there about ſayth the Lorde: ſo ſhall no man dwel there alſo, neither ſhall any man haue there his habitation. Gen.xix.

41 Beholde there ſhall come a people from the north with a great bonde of men, and many kynges ſhal ſtande vp from the endes of the earth. 42 They beare bowes and bucklers, cruell are they and vnmercifull: their voyce roreth lyke the raging ſea, they ryde vppon horſes, and come weaponed to fyght agaynſt thee O Babylon. 43 Alſoone as the kyng of Babylon heare tell of them, his handes ſhall ware feeble, ſorowe and beauinelle ſhall come vpon him as a woman trauaylyng with chylde. 44 Beholde, lyke as the lion commeth vp from the ſwellyng of Jordane vnto the dennes of Ethan, ſo wyll I driue them ſodenly, and make them runne agaynſt her: but whom ſhall I chooſe out and ordaine to ſuch a thing? for who is lyke me? or who wyll ſtriue with me? or what ſhephearde may ſtande agaynſt me? Jere.xlix.b.

45 Therefore heare the counſell that the Lorde hath geuen vpon Babylon, and the deuiſe that he hath taken vpon the land of the Chaldees, The leaſt among the people ſhall drawe them out, and loke what pleaſaunt houſes they haue, they ſhall lay them waſte. 46 The noyſe at the wynnyng of Babylon ſhall moue the earth, and the crye ſhalbe heard among the gentiles. Jere.l.b. Deut.28.d.

¶ The .li. Chapter.

1 Howe Babylon ſhould be ouerthrowē. 59 Ieremie geueth his booke to Saraias.

THus hath the Lorde ſayde, Beholde I wyll rayſe vp a perilous winde agaynſt Babylon, and her citezins that beare cupil wyl agaynſt me. 2 I wyl ſende alſo into Babylon fanners to fanne her out, and to deſtroy her lande: for in the day of her trouble they ſhalbe about her on euery ſyde. 3 Moreouer (the Lorde wyll ſay) vnto the bowmen, and to them that aduaunce them ſelues in their armour: ye ſhall not ſpare her young men, kyll downe all her hoaſt. Jere.25.b. and.50.a.

4 Thus the ſlayne ſhall fall downe in the lande of the Chaldees, and the wounded in the ſtreetes. 5 As for Iſrael and Juda they ſhall not be forſaken of their God of the Lorde of hoaſtes, yea (a) for the holy one of Iſraels lake haue the Chaldees fylled their their lande full of sinne. 6 Flee away from Babylon, every man saue his life, that ye be not rooted out with her wickednesse: for the tyme of the Lordes vengeaunce is come, yea he shall rewarde her agayne. 7 Babylon hath ben in the Lordes hande a golden cuppe, that maketh all landes dronken: of her wine haue all people dronken, therefore are they out of their wittes. 8 But sodaynly is Babylon fallen & destroyed: mourne for her, bring playsters for her woundes, yf she may peraduenture be healed agayne. 9 We would haue made Babylon whole say they, but she is not recouered, therefore wyl we let her alone, and go euery man into his owne countrey: for her iudgement is come into heauen, and is gone vp to the cloudes. 10 The Lorde hath brought foorth our (b) righteousnesse, and therefore come on, we wyl shewe in Sion the worke of the Lorde our god. 11 Make sharpe the arrowes, & multiplie your shieldes: for the Lord hal rayse vp the spirite of the king of the Medes, which hath alredye a desyre to destroy Babylō: this shalbe the vengeaunce of the Lorde, and the vengeaunce of his temple. 12 Set vp tokens vpon the walles of Babylon, make your watch strong, set your watchmen in array, yea holde prime watches, and yet for all that shal the Lorde go foorth with his deuice whiche he hath taken vppon them that dwel in Babylon. 13 O thou that dwellest by the great waters, O thou that hast so great treasure and riches, thine ende is come, and the reckening of thy wyuynges. 14 The Lorde of hostes hath swoorne by him selfe, that he wyll ouerwhelme thee with men lyke grashoppers in number, which with a courage shalbe alarum alarum against thee: 15 yea euen the Lord of hostes that with his power made the earth, with his wysdome prepared the rounde worlde, and with his discretion spread out the heauens. 16 Assoone as he letteth his voyce be heard, the waters in the ayre waxe fierce: he draweth vp the cloudes from the endes of the earth, he turneth the lyghtnynges to rayne, he bringeth the wyndes out of their secrete places. 17 (If they be esteemed) by their wysdome, all men are become fooles: confounded be all the casters of images, for the thing that they make is but decelpt, and hath no breath. 18 Vayne is it and an erronious worke, and in the tyme of visitation it shall perishe. 19 The portion of Jacob is none such: but he that made al thinges, whose name is the Lorde of hostes, he is the rodde of his inheritaunce.

20 (c) Thou hast ben myne hammer and weapons for warre: for with thee haue I broken the people in peces, and with thee haue I destroyed kyngdomes. 21 Through thee I haue beaten to powder horse and horsemen, yea the charrettes and such as sate vppon them. 22 Throwe thee I haue broken man and woman, olde and young, bacheler and mayden. 23 Through thee I haue destroyed the shepheарde and his flocke, the husbandman and his cattell, the princes and the rulers.

24 Therefore wyll I rewarde the citie of Babylon, and all the inhabitauntes of Chaldea, with all the euyl whiche they haue done vnto Sion, yea that ye your selues shall see it, sayth the Lord. 25 Behold I come vpon thee thou moysome (d) hyll sayth the Lorde, thou that destroyest all landes, I wyll stretche out my hande ouer thee, and cast thee downe from the stony rockes, and wyll make thee a burnt hyll, 26 So that neither corner stones shalbe taken any more out of thee: but waste and desolate shalt thou lye for euermore sayth the Lorde. 27 Set vp a token in the lande, blowe the trumpettes among the heathen, prouoke the nations agaynst her, call the kyngdomes of Ararat, Menni, and Ascanes agaynst her, set the prince agaynst her, bring as great a sort of terrible horses agaynst her as yf they were grashoppers. 28 Prepare agaynst them the people of the Medes, with their kynges, princes, and all their chefe rulers: yea and the whole lande that is vnder him. 29 The lande also shall shake and be afrayde when the deuice of the Lorde shall come foorth agaynst Babylon, to make the lande of Babylon so waste that no man shall dwell any more therein.

30 The worthies of Babylon shall leaue the battayle & kepe them selues in strong holdes, their strength hath fayled them, they shalbe lyke women, their dwellyng places shalbe burnt vp, their barres shalbe broken.

59 This

59 This is the charge that Jeremie the prophete gaue vnto Saraiah the sonne of Neriah the sonne of Maasiah, when he went towarde Babylon with Zedekias the kyng of Juda, in the fourth yere of his raigne: nowe this Saraiah was a peaceable prince.

60 Jeremie wrote in a booke all the miserie that shoulde come vpon Babylon, yea and all these sermons that be written agaynst Babylon. 61 And gaue Saraiah this charge, When thou commest vnto Babylon, see that thou reade these wordes, 62 And say, O Lorde thou art determined to roote out this place, so that neither people nor cattell shal dwell there any more, but to lye waste for euer. 63 And when thou hast read out the booke, bynde a stone to it, and cast it in the middest of Euphrates, 64 And say, Euen thus shall Babylon sincke, and be thrust downe with the burthen of trouble that I wyll bryng vpon her: so that she shal neuer come vp againe. Thus farre are the preachynges of Jeremie.

¶ The .lii. Chapter.

ZEdekias was one and twentie yeres olde when he was made kyng, and raigned eleuen yeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name was Hamutal, Jeremies daughter of Libna. 2 He liued wickedly before the Lorde, euen as Jehoakim dyd:

3 For the Lorde was angry at Hierusalem and Juda, so long tyll he had cast them out of his presence: and Zedekias fell from the kyng of Babylon. 4 But in the ninth yere of his raigne, in the tenth moneth, the tenth day of the moneth, it happened that Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon with all his hoast came before Hierusalem, and besieged it, and made bulwarkes rounde about it. 5 And this besieging of the citie endured vnto the eleuenth yere of king Zedekias. 6 And in the fourth moneth the ninth day of the moneth, there was a great hunger in the citie, that there were no more victuals for the people of the lande. 7 So all the souldiers byake away, and fled out of the citie by nyght through the way of the port, betweene the two walles by the kynges garden. (Nowe the Chaldees had compassed the citie rounde about) yet went these men their way through the wyldernesse. 8 And so the Chaldees folowed vppon them, and tooke Zedekias the kyng in the feelde of Jericho when his hoast was runne from him. 9 So they caryed the kyng away prisoner to Reblath, vnto the kyng of Babylon in the lande of Hemath, where he gaue iudgement vpon him. 10 The king of Babylon also caused Zedekias sonnes to be slayne before his face, yea and put all the princes of Juda to death at Reblath. 11 Moreouer he put out the eyes of Zedekias, and caused him to be bounde with two chaynes, to be caryed vnto Babylon, and let him lye in prison tyll he dyed.

12 Nowe the tenth day of the fifth moneth, in the nineteenthyere of Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon, Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne, and the kyng of Babylons seruauntes came vnto Hierusalem, 13 And burnt vp the house of the Lorde: he burnt vp also the kynges palace, all the houses, and all the gorgeous buildynges in Hierusalem. 14 And the whole hoast of the Chaldees that were with the chiefe captayne, brake downe all the walles of Hierusalem rounde about. 15 As for the poore people, and such folke as was yet left in the citie, whiche also were fallen to the kyng of Babylon, yea and what people as yet remayned, Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne caryed them away prisoners. 16 But the poore people of the countrey dyd Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne leaue in the lande, to occupie the vineyardes and feeldes. 17 The Chaldees also brake the brasen pillers that were in the house of the Lorde, yea the seate and the brasen lauer that was in the house of the Lorde, and caryed all the mettall of them vnto Babylon.

that it myght not be wayed. 21 For euery piller was eyghteene cubites hie, and the rope that went about it was twelue cubites and foure fingers thicke, and rounde. 22 Howe vpon the rops were brasen knoppes, and euery knoppe was fiue cubites hye, and vppon the knoppes were hoopes, and pomgranates rounde about of cleane brasse. 23 After this maner were both the pilleres fashioned with the pomgranates, whereof there were an hundred ninetie and sixe, whiche hanged vpon the hoopes rounde about. 24 The chiefe captayne also toke Saraiah the hye preest, & Sophoniah that was chiefe next him, and the three keepers of the dooze: 25 He toke out of the citie a chamberlayne whiche was captayne of the souldiers, and seuen men that were the kynges seruauntes, whiche were founde in the citie: and Sopher a captayne that vsed to muster the men of warre, with threescore men of the countrey that were taken in the citie: 26 These Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne toke, and caryed them to the kyng of Babylon vnto Reblath: 27 And the kyng of Babylon caused them to be put to death at Reblath in the lande of Hemath: and thus Juda was led away captiue out of his owne lande. 28 This is the summe of the people whō Nabuchodonozor led away captiue: In the seuēth yere of his raigne he caryed away of the Iewes three thousande twentie and three, 29 In the eyghteenth yere Nabuchodonozor caryed away from Hierusalem eyght hundred thirtie and two persons, 30 In the three and twentie yere of Nabuchodonozor, Nabuzaradan the chiefe captayne toke away seuen hundred fourtie and fiue Iewes prisoners. The whole summe of the prisoners is foure thousande and sixe hundred.

31 In the thirtie and seuenth yere after that Jehoakim the kīng of Juda was caryed away, in the fiue & twentith day of the twelfe moneth, Euilmerodach kyng of Babylon (the same yere that he raigned) gaue Jehoakim the kyng of Juda his pardon, and let him out of prison, 32 And spake louingly to him, and set his throne aboue the throones of the other kinges that were with him in Babylon.

33 He chaunged also the clothes of his prison, yea and dyd eate with him all his lyfe long. 34 And he had a continuall lyuyng geuen hym of the kīng of Babylon, euery day a certaine thing alowed him, all the dayes of his lyfe, vntyll he dyed.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

It happened after Israel was brought into captiuitie and Hierusalem destroyed, that Ieremie the prophete sate weeping, and sorowfully bewayled Hierusalem, and sighing and howlyng with an heauy and wofull heart, sayde,

1 ALas) howe sitteth the citie so desolat, that sometime was ful of people? Howe is she become lyke a wydowe whiche was great among nations? Howe is she brought vnder tribute that ruled landes? 2 She weepeth sore in the night, so that the teares runne downe her cheekes: for among all her louers there is none that geueth her any comfort, yea her next frendes transgresse against her, and are become her enemies. 3 Juda went away by reason of the affliction and great bondage: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest, all they that persecuted her, toke her in straye places (where she coulde not escape.)

4 The streetes of Sion mourne, because no man commeth no more to the solempne feastes: all her gates are desolate, her preestes make lamentation, her maydens are carefull, and she her selfe is in great heauines.

5 Her enemies haue ben rulers ouer her, and her enemies haue prospered, because the Lorde hath chastened her for her great wickednesse: her chyldren are led away captiue before their enemies.

enemies. 6 All the beautie of the daughter of Sion is away, her princes are become lyke harttes that finde no pasture, they are driuen away before their enemie, so that they haue no more power. 7 Nowe Hierusalem remembred in the tyme of her miserie and bare estate all her ioy and pleasure that she hath had in tymes past, seeyng her people is brought downe vnder the power of their enemies, and ther is no man for to helpe her: her enemies stande lokyng at her, and laugh her sabbath dayes to scorne. 8 Hierusalem hath sinned greeuously, therefore is she come in decay: all they that had her in honour dispise her, for they haue seene her filthynesse, yea she sigheth and "is ashamed of her selfe. 9 Her skirtes are defiled, she remembred not her last ende, therefore is her fall so wonderfull, and there is no man to comfort her: O Lorde consider my trouble, for myne enemie hath the vpper hande. 10 The enemie hath put his hande to all the pretious thinges that she had, yea euen before her eyes came the heathen in and out of the sanctuarie, whom thou (neuertheles) hast forbidden to come within thy congregation. 11 All her people seeke their bread with beautifulnesse, and loke what pretious thing euery man hath, that geueth he for meate to saue his lyfe: consider O Lorde, and see howe vile I am become. 12 Haue ye no regarde all ye that go forby, beholde and see yf there be any sorowe lyke vnto myne, wherewith the Lord hath troubled me in the day of his fearefull wrath. 13 From aboue hath he sent downe a fyre into my bones, and it burneth them cruelly: he hath layde a net for my feete, and thrown me wide open, he hath made me desolate, so that I must euer be mourning.

14 The (a) yoke of my transgressions is bounde fast to his hande, they are wrapped (or writhen) and come vp about my necke: he hath caused my strength to fayle, the Lorde hath deliuered me into those handes whereout I can not quite my selfe. 15 The Lorde hath destroyed all the mightie men that were in me, he hath proclaymed an appoynted time to slaughter all my best men: the Lorde hath troden downe the daughter of Iuda, lyke as it were in a wineprese.

16 Therefore do I weepe, and myne eyes gushe out of water: for the comfort that shoulde quicken me is farre fro me, my children are driuen away: for why? the enemie hath gotten the vpper hande. 17 Sion casteth out her handes, and there is no man to comfort her, the Lorde hath layde the enemies rounde about Jacob, and Hierusalem is become abhomination in the middest of them. 18 The Lord is righteous, for I haue prouoked his countenaunce vnto anger, O take heede all ye people and consider my heauinesse, my maydens & my young men are led away into captiuitie.

19 I called for my louers, but they beguiled me, for my priestes & counsaylers, but they perished, euen whyle they sought for meate to saue their lyues. 20 Consider (O Lorde) howe I am troubled, my wombe is disquiered, my heart turneth about in me, & I am full of heauinesse, because I rebelled stubburnly: the swoorde hurteth me without, and within I am like vnto death. 21 They heare my mourneyng, but there is none that wyl comfort me: al myne enemies haue heard of my trouble, and are glad thereof because thou hast done it: and thou hast brought foorth the tyme whiche thou calledst, when they also shall be lyke vnto me. 22 Let all their wickednesse come before thee, and do thou to them as thou hast done vnto me for all my trespasses: for my sorowe is very great, and my heart is heauy.

HOwe is the golde become so dimme? the most fine golde so chaunged? and the stones of the sanctuarie are scattered in the corner of euery streete? 2 The children of Sion that were alway in honour, and * clothed with the most pretious golde: howe are they nowe become lyke the earthen vessels, the worke of the potters hande? 3 The dragons geue their young ones sucke with bare brestes: but the daughter of my people is cruel, lyke the Estriches in the wildernesse. 4 The tongues of the suckyng children cleaue to the roofe of their mouthes for very thirst: the young children aske bread, but there is no man that geueth it them.
5 They that were wont to fare delicately perishe in the streetes: they that (afore) were brought vp in purple, make (nowe) much of doung. 6 The sinne of the daughter of my people, is become greater then the (a) wickednes of Sodome, that sodaynly was destroyed, and * not taken with handes.

¶ The prayer of Ieremie.

א CAll to remembrance (O Lorde) what is come vpon vs, consyder and see our * confusion. 2 Our inheritaunce is turned to the straungers, (and) our houses to the aliaunes. 3 We are vnderlynges without fathers, and our mothers are as wydowes. 4 We haue dronke our water for money, and our wood haue we by sale. 5 Our neckes are vnder persecution, we are weery and haue no rest. 6 (Aforetyme) we yeelded our selues to the Egyptians, (and nowe) to the Assyrians, only that we myght haue bread inough. 7 Our fathers (which nowe are gone) haue sinned, and we must beare their wickednesse. 8 Seruauntes haue the rule of vs, and no man deliuereth vs out of their handes. 9 We must get our * lyuyng with the peryll of our lyues, because of the * drouth of the wildernesse. 10 Our skinne is made blacke lyke as an ouen, for very sore hunger. 11 They vanished the wyues in Sion, and the maydens in the cities of Iuda. 12 The princes are hanged vp with their (enemies) handes, they haue not honoured the olde sage mens faces.

13 They haue taken young men to grinde, and the boyes saynted vnder the (burthens) of wood. 14 The elders haue ceased from the gates, & the young men from their songes.

20 Wherfore wylt thou styll forget vs, and forsake vs so long? 21 O Lorde turne thou vs vnto thee, and (so) shall we be turned, renue our dayes as in olde tymes: 22 But thou hast banished vs vtterly, and hast ben exceedyngly displeased at vs.

The booke of the prophete Ezechiel.

¶ The first Chapter.

1 The tyme wherin Ezechiel prophecied, and in what place. 3 His kinrede. 5 The vision of the foure beastes. 16 The fashion and worke of the wheeles. 26 The vision of the throne.

IT came to passe in the (a) thirtith yere in the fourth (moneth) in the fifth day of the moneth, that (I beyng in the middes of the captiuitie, by the riuer Chebar) the heauens were opened, and I sawe visions of God: 2 In the fifth (day) of the moneth, which was the fifth yere of king Joakims captiuitie,

3 The worde of the Lorde came to Ezechiel the priest the sonne of Buzi, in the lande of the Chaldeans by the riuer Chebar, where the hande of the Lorde was vpon him.

4 And I loked, and beholde a fourmis wynde came out of the north, a great cloude, and a fire folding it selfe (in the cloude) and a brightnesse rounde about it, and fourth of the middes thereof as the colour of Amber out of the middes of the fire. 5 And out of the middes therof, the likenes of foure (b) beastes (appeared) and this was their fourme, They had the likenesse of a man.

6 And euery one had foure faces, and euery one of them had foure wynges. 7 Their feete were straight feete, and the sole of their feete lyke the sole of calues feete, and they glistered as the appearaunce of brasse burnished. 8 From vnder their wynges vpon all the foure * corners they had mens handes: & they foure had their faces and their wynges.

9 Their wynges were ioyned one to another: when they went they loked not backe, but eche one went strayght forwarde. 10 But (touchyng) the similitude of their faces, they foure had the (e) face of a man and the face of a lion on the ryght syde, and they foure had the face of an oxe on the left syde, thei foure also had the face of an Egle. 11 Thus were their faces, and their wynges were spread out aboue, (so that) two (wynges) of euery one were ioyned one to another, and two (wynges) couered (euery one of) their bodyes. 12 Euery one went strayght forwarde: (f) whyther as the spirite led them, thyther they went, and returned not in their goyng. 13 And the fashion of the beastes, their appearaunce was lyke coales of fire, burnyng lyke the appearaunce of cresets, it ran among the beastes, and the fire gaue a glister, and out of the fire there went lyghtnyng. 14 And the beastes ran, and returned lyke lyghtnyng. 15 When I had consydered the beastes, beholde a wheele vpon the earth nye to the beastes, to "euery of the foure before his face. 16 The fashion and worke of the wheeles was lyke the colour of (g) Tharsis, and they foure had one fashion, and their fashion and their worke (was) as though it were a wheele in the middle of a wheele. 17 When they went, they went vpon their foure sydes: they turned not when they went.

18 They had (h) rynges, and heyght, and were fearefull to beholde: and their rynges were full of eyes rounde about them foure. 19 When the beastes went, the wheeles went also by them: and when the beastes were lyft vp from the earth, the wheeles were lyft vp. 20 Whyther soeuer the spirite (was) to go, they went, and thyther (was) the spirite of the wheeles to go, and the wheeles were lyft vp before them: for the spirite of the beastes was in the wheeles.

21 When the beastes went, they went, and when they stoode, they stoode, and when they were lyfted vp from the earth, the wheeles were lyfted vp before them, for the spirite of the beastes was in the wheeles.

22 And the similitude of the firmament vpon the heades of the beastes, was lyke the colour of christal wonderfull, spread ouer their heades aboue. 23 And vnder the firmament their wynges were straight (foorth) one towardes another, euery one had two couerynge them, and (i) euery one had two couerynge them, (euen) their bodyes. 24 And when they went, I heard the noyse of their wynges, lyke the noyse of many waters as the voyce of the Almightie, the voyce of speache as the noyse of an hoast: whē they stoode, they let downe their wynges. 25 And there was a voyce from the firmament that was ouer their heades, when they stoode, & had let downe their wynges. 26 And aboue the firmament that was ouer their heades, there was the fashion of a throne lyke a Saphir stone: and vpon the similitude of the throne by appearaunce, as the similitude of a man aboue vpon it. 27 And I sawe as the appearaunce of Amber (and) as the similitude of fire rounde about within, from the appearaunce of his loynes vpwarde: and from the appearaunce of his loynes & downewarde I sawe as the likenesse of fire, & brightnes round about it. 28 As the likenesse of a bowe that is in a cloude in the day of rayne, so was the appearaunce of the brightnesse rounde about: this was the appearaunce of the similitude of the glorie of the Lorde, and when I sawe it, I (k) fel vpon my face, and hearkened vnto the voyce of one (l) that spake.

¶ The. iii. Chapter.

1 The prophete beyng fed with the word of god, and with the constant boldnesse of the spirite, is sent vnto the people that were in captiuitie. 17 The office of true preachers.

AFter this sayde he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, eate whatsoeuer thou fyndest, eate this roule, and go thy way and speake vnto the house of Israel. 2 So I opened my mouth, and he fed me with this roule. 3 And he sayd vnto me, Thou sonne of man, thy belly shalt eate, and thy bowels shalt thou fyll with this roule that I geue thee: the did I eate, and it was in my mouth as swete as honie. 4 And he sayd vnto me, Thou sonne of man, go, get thee vnto the house of Israel, & declare my wordes vnto them. 5 For not to a people of "prosounde lippes and harde language art thou sent, but vnto the house of Israel: 6 Not to many nations of a straunge speache and harde languages, whose wordes thou vnderstandest not: certaynly yf I had sent thee vnto them, they would haue hearkened vnto thee. 7 But the house of Israel will not hearken vnto thee, For they will not hearken vnto me: for all the house of Israel haue stiffe foreheades, and stubburne heartes. 8 Beholde therefore, I haue made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheades.

9 As an Adamant, harder then the flint stone haue I made thy forehead: thou shalt not feare them, nor be abashed at their lookes: for they are a rebellious house. 10 He sayd more ouer vnto me, Thou sonne of man, all my wordes that I shall speake vnto thee receaue in thyne heart, and hearken with thyne eares. 11 And go, get thee to the captiuitie, to the children of thy people, and thou shalt speake vnto them, and shalt say vnto them, Thus saith the Lorde God: but surely they will not heare, neither will they leaue of. 12 With that the spirite toke me vp, and I heard behynde me a voyce of a great rushyng, (to wit,) Blessed be the glorie of Iehouah from his place. 13 (I heard) also the noyse of the wynges of the beastes toyning one with another, and the rattyng of the wheeles that were before them, euen a noyse of great rushyng. 14 Nowe when the spirite lyft me vp and toke me away, I went in bitternesse and furie of my spirite: but the hande of the Lorde vpon me was strong. 15 Then I came to the captiues in Thelabib that dwelt by the riuer Chebar, and I sate where they sate, and I remayned there seuen dayes astonished among them. 16 And when the seuen dayes were expired, the Lorde sayde vnto me, 17 Thou sonne of man, I haue made thee a watchman vnto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt heare the worde at my mouth, and geue them warnyng from me.

18 When I shall say vnto the wicked, Thou shalt surely dye, and thou geuest not him warnyng, nor speakest to admonishe the wicked of his euyll way, and so to liue: then shall the same vngodly man dye in his owne vnryghteousnesse, but his blood will I require of thyne hande. 19 Neuertheles yf thou geue warnyng vnto the wicked, and he yet turne not from his vngodlynesse and from his wicked way: he shall dye in his owne wickednesse, but thou hast deliuered thy soule. 20 Agayne, yf a ryghteous man turne from his ryghteousnesse and do the thyng that is euyll, I will lay a stumblyng bloche before him: and he shall dye, because thou hast not geuen him warnyng, dye shall he in his owne sinne, so that his righteousnesse which he hath done shall not be thought vpon: but his blood will I require at thyne hande.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

1 The signe of the heeres, by which is signified the destruction of the people.
6 The causes of the anger of god towarde the people.

AND thou sonne of man, take thee then a sharpe knife (namely) a barbers rasour, take that to thee, and cause it to (a) passe vpon thy head and vpon thy beard: then take thee wayght scales and diuide (the heere.)

2 Thou shalt burne with fire the thirde part in the middest of the (b) citie when the dayes of the siege are fulfylled, and thou shalt take the other thirde part and smyte about it with a knife, and the last thirde part thou shalt scatter in the wynde, and I will drawe out a swoorde after them.

3 Thou shalt also take therof a fewe in number, and bynde them in thy lap.

4 Of them yet shalt thou take, and cast them into the middest of the fire, and burne them in the fire: therof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel. 5 Moreouer thus saith the Lorde God, This same is Hierusalem, which I set in the middest of nations and countreys rounde about her. 6 But she hath chaunged my iudgementes into wickednesse more then the nations, and my statutes more then the countreis that are rounde about her: for they haue refused my iudgementes and my statutes, and haue not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, For your (c) multiplying more then the gentiles that dwell rounde about you, and because ye haue not walked in my lawes, neither haue ye kept my ordinaunces, no ye haue not done accordyng to the iudgementes of the nations that are rounde about you: 8 Therfore thus saith the Lord God, Beholde I will also (come) agaynst thee, I my selfe I say: for in the middest of thee will I execute iudgment in the sight of the heathen.

9 And I will do in thee as I neuer dyd (before) and as I will neuer do the lyke from that tyme forth, and that because of all thyne abominations. 10 For in the middest of thee the fathers shall eate their owne sonnes, and the sonnes shal eate their owne fathers, and I will execute iudgement in thee, and the whole remnaunt of thee will I scatter into all the wyndes. 11 Wherefore, as truely as I lyue saith the Lorde God, Surely seyng thou hast defyled my sanctuarie with all maner of abominations, & with all shameful offences: 12 For this cause will I also destroy thee, myne eye shall not spare thee, neither will I haue any pitie. 13 One thirde part of thee shall dye of the pestilence, & shalbe consumed of hunger in the middest of thee, another thirde part shalbe slayne downe rounde about thee with the swoorde, the other thirde part (that remayneth) will I scatter abrode toward all the wyndes, and drawe out a swoorde after them.

14 Thus will myne indignation be perfourmed, and I will cause my wrath to ceasse among them, and I will be(d) comforted: so that when I haue fulfylled myne anger agaynst them, they shall knowe that I the Lord with a feruent ielousie haue spoken it. 15 Moreouer I wil make thee waste and a reproche among all the heathen that dwell about thee, in the syght of all them that go by thee.

16 So thou shalt be a reproche and shame, a chastisement and a wondryng vnto the nations that are rounde about thee, when I shall execute iudgementes in thee, in anger & in wrath, and in sharpe rebukes, I the Lorde haue spoken it: 17 When I shall shoote among them the perilous (e) dartes of hunger, which shalbe for their destruction, therefore shall I shoote them, because I will destroy you, I will encrease hunger vpon you, and will breake your staffe of bread.

18 "Plagues will I sende vpon you, yea and wicked beastes also to spoyle thee, pestilence and bloodshedding shall come vpon thee, and the swoorde will I bring ouer thee: I the Lorde haue spoken it.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

1 He sheweth that the people shalbe plagued for the sinne of idolatrie.

they ſhall knowe that I am the Lord.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

2 The ende of all the lande of Iſrael ſhal ſodaynly come. 20 The cauſe of the deſtruction therof. 23 The prophete is commaunded to ſhewe the ſumme of the euyls that are at hande.

THe worde of the Lorde came vntlye powre out my ſore diſpleaſure ouer thee, and fulfyll my wrath vpon thee: I wyll iudge thee after thy wayes, and recompence thee all thine abominations. 9 Myne eye ſhall

27 The king shall mourne, the prince shalbe clothed with desolation, and the handes of the people in the lande shalbe troubled: I will do vnto them after their owne wayes, according to their owne iudgementes will I iudge them: and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

2 An appearaunce of the similitude of God. 3 Ezechiel is brought to Hierusalem in the spirite. 6 The Lord sheweth the idolatries of the house of Israel, and chiefly of the priestes.

AND it was in the (a) sixt yere, in the fift (moneth) in the fift (day) of the moneth, I sate in my house and the elders of Iuda sate before me, and the hande of the Lorde God fell there vpon me. 2 Then I behelde, and lo (there was) a likenesse as the appearaunce of fire: from the appearaunce of his loynes downeward, fire: and from his loynes vpwarde as the appearaunce of brightnesse, lyke (the colour of) amber. 3 And he stretched out the lykenesse of an hande, and cooke me by an heeres locke of my head, and the spirite lift me vp betwixt earth and heauen, and (b) brought me in a diuine vision to Hierusalem, into the entry of the inner (c) gate that lyeth towarde the north, where remayned the "image of (d) emulation (and) of gayne. 4 And beholde, the glory of the God of Israel (was) in the same place, (euen) as I had seene it afore in the felde. 5 And he sayde vnto me, Thou sonne of man, lift vp thyne eyes nowe towarde the north: then lyft I vp myne eyes towarde the north, and beholde northwarde at the gate of the (e) auter this "image of emulation (was) in the entrye. 6 And he sayde furthermore vnto me, Thou sonne of man, seest thou not what these do? of Iſrael paynted vpon the wall rounde about. 11 There ſtoode alſo before the images three ſcore and ten men of the auncientes of the houſe of Iſrael, and in the middeſt of them ſtoode Jaazaniah the ſonne of Saphan, with euery man his cenſor in his hande, and the ſmoke of the incence aſcended as a cloude. 12 Then ſayde he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, haſt thou ſeene what the auncientes of the houſe of Iſrael do "ſecretly, euery one in the (g) chaumber of his imagerie? for they ſay, The Lorde ſeeth vs not, the Lorde hath forſaken the earth. 13 And he ſayd vnto me, Turne thee yet agayne, and thou ſhalt ſee greater abhominations that they do. 14 And with that he brought me to the doore of the gate of the Lordes houſe towarde the northe, and beholde there ſate women mourning for (h) Thammuz. 15 Then ſayd he vnto me, Haſt thou ſeene this thou ſonne of man? turne thee yet about, and thou ſhalt ſee greater abhominations then theſe are. 16 And ſo he brought me into the inwarde court of the Lordes houſe, and beholde at the doore of the Lordes houſe, betwixt the porche & the aulter, there were about twentie and fiue men that turned their backes vpon the temple of the Lorde, and their faces towarde the eaſt, and theſe worſhipped the ſunne eaſtward.

17 And he ſayd vnto me, Haſt thou ſeene (this) thou ſonne of man? Thinketh the houſe of Juda that it is but a trifle to do theſe abhominations whiche they do here? for they haue filled the lande full of wickednelle, and haue returned to prouoke me (to anger) and lo (i) they are putting the "braunches to their noſes. 18 Therefore wyll I alſo do ſomething in my wrathfull diſpleaſure, ſo that mine eye ſhall not ſpare them, neither wyll I haue pitie: yea and though they crye in myne eares with a loude voyce, yet wyll I not heare them.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1 The deſtruction of the citie. 4 They that ſhalbe ſaued are marked. 8 A complaynt of the prophete for the deſtruction of the people.

HE cryed alſo with a loude voyce in myne eares, ſaying, Drawe neare ye (a) viſitations of the citie, euery man with a deſtroying weapon in his hande. 2 And beholde, there came there (b) fiue men out of the ſtreete of the vpper gate towarde the northe, and euery man a ſlaughter weapon in his hand: There was one amongeſt them that had on him linnen rayment, and a writers (c) inckhorne by his ſide: theſe went in and ſtoode beſide the braſen aulter. 3 And the glory of the God of Iſrael was gone from the Cherub whereupon it was, to the dooze of the houſe: and he called to the man that had the linnen rayment vpon him, and the writers inckhorne by his ſide, 4 And the Lorde ſayde vnto him, Go thzough the middeſt of the citie, euen thzough the middeſt of Jeruſalem, and ſet a marke vpon the foreheades of them that mourne, and "are ſozy for all the abhominations that be done therin. 5 And to the other he ſayde that I might here, Go ye after him thzough the citie, and ſmyte, let youre eye ſpare none, neither haue ye any pitie: 6 Kyll and deſtroy both olde men and young, maydens, chyldren, and women: but as for all thoſe that haue the marke vpon them, ſee that ye touch them not, and begin at my ſanctuarie. Then they began at the auncient men whiche were before the houſe. 7 And he ſayd vnto them, Defile ye the temple, fill the courtes with the ſlayne, then go your way forth. So they went out, and ſlue downe thzough the citie.

8 Nowe when they had done the ſlaughter, and I yet eſcaped, I fell downe vpon my face, and cryed ſaying, Ah Lorde God, wilt thou then deſtroy all the reſidue of Iſrael, in powring out thy wrath vpon Jeruſalem? 9 Then ſayde he vnto me, The wickednelle of the houſe of Iſrael and Juda is exceeding great: ſo that the lande is full of blood, and the citie full of renolting (from God:) for they ſay, The Lorde hath forſaken the earth, and the Lorde ſeeth it not. 10 As touching me alſo, myne eye ſhall not ſpare them, neither wyll I haue pitie: but wyll recompence their wayes vpon their heades. 11 And beholde, the man that had the linnen rayment vpon him and the writers inckhorne by his ſyde, reported the matter, and ſayde, As thou haſt commaunded me, ſo haue I done.

Moreouer, the spirite lyft me vp, and brought me vnto the east gate of the Lordes house, which lyeth eastwarde: and beholde, at the entry of the gate (were) fiue and twentie men, among whom I sawe Jaazaniah the sonne of Azur, and Pheltiah the sonne of Banaiahu, the rulers of the people. 2 Then sayde he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, these men imagine mischiefe, and a wicked counsayle take they in this citie, 3 Saying, It is not neare, let vs buylde houses: this (Hierusalem) is the (a) cauldron, and we be the flesche. 4 Therefore shalt thou prophecie against them: yea prophecie O sonne of man. 5 And with that fell the spirite of the Lorde vpon me, and sayd vnto me, Speake, thus saith the Lorde: On this maner haue ye spoken (O ye house of Israel) & I knowe the imaginations of your heartes.

6 Many one haue ye murthered in this citie, and filled the streetes full of the slayne: 7 Therfore thus saith the Lorde God, The slayne men that ye haue layde in the middest of the (citie) are the (b) flesche, and this citie is the cauldron: but I will bryng you out of it. 8 Ye haue feared the swoꝛd, and I will bryng a swoꝛde ouer you, saith the Lorde God. 9 And I will bryng you out of the middest thereof, and deliuer you into the handes of straungers, and will execute iudgementes among you. 10 Ye shall fall by the swoꝛde, in the borders of (c) Israel will I iudge you, and ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde. 11 This citie shall not be your cauldron, neither shall ye be the flesche in the middest therof: but in the borders of Israel will I punishe you, 12 That ye may knowe that I am the Lorde, in whose commaundementes ye haue not walked, nor kept my lawes: but haue done after the customes of the heathen that ye rounde about you.

13 Nowe when I prophecied, (d) Pheltiah the sonne of Banaiah dyed: then fell I downe vpon my face, and cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Ah Lorde God, wylt thou then vtterly destroy all the remnaunt in Israel?

14 And so the woꝛde of the Lorde came vnto me on this maner.

15 Thou sonne of man, thy brethren (euen) thy brethren, the men of thy kinrede, and all the house of Israel, wholly (are they) vnto whom the inhabitaunters of Hierusalem haue said: (e) Withdraw ye farre from the Lord, for the land is geuen vs in possession.

16 Therefore (tell them) thus saith the Lorde God, Although I send them farre of among the gentiles, and scatter them among the nations, yet will I be to them as a litle (f) sanctuarie in the landes where they shall come.

17 Tell them also, thus saith the Lorde God, I will gather you agayne out of the nations, & bryng you from the countreys where ye be scattered, and I will geue you the lande of Israel agayne. 18 And they shall come thyther, and they shall take away all their idols, and all their abhominations from thence. 19 And I will geue them one heart, and I will put a new spirite within their bowels: that stonie heart will I take out of their body, and geue them a fleshly heart, 20 That they may walke in my commaundementes, and kepe myne ordinaunces and do them, that they may be my people, and I their God.

21 But to the heart of their idols and their abhominations their heart goeth, their wayes will I bryng vpon their owne heades, saith the Lorde God. 22 After this dyd the Cherubims lift vp their wynges and the wheeles beside them, & the glory of the God of Israel was vpon them on hye. 23 So the glory of the Lord went vp from the middest of the citie, and stoode vpon the mount of the citie towarde the east. 24 And the spirite toke me vp, and brought me agayne to Chaldea to the captiuitie, in a vision by the spirite of God: then the vision that I had seene went vp from me, 25 So I spake vnto the (g) captiues all the woꝛdes of the Lorde which he had shewed me.

9 Myne handes shall be vpon the prophetes that see vanities, and diuine lyes: they shall not be in the counsell of my people, nor written in the booke of the house of Israel, neither shall they come in the lande of Israel, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde God: 10 And that for because they haue deceaued my people, and tolde them of peace, where no peace was: one setteth vp a (b) wall, and they daube it with vntempered clay. 11 Therefore tell them whiche daube with vntempyed morter, that it shall fall: for there shall come a great showre of rayne, I will sende haylestones to cause it to fall, and a great storme of wynde shall breake it. 12 And lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not then be sayde vnto you, Where is nowe your "morter that ye daubed it withall? 13 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, I wyl cause a stormie wynde to breake out in my wrathfull displeasure, so that in myne anger there shall come a mightie showre of rayne, and haylestones in my wrath to destroy it. 14 As for the wall that ye haue daubed with vntempered morter, I will breake it downe, and make it euen with the grounde, so that the foundation therof shalbe discouered, and it shall fall: yea and ye your selues shall perishe in the middes therof, and ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde. 15 Thus wyl I perfourme my wrath vpon this wall, and vpon them that haue daubed it with (c) vntempered morter, and then will I say vnto you, The wall is gone, and the daubers of it.

16 (To wit) the prophetes of Israel, whiche prophecie vpon Hierusalem, and looke out visions of peace for it, whereas no peace is, saith the Lorde God. 17 Wherefore O thou sonne of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, whiche prophecie out of their owne hearres, and prophecie against them: 18 And say, thus saith the Lorde God, Woe be vnto them that sowe (d) pillowes vnder all arme holes, and put kerchifes vpon the heades of euery stature to hunt soules. Wyll ye hunt the soules of my people, and geue lyfe to the soules that (come) vnto you? 19 And wyll ye pollute me to my people for handfuls of barly, and for peeces of bread, to hyll the soules of them that dye not, and promise (e) lyfe to them that liue not, in lying to my people that heareth your lyes? 20 Wherefore thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde I wyll vpon your pillowes wherewith ye hunt the soules to (f) make them flee, and I wyl teare them from your armes, and wyll let the soules go, (euen) the soules that ye hunt to make them to flee. 21 Your kerchifes also wyll I teare in peeces, and deliuer my people out of your hands, so that they shall come no more in your handes to be hunted: and ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

22 Seeing that with your lyes you discomfort the heart of the righteous, whom I haue not discomforted: agayne, for somuche as ye encourage the hand of the wicked, so that he may not turne from his wicked way in promising hym lyfe: 23 Therefore shall ye see no more vanitie, neither shall ye diuine diuinations, for I will deliuer my people out of your hande, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

The xiiii. Chapter.

2 The Lorde denyeth his worde to the people for their sinnes sake.

THere resorted vnto me certayne of the elders of Israel, and sate downe by me. 2 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto me, saying, 3 Thou sonne of man, these men haue set vp their idols in their hearres, and put the stumbling blocke of iniquitie before their face: shoulde I then answere them at their request?

4 Therefore speake vnto them, and say vnto them, thus saith the Lorde God, Euery man of the house of Israel that setteth vp his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling blocke of his iniquitie before his face, and commeth to the prophete: vnto that man will I the Lorde my selfe geue aunswere when he commeth, according to the (a) multitude of his idols. 5 That the house of Israel may be snared in their (b) owne hearters, because they be cleane gone from me all of them thorowe their idols.

6 Wherfore tell the house of Israel, thus saith the Lorde God: Returne and cause (c) to returne from your idols, and turne your faces from all your abhominattons. 7 For euery man, whether he be of the house of Israel, or a straunger that sojourneth in Israel, whiche departeth from me, and setteth vp his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling blocke of his wickednesse before his face, and commeth to a prophete for to aske counsel at me through him: vnto that man will I the Lorde geue answere by myne owne selfe. 8 I will set my face against that man, and will make him to be an example (for other) yea and a common byworde, and will roote hym out of my people, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lord.

9 And if that prophete be deceaued when he telleth a thing, then I the Lorde my selfe haue deceaued that prophete, and will stretche out my hande vpon hym, to destroy hym out of my people of Israel: 10 And they shalbe punished for their wickednesse, according to the sinne of hym that asketh shall the sinne of the prophete be: 11 That the house of Israel may wander no more from me, neither be any more defiled in al their transgressions: but that they may be my people, and I their God, saith the Lorde God. 12 And the worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying, 13 Thou sonne of man, when the lande sinneth against me by committing a tresspasse, I will stretche out my hande vpon it, and breake their staffe of bread, and sende dearth vpon them, to destroy man and beast from of it. 14 And though Noe, Daniel, and Job, these three men were among them: yet shal they in their righteousnesse deliuer but their owne soules, saith the Lord God. 15 If I bring noysome beastes into the lande, and they spoyle it, & it be so desolate that no man may passe through it for beastes, 16 If these three men were also in the middest thereof: as truely as I liue saith the Lorde God, they shall saue neither sonnes nor daughters, but be only deliuered them selues: and as for the lande it shalbe waste. 17 Or if I bring a sworde vpon this lande, and say, Sworde go through the lande, so that I slay downe man and beast in it, 18 And if these three men were therein: as truely as I liue saith the Lorde God, they shall deliuer neither sonnes nor daughters, but onlye be "saued them selues. 19 If I sende a pestilence into this lande, and powre out my sore indignation vpon it in blood, so that I roote out of it both man and beast, 20 And if Noe, Daniel, and Job were "therein, as truely as I liue saith the Lorde God, they shall deliuer neither sonne nor daughter, but "saue their owne soules in their righteousnesse. 21 Moreouer thus saith the Lorde God, Howe much more when I sende my foure "troublous plagues vpon Hierusalem, the sworde, hunger, pestilous beastes, and pestilence, to destroy man and beast out of it? 22 Beholde there shalbe a remnaunt saued therein, whiche shal bring forth their sonnes and daughters, beholde they shall come forth vnto you, and ye shall see their way and their enterprise, and ye shalbe comforted concerning the euyll that I haue brought vpon Hierusalem (euen) concerning al that I haue brought vpon it. 23 They shall comfort you when ye shall see their way & workes: and ye shall knowe howe that it is not without a cause that I haue done all against Hierusalem as I dyd, saith the Lorde God.

¶ The. xvi. Chapter.

2 The prophete declareth the benefites of God towarde Hierusalem. 60 Mercy is promised to the repentaunt.

AGayne the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 2 Thou sonne of man, shewe Hierusalem their abhominations, 3 And say, Thus saith the Lorde God vnto Hierusalem: Thy habitation and kinred is of the lande of (a) Chanaan, thy father was an Amorite, thy mother an Hittite. 4 In the day of thy byrth (b) when thou wast borne, the string of thy nauel was not cut of, thou wast not bathed in water to " make thee cleane, thou wast not salted with salt, nor swadled in clowtes. 5 No eye pitied thee to do any of these thinges for thee, for to haue compassion vpon thee: but thou wast vtterly cast out vpon the fielde in contempt of thy person in the day of thy byrth. 6 Then came I by thee, and sawe thee defiled in thyne owne blood, and I sayd vnto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Liue, (euen) when thou wast in thy blood, I sayde vnto thee, Liue.

7 I caused thee to multiplie as the bud of the fielde, thou art growen vp, and waxen great, thou hast gotten a maruelous pleasaunt beautie, thy brestes are fashioned, thy heere is goodly growen, whereas thou wast naked and bare. 8 Nowe when I went by thee and looked vpon thee, behold thy tyme was come, yea (euen) the tyme to woo thee: then spread I my clothes ouer thee to couer thy (c) dishonestie, yea I made an othe vnto thee, and contracted my selfe with thee (saith the Lorde God) and so thou becamest myne owne. 9 Then washed I thee with water, & purged thy blood from thee, and I annointed thee with oyle. 10 I clothed thee with broydred worke, & shod thee with badgers skin, and I gyrded thee about with fine linnen, and couered thee with silke. 11 I decked thee with costly apparell, I put braselets vpon thy handes, a chayne about thy necke, 12 And I put a frontlet vpon thy face, and eareringes vpon thyne eares, and a beautifull crowne vpon thyne head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with golde and siluer, & thy rayment was of fine linnen, and of silke, and of broydred worke: thou dydst eate fine floure, honey, & oyle, maruelous beautifull wast thou, and thou dydst luckyly prosper into a kyngdome. 14 And thy name was spread among the heathen for thy beautie: for it was perfite through my beautie whiche I put vpon thee, saith the Lorde God. 15 But thou hast put thy confidence in thyne owne beautie, and played the harlot becawse of thy renowne, and hast (d) powred out thy fornications with euery one that went by, " thou wast his.

32 But as a wyfe that breaketh wedlocke, and taketh other in steade of her husbande. 33 Giftes are geuen to all other whores: but thou geuest rewardes vnto all thy louers, and rewardest them to come vnto thee on euery syde for thy fornication.

34 It is come to passe with thee in thy whordomes contrary to the vse of other women, yea there hath no such fornication ben committed after thee: seyng that thou geuest gyftes vnto other, and no rewarde is geuen thee, therefore thou art contrarye.

35 Therefore heare the worde of the Lord, O thou harlot. 36 Thus sayth the Lorde God, Because thou hast (i) powred out "thy brasse, and discouered thy filthinesse through thy fornications with thy louers, and with all the idols of thine abhominations, and in the blood of thy children whom thou hast geuen them: 37 Beholde therefore, I wyll gather together all thy (k) louers with whom thou hast taken pleasure, yea and all them whom thou hast loued, and euery one that thou hatest: I wyll (I say) gather them together rounde about agaynst thee, and wyll discouer thy shame before them, that they may see all thy filthinesse. 38 Moreouer, (l) I wyll iudge thee as a breaker of wedlocke and a murtherer, and recompence thee thyne owne blood in wrath and iealousie. 39 I wyll gene thee ouer into theyr handes, and they shall destroy thy hye place, and breake downe thy hye places, they shall strippe thee also out of thy clothes: thy fayre iewels shal they take from thee, and so leaue thee naked and bare. 40 Yea they shall bryng a compayne vppon thee, whiche shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with theyr swordes, 41 They shall burne vp thy houses with fyre, and punishe thee in the sight of many women: thus wyll I make thee cease from playing the harlot, so that thou shalt geue out no more rewardes. 42 So wyll I make my wrath towarde thee to rest, and my iealousie shall depart from thee, and I wyll ceasse, and be angry no more. 43 Seeyng thou remembrest not the dayes of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these thinges: behold therefore I wyll bryng thyne owne wayes vpon thy head sayth the Lorde God, so that (m) thou shalt not commit (any more) mischiefe vpon all thyne abhominations. 44 Beholde, al they that vse common prouerbes, shall vse this prouerbe also agaynst thee, saying, Such a (n) mother, such a daughter. 45 Thou art euen thy mothers owne daughter, that haue cast of her husbande and her children: yea thou art the sister of thy (o) sisters, whiche forsooke theyr husbandes and theyr children: your mother is an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after theyr wayes, nor done after theyr abhominations, as a litle and a litle: but in all thy wayes thou hast ben more corrupt then they. 48 As truely as I lyue, sayth the Lorde God, Sodoma thy sister with her daughters, haue not done as thou hast done and thy daughters. 49 Beholde, the sinnes of thy sister Sodoma were these: (q) Pryde, fulnesse of meate, and aboundaunce of idlenesse, these thinges had she and her daughters: besides that, they strengthed not the hand of the poore and needie. 50 But they

¶ The parable of the two Egles.

THe worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 2 Thou sonne of man, put forth a parable, and speake a prouerbe vnto the house of Israel, 3 And say, thus sayth the Lorde God, There came a great (a) Egle, with great wynges, yea with a mightie long body, and full of feathers of diuers colours, vpon the mount of Libanus, and tooke the hyest braunche of a Cedar tree, 4 And brake of the top of his twigges, and caried it into the land of (b) marchauntes, and set it in a citie of marchauntes. 5 He tooke also of the (c) seede of the lande, and planted it in a fruitefull grounde, he brought it vnto great waters, and set it in "an open trenche. 6 Then dyd it growe, and was a (d) spreading vine, but (e) lowe of stature, whose braunches turned towarde "it, and the rootes of it were vnder it: thus there came of it a vine, and it brought forth braunches, and shot forth buddes.

7 But there was another (f) Egle, a great one, whiche had great wynges and many feathers: and beholde the rootes of this vine turned towardes it, and spread out her braunches towardes it, that she myght water it by the trenches of her plantation.

8 It was planted vpon a good soyle beside great waters, so that it shoulde haue brought out braunches, & borne fruite, and haue ben a goodly vine.

9 Speake thou therefore, thus sayth the Lorde God, Shall this vine prosper? (g) shal he not pull vp the rootes thereof, and destroy the fruite therof, and cause them to dry? all the leaues of her bud shall wither without great power, or many people to plucke it vp by the rootes therof. 10 Behalde, it was planted: Shall it prosper therefore? Shall it not be dryed vp and withered? when the (h) east wynde shall touche it, it shall wyther in the trenches where it grewe.

11 Moreouer the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 12 Speake nowe to the rebellious house, knowe ye not what these thynges (do signifie?) Tell them, beholde the kyng of Babylon is come to Hierusalem, and hath taken the kyng thereof, and the princes therof, and hath led them with hym to Babylon. 13 He toke of the kynges seede, and made a couenaunt

¶ 4 He sheweth that euery man shall beare his owne sinne. 25 To him that amendeth, is saluation promised.

THe worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 2 What meane ye by this common prouerbe that ye vse in the lande of Israel, saying, The (a) fathers haue eaten sowre grapes, and the childrens teeth are set on edge? 3 As truely as I liue, saith the Lorde God, ye shall vse this prouerbe no more in Israel. 4 Beholde, all soules are mine: like as the soule of the father is myne, so is the soule of the sonne myne also: the soule that sinneth, shal dye it selfe. 5 But if a man be iust, and do that whiche is lawfull and right: 6 And hath not (b) eaten vpon the hilles, he hath not lyft his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbours wyfe, neither hath come neare a (c) woman remoued: 7 Neither hath oppressed any man, but hath restored to the debter his pledge: he that hath not spoyled any by violence, hath geuen his bread to the hungry, and hath clothed the naked: 8 And hath not geuen foorth vpon vsurye, neither taken any encrease, he hath withdrawne his hand from iniquitie, and hath executed true iudgement betweene man and man: 9 And hath walked in my statutes, and kept my iudgementes to deale truely: this is a righteous man, he shall surely lyue, saith the Lorde God. 10 If he nowe get a sonne that is a robber, a shedder of blood, & do any one of these things: 11 Though he do not al these things, but either hath eaten vpon the hilles, or defiled his neyghbours wyfe:

12 Or hath oppressed the poore and needye, or spoyled by violence, or hath not restored the pledge, or hath lyft vp his eyes vnto the idols, or hath committed abhomination: 13 Or hath geuen foorth vpon vsurie, or hath taken encrease: Shall this man lyue? he shall not lyue: Seeyng he hath done al these abhominations he shal dye the death, his blood shalbe vpon hym. 14 Nowe yf this man get a sonne also, that seeth al his fathers sinnes whiche he hath done, and feareth, neither doth such like: 15 (Namely) that hath not eaten vppon the hylls, neither hath lyft vp his eyes to the 18 For seeyng he hath despised the oth and broken the couenaunt, (wherein he yet gaue his (i) hande therupon) and done all these thynges, he shall not escape. 19 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, As truely as I liue, I will bryng myne othe that he hath despised, and my couenaunt that he hath broken, vpon his owne head.

20 I will spreade my net vpon him, and he shalbe caught in my net: and I will bryng hym to Babylon, and enter into iudgement with him there, for the trespasse whiche he hath committed agaynst me. 21 As for those that flee from him, with all his hoast, they shalbe slayne with the swoorde, and the residue shalbe scattered towardes all the windes: and ye shall knowe that I the Lorde haue spoken it. 22 Thus saith the Lorde God, I will also take of the top of this hye Cedar, and will set it, and cut of the top of the tender plant thereof, and will plant it vpon an hye hyll and a great. 23 (Namely) vpon the hye hyll of Israel will I plant it, that it may bryng foorth bowes, and geue fruite, and be an excellent Cedar: and vnder it shall remayne all byrdes, and euery foule shall remayne vnder the shadowe of the braunches thereof.

24 And al the trees of the feeld shall know that I the Lorde haue brought downe the hye tree, and exalted the lowe tree, that I haue dryed vp the greene tree, and made the drye tree to flourysshe, (euen) I the Lord that spake it, haue also brought it to passe.

18 As for his father, because he hath cruelly oppressed and spoyled his brother by violence, and hath not done good among his people, lo he dyeth in his owne sinne. 19 And yet say ye, Wherefore then shoulde not this sonne beare his fathers sinne? Because the sonne hath done iudgement and ryghteousnesse, he hath kept all my statures and done them: therfore shall he lyue in deede. 20 The same soule that sinneth shall dye, the sonne shall not beare the fathers iniquitie, neither shall the father beare the sonnes iniquitie: the ryghteousnesse of the righteous shalbe vpon him, and the wickednesse of the wycked shalbe vpon hym selfe also. 21 But yf the vngodly will turne away from al his sinnes that he hath done, and kepe all my statutes, and do the thyng that is iudgement and ryght, doubtlesse he shall lyue and not dye. 22 As for all his sinnes that he dyd before, they shall not be mentioned vnto hym: but in his ryghteousnesse that he hath done he shall lyue. 23 For haue I any pleasure in the death of a sinner, sayth the Lorde God? shall he not lyue yf he returne from his wayes?

2. Pet. 3. b. Ezech. 33. b

24 Agayne yf the ryghteous turne from his ryghteousnesse, and do iniquitie, and shall do accordyng to al the abhominations that the wycked man doth: shall he lyue? All the ryghteousnes that he hath done shall not be remembred, but in his transgression that he hath committed, in his sinne that he hath sinned, in them he shall dye. 25 And yet ye say, The way of the Lorde is not (d) indifferent. Heare therfore ye house of Israel, is not my way equall? or are not your wayes rather vnequall? 26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousnes, and committeth iniquitie, and dyeth in the same: in his iniquitie whiche he hath committed shall he dye. 27 Agayne, when the wicked turneth away from his wyckednesse that he hath done, and doth iudgment and right, he shal saue his soule aliue.

28 Because he "seeth and turneth away from all his iniquitie that he hath committed, he shall surely lyue, and not dye. 29 And yet sayth the house of Israel, The way of the Lorde is not equall. Are not my wayes equall O ye house of Israel? are not your wayes rather vnequall?

" Confydereth or remembreth his iniquities.

30 Therefore I will iudge you, euerye man accordyng to his wayes, O ye house of Israel sayth the Lorde God, returne and bring againe others from all your wyckednesse, so iniquitie shall not be your destruction.

31 Cast away from you al your transgressions whereby ye haue transgressed, and make you a newe heart and a newe spirite: for why will ye dye O ye house of Israel? 32 Seing I haue no pleasure in the death of hym that dyeth sayth the Lorde God, "bring agayne your selues then, and ye shall lyue.

" or, cause therefore one another to returne.

¶ The. xx. Chapter.

¶ 3 The Lorde denyeth that he will aunſwere them when they pray, for the offence of vnkyndneſſe whiche he here obiecteth.

(a) Of the captiuitie of Iconias.

IN the (a) ſeuenth yere the tenth day of the fyrſt moneth, certayne of the elders of Israel came for to aſke counſayle at the Lorde, and ſate downe before me. 2 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto me, ſaying, 3 Thou ſonne of man, ſpeake vnto the elders of Israel, and ſay vnto them, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Are ye come to enquire of me? As truely as I lyue I " will not be ſought of you, ſayth the Lorde God. 4 Wylt thou iudge them ſonne of man, wylt thou iudge (them?) cauſe them to vnderſtande the abhominations of theyr fathers. 5 And tel them, thus ſaith the Lorde God, In the day when I chose Israel, and (b) lyft vp myne hande vpon the ſeede of the houſe of Iacob, and was knowen vnto them in the lande of Egypt, yea when I lyft vp myne hande ouer them, and ſayde, I am the Lorde your God:

" or, when I am aſked, I will not anſwere.

(b) This was a maner of ſwearyng whiche was obſerued in takyng an othe of all antiquitie, & is yet in dyuers countreys vſed.

6 Euen in the day that I lyft vp mine hand vnto them, to bring them out of the lande of Egypt into a lande that I had prouided for them, whiche floweth with mylke and hony, and is pleaſaunt among all other landes:
7 Then ſayde I vnto them, Caſt away euery man the abhominations of his eyes, and defile not your ſelues with the idols of Egypt: for I am the Lorde your God. 8 But they rebelled agaynſt me, and wolde not hearken vnto me, they dyd not caſt away euery man the abhominations of his eyes, neither dyd they forſake the idols of Egypt: then I ſayd, I woulde powre out myne indignation ouer them, and accomplyche my wyrath vpon them, yea euen in the myddeſt of the land of Egypt. 9 And I wrought for my names ſake that it ſhoulde not be polluted before the heathen among whom they were, to whom I was manifeſtly knowen, in bryngyng them forth of the lande of Egypt.
10 Nowe when I had cauſed them to go out of the lande of Egypt, and brought them into the wyldernelle:
11 I gaue them my ſtatutes, and shewed them my iudgementes: whiche who ſo doeth, ſhall lyue in them.
12 I gaue them alſo my Sabbath dayes to be a token betwixt me and them, and thereby to knowe that I am the Lorde whiche halowe them.
13 And yet the houſe of Israel rebelled agaynſt me in the wyldernelle, they would not walke in my ſtatutes, they haue caſt away my iudgementes: which who ſo doeth, ſhall lyue in them, and my Sabbath dayes haue they greatly polluted: then I ſayde, I woulde powre out myne indignation vpon them, and conſume them in the wyldernelle. 14 And I wrought for my names ſake, leſt it ſhoulde be defiled before the heathen, in whoſe ſight I brought them out. 15 Yet neuertheleſſe I lift vp my hande vnto them in the wyldernelle, that I woulde not bryng them into the lande whiche I gaue them, that floweth with mylke & hony, and is a pleaſure of all landes:
16 And that becauſe they caſt away my iudgementes, and walked not in my ſtatutes: but haue defiled my Sabbathes: for theyr heart was gone after theyr idols. 17 Neuertheleſſe myne eye ſpared them, ſo that I would not deſtroy them, nor conſume them in the wyldernelle. 18 Moreouer, I ſayde vnto theyr ſonnes in the wyldernelle, Walke not in the ſtatutes of your (c) fathers, kepe not theyr iudgementes, and defyle not your ſelues with theyr idols. 19 I am the Lorde your God, walke in my ſtatutes, kepe my iudgementes, and do them. 20 Halow my Sabbathes, for they are a token betwixt me and you:

you, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde your God. 21 Notwithstanding, they[e] sonnes rebelled agaynst me also, they walked not in my statutes, they kept not my iudgementes to fulfyll them, which he that doth shall lyue in them, they prophaned my Sabbath dayes, and I sayde, I woulde powre out myne indignation ouer them, and accomplyshe my wrath vpon them in the wylderneſſe. 22 Neuertheleſſe I withdrewe my hande, and wrought for my names sake, leſt it shoulde be defiled in the sight of the heathen, before whom I had brought them forth. 23 I lyft vp my hande to them also in the wylderneſſe, that I woulde scatter them among the heathen, and strawe them among the nations: 24 Because they had not kept my iudgementes, but cast aſyde my statutes, and broken my Sabbathes, and they[r] eyes were after they[r] fathers idols. 25 Wherefore I[e] gaue them also statutes that were not good, and iudgementes wherein they shoulde not liue. 26 And I defiled them in they[r] owne giftes, in that they[f] caused all that openeth the wombe to paſſe, that I myght destroy them, that they might know how that I am the Lord. 27 Therfore speake vnto the house of Israel thou sonne of man, and thou shalt say vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, Yet in this also your fathers haue blaſphemed me, and greeuously transgreſſed agaynst me: 28 For after I had brought them into the lande, for the which I lifted vp my hande to geue it vnto them, when they sawe euery hye hyll, and all thycke trees, they offered there they[r] sacrifices, and there they[r] presented their offering of[g] anger, there also they made they[r] sweete sauours, and powred out they[r] wine offeryngs. 29 And I said vnto them, What is that hye place wherevnto ye resayt? and the name of it is called[h] Bamah vnto this day. 30 Wherfore speake vnto the house of Israel, thus sayth the Lorde God, Are ye not defyled in the wayes of your fathers, and commit ye not whordome after they[r] abhominations? 31 For when ye offer your giftes, and make your sonnes to paſſe through the fyre, you are polluted with all your idols vnto this day: shall I aunswere you when I am asked, O house of Israel? As I lyue sayth the Lorde God, I *will not be sought of you. 32 And (that whiche) commeth into your mynde shal not be at all, which you say, We wyll be as the gentiles, as the kinredes of countreys, to serue wood and stone.

33 As truely as I liue sayth the lord God, I my selfe wyll rule you with a myghtie hande, with a stretched out arme, and with indignation powred out ouer you. 34 And I wyll bryng you from the people, and gather you out of the countreys wherein ye are scattered, with a myghtie hande, with a stretched out arme, and with indignation powred out. 35 And I wyll bryng you into the (i) wyldernesse of the people, and there I(k) will be iudged with you face to face. 36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wyldernes of Egypt: so will I pleade with you also, sayth the Lorde God. 37 I will cause you to paſſe vnder the rodde, and I will bryng you into the bonde of the couenaunt. 38 And I will *purge out of you the rebels, and them that transgresse agaynst me, and bryng them out of the lande of they[r] habitation: as for the lande of Israel they shall not come in it, that you may knowe howe that I am the Lorde. 39 As for you O house of Israel, thus sayth the Lorde God, Go you and serue euery man his idols, seeing that ye obey not me: and pollute no more my holy name with your gyftes and your idols. 40 For vpon my holy hyll, euen vpon the hye hyll of Israel sayth the Lorde God, shall all the house of Israel, and all that is in the land worship me: and in the same place will I fauour them, and there will I require your heaue offerings, and the firſtlinges of your oblations, with all your holy thynges. 41 I will accept your sweete sauour, when I bryng you from the nations, and gather you together out of the landes wherein ye haue ben scattered, that I may be halowed in you before the heathen. 42 And ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde, when I shall bryng you into the lande of Israel, into the lande for the whiche I lyft vp my hande to geue it vnto your fathers.

43 There shall ye call to remembraunce your owne wayes, and all your workes wherein ye haue ben defiled, and ye shalbe cut of in your (l) owne sight for all your wyckednesse that ye haue done. 44 And ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde, when I deale

(l) Your owne conſciences ſhall condempne you as worthy to be cut of from the earth.

I deale with you for my names sake, and not after your wycked wayes, nor accordyng to your corrupt workes O ye house of Israel, sayth the Lorde God. 45 Moreouer, the word of the lord came vnto me, saying, 46 Thou sonne of man, set thy face towarde the way of (m) Themanah, and drop (thy worde) towarde the (n) south, and prophecie toward the forrest of the south feelde, 47 And say to the forrest of the south, Heare the worde of the Lorde, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde I wyl kyndle a fyre in thee, that shall consume all the (o) greene trees, with all the dry: the continuall flame shall not be quenched, and euery face from the south to the north shalbe burnt therein. 48 And all flesche shall see that I the Lorde haue kindled it, and it shall not be quenched.

49 Then sayd I, Ah Lorde God, they say of me, Doth not he speake (p) parables?

The. xxi. Chapter.

¶ 3 He threatneth the sworde, that is to say, destruction to the citie of Hierusalem.

THe worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face towarde Hierusalem, and (a) drop (thy worde) towarde the holy places, and prophecie against the lande of Israel. 3 Say to the lande of Israel, thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde I am agaynst thee, and wyll drawe my swoorde out of the sheath, and cut of from thee both the (b) righteous and the wycked. 4 Seing then that I wyll cut of from thee both the ryghteous and the wycked: therefore shall my sworde go out of his sheath agaynst all flesche from the (c) south to the north, 5 That all flesche may knowe howe that I the Lorde haue drawne my swoorde out of the sheath, and it shall not be put in agayne.

6 Mourne therefore O thou sonne of man, yea (euen) with the (d) breaking of thy loynes, mourne bitterly in their presence. 7 And yf they say vnto thee, Wherefore mourneſt thou? Then tell them, For the tydynges that commeth: All hearttes shal melt, all handes shalbe letten downe, all stomaches shall faynt, and all knees shall go as water: beholde it commeth, and shalbe brought to passe, sayth the Lorde God. 8 Agayne, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying. 9 Thou sonne of man, prophecie and speake, thus sayth the Lorde God, Speake, the sworde the sworde is sharpened and well furbished. 10 Sharpened is it to make a great slaughter, and furbished that it may glitter: Shall we then make myrth? It contemneth the (e) rodde of my sonne (as) (f) all other trees.

11 He hath geuen it to be furbished, to holde it in the hande: this sworde is sharpened, and furbished, to geue it into the handes of the (g) slayer.

12 Crye and houle sonne of man, for it commeth vpon my people (it commeth) vpon all the princes of Israel: the terrours of the sworde shalbe vpon my people, smyte therefore thou vpon thy thygh. 13 Because it is a tryall: and what yf (h) it contemne the rodde? it shalbe no more sayth the Lorde God. 14 Prophecie thou sonne of man, and smyte thy (i) handes together, and let the sworde be doubled thryse, (euen) the sworde of the great slaughter, entryng into their priuie chaumbers. 15 To make them faint at the hearttes, and to multiplie their falles, in all their gates haue I geuen the terrour of the sworde: Ah it is made bryght, and dressed for the slaughter. 16 Get thee (k) one way or other, either vpon the ryght hande or vpon the left, whithersoeuer thy face turneth. 17 I wyll smyte my handes together also, and make my wrathfull indignation to rest: euen I the Lorde haue sayde it. 18 The worde of the Lorde came yet vnto me agayne, saying,

19 Thou sonne of man, appoynt thee two (l) wayes, that the sworde of the king of Babylon may come: both these wayes shal go out of one lande, and choose thee a place, at the head of the cities wayes choose it. 20 Appoynt a way that the sword may come towarde Rabbath of the Ammonites, and towarde (m) Iuda in the defenced Hierusalem. 21 For the king of Babylon stoode at the (n) partyng of the wayes, at the head of the two wayes, consultyng by diuination, he made his arrowes bryght, consulted with images, & looked in the liuer. 22 At his ryght hande was the soothsaying for Hierusalem, to appoynt captaynes, to open (their) mouth to the slaughter, and to lyft vp their voyce with the alarum, to set battle rammes agaynst the gates, to caste a bulwarke (and) to burlde a fort.

23 And

(a) To wyt, the south.
(b) That is, toward Hierusalem and Iuda, which was south from Babylon.
(c) That is, both strong and weake in Hierusalem.
(d) Because the people sayd that the prophete spake darkely, therefore he desireth the Lorde to geue them a playne declaration thereof,
(e) Meanyng the scepter, shewing that it will not spare the king, who should be as the sonne of God, and in his place.
(f) That is, the rest of the people.
(g) To wyt, vnto the armie of the Chaldeans.
(h) Meanyng the sword of the kyng of Babylon, whiche shall not spare the scepter of Iuda.
(i) That is, encourage the sworde.
(k) He speaketh vnto the sworde, geuyng it libertie to raunge at his pleasure.
(l) Where the way diuideth and leadeth to many cities.
(m) The tribe of Iuda that kept them selues cheefely in Hierusalem.
(n) To know whether he should go agaynst the Ammonites or them of Hierusalem.

23 And it shalbe vnto them as a false diuination in theyr sight, for ths (q) othes made vnto them: but (r) he wyll call to remembraunce theyr iniquitie, to the intent they may be taken. 24 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Because ye haue made your iniquitie to be remembred in discoueryng your transgressions, so that in all your workes your sinnes might appeare, because ye are come to remembrance, ye shalbe taken by hande.
25 O thou (s)wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come, euen when wickednesse shall haue an ende, 26 Thus sayth the Lord God, I wyll take away the (t) diademe, and put of the crowne: this shalbe no more the same, I wyll exalt the humble, and abase him that is hye. 27 Ouerthro-wen, ouerthrowen, ouerthrowen wyll
I put (v) it, and it shall not be, vntyl he come to whom the iudgement belongeth, and to whom I haue geuen it.
28 And thou O sonne of man, prophecie and speake, Thus sayth the Lorde God to the children of Ammon, and to theyr blasphemie, speake thou, The sworde, the sworde is drawen foorth alredy to slaughter, and furbished to consume because of the glitterynge: 29 Whyles they see vnto thee vanitie, and diuine a lye vnto thee, to put thee with the neckes of the wicked that be slayne, whose day is come when their iniquitie shal haue an ende. 30 Shoulde I cause it to returne into his sheath? In the place where thou wast created, in the lande of thine habitation wyl I iudge thee:
31 And I wyll powre myne indignation vpon thee, and wyll blowe vpon thee in the fyre of my wrath, and dely-uer thee into the handes of desperate people, whiche are skylful to destroy.
32 Thou shalt feede the fyre, and thy blood shalbe shed in the myddest of the lande: thou shalt be put out of remembraunce, for I the Lorde haue spoken it.

The.xxii. Chapter.

¶ The worde of the Lorde agaynst Hierusalem for manslaughter, and denying due honour to theyr fathers and mothers, and other wyckednesse.

MOreouer the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, and sayde,
2 Thou sonne of man, wylt thou not (a) iudge, wylt thou not iudge this bloodthy citie? wylt thou not shewe her all her abhominations? 3 And tell them, thus sayth the Lorde God, The citie sheddeth blood in the myddest of it, that her (b) tyme may come, and maketh idols (c) against her selfe, to defile her selfe. 4 Thou hast made thy selfe giltie in the blood that thou hast shed, and defyled thee in the idols whiche thou hast made: thou hast caused thy dayes to drawe nye, and made the tyme of thy yeres to come: therefore wyll I make thee a reproche among the heathen, and to be a mockyng in all landes. 5 Whether they be nye or farre from thee, they shall laugh thee to scorne, thou that hast gotten thee so foule a name, and art full of trouble. 6 Beholde the rulers of Israel, euery one in thee (was redye) to his power to shed blood. 7 In thee haue they dispised father and mother, in thee haue they oppressed the stranger, in thee haue they vexe-ed the wyddowe and the fatherlesse.
8 Thou hast dispised my holye thynges, and defiled my Sabbathes.
9 "Tale tellers are there in thee to 10 In thee they discouered theyr fathers shame, in thee they haue humbled her that was set apart for pollution. 11 Euery man hath defyle shamefully with his neighbours wyfe, & abhominably defiled his "daughter in lawe, in thee hath euery man forced his owne sister, euen his fathers daughter. 12 Yea gyftes haue ben receaued in thee to shed blood, thou hast taken vsurie and increase, thou hast oppressed thy neighbours by extortion, and forgotten me, sayth the Lorde God. 13 Beholde, I haue (d) smytten my handes vpon thy cou-tousnesse that thou hast vsed, and vp-on the blood whiche hath ben (shed) in the myddest of thee. 14 Is thy heart able to endure? or may thy handes be strengthened in the dayes that I shall haue to do with thee? euen I the Lorde that speake it, wyll dyng it also to passe. 15 I wyll scatter thee among the heathen, & strawe thee abonein the landes, and wyll cause thy filthynesse to (e) ceasse out of thee. 16 Yea and thou shalt be thine

(f) owne inheritaunce in the sight of the heathen, that thou mayest knowe that I am the Lorde. 17 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying.

(q) Because there was a league betweene the Iewes and the Babylonians, they of Hierusalem shall thynke nothyng lesse then that this thing shall come to passe.
(r) That is, Nabuchodonozor wil remember the rebellion of Zedekias, & so come vpon them.
(s) Meanyng Zepekias.
(t) Some referre this to the priestes attire, for Iehozadek the priest went into captiuitie with the kyng.
(v) That is, the state of the kingdom & priesthood shall euer more and more decay till Christe come, vnto whom of right both belong.

(a) That is, wylt thou wynke at suche horrible faultes, and not vtter my iudgementes against the?

(d) As sorowyng & lamentyng theyr wickednesse: or in token of his wrath & vengeaunce.

(e) I wyll take away the occasion of thy wyckednesse.
(f) Whereas before thou wast gods inheritaunce, nowe thou shalt be left to thy selfe miserable & forsaken.

saying, 18 Thou sonne of man, the house of Israel is vnto me as dosse: all they are brasse, tinne, iron, & lead in the middest of the furnace, euen dosse of siluer are they. 19 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Forasmuch as ye all are turned into dosse, therefore beholde I wyl bryng you together vnto Hierusalem.

20 Like as they gather siluer, brasse, iron, tinne, and lead into the middest of the furnace, and the fyre is blowne there vnder to melt them: euen so wyll I gather you in myne anger and in my wrath, and let you remayne (there) and cause you to (g) melt.

21 I wyll bryng you together, & blow the fyre of my wrath vpon you, and ye shalbe molten in the middest thereof. 22 Like as the siluer is molten in the middest of the furnace, so shall ye also be molten therein, that ye may knowe how that I the Lord haue powred my wrath vpon you. 23 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying. 24 Thou sonne of man, tell her, Thou art an vncleane lande, whiche is not (h) rayned vpon in the day of wrath. 25 There is a (i) conspiracie of her prophetes in the middest thereof: as a roring lion rauenyng his pray they deuoure soules, they haue taken the riche and pretious thinges, they haue made her many wyddowes in the middest thereof. 26 Her priestes haue broken my lawe, and defiled my holy thinges, they put no difference betweene the holy and vnholy, neyther discerne they betweene the cleane and vncleane: they turne their eyes from my sabbathes, and I am defiled among them. 27 Thy rulers in the middest of thee are lyke woolues rauenyng the pray, to shed blood, and destroy soules for their owne couetous lucre. 28 As for her (k) prophetes, they daube with vntempered morter, they see vanities, and diuine lyes vnto them, saying, The Lorde sayth so: whereas the Lorde hath not spoken. 29 The people in the lande vsed wicked extortion and robbery, they vexe the poore and needy, and oppresse the straunger agaynst ryght. 30 And I sought among them for a man that would (l) make vp the hedge, and set him selfe in the gap before me in the landes behalfe that I shoulde not destroy it: but I could finde none. 31 Therefore haue I powred out my cruell displeasure vpon them, & consumed them in the fyre of my wrath: their owne wayes wyll I recompence vpon their heads, saith the Lorde God.

¶ The .xxiii. Chapter.

4 Of the fornication, that is to say, of the idolatrie of Samaria and Hierusalem, vnder the name of Aholah & Aholibah.

THe worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying, 2 Thou sonne of man, there were two women the daughters of (a) one mother. 3 And they committed fornication in (b) Egypt, they played the harlottes in their youth: there were their brestes prested, and there they bruised the tetes of their virginitie. 4 The (c) names of them (were) Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister, and they were myne, and they bare sonnes and daughters: thus (were) their names, Samaria is Aholah, and Hierusalem Aholibah. 5 Aholah played the harlot (d) when she was myne, and she was set on fyre with her louers the Assyrians her neighbours: 6 Whiche were clothed with blewe silke, (both) captaynes and princes, they were all pleasaunt young men, and horsemen rydyng vpon horses.

7 Thus she committed her whordome with them (beyng) all chosen men of Assur, and with all on whom she doted, and defiled her selfe with all their idols. 8 Neither left she the fornication that she vsed with the Egyptians: for in her youth they (e) lay with her, they bruised the brestes of her maydenhead, and powred their whordome vpon her. 9 Wherefore I deliuered her into the handes of her louers (euen) into the handes of the Assyrians vpon whom she doted. 10 These discouered her shame, toke her sonnes and daughters, and slue her with the sworde, an euyll name had she among women: for they had executed iudgement vpon her.

11 Her sister Aholibah sawe this, and destroyed her selfe with inordinate loue more then she, and with her fornications, more then her sister with her fornications. 12 She doted vpon the Assyrians captaynes and princes her neighbours, clothed with all maner of gorgious apparell, horsemen rydyng vpon horses, beyng all pleasaunt young men. 13 Then I sawe that she was defiled, and they toke both one way. 14 But she encreased still in whordome: for when she sawe men paynted vpon the wall,

(a) Meanyng Israel and Iuda, which came both out of one familie.

(b) They became idolaters after the maner of the Egyptians.

(c) Aholah signifieth a mansion or dwellyng in her selfe, meanyng Samaria, which was the royall citie of Israel, and Aholibah signifieth, My mansion in her, whereby is ment Hierusalem, where gods temple was.

(d) Or, vnder me, that is, vnder my gouernance, and named the people of God: they became idolaters, forsoke God, & put their trust in the Assyrians.

(e) The holy ghost vseth these termes which seeme straunge to chaste eares, to cause this wicked vice of idolatrie so to be abhorred, that vnneth any shuld abyde to heare the name thereof mentioned.

(g) Meaning thereby that the godlye shoulde be tried, & the wicked destroyed.

(h) Thou art like a baren lande which the Lorde plagueth with drought.

(i) The false prophetes haue conspired together to make their doctrine more probable.

1.King.22.b.

(k) They whiche should haue reproued them, flatteried them in their vices, and couered their doings with lyes. Ezec.13.b.

(l) Whiche would shewe himselfe zelous in my cause by reuealing vice. Ezec.22.c. & 13.a. and also pray vnto me to withholde my plagues. Psalm.106.d

(f) This declareth that no wordes are able sufficiently to expresse the rage of idolaters, and therfore the holy ghost here compareth them to those which in their raging loue & filthie lustes dote vppon the images and paynynges of them after whom they lust.

the (f) images of the Chaldees painted with vermilion, 15 And girded with girdles vppon their loynes, and with dyed attyre vpon their heades, lokyng all lyke princes, after the maner of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the lande where they were borne. 16 Assoone as she sawe them, she burnt in loue vpon them, and sent messengers vnto them into the land of the Chaldees. 17 Nowe when the Babylonians came vnto her in the bed of loue, they defiled her with their whordom: and so was she polluted with them, and her lust was abated from them.

18 And she discouered her whordome, and discloſed her shame: then my heart forsoke her, lyke as my heart was gone from her sister also.

19 Neuertheleſſe, she encreased her whordome more, and remembred the dayes of her youth wherein she had played the harlot in the lande of Egypt. 20 She burnt in lust vppon their lechers, whose flesthe was lyke the flesthe of asses, and their issue lyke the issue of horses. 21 Thus thou hast called to remembraunce the filthynes of thy youth, when thy teates were bruised by the Egyptians, for the pappes of thy youth. 22 Therefore O Aholibah, thus sayth the Lord God, I will rayse vp thy louers against thee from whom thy heart is departed, and gather them together against thee on euery side, 23 (Namely) the Babylonians and all the Chaldees, "rulers, wealthie and mightie men, with all the Assyrians, all pleasaunt young men, captaynes & princes, all valiaunt and renowmed ryding vpon horses. 24 These shall come vpon thee with charrettes, wagons, and wheeles, and great multitude of people, with buckler, shielde, and helmet they shall beset thee on euery side: "I will geue iudgement before them, yea they them selues shall iudge thee according to their owne iudgement. 25 I will lay mine indignation vppon thee, so that they shall deale cruelly with thee: they shal cut of thy nose and thyne eares, and thy remnaunt shall fall by the sword, they shall cary away thy sonnes and daughters, and the reſsoue shalbe deuoured by the fyre. 26 They shall strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fayre iewels. 27 Thus will I make thy wickednes to ceasse from thee, & thy fornication out of the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt turne thyne eyes no more after them, and cast thy mynde no more vpon Egypt.

" Or, Pehod, and Shoah, and Koa.

" Or, I will leaue the punishment vnto them.

28 For thus saith the Lord god, Beholde I will deliuer thee into the handes of them whom thou hatest, yea euen into the handes of them for whom thyne heart is departed.

29 And they shal deale hatefully with thee, and take away all thy (g) labour, and leaue thee naked and bare, and the shame of thy fornications (h) shalbe discouered, both thy wickednesse and thy whordome. 30 I will do these thinges vnto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols. 31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister, therefore will I geue her cup into thyne hande. 32 Thus sayth the lord God, Thou shalt drinke of thy sisters cup deepe & large, thou shalt be laughed to scorne, and had in derision, because it conteyneth much.

(g) All the treasures and riches which thou hast gotten by labour,

(h) All the worlde shall see thy shamefull forsakyng of God to serue idols.

33 Thou shalt be filled with (i) drunkennesse and sorowe (euen) with the cup of destruction & desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

(i) Meaning that the afflictions should be so great, that they should cause them to loose their senses and reason.

34 Thou shalt drynke it and suche it out, & thou shalt breake the sheardes therof, and teare thine owne brestes: for I haue spoken it, sayth the Lorde God. 35 Therefore thus sayth the Lord God, For asmuch as thou hast forgotten me, & cast me alde behinde thy backe, so beare nowe thyne owne wickednes and whordome. 36 The Lorde sayd moreouer vnto me, Thou sonne of man, wilt thou not iudge Aholah and Aholibah? shew them their abhominations. 37 (Namely) that they haue broken their wedlocke, and blood is in their handes: and with their idols haue they committed aduulterie, and haue also caused their sonnes whom they bare vnto me, to passe (by the fyre) to be their (k) meate.

(k) That is, to be sacrifices to their idols, Reade Ezech. xvi, 6.

38 Yea and this haue they done vnto me also, they haue defiled my sanctuarie in the same day, and haue prophaned my sabbathes. 39 For when they had slaine their children for their idols, they came the same day into my sanctuarie to defile it: & lo thus haue they done in the middest of myne house. 40 And howe much more (is it) that they sent for men to come from (l) farre, vnto whom a messenger was sent, and lo they came? for whom thou didst washe thy selfe, & paynted thyne eies, & deckedst thee with ornaments. 41 Thou sattest vpon a stately bed, and a (m) table spread before it, wherupon thou hast

(l) They sent into other countreys to haue such as should teache them the seruice of their idols.

(m) He meaneth the aulter that was prepared for the idols.

thou hast set myne incense and myne oyle. 42 And a noyse of a mery company at "it, and with the men, besyde the multitude of the people, were brought men of Saba out of the desart, which gaue them bracelettes vpon their handes, & beautiful crownes vpon their heades. 43 And I sayde vnto her that was wexne in her adulteries, Nowe shall her fornications come to an ende, & she also. 44 And they went in to her as they go vnto a common harlot: euen so went they to Aholah and Aholibah those wicked women. 45 And the ryghteous men they shall iudge them after the maner of harlottes, and after the maner of murtherers: for they are harlottes, and blood is in their handes.

"Or, the table.

49 And so they shal lay your wickednesse vpon your owne selues, and the sinnes of your idols shall ye beare: and ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde God.

¶ The .xxiiii. Chapter.

3 He proueth the firing of Hierusalem by a parable of a seething pot.

IN the (a) ninth yere, in the tenth monneth, the tenth day of the (b) moneth, came the worde of the Lorde vnto me, saying, 2 O thou sonne of man, wryte thee the name of this day, yea euen of this present day: for the kyng of Babylon set him selfe against Hierusalem this selfe same day. 3 And shewe the rebellious house a parable, and speake vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, Prepare a (c) pot, set it on, and powre water into it. 4 Gather the (d) peeces thereof into it, euery good peece, the thigh and the shoulder, and fyll it with the chiefe bones. 5 Take one of the best sheepe, "and burne also bones vnder it: let it boyle well, and let the bones thereof seethe wel therin. 6 With that sayde the Lord God on this maner, Wo vnto the bloodthirstie citie, to the pot whose scumme is therin, and whose scumme is not gone out of it: bryng it out (e) peece by peece, let no (f) lot fall vpon it. 7 For her blood is in the middest of it, vppon a bygh (g) drye stone hath she powred it: and not vpon the grounde, that it myght be couered with dust. 8 That it myght cause wrath to aryse, and take vengeance: I haue set her blood vpon a high (drye) rocke, that it should not be couered. 9 Wherefore thus sayth the Lorde God, O wo be vnto the bloodthirstie citie, for whom euen I my selfe wyll make a great fyre,

¶ The .xxv. Chapter.

1 The worde of the Lorde vppon the ſonnes of Ammon, which reioyced at the fall of Hieruſalem. 8 Agaynſt Moab and Seir, agaynſt Idumea, agaynſt the Philiſtines.

THe woꝛde of the Lozd came vnto me, saying, 2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face toward the Ammonites, and prophecie vppon them.

3 And say vnto the Ammonites, Heare the woꝛde of the Lozde God, thus sayth the Lozd God, Foꝛsomuch as thou saydest (a) Waha ouer my sanctuarie because it was polluted, and ouer the lande of Iſrael because it was desolate, and ouer the house of Iuda because they went into captiuitie: 4 Beholde therefoꝛe I will deliuer thee to the people of the (b) east, that they may haue thee in possession: these shall settle their (c) palaces in thee, and make their dwellinges in thee, they shall eate thy fruite, and dꝛynke vp thy milke. 5 As foꝛ (d) Rabbath, I wyll make of it a stable foꝛ camels, and of the Ammonites a sheepefolde: and ye shall knowe that I am the Lozde. 6 Foꝛ thus sayth the Lozde God, Insomuch as thou hast clapped with thyne handes, and stamped with thy feete, yea and reioyced ouer the lande of Iſrael with all thy "despite in heart: 7 Beholde therefoꝛe I wyll stretche out my hand ouer thee, and deliuer thee to be spoyled of the heathen, and roote thee out from among the people, and cause thee to periſhe out of the landes: yea I wyl make thee to be destroyed, that thou mayst knowe that I am the lozd.

(a) Because ye reioyced when the enemie destroyed my citie and temple.
(b) That is, to the Babylonians.
(c) They shal chase thee away, and take thy goꝛgious houses to dwell in.
(d) Called also Philadelphia, whiche was the chiefe citie of the Ammonites and full of conduites as 2. Sam. 12. d.

" Or, ticklyng of heart. B

8 Thus sayth the Lozde God, Foꝛsomuch as Moab and Seir do say, Beholde the house of Iuda is lyke as all gentiles be: 9 Therfoꝛe behold I wyll open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities (I say) of his frontiers, the pleasures of the countrey (as namely) Bethieſimoth, Baalmeon, and Kiriathaim: 10 (c) Vnto the chyldren of the east agaynst the Ammonites, and wyll geue it into possession, so that the Ammonites shal no moꝛe be had in remembraunce among the heathē. 11 And I wyl execute iudgementes vpon Moab, and they shall knowe that I am the Lozd.

(e) Vnder. standeout of the next former verse, I wyll open, &c.

12 Thus sayth the Lozde God, Foꝛ that Edom hath done in auenging reuengement vpon the house of Iuda, and hath done great offence and auenged him selfe vpon them: 13 Therefoꝛe thus sayth the Lozde God, I wyl reache out myne hande vpon Edom, and destroy man and beast out of it, I wyll make it desolate from Theman, and Dedanah shall fall by the swoꝛd.

14 And I wyll execute my reuengement vpon Edom by the hande of my people Iſrael, they shall do in Edom accoꝛdyng to my wyath and indignation, so that they shall knowe my vengeaunce, sayth the Lozde God.

15 Thus sayth the Lozde God, Foꝛ that the Philiſtines dyd in vengeaunce, (namely) in auenging reuengement, with a " disperteful heart to destroy it foꝛ the olde enmitie:

" Or, tickelyng heart, as they often haue whiche delite in seeing reuengement.

16 Therefoꝛe thus sayth the Lozde God, Beholde I wyl stretche out my hande ouer the Philiſtines, and destroy the (f) Cerethites, and cause all the remnaunt of the sea coast to periſhe: 17 A great vengeaunce wyl I take vpon them, with punishmentes of my wyath, that they may knowe that I am the Lozde, when I shal lay my vengeaunce vpon them.

AND it came to passe in the (a) eleuenth yere, the first day of the moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 2 Thou sonne of man, because that Tyre hath spoken vppon Hierusalem Haha, the gates of the people is broken, (b) it is turned vnto me, for nowe that she is destroyed, I shalbe (c) filled:

3 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde O Tyre, I will vpon thee, I will rayse vp many nations agaynst thee, lyke as when the sea arysseth with his waues. 4 They shall breake the walles of Tyre, and cast downe her towres, I will scrape her dust from her, and make her a dyre roche. 5 She shalbe for a spreadyng of nettes in the sea, for I haue spoken it, sayth the Lord God, and she shalbe for a spoyle to the nations. 6 Yee (d) daughters that are in the feelde shalbe slayne with the swoorde, that they may knowe howe that I am the Lorde. 7 For thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde I will bryng vpon Tyrus Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon from the north, a kyng of kinges, with horses, charets, horsemen, with a multitude, & much people. 8 Thy daughters that are in the feelde shall he slay with the swoorde: but agaynst thee he shall make bulwarkes, & cast a mount agaynst thee, and lyft vp his speare agaynst thee. 9 He shall set engins of warre before him agaynst thy walles, and with his weapons breake downe thy towres. 10 The dust of his horses shal couer thee they shalbe so many: thy walles shal shake at the noyse of the horsmen, wheeles, and chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as into the entry of a citie broken downe. 11 With the hooffes of his horses shal he treade downe al thy streetes, he shall slay the people with the swoord, and the pillers of thy strength shall fal downe to the ground.

12 They shall robbe thy riches, and spoyle thy marchaundise, thy walles shall they breake downe, and destroy thy houses of pleasure, thy stones, thy timber and dust shall they cast into the middest of the water. 13 Thus will I cause the sounde of thy songes to ceasse, and the noyse of thy harpes shall no more be hearde. 14 I will bryng thee into a dyre roche, thou shalt be for a spreadyng of nets, thou shalt neuer be buylt agayne: for euen I the Lorde haue spoken it sayth the Lorde God. 15 Thus hath the Lord God spoken concernyng Tyre, Shall not the iles tremble at the noyse of thy fall, and at the crye of the wounded, when they shal be slayne and murthered in the middest of thee? 16 All princes of the (e) sea shal come downe from their thrones, they shall lay away their robes, and put of their broidred garmentes, yea with tremblyng shall they be clothed, they shall sit vppon the grounde, they shalbe astonished at every moment, and be amased at thee. 17 They shall mourne for thee, and say vnto thee, How art thou destroyed that wast inhabited of the (f) seas, the renowmed citie whiche was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitauntes, which caused their feare to be on all that haunted therein?

18 Now shall the inhabitours of the iles be astonished in the day of thy fall: yea the iles that are in the sea shalbe troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus sayth the lord god, When I make thee a desolate citie, as other cities be that no man dwell in, and when I bring vp the deepe vpon thee, that great waters may couer thee:

20 Then wyl I cast thee downe vnto them that descende into the pit, vnto a people of (g) olde time, and set thee in a lande that is beneath, lyke the old ruynes, with thē which go downe to the graue, so that no man shal dwel more in thee: but I wyll reserue honour for the (h) lande of the lyuing:

¶ The.xxviii. Chapter.

1 The worde of God agaynst the kyng of Tyrus for his pride.

THe worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 2 Thou sonne of man, tel the prince of Tyre, thus sayth the Lorde God, Because thou hast a proude heart, and hast sayde, I am (a) a God, I sit in the seate of god, in the mids of the sea: where as thou art but a man, and not god, (b) though thou set thyne heart as the heart of God. 3 Beholde thou thinkest thy selfe wyser then (c) Daniel, that there is no secretes hyd from thee.

4 With thy wysdome and thyne vnderstandyng thou hast gotten thee great welthinesse, and gathered treasure of syluer and golde. 5 With thy great wysdome and occupiyng hast thou encreased thy "powre, and because of thy great riches thy heart is proude. 6 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Forsomuch as thou hast set thyne heart as the heart of God:

7 Beholde I wyll bryng straungers vpon thee, euen the terrible nations, these shall drawe out their swordes vpon the beautie of thy wisdome, and shall defile thy glorie. 8 They shall cast thee downe to the pit, so that thou shalt dye the death of them that be slaine in the mids of the sea.

9 Wylt thou say then before them that slay thee, I am a God? where as thou art but a man, and not God, in the handes of them that slay thee.

10 Dye shalt thou the death of the (d) vncircumcised in the handes of the straungers: for I haue spoken it, saith the Lorde God. 11 Moreouer the word of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 12 Thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentatiō vpon the king of Tyre, and tell him, thus sayth the lord god, Thou sealest vp the summe, (e) full of wysdome, & perfite beautie. 13 Thou hast ben in the pleasaunt garden of God, thou art decket with all maner of pretious stones, with ruby, topas, diamond, thurkis, onyx, iasper, saphir, emeralde, carbuncle, and golde: the workmanship of thy tymbrels and of thy pipes (that be) in thee, was prepared in the day that thou wast created. 14 Thou art an (f) annoynted Cherub that couereth, and I haue set thee (in this dignitie) thou wast vpon the holy mount of God, thou hast walked in the mids of the stones of fyre.

15 From the tyme of thy creation thou hast ben perfite in thy wayes, tyl wickednesse was founde in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy marchandise they haue filled the mids of thee with cruelitie, and thou hast sinned: I wyll cast thee as prophane out of the (g) mount of God, and I wyll destroy thee O couering Cherub, from the mids of the stones of fyre.

17 Thy heart was proude in thy beautie, and through thy brightnesse thou hast destroyed thy wysdome: I wyll cast thee downe to the grounde, I wyll lay thee before kynges, that they may beholde thee. 18 Thou hast defiled thy (h) sanctification with the great wickednesse of thyne vnrighteous occupying: I wyll bryng a fyre from the middest of thee to consume thee, and wyll make thee to ashes vpon the earth, in the sight of all them that loke vpon thee. 19 All they that haue ben acquainted with thee among the heathen shalbe abashed at thee: thou hast ben a terrour, and neuer shalt thou be any more.

20 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 21 Thou sonne of man, set thy face agaynst Sidon, and prophecie vpon it, 22 And speake, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde O Sidon, I wyll vpon thee, and I wil be glorified in the middest of thee: that it may be knowen howe that I am the Lorde when I shall haue executed iudgementes in her, and shalbe sanctified in her. 23 For I wyl sende pestilence and bloodshedyng into her streetes, and the slayne shall fal in the mids of her by the sworde (commyng) vpon her on euery side: and they shall knowe that I am the Lord. 24 They shalbe no more a pricking thorne vnto the house of Israel, nor a grecuous thorne of all that are rounde about them & despised them: and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde God.

25 Thus sayth the Lord God, When I gather the houshold of Israel together agayne from the nations among who they be scattered, then shal I be sanctified in them in the sight of the gentiles, and they shal dwel in the land that I gaue to my seruant Jacob. 26 They shal dwel with cōfidēce therin, buyld houses, & plant vineyardes: yea with confidence shall they dwell therein, when I haue executed iudgementes vpon al those that despise them rounde about: and then shall they know that I am the Lord their God.

1 He prophecieth agaynst Pharao, and of the desolation of Egypt, with the sparklyng abrode of the Egyptians.

IN the (a)tenth yere, vpon the twelft day of the tenth moneth, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face agaynst Pharao the kyng of Egypt, prophecie agaynst him, and agaynst the whole land of Egypt. 3 Speake & tel him, thus saith the lord god, Behold O Pharao thou kyng of Egypt, I wyl vpon thee thou great (b)dragon that lyeth in the mids of his riuers, thou that sayest, The riuer is myne, I haue made it for my selfe. 4 I wyll put (c) hookes in thy chawes, & hang the fishe in thy riuers vppon thy skales: after that I wyll drawe thee out of the middest of thy riuers, yea and all the fishe of thy riuers shall hang vpon thy skales. 5 I wyll leaue thee in the wylderneſſe, (both) thee and all the fishe of thy riuers: thou shalt fall vpon the open feelde, thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I haue geuen thee for meate to the beastes of the fielde, and to the fowles of the "ayre. 6 That all they whiche dwel in Egypt may knowe that I am the Lorde, because they haue ben a staffe of reede to the house of Israel. 7 When they toke holde of thee with their handes, thou brakest and rent all their shoulder: and when they leaned vpon thee, thou brakest and madest al their loynes to stande vpryght.

8 Therfore thus sayth the Lord god, Behold I wyll bryng a swoorde vpon thee, and destroy out of thee both man and beast. 9 Yea the lande of Egypt shalbe desolate and waste, and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde, because he sayde, The riuer is myne, I my selfe haue made it. 10 Beholde therefore I wyll vpon thee and vpon thy riuers, I wyll make the lande of Egypt vtterly waste & desolate, from the towre of Seueneh vnto the borders of Ethiopia. 11 No foote of man shal passe by it, nor foote of beast shall passe by it, neither shall it be inhabited fourtie yeres. 12 I wyll make the lande of Egypt to be desolate among other wast countreys, and her cities destroyed fourtie yeres among other destroyed cities: and I wyll scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and strawe them through the countreys. 13 Agayne thus sayth the Lord god, When the fourtie yeres are expired, I wyll gather the Egyptians together agayne out of the nations among whom they were scattered. 14 And I wyll bryng the captiuitie of Egypt agayne, and cause them to returne into the lande of Pathros, the lande of their habitation, and they shalbe there a (d) small kingdome.

15 Yea it shalbe the smalest among other kyngdomes, neither shall it exalt it selfe any more aboue the nations: for I wyll so minishe them, that they shall no more rule the nations.

16 And they shalbe no more vnto the house of Israel a trust, whiche bryngeth their iniquitie to remembraunce, when they shall looke after them: and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde God. 17 In the (e) twentie and seuenth yere, the first day of the first moneth, came the worde of the Lorde vnto me, saying, 18 Thou sonne of man, Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon caused his armie to serue a great seruice agaynst Tyrus: euery head was made bald, and euery shoulder bare, yet had neither he nor his armie any wages for Tyrus for the seruice whiche he serued agaynst it.

19 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde I wyll geue the lande of Egypt vnto Nabuchodonozor the kyng of Babylon, that he may take away her multitude, and spoyle her spoyles, and take her pray to pay his hoast their wages withall. 20 For the "worke which he wrought about it, I haue geuen him the lande of Egypt, because they wrought for me sayth the Lorde God. 21 In that day I wil cause the horne of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I wyll geue thee the openyng of thy mouth in the mids of them: and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

The destruction of Egypt, and of his cities is bewayled.

THE worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 2 Thou sonne of man prophecie, and speake, thus sayth the Lord god, Howle, wo worth this day: 3 For the day is neare, the day of the lord is at hand, the "darke day, the tyme of the nations shalbe. 4 And the swoord shal come vpon Egypt, & feare shalbe in Ethiopia whē the slayne shall fal in Egypt: & they shall take away her multitude, & her foundations shalbe broken downe,

¶ The. xxxi. Chapter.

1 A comparison of the prosperitie of Pharao with the prosperitie of the Assyrians. 10 He prophecieth a lyke destruction to them both.

MOreouer in the (a) eleuenth yere, the first day of the thirde moneth, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 2 Thou sonne of man, speake vnto Pharao king of Egypt, and to all his people, Whom art thou (b) lyke in thy greatnesse?

3 Beholde Assur is a Cedar in Libanon, with faire braunches, and with thicke shadowyng bowes of a hygh stature, and his top was among the thicke bowes. 4 The waters made him great, and the deepe set him vpon hye, with her riuers running round about his plantes, & set out her (c) little riuers vnto all the trees of the feelde. 5 Therefore was he hygher then all the trees of the feelde, and his bowes were multiplied, and his braunches were long, because of the multitude of the waters which the deepe sent out. 6 All foules of the " ayre made their their nestes in his braunches, vnder his bowes did all the beastes of the feelde bryng foorth their yoūg, and vnder his shadowe dwelt all mightie nations. 7 Beautyfull was he in his greatnesse, and in the length of his braunches: for his roote stoode beside great waters. 8 No Cedar tree myght (d) hyde him in the garden of God, there was no Fyrre trees lyke his braunches, the Chestnut trees were not lyke the bowes of him: all the trees in the garden of God myght not be compared vnto him in his beautie. 9 I made him faire with the multitude of his braunches: in so much that all the trees in the pleasant garden of God had enuie at him. 10 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, Forsomuch as he hath lyft vp him selfe so hye, and hath shot vp his top among the thicke bowes, and his heart is lift vp in his height:

11 I haue therfore deliuered him into the handes of the (e) mightiest among the heathen: he shall handle him, (for) in his wickednesse haue I cast him away. 12 And straungers haue destroyed him, euen the terrible nations, and haue left him: vpon the mountaynes & vpon all valleys haue his bowes fallen, and his bowes are (f) broken by all the riuers of the lande: and all the people of the earth are departed from his shadowe, and haue forsaken him. 13 Vpon his ruine shall all the foules of the * ayre remayne, and all the beastes of the feelde shalbe vpon his braunches.

14 So that none of all the trees by the waters shalbe exalted in their heyght, nor shoot vp their toppes among the thicke bowes, neither shall their trees stande in their heyght, as many of them as drynke water: for they are all deliuered vnto death in the neather partes of the earth, in the middes of the children of men among them that go downe to the pyt.

15 Thus saith the Lorde God, In the day whē he went downe to the graue, I caused a lamentation to be made, I (g) couered the deepe for him, I restrayned the floodes therof, and the great waters were stayed, I caused Libanus to mourne for him, and all the trees of the feelde faynted. 16 I made the heathen shake at the sounde of his fall, when I cast him downe to hell with them that descende into the pyt: all the excellent trees of Eden, and the best of Libanus, all that (h) drynke waters, shalbe (i) comforted in the neather partes of the earth.

17 They also went downe to hel with him vnto them that be slaine with the swoorde, which were his arme (and) dwelt vnder his shadowe in the middest of the nations. 18 To whom art thou thus like in glorie & in greatnesse among the trees of Eden? yet thou shalt be cast downe with the trees of Ede vnto the neather partes of the earth: in the middest of the vncircumcised shalt thou sleepe with them that are slayne with the swoorde: This is Pharao and all his multitude, saith the Lorde God.

¶ The. xxxii. Chapter.

¶ The prophete is cōmaunded to bewaile Pharao king of Egypt. 12 He propheciēth that destruction shall come vnto Egypt through the king of Babylon.

IN the (a) twelfth yere, the first day of the twelfth moneth, the word of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentation vpon Pharao the king of Egypt, and say vnto him, Thou art (b) lyke a lion of the heathen, and as a whale fishe in the sea: thou dyddest out thy riuers, thou (c) troublest the waters with thy feete, and stampest in their riuers, 3 Thus saith the Lorde God, I will spread my net ouer thee with a great multitude of people, these shal make thee come vp into my net. 4 For I wyll leaue thee vpon the lande, and cast thee vpon the open feelde, and I wyll cause all the foules of the ayre to remayne vpon thee, and fyll all the beastes of the feelde with thee. 5 Thy flesche wyll I lay vpon the hylles, and fyll the valleys with thy (d) hyghnesse. 6 I wyll (e) water thyne ouerflowyng lande with thy blood, euen to the mountaynes, & the riuers shalbe full of thee. 7 When thou art put out I wyll couer the heauen, and make his starres dimme: I wil spreade a cloude ouer the sunne, & the moone shall not geue her lyght. 8 All the lyghtes of heauen wyll I make darke for thee: and bryng darknesse vpon thy lande, saith the Lorde God. 9 I wyll stirre vp to anger the heartes of many people, when I bryng thy destruction among the heathē, and vpon the countreis which thou knowest not. 10 Yea I wyll make many people amased at thee, & their kinges shalbe astonished with feare feare for thee, when I shall make my swoorde to glitter agaynst their faces: and they shalbe afrayde at euery moment euery man for his owne lyfe, in the day of thy fall. 11 For thus saith the Lord God, The king of Babylons swoord shall come vpon thee: 12 With the swoordes of the mightie will I smyte downe thy multitude: they all shalbe terrible nations, and they shall destroy the (f) pompe of Egypt, and all the multitude therof shalbe consumed. 13 I will destroy also all the beastes therof from the great waters sydes, neither shall the foote of man trouble them any more, nor the hoones of beastes trouble them. 14 Then will I make their waters (g) deepe, & cause their riuers to runne like (h) oyle, saith the Lord God. 15 When I make the lande of Egypt desolate, and when the countrey with all that is therin shalbe layde waste, & when I smyte all them which dwel in it, then shal they know that I am the Lorde. 16 This is the mourning when they shal lament her, The daughters of the nations shal lament her, they shall make the lamentation ouer Egypt, and ouer all the people therof, saith the Lorde God.

17 In the twelfth yere, the fifteenth day of the moneth, came the worde of the Lorde vnto me, saying, 18 Thou son of man, lament for the multitude of Egypt, and (i) cast them downe, euen them & the daughters of the famous nations vnto the neather partes of the earth, with them that go downe into the pyt. 19 Whom doest thou passe in (k) beautie? go downe & sleepe with the vncircumcised. 20 Among those that be slayne with the swoorde shall they lye, to the swoorde is (l) the already deliuered: draw her downe and all her multitude. 21 The (m) mightie worthies shal speake to her out of the midst of hel, & to her helpers: they are gone downe & sleepe (with) the vncircumcised that be slayne with the swoorde: 22 Assur is there also with all his companie, & their graues round about him which were slayne & fell all with the swoorde: 23 Whose graues are made in the syde of the pyt, and his multitude are round about his graue, (to wit) all the slayne and fallen by the swoorde, which cause a feare (to be) in the lande of the lyuyng. 24 There is Elam also, with all his people rounde about his graue: which all beyng slayne & fallen with the swoord, are gone downe vncircumcised vnder the earth, which neuertheless sometyme brought feare into the lande of the (n) lyuyng: they beare their owne shame, with the other that be gone downe to the graue. 25 They haue made his bed in the middest of the slayne, with all his multitude, their graues are rounde about him: al these vncircumcised slayne by the swoorde, although they caused their feare in the lande of the lyuyng, yet haue they borne their shame with them that go downe to the pyt, they are layde in the middest of them that are slayne.

26 There is (o) Mesech also & Tubal, and their people, and their graues rounde about him: these all vncircumcised were slayne with the swoord, because afore tyme they made the land of the lyuyng afrayde. 27 They shall not lye with the (p) valiaunt (which are) fallen of the vncircumcised, which are gone downe to the graue with their weapons of warre, and haue layde their swoordes vnder their heades: but their iniquitie shalbe vpon their bones, because the terrour of their mightie (was) in the land of the lyuyng. 28 Yea, among the vncircumcised shalt thou be destroyed, and sleepe with them that perished through the swoorde. 29 There is Edom with her kinges and princes also, which with their strength are layde by them that were slayne with the swoorde: yea among the vncircumcised shall they sleepe, and with them which are gone downe into the pyt.

30 Moreouer there be all the princes of the (q) north, with all the Sidonians, which are gone downe with the slayne: with their feare and strength they are come to confusion, and lye there vncircumcised among those that be slayne with the swoorde, and beare their owne shame with them that be gone downe to the pyt.

31 Pharao shall see them, and be (r) comforted ouer all his multitude: Pharao and all his armie (shalbe) slayne with the swoorde, saith the Lorde God, 32 For I haue geuen my feare (s) in the lande of the liuing: but Pharao and all his people shalbe layde among the vncircumcised, and among them that be slayne with the swoorde, saith the Lorde God.

(a) He sheweth that the people ought continually to haue gouernours & teachers, which may haue a care ouer them, & to warne them euer of the daungers which are at hande.

(c) Which teacheth that he that receaueth not his charge and watchworde at the Lordes mouth, is a spye, and not a true watchman.

(d) Thus the wicked whē they heare of gods iudgementes for their sinnes, dispaire of his mercies, & murmure.

AGayne, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 2 Thou sonne of man, speake to the chyldren of thy people, & tell them, When I sende a sworde vpon a lande, yf the people of the lande take a man of their coastes, and set him to be their (a) watchman: 3 If when he seeth the sworde come vpon the lande, he shall blowe the trumpet and warne the people: 4 Then he that heareth the noyse of the trumpet and wyll not be warned, and the sworde come and take him away, his blood shalbe vpon his owne head. 5 For he hearde the sounde of the trumpet, and would not be warned, therfore his blood be vpon him: but he that receaueth warnyng, he shal saue his life. 6 Agayne yf the watchman see the sworde come, and blowe not the trumpet, so that the people is not warned, yf the sworde come then, and take any man from among them: the same shalbe (b) taken away in his owne sinne, but his blood wyll I require at the watchmans hande. 7 And thou O sonne of man, I haue made thee a warchman vnto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt here the worde at (c) my mouth, and thou shalt warne them from me.

8 If I say vnto the wicked, Thou wicked, thou shalt surely die: and thou speakest not to admonishe the wicked of his way: that wicked man shall die in his owne sinne, but his blood wyll I require at thy hande. 9 Neuerthelesse yf thou warne the wicked of his way to turne from it, and he yet wyll not be turned from his way: then shal he dye in his iniquitie, but thou hast deliuered thy soule. 10 Therfore O thou sonne of man, speake vnto the house of Israel, yea say thus, If our offences and sinnes lye vpon vs, and we be consumed in them, (d) howe shoulde we then liue? 11 Tell them, as truely as I liue saith the Lorde God, I haue no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but much rather that the wicked turne from his way, and liue: Turne you, turne you from your wicked wayes, for why wyll ye dye O ye of the house of Israel? 12 Therefore thou sonne of man, tell the chyldren of thy people, The righteousnesse of the ryghteous shall not saue him in the day of his iniquitie: agayne, the wickednesse of the wicked shall not ouerthrowe him for it in the day that he returneth from his wickednesse: neither shall the ryghteous lyue for (e) it in the day that he sinneth. 13 If I say vnto the ryghteous, he shall surely lyue: and so he trust to his owne ryghteousnesse, and do sinne: then shall his ryghteousnesse be no more thought vpon, but in his wickednesse that he hath done, in it he shall dye. 14 Agayne, yf I say vnto the wicked, Thou shalt surely dye: and he returneth from his sinnes, and (f) do the thyng that is lawfull and ryght, 15 Insomuch that the same wicked man geueth the pledge agayne, restoreth that he had taken away by robberie, walketh in the commaundementes of lyfe, and doth none iniquitie: then shall he surely liue, & not dye, 16 None of the sinnes that he hath committed shalbe mentioned vnto him: for insomuch as he doth nowe the thyng that is lawfull and right, he shall liue, 17 And yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lorde is not equal: but their owne way is rather vnequal. 18 When the ryghteous turneth from his righteousnes, and doth the thyng that is wicked, he shall dye therin. 19 But yf the wicked turne from his wickednes, doyng the thyng that is lawfull and ryght, he shall liue therfore. 20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lorde is not equall: O ye house of Israel, I wyll iudge euery one of you after his wayes.

26 Ye (l) leane vpon your swordes, ye worke abominations, euery one defyleth his neyghbours wyfe: and shall ye possesse the lande? 27 Say thou thus vnto them, Thus saith the Lorde God, As truely as I lyue, they that are in the desolate places shall fall by the sworde, and him that is in the open feelde wyll I geue vnto the beastes to be deuoured: and they that be in the strong holdes and dennes shall dye of the pestilence. 28 For I wyll make the lande so desolate and waste, that the pompe of her strength shal cease: the mountaynes of Israel shalbe so waste, that no man shall trauayle therby. 29 Then shall they knowe that I am the Lorde, when I make the lande desolate and waste, because of all their abominations that they haue wrought. 30 And thou sonne of man, the children of thy people that talke of thee by the waters & in the doores of their houses, and speake one to another, euery one to his brother, saying, Come I pray you, let vs heare what worde is gone foorth from the Lord: 31 They come vnto thee as the people vseth to come, and my people sit before thee & heare thy wordes, but they do not thereafter: for in their mouthes they make a (m) iest of them, & their heart goeth after their couetousnes. 32 And lo, thou art vnto them as a (n) swynging song of one that hath a pleasaunt voyce and can sing well: for they heare thy wordes, but do them not. 33 When this commeth to passe (lo it commeth) then shall they knowe that there hath ben a prophete among them.

¶ The. xxxiiii. Chapter.

2 Agaynst sheepheardes that despise the flocke of Christe, and seke their owne gayne.

AND the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 2 Thou sonne of man, prophecie agaynst the sheepheardes of Israel, prophecie and speake vnto them, Thus saith the Lorde God vnto the sheepheardes, Wo be vnto the (a) sheepheardes of Israel that feede them selues: should not the sheepheards feede the flockes? 3 Ye eate vp the fat, ye clothe you with the woll, the best fed do ye slay: but the flocke do ye not feede.

(a) By the shepheards, he meaneth the king, the magistrates, preistes, and prophetes.

4 The weake haue ye not strengthened, the sicke haue ye not healed, the broken haue ye not bounde together, the driuen away haue ye not brought agayne, the lost haue ye not sought: but with force & cruelte haue ye ruled them. 5 They are scattered without a sheephearde, yea all the beastes of the feelde (b) deuour them, and they go astray. 6 My sheepe go wandryng vpon al mountaynes, and vpon euery hye hyll, yea my flocke is scattered through all the face of the earth, and there is no man that seketh or searcheth (after them.) 7 Therefore O ye sheepheardes, heare the worde of the Lorde. 8 As truely as I lyue saith the Lorde God, forsomuch as my sheepe are robbed and deuoured of all the wylde beastes of the feelde, hauyng no sheephearde, and seyng that my sheepheardes seke not my sheepe, but the sheepheardes feede them selues, and feede not my sheepe:

(b) For lacke of good gouernment & doctrine they perishe.

9 Therefore heare the worde of the Lorde O ye sheepheardes, 10 Thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde I wyll vpon the sheepheardes, and require my sheepe from their handes, and make them cease from feedyng of the sheepe, yea the sheepheardes shall feede them selues no more: for I wyll (c) deliuer my sheepe out of their mouthes, so that they shall not deuour them after this. 11 For thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde I (euen) I wyll loke to my sheepe my selfe, and seke them out. 12 Lyke as a sheepheardе when he hath ben among the flocke, seketh after the sheepe that are scattered abrode: euen so wyll I seke after my sheepe, and deliuer them out of all places where they haue ben scattered in the (d) cloudie and darke day. 13 I wyll bryng them out from the people, and gather them together out of the landes, I wyll bryng them into their owne lande, and feede them vpon the mountaynes of Israel by the riuers, and in all the inhabited places of the countrey. 14 I wyll feede them in right good pastures, and vpon the hye mountaynes of Israel shall their foldes be: there shall they lye in a good folde, and in a fat pasture shal they feede, euen vpon the mountaynes of Israel. 15 I wyll feede my sheepe, & bryng them to their rest saith the Lorde God. 16 Such as be lost, wyll I seke: such as are driuen away, wyll I bryng agayne: such as be broken, wyll I bynde vp:

(c) By destroying the couetous hirelynges, and restoryng true sheepheards.

such as be weake will I make strong: such as be fat and strong those will I roote out, & feede them with(e)iudgemẽt. 17 And as for you O my sheepe, saith the Lorde God, I will iudge betweene cattel and cattel, betweene the rammes & the goates. 18 Seemeth it a small thyng to you to haue eaten vp the good (f)pasture, and to treade downe the residue of your pasture with your feete also? to dyrnke the deepe waters, and to trouble the rest also with your feete? 19 Thus my sheepe must be fayne to eate the thing that ye haue troden downe with your feete, & to dyrnke it that ye with your feete haue defyled. 20 Therfore thus saith the Lorde God vnto them, Beholde I (euen) I will iudge betweene the fat cattell and the leane cattell, 21 Forsomuch as with side & shoulder ye haue shoued, and with your hornes haue pushed all the weake, till ye haue scattered them abrode.

22 I wyl saue my sheepe, so that they shall no more be spoyled, yea I will iudge betweene cattell and cattell.

23 I will set vp ouer them a sheepehearde, and he shall feede them, euen my seruaunt (g)Dauid, he shall feede them, and he shalbe their sheephearde.

24 And I the Lorde wyll be their God, and my seruaunt Dauid shalbe their prince: euen I the Lorde haue spoken it. 25 Moreouer I wyl make a couenaunt of peace with them, and cause cuyll beastes to ceasse out of the lande: so that they may dwell(h)safely in the wildernesse, and sleepe in the woods. 26 And I will set them (as) a blessyng rounde about my hyll, and I will cause rayne to come downe in due season, (and) there shalbe rayne of blessing. 27 And the tree of the feelde shall yeelde her fruite, and the earth shall geue her encrease: they shalbe safe in their lande, and shal know that I am the Lorde, when I haue broken the bondes of their yoke, & deliuered them out of the handes of those that serued them selues of them. 28 They shal no more be spoyled of the heathe, nor deuoured with the beastes of the lande: but safely shall they dwell, and no man shall fray them. 29 And I will rayse vp for them a (i) plant of renowme, and they shalbe no more "clunged with hunger in the lande, neither beare the reproche of the heathen any more. 30 Thus shall they vnderstande that I the Lorde their God am with them, and that they, euen the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lorde God: 31 And ye my sheepe, the sheepe of my pasture, are men: and I am your God, saith the Lorde God.

¶ The. xxxv. Chapter.

¶ The destruction that shal come on the mount Seir, that is, on the Idumeans, because they troubled the people of the Lorde.

MOreouer the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face towarde the mount(a)Seir, prophecie agaynst it. 3 And say vnto it, Thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde O thou mount Seir, I wyll vpon thee, I will reache out my hande ouer thee, yea waste and desolate wyll I make thee.

6 Therfore as truely as I lyue, saith the Lorde God, I will prepare thee vnto blood, yea blood shal folowe vpon thee, except thou(b)hate blood, euē blood shall persecute thee. 7 Thus will I make the mount Seir desolate & waste, and cut out from it him that passeth out, and him that returneth:

8 His mountaynes wyll I fyll with his slayne men, thy hylles, valleys, and all thy riuers, the slayne with the sworde shall fall in them. 9 I wyll make thee a perpetuall wildernesse, so that thy cities shal not(c)returne: that ye may knowe that I am the Lorde.

10 And because thou hast said(d)Both these nations, and both these landes must be myne, and we wyll haue them in possession, whereas the Lorde was there: 11 Therefore as truely as I lyue saith the Lord God, I will euen do accordyng to thy(e)wrath, and accordyng to thyne enuying which thou hast vsed in thyne hatred agaynst them: and I wyll make my selfe (f) knowen amongest them when I haue iudged thee. 12 Yea and thou shalt knowe that I the Lorde haue heard all thy blasphemies, which thou hast spoken agaynst the mountaynes of Israel, saying, They are made waste, and geuen vs to deuour. 13 Thus with your mouthes ye haue made your

THou sonne of man prophecie vnto the mountaynes of Israel, and speake, Heare the worde of the Lorde O ye mountaynes of Israel, Est. 6.8.

2 Thus saith the Lord God, Because your (a)enemie hath sayde vpon you aha, the(b)hye places of the worlde are nowe become ours in possession:

3 Prophecie therfore & speake, thus saith the Lord God, For because that they haue made you desolate, and swallowed you vp on euery syde, that ye myght be a possession vnto the residue of the gentiles, and ye are taken vp in the(c)lippes & tongues of men, and to the reproche of the people: 4 Therfore heare the worde of the Lorde God, O ye mountaynes of Israel, thus saith the Lorde God to the mountaynes and hylles, to the riuers and valleys, to the waste and desolate places, and to the cities that are forsaken, which are spoyled and had in derision on euery syde, among the residue of the heathen: 5 Therfore thus saith the Lorde God, Surely in the fire of my gelousie haue I spoken against the residue of the gentiles, and against all Edom, which haue(d)appointed my lande for their possession, which also reioyced from their whole heart with a despitefull stomache, to cast it out for a pray. 6 Prophecie therfore vpon the lande of Israel, and speake vnto the mountaines & hilles, to the riuers and dales, thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde this haue I spoken in my gelousie and terrible wrath, because ye haue borne the (e) shame of the heathen: 7 Therfore thus saith the Lorde God, I haue(f)lyft vp my hande, surely the heathen that are about you, shal beare their shame.

(a) That is, the Idumeans.

(b) That is, the hylly countreis of Iuda.

(c) Ye are made a matter of talke and derision to all the worlde.

(d) They appointed with them selues to haue it, and therfore came with Nabuchodonozor against Hierusalem for this purpose.

(e) Because ye haue ben a laughyng flocke vnto them.

(f) By making a solempne oth. Chap. 20.2

8 But you, O mountaynes of Israel, ye shall (g) shoote out your braunches, and bryng foorth your fruite to my people of Israel: for they are at hande to come. 9 Beholde I come vnto you, and vnto you wyll I turne, that ye may be tylled & sowen.

10 I wyll multiplie men vpon you, (euen) all the house of Israel wholly, the cities shalbe inhabited, & the decayed places shalbe repaired agayne.

11 And I wyll multiplie vpon you man & beast, which shal encrease and bryng fruite: and I wyll cause you to dwell after your olde estate, and be better(h)vnto you then at the begynnyng: and ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde. 12 Yea I wyll cause men to walke vpon(i)you, (euen) my people Israel, and they shall possesse (k) thee, and thou shalt be their inheritaunce, and thou shalt no more henceforth deprive them of (men.)

13 Thus saith the Lorde God, For somuch as they say vnto you, Thou art an(l)eater vp of men, and a waster of thy people: 14 Therfore thou shalt eate no more men, neither destroy thy people any more, saith the Lorde God: 15 Neither wyl I cause men to heare in thee the shame of the heathen any more: neither shalt thou beare the reproche of the people any more, nor cause thy folke to fall any more, saith the Lord God. 16 Moreouer the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, 17 O thou sonne of man, when the house of Israel dwelt vpon their owne grounde, they defyled them selues with their owne wayes and imaginations: so that in my sight, their way was lyke the vncleanneslie of a removed woman.

18 Wherfore I powred my wrathfull displeasure vpon them, because of the blood that they had shed in the lande, and because of their idols wherwith they had defyled it: 19 I scattered them also among the heathen, so that they were strawed about in the landes: accordyng to their wayes, and after their owne inuentions, so did I iudge them. 20 And when they entred vnto the heathen whyther they went, they polluted my holy name, when they sayde of them, These are the people of God, and are gone out of his lande. 21 Then spared I my holy (m) name, which the house of Israel had dishonoured among the gentiles where they came.

(g) God declareth his mercies and goodnes towarde his Churche, who stil preserueth his, euen when he destroyeth his enemies.

(k) You, chaungyng the number.

(l) Thus the enemies imputed as the reproche of the lande, which god did for the sinnes of the people, accordyng to his iust iudgementes.

(m) And therefore woulde not suffer my name to be had in contempt, as the heathen would haue reproched me, yf I had suffered my Churche to perishe.

22 There-

22 Therfore tell the house of Israel, thus saith the Lorde God, I (n) do not this for your sakes O house of Israel, but for my holy names sake which ye dishonoured among the heathen where ye came. 23 Therfore I will halowe my great name agayne which among the gentiles is polluted, for ye your selues haue dishonoured it among them: and the gentiles shall knowe that I am the Lorde saith the Lorde God, when I shalbe sanctified in you before your eyes. 24 As for you, I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you together out of all countreys, and bring you againe into your owne lande. 25 Then will I sprinckle cleane (o) water vpon you, and ye shalbe cleane: yea from al your vncleannesse and from all your idols shal I cleanse you. 26 A newe heart also will I geue you, and a newe spirite will I put into you: as for that stonie heart I will take it out of your fleshe, & geue you a fleshly heart. 27 I will geue my spirite among you, and cause you to walke in my commaundementes, and ye shall kepe my iudgementes & do them. 28 And so ye shall dwell in the lande that I gaue to your fathers: and ye shalbe my people, and I will be your God. 29 I will deliuer you from all your vncleannesse, I will call for the (p) corne, and will encrease it, and lay no famine vpon you. 30 I will multiplie the fruites of the trees and the increase of the feelde: so that ye shall receaue no more reproche of hunger among the heathen. 31 Then shal ye remember your owne wicked wayes, and your imaginations which were not good: so that ye shalbe (q) irkesum in your owne eyes for your sinnes and abominations. 32 But I will not do this for your sakes, saith the Lorde God, be ye sure of it: therfore O ye house of Israel, be ashamed and confounded of your owne wayes.

33 Moreouer thus saith the Lorde God, What tyme as I shall cleanse you from all your iniquities, then will I make the cities to be inhabited agayne, and the places that be decayed shalbe repaired. 34 The desolate lande shalbe tylled agayne, which afore tyme lay waste in the sight of all them that went by. 35 And they shall say, This waste lande was lyke the garden of Eden: and these waste and desolate and ruinous cities (were) strong (and) inhabited. 36 Then the residue of the heathen that lye rounde about you, shal knowe that I the Lord (r) repaire that was broken downe, & plant agayne that that was made waste: euen I the Lord haue spoken it, & will do it in deede. 37 Thus saith the Lorde God, I will yet for this be sought of the house of Israel to do it for them, I will multiplie them as a flocke of men. 38 Lyke as the holy flocke and the flocke of Hierusalem are in the hie solempne feastes, so shal also the wasted cities be fylled with flockes of men: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

¶ The. xxxvii. Chapter.

¶ He prophecieth the bryngyng agayne of the people beyng in captiuitie. 16 He sheweth the vnion of the ten tribes with the two.

THe hande of the Lorde was vpon me, and caryed me out in the spirite of the Lord, and set me downe in the middest of a playne feelde that was full of (a) bones. 2 And he led me rounde about by them, and behold there was very many in the open feelde, and lo (they were) very drye.

3 Then sayd he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, thynkest thou these bones may lyue agayne? I aunswered, O Lorde God, thou knowest. 4 And he sayde vnto me, Prophecie thou vpon these bones, and speake vnto them: Ye drye bones heare the worde of the Lorde, 5 Thus saith the Lorde God vnto these bones, Beholde I will cause breath to enter into you, that ye may liue. 6 I wyl geue you sinowes, and make flesche growe vpon you, and couer you ouer with skinne, and so geue you breath, that ye may lyue, and knowe that I am the Lorde. 7 So I prophecied as I was commaunded: & as I was propheciyng, there was a noyse, and lo a great motion, so that the bones came neare together, bone to his bone. 8 Howe when I had loked, beholde they had sinowes, and flesche grewe vpon them, and aboue they were couered with skinne: but there was no breath in them. 9 Then sayd he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, prophecie thou towarde the wynde, prophecie and speake to the wynde, thus saith the Lorde God, Come O thou "ayre from the foure windes, and "blowe vpon these slayne, that they may lyue. 10 So I prophecied as he had commaunded me: then came the

(a) By this vision he prophecieth that the people of Israel shalbe deliuered, whom he compareth to bones of dead men for as drye bones seeme without all hope of lyfe againe so the Israelites thought they should neuer returne into their countrey, as appeareth by their wordes in the eleuenth verse, Our bones are dryed, and our hope is gone, &c.

the breath into them, and they receaued lyfe, and stoode vp vpon their feete, a marueylous great armie.

11 Moreouer he sayd vnto me, Thou sonne of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: beholde they say, Our bones are dryed vp, our hope is gone, and we are cleane cut of.

12 Therefore prophecie thou, and speake vnto them, thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde I will open your graues O my people, and cause you to come vp out of your sepulchres, and bryng you into the lande of Israel agayne. 13 So shall ye knowe that I am the Lorde, when I open your graues O my people, and bryng you (b) out of your sepulchres. 14 My spirite also will I put in you, and ye shal lyue, I will set you agayne in your owne lande: and ye shall knowe that I the Lorde haue sayde it, and fulfilled it in deede, saith the Lorde. 15 The worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying, 16 Thou sonne of man, take one sticke, and write vpon it, Vnto Juda and to the children of Israel his companions. Then take another sticke and write vpon it, Vnto Joseph the "stocke of Ephraim, and to all the houshold of Israel his companions. 17 And (c) ioyne them one to another into one sticke: and they shalbe as one in thy hande. 18 Nowe if the children of thy people speake vnto thee, saying, Wylt thou not shew vs what thou meanest by these?

19 Then geue them this answere, thus saith the Lorde God: Beholde I will take the (d) "stocke of Joseph, whiche is in the hande of Ephraim, and of the tribes of Israel his fellowes, and will put them with hym, (euen) with the stocke of Juda, and make them one "stocke, and they shalbe one in my hande. 20 And the stickes whereupon thou writest shalt thou haue in thy hande, that they may see. 21 And thou shalt say vnto them, thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen vnto whom they be gone, and will gather them together on euery side, and bring them agayne into their owne lande.

22 Yea I will make one people of them in the lande vpon the mountaynes of Israel, and one kyng shalbe kyng to them all: they shall no more be two peoples, neither be diuided fro hence forth into two kyngdomes.

23 They shall also defile them selues no more with their idoles and abhominations, & al their wicked doinges: I will saue them out of all their dwelling places wherein they haue sinned, and will so clense them, that they shalbe my people, and I will be their God.

24 Dauid my seruaunt shalbe their kyng, & they all shall haue one sheepehearde: they shall walke in my iudgementes, and my commaundementes shall they kepe, and fulfyll them.

25 They shall dwell in the land that I gaue vnto Jacob my seruaunt, where as your fathers also haue dwelt, yea (euen) in the same lande shall they, their children, and their children's children dwell for euermore: and my seruaunt Dauid shalbe their prince for euer. 26 Moreouer I will make a bonde of peace with them, which shalbe vnto the an euerlasting couenaunt: I will settle them also and multiplie them, my sanctuarie will I set among them for euermore. 27 My tabernacle shalbe with them: yea I will be their God, and they shalbe my people.

28 Thus the heathen also shal know that I the Lorde do sanctifie Israel, when my sanctuarie shalbe among them for euermore.

ſited, and in the latter yeres thou ſhalt come into the lande that hath ben turned (and toſt) with the ſwoꝛde, and gathered together agayne out of many people vpon the mountaines of Iſrael, whiche haue ben alwayes (ſubiect) to waſte: but it is bꝛought out of the people, and they dwel al ſafe. 9 Thou ſhalt aſcende & come vp lyke a ſtoꝛme, as a cloude to couer the lande ſhalt thou be: thou with all thyne hoaſtes, and a great multitude of people with thee. 10 Moꝛeouer thus ſaith the Loꝛde God, At the ſame tyme ſhall thynges come into thy mynde, ſo that thou ſhalt thinke (d) cuyll thoughtes,

11 And ſay, I wyll vp to the lande of (e) vnwalled villages, I wyll go to them that be at reſt, which dwell ſafely, all dwelling without walles, they haue neither barres noꝛ gates: 12 To ſpoyle the pꝛay, and to take a bootie, to turne thy hande vpon the deſolate places that are (nowe) inhabited, and vpō that people that is gathered together from among the heathen, which haue gotten cattel & goodes, and dwell in the middes of the land. 13 Then ſhall Saba and Dedan, and the marchauntes of Tharſis with al their Lions, ſay vnto thee, (f) Art thou come to ſpoyle a pꝛay? haſt thou gathered thy people together to take a bootie, to take away ſiluer and golde, to cary away cattell and good, and to haue a great pꝛay? 14 Therefoꝛe, O thou ſonne of man, thou ſhalt pꝛophecie and ſay vnto Gog, thus ſaith the Loꝛd God: In that day when my people Iſrael (g) dwelleth ſafe, ſhalt thou not knowe it? 15 And thou ſhalt come from thy place out of the noꝛth partes, thou and much people with thee, whiche ryde all vpon hoꝛſes, (euen) a great multitude and a mighti armie.

16 Yea thou ſhalt come vpon my people of Iſrael, as a cloude to couer the lande: this ſhall come to paſſe in the (h) latter dayes, and I will bꝛyng thee vp into my land, that the heathen may knowe me, when I ſhalbe (i) ſanctified in thee O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus ſaith the Loꝛd God, Art not thou he of whom I haue ſpoke in olde tyme by the handes of my ſeruauntes the pꝛophetes of Iſrael, whiche pꝛophecied in thoſe dayes and yeres, that I ſhoulde bꝛyng thee vpon them?

18 At the ſame tyme when Gog commeth vp into the lande of Iſrael, ſaith the Loꝛd God, ſhall mine indignation ryſe in my wꝛath: 19 Foꝛ in my iealouſie and fire of my wꝛath haue I ſpoken it, ſurely at that tyme there ſhalbe a great ſhaking in the lande of Iſrael.

20 The very fiſches in the ſea, the foules in the ayre, the beaſtes of the fielde, and all that moue & creepe vpon the earth, and all the men that are vpon the earth, ſhall tremble at my preſence: the hylles alſo ſhalbe turned vpſide downe, the (k) ſtayres ſhall fall, and all walles ſhall fall downe to the ground. 21 I wyll call foꝛ a ſwoꝛde vpon (l) him in all my mountaynes, ſaith the Loꝛde God: ſo that euery mans ſwoꝛde ſhalbe vpon another.

22 With peſtilence and blood wyll I pleade againſt him: ſtoꝛmie rayne and hayleſtones, fire and bꝛimſtone wyll I cauſe to rayne vpon him & al his hoaſtes, yea and vpon al that great people that is with him. 23 Thus wyll I be magnified, ſanctified, and knowen in the eyes of many nations: & they ſhall knowe that I am the Loꝛde.

¶ The. xxxix. Chpater.

1 He ſheweth the deſtruction of Gog and Magog. 11 The graue of Gog & his hoaſt.

THerefoꝛe O thou ſonne of man, pꝛophecie againſt Gog, & ſpeake, thus ſaith the Loꝛd God: Behold O Gog, thou chiefe pꝛince at Meſech and Tubal, I wil vpon thee. 2 And I wyll "turne thee about, and I" wyll (a) pꝛouoke thee foꝛwarde, and cauſe thee to come vp frō the noꝛth partes, and bꝛyng thee vp to the mountaynes of Iſrael. 3 As foꝛ thy bowe, I wyll ſmyte it out of thy left hande, & cauſe thyne arrowes to fall out of thy right hande. 4 Thou with all thyne hoaſt, and all the people that is with thee, ſhall fall vpon the mountaynes of Iſrael: then wyll I geue thee vnto the (b) flockes of byrdes (euen) to all fethered foules and beaſtes of the fielde, to be deuoured. 5 Thou ſhalt fall vpon the open fielde: foꝛ I haue ſpoken it, ſaith the Loꝛde God. 6 Into Magog, and among thoſe that ſit ſo carelelſe in the Iles wyll I ſende a fire, and they ſhall knowe that I am the Loꝛde. 7 I wyll make alſo the name of my holyneſſe to be knowen among my people of Iſrael, and I wyl not let them pollute my holy name any moꝛe: but the very heathen alſo ſhall knowe that I am the Loꝛde, the holy one of Iſrael. 8 Beholde it is (c) come, and it is done, ſaith the Loꝛde God: this is the day whereof I haue ſpoken.

(b) Hereby he ſignifieth that whiche is wont to befall in warre: that the bodyes of the ſlayne ſhould be vnburyed.

(c) That is, this plague is fully determined in my counſell, and can not be chaunged.

9 They that dwell in the cities of Israel, shall go foorth and (d) set fire vpon the weapons, and burne them, shrildes and speares, bowes and arrowes, handestaues and "swordes, and they shall burne them with fire seuen yere. 10 So that they shall elsbring no wood from the fielde, neither hewe downe any out of the wood: for with weapons shall they make their fire, they shall rob those that robbed them, and spoyle those that spoyled them, saith the Lorde God. 11 At the same tyme will I geue vnto Gog a place to be buryed in Israel, euen the valley wherethrough men go towarde the east sea: those that trauayle thereby shall (e) stop their noses, there shal Gog & all his multitude be buryed, and it shalbe called the valley of the "multitude of Gog. 12 Seuen monethes long shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the lande: 13 Yea all the people of the lande shall bury them, and they shall haue a name when I shalbe glorified, saith the Lorde God. 14 They shall chose out men to go continually thorow the land, to (f) bury as they passe through those that remayne vpon the grounde, to cleanse it: after the ende of seuen monethes shall they make their searche. 15 And the trauaylers that passe thorowe the land, where they see a mans bone they shall set vp a token by it, till the dead buryers haue buryed it also in the valley of the "multitude of Gog. 16 And the name of the citie shalbe called (g) Hamonah: thus shall they make the lande cleane.

17 And thou sonne of man, thus saith the Lorde God: Speake vnto all feathered fowles, yea & to all the beastes of the fielde, Assemble you together, and come, gather you rounde about to my (h) sacrifice that I sacrifice for you, (euen) a great sacrifice vpon the mountaynes of Israel, that ye may eate flesche, and drinke blood. 18 Ye shall eate the flesh of the valiaunt, & drinke the blood of the princes of the lande, of the rammes, of the weathers, of the goates, and of the bullockes, that be all fed at Basan. 19 Ye shall eate the fat vnto belly full, and drinke blood till ye be dronke of my sacrifice, which I haue sacrificed for you. 20 Ye shall fill you at my table with horses and "horsemen, with the valiaunt and men of warre, saith the Lorde God.

21 I will set my glory also among the gentiles, that all the hathen may see my iudgement that I haue executed, & my hande whiche I haue layde vpon them. 22 And the house of Israel shal knowe that I am the Lorde their God, from that day, and so forwarde.

23 And the heathen shall know, that whereas the house of Israel was led into captiuitie, it was for their(i) wickednesse sake, because they offended me: for the which cause I hyd my face from them, and deliuered them into the handes of their enemies, that they might all be slayne with the sworde.

24 Accordyng to their vncleanenesse, and accordyng to their transgressions haue I done vnto them, & hyd my face from them. 25 Therfore thus saith the Lorde God, Nowe will I bryng agayne the captiues of Jacob, and haue mercy vpō the whole house of Israel, & be ielous for my holy names sake,

26 After that they haue borne their shame, and al their transgressiō, wherby they haue transgressed against me when they dwelt safely in their lande, and no man to feare them: 27 And when I haue brought them agayne from among the people, when I haue gathered them together out of their enemies landes, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations:

28 Then shall they knowe that I am the Lorde their God, whiche caused them to be led into captiuitie among the heathen, but haue gathered them agayne into their owne lande, and not left one of them any more there.

29 After that will I hyde my face no more from them, but will powre out my spirite vpon the house of Israel, saith the Lorde God.

The. xl. Chapter.

1 The restoring of the cities and of the temple that was to come, is shewed vnto the prophete.

IN the fiue and twentie yere of our captiuitie, in the (a) beginning of the yere, the tenth day of the moneth, that is the fourteenth yere after the citie was smitten, the selfe same day came the hande of the Lorde vpon me, and brought me thyther:

2 Euen into the lande of Israel brought he me in the visions of God, and set me downe vpon a marueylous hye mountayne, whereupon there was as it had ben the buylding of a citie towarde the south.

3 Thyther he caryed me, and beholde there was a (b) man, whose

(h) As solemne sacrifices were common feastes to great multitudes of people assembled: so was this slaughter as a great sacrifice and feast for all byrdes and beastes to feede vpon. "Or, Chargotteg.

(i) The heathen shall knowe that they ouercame not my people by their owne strength, neither yet by the weakenesse of mine arme, but that this was for my peoples sinnes,

(a) The Iewes counted the beginning of the yere after two sortes: for feastes, they began to count in Marche: and for their other affayres, in Septēber: so that this is to be vnderstande of September.

(b) Whiche was an angel in fourme of a man, that came to measure out this buylding.

similitude was like brasse, whiche had a twisted line of flax in his hande, and a cane to measure with: and he stoode in the dooze. 4 And that man sayde vnto me, Thou sonne of man, marke well with thyne (c) eyes, hearken to with thyne eares, and fasten it in thy heart whatsoeuer I shall shewe thee: for to the intent that they myght be shewed thee, therfore art thou brought hyther, & whatsoeuer thou seest, thou shalt certifie the house of Israel therof. 5 Beholde there was a wall on the (d) outside of the house rounde about: the cane to measure with that he had in his hande was sixe cubites long by the (e) cubite, and a hande breadth: So he measured the breadth of the building with one cane, and the heyght with one cane. 6 Then came he to the gate which looketh towarde the east, and went vp the stayres therof, and measured the post of the gate one cane broade, and the other post of the gate one cane broade. 7 And (euery) chamber was one cane long & one cane broade, & betweene the chambers were fiue cubites: and the post of the gate by the porche of the gate within was one cane. 8 He measured also the porche of the gate within with one cane. 9 Then measured he the porche of the gate eyght cubites: and the "pentises therof two cubites, & the porche of the gate (was) inward. 10 And the chambers of the gate eastward, were three on this side, and three on that side: they three were of one measure, and the pentises had one measure on this side, and one measure on that side. 11 After this, he measured the breadth of the entrie of the gate ten cubites, and the heyght of the gate thirteene cubites. 12 The space also before the chambers was one cubite (on this side) and the space one cubite on that side: and the chambers sixe cubites on this side, and sixe cubites on that side. 13 He measured the gate from the roofe of a chamber to his owne roofe the breadth of fiue & twentie cubites: dooze against dooze. 14 He made "frontes also of threescore cubites, (euen) vnto the front of the court rounde about the gate.

15 And from the forefront of the entrie of the gate, vnto the forefront of the gate within (were) fiftie cubites.

16 And there were narow windowes in the chambers, and in the frontes within the gate rounde about: and so in the arches: and the windowes (went) rounde about within, and vpon the frontes were paulme trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outward court, where as were chambers, and a pauement made for the court rounde about: thirtie chambers were vpon the pauement. 18 And the pauement (was) by the side of the gates ouer against the length of the gates: & the pauement (was) beneath. 19 Then he measured the breadth frō the forefront of the lower gate without, vnto the forefront of the court within, a hundreth cubites eastward and northwarde. 20 And the gate in the outwarde court that looked towarde the north measured he after the length & breadth therof. 21 And the chambers therof (were) three on this side, & three on that side: and the frontes thereof, and the arches therof were after the measure of the (f) first gate: the length therof was fiftie cubites, & the breadth fiue and twentie cubites. 22 And their windowes and their arches with their paulme trees (were) after ỹ measure of the gate that looketh towarde the east: and the going vp vnto it (had) seuen steppes, and the arches thereof (were) before them. 23 And the gate of the inner court (stoode) ouer against the gate toward the north and toward the east, and he measured from gate to gate a hundreth cubites. 24 After that he brought me toward the south, where there stoode a gate towarde the south, and he measured the frontes thereof and the arches thereof according to those measures. 25 And (there were) windowes in it, and in the arches therof rounde about lyke these windowes: the length (was) fiftie cubites, and the breadth fiue and twentie cubites. 26 And (there were) seuen steppes at the goyng vp to it, and the arches therof before them: and it had paulme trees, one on this side, & another on that side, vpon the front therof. 27 And (there was) a gate in the inner court towarde the south, and he measured from gate to gate towarde the south a hundred cubites. 28 So he brought me into the inner court thorowe the south gate, and he measured the south gate according to those measures. 29 And the chambers therof, the frontes therof, and the arches thereof according to these measures, and windowes in it: and in the arches thereof rounde about fiftie cubites long, & fiue and twentie cubites broade.

(c) By this and the lyke Hebrue phrases, he exhorted hym to beholde, and marke diligently as a thing worthy noting.

(d) Whiche compassed the whole bill of Sion, in the top whereof the temple was buylded.

(e) The cubite whiche he speaketh of, was larger then the common cubute by a hād breadth: that is, foure inches, & it was called the holy cubute: the common cubite contayned but fiue hande breadth, and this sixe. Reade chap. 43.

broade. 30 And the arches rounde about (were) fiue and twentie cubites long, and fiue cubites broade. 31 And the arches thereof (were) towarde the vtter court, and paulme trees vpon the frontes therof, and the goyng vp to it (had) eyght steppes. 32 He brought me also into the inmost court towarde the east, and measured the gate accoyding to those measures. 33 And the chambers therof, and frontes therof, and the arches therof (were) accoyding to these measures, & there were windowes therin, and in the arches therof round about: it (was) fiftie cubites long, and fiue and twentie cubites broade. 34 And the arches thereof (were) towarde the vtter court, and paulme trees vpon the frontes therof on this side and on that side, and the goyng vp to it had eyght steppes.

35 And he brought me to the north gate, & measured it accoyding to those measures. 36 The chambers therof, the frontes therof, and the arches therof, and (there were) windowes therin rounds about: and the length (was) fiftie cubites, & the breadth fiue and twentie cubites. 37 And the frontes therof (were) towarde the vtter court, and paulme trees (were) vpon the frontes thereof on this side and on that side, and the goyng vp to it had eyght steppes. 38 And a chamber and the entrie thereof (was) vnder the frontes of the gates: there they washed the (g) burnt offeringes.

39 And in the poyzch of the gate stoode two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, vpon the which they slue the burnt offering, and the sinne offering, and the trespasse offering.

40 And at the side without the steps at the entrie of the north gate (stoode) two tables, & on the other side whiche was at the poyche of the gate (were) two tables. 41 Foure tables were on this side, and foure on that side by the side of the gate, (euen) eyght tables, wherevpon they slue (their sacrifices.)

42 And the foure tables were of hewen stone for the burnt offering, of a cubite and a halfe long, and a cubite and a halfe broade, and one cubite hye, wherevpon were layde the instruments wherwith they slue the burnt offering, and the sacrifice. 43 And within there were" hookes one hand breadth (long) fastened rounde about, and vpon the tables was the offering flesh.

44 And without the inner gate (were) the chambers of the singers in the inwarde court, whiche was at the side of the north gate, and their prospect was toward the south: and one was at the side of the east gate, hauing the prospect towarde the north. 45 And he sayde vnto me, This chamber whose prospect is towarde the south, (is) for the priestes that haue charge to kepe the house. 46 And the chamber whose prospect is towarde the north (is) for the priestes that haue charge to kepe the aulter: these are the sonnes of Sadoc, which of the sonnes of Leui come neare to the Lorde, to minister vnto him. 47 So he measured the court, whiche had in length a hundred cubites, and a hundred in breadth, (euen) foure square: and the aulter stoode before the house. 48 And he brought me to the poyche of the (h) house, and measured the poyche fiue cubites on this side, and fiue cubites on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubites on this side, and three cubites on that side. 49 The (i) length of the poyche was twentie cubites, the breadth eleuen cubites, and by steppes went men vp to it: by the frontes also were pillers, one on this side, and another on that side.

1 The disposition and deuice of building agayne the temple, and of the other thinges thereto belonging.

AFter this he brought me to the temple, and measured the frontes fiue cubites broade on the one side, and fiue cubites broade on the other side, (whiche was) the breadth of the tabernacle. 2 The breadth of the doore was ten cubites, and the sides of the doore (were) fiue cubites on the one side, and fiue cubites on the other side, and he measured the length (a) thereof fourtie cubites, and the breadth twentie cubites. 3 Then went he in and measured the front of the doore two cubites: but the doore it selfe was fiue cubites, and the breadth on the other side of the doore was seuen cubites. 4 He measured the length therof twentie cubites, and the breadth twentie cubites before the temple: and he sayde vnto me, This is the most holy (place.) 5 He measured also the wall of the house fiue cubites, and the breadth of a chamber foure cubites rounde about the house on euery side. 6 And the chambers were chamber vpon chamber, three and thirtie in order: & they entred the wall which was of the house for the chambers rounde about, that they might be fastened, & not be fastened in the wall of the house. 7 There was an enlarging, & a winding about, mounting still vpwarde to the chambers: for the staire of the house was mounting still vpwarde rounde about the house, therfore the house was larger vpwarde: so they went vp from the lowest (chamber) to the highest by the midst. 8 And I sawe the house hye rounde about: the foundations of the chambers (were) a full cane of sixe cubites (b) vp to the armeholes.

21 The postes of the temple were foure squared, and the fashion of the sanctuarie was (e) appearaunce lyke appearaunce. 22 The aulter of wood was three cubites hye, & two cubites long: the corners, the length, and the walles thereof were of wood. And he sayde vnto me, This is the table that shalbe before the Lorde. 23 The temple and the holyest of all had either of them two doores. 24 And the doores had two (f) doores (a peece, euen) two folding doores, two for the one doore, and two doores for the other. 25 And vpon the doores of the temple, there were made Cherubims and paulme trees, lyke as was made vpon the walles: and thicke beames vpon the forefront of the porche without. 26 And (there were) narowe windowes and paulme trees on the one side and on the other side, by the sides of the porche, and vpon the sides of the house, and thicke beames.

1 Of the chambers of the temple for the prieſtes, and the holy thinges.

Then led he me into the vtter court by the way towarde the north, and he brought me into the chamber that (was) ouer against the separate place, whiche (was) before the buylding towarde the north. 2 Before the length of a hundred cubites (was) the north doore: and the breadth (was) fiftie cubites. 3 Ouer against the twentie cubites, whiche were for the inner court, and ouer against the pauement, whiche was for the vtter court, (was) chamber against chamber, three (orders.) 4 And before the chambers, there was a walking place of ten cubites wyde inwarde, the way of one cubite: and their doores towarde the north. 5 Thus the vpper chambers were alway narower: for those chambers (seemed) to eate vp these, (to wit) the lower and the middlemer of the buylding. 6 For they were in three orders, but had no pyllers as the pyllers of the courtes: therefore were they they smaller then the nethermost and 28 the middlemost (to recken) from the grounde. 7 And the wall that was without ouer against the chambers, towarde the vtter court on the forefront of the chambers, the length therof was fiftie cubits. 8 For the length of the chambers that were in the vtter court was fiftie cubites: and lo, before the temple was a hundred cubites. 9 And vnder these chambers (was) the entrie from the east, as one goeth vnto them from the vtter court. 10 In the thicknesse of the wall of the court towarde the east before the separate place, and before the buylding of the chambers. 11 And the way before them after the appea-raunce of the chambers whiche were towarde the north, as their length, so was their breadth: and all their entries (were) according to their fashion, and according to their doores. 12 And according to the doores of the chambers that were toward the south, (was) a doore in the head of the way, (euen) the way directly before the wall to-warde the east, as one entreth.

13 Then sayd he vnto me, The chambers towarde the north, and the chambers towarde the south, which are before the separate place, those be holy chambers, wherein the priestes that
(a) approche vnto the Lorde must eate the most holy thinges, and there must they lay the most holy thinges, and the meate offering, and sinne offering, and tresspasse offering: for it is a holy place. 14 When the priestes come therein, they shall not go out of the holy place into the vtter court, but there they shall lay vp their garments wherin they minister, for they are holy: and shall put on (b) other garmentes, & so shall approche to those which are for the people. 15 Nowe when he had finished the measuring of the house within, he led me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and he measured it rounde about.
16 He measured the east side with the measuring cane five hundred canes, (euen) with the measuring cane rounde about. 17 And he measured the north side five hundred canes, (euen) with the measuring cane round about. 18 The south side also measured he five hundred canes, by the measuring cane. 19 He turned about (also) to the west side, and measured five hundred canes, by the measuring cane. 20 So he measured it by the foure sides: it had a wall rounde about five hundred canes long, and five hundred broade, to make a separation betweene the (c) sanctuarie, and the prophane place.

23 Nowe when thou hast made an ende of clensing it, then offer a young bullocke without blemithe, and a ram out of the flocke without blemithe also. 24 Offer them before the Lorde, and let the priestes cast salt therupon, and geue them so vnto the Lorde for a burnt offering. 25 Seuen dayes shalt thou prepare euery day a goate bucke for sinne, a young bullocke and a ramme of the flocke, both without blemithe shall they prepare. 26 Seuen dayes shall they reconcile and cleanse the aulter, and (e) fill the place therof. 27 When these dayes are expired, then vpon the eyght day and so forth, the priestes shall make your burnt offeringes, and peace offeringes vpon the aulter: so I wyll accept you, saith the Lorde God.

¶ The.xliiii. Chapter.

1 He sheweth what doore of the temple is shut. 6 He is commaunded to vpbrayde the people with their offence.

AFter this he brought me agayne to the outwarde gate of the sanctuarie on the east side, and that was shut. 2 Then sayde the Lorde vnto me, This gate shalbe shut (a) shut and not opened, neither shall any man go through it: for the Lorde God of Israel hath entred by it, and it shalbe shut. 3 It is for the prince, the prince hym selfe shall sit in it to eate bread before the Lorde: he shall enter by the way of the porche of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same. 4 Then brought he me towarde the north gate before the house: and as I looked, beholde the glory of the Lorde filled the house of the Lorde, and I fell vpon my face.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious (euen) to the house of Israel, thus saith the Lorde God, O house of Israel, ye haue inough of all your abhominations. 7 Seeing ye haue brought into my sanctuarie (b) straungers hauing vncircumcised heartes and vncircumcised flesh, to be in my sanctuarie to pollute my house, when ye offer my bread, fat, and blood, & they haue broken my conenaunt because of all your abhominations: 8 And ye haue not kept the (c) ordinaunces of my holy thinges, and ye haue set keepers

Of all the straungers that dwell among the chyldren of Israel, no straunger uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesche, shall enter into my sanctuarie. 10 But the Leuites that went backe from me when Israel went astraye, whiche strayed from me after theyr idols, (e) shall beare theyr iniquitie: 11 And they shalbe ministers in my sanctuarie, and kepe the gates of the house, and minister in the house: they shall slay the burnt offrynges, and the sacrifice for the people, and they shal stand before them to serue them. 12 Because they serued before theyr idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquitie: therefore haue I lyft vp my hande agaynst them, saith the Lorde God, and they shall beare theyr iniquitie.

13 And they shall not come neare vnto me to do the office of a priestе vnto me, neither shall they come neare vnto any of myne holy thynges in the most holy place: but they shall beare theyr owne shame and abhominations whiche they haue done. 14 And I will make them kepers of the watch of the house for all the seruice thereof, and for all that shalbe done therin.

15 But the priestes, the Leuites, the sonnes of Sadoc that (f) kept the charge of my sanctuarie when the chyldren of Israel strayed from me, shall come to me to do me seruice, to stande before me, and to offer me the fat and the blood, saith the lord God. 16 They shall go into my sanctuarie, and approche vnto my table to do me seruice, and they shal kepe my charge.

17 Nowe when they go in at the gates of the innermer court, they shal put on linnen clothes, so that no wollen come vppon them whyle they do seruice vnder the gates of the innermer court, and within. 18 They shall haue lynnen bonnets vppon theyr heades, and lynnen "breeches vpon theyr loynes: they shal not gird themselues in the "sweate. 19 And when they go foorth into the vtter court (euen) to the vtter court of the people, they shall put of the clothes wherein they haue ministred, and lay them in the chaumber of the sanctuarie, and put on other apparel, and they shal not sanctifie the people withtheir clothes. 20 They shall not (g) haue theyr heades, nor suffer theyr heere to grow long, but powle theyr heades only.

21 All the priestes that go into the inmost court shall drynke no wine.

22 They shall mary no wydowe, neither one that is put from her husbande: but a mayde of the seede of the house of Israel, or a widow that hath had a priest before. 23 They shall shewe my people the difference betweene the holy and vnholy, and cause them to discerne betwixt the cleane and vncleane. 24 And in controuersie they shall stand to iudge, and geue sentence after my iudgementes: and my lawes and my statutes shall they kepe in all my solempne feastes, and halow my Sabbathes. 25 They shall come at no dead person to defile themselues: but to father or mother, sonne or daughter, brother or sister, that hath had yet no husband, (h) (in those) may they be defiled. 26 And when he is cleansed, there shalbe reckened vnto hym seuen dayes. 27 And when he goeth into the sanctuarie vnto the inner court to minister in the sanctuarie, he shall bryng his sinne offering sayth the Lorde. 28 (i) There shalbe to them an inheritance, (euen) I theyr inheritaunce: but possession shall ye geue them none in Israel, for I am theyr possession. 29 The meate offering, sinne offering, and trespasse offering shall they eate: and euery dedicate thyng in Israel shalbe theyrs.

30 And al the first of al the first bozne, and euery oblation, (euen) all of euery sort of your oblations shalbe the priestes: ye shal also geue vnto the priestes the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thyne house. 31 But the priestes shall eate nothyng that is dead (by it selfe) or torne of foule, or of beaste.

The.xlvii. Chapter.

¶ 1 The vision of the waters that came out of the temple. 13 The coastes of the lande of promise, and the deuision thereof by tribes.

AFterwarde he brought me agayne vnto the dooze of the house, and beholde there gushed out (a) waters from vnder the threshold of the house eastwarde: for the forefront of the house stoode towarde the east: and the waters ran downe from vnder the ryght syde of the house, whiche lyeth to the aulter southwarde. 2 Then led he me out to the northe gate, and led me about by the way without vnto the vtter gate, by the way that turneth eastwarde: and beholde, there ilined foorth waters from the ryght syde.

3 Nowe when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousande cubites, and then he brought me through the waters, the waters were to the ancles. 4 So he measured yet a thousande, and brought me through the waters, the waters were to the knees: yet measured he a thousande, and brought me through, the waters (were) to the loynes. 5 After this he measured a thousande agayne, then was it such a (b) riuer that I might not wade through it, the waters was rysen, and the waters dyd flowe as a ryuer that myght not be waded ouer. 6 And he saide vnto me, Hast thou seene this O thou sonne of man? and with that he brought me, and caused me to returne to the ryuer banke agayne. 7 Nowe when I returned, behold at the banke of the ryuer were very many trees (c) on the one syde and on the other.

8 Then sayde he vnto me, These waters flowe out towarde the east countrey, and run downe into the playne, and come into the (d) sea: which when it commeth into the sea, the (e) waters shalbe wholsome. 9 Yea, al that lyue and moue, whereveto this ryuer commeth, shall lyue: and there shalbe a very great multitude of fysh, because these waters shall come thyther, for they shalbe holsome: and euery thing shall liue whither the riuer commeth. 10 By this ryuer shall the fishers stand, from En gaddi vnto En eglaim, and there spreade out theyr nets: for theyr fishe shalbe accordyng to theyr kyndes, as the fyshe of the mayne sea, exceeding many. 11 But the marishes therof, and the pittes therof shall not be made holsome, they shalbe made salt pits. 12 By this riuer vpon the bankes therof on this side and on that syde shall growe all trees for meate, whose leaues shall not fade, neither shall the fruite therof fayle, but shall bryng foorth newe fruite according to his monethes, for the waters thereof runne out of the sanctuarie: and the fruite therof shalbe for meate, and the leaues therof for "medicine. 13 Thus sayth the Lorde God, Let this be the border whereby ye shall inherite the lande according to the twelue tribes of Israel, Joseph shal haue two portions. 14 And ye shal inherite it one as wel as an other, concerning the which I lift vp my hand to geue it vnto your fathers: and this land shall fall vnto you for inheritaunce. 15 This is the border of the (f) lande vpon the northside, from the maine sea toward Hethlon, as men go to Zedada. 16 (Namely) Hamah, Berotha, Sabarim, which are betweene the borders of Damascus, and betweene the borders of Hamah, Hazar Hatichon, that lieth vpon the coastes of Hauran. 17 Thus the borders from the sea forth shalbe Hazar Enan, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the borders of Hamah: this is the northpart.

18 The east side shal ye measure from Hauran and Damascus, from Gilead and the land of Israel by Jordane, and from the border vnto the east sea: and this is the east part. 19 The south side shalbe towarde Teman, from Thamar to the waters of "strife in Cades, and the ryuer to the mayne sea: and that is the south part toward Teman. 20 The west part also shalbe the great sea, from the borders till a man come ouer agaynst Hamah: this is the west part. 21 This lande shall ye part among you accordyng to the tribes of Israel. 22 And diuide it by lot to be an heritage for you, and for the straungers that dwell among you and beget chyldren among you: for ye shall take them among the children of Israel lyke as though they were of your owne countrey, and they shal haue (g) heritage with you among the chyldren of Israel. 23 And in what tribe the straunger dwelleth, in the same tribe shall ye geue hym his heritage, sayth the Lorde God.

THese are the names of the tribes: From the north syde to the coast towarde Hethlon, tyll thou commest vnto Hamah and Hazer Enan, the borders of Damascus northwarde, the coast of Hamah, Dan shall haue his portion from the east quarter vnto the west. 2 Vpon the borders of Dan, from the east syde vnto the west, shall Aser haue his portion. 3 Vpon the borders of Aser, from the east part vnto the west, shal Nephthali haue his portion. 4 Vppon the borders of Nephthali, from the east quarter vnto the west, shall Manasses haue his portion. 5 Vppon the borders of Manasses, from the east syde vnto the west, shall Ephraim haue his portion. 6 Vpon the borders of Ephraim, from the east part vnto the west, shall Ruben haue his portion. 7 Vpon the borders of Ruben, from the east quarter vnto the west shall Juda haue his portion.

8 Vpon the borders of Juda, from the east part vnto the west part, shalbe the (a) offeryng which they shall offer of fiue and twentie thousande (canes) broade, and of length as one of the parters from the east syde vnto the west side: and the sanctuarie shalbe in the midst of it. 9 The oblation that ye shal offer vnto the Lord, shalbe fiue and twentie thousande long, and ten thousande broade. 10 And for these (euen) for the priestes shalbe this holy oblation: Towarde the north fiue and twentie thousande (long) and towarde the west ten thousand broade, toward the east ten thousand broade also, and towarde the south fiue and twentie thousande long, and the sanctuarie of the Lorde shalbe in the midst thereof.

11 This sanctified portion shalbe the priestes that are of the children of Sadoc, whiche haue kept my charge, which went not astray in the errour of the chyldren of Israel lyke as the Leuites went astray. 12 Therfore this oblation of the lande that is offered, shalbe theyrs as a thyng most holye, hard vppon the borders of the Leuites. 13 And ouer agaynst the border of the priestes, shall the Leuites haue fiue and twentie thousand long, and ten thousand broade: al the length shalbe fiue and twentie thousand, and the breadth ten thousande. 14 Of this portion they shal sel nothyng, nor make any permutation thereof, nor alienate the first fruites of the lande: for it is holy vnto the Lord. 15 And the fiue thousande that are left in the breadth ouer agaynst the fiue and twentie thousande shalbe a prophane place for the citie, for housyng, and for suburbes: and the citie shalbe in the midst thereof. 16 And these shalbe the measures thereof: The north part fiue hundred and foure thousand, and the south (b) part fiue hundred and foure thousande, and the east part fiue hundred and foure thousande, and the west part fiue hundred and foure thousande. 17 The suburbes of the citie shal haue towarde the north two hundred and fiftie, towarde the south two hundred and fiftie, towarde the east two hundred & fiftie, towarde the west also two hundred and fiftie. 18 And the residue in length ouer against the oblation of the holy portion, shalbe ten thousand toward the east, and ten thousand toward the west: and it shalbe ouer against the oblation of the holy portion: and the encrease thereof shalbe for theyr meate that serue the citie. 19 And they that serue the citie, they shall serue it out of all the tribes of Israel. 20 All the oblation shalbe fyue and twentie thousande (c) with fyue and twentie thousande: ye shall offer this oblation foure square, for the sanctuarie, and for the possession of the citie. 21 And the residue shalbe for the prince, on the one syde and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the citie ouer against the fiue and twentie thousande of the oblation towarde the east border: and westwarde ouer against the fyue and twentie thousande towarde the west border, ouer against shalbe the portion for the prince: this shalbe the holy oblation, and the house of the sanctuarie shalbe in the midst thereof. 22 Moreouer, from the possession of the Leuites, and the cities possession, that which is in the midst shalbe the princes, betwixt the border of (d) Juda and the border of Beniamin shalbe the princes. 23 Now of the other tribes: from the east part vnto the west, shall Beniamin haue his portion. 24 Vppon the borders of Beniamin, from the east side vnto the west, shall Simeon haue his portion. 25 Vppon the borders of Simeon, from the east side vnto the west, shall Issachar haue his portion. 26 Vpon the borders of Issachar,

(a) That is, the portion of the grounde whiche they shall separate and appoynt to the Lord, which shalbe diuided into three partes: for the priestes, for the prince, and for the citie.

Chap. 44.8.

(b) Meanyng that it should be square.

(c) Euery way it shalbe fiue & twentie thousand.

(d) So that Juda was on the north side of the princes and Leuites portions, and Beniamin on the south syde.

Isachar, from the east syde vnto the west, shall Zabulon haue his portion.
27 Vppon the borders of Zabulon, from the east part vnto the west, shall Gad haue his portion. 28 Vpon the borders of Gad at the south syde towarde Temanah, the border shalbe from Thamar, vnto the waters of "strife to Cades, and to the riuer (that runneth) into the mayne sea.
29 This is the land which ye shal diuide by lot for an inheritaunce vnto the tribes of Israel, and these be their portions sayth the Lorde God.
30 These be the bondes of the citie, vpon the north part fyue hundred and foure thousande measures. 31 The gates of the citie shal haue the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates of the north syde: one gate of Ruben, another of Juda, the third of Leui.
32 Vpon the east syde fine hundred & foure thousande (measures,) with three gates: the one of Joseph, another of Beniamin, the third of Dan, 33 Vppon the south syde fyue hundred and foure thousande measures, with the three gates: the one of Simeon, another of Isachar, the third of Zabulon.
34 And vpon the west syde, fyue hundred & fyue thousande measures, with their three gates also: the one of Gad, another of Aser, the third of Nephthali. 35 Thus shall it haue eyghteene thousande measures rounde about: and the name of the citie from that tyme foorth shalbe, "The lorde is there.

¶ The booke of the prophete Daniel.

¶ The first Chapter.

¶ 1 The prophete sheweth the captiuitie of Iehoakim kyng of Iuda, 4 Of the chyldren that were in captiuitie, the kyng commaundeth to choose whiche of them shoulde be taught the learnyng and language of the Chaldeans.

(a) Reade 2. king. 24. & Jere. 25. 8.

IN the (a) thirde yere of the raigne of Iehoakim kyng of Iuda, came Nabuchodonozor kyng of Babylon vnto Hierusalem, and beseged it.
2 And the Lord deliuered Iehoakim the kyng of Iuda into his hande, with part of the vessels of the house of God, which he caryed away into the lande of (b) Senaar to the house of his God, and he brought the vesselles into his gods treasurie. 3 And the kyng spake vnto Aspenaz the (c) cheefe chamberlayne, that he shoulde bryng hym certayne of the chyldren of Israel, of the kynges seede, and of the princes,
4 Sprynguldes without any blemish, but well fauoured, fudious in al wysdome, skilfull for knowledge, able to vnderstand knowledge, & such as haue lyuelynesse in them, that they (d) may stand in the kinges palace: and whom they might teache the learning & the tonng of the Chaldeans. 5 Vnto these the king appointed a dayly prouision euery day of a portion of the kings meat, and of the wine which he dranke, so to nourysshe them three yeres, that afterwarde they myght stande before the kyng. 6 Among these now were certaine of the chyldren of Juda: (namely) Daniel, Ananias, Misael, and Azarias. 7 Vnto these the cheefe chamberlaine gaue (e) other names, and called Daniel, Baltassar: Ananias, Sidrach: Misael, Misach: and Azarias, Abednego. 8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he woulde not defile him selfe with the portion of the kings meate, nor with the wine which he dranke: therefore he required the cheefe chamberlayne that he myght not defile hym selfe. 9 (And God brought Daniel into fauour & tender loue with the cheefe chamberlayne.)
10 And the cheefe chamberlaine said vnto Daniel, I am afrayde of my lorde the kyng which hath appointed you your meate and your drinke: wherefore shoulde he see your faces worse lykyng then the sprygnaldes of your age, and so ye shall make me indaunger my head vnto the kyng.
11 Then Daniel sayde vnto Melesar, whom the cheefe chamberlayne had set ouer Daniel, Ananias, Misael, and Azarias: 12 O proue but ten dayes with thy seruaunts, and let vs haue pulse to eate, and water to drynke. 13 Then let our countenaunces be loked vpon before thee, and the countenaunces of the chyldren that eate of the portion of the kynges

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

¶ 1 The dreame of Nabuchodonozor. 2 He calleth vnto hym soothsayers, & requireth of them both the dreame & the interpretation thereof.

IN the (a) seconde yere of the raigne of Nabuchodonozor, had Nabuchodonozor a dreame, wherethrough his spirite was troubled, and his sleepe brake from hym. 2 Then the kyng commaunded to call the wyse men, and soothsayers, and sorcerers, and the Chaldees, for to shew the kyng his dreame: So they came, and stoode before the kyng. 3 And the kyng sayde vnto them, I haue dreamed a dreame, and my spirite was troubled to knowe the dreame. 4 Vpon this the Chaldees aunswered the kyng in the Syrians speache, O kyng, God saue thy lyfe for euer: shewe thy seruauntes the dreame, and we shall shewe the interpretation. 5 The kyng aunswered and sayde to the Chaldeans, The thyng is gone fro me: If ye wyll not make me vnderstande the dreame, with the interpretation thereof, ye shalbe drawne in peeces, and your houses made a stakes. 6 But yf ye tell me the dreame and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receaue of me gyftes, rewardes, and great honour, therefore shewe me the dreame and the interpretation thereof. 7 They aunswered agayne, and sayde, The kyng must shewe his seruauntes the dreame, and so shall we declare the interpretation thereof. 8 Then the kyng aunswered, saying, I perceaue of a treuth that ye wolde (b) redeeme the tyme, for so muche as ye see the thyng is gone fro me. 9 Therefore yf ye wyll not tell me the dreame, this is your only purpose, Ye haue prepared lying and corrupt wordes to speake before me, tyll the tyme be chaunged: therefore tell me the dreame, that I may knowe that ye can declare me the interpretation thereof. 10 Vpon this the Chaldees gaue aunswere before the kyng, and sayde, There is no man vppon earth that can tell the thyng which the kyng speaketh of, yea there is neither kyng, prince, nor lorde that euer asked suche thynges at a wyse man, soothsayer, or Chaldean.

(a) The father and the sonne were both called by this name, so that it is meant of the sonne when he raigned alone: for he raigned also after a sorte with his father: Or els in the second yere of his generall conquest of other barbarous nations,

(b) Ye seeke occasion of delayes, vntyll some other affaires myght happen, and make me forget the matter.

11 For it is a rare matter that the kyng requireth, neither is there any that can certifie the kyng therof, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesshe. 12 For the which cause the kyng was wroth with great indignation, and commaunded to destroy all the wyse men at Babylon. 13 So the decree went forth, and the wyse men were slayne: they sought also to slay Daniel, with his companions.

14 Then Daniel sayed the counsell and decree with Arioch the captayne of the kynges garde, who was gone forth to put to death the wyse men of Babylon. 15 He aunswered and sayde vnto Arioch the kynges captayne, Why is the sentence so hastie from the kyng? Then Arioch tolde Daniel the matter. 16 Vpon this went Daniel, and desyred the kyng that he would geue hym leysure, and that he would shewe the kyng the interpretation. 17 Then Daniel went to his house, and shewed the thing to Ananias, Misael, and Azarias, his companions: 18 That they should beseeche the god of heauen for grace in this secrete, that Daniel and his felowes, with other such as were wyse in Babylon, perysshed not.

19 Then was this secrete reuealed vnto vnto Daniel in a vision by night: then Daniel prayſed the God of heauen.

(e) Pſal. 113. a.

20 Daniel alſo anſwered, and ſayd, The name of God be prayſed for euer and euer: for wiſdome and ſtrength are his. 21 He chaungeth the tymes and ſeaſons, he taketh away kynges, he ſetteth vp kynges: he geueth wiſdome vnto the wiſe, and vnderſtanding to thoſe that vnderſtande.

22 He reueleth the deepe and ſecret thynges, he knoweth the thyng that lyeth in darkneſſe, for the lyght dwelleth with hym. 23 I thanke thee and prayſe thee O thou God of my fathers, that thou haſt geuen me wiſdome and ſtrength, and haſt ſhewed me nowe the thyng that we deſyred of thee: for thou haſt declared the kings matter vnto vs. 24 Vpon this went Daniel in vnto Arioch, whom the kyng had ordeyned to deſtroy the wiſe men at Babylon: he went and ſayde thus vnto hym, Deſtroy not the wyſe men of Babylon, but bring me before the kyng, and I ſhall ſhewe the kyng the interpretation. 25 Then Arioch brought Daniel before the kyng in all the haſte, & ſayd thus vnto him, I haue founde a man among the children of Iuda that were brought captiues, that will declare vnto the kyng the interpretation. 26 Then anſwered the kyng and ſayde to Daniel, whoſe name was Baltaſſar, Art thou able to ſhewe me the dreame which I haue ſeene, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel anſwered in the preſence of the kyng, and ſayde, As for this ſecrete for the whiche the kyng maketh inquiſition, there can neither the men of vnderſtanding, nor ſoothſayers, nor the wiſe men, nor readers of deſtinies declare it vnto the kyng: 28 But there is a (d) God in heauen that reuealeth ſecretes, and ſheweth the kyng Nabuchodonozor what is for to come in the latter dayes. Thy dreame and that whiche thou haſt ſeene in thyne head vpon thy bed is this. 29 O kyng, when thou waſt in thy bed, thoughtes came into thy mynde what ſhoulde come hereafter: ſo he that is the opener of myſteries, telleth thee what is for to come.

(d) Hereby he ſmyteth the kyng with a certayne feare & reuerence of God, that he myght be the more apt to receaue the hie myſteries that ſhoulde be reuealed.

30 As for me, this ſecret is not ſhewed me for any wyſdome that I haue more then any other lyuyng: but only that I might ſhew the kyng the interpretation, and that thou mightest knowe the thoughtes of thyne owne heart. 31 Thou kyng ſaweſt, and beholde, there (was) a great image: this great (e) image whoſe bryghtnes was excellent ſtoode before thee, and the fourme thereof was terrible.

32 This image (f) head was of fine golde, his breſt and armes of ſyluer, his belly and his thyghes of braſſe.

33 His legges were of yron, his feete were part of yron and part of clay.

34 Thou beheldeſt it tyll a ſtone was cut without handes, which ſmote the image vpon his feete that were of yron and clay, and brake them to peeces. 35 Then was the yron, the clay, the braſſe, the ſiluer and golde broken altogether, and became lyke the chaffe of ſommer flowres, and the winde caryed them away, that no place was founde for them: and the ſtone that ſmote the image became a great mountaine, and filled the whole earth.

36 This is the dreame: and now will we ſhew before the kyng what it meaneth. 37 O kyng, thou art a kyng of kynges: for the God of heauen hath geuen vnto thee a kyngdome, power, ſtrength and glorie. 38 And in all places whereſoeuer the children of men dwell, the beaſtes of the feelde, and the foules of the ayre hath he geuen into thy hande, and hath made thee ruler in them all: thou art this (g) head of golde. 39 After thee ſhall aryſe (h) another kyngdome inferiour to thee, and another (i) thirde kyngdome of braſſe, which ſhall beare rule ouer all the earth. 40 The (k) fourth kyngdome ſhalbe ſtrong as yron: for as yron breaketh in peeces and ſubdueth all thynges, and as yron bruiſeth all theſe thinges (ſo) ſhall it breake in peeces and bruiſe (all.) 41 Where as thou ſaweſt the feete and toes part of potters claye and parte of yron, the kingdome ſhalbe (l) diuided, but there ſhalbe in it of the ſtrength of the yron, for ſo muche as thou ſaweſt the yron myxt with the clay and earth.

42 And (as) the toes of the feete (were) part of yron and part of clay: (ſo) ſhall the kyngdome be part ſtrong and part broken. 43 And whereas thou ſaweſt yron myxt with claye and earth, they ſhall mingle them ſelues with the ſeede of men, and yet not ioyne one with another, as yron will not be myxt with clay. 44 And in the dayes of theſe kynges ſhall the God of heauen ſet vp a kingdome which ſhall neuer be deſtroyed, and this kyngdome

kyngdome shall not be genen ouer to another people: but it shall breake and destroy all these kingdomes, and it (m) shall stande for euer. 45 Lyke as thou sawest that (n) without any handes there was cut out of the mount a stone, which brake the iron, the brasse, the clay, the siluer & gold in peeces: so the great god hath shewed the kyng what shall come to passe after this: this is a true dreame, and the interpretation of it is sure.

46 Then the kyng Nabuchodonozor fell downe vpon his face, and bowed him selfe vnto Daniel, and cõmaunded to ordeyne (o) rewardes & sweete odours for him. 47 The kyng aunswered Daniel, and sayde, Of a trueth (p) your God is a God of gods, and the Lorde of kynges, and a reuealer of secretes, seeyng thou couldest reueale this secrete. 48 So the kyng made Daniel a great man, and gaue him many and great giftes: he made him ruler of all the countreys of Babylon, and the chiefe of the rulers about all the wyse men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel made request to the king, and he set Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego ouer the charge of the prouince of Babylon: but Daniel (late) in the kynges gate.

¶ The .iii. Chapter.

1 The kyng setteth vp a golden image, which he commaundeth to be worshipped. 8 Sidrach, Misach, & Abednego are accused, because they despised the kynges commaundement.

NAbuchodonozor the kyng made an image of golde, whiche was threescore cubites hye, and sixe cubites thicke: he set it vp in the plaine of Dura, in the prouince of Babylon. 2 Then Nabuchodonozor the kyng sent foorth to gather together the dukes, lordes, and nobles, the iudges and officers, the deputies, and sheriffes, with al the rulers of the prouinces, that they myght come to the (a) dedication of the image which Nabuchodonozor the king had set vp.

3 So the dukes, lordes, and nobles, the iudges, and officers, deputies, and sheriffes, with all the rulers of the prouince, gathered them together vnto the dedication of the image that Nabuchodonozor the kyng had set vp, and they stoode before the image which Nabuchodonozor had set vp.

4 Then an heralde cryed a loude, To you it is commaunded O people, nations, and languages, 5 That when ye heare the noise of the cornet, trumpet, harpe, shawme, psalteries, dulcimer, and all maner of instrumentes of musicke, ye fall downe and worship that golden image that Nabuchodonozor the kyng hath set vp. 6 Who so then falleth not downe and worshippeth, shal euen the same houre be cast into the midst of a hot firie fornace. 7 Therefore when al the folke heard the noyse of the cornet, trumpet, harpe, shawme, psalteries, and all instrumentes of musicke, then all the people, nations, and languages fell downe and worshipped the golden image that Nabuchodonozor the kyng had set vp. 8 Now were there certaine men of the Chaldees, that went euen then, and (b) cryed out an accusation of the Iewes. 9 They spake, and sayde vnto the king Nabuchodonozor, O kyng, lyue for euer.

10 Thou O king, hast made a decree, that euery man that shall heare the sounde of the cornet, trumpet, harpe, shawme, psalteries, dulcimer, and all instrumentes of musicke, shall fall downe and worship the golden image: 11 And who so then fell not downe, and worshipped not, that he should be cast into the midst of an hot firie fornace. 12 Nowe are there certayne Iewes, whom thou hast set ouer the charge of the prouince of Babylon: (namely) (c) Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego: these men O kyng, regarded not thy commaundement: yea they will not serue thy gods, nor worship the golden image that thou hast set vp. 13 Then Nabuchodonozor in his anger and wrath commaunded that Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego should be brought vnto him: so these men were brought before the kyng.

14 Then Nabuchodonozor spake vnto them, and sayde, Is it true O Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego, will not you serue my gods, nor worship the golden image that I haue set vp? 15 Nowe therefore be redy when ye heare the sounde of the cornet, trumpet, harpe, shawme, psalteries, dulcimer, and all instrumentes of musicke, to fall downe and worship the image which I haue made: for yf ye worship it not, ye shalbe cast immediatly into the midst of a hot feerie furnace: for who is that God that can deliuer you out of my handes?

16 Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego

(m) It shalbe eternall, for the spirite that is in the Churche, is life eternall. Rom. viii. b.

(n) That is, that the kingdome of Christe should be set vp by God, not by men.

(o) To performe his promise made to him that shoulde interprete his dreame, as verse. 6.

(p) This confession was but a sodaine motion, as it was also in Pharao, Exod. 6. c. but his heart was not touched, as appeared soone after warde.

(a) Shewyng that the idol is not knowē for an idoll so long as it is with the workman: but when the ceremonies and customs are recited and vsed, and the consent of the people is there, then of a blocke they thinke they haue made a God.

(b) That is, accused the Iewes with an out crie.

(c) It seemeth that they named not Daniel, because he was greatly in the kinges fauour, thinkyng yt these three had ben destroyed, they might haue better occasion to accuse Daniel after: and this declareth that this pollicie of erecting this image, was inuented by the malitious flatterers, which sought nothing but the destruction of the Iewes, whom they accused of rebellion, & ingratitude.

aunswered the kyng, and sayd, O Nabuchodonozor, we are not (d) carefull to aunswere thee in this matter:

17 Behold our God whom we serue, is (e) able to deliuer vs from the hot firie fornace: and he wyll deliuer vs out of thy hande O kyng. 18 And though he wyll not, yet shalt thou knowe O kyng, that we wyl not serue thy gods, nor worship the golden image whiche thou hast set vp.

19 Then was Nabuchodonozor full of indignation, so that the countenance of his face chaunged vpon Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego: therefore he charged and commaunded that they should heate the fornace, one seuen tymes more then it was wont to be heat, 20 And he charged the most valiaunt men of warre that were in his armie, to binde Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the hot firie fornace. 21 So these men were bound in their coates, hosen, head attire, with their other garmentes, and cast into the midst of the hot firie fornace. 22 Therefore because the kynges commaundement was straite, and the fornace was exceedyng hot, the men that put in Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego, the flambe of the fyre destroyed them.

23 And these three men Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego, fell downe in the midst of the hot firie fornace bounde.

24 Then Nabuchodonozor the kyng was astonied, and rose vp in all haste: he spake vnto his counsell, and sayd, Dyd not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fyre? They aunswered & saide vnto the king, It is true O kyng. 25 He aunswered & sayde, Lo I see foure men lose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they haue no hurt: and the fourme of the fourth is lyke the (f) sonne of God. 26 Vpon this went Nabuchodonozor vnto the mouth of the hot firie fornace, he spake also, and sayde, O Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego, ye seruauntes of the hie God, go foorth, and come hyther. And so Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego came foorth of the midst of the fyre. 27 The dukes, lordes, and nobles, and the kynges counsell came together to see these men, vpon whom the fyre had no maner of power in their bodyes: in so much that the bery heere of their head was not burnt, and their clothes vnchaunged, yea there was no smell of fyre felt vppon them. 28 Then spake Nabuchodonozor, and sayde, Blessed be the God of Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego, which hath sent his angel, and deliuered his seruauntes that put their trust in him, and haue altered the kynges commaundement, and ieoparded their bodyes, rather then they would serue or worship any god, except their owne God only. 29 Therefore I make a decree, that euery people, nation, and language, whiche speake any blasphemie agaynst the God of Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego, shalbe drawen in peeces, and their houses shalbe made a takes: because there is no God that can deliuer after this sort. 30 So the kyng promoted Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego in the prouince of Babylon.

¶ The .iiii. Chapter.

4 Nabuchodonozor dreameth agayne.

NAbuchodonozor kyng, vnto all people, nations, & languages that dwell vpon the (a) whole earth, peace be multiplied among you. 2 I thought it good to shewe the signes and marueylous workes that the hie God hath wrought vppon me. 3 O howe great are his signes, and howe mightie are his wonders? his kyngdome is an (b) euerlasting kyngdome, and his dominion is from generation to generation. 4 I Nabuchodonozor beyng at rest in my house, and flouryshyng in my palace, 5 Sawe a (c) dreame, whiche made me afrayde, and the thoughtes vpon my bed with the visions of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree, that they should bryng all the wyse men of Babylon before me, that they myght declare vnto me the interpretation of the dreame. 7 So came the wise men, the sooth sayers, the Chaldeans, and wysardes, to whom I tolde the dreame; but they could not shewe me the interpretation thereof. 8 Till at the last Daniel came before me (whose name was Baltassar, according to the name of my God) which hath the spirite of the holy gods in him, and before him I tolde the dreame, saying, 9 O Baltassar, thou prince of wyse men, forsomuch as I know that thou hast the spirite of the holy gods, and no secrete troubleth thee: tell me therefore the visions of my dreame that I haue seene, and the interpretation thereof. 10 Thus were the visions of my head vpon my bed: and beholde I sawe a tree in the midst of the earth,

(d) They should haue done iniurie to God, yf they shoulde haue doubted in this holy cause, and therfore they say that they are resolued to dye for gods cause.

(e) They grounde on twopoyntes; fyrst on the power and prouidence of God ouer them: secondly on their cause, which was gods glorie, & the testifiyng of his true religion with their blood, and so make open confession, that they wyl not so much as outwardly consent to idolatrie.

(f) That is, an angell of God, as verse. xxviii.

(a) Meanyng so farre as his dominion extended.

(b) Reade Chap. 2. f.

(c) This was another dreame, beside that which he sawe of the foure empires.

earth, and the heyght thereof was great, 11 A great tree and stroug, and the heyght thereof reached vnto the heauen, and the sight thereof to the endes of al the earth. 12 The leaues therof were fayre, and the fruite therof much, and in it was meate for all: the beastes of the feelde had shadowes vnder it, and the foules of the ayre dwelt in the bowes thereof: all flesche fed of it. 13 I sawe in the visions of my head vpon my bed, and beholde a (d) watcher and a holy one came downe from heauen, 14 And cryed myghtyly, saying thus, Hewe downe the tree, breake of his braunches, shake of his leaues, and scatter his fruite abroade: that the beastes may get them away from vnder hym, and the foules from his braunches.

15 Neuertheleſſe leaue the stumpe of his rootes still in the earth, and with a bande of iron and braſſe (binde it) among the grasse of the feelde, and let it be wet with the deawe of heauen, & let his portion be with the beastes among the grasse of the feelde.

16 Let his heart be (e) chaunged from mans (nature) and let a beastes heart be geuen vnto him, and let seuen tymes be passed ouer him. 17 This sentence (is) accordyng to the (f) decree of the watchers, and the request accordyng to the worde of the holy ones: because lyuing men (houlde knowe that the highest hath power ouer the kyngdome of men, and geueth it to whom it lyketh him, and setteth by ouer it the baſest among men.

18 This is the dreame that I kyng Nabuchodonozor haue seene: therefore thou O Baltaſſar declare the interpretation thereof, for somuch as al the wyse men of my kyngdome are not able to shew me what it meaneth: but thou canst do it, for the spirite of the holy gods is in thee. 19 Then Daniel, whose name was Baltaſſar, held his peace by the space of one houre, and his thoughtes (g) troubled him. So the kyng spake, and sayde, O Baltaſſar, let neither the dreame nor the interpretation thereof trouble thee. Baltaſſar answered, saying, O my Lord, this dreame be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation therof to thyne aduerſaries. 20 As for the tree that thou sawest, whiche was great and mighty, whose heyght reached vnto the heauen, & whose sight therof throughout all the world. 21 Whose leaues were fayre, & the fruite therof much, and in it was meate for all: vnder the which the beastes of the feelde had their habitation, and vpon whose braunches the foules of the ayre dyd sit: 22 It is thou O kyng, which art great and mighty, for thy greatneſſe increaseth and reacheth vnto the heauen, so doth thy dominion to the endes of the earth. 23 But whereas the kyng sawe a watcher, and a holye one that came downe from heauen, and sayde, Hewe downe the tree, and destroy it, yet leaue the stumpe of the rootes thereof in the earth, and with a band of iron and braſſe binde it among the grasse of the feelde, and let it be wet with the deaw of the heauē, & let his portion be with the beastes of the feelde, till (h) seuen times passe ouer him: 24 This O kyng is the interpretation, yea it is the very decree of him that is highest of all, and it toucheth my Lorde the kyng.

25 Thou shalt be cast out from men, and thy dwelling shalbe with the beastes of the feelde: with grasse shalt thou be fed like (i) oxen, thou must be wet with the deawe of the heauen, yea seuen tymes shall passe ouer thee, till thou (k) knowe that the highest hath power ouer the kyngdome of men, & geueth it to whom he liſt. 26 Moreouer, whereas it was sayde that the stumpe of the roote of the tree should be left still: it betokeneth that thy kyngdome shall remayne whole vnto thee, after thou hast learned to know that the power cōmeth from heauen. 27 Wherefore O kyng, let my counsell be acceptable vnto thee, & (l) breake of thy sinnes by righteouſneſſe, and thine iniquities by mercie towarde the poore: lo, let there be a healyng of thyne errour. 28 All these thinges touche the kyng Nabuchodonozor.

29 So after twelue monethes, the kyng walked in the palace of the kingdome of Babylon, 30 And the kyng spake, and sayde, Is not this great Babylon that I haue buylt for the house of the kingdome by the might of my power, & for the honour of my maieſtie? 31 Whyle these wordes were yet in the kinges mouth, there fell a voyce from heauen, saying, O kyng Nabuchodonozor, to thee be it spoke, Thy kingdome is departed frō thee. 32 And thou shalt be cast out of mens cōpany, thy dwellyng shalbe with the beastes of the feeld: so that thou shalt eate

(d) Which was an angel of God.

(e) That is, let him be deprined of naturall reason and mans vnderstanding.

(f) This was the decree of God him selfe as appeareth in the. 24. verse folowyng, but it is called the decree of the watchmen or angels, because they brought it and reuealed it: whiche the holye ones desyre to come to passe, so consentyng to the decree of God, that the proude myght be brought downe, and the humble exalted.

(g) Partlye consydering the great iudgementes of god in the horrible punishment of this great prince: and partly moued with pitie of his cause, whom God had commaunded the Iewes to wish wel to, and pray for as Ier. 29. b.

(h) Whereby he meaneth a long space, as seuen yeres, or seuen quarters of yeres, or seuen monethes; for the interpretation is dyuers.

(i) Not that his shape or fourme was chaunged into a beast: but that he was eyther stricke mad, and so auoyded mans company: or was cast out for his tyrannye, and so wandred among the beastes, and ate heardes and grasse.

(k) Daniel sheweth the cause why God thus punished him.

(l) Ceasse from prouokyng god to anger any longer by thy sinnes: and where thou hast cruelly oppressed many poore, be nowe mercifull vnto them in righteouſneſſe, so shall the errors of thy former lyfe be redressed.

eate graſſe lyke oxen, and ſeuen tymes ſhal paſſe ouer thee, vntil thou knowest that the highest hath power vppon the kyngdome of men, and geueth it vnto whom it pleaſeth him. 33 The very ſame houre was this matter fulfilled vpon Nabuchodonozor, ſo that he was cast out of mens company, and dyd eate graſſe lyke oxen, and his body was wet with the deawe of heauen, till his heeres were growen as Egles (fethers) and his nayles lyke byrdes clawes. 34 When this (n) time was past, I Nabuchodonozor lyft vp myne eyes vnto heauen, and myne vnderſtanding was reſtored vnto me: then gaue I thankes vnto the highest, I magnified and prayſed hym that lyueth for euermore, whoſe power is an euerlaſting power, and his kyngdome is from one generatiō to another. 35 And al they that dwel vpon the earth are to be reputed as nothing, and accordyng to his wyl he worketh in the armie of heauen, & among the inhabitours of the earth: and there is none that may reſiſt his hand, or ſay vnto him, What doeſt thou? 36 At the ſame tyme was myne vnderſtandyng geuen me again, and I was (reſtored) to the honour of my kyngdome, my glorie and my beautie was reſtored vnto me, and my counſellers and (o) princes ſought vnto me, and I was eſtabliſhed in my kyngdome, and my glorie was augmented towarde me. 37 Now therefore I (p) Nabuchodonozor prayſe, and extoll, and magnifie the kyng of heauen, whoſe workes are all trueth, and his wayes iudgement, and thoſe that walke in pride he is able to abaſe.

(n) That is, the ſeuen times or yeres mentioned in the verſes 16. 23. and .25.

(o) By who it ſeemeth he was put from his kyngdome before.

(p) He doth not only prayſe God for his deliuerance, but alſo confeſſeth his fault, that God only may haue the glorye, and man the ſhame, and that he may be exalted, and man caſt downe.

¶ The .v. Chapter.

1 Balthaſar kyng of Babylon, abuſing the veſſels of the temple, ſeeth an hande wryting in the wall. 8 The ſoothſayers called of the king, can not expound the wrytyng.

KIng Balthaſar made a great feaſt to a thouſand of his princes, and dranke wine (a) before the thouſande. 2 And Balthaſar when he had taſted the wine, commaunded to bryng him the golden and ſiluer veſſels, which his father Nabuchodonozor had brought from the temple in Hieruſalem, that the kyng and his princes, and his wyues, and his concubines, myght drynke therein.

3 So were brought the golden veſſels that they had taken out of the temple of the Lordes houſe at Hieruſalem: and the kyng, and his princes, his wyues, and his concubines dranke in them. 4 They dranke wine, and prayſed the gods of golde, ſiluer, braſſe, iron, wood, and ſtone.

5 In the very ſame houre there appeared fingers of a mans hande wrytyng ryght ouer (b) againſt the candelſticke vpon the plaiſter of the wall of the kynges palace, and the kyng ſawe the knockles of the hande that wrote. 6 Then chaunged the kyng his countenaunce, and his thoughtes troubled him, ſo that the ioyntes of his loynes were looſed, and his (c) knees ſmote one againſt the other.

(a) That is, not alone, as commonly he was wont, but in a ſolempne banket, whereunto he receaued all his nobles to accompanye him.

(b) That it myght the better be ſeene.

(c) So he that before contemned God, was moued by this ſight to tremble for feare of gods iudgmentes.

7 Whereforе the kyng cryed mightily, that they ſhoulde bryng the ſoothſayers, Chaldees, and wyſardes: the kyng ſpake alſo to the wyſe men of Babylon, and ſayd, Who ſo can reade this writting, and ſhewe me the interpretation thereof, ſhalbe clothed with purple, and haue a chayne of golde about his neche, and ſhalbe the thirde ruler in the kyngdome. 8 Vppon this came all the kynges wyſe men, but they coulde neither reade the wrytyng, nor ſhewe the kyng the interpretation. 9 Then was kyng Balthaſar greatly troubled, and his countenance was chaunged in him, and his princes were aſtonied. 10 Nowe the (d) queene by reaſon of the talke of the kyng and his princes, came into the banket houſe: and the queene ſpake, and ſayde, O kyng, lyue for euer: let not thy thoughtes trouble thee, and let not thy countenaunce be chaunged. 11 There is a man in thy kingdome that hath the ſpirite of the holy gods within him: and in the dayes of thy father, light, and vnderſtandyng, and wyſdome, like the wyſdome of the gods, was founde in him, whom the kyng Nabuchodonozor thy father, the kyng (I ſay) thy father made chiefe of the (e) wyſe men, ſoothſayers, Chaldeans, & wyſardes, 12 Becauſe that ſuch an aboundaunt ſpirit, knowledge, and vnderſtandyng, to expound dreames, to open ſecretes, and to declare harde doubtes, was founde in him, yea euen in Daniel, whom the kyng named Baltaſſee: let Daniel be called, and he ſhall declare the interpretation. 13 Then was Daniel brought before the king: ſo the kyng ſpake vnto Daniel, and ſaid, Art thou

(d) This ſom thinke was his mother, other, his grandmother; of all lykelyhood a woman of great age, that coulde remember the actes of Daniel.

(e) Reade Chap. 4. b. and this declareth, both that this name was odious vnto him, and alſo that he dyd not vſe theie vile practiſes becauſe he was not among them when all were called, that Daniel, whiche art of the chyldren of the captiuitie of Juda, whom my father the kyng brought out of Jurie? 14 I haue heard of thee, that thou haſt the ſpirite of the holy gods, and that lyght and vnderſtandyng, and excellent wyſdome is founde in thee. 15 Nowe haue there ben brought before me wyſe men and ſoothſayers to reade this wrytyng, and to ſhewe me the interpretation thereof: but they coulde not declare the interpretation of the thing. 16 Then hearde I of thee that thou couldeſt ſhewe interpretations, and diſſolue doubtes: nowe yf thou canſt reade this wrytyng, and ſhewe me the meanyng thereof, thou ſhalt be clothed with purple, and haue a chayne of golde about thy necke, and be the thirde ruler in the kyngdome.

17 Then Daniel aunſwered, & ſayde before the kyng, As for thy rewardes kepe them to thy ſelfe, and geue thy giftes to another: yet I wyll reade the wrytyng vnto the kyng, and ſhewe him the interpretation. 18 O thou kyng, the moſt high god gaue vnto (f) Nabuchodonoſor thy father a kyngdome, and maieſtie, and honour, and glorie. 19 And for the maieſtie that he gaue him, all people, nations, and languages trembled & feared before him: he ſlue whom he woulde, he ſmote whom it pleaſed him: agayne, whom he would he ſet vp, and whom he liſt he put downe. 20 But becauſe his heart was loftie, and his minde ſtrengthened in pride, he was depoſed from his kingly throne, and they toke his glorie from him.

21 He was driuen out from the ſonnes of men, his heart was made lyke the beaſtes, and his dwellyng was with the wylde aſſes, they fedde him with graſſe lyke Oxen, and his body was wet with the deawe of the heauen, til he knewe that the moſt hie God bare rule ouer the kyngdome of men, and that he appoynteth ouer it whom ſo euer he pleaſeth. 22 And thou his ſonne, O "Balthaſar, haſt not ſubmitted thyne heart, though thou kneweſt all theſe thinges: 23 But haſt lyft vp thy ſelfe agaynſt the Lorde of heaue, ſo that the veſſels of his houſe were brought before thee, that thou and thy princes, with thy wyues and concubines, might drynke wine there out: and thou haſt prayſed the gods of ſiluer and golde, of braſſe and iron, of wood & ſtone, whiche neither ſee, heare, nor vnderſtande: as for the God in whoſe hande conſiſteth thy breath and all thy wayes, thou haſt not glorified him. 24 (g) Then was the knockles of the hande ſent from him, and hath written this wrytyng. 25 And this is the writting that he hath written: MENE (h) MENE, THECEL, VPHARSIN. 26 Nowe the interpretation of the thing is this: MENE, God hath numbred thy kyngdome, and brought it to an ende. 27 THECEL, thou art wayed in the balaunce, and art found wanting. 28 PHERES, thy kingdome is diuided, and geuen to the Medes, and Perſes. 29 Then commaunded Balthaſar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and a chaine of golde about his necke, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he ſhoulde be the thirde ruler in the kyngdome. 30 The very ſame nyght was Balthaſar the kyng of the Chaldees ſlayne. 31 And (i) Darius of the Medes toke the kyngdome, being threeſcore and two yeres of age.

¶ The .vi. Chapter.

1 Daniel is made ruler ouer the lordes.

IT pleaſed Darius to ſet ouer his kyngdome a hundred and twentie gouernours, which ſhoulde be ouer the whole kyngdome. 2 Aboue theſe he ſet three princes, of whom Daniel was one, that the gouernours myght geue accomptes vnto them, and the kyng ſhoulde haue no damage.

3 Nowe this Daniel was preferred aboue the princes and gouerners, for the ſpirite (of God) was plenteous in him: ſo that the kyng was mynded to ſet him ouer the whole realme.

4 Wherefore the rulers and gouernours (a) ſought an occaſion agaynſt Daniel concernyng the kyngdome, but they could finde none occaſion nor fault: for he was ſo faythfull, that there was no blame nor fault founde in him. 5 Then ſayd theſe men, We ſhall finde none occaſion agaynſt this Daniel, except we finde it agaynſt hym concernyng the lawe of his god.

6 Vpon this went the princes and lordes together vnto the kyng, and ſayde this vnto him, Kyng Darius, lyue for euer. 7 All the rulers of thy kingdome, the officers & gouernors, the counſellers and dukes, haue conſulted together to make a decree for the kyng, and to eſtabliſhe a ſtature, That who ſo deſireth any petition eyther of any god or man within theſe

(f) Before he read the wrytyng, he declareth to the kyng his great ingratitude towarde god, who could not be moued to geue him the glorie, conſideryng his wonderfull worke towarde his graundfather: and ſo ſheweth that he ſinneth, not of ignorance, but of malice.

" Or, Belſaſar.

(g) After that God had ſo long tyme deferred his anger, and patiently wayted for thyne amendement.

(h) This worde is doubled, not only to exaggerate the certayntie of the matter, but alſo as ſome thinke, the one to ſignifie the ende of the kyng, the other the ende of the kyngdome.

(i) Cyrus his ſonne in lawe gaue him this title of honour, although Cyrus in effect had the dominion.

(a) Thus the wicked can not abyde the graces of God in others, but ſeeke by all occaſions to deface them, therefore agaynſt ſuch aſſaultes ther is no better remedie then to walke vp rightly in the feare of god, and to haue a good conſcience.

thirtie dayes, except of thee O kyng, he shalbe cast into the lions denne.

8 Now O kyng confirme the decree, and seale the wryting, that it be not chaunged, accordyng to the lawe of the Medes and Persians which altereth not. 9 Wherfore kyng Darius sealed the wryting and decree.

10 Nowe when Daniel vnderstoode that he had sealed the wrytyng, he wēt into his house, and the (b) wyndowes of his chamber towarde Hierusalem stoode open, there kneeled he downe vpon his knees three tymes a day, he made his petition, and praysed his God, as he dyd afore tyme. 11 Then these men assembled, and founde Daniel makyng his petition, and prayeng vnto his God. 12 So they came to the kyng, & spake before hym concerning his commaundement, saying, O kyng, hast thou not sealed the decree, that within thirtie dayes who so requireth his petition of any god or man, but only of thy selfe O kyng, he shalbe cast into the denne of lions? The kyng aunswered and sayd, Yea it is true, accordyng to the lawe of the Medes & Perses that altereth not.

13 Then aunswered they, and sayde vnto the kyng, This Daniel which is of the childzen of the captiuitie of Iuda, O kyng, regardeth neither thee, nor thy decree that thou hast sealed: but maketh his petition three tymes a day. 14 When the kyng heard these wordes, he was sore displeased with him selfe, and set his heart on Daniel to deliuer him, and he laboured til the sonne went downe to deliuer hym.

15 Then these men assembled vnto the kyng, and sayde vnto him, Knowe this O kyng that the lawe of the Medes and Perses (is) that the cōmaundement and statute whiche the king maketh may not be (c) altered.

16 Then the kyng commaunded, and they brought Daniel, and they cast hym into the lions denne. Nowe the kyng spake vnto Daniel, and sayde, Thy God whom thou alway seruest, euen he wyll deliuer thee. 17 And there was brought a stone, and layde vpon the mouth of the denne, this the king sealed with his owne ring, and with the signet of his princes, that the purpose concernyng Daniel shoulde not be chaunged. 18 So the king went into his palace, and remained fasting, neither was there any instrumentes of musicke brought in before him, & his sleepe went from him.

19 But betimes in the mornyng at the breake of the day the kyng arose, and went in all haste vnto the denne of the lions. 20 Nowe as he came nye vnto the denne, he cryed with a pitcous voyce vnto Daniel, yea the kyng spake and sayde vnto Daniel, O Daniel, thou seruaunt of the lyuyng God, is not thy God whom thou seruest alway able to deliuer thee from the lions? 21 Then Daniel sayd vnto the king, O kyng lyue for euer.

22 My god hath sent his angel, whiche hath shut the lions mouthes, so that they myght not hurt me, for myne (d) vngiltinesse is found out before him: and as for thee O kyng, I neuer (e) offended thee. 23 Then was the kyng exceedyng glad for him, and commaunded to take Daniel out of the denne: so Daniel was brought out of the denne, & no maner of hurt was founde vpon him, for he (f) put his trust in his God. 24 And as for those men which had accused Daniel, the king commaunded to bring them, and to cast them into the lions denne, them, their childzen, and their wiues: so the lions had the maistrie of them, and brake all their bones asunder or euer they came at the grounde of the denne. 25 After this wrote king Darius vnto all people, nations, and tongues that dwelt in all landes, Peace be multiplied vnto you.

26 My commaundement is in al my dominion and kyngdome, that men feare and stande in awe of Daniels God: for he is the liuing God which abideth euer, his kyngdome shall not fayle, and his power is euerlasting.

27 It is he that deliuereth & saueth, he doth wonders and maruaylous workes in heauen & in earth, he hath preserued Daniel from the power of the lions. 28 So this Daniel prospered in the raigne of Darius, and in the raigne of Cyrus of Persia.

¶ The .vii. Chapter.

1 A vision of foure beastes is shewed vnto Daniel.

IN the first yere of Balthasar kyng of Babylon, sawe Daniel a dreame, and there were visions in his head vpō his bed: which dreame he wrote, and declared the summe of the matter, 2 Daniel spake and sayde, I saw in my vision by nyght, and behold the foure (a) windes of heauen stroue vpon the great sea, 3 And foure great beastes came vp from the sea, one diuers from another. 4 The first was as a

(b) Because he woulde not by his sylence shew that he consented to this wicked decree, he set open his windowes towarde Hierusalem whē he prayed, both to stirre vp him selfe with the remēbraunce of gods promises to his people when they should pray towarde the temple: and also that others might see that he would neuer consent in heart nor deede, for these fewe dayes, to any thing contrary to gods glorie.

(c) Thus the wicked maintayners lawes by constancie and auctoritie, whiche is oft tymes eyther lightnes or stubbernes, when as the innocentes thereby perishe: and therfore gouernours ought neyther to feare, nor be ashamed to breake such,

(d) Myne vprightnes in this thing wherein I was charged, was approued of God,

(e) For he dyd disobeye the kynges wicked commaundement to obey God, and so dyd no iniurie to the kyng, who ought to cōmande nothing whereby god shoulde be dishonoured

(f) Because he committed him selfe wholy vnto God, whose cause he dyd defende: he was assured that nothing but good coulde come vnto hym, wherein we see the power of faith, as Heb. xi.

(a) Which signified, that there should be horrible troubles and afflictions in the world in all quarters.

as a(b) lion, & had Egles winges: I beheld til his winges were pluckt frō him, & he lifted vp from the earth, & set vpon his feete like a man, & there was geuen hym a mans heart.

5 Behold an other beast (which was) the seconde, was like a (c) beare, and stoode vpon the one side: bewixt his teeth in his mouth he had three ribs, & it was sayde vnto him thus, Aryse, eate vp much flesche. 6 Thē I loked, and beholde there was another lyke vnto a (d) leopard, this had winges as a fowle, euen (e) foure vpon the backe: this beast had foure heades, & there was power geuen him. 7 After this I sawe in a vision by nyght, & behold the fourth beast was (f) grim & horrible, and marueylous strong: it had great iron teeth, it deuoured & destroyed, and stamped the residue vnder his feete, it was vnlike the other beastes that were before it, for it had (g) ten hornes. 8 As I consydered the hornes, beholde there came vp among them another litle horne, before whom there were three of the first hornes pluckt away: and behold this horne had eyes lyke the eyes of a man, & a mouth speaking presumptuous thinges. 9 I beheld tyll the thrones were set vp, and the auncient of dayes dyd sit: whose garment was white as snowe, and the heeres of his head lyke the pure woolle: his throne was lyke the fyrie flambe, and his wheeles as burning fire.

10 There issued fooryth a fyrie streame, & went out from before him: a thousand thousandes ministred vnto him, & ten thousand thousandes stoode before him: the iudgement was set, and the bookes opened. 11 Then take I heede thereunto, because of the voyce of the proude wordes which the horne spake: I beheld tyll the beast was slaine, & his body destroyed, and geuē to be brent in the fire. 12 As concerning the other beastes, they had their dominion taken away, but their liues were prolonged for a certayne tyme and season. 13 I sawe in visions by nyght, and behold there came one in the cloudes of heauen lyke the sonne of man, whiche went vnto the auncient of dayes, before whom they brought him. 14 And he gaue him dominion & honour, and a kingdome, that all people, nations, and languages shoulde serue him: his dominion is an euerlasting dominion which shall neuer be taken away, and his kyngdome shall neuer be destroyed. 15 I Daniel was troubled in my spirite in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head made me afrayde. 16 I gate me vnto (h) one of them that stoode by, and asked him the trueth concernyng all these thinges: so he tolde me, and made me vnderstande the interpretation of these thinges.

17 These great beastes whiche are foure, are foure kinges which shall arise out of the earth: 18 But the (i) high saintes shall receaue a kingdome, & possesse a kingdome for euer, euen for euer & euer. 19 After this, I required to knowe the trueth concernyng the fourth beast, whiche was so vnlyke the other beastes, and so horrible, whose teeth were of iron, & his nayles of brasse, which deuoured and destroyed, & stamped the residue vnder his feete: 20 (I desired) also (to know the trueth) as touching the ten hornes that he had vpon his head, and this other whiche came vp afterwarde, before whose face there feldowne three, whiche horne had eyes, and a mouth that spake presumptuous thinges, & loked with a grimmer visage then his (k) felowes. 21 I beheld, and the same horne made battayle agaynst the saintes, yea & prevailed agaynst thē. 22 Vntil the (l) auncient of dayes came that the iudgement was geuen to the high saintes, and till the tyme came that the saintes had the kyngdome in possession. 23 Ye gaue me this answere, That fourth beast shall be the fourth kyngdome vpon earth, it shalbe vnlike to al the kingdomes: it shall deuour, treade downe, and destroy all other landes. 24 The ten hornes, are ten kinges that shall aryse out of that kingdome: after whō there shall stande vp another, whiche shalbe vnlyke to the first, and he shall subdue three kinges: 25 And he shal speake wordes agaynst the highest of all, he shall destroy the high saintes, & thinke that he may chaunge times & lawes: they shalbe geuen into his hande vntyll a tyme, and tymes, and the dividyng of a tyme. 26 But the iudgement shal sit, & they shal take away his dominion, to consume and destroye it vnto the ende. 27 And the kyngdome and dominion, and the greatnes of the kyngdome vnder the whole heauen, shalbe geuen to the (m) people of high saintes, whose kyngdome is an euerlasting kingdome, and al power shall serue and obey it.

(b) The beasties are kynges, kyngdomes, or monarchies. By the lion, the kingdom of Babylon is vnderstanded, which speedyly vanquyshed the nations adioynyng: but after his wynges were plucke and his kyngdome taken away, he returned to the condition of a man, and no lion.

¶ The .viii. Chapter.

1 A vision of a strife betweene a ramme and a hee goate.

IN the thirde yere of the raigne of kyng Balthasar, there appeared a vision vnto me (euen) vnto me Daniel, (a) after that which I had seene in the beginnyng. 2 I sawe in a vision (& when I sawe it, I was in the palace of Susis, which is in the prouince of (b) Elam) and in the vision me thought I was by the riuer of Vlai. 3 Then I loked vp and sawe, and beholde there stoode before the riuer a (c) ramme whiche had two hornes: and these two hornes were hye, but (d) one was hyer then the other, and the hyest came vp last. 4 I sawe that this ramme pushed with his hornes against the west, against the north, and against the south: so that no (e) beastes myght stande before him, nor defende them from his power, but he dyd as hym lysted, and became great. 5 And as I considered, behold there came a hee (f) goate from the west, ouer the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and this goate had a (g) horne appeared betwixt his eyes. 6 And he came vnto the ramme that had the two hornes (whom I had seene standyng by the riuer) and ranne fiercelye vpon him with his myght. 7 And I sawe him drawe nie vnto the ramme, beyng very fierce vpon hym, yea he (h) smote the ramme and brake his two hornes, neither had the ramme so much strength as to stande before hym: but he cast him downe to the grounde, trode him vnder his feete, and there was none able to deliuer the ramme out of his power.

8 Therefore the goate waxed exceedyng great, and when he was at the strongest, his great horne was broken: then grew there other foure notable ones in the steade of it, toward the foure windes of the heauen.

9 And out of one of them came foorth a litle horne, which waxed very great toward the south, towarde the east, & toward the pleasant land. 10 (i) It grewe vp vnto the hoast of heauen, whereof it dyd cast some downe to the grounde, and of the starres also, & trode them vnder foote. 11 Yea it grewe vp against the (k) prince of the hoast, from whom the dayly (sacrifice) was taken away, and the places of his sanctuarie cast downe. 12 And power was geuen vnto it ouer the dayly (sacrifice) for the iniquitie, and it shall (l) cast downe the trueth to the grounde: and thus shall it do, and prosper. 13 Vpon this I heard one of the (m) saintes speakyng, and one of the (m) saintes spake vnto (n) Palmoni, saying, How long shall the vision of the dayly (sacrifice) and of the iniquitie of desolation (endure,) to geue both the sanctuarie & the power to be troden vnder foote? 14 And he aunswered me, Vnto the (o) euenyng and the mornyng, two thousand and three hundred: then shall the sanctuarie be cleansed. 15 Nowe when I Daniel had seene this vision, and sought for the vnderstandyng of it: beholde there stoode before me (p) lyke the similitude of a man. 16 And I heard a mans voyce (q) betweene Vlai, whiche cryed, and sayde, O Gabriel (r) make this man vnderstande the vision. 17 So he came & stoode by me: but I was afrayde at his commyng, and fell downe vppon my face: then sayde he vnto me, Vnderstande O thou sonne of man: for at the (s) tyme of the ende this vision (shalbe.) 18 Nowe as he was speakyng vnto me, I fell in a slumber vppon my face to the grounde: but he touched me, and set me vp in my place. 19 And he sayde, Beholde I wyll shewe thee what shalbe in the last wrath: for in the tyme appoynted it shalbe fulfilled. 20 The ramme whiche thou sawest hauing two hornes, is the king of the Medes and Perses, 21 And the goate is the kyng of Grecia: and the great horne that is betwixt his eyes, that is the first kyng. 22 But where as it brake, and foure other rose vp in the steade: (it signifieth) that out of this people shall stande vp foure kyngdomes, but not so mightie as it.

23 And in the ende of their kyngdome, when the wicked are come to the full, a kyng of a (t) fierce countenance, and vnderstandyng harde sentences, shall stande vp. 24 His power shalbe mightie, but not in (u) his strength, and he shall destroye wonderfully

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1 Daniel desireth to haue that perfourmed of god, which he hath promised concernyng the returne of the people from their banishment in Babylon.
26 The death of Christe.

IN the first yere of Darius the sonne of (a) Ahasuerus, which was of the seede of the Medes, and was made king ouer the (b) realme of the Chaldees, 2 Euen in the first yere of his raigne, I Daniel vnderstoode by (c) bookes the number of the yeres, whereof the Lorde spake vnto Jeremie the prophete, that he woulde accomplishe seuentie yeres in the desolation of Hierusalem. 3 And I turned my face vnto the Lord God, and sought by prayer & supplication, with fastyng, sackcloth, and ashes.

4 I prayed vnto the Lorde my God, and made my confession, saying, O Lorde God, great and fearefull, which kepeth couenaunt and mercie with them that loue " him, and kepe his commaundementes: 5 We haue sinned and haue committed iniquitie, and haue done wickedly, yea we haue rebelled, and haue departed from thy preceptes, and from thy iudgements. 6 We would not obey thy seruauntes the prophetes, that spake in thy name to our kinges & princes, to our forefathers, and to all the people of the lande. 7 O Lorde, righteousnesse belongeth vnto thee, vnto vs open shame, as is come to passe this day vnto euery man of Juda, and to them that dwel at Hierusalem, yea vnto all Israel, whether they be farre or nye, throughout all the landes whyther thou hast driuen them, because of their offences that they haue done agaynst thee. 8 Yea O Lorde, vnto vs, to our kinges and princes, to our forefathers that haue offended thee, belongeth open shame. 9 Vnto the Lord our God pertayneth compassion & forgeuenes, though we haue rebelled agaynst him. 10 And we haue not obeyed the (d) voyce of the Lorde our God, to walke in his lawes which he layde before vs, by the hande of his seruauntes the prophetes. 11 Yea all Israel haue transgressed and gone backe from thy lawe, so that they haue not hearkened vnto thy voyce: wherfore the (e) curse and oth that is written in the lawe of Moyses the seruaunt of God, agaynst whom we haue offended, is powred vpon vs. 12 And he hath confirmed his wordes, which he spake agaynst vs and agaynst our iudges that iudged vs, to bryng vpon vs such a great plague as neuer was vnder heauen, lyke as it is now come to passe in Hierusalem. 13 Yea all this plague as it is written in the lawe of Moyses, is come vpon vs: yet made we not our prayers before the Lorde our God, that we myght turne agayne from our wickednesse, and vnderstande thy trueth. 14 Therfore hath the Lorde watched vpon the plague, and brought it vpon vs: for the Lorde our God is righteous in all his workes which he doth: for we would not hearken vnto his voyce.

15 And nowe O Lorde our God, thou that with a mightie hand hast brought thy people out of the lande of Egypte to get thy selfe a name, which remayneth this day, we haue sinned, we haue done wickedly. 16 O Lorde, according to all thy (f) righteousnes, I beseche thee let thine anger & thy wrath be turned away from thy citie of Hierusalem, thy holy hyll: for because of our sinnes, and for the wickednesse of our fathers, Hierusalem and thy people are a reproche to all them that are about vs. 17 Nowe therfore O our god heare the prayer of thy seruaunt, and his intercession: O let thy face (g) shine ouer thy sanctuarie that lyeth waste, for the (h) Lordes sake. 18 O my God, encline thine eare & hearken, open thine eyes, beholde howe we be desolated, yea and the citie also which is called after thy name: for we do not presente our prayers before thee in our owne

25 Knowe therfore and vnderstande, that from the goyng forth of the commaundement, to bring agayne the (people) and to builde Hierusalem, vnto Messiah the prince, there shalbe seuen weekes and threescore and two weekes: and the streete shalbe built agayne, & the wall, (euen) in the straytnesse of tyme. 26 After these threescore and two weekes shall Messiah be slayne, and not for him selfe: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the citie and the sanctuarie, and the ende therof shalbe with a flood, and vnto the ende of the battell it shalbe destroyed by desolations. 27 He shall confirme the couenaunt with many for one weeke, and in the midst of the weeke he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to ceasse, and for the ouerspreadyng of the abominations, he shall make it desolate, (euen) vntyll the consummation determined shalbe powred vpon the desolate.

¶ The. x. Chapter.

1 There appeareth vnto Daniel a man clothed in linnen. 11 Which sheweth him wherfore he was sent.

IN the (a) thirde yere of Cyrus king of Persia, there was shewed vnto Daniel, otherwyse called Baltassar, a matter, yea a true matter, but it is yet a long tyme vnto it: he vnderstoode the matter, and perceaued what the vision was. 2 At the same tyme I Daniel mourned for the space of three weekes of dayes. 3 I ate no pleasaunt bread, as for flesche & wine there came none within my mouth: no, I dyd not once annoynt my selfe tyll the whole three weekes of dayes were fulfylled. 4 Vpon the foure and twentith day of the first moneth, I was by the syde of that great riuer, (euen) Hiddekel. 5 I lyft vp myne eyes, and loked: and beholde a man clothed in linnen, whose loynes were gyrded vp with fine golde of Vphaz.

6 His body was lyke the Thurkis stone, his face to loke vpon was lyke lyghtnyng, his eyes as lampes of fire, his armes and feete were lyke in coulour to pullished braſſe, and the voyce of his wordes was lyke the voyce of a multitude. 7 And I Daniel alone sawe this vision, for the men that were with me sawe not the vision: but a great fearefulnes fell vpon them, so that they fled away and hyd them selues. 8 Therfore I was left alone, and sawe this great vision, & there remayned no strength in me: for my colour was turned in me into corruption, & I reteyned no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voyce of his wordes: and when I heard the voyce of his wordes, I fell astonied vpon my face, and my face toward the earth. 10 And behold a hande touched me, which set me vp vpon my knees, and vpon the paulmes of my handes.

11 And he sayde vnto me, O Daniel, thou welbeloued man, take good heede to the wordes that I say vnto thee, and stande in thy place: for vnto thee am I nowe sent. And when he had sayde these wordes vnto me, I stoode vp tremblyng. 12 Then sayde he vnto me, Feare not Daniel: for since the first day that thou dydst set thyne heart to vnderstande, and to chasten thy selfe before thy God, thy wordes were hearde, and I am come for thy wordes. 13 But the (b) prince of

of the kingdome of Persia with stoode me one and twentie dayes: but lo, Michael one of the cheefe princes came to helpe me, and I remayned there by the kinges of Persia. 14 And I am come to shewe thee what shall come vnto thy people in the latter dayes: for it wyll be long yet or the vision be fulfylled. 15 Nowe when he had spoken these wordes vnto me, I cast downe my head to the grounde, and held my tongue. 16 And behold there touched my lippes one very like vnto a man: then opened I my mouth and spake, and sayde vnto him that stoode before me, O my Lorde, by the vision my * ioyntes are turned out of (their) place, and I haue reteyned no strength. 17 For howe can the seruaunt of this my Lorde talke with my Lorde (beyng) such a one? And as for me, strayghtway there remayned no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me. 18 Then there came agayne and touched me one lyke the appearaunce of a man, and he strengthened me: 19 And sayde, O man greatly beloued, feare not, peace be vnto thee, be strong and of good courage. So when he had spoken vnto me, I was strengthened, and sayde, Speake on my Lorde: for thou hast strenthened me. 20 Thus sayde he, knowest thou wherefore I am come vnto thee? nowe wyll I returne to fyght with the prince of the Perses: alloone as I go foorth, lo the (c) prince of Grecke lande shal come. 21 Neuertheles I wyll shewe thee that that is noted in the scripture of trueth: and there is none that helpeth me in these thynges, but (d) Michael your prince.

¶ The.xi. Chapter.

1 A prophecie of the kinges of Persia. 3 Of the kingdome of Grece, 5 Of the kingdome of Egypt, and of the bonde therof. 15 Of the battell with the kingdome of Syria.

AND in the first yere of Darius of Media (a) I stoode to comfort him and to strength him. 2 And nowe wyll I shewe thee the trueth: beholde there shall stande vp yet three kinges in Persia, but the fourth shall be farre richer then they all: and by his strength and by his richesse he shall stirre vp all agaynst the realme of Grecke lande. 3 Then shall there aryse yet a mightie king, that shall rule with great dominion, and do what him list. 4 And when he shall stande vp, his kingdome shalbe (b) broken, and shalbe diuided towarde the foure windes of the heauen, and not towarde his posteritie, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdome shalbe pluckt vp, euen for others beside these.

5 And the (c) king of the south shall be mightie, and (d) (one) of his princes, and he shall preuayle agaynst him, and beare rule: his dominion shalbe a great dominion. 6 And in the ende of yeres, they shalbe ioyned together, and the kinges (e) daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north for to make agreement, but she shall not reteyne the power of the (f) arme, neither shall he continue nor his arme: but she shalbe deliuered (to death) and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that comforted her in these tymes. 7 But out of the bud of her rootes shall one stande vp in his steede, which shall come with an armie, and shall enter into the fortresse of the king of the north, and do with them (as he list) and shall preuayle. 8 And shall also cary captiues into Egypt their gods, with their molten images, with their precious vessels of siluer and of gold, and he shall continue more yeres then the king of the north. 9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdome, and shall returne into his owne lande. 10 Wherefore his sonnes shalbe stirred vp, and shall gather together a mightie great hoast of people, and one shall come and ouerflowe and passe through: then shall he turne agayne & be stirred vp at his fortresse. 11 Then the king of the south shalbe angrie, & shall come foorth to fyght with him, (euen) with the king of the north: for he shall set foorth a great multitude, and the multitude shalbe geuen into his hande.

12 The the multitude shalbe pronde, and their heartes shalbe lifted vp, for he shall cast downe thousandes: but he shall not styll preuayle. 13 For the king of the north shall returne, and shall set foorth a greater multitude then afore, and shall come foorth (after certayne yeres) with a mightie armie and great riches. 14 And at the same tyme there shall many stande vp agaynst the king of the south,

22 And the armes shalbe ouerflowed with a flood before him, and shalbe broken, and also the prince of the couenaunt. 23 And after the league made with him, he shall worke deceiptfully: for he shall come vp, and ouercome with a small people.

24 He shall enter into the quiet and plentifull prouince, and he shall do that which his fathers haue not done, nor his fathers fathers: he shal diuide among them the pray, and the spoyle, and the substaunce, yea and he shall forecast his deuices agaynst the strong holdes (euen) for a tyme.

25 Also his power and heart shall he stirre vp with a great armie agaynst the king of the south, the king of the south shalbe moued vnto battell with a great and a mightie hoast also: nevertheless he shall not stande, for they shall forecast deuices agaynst him. 26 Yea (m) they that feede of the portion of his meate shall destroy him, and his armie shal (n) ouerflowe, and many shall fall and be slayne.

27 These two kinges heartes shalbe to do (o) mischeefe, and they shal talke of deceipt at one table, but it shall not prosper, for yet the ende shalbe at the tyme appoynted. 28 Then shall he go home agayne into his lande with great (p) substaunce, and set his heart agaynst the holy couenaunt, so shall he do, and returne to his owne lande.

29 At the tyme appoynted he shall come agayne, and go towarde the south: but the last shall not be as the first. 30 For the shippes of (q) Chethim shall come agaynst him, therfore he shalbe sory, and returne, and fret agaynst the holy couenaunt: so shall he do, he shall (euen) returne and haue intelligence with them that forsake the holy couenaunt. 31 And armes shall stande on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuarie of strength, and shall take away the daylye (sacrifice) and they shall set vp the abominable desolation. 32 And such as wickedly breake the couenaunt, shall he cause to sinne by flatterie: but the people that knowe their God, shall prevayle and prosper. 33 Those also that haue vnderstanding among the people, shall enfourme the multitude, and for a long season they shall fall with the swoorde, with fire, with captiuitie, and with the taking away of their goodes. 34 Nowe when they shal fall, they shalbe holpe with a litle helpe, but many shall cleaue vnto them faynedly. 35 Yea some of those that haue vnderstanding shal fall, that they may be tryed, purified, & made whyte, tyll the tyme be out: for there is a time appoynted.

36 And a king shall do what him list, he shall exalt and magnifie him selfe against al that is god, yea he shal speake marueylous thynges agaynst the God of Gods, and he shall prosper tyll the wrath be fulfylled: for the determination is made. 37 He shall not regarde the God of his fathers, nor the desires of women, yea he shall not care for any god: for he shall magnifie him selfe aboue all. 38 But in his place shall he honour the god Mauzzim, and the god whom his fathers knewe not shall he honour with golde and siluer, with precious stones, and pleasaunt thynges.

(m) Signifiyng Philometers princes & cheefe about him. (n) Antochus shall vanquish the Egyptians, (o) The vncle & nephewe shall take truice and banket together, yet in their heartes they shall imagine mischeefe one agaynst another. (p) Which Philometor shal take of the Iewes in spoylyng Hierusalem and the temple, and this is tolde them before, to moue them to patience, knowyng all thinges are done by gods prouidence. (q) That is, the Romane power shall come against him: for Publius Popilius ambassadour appoynted him to depart in the Romanes name, which thing he obeyed though with greefe: and to reuenge his rage, he came against the people of god the seconde tyme.

39 Thus shall he do in the holdes of Mauzzim with a straunge god whom he shall acknowledge, he shal encrease his glorie, and shal cause them to rule ouer many, and shall diuide the lande for gayne. 40 And at the ende of tyme shall the king of the (aa) south pushe at him, & the king of the north shall come agaynst him lyke a whirlewynde, with chariets, horsmen, and with many shippes: he shall enter into the countreis, and shall ouerflowe and passe through. 41 He shall enter also into the pleasaunt lande, & many countreis shalbe ouerthrowen: but these shall escape out of his hande, (euen) Edom & Moab, and the cheefe of the children of Ammon. 42 He shall stretch foorth his hande also vpon the countreis, and the lande of Egypt shall not escape. 43 But he shal haue power ouer the treasures of golde and of siluer, and ouer all the pretious thynges of Egypt, and of the Libyans and Ethiopians in his passyng (by them.) 44 Neuertheless the tydynges out of the east (bb) and the north shall trouble him, therefore he shal (cc) go foorth with great wrath, to destroy and roote out many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his pallace betweene the seas, in the glorious and holy mountayne: yet he shall come to his ende, and none shall helpe him.

(aa) That is, both the Egyptians and the Syrians shall at length fyght against the Romanes, but they shalbe ouercome.

(bb) When he shal heare that Crassus is slayne, and Antonius discomfited.

(cc) For Augustus ouertame the Parthians, and recouered that which Antonius had lost.

¶ The. xii. Chapter.

2 He prophecieth the resurrection of the dead. 9 The darknesse of the prophecie of Daniel.

AND at that tyme shall (a) Michael stande vp, the great prince, which standeth for the children of thy people: for there shalbe a tyme of trouble, such as neuer was since there began to be a nation, vnto that same tyme: and at that tyme thy people shalbe deliuered euery one that shalbe founde written in the booke.

2 And many of them that sleepe in the dust of the earth, shall (b) awake, some to euerlastyng lyfe, and some to shame and perpetuall contempt.

3 They that be (c) wyse, shall shine as the bryghtnesse of the firmament: and they that (d) turne many to vprightousnesse, as the starres for euer and euer. 4 But thou O Daniel shut vp the wordes, and seale the booke tyll the tyme of the ende: many shall (e) go about here and there, and knowledge shalbe encreased. 5 Then I Daniel loked, and beholde there stoode other two, the one on this side of the banke of the (f) riuer, and the other on that syde of the banke of the riuer.

6 And (one) sayde vnto the man clothed in linnen, which was ouer the waters of the riuer, When shall the ende of these wonders be? 7 And I hearde the man clothed in linnen, which was ouer the waters of the riuer, when he helde vp his ryght (g) hande and his left hande vnto heauen, and sware by him that liueth for euer, that (it shall tary) for a (h) tyme, tymes, and a halfe: and when he shall haue accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these thynges shalbe finished. 8 Then I hearde it, but I vnderstoode it not: then sayde I, O my Lorde, what shall be the ende of these thynges? 9 And he sayde, Go thy way Daniel, for the wordes are closed vp and sealed tyll the tyme of the ende. 10 Many shalbe purified, made whyte, and tryed: but the wicked shall do wickedly, and none of the wicked shall haue vnderstandyng, but the wyse shall vnderstande.

11 And from the tyme that the (i) daylye (sacrifice) shalbe taken away, and the abominable desolation set vp, there shalbe a (k) thousande two hundred, and ninetie dayes. 12 Blessed is he that wayteth and commeth to the thousande, three hundred, and fiue and thirtie dayes. 13 But go thou thy way tyll the ende be, for thou shalt rest, and stande vp in thy lot at the ende of the dayes.

(a) The angel here noteth two things: first that the Church shal be in great affliction and trouble at Christes commyng, & next, that God wyll sende his angel to declare it, whom here he calleth Michael. (b) Meanyng all shall rise at the generall resurrection, which here he mentioneth, that the faithfull may euer haue respect vnto it, for in earth shall they fynde no comfort.

(c) Or such as teache & instruct others, or such as haue kept the feare of god and his religion.

(d) He cheefly meaneth the ministers of Gods worde, and next, all the faithful which instruct the ignoraunt, and bryng them to the true knowledge of god.

(e) Not wandring as vacabounds, but to search for knowledge of God.

(f) Which was Tygris, in Hebrue Hiddekel, as Ezch. 10. a

(g) Which was a double othe, and did the more confirme the thyng.

(h) Whereby the angel declareth rather that which pertayneth to the comfort of the elect, that these afflictions shoulde once haue a certayne ende, then that the tyme therof should be certaynly knowen, as a thyng not expedient for creatures to knowe. Act. 1. a.

(i) From the tyme that Christ by his sacrifice shal take away the sacrifice and ceremonies of the lawe, and the destruction of the temple & citie, which is meant here by the abominable desolation.

(k) Signifiyng that the tyme shalbe long, and yet the children of god ought not to be discouraged though it be deferred.

¶ The ende of the prophecie of Daniel.

(h) That is, the Egyptians with their captayne Scopas, were not able to withstande Antiochus.

(i) He sheweth that he shal not only afflict the Egyptians, but also the Iewes, and shall enter into their countrey, wherof he admonisheth them before, that they maye knowe that all these thinges come by gods prouidence.

(k) Antiochus maryed his daughter Cleopatra to Ptolomeus Epiphanes, therby the rather to ouercome him: but she fauoured her husband, and obeyed not the subtile practises of her father.

(l) The Iewes maner was to call al coūtreis, iles, that were diuided from them by the sea: yet Antiochus inuaded some that were iles indeede, as Euboca, Rhoda, Samos, Cipr[illegible] and at length conducted his armie into Grecia.

south, so that the seditious children of the people also shall exalt themselues to establishe the vision, but they shal fall. 15 So the king of the north shall come and cast vp a mount, and take the strong cities: and the(h) armes of the south shal not resist, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstande.

16 And when he commeth, he shall handle him as he list, and no man shal stande agaynst him: he shall stande in the pleasaunt(i) lande, which by his hande shalbe consumed. 17 Agayne, he shall set his face to enter with the power of his whole kingdome, and his confederates with him, thus shal he do: and he shall geue him the(k) daughter of women to destroy her, but she shall not stande (on his syde) neither be for him. 18 After this shall he turne his face vnto the(l) iles, and shall take many: but a prince shal cause his shame to lyght vpon him, besyde that, he shall cause his owne shame to turne vpon him selfe.

19 For he shall turne his face toward the fortes of his owne lande: but he shalbe ouerthrowen and fall, and be no more founde. 20 Then shal stand vp in his place a rayser of taxes (in) the glorie of the kingdome, and after a fewe dayes he shalbe destroyed, neither in wrath nor in battell. 21 In his stede there shall stande vp a vyle person, to whom they shall not geue the honour of the kingdome: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtayne the kingdome with flatteries.

22 And the armes shalbe ouerflowed with a flood before him, and shalbe broken, and also the prince of the couenaunt. 23 And after the league made with him, he shall worke deceitfully: for he shall come vp, and ouercome with a small people.

29 At the tyme appoynted he shall come agayne, and go towarde the south: but the last shall not be as the first. 30 For the shippes of(q) Chithim shall come agaynst him, therfore he shalbe sorie, and returne, and fret agaynst the holy couenaunt: so shall he do, he shall (euen) returne and haue intelligence with them that forsake the holy couenaunt. 31 And armes shall stande on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuarie of strength, and shall take away the daylye (sacrifice) and they shall set vp the abominable desolation. 32 And such as wickedly breake the couenaunt, shall he cause to sinne by flatterie: but the people that knowe their God, shall preuayle and prosper. 33 Those also that haue vnderstandyng among the people, shall enfourme the multitude, and for a long season they shall fall with the swoorde, with fire, with captiuitie, and with the taking away of their goodes. 34 Nowe when they shal fall, they shalbe holpe with a litle helpe, but many shall cleaue vnto them faynedly. 35 Yea some of those that haue vnderstanding shal fall, that they may be tryed, purified, & made whyte, tyll the tyme be out: for there is a time appoynted.
